One of the teams he worked with during his time at Asheville was the Bulldog baseball program.

Head Coach Jim Toman
Record at Liberty:136-84-1 (.618) (Fourth Year)
Career Record: Same

After leading his team to a school-record 42 victories in 2010, Jim Toman enters his fourth year at Liberty with the best mark of any Flames head coach over his first three years.

Since taking over the program for the 2008 season, Liberty has won 35 or more games twice and last season posted only the second 40-win campaign in the 37-year history of the program. The Flames notched a 110-66-1 record during his first three seasons on Liberty Mountain.

On May 2, 2010, Toman recorded his 100th career victory, as the Flames defeated Gardner-Webb, 10-7, at Worthington Stadium. The sixth coach in program history, Toman became the fastest Liberty baseball head coach to amass the milestone, passing first coach Al Worthington, by reaching his 100th win in 160 games, six fewer than Worthington.

The impressive strides made by the program have not gone unnoticed. This past November, Rivals.com cited Liberty as one being one of college baseball's top 10 rising programs.

Last season, the Flames had their best season under Toman, posting a school record for wins in a single season with a 42-19 record. The team's ledger was boosted by a 21-8 road mark, the nation's 10th-best road record in 2010.

In addition, Liberty recorded a 19-7 mark in Big South play, eclipsing its record of the previous season for most victories by the school since joining the conference in 1992. The Flames finished second in the league's regular season and were conference runner-up at the Big South Baseball Championship.

Pitcher Shawn Teufel became the fourth player from one of Toman's Liberty squads to be taken in the MLB Draft. The two-time Big South all-conference first team pitcher and National Pitcher of the Year Watch list member capped a strong senior campaign by being selected by the Detroit Tigers.

In 2009, Liberty recorded a 33-21 overall record, while posting a 17-9 mark in Big South Conference play. Liberty set a new fielding standard in 2009, committing the fewest errors, 53, and finishing the year with the highest fielding percentage, .974, in team history. From that infield, third baseman Tyler Bream was named a Freshman All-American by the Collegiate Baseball News.

Pitcher Andrew Wilson became the third player during Toman's time at Liberty to be taken in the MLB draft (Atlanta Braves).

In 2008, the Flames fashioned a 13-3-1 record in the month of May to finish Toman's first season at Liberty with a 35-26-1 mark. The record made Toman the winningest first-year coach in the program's history. He guided the Flames to their third straight Big South Championship title game appearance, claiming the conference's runner-up position in 2008. Liberty's May record was the best ever by a Flames team.

In addition, the Liberty pitching staff set a new season strikeout record, fanning 508 opposing batters during the year. The Flames' strikeout total led the Big South Conference and their 8.2 strikeouts per nine innings ranked 22nd nationally at season's end. Two pitchers from the staff, Ryan Page and David Stokes, went on to be drafted and play in the professional ranks. Page was taken in the 20th round of the MLB Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays, while Stokes was picked in the 28th round by the Detroit Tigers.

Liberty finished its season with a 14-7 record in conference play. The mark allowed the Flames to claim the No. 2 seed for the Big South Championship, their highest seed for the Big South Baseball Championship since a No. 1 seed in 2000. Liberty would go on to post four consecutive double-digit victories during six games in the Big South Championship to set a championship record with 55 runs scored.

Toman was named the sixth head coach in the history of the Liberty Baseball program in June 2007, after 11 seasons as the senior member of Ray Tanner's coaching staff at South Carolina. Toman worked a total of 18 years alongside Tanner, dating back to the 1990 season at N.C. State.

During his time at South Carolina, Toman served as recruiting coordinator and coached the catchers. Known as one of the top recruiters in college baseball, the 22-year college coaching veteran was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year. Before joining the Gamecock staff in 1996, Toman served under Tanner for seven years at N.C. State.

Toman has recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. During his final years with the Gamecocks, he recruited many of the players who were members of the 2010 South Carolina National Championship team. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball.

During his time on the staff in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight straight between 2000 and 2007, and three consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 14 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

Toman was a four-year letterwinner at N.C. State from 1981-84, and served as team captain of the Wolfpack his junior and senior seasons.

The Coaches

Liberty Head Coach Jim Toman is in his fourth year at the helm of the Flames. During his time at Liberty, he has guided the Flames to a 136-84-1 record. He led the Flames to the best mark of any Liberty head coach over his first three seasons on Liberty Mountain.

