HEAD COACH RITCHIE McKAY

Ritchie McKay was named Liberty's seventh men's basketball head coach on March 26, 2007.

Liberty marks McKay's fifth head coaching stint, and his first east of the Mississippi, after stops in the Big Sky, Mountain West, Pac-10 and WAC conferences.

McKay, 42, came to Liberty from New Mexico, where he spent five seasons at the helm of the Lobos' basketball program (2003-07), highlighted by a Mountain West Conference (MWC) championship in 2005. With a 26-7 record, the conference championship earned New Mexico its first NCAA Tournament appearance in six years and the program's first conference title since 1996.

Overall at New Mexico, McKay sported an 82-69 coaching record over five seasons, including the 2005 campaign, where the team's 26 victories were the second-highest total in program's 103-year history.

McKay posted a 37-23 record (.627) at Colorado State, which included a 1999 National Invitational Tournament (NIT) berth. The Rams defeated Mississippi State and in-state rival Colorado at the event, before losing to eventual NIT Tournament champion California.

The 1999-2000 season featured the first year of play for CSU in the Mountain West Conference, and the Rams logged an 18-12 record and a fourth-place conference finish.

A pair of victories over nationally-ranked opponents - the first time the program had accomplished the feat at Colorado State in a decade - and capturing the title at the second annual Pearl Harbor Classic in Hawaii were some of the highlights during the season. College Hoops Insider magazine noticed the success of the 2000 Rams and tabbed McKay as its MWC Coach of the Year.

Before arriving on the Colorado State campus, McKay began his head coaching career when he was named the head coach at Portland State. McKay started with the Vikings in 1995, helping revive a program which had been dormant for 15 years. McKay led the program to nine victories in the school's first season of competition (1996-97) since the early 1980s.

After the initial season at Portland State, McKay was named one of six finalists for the Clair Bee Award, given annually to the coach with the most influence and innovation in the game of basketball. Two other finalists for the honor that year were Dean Smith of North Carolina and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke. The 1997-98 Portland State team followed with a 15-12 mark and a third-place finish in the Big Sky Conference.

LIBERTY BASKETBALL

Game Preview

Liberty opens up its final homestand of the regular season, as the Virginia Military Institute Keydets enter the Vines Center, Tuesday evening. Tip-off is set for 7 p.m.

Tuesday's contest will be televised on the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network (MASN) and the Flames Television Network with Ray Jones providing play-by-play, Tim Scarborough adding color commentary and Samantha Steele patrolling the sidelines. There will be a radio broadcast that will air on the Flames Sports Network (flagship WRVL 88.3 FM) with Jerry Edwards providing play-by-play. Additionally, an Internet audio broadcast on LibertyFlames.com will be available. There will also be a live video stream of the broadcast via the Big South EDGE, available on BigSouthSports.com.

Liberty Update

The Flames enter tonight's contest in the midst of a two-game losing streak. The most recent setback was a 79-68 defeat at non-conference foe Longwood. Anthony Smith led the Flames with 24 points, while Alex McLean chipped in 23 point in the losing cause.

Prior to Friday's defeat, Liberty dropped an 87-82 contest at Charleston Southern on Feb. 18. Smith and TeeJay Bannister each tallied 20 points in the losing effort. Bannister added 12 assists to go with his career high in points. Liberty started off the "Beach Trip" with a 65-51 triumph at Coastal Carolina on Feb. 16. Smith became the 20th player in Liberty program history to reach the 1,000 career point plateau, as the junior scored 17 points in the victory.

Alex McLean scored the buzzer beater at East Carolina on Nov. 17.

LIBERTY BASKETBALL

Liberty versus VMI

Tonight's contest marks the 17th all-time meeting between the two schools in basketball. The series stands tied, 8-8. Liberty looks to sweep the regular season series for the second time in series history. Liberty swept the Keydets during the regular season last year, before falling in the quarterfinals of the Big South Championship.

Liberty is 6-2 all time inside the Vines Center against VMI. The Keydets handed the Flames a 69-61 setback on Nov. 30, 1990, in what served as the first basketball contest inside the Vines Center. Liberty won the following six-straight games against VMI inside the Vines Center before last year's defeat in the Big South Championship.

McKay Versus the Big South Conference

Head coach Ritchie McKay is 7-6 all-time against the Big South Conference. Two of the seven victories have come against Charleston Southern. The first came last season when McKay's Lobo team at New Mexico defeated Charleston Southern, 76-69. The second was on Jan. 19.

Bannister Chasing Scarborough

TeeJay Bannister has 193 assists this season, his first with the Flames. Tim Scarborough, color analyst for the Flames Television Network accumulated 194 assists in his four-year career for the Flames. The former Liberty guard played in 87 career games at Liberty from 1987-90, so if Bannister passes Scarborough tonight, he will have done so in 59 fewer games.

BASKETBALL

When Holding Opponents Under 70

The Flames are 12-5 when their opponents score less than 70 points and 2-9 when their opposition tallies more than 70 points. Liberty's wins over Niagara (86-81) and VMI (87-81) are the two occasions when Liberty won a game while allowing over 70 points.

Alex McLean Grabs 500th Career Rebound

Senior Alex McLean pulled down his 500th career rebound against Winthrop on Feb. 12. The milestone makes McLean the only two-year letterwinner in program history to accomplish such a feat in two years. All other members of Liberty's 500 rebound club played at least three seasons on Liberty Mountain. McLean joined Jason Dixon (467) and Dan Kennard (471) as the only two-year letterwinners to reach the 400 rebound milestone. Dixon and McLean are the only ones to accomplish the feat since Liberty's move to NCAA Division I.

Alex McLean 500th Rebound Take Two

Senior Alex McLean became the 48th player in Big South history to reach the 500 rebound plateau and only the second player in league history to play only two seasons in the conference and reach the milestone.

Anthony Smith Reaches 1,000 Career Points

Junior Anthony Smith scored 17 points while eclipsing the 1,000-point plateau on Feb. 16 at Coastal Carolina. With 15 points scored on Jan. 21 versus Coastal Carolina, Smith became the 20th player in program history, and the ninth since Liberty moved to Division I, to score 900 career points. Every player in program history who has scored at least 900 career points has reached the 1,000-point plateau.

Next on the Scoring List for Anthony Smith

With 1,048 career points, Anthony Smith sits 18th all-time in the Liberty annals for scoring, having passed Mike Goad (1,013) with his 20-point performance Feb. 18 at Charleston Southern. Next on the list is Mike Coleman (1,065), who owns the 17th spot on Liberty's career scoring list. Coleman was a four-year letterwinner from 1989-92.

Freshman First

Jeremy Anderson became the first Flame freshman to score 20 or more points in a game since David Dees scored 22 points against St. Joseph's in the first round of the 2004 NCAA Tournament. Anderson hit the mark exactly (20) on Jan. 28 at VMI.