Last season, the Flames had their best year under Toman, posting a school record for wins in a single season with a 42-19 record. The team's ledger was boosted by a 21-8 road mark, the nation's 10th best road record in 2010.

In addition, Liberty recorded a 19-7 mark in Big South play, eclipsing its record of the previous season for most victories by the school since joining the conference in 1992. The Flames finished second in the league's regular season and were conference runner-up at the Big South Baseball Championship.

UNC Asheville Head Coach Tom Smith is in his second season heading up the Bulldog program. He had previously served on the UNC Asheville coaching staff for two years, serving as a volunteer assistant in 2008 and as an assistant in 2009.

In his first season, he led Asheville to a seventh-place finish in the Big South with a 10-17 conference mark and a 17-35 overall record.

Before coming to UNC Asheville, Smith was considered one of the top high school coaches in the nation at T.C. Roberson HS in Asheville. He coached the Rams program for 28 years and led the school to three 3-A state titles in 1983, 2000 and 2002. The Rams won 14 conference titles during his tenure.

Smith had 20 players drafted by major league teams during his time at Roberson. The list includes pitcher Darren Holmes, who went to pitch 17 years in the major leagues, current left-hander pitcher Chris Narveson of the Milwaukee Brewers and outfielder Cameron Maybin of the Florida Marlins, who was drafted in the first round in 2005.

All-Time Series Against UNC Asheville

Thursday night will be the 60th meeting between the Bulldogs and the Flames on the baseball diamond since 1986. Liberty leads the all-time series, 40-19. However over the past three years, the Flames hold a slim 6-4 edge in the series.

Last season, UNC Asheville took the regular-season series between the two teams by winning the first two games of their series in Asheville, N.C., April 26-27. The Bulldogs took the opening game, 5-4, on April 26 and won the first game of a doubleheader, 2-1, on April 27. Liberty captured the second game of the doubleheader, 7-3. Right-hander Keegan Linza pitched his first complete game as a Flame in the contest. Doug Bream had three hits for Liberty in the victory.

The last time the two met at Worthington Stadium, the Flames took the series, two games to one, April 10-11, 2009.

Get Your Running Shoes On

What a difference a year makes. So far this season, Liberty has taken advantage of its team speed, more than doubling its stolen base total from a year ago. The Flames have stolen 95 bases in 116 attempts this season, compared to 2010, when the Flames swiped 57 stolen bases in 80 attempts during the entire year. The Flames' 95 stolen bases leads the Big South Conference in the category. The Flames were ranked sixth in the nation in the latest NCAA Division I statistical report, for games played through May 1.

Leading the way for the Flames is center fielder Ian Parmley with 22 stolen bases. Catcher Casey Rasmus is 17-for-18 in steal attempts this season despite playing in just 33 games. Parmley is third in the Big South Conference in the category, while Rasmus is tied for fourth.

Parmley's 22 steals are the most by a Liberty player since 2006, when third baseman Chad Miller had 24.

The Flames stolen base totals are definitely a stark contrast from last season. Not only has Liberty surpassed last year's season total, but individuallly four Flames have double-digit steal totals. Last season, outfielder Curran Redal led the team with a season total of 13 stolen bases. Two more Flames, shortstop Matt Williams and outfielder Kenneth Negron, had 10 thefts apiece. This season, Williams and outfielder Michael Robertson join the previously mentioned Rasmus and Parmley, with double-digit stolen base totals. Williams and Robertson each have 13 stolen bases.

Picking Up the Pace

With new bats and new rules to speed up time between innings and govern mound visits, the time Flames contests have been played in this season has seen a significant drop. So far this season, Liberty games have run an average of 2:30, compared to 2:48 at this point in 2010, an 18-minute difference.

Last season through 45 games, Liberty had already played 14 games which lasted three hours or longer, with the longest being 3:43 in a 14-13, 10 inning setback to Manhattan on March 20. This season, the Flames have had only five games go over three hours, the longest being 3:26 in a wild, come-from-behind, 14-9 victory at High Point, April 10. Liberty scored seven times in the ninth inning to erase a 9-7 deficit, en route to the win.

Weekend Trio Getting It Done

Entering this weekend, Liberty pitchers John Niggli, Steven Evans and Keegan Linza have established themselves as a trio to reckon with. The three weekend starters for the Flames have combined to post a 15-6 record with a 2.90 ERA over 208 innings in 30 starts, so far this season. They have also combined for six complete games, with Linza going the the full nine innings four times this year.

Linza is among the Big South leaders in several categories. The senior right-hander leads the conference with seven wins and 79 2/3 innings pitched. He is third with a 2.37 ERA.

Niggli and Evans also have their names on several of the Big South lists. Niggli is sixth in opponent batting average (.227) and ninth in ERA (2.97). Evans is fourth in strikeouts (59), tied for fifth in innings pitched (70 1/3) and ninth in opponent batting average (.240)

Two-HR Games Abound Over 10-Day Stretch

Three Flames hit two home runs in a game over a stretch of 10 days from April 17-26. Before the stretch, no Liberty player had connected for more than one round tripper in a game this season.

Designated hitter Justin Richardson became the first Flame to hit two home runs in a game this season in a 7-1 win over Presbyterian College during the first game of a doubleheader, April 17 at Worthington Stadium. The blasts were his first and second round trippers of the year. Richardson belted solo home runs in the fourth and sixth innings of the contest.

Catcher Jeff Jefferson followed six days later in an 8-6 victory over VMI in game one of a doubleheader at Gray-Minor Stadium in Lexington, Va., April 23. Jefferson lined a solo home run in the fifth and tied the game at 6-6 in the ninth inning with another solo home run. In the come-from-behind victory at VMI, the Flames hit five home runs, their most in a contest this season.

Outfielder Ryan Cordell became the third player with a multi-home run game April 26 at No. 2 South Carolina. The first two hits of his collegiate career, the outfielder hit round trippers in the fourth and eight innings.

Last season, Liberty only had one multiple-home run game. Third baseman Tyler Bream hit two round trippers, including a two-run, walk-off home run in the last game of the season at Worthington Stadium, a 7-6 victory over VCU on May 18, 2010.

Williams Moves Up on Career 2Bs List

Shortstop Matt Williams continues to climb the school's Top 10 career doubles list. With 14 doubles on the year, Williams now has 48 two-base hits in his career, tying former Liberty standout Keith Butler (2000-02) for seventh place on the all-time list.

Former Liberty outfielder Phillip Laurent (2003-06) holds the school career record for two-base hits with 68. He also set the single-season record with 27 in 2006.

Williams' Liberty teammate Tyler Bream has also moved into the Top 10 career doubles list this season. With 45 two-base hits, the Flames third baseman ranks 10th on the school's career list.

Doing the Dougie

On April 6, outfielder Doug Bream had a career-high five hits in a 16-12 setback at Worthington Stadium. Bream surpassed his previous career-high of four hits in a 12-7 win over James Madison at Worthington Stadium on April 21, 2010. It is the first time a Liberty Flame has had five hits in game since outfielder Curran Redal in a 14-8 victory over High Point in game one of a Big South Conference doubleheader at Worthington Stadium on April 3, 2010. Bream went 5-for-5 in the contest and scored three runs.

Later in the week, the senior had two four-hit games in victories at High Point to close the week with a .737 batting average.

The left fielder enters Thursday's contest with a .372 batting average to lead the Flames. He leads Liberty with 37 RBIs.

With seven multiple-hit games in his last 10, Bream has 19 multi-hit contest this season. The outfielder is tied for the team lead with shortstop Matt Williams. He also leads the team with 11 multi-RBI games. The outfielder had a season-long 12 game hit streak stopped in the second game of a doubleheader at VMI on April 23. The streak is tied for the longest by a Flame this season with catcher Casey Rasmus.

Evans Pitches Way into Record Book

With eight strikeouts Friday night in Liberty's 3-2, 12-inning victory over Le Moyne, senior left-hander Steven Evans moved into second place on Liberty's all-time strikeout list with 244. Only Mike Brown (1994-97), Liberty's career strikeout leader with 287, compiled more. Evans is currently fourth in the Big South with 59 strikeouts this season.

Evans is also tied for fourth on the program's career wins list with 23. The senior, who has a career record of 23-10, is tied with Kevin Napier (1983-86) for fourth on the all-time list. The left-hander needs one more win to move into second on the school's career victory list with Tim Harrell (1995-98) and David Harris (1979-83). Liberty standout Lee Guetterman (1978-81) won 29 games during his career to top the Liberty all-time wins list.

In addition, the senior has moved into the Liberty career innings pitched list's Top 10 with 292 1/3 innings. Evans begins the weekend in fifth place on the program's all-time list. The left-hander is 7 2/3 innings shy of tying Tim Harrell (1995-98) with 300 innings pitched for fourth on the list. Guetterman also heads up that list with 334 2/3 innings pitched during his time at Liberty.