Bannister Breaks Assist Record

Senior TeeJay Bannister dished out 12 assists on Feb. 18 at Charleston Southern, helping him pass Marcus White's (181) Liberty Division I season record for assists. White set the record in 1997, the last year Liberty reached the 20-win plateau.

Bannister now has 193 assists this season. If Bannister holds his season average, he will finish the year with the second-best assist number during a season in program history. Ed Gomes dished out 256 assists in 1976. With his 7.4 assist average, Bannister could have 216 assists through the quarterfinals of the Big South Championship.

Tee Hitting the Jay

In his last eight games, TeeJay Bannister is connecting on 57.1 percent (8-of-14) of his attempts from three-point land. In his previous 19 games, he only hit 28.5 percent (8-of-28) of his long-range attempts.

Jeremy Anderson Attempts a Two-Point Field Goal

Freshman Jeremy Anderson attempted his first two-point field goal on Jan. 28 at VMI. Anderson, who missed Liberty's first nine games with an injury, tallied a two-point field goal on his 50th field goal attempt of the season. The previous 49 attempts all came from behind the three-point line. After connecting on both his two-point field goals on Feb. 9 against UNC Asheville, Anderson was a perfect 4-of-4 inside the arc, before missing his first attempt against Winthrop on Feb. 12.

Alex McLean and His Three-Point Shot

Alex McLean has three career three-point field goals. All three buckets have come at Longwood's expense. McLean has gone 1-of-1 from behind the arc in each of his three appearances against the Lancers.

Flames Win Six Games In January

The Flames won six games in January for the seventh time in program history and the first time since the 2004 season. Below is a list of those seven teams and their records for the month of January.

2008 (6-2)	2004 (6-3)	1993 (8-3)	1992 (8-2)	1985 (6-2)
1980 (6-4)	1979 (6-6)

Liberty Creates a First Against UNC Asheville

Liberty became the first team this season to hold both K.J. Garland and Bryan Smithson of UNC Asheville to single digits in scoring when both appeared in the same game. Garland tallied eight points, while Smithson managed just six markers during Liberty's 83-54 victory on Feb. 9.

Teams such as East Tennessee State, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia Tech were unable to accomplish such a feat against the Bulldogs.

TeeJay Bannister Dishes Out 400th Career Assist

With five assists againsts UNC Asheville on Feb. 9, TeeJay Bannister surpassed the 400 career assist plateau. To date, TeeJay Bannister has 431 assists during his collegiate career. Bannister registered 238 during his three years at Virginia. The senior currently has 193 helpers for the Flames this season and ranks No. 3 nationally in the category.

Liberty Rotating Uniforms

On Jan. 15, Liberty donned its fifth different uniform, and the game marked the fifth-straight game they did not duplicate a set of threads. The Nike school wore red for the first time at UNC Asheville on Jan. 12 and have also worn two different sets of white uniforms at home. The Flames wore their second set of blue uniforms for the first time Jan. 16 at Winthrop.

TeeJay Bannister and His Assists on a National Level

TeeJay Bannister currently ranks No. 3 nationally in assists, dropping 7.2 dimes per contest. Five of Bannister's contemporaries in the Top 50 have faced Liberty this season. Ranking at No. 4 is High Point's Mike Jefferson (7.1). No. 14 is East Carolina's Darrell Jenkins (6.3), No. 15 is UNC Asheville's K.J. Garland (6.3), No. 20 is Radford's Amir Johnson (6.1) and at No. 41 is Niagara's Anthony Nelson (5.4).

Bannister's friend and former teammate at Virginia, Sean Singletary (6.0), is making the list at No. 26.

TeeJay Bannister Rewriting History

TeeJay Bannister held the Vines Center record for assists in a game for a total of 13 days before breaking his own mark. Bannister dished out 15 assists on Jan. 21 versus Coastal Carolina, breaking his previous Vines Center record of 13, which was set on Jan. 8, vs. Kentucky Christian.

Bannister's 15 assists matched Matt Hildebrand's Liberty Division I record for assists in a game. Hildebrand dished out 15 assists at Winthrop on Jan. 13, 1993. The school record is 20 by Kenny Gunn, against Roberts Wesleyan on Dec. 30, 1983.

Alex McLean Reaches 800 Career Points

Alex McLean collected 10 points at Radford on Feb. 2 to become the 24th player in Liberty history and only the 10th in the Division I era to score 800 career points. McLean became the second Flame to reach the 800-point plateau this season, following Anthony Smith, who did so against George Mason on Dec. 30.

TeeJay Bannister and His Assists

TeeJay Bannister has played 12 games inside the Vines Center, including an exhibition game against Barton. Bannister has dished out 106 assists during those 12 contests, good for an 8.8 assists per home game average.

Barton	14	Longwood	11	Niagara	7
Presbyterian	4	Campbell	8	Nyack	10
Ky. Christian	13	Charleston So.	8	Coastal Carolina	15
High Point	4	UNC Asheville	5	Winthrop

Kyle Ohman Stepping Up

Sophomore Kyle Ohman has scored 199 points through the Flames' first 28 games this season. Last year, Ohman only scored eight points during Liberty's 31 total games. Ohman has scored in 24 out of 28 games. Ohman was held scoreless at East Carolina on Nov. 17, again at Kentucky on Nov. 21 after battling illness all day, at Winthrop on Jan. 15 and for the first time at home against High Point on Jan. 26.

TeeJay Bannister Dropping Dimes

TeeJay Bannister has dished out 120 assists over his past 15 games as compared to 49 turnovers. Over the 15-game stretch, he is averaging 8.0 assists versus 3.2 turnovers per game.

Five Records Matched or Broke Against Kentucky Christian

Liberty matched or broke five records versus Kentucky Christian on Jan. 8.

TeeJay Bannister broke Beau Wallace's Vines Center single-game record (12) for assists with 13, before breaking his own record on Jan. 21 against Coastal Carolina with 15 assists.

Alex McLean matched his Vines Center record for rebounds (17), which he set against Lipscomb last season.

Liberty limited KCU to 15 second-half points, a Vines Center record for lowest output by an opponent in a half, breaking Averett's (16) mark in a December 1993 contest.

Liberty pulled down 59 rebounds, matching a Vines Center single-game record established against Averett in 1992.

Liberty also broke a Vines Center single-game record for defensive rebounds with 42, breaking the previous mark (37) set against Radford in 2002.

Liberty Drops First Game at Home

Liberty was 11-0 at home this season before falling to Winthrop on Feb. 12. The Flames finished 7-0 in non-conference contests. With no remaining home non-conference games this year, the Flames went undefeated in home non-conference games for the first time since the 1995-96 season. That season, Liberty went 4-0 at home during the non-conference portion of its schedule.

Since moving to the NCAA Division I level, Liberty had never gone undefeated at home during a non-conference slate when playing more than four non-conference contests, prior to this season.

TeeJay Bannister Lending an Assist

TeeJay Bannister is dishing out 7.2 assists per game this year, which is currently ranked No. 3 in the nation. The average is the highest by a Flame since Kenny Gunn registered 6.5 helpers during the 1983-84 campaign. Bannister wasn't born until the June following that season.