A fixture of the Flames' pitching staff over the past four years, Evans has a 23-10 record, four saves and a 3.60 ERA during his career. The left-hander has walked 94 batters for a 2.60 to 1 strikeout to walk ratio during his career.

Scoring First = Wins

Posting the first run of a contest has been a key indicator of Liberty's success this season. The Flames are 18-5 when scoring first in a contest. Meanwhile, Liberty is 8-14 when its opponents plate the first run of the game.

It is What I Like About Sunday

Unfortunately, the Flames will not play a game on Sunday this week. Liberty has found the day to their liking this season, posting a 9-1 record in games played on the day. In its lone Sunday loss, Liberty was defeated 5-4 by Coastal Carolina on April 3.

In Sunday games, the Flames have outscored their opponents, 61-27, and have a .302 batting average compared to a .220 for their opponents.

Led by starter Steven Evans, who is 3-0 on Sunday this season, Liberty pitchers have posted a 2.22 ERA in 10 Sunday games.

Casey Rasmus - Base Cop

Flames catcher Casey Rasmus has been tough on base stealers this season. The junior begins the weekend having thrown out 44% (16-of-36) of would-be base stealers.

This past weekend, Rasmus threw out both base runners attempting to swipe a base in the two games he played. He is tied for second in the Big South in runners caught stealing despite having his playing time curtailed to 33 games due to injury.

Doug Bream Receives National, Conference Honors

The National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) named Liberty senior outfielder Doug Bream and Clemson junior shortstop Brad Miller National Co-Hitters of the Week, April 12. The Flames outfielder was also selected to the College Baseball Foundation's National All-Star Line-Up, as well as being named the Southeast Regional Player of the Week by CollegeBaseballInsider.com and the Big South Player of the Week for games played through April 10.

During the week, Bream batted .737 (14-19) with six runs scored, eight RBIs, two doubles, one triple and two walks in four games. The senior had four or more hits in three of the games, including a 5-5 day in a midweek contest with James Madison on April 6.

After picking up a hit and RBI at High Point on April 8, Bream had four hits in each of Liberty's weekend wins over the Panthers. The outfielder went 4-for-5 and drove in four runs in 9-0 win on April 9 and was 4-for-5 with a double and three RBIs in Liberty's 14-9 victory on April 10.

He finished the week with a .762 on-base percentage and a .947 slugging percentage.

Beakler's Effort Highlights Wins Against UNO

This past weekend, Liberty took two games from the New Orleans Privateers at Worthington Stadium during the Liberty Tournament. The Flames won Saturday afternoon, 3-2, and Sunday afternoon, 5-2.

Right-hander Dane Beakler's effort was the key to Liberty's win on Saturday. Making his first start since May 16, 2006, Beakler recorded the first complete game of his career. The senior right-hander allowed two runs, one earned, on seven hits over the full nine innings. He struck out eight and did not walk a batter. After New Orleans tied the game in the fifth inning, the right-hander did not allow a runner to reach base, retiring the last 14 batters to face him in the contest.

First baseman Austin Taylor hit his fifth home run of the year to break a 2-2 tie in the seventh inning in the 3-2 win.

Sunday, left fielder Ryan Cordell and third baseman Zach Haley each had three hits, leading the Liberty Flames to a 5-2 victory. Cordell had three hits in a game for the first time as a collegian. The left fielder went 3-for-3 in the contest, scoring twice. Haley matched his teammate by going 3-for-3 and plating two runs.

Blake Forslund recorded his first victory with four scoreless innings, while reliever Jacob Kemmerer followed with four scoreless frames in the victory.

Williams Pushes Flames Past Le Moyne

Shortstop Matt Williams hit a home run leading off the 12th inning to propel the Liberty Flames past the Le Moyne Dolphins, 3-2, this past Friday night in the second game of the Liberty Tournament at Worthington Stadium.

With the score tied 2-2 in the bottom of the 12th inning, Williams belted the first offering from Dolphin pitcher Ed Kohout over the left field wall for the 3-2 victory. The home run was the shortstop's team-leading fifth of the year.

Liberty starter Steven Evans did not figure in the decision. However, he moved into second place in the school's strikeout list with eight strikeouts in the game. The left-hander has 244 career strikeouts. Mike Brown holds the Liberty career mark with 287 strikeouts from 1994-97.

Mark Swanson recorded the win to move to 2-1 on the year. The senior right-hander pitched four scoreless innings of relief, allowing three hits. He struck out two and did not walk a batter.

Flames Take Two From VMI

The Liberty Flames rallied with three runs in the ninth inning and catcher Jeff Jefferson hit two home runs, downing the VMI Keydets, 8-6, in the first game of a doubleheader, last Saturday at Gray-Minor Stadium. The win enabled the Flames to take the first two games of a three-game Big South series with the Keydets.

Liberty hit five home runs in the contest, the most by the Flames this season. Liberty had previously hit three round trippers in a game in a 7-1 win over Presbyterian College in the first game of a doubleheader on April 17.

Trailing 6-5, the Flames plated three runs in the top of the ninth to take an 8-6 lead. With one out, catcher Jeff Jefferson belted his second home run of the game and fourth of the year to left field, tying the contest at 6-6. Second baseman Zach Haley followed with a home run inside the left field foul pole, putting Liberty on top for the second time in the game, 7-6. Right fielder Michael Robertson singled to right field to plate center fielder Ian Parmley, who had reached on a double, for an 8-6 advantage.

Reliever Garrett Baker retired the side in order in the bottom of the ninth to close out the victory. It was his second victory in two days. The win was Liberty's seventh consecutive victory in Big South play.

Locked in a pitcher's duel on Friday night, Robertson beat out a two-out, infield single to score the go-ahead run as the Flames defeated the VMI Keydets, 3-2, in the opening contest of the series.

Tied at 2-2, Liberty pushed across a run to break the deadlock in the top of the eighth inning. With two outs and runners on second and third, Robertson beat out a chopper behind the mound for an infield single, to score a run for a 3-2 edge.

Baker held VMI in check in both the eighth and ninth innings to close out the Liberty victory.

Liberty Sweeps PC

The Liberty Flames jumped out to a 5-1 lead through the first three innings of game two and never looked back, defeating the Presbyterian College Blue Hose, 5-2, to complete a sweep of a doubleheader, April 17 at Worthington Stadium and the three-game Big South series between the two teams.

In the game two of the twinbill, Liberty totaled 13 hits. Matt Williams, Doug Bream, Austin Taylor, Justin Richardson and Jeff Jefferson had two hits apiece for the Flames.

Pitcher Keegan Linza moved to 6-2 on the year, yielding two runs, both unearned, on seven hits over the first 5 1/3 innings. Garrett Baker earned his second save of the season. The junior threw 3 2/3 innings of scoreless relief, giving up three hits and striking out two batters.

In game one, Richardson belted a career-high two home runs and Bream added another round tripper, powering the Flames past the Blue Hose, 7-1. It is the first time this season, the Flames have hit three home runs in a game. In addition, Richardson became the first Liberty player to hit more than one round tripper in a contest this season.

Bream hit his first home run of the season in the third inning, while designated hitter Richardson hit his first home run leading off the fourth. The Liberty designated hitter hit his second solo home run of the game in the sixth.

Liberty starter Steven Evans moved to 4-3 on the season, allowing one run on six hits over seven innings. Jacob Kemmerer and Mark Swanson pitched scoreless innings to close out the win.

After the visiting Presbyterian College Blue Hose took a lead in the top of the seventh, Liberty struck for three runs in the bottom of the inning, en route to a 6-5 victory, the night before in the opening game of the series.

Liberty had nine hits in the contest. The Flames' three, four and five hitters each had two hits, as Williams, Doug Bream and Tyler Bream had a pair of hits apiece. Second baseman Zack Haley also had two hits for Liberty. Doug Bream drove in three runs for the Flames.

Dane Beakler allowed one hit over 2/3 of an inning to pick up his first win of the year to move to 1-0. Baker pitched the final 1 1/3 innings to earn his first save of the season. He retired all four batters he faced, including inducing an inning-ending double play in the eighth inning.

Complete Games Highlight Sweep

Each of Liberty's starting pitchers of its three-game Big South series pitched a complete game, keying a sweep of the Charleston Southern Buccaneers in the first conference series of the year, March 18-20.

After allowing a combined four runs the previous week at the Keith LeClair Classic, Liberty starters, Keegan Linza, John Niggli and Steven Evans once again turned the trick, holding the Buccaneers to four runs over the entire three-game series.

Linza got things started, Friday. The senior right-hander outdueled his Charleston Southern counterpart, going the distance in his second consecutive outing in a 2-1 win.

Linza allowed one run on eight hits, striking out a career-high 10 to run his record to 4-0 on the year.