Currently Bannister's assist average is the highest of any senior in program history, topping Karl Hess and his 5.5 apg average in 1980, from the top spot.

Liberty Great Home Start

Liberty started the season 11-0 at home for the first time since the 1992 season, when the Flames won their first 14 home games. Liberty's 15th and final home game that season was a 73-70 setback to Virginia Tech. The Flames fell to Winthrop on Feb. 12 inside the Vines Center for Liberty's first home loss of the season.

February Record

Overall, Liberty has posted a 157-182 record, 112-56 at home, 39-122 on the road and 6-4 at a neutral location during the month of February. Since the 2000-01 season, Ritchie McKay has a 23-37 record in the month.

Road Woes

The Flames have lost 36 of their last 42 road games, dating back to the start of the 2005-06 season. Three of the wins during that span came last season. A 66-63 victory at Charleston Southern on Jan. 22, a 118-108 victory at VMI on Feb. 21 and a 64-48 win at Radford on Feb. 24. The victory in Lexington was the Flames first since Dec. 7, 1991, and the win at Radford was Liberty's first since Feb. 22, 1997. The fourth road win was a 55-53 triumph at East Carolina on Nov. 17, the fifth road win was on Jan. 28 at VMI, 87-81 and the sixth was a 65-51 triumph at Coastal Carolina on Feb. 16.

Big South Double-Doubles

Alex McLean is second in the conference with 13 double-doubles this season and has seven in his last 10 games, and has nine in his last 15 games. Arizona Reid of High Point leads the league with 15. Reid has nearly matched McLean over the same span, collecting five double-doubles in his last 10 games and nine in his last 15 contests.

Playing Sweet Music

Senior Alex McLean did not play basketball in high school. Standing only at 6-2 as a high school senior, the Bay Shore, N.Y., native played bass, piano and drums in the school band. McLean is a concert bassist who turned down the opportunity to study music at numerous schools on scholarship, including Cal-Berkley and Hofstra, as well as, receiving interest from Julliard, in favor of basketball.

McLean Collecting Double-Doubles

Senior Alex McLean collected his 13th double-double of the season and 25th of his career when he scored 17 points and grabbed 10 rebounds at Charleston Southern on Feb. 8.

Here is a look at McLean's double-double performances this season.

TeeJay Bannister Named Top Newcomer to the Big South

TeeJay Bannister, a transfer from Virginia, was named by the Sporting News as the top newcomer in the Big South Conference. This is the second-straight year a member of the Flames has earned such an honor. Last season, Dwight Brewington, a transfer from Providence, earned the same accolade from CBS Sportsline.com.

BASKETBALL

Making the List

Alex McLean was named to the Big South preseason all-conference team in Lindy's and Athlon Sports' publications. McLean averaged 14.5 points per game, while finishing second in the conference with 8.9 rebounds per game, last season.

Anthony Smith joined McLean on the Lindy's preseason all-conference team. Smith averaged 11.4 points and 3.3 rebounds per game, while being the only member of the team to start every game, last season.

Flames Tabbed to Finish Sixth in Big South

The Liberty Flames were selected to finish sixth out of eight teams in the Big South Conference for the 2007-08 season, as voted on by the conference's head coaches, sports information directors and members of the media.

Liberty is coming off a 14-17 season and a third-place finish in the Big South. The Flames went 8-6 in conference play a year ago, after being picked to finish fifth in last year's preseason poll.

High Point (216) edged out three-time defending conference champion Winthrop (214) by a narrow margin to be tabbed preseason favorite to win the conference championship.

The voting panel agreed on the top two choices, but spots three through six were closely bunched. VMI (147) was picked to finish third, while Coastal Carolina (134 points) was picked to finish in the fourth position. UNC Asheville (119) found themselves picked fifth, with Liberty (108) in the sixth position.

Charleston Southern (63) and Radford (43) rounded out the preseason poll.

Foul Trouble

Senior TeeJay Bannister fouled out of the first three games in which he appeared this season. Bannister collected four fouls in the following five games he appeared in for Liberty.

Games Bannister notched at least four fouls.

San Diego State	5	Fresno State	5	Portland	5
East Carolina	4	Kentucky	4	Longwood	4
Niagara	4	Campbell	4	Virginia Tech	4
Winthrop (2/12)	4

In the previous 76 career games in which he has played, Bannister fouled out only five times. All 76 of those games were played when Bannister was enrolled at Virginia.

Anthony Smith's Starting Streak

Junior Anthony Smith's 56-straight start streak came to an end on Feb. 9. The streak dated back to his freshman year. It began on Feb. 25, 2006, when Liberty traveled to High Point.

The span was the longest for a Flame since Larry Blair started 65-straight contests, a streak that spanned three seasons. Blair's streak started on Jan. 1, 2005, at Seton Hall and was snapped when he was left out of the starting lineup at High Point on Jan. 17, 2007.

Ranking in the Conference

Liberty ranks second in the conference in 3-point shooting (37.2) and second in the conference in both free throw percentage (73.4) and 3-point field goal defense (33.2). Alex McLean ranks seventh in the conference in scoring (16.0) and Anthony Smith sits at No. 10 in scoring (15.0), while TeeJay Bannister holds the No. 1 spot for assists (7.2).

Alex McLean Tabbed Big South Player of the Week

Alex McLean was selected the Big South Conference Choice Hotels Men's Basketball Player of the Week, for games played from Nov. 26-Dec. 2.

McLean averaged 22.5 points and 9.5 rebounds for the week, leading Liberty to home victories over Longwood and Niagara. McLean scored 33 points on 13-of-19 shooting and grabbed 11 caroms against the Lancers on Nov. 27. The 33 points were a national high for the day. McLean also recorded two assists, one block and a steal, notching his third double-double of the season in 30 minutes of action.

On Dec. 1 against Niagara, McLean tallied 12 points on 5-of-7 shooting and pulled down eight rebounds, helping Liberty defeat the Purple Eagles, a team that made the NCAA Tournament two of the past three seasons. Niagara reached the NIT in between those two NCAA postseason runs.

McLean shot 69.2 percent from the field for the week on 18-of-26 shooting, while shooting 72.7 percent (8-of-11) from the charity stripe and chipping in 2.5 assists per game.

This was McLean's second time earning conference player of the week honors. The Big South named McLean its player of the week on Feb. 25, 2007, the week he set new career highs with 40 points and 19 rebounds at VMI.

Away From Home

Liberty started the year playing five of its first six games away from the Vines Center. The last time the Flames started a season playing five of six games outside of Lynchburg was the 2001-02 season.

That season, the Flames played at Vanderbilt, Appalachian State and at the Hawaii Pacific Thanksgiving Classic. Liberty went 1-5 during that span, on its way to a 5-25 season.

Anthony Smith's Rebounds Are Up

Junior Anthony Smith is pulling down 1.2 more rebounds per game this season than last year (4.5 to 3.3). Smith's rebound numbers are up, but his assists are down. Last season, Smith dished out 2.4 assists per game. So far this season, he is only averaging 1.1 assist per contest.

Rell Porter Reaches 100 Career Games

Senior Rell Porter has currently played in 117 contests during his Liberty career. The Liberty record for games played is 122, set by Larry Blair last year. Porter became the 25th player in program history to appear in 100 career games against Virginia Tech on Dec. 19. Should Porter appear in every game this year, he will reach 120 career games played during the quarterfinal of the Big South Championship, which would tie him for second with Karl Hess (1977-1980) and Steve Isaacs (1980-83). The Big South record is 123, set last season by Winthrop's Craig Bradshaw and Philip Williams.

BASKETBALL

Big South Highs

Liberty shot 61.7 percent (29-of-47) from the floor on Dec. 1 against Niagara and 57.9 percent (33-of-57) on Nov. 27 against Longwood. Those numbers serve as the two of the top four shooting performances of any Big South squad this season. The Niagara games serves as tops on the list versus a Division I opponent.

Anthony Smith Chosen to Honor a Visionary

Junior Anthony Smith was one of 10 student-athletes who served as an honorary pallbearer for the late Liberty University Founder and Chancellor, Dr. Jerry Falwell. Ten Liberty University student-athletes served as honorable pallbearers at the May 22 funeral, reflecting on Dr. Falwell's love for athletics.

Shooting 60 Percent or Higher

Liberty shot 61.7 percent (29-of-47) from the floor on Dec. 1 against Niagara. This was the first time Liberty has reached the 60-percent mark since Feb. 21, 2007 at VMI (64.4). The Flames reached 60 percent shooting in three games last year. This season, the team reached the number during its eighth game, as compared to last year when the team first hit the 60-percent mark in game No. 21.

Alex McLean Grabbing the Boards

Senior Alex McLean grabbed 8.8 rebounds per game last season. The figure was the best rebounding season by a Flame since Jason Dixon grabbed 9.0 caroms per contest during the 1995 campaign. McLean's rebounding numbers are roughly the same this season, as he averages 8.9 rebounds per game this year.

What a Difference a Year Makes

A new coach means a new role for walk-on Kyle Ohman. Saturday will mark the 29th game of the season and could account for the 29th contest Ohman appears in this year. Ohman appeared in only 10 contests all of last season.

B.J. Jenkins' Production Goes Up with Minutes

B.J. Jenkins has increased his playing time by 17.4 minutes per game since his freshman season last year. Production is up all around for Jenkins, who is enjoying an average 5.3 point increase in his scoring average. Jenkins is pulling down 2.8 more rebounds this season and dishing out 1.3 more assists.

Jeremy Anderson Makes Debut

Freshman Jeremy Anderson appeared in his first contest for the Flames this season on Dec. 15 at Campbell after battling an injury to his right foot. Anderson scored six points on 2-of-4 shooting, while playing 15 minutes.

Packing Them In

There were 21,298 fans who attended Liberty's Nov. 21 contest at Kentucky, marking the second-highest attended Liberty men's basketball game. When Liberty last played in the Rupp Arena, 22,717 fans attended the contest, marking the largest crowd to ever witness a Liberty men's basketball game.

Having East Carolina's Number

On Nov. 17, Liberty defeated East Carolina for the second-straight season. On Dec. 2, 2006, the Flames topped the Pirates, 64-56. The win served as Liberty's first ever against East Carolina in six tries and the program's first win against a member of Conference USA.

The 55-53 victory over the Pirates this season served as the program's second all-time win over a Conference USA program.

Liberty in Home Big South Openers

Jan. 19 marked the 17th home Big South opener for the Flames. Liberty is now 10-7 all-time in Big South openers, including winning six straight. Last year the Flames beat Radford 80-66.

Liberty In Big South Openers

The Jan. 12 contest at UNC Asheville marked the 17th Big South opener for the Flames. Liberty is now 4-13 all-time record in Big South openers, after falling 74-70 to UNC Asheville. The Flames have opened a conference season with UNC Asheville on six occasions, all resulting in Bulldog wins. UNCA is 3-0 inside the Vines Center and 3-0 inside the Justice Center against Liberty when opening Big South play.

Pirates Jump Start B.J. Jenkins

B.J. Jenkins tallied a then career-best 22 points on Nov. 17 against East Carolina. The sophomore from Virginia Beach, Va., is now averaging 17.0 points over his two career games against East Carolina.

Jenkins scored 12 markers last year against the Pirates, on Dec. 2, 2006. Jenkins' performance helped garner him Big South Freshman of the Week honors on Dec. 4, 2006.

Liberty Honors Dr. Falwell Inside the Vines Center

In its continuing efforts to honor Dr. Jerry Falwell, the Liberty athletics department unveiled a new memorial to the University's founder and former chancellor.

During the Nov. 28 Convocation, inside the Vines Center, Liberty's Director of Athletics Jeff Barber announced that the number 71 will hang from the rafters on a jersey to signify Dr. Falwell's impact on Liberty University and its athletics department.

The honoring of Dr. Falwell's thumbprint on the athletics department began before the passing of the renowned visionary. During Homecoming 2006, Liberty retired the first ever football jersey in Dr. Falwell's honor. After Dr. Falwell's passing, a new tradition began with the start of the 2007 football season. Prior to the start of every home football game, a giant flag with the number 71 is hoisted up the flagpole in a mini-pregame ceremony. The number 71 signifies the year, 1971, when Liberty first opened its doors. The Nov. 28 ceremony took place prior to the featured Convocation speaker, Presidential candidate Mike Huckabee.

Liberty Shooting Well At Home

The Flames have shot 51.4 percent (314-of-611) from the floor during their 12 home games, all of which resulted in wins. Liberty has also hit 41.4 percent (109-of-263) of its attempts from behind the three-point arc during the same span. The Niagara game (Dec. 1) marked the only time this season Liberty eclipsed the 60-percent shooting mark.

B.J. Jenkins Has Career Night Against UNC Asheville

B.J. Jenkins set career highs in rebounds (9), assists (8) and steals (5) in Liberty's 83-54 victory over UNC Asheville on Feb. 9.

Bobby Knight and Ritchie McKay

Ritchie McKay had the dubious honor of being the head coach of the opposition on Jan. 1, 2007. That evening Bobby Knight secured career win No. 880, passing Dean Smith, as the all-time winningest coach in Division I men's college basketball. McKay's New Mexico squad dropped the contest in Lubbock, Texas, 70-68.

Anthony Smith Sets Record

Anthony Smith set a Big South single-game record shooting 87.5 percent from three-point range versus Longwood (7-of-8) on Nov. 27. The conference record is based on a minimum seven three-point field goals made. The game serves as the sixth-best individual performance in the nation this season.

Matching a Record

Anthony Smith tied a Vines Center record with his seven three-point field goals against Longwood on Nov. 27. Smith matched former teammate Larry Blair, who set the mark when he made seven treys against High Point on March 6, 2004.

Non-Conference Wins

Liberty entered Big South play with eight wins, the most since the 1999-2000 team collected 10 non-conference victories. Liberty entered Big South play with a winning record (8-7) for the first time since the 2001 team took a 7-5 record into league play.

Jeremy Anderson Tabbed Big South Freshman of the Week

Liberty guard Jeremy Anderson was selected as the Big South Conference New Balance Men's Basketball Freshman of the Week, for games played from Jan. 28-Feb. 3, as announced by the league office.

Anderson (Bowling Green, Ky.) averaged 17.0 points while shooting 57.9 percent (11-of-19) from the floor and 52.9 percent (9-of-17) from three-point range for the week. He tallied a career-high 20 points on 7-of-9 shooting, including 6-of-8 from behind the three-point arc, aiding the Flames to a six-point win at VMI on Jan. 28, 87-81.

At Radford on Feb. 2, Anderson scored 14 points, all coming in the second half, to keep Liberty within striking distance of the Highlanders before falling by one point, 89-88. Anderson also was 3-of-3 from the line and grabbed two rebounds in 19 minutes off the bench against the Highlanders.

Anderson is the first Liberty freshman to earn Big South Freshman of the Week honors since B.J. Jenkins earned the award on Dec. 4, 2006. Anderson also became the 13th different freshman from Liberty to earn the honor since the Big South started the award during the 1991 season.

McKay Inks Highly Anticipated Recruiting Class

In his first recruiting class at Liberty, head men's basketball coach Ritchie McKay and staff have signed Seth Curry, Brolin Floyd, Sammy Jackson, Mike Lewis, Carter McMasters and Austin Smith to national letters of intent for the 2008-09 academic year.

"I can't remember ever having a class like the one we were able to attract our first year at Liberty," said McKay, who has been a head coach in the Pac-10, Mountain West, Western Athletic and Big Sky Conferences.

"Typically it takes a little bit of time to establish yourself in an unfamiliar region of the country," added McKay. "What Liberty University offers a student-athlete is really reflected in the caliber of the individual and the caliber of the player we were able to sign."

Curry is the son of one of the NBA's most prolific three-point shooters, Dell Curry. A 6-0 combo guard from Charlotte, N.C., Curry has been a huge piece to Charlotte Christian's success over the past few years. As a junior, Curry averaged 13.0 points, 3.0 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 2.0 steals per game for a team that had four starters in double figures in scoring. Last season, Curry shot 50 percent from the field, earning CISAA all-conference honors. In his three years on the varsity squad, Charlotte Christian has amassed an 83-15 record, reaching the state final in 2006.

Floyd hails from Ocala, Fla., and plays for Shores Christian School. As a junior, the 6-5, 210- pound guard, averaged 17.8 points, 6.6 rebounds, 4.5 assists and 3.2 steals, leading Shores Christian to the NACA National Championship game.

Jackson is a 6-5 forward out of Jacksonville Junior College in Jacksonville, Texas. The Arlington, Texas native is currently playing his second year of junior college ball, after prepping at Bowie High School.

Lewis signs with the Flames out of Charis Prep in Goldsboro, N.C., the same prep school where Liberty's Armon Jones spent the 2006 season. Lewis, a 5-7 guard from Upper Marlboro, Md., was a four-year starter at Suitland, averaging 18.4 points, 7.0 assists and 3.0 steals per game as a senior. Lewis led Suitland to a 22-5 record as a senior, falling in the regional championship game to Eleanor Roosevelt, 55-53.

McMasters hails from Chattanooga, Tenn., where he will be a 2008 graduate of Grace Academy. The 6-11 forward averaged 14.0 points, 11.0 rebounds and 5.0 blocks per game as a junior at Grace, helping his team to the regional finals. The all-state honoree alters the game, evident by his 20 shots redirected last season.

Smith, a 6-9 forward from Tucson, Ariz., transferred to Ironwood Ridge from Mountain View. While at Mountain View as junior, Smith averaged 11.6 points and 6.8 rebounds per game.

Basketball Times Rates Liberty's Recruiting Class as No. 48 in the Nation

Basketball Times, a publication covering collegiate basketball for over 25 years, ranked Liberty's 2008 recruiting class at No. 48 in its most recent issue. Basketball Times ranked its Top 50, and Liberty joined No. 26 Xavier, No. 31 Rhode Island, No. 36 Fresno State, No. 36 New Mexico, No. 36 St. Louis, No. 41 Dayton, No. 50 Hofstra and No. 50 Gonzaga as the only schools that are not a part of a BCS conference.

Bench Outscored

Liberty's bench players are being outscored by an average of 2.6 points per game (16.4 to 13.8). On the year, Liberty outscored its first opponent in bench scoring on Dec. 4, when it faced Presbyterian. Liberty held a 18-10 bench scoring advantage over the Blue Hose that evening.

Liberty's bench failed to score any points in the Flames' win at East Carolina on Nov. 17. The last time the Liberty bench did not score in a contest was nearly a year ago to the day. On Nov. 16, 2006, Liberty failed to score any bench points in a 74-48 defeat at Oklahoma.

Points in the Paint

Liberty is holding a slight 0.3 points per game advantage on points scored in the paint this year over the Flames. Liberty averages 26.7 points per game in the paint, while opponents are scoring 26.4 tallies per contest. Liberty is scoring 60.7 percent of its points this season outside the paint.

Thirteen times this season Liberty has outscored its opponent in the paint. The first four occasions happened against Coker, Longwood, Niagara and Presbyterian, all home contests. Liberty outscored its first opponent in the paint on the road at George Mason on Dec. 30.

Liberty in the Lead

Liberty has spent 500:32 of a possible 560:00 in the lead during the Flames' 14 victories this season.

Game 1
Fresno, Calif.

Liberty lost its seventh-straight season opener as San Diego State got hot at the right time to defeat the Flames, 62-50, on the opening evening of Fresno State's World Vision Classic, at the World Vision Classic. The contest started out as a defensive juggernaut. San Diego staked themselves to a 7-4 lead on a three-point basket by Tim Shelton at the 16:31 mark. Neither team added to its point total over the next two minutes until Rell Porter hit the first end of two free throws for the Flames, cutting the lead to 7-5 at 14:43. Billy White hit a jumper on the next possession to push the lead to 9-5 for the Aztecs. Once again, neither squad could find the basket until the 9:48 mark when Anthony Smith hit a three-point bucket, cutting the lead to 9-8 with 9:48 left in the opening period. Smith then stole the ball from Kyle Spain, which led to TeeJay Bannister dishing an assist to Porter to give Liberty its first lead of the game, 10-9, with 8:55 remaining. San Diego State bounced back with six-straight points, with the run being capped by a Billy White dunk to take a 15-10 lead with 5:59 remaining. Liberty cut the lead back to two points, 15-13, on a Kyle Ohman three-point basket on the very next position. The Aztecs then made a push near the end of the half, taking a 10-point advantage, 27-17, courtesy of a 12-4 spurt, finished by a three-point bucket by Lorenzo Wade with 45 seconds left in the first half. Fresno State got hot to start the second half, going on a 14-3 run capped by a Ryan Amoroso jumper, extending its lead to 43-22, with 12:50 remaining. The Aztecs and the Flames went back and forth for the remainder of the game, concluding with a Liberty 6-0 run to finish the game, 62-50. The Flames were led by Porter who tied a career-best with 14 points. Smith assisted with 11 points, while Bannister chipped in seven points in the losing cause. Alex McLean led all rebounders with seven cars-

Game 2
Fresno, Calif.

Liberty kept the game close throughout, but was never able to completely overcome homesteading Fresno State, falling to the Bulldogs, 71-62, at the Save Mart Center on the second day of the World Vision Classic. Liberty started the evening hot, as they jumped out to a seven-point advantage, 15-8, courtesy of an Alex McLean bucket at the 10:36 mark. Fresno State regained the lead, 16-15, after a Hector Hernandez bucket off a Kevin Bell pass with 6:53 remaining, capping a 7-0 run. The Bulldogs extended their narrow lead to four points, 21-17, after a Bryan Harvey three-point bucket with 5:43 remaining. Liberty pulled back within one point after an Anthony Smith jumper and a Rell Porter bucket at the 3:25 mark, cutting the lead, 22-21. Fresno State exploded and ended the half on an 8-2 run, including two three-point baskets by Eddie Miller, going into the intermission with a 30-23 lead. Fresno State came out of the break and extended its lead to 12, courtesy of a Dwight O'Neil lay-up with 17:25 left in the contest, giving the Bulldogs the 37-25 advantage. Liberty continued to keep the game close, cutting the lead back down to five, 55-50, in front of the home standing crowd, when B.J. Jenkins hit the front end of a two-shot free throw. The made shot from the charity strip capped an 8-2 run with 3:44 remaining in the game. Fresno State bounced right back, thanks in part to the free throw shooting of Bell and Harvey. The duo went 11-of-12 from the line to close out the game on 16-7 run, giving Fresno State the 71-62 win. Smith led the Flames with 17 points on 7-of-14 shooting, and Jenkins added 16 points and a team-high four assists. McLean collected his first double-double of the season and 13th of his career, scoring 10 points and grabbing a game-high 14 rebounds.

Game 3
Fresno, Calif.

Liberty fell in its final game of Fresno State's World Vision Classic to the Portland Pilots, 73-62, inside the Save Mart Center. In a closely played first half, the Pilots held the advantage on the scoreboard the majority of the period. The Pilots drew first blood, taking a quick 4-0 lead after a Luke Sikma jumper at 17:47. After pushing the lead to 8-4 at the 16:18 mark on another Sikma basket, Liberty tied the game, 8-8, for the first time since the opening tip-off, when TeeJay Bannister scored coming out of the first media timeout, with 15:17 remaining in the opening stanza. After a turnover by Portland's Kramer Knutson, guard Anthony Smith gave Liberty its first lead of the contest with a driving lay-up at 14:35, for a 10-8 Flames' advantage. The Pilots came roaring back with a 12-3 run, to take a 20-13 lead, capped by a wide-open three-point bucket by Nik Raivio at 11:01. The Flames fought back on the heels of a 13-5 run, cutting the lead to 32-31 with 3:12 remaining. Two Robin Smeulders' free throws with 35 seconds left sent the Pilots into intermission with a 34-31 advantage. Sloppy play by the Flames, including three turnovers, helped the Pilots extend its lead to nine points, 53-44, with 10:58 remaining. Portland later extended its lead to 63-50 on a three-point bucket by Jared Stohl, with 7:58 remaining. Liberty was able to trim the Pilot lead back to nine points, 66-57, on a Smith layup with 2:32 remaining. It was as close as the Flames would get in the contest's closing minutes, as Portland closed out the game with a double-digit victory, 73-62. McLean led the Flames by collecting his second-straight double-double with 19 points and 10 rebounds.

Lynchburg, Va.

After only being back in Lynchburg for roughly 24 hours, the Liberty Flames showed no signs of fatigue, as they cruised to a 64-49 victory over the Coker Cobras, inside the Vines Center. Due to a canceled flight on Sunday night in Fresno, following the Flames' trip west for Fresno State's World Vision Classic, Liberty's squad was not fully back home until 6 p.m., on Monday night. Early in the game, Coker's Lukas Varaga picked the pocket of B.J. Jenkins on the first possession of the contest, leading to a basket to stake Cobras to a quick 2-0 lead. But, the advantage was short-lived as the Flames quickly shifted into high-gear. Liberty raced to a 22-6 lead, courtesy of a 22-4 run, capped by an Anthony Smith bucket at 9:47. The Cobras halted the run with a three-point basket by Ryan Fulwood at the 9:32 mark, cutting the score to 22-9. The Flames cruised down the court on the next possession, matching the three-point bucket with a Kyle Ohman marker at 9:10, pushing the score to 25-9. Coker temporarily halted the streaking Flames, going on a 10-2 run, which included three-point buckets by Fulwood and Blake Terrell. The quick surge was capped by a Sebastian Lacayo basket in the paint at 6:12, cutting Liberty's advantage to points, 29-19. Both squads went point-for-point for the final six minutes of the first stanza. Rell Porter grabbed an offensive rebound off a Smith miss and stuck it back, allowing the Flames to enter the intermission with a 41-30 lead. The Flames turned up the heat on the Cobras exiting halftime, quickly extending the lead to 53-35, at 13:56 remaining, courtesy of two Ohman three-point buckets and five-straight points by Alex McLean. Ohman continued his hot shooting, hitting two more three-point buckets, pushing the Flames' lead to 61-42 with 6:06 left in the contest. Coker managed a 7-1 spurt, capped by another Fulwood three pointer, at 3:28. And that would be as close as the Cobras would get, as Coker managed just one point over the remaining three minutes of play. Smith led the way with a game-high 15 points and 11 rebounds. Smith's double-double is his first of the year and third of his career. Ohman, who started his first collegiate game, set career highs with 15 points, including three-point field goals.

Game 5
Greenville, N.C.

Alex McLean rebounded a TeeJay Bannister miss and laid the game-winning bucket in with eight-tenths of a second remaining, sending Liberty to a 55-53 victory over East Carolina, Saturday night inside the Minges Coliseum. Liberty led the entire game until the closing second of the contest. Liberty milked the clock with under a minute to play, but an Anthony Smith miss from behind the arc at the shot clock's expiration fell right into the hands of Brock Young, the freshman guard for the Pirates. Young pushed ball down the court on a fast break, and was fouled by McLean in the lane with 18 seconds remaining. Young went to the line for two shots, sinking the first, tying the game, 53-53. Liberty called a timeout in between attempts and the freeze worked, as Young missed his second attempt. McLean grabbed the rebound and sent the outlet pass to Bannister with 16 seconds on the clock. Bannister pushed the ball toward the hole, setting the stage for the buzzer beater. Bannister dribble penetrated and shot a fade away in the lane with three seconds left. McLean and Blair battled for the rebound, but McLean had inside position. The Liberty senior then laid in the game winner with eight-tenths of a second remaining, sending the Flames to a 55-53 victory. Jenkins led Liberty with a career-high 22 points on 9-of-15 shooting.

Game 6
Lexington, Ky.

The Kentucky Wildcats had two weeks to mull over their 84-68 loss to Gardner-Webb in the 2K College Sports Classic. The time off worked against the Flames, as Liberty fell, 80-54, to Kentucky in its first game since the setback, inside the famed Rupp Arena. With the bad taste of its last contest against Gardner-Webb still in its mouth, Kentucky wasted no time getting started, opening the contest on a 12-2 run. The burst was finished off by Ramel Bradley's second three-point bucket at the 14:55 mark. Liberty got things going with a little spurt of its own, cutting the lead down to eight, 20-12, with 6:58 remaining. The Flames received two free throws from Russell Monroe, another from TeeJay Bannister and Alex McLean, followed by buckets from Anthony Smith and McLean during the scoring span. Liberty continued to trim the margin, getting it to seven, 24-17, after a Porter three-point bucket, followed by a McLean lay up at 3:27. But that would be as close as the Flames would get. Kentucky closed out the half on a 12-4 run, capped by a Joe Crawford three-point bucket with 34 seconds left in the first stanza, taking a 36-21 lead into the break. The Wildcats came out of the intermission gunning, quickly extending their lead to 17 when Patterson hit two free throws at 17:20, pushing the score to 42-25. The Flames never got closer, falling by 26 points. The Flames were led by McLean's 15 points and five rebounds. Smith chipped in 10 points, while B.J. Jenkins scored nine points and grabbed four rebounds. Porter added eight points and grabbed five of the Flames' 15 offensive rebounds.

Lynchburg, Va.

After starting the season with five of its first six contests away from the friendly confines of the Vines Center, Liberty fired on all cylinders in the Flames first home game in two weeks, cruising to a 91-67 victory over the Longwood Lancers Tuesday night. From the opening tip, Liberty controlled the contest. Alex McLean scored nine points in the first four minutes helping the Flames spring to an early 14-2 advantage. A TeeJay Bannister three-point bucket just 4:07 into the contest capped the opening scoring burst. Anthony Smith scored 11-straight points for the Flames, increasing the Liberty lead to 25-10, with 11:06 remaining in the opening stanza. Longwood cut the lead down to nine, courtesy of a 10-4 run, finished by a made free throw by Ryan Bogan, with 7:50 left in the firsthalf. The Flames responded with a 12-2 spurt of their own to push their lead to 20 points, their largest of the opening stanza at 42-22, with 3:05 remaining. Over the half's final three minutes, Longwood was only able to cut the Flames' advantage by a point to 46-27 at the break. The Flames started the second half by outscoring the Lancers, 17-9. McLean capped the surge by hitting the second of two foul shots on a trip to the charity strip with 13:53 left to up the Liberty lead to 63-36. The Flames continued to control the game, reaching its biggest lead of the game, 35, on a three-point bucket by Kyle Ohman with 5:47 remaining to make it, 85-50. After Bogan connected on two free throws, Nathan Campbell connected on his first shot of the season, collecting his first collegiate points with 5:04 left in the game, pushing the lead back to 35 at 87-52. During the game's final five minutes, Longwood held a 15-4 scoring advantage, but it wasn't enough in a 91-67 Flames' victory. McLean paced Liberty with his third double-double of the year and 15th of his career. The senior scored 33 points and grabbed 11 caroms, both game highs

Game 8
Lynchburg, Va.

Anthony Smith hit a three-point bucket with 23 seconds remaining, allowing Liberty to regain the lead, on the Flames' way to an 86-81 triumph over Niagara, inside the Vines Center. The game's final moments created a dramatic finish of an evenly played contest. Ahead 78-77, Niagara came down the court and missed a lay-up by Demetriu Williamson with 37 seconds left. Kyle Ohman grabbed the defensive rebound, setting the stage for the game's finish. Smith took a TeeJay Bannister hand-off after two set screens, knocking down the 20-footer at the top of the key, staking Liberty to an 80-78 advantage. Niagara called a timeout, setting the stage for what looked like the game's final play. With nine seconds on the clock, Tyrone Lewis tried to go in for a lay-up before being blocked on the backside by Ohman. Alex McLean grabbed the loose-ball rebound, prompting the game's dramatic climax. McLean was fouled by Andrew Patterson with eight seconds left. Liberty was in the double-bonus, giving McLean two free attempts from the free throw line. While McLean knocked down his first attempt, extending the lead to 81-78, Niagara head coach Joe Mihalich received a double technical foul. Liberty was granted four more free throws, which B.J. Jenkins knocked down all four, pushing the lead up to seven, 85-78. McLean still had one more attempt, which he hit, extending Liberty to a 86-78 lead and sealing the victory. All five Liberty starters reached double figures with Jenkins leading the way with a game-high 24 points on 7-of-10 shooting. Jenkins also grabbed four rebounds and dished out four assists. Bannister tallied 16 points and dished out a career high seven assists, while tying a career high with five rebounds.

Game 9
Lynchburg, Va.

After being named Big South Conference Player of the Week yesterday, Alex McLean continued his dynamic play by scoring 25 points, leading Liberty to its third-straight victory. The Flames topped the Presbyterian Blue Hose, 69-47, inside the Vines Center. Down 3-0, Liberty missed its first four shots of the contest before McLean slammed home two points at 16:54, cutting the Blue Hose lead to one, 3-2. McLean's bucket sparked Liberty to an 11-2 surge, finished by a B.J. Jenkins jumper from the right elbow at 11:40. Jenkins' bucket gave Liberty an 11-5 lead. Liberty quickly pushed the lead to 15 points, 27-12, when McLean took a Jenkins pass to the basket at 5:05. The Flames were able to maintain the sizeable advantage for the duration of the first half, heading into the break with an 18-point advantage after a McLean bucket at 1:00. The Blue Hose stormed out of the intermission reeling off a 14-1 run, capped by a John Johnson bucket at 16:02, to cut the Liberty lead to five, 36-31. Liberty halted the Presbyterian surge with a McLean bucket at 15:48, extending the lead to 38-31. Kyle Ohman scored five-straight points to push Liberty's lead back to nine, 48-37, at the 12:30 mark. And the Blue Hose would get no closer, as the Flames closed out the game holding a 21-10 advantage, a run which included five-straight points by Tim Layer. McLean was a force down low, leading the Flames with 25 points on 11-of-17 shooting, while grabbing nine caroms, one short of his fourth double-double of the season.

Game 10
Buies Creek, N.C.

Despite 20 points by Alex McLean and B.J. Jenkins, the Liberty Flames saw their three game-winning streak halted, suffering a tightly-contested 73-70 setback to the Campbell Fighting Camels, at Carter Gym. Neither team gained much of an advantage early on, as the two squads traded baskets over the first four minutes of play. A three-point basket by Jake Wohlfeil at the 15:21 mark gave the Camels the lead, which they would hold until the waning seconds of the first half. Five minutes later, TeeJay Bannister found McLean open and the senior connected on a jumper with 9:52 left to play in the first, cutting Campbell's lead to three points, 15-12. The homestanding Camels proceeded to net the next eight points, closing the 8-0 run on a Preston Dodson jumper at the 7:16 mark to stake Campbell to a 23-12 lead. Following a pair of free throws from Jenkins and a lay-up by Rodriguez with 4:45 left before the break, Liberty strung together a 15-3 run over the remainder of the half. Liberty scored the first three points of the second half to open its first edge since netting the game's opening bucket, 37-34 at 18:35. Jenkins tallied all three markers on a jumper on the Flames' first possession of the half and, after a Campbell turnover and foul, hit 1-of-2 from the charity stripe. The teams exchanged the lead over the next three minutes play until two made free throws by McLean started a 9-3 run for the Flames at 14:09. Campbell erased the Liberty advantage over the next several minutes, taking back the lead, 55-54, on a layup by Vejraska with 7:32 left. After a Rodriguez bucket moved the Campbell lead back to four in the final minute, Jenkins connected on a three-pointer with 29 seconds left to make it, 71-70. The Flames forced a turnover on the Camels' next trip down the floor, setting up a chance to take the lead with 18 seconds left. However, Liberty would miss a jumper with seven seconds left and turn the ball over on a walk after getting the offensive rebound. Wohlfeil hit two foul shots in the closing seconds to seal a 73-70 victory for Campbell. McLean posted a double-double with 20 points and 11 rebounds.

Game 11
Blacksburg, Va.

The Virginia Tech Hokies trudged past the Liberty Flames, 58-46, inside Cassell Coliseum. The Flames jumped out quickly to a 5-0 lead, courtesy of a Rell Porter bucket and a Kyle Ohman three-point field goal at 17:23. Liberty then stretched the lead to four points, 7-3, when TeeJay Bannister tallied two points in the lane at the 15:20 mark. Virginia Tech took its first lead of the contest, 8-7, when A.D. Vassallo hit a three-point bucket from the wing at 12:36. The Flames regained the lead, 13-8, courtesy of back-to-back three-point buckets by Anthony Smith and Ohman, with Smith's coming at 9:18. The Hokies tied the game for the third time at 21 when Vassallo was successful on both attempts from the charity stripe with 56.4 seconds remaining in the first stanza. Liberty took what would be its final lead of the contest going into the intermission when Ohman put back a Jeremy Anderson missed jump with 2.8 seconds remaining, giving the Flames the 23-21 halftime advantage. The Hokies sprinted out of the break to take a 29-23 lead, courtesy of an 8-0 run, which was capped by six-straight points by Malcolm Delaney. A three-point bucket at 16:21 finished the run prior to the second period's first media timeout. Virginia Tech extended the lead to nine points, 34-25, after another three-point bucket by Delaney and a Washington free throw at 13:58. And that would be as close as Liberty would get, as the Hokies managed to push the lead back to double digits by the game's close. McLean led the way for the Flames with 14 points and five rebounds.

Game 12
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty held on in the end to defeat the Campbell Fighting Camels, 68-61, inside the Vines Center. Both squads were playing their first contest in over a week due to the Christmas holiday, and started a little slowly at the offensive end. The score was knotted at 4-4, three minutes into the game. The Flames then sprinted on an 11-0 run, courtesy of three-point baskets by TeeJay Bannister, B.J. Jenkins and Kyle Ohman. The bucket by Ohman at 13:18 gave the Flames a 15-4 advantage. Campbell charged with a 6-0 run, finished by a pair of free throws by Reggie Bishop, cutting the lead to 31-26, with 1:07 left in the first stanza. The Flames wasted no time answering the surge, as Ohman tallied the six points back when he hit two-straight three-point buckets. The last connection came with three seconds left in the opening period, sending Liberty into the intermission with a 37-26 lead. Campbell scored the first points of the second half via two Rodriguez free throws, cutting the Liberty lead to 37-29 at 19:00. The Flames then extended the lead to 15 points, 44-29, courtesy of a 7-0 run, capped by a Bannister layup at the 17:39 mark. The Camels started to mount a comeback with eight-consecutive markers, cutting the Liberty advantage to 52-45, via a jumper by Oladapo Fagbenle in the lane at 7:00. Campbell then cut the lead to two points, 61-59, via a 14-9 surge, capped by a Jake Wohlfeil three-point bucket at 3:25. Ohman pushed the Flames' lead back to five, 64-59, with a three-point bucket of his own at 2:18. Bishop hit a layup in the lane at the 1:50 mark, cutting the deficit to three points, 64-61, but that was as close as the Camels would get. McLean led Liberty with 22 points on 9-of-13 shooting.

Fairfax, Va.

Anthony Smith scored a career-high 24 points, but it wasn't enough as the George Mason Patriots hold on to win a physical battle, 72-64, inside the Patriot Center. George Mason streaked to a quick 9-0 lead, courtesy of three-straight three-point buckets, capped by Dre Smith's second of the contest at 16:23. Anthony Smith stopped the surge at 16:15 with a three-point bucket of his own, cutting the Mason lead to six points, 9-3. The Patriots extended the lead to 10, 13-3, via a Louis Birdsong lay-up at 14:45. The Flames slashed the lead to four, 13-9, after scoring six-straight points. During the scoring burst, Smith connected on an alley-opp dunk from TeeJay Bannister and tallied another bucket from Bannister assist. Alex McLean ended the run with a bucket off another Bannister dime at 12:34. Liberty reduced the lead to two points, via a McLean bucket and another Smith three-point field goal at 8:02, cutting the score to 18-16. The Flames then tied the game for the first time since the opening tip when B.J. Jenkins went coast-to-coast, laying in a bucket and knocking the game at 20, with 5:17 left to play in the opening stanza. Liberty took its first lead of the game when Smith hit a three-point bucket coming out of the intermission, taking the 30-28 advantage at the 19:12 mark. The Patriots then went on an 18-2 run, regaining the lead, 46-32, capped by an old fashioned three-point play by John Vaughn with 11:43 left to play. Liberty was able to cut the game back to six, 70-64, after Jenkins hit a three-point bucket with 17 seconds left. But that would be as close as the Flames would get as Mason held on to the eight-point victory, 72-64. Liberty's Smith led the Flames with a career-high 24 points on 9-of-13 shooting. Smith also pulled down six rebounds. Jenkins scored 18 points on 7-of-12 shooting, while McLean chipped in 16 points.

Game 14
Lynchburg, Va.

TeeJay Bannister dished out seven assists on