Niggli followed-up with a gem of his own on Saturday afternoon. The junior right-hander threw his first complete game in a Liberty uniform in a 5-1 victory. Niggli gave up one run on five hits, striking out four. From the third inning on, the junior dominated, not allowing a Charleston Southern hit until a two-out infield single in the ninth inning. During the stretch, the Liberty right-hander allowed only two runners to reach, on a walk in the fifth and another walk in the sixth inning.

On Sunday, Evans made it three consecutive complete games, pitching his first of the season and the fifth of his career in a 5-2 victory over the Buccaneers. He allowed two runs on six hits, fanning 12 to set a new career-high and walked one.

Baker Comes Up Big at Maryland

A strong relief appearance by Garrett Baker and seven extra base hits propelled the Liberty Flames past the Maryland Terrapins, 11-4, March 15 at Smith Stadium in College Park, Md.

Baker entered the contest with the bases loaded, no one out and one run already in for Maryland in the first inning and quickly restored order in the contest. The junior allowed only an unearned run, scattering three hits over eight effective innings. The left-hander struck out five and walked none, running his record to 2-0. He retired seven consecutive batters from the second through the fourth inning and later, finished his outing by setting down 12 Terrapins in order.

Despite trailing 3-0 after one inning, the Flames answered with four runs in the third inning to take a lead they never relinquished. In the frame, second baseman Zack Haley and first baseman Jeff Jefferson hit solo home runs. For Haley, it was his first of the season, while Jefferson's round tripper was his second on the year.

Haley led all players in the contest with three hits, including two extra base hits. One of left fielder Doug Bream's two hits in the game was a bases-clearing double.

Pitchers Lead the Way at LeClair Classic

Liberty captured the 2011 Keith LeClair Classic in Greenville, N.C., March 11-13 with a 3-0 record. Keying the title run were the efforts of Flames starting pitchers Keegan Linza, John Niggli and Steven Evans.

Linza got things started on March 11, firing the first complete game of the season by a Liberty starting pitcher in a 5-2 victory over Rutgers. The senior right-hander allowed two runs on seven hits, striking out five and not walking a Scarlet Knight batter.

Linza retired the first 10 Scarlet Knight batters to face him in the contest and did not allow a runner past second base until the seventh inning, when Rutgers scored its first run of the contest. With the win, he runs his record to 3-0 on the year.

The following day, right-hander John Niggli pitched seven strong innings to pick up his second victory of the year in a 4-3 win over Monmouth. The junior gave up two runs on six hits, striking out one and walking none over the first seven innings, before being relieved by Garrett Baker. He followed with 1 2/3 innings of relief, allowing a run on one hit. J.J. McLeod faced one batter, getting the final out of the contest to earn his first save of the year.

Connections - Part I

Three Liberty Flames, catcher Casey Rasmus, third baseman Tyler Bream and infielder Austin Taylor, each have connections to Major League Baseball through family members.

Rasmus, a junior, is in his first season as a member of the Liberty roster. His brother Colby is a member of the St. Louis Cardinals and enters his third season as an outfielder with the team in 2011.

Bream, also a junior, is the son of former major leaguer Sid Bream. Sid Bream, a Liberty standout during his collegiate days, played 12 seasons in the majors (1983-94) with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Pittsburgh Pirates, Atlanta Braves and Houston Astros.

Taylor, a senior, is the nephew of former major leaguer Bill Taylor. Bill Taylor spent parts of eight seasons with the Oakland A's, New York Mets and Tampa Bay Rays.

Connections - Part II

Three Flames are carrying on a family tradition, as a member of their family formerly played baseball at Liberty.

First baseman/outfielder Doug Bream's uncle Dave was a member of the Liberty baseball program from 1982-85.

Third baseman Tyler Bream's father, Sid, and two uncles, Dave and Sheldon, were members of the Flames. Sid, who went on to play in the major leagues, was a standout for Liberty on the diamond from 1979-81. The first baseman and Liberty Athletics Hall of Fame member was named a NAIA and NABC All-American in 1981, as the Flames reached the NAIA National Tournament.

Bream's uncles, Dave and Sheldon, were also members of the Flames baseball team during their college days. Dave played infield for Liberty from 1982-85, while Sheldon was an outfielder with the Flames from 1989-93. Tyler and Doug are second cousins.

Meanwhile, pitcher Garrett Baker begins his first season at Liberty. The junior left-hander's brothers, Jason and Steve, played for the Flames. Jason patrolled the outfield for the Flames from 1993-95, earning first team All-Big South honors in 1995. Steve was also an outfielder at Liberty from 1999-02. He was named to the Big South all-conference second team in 2002.
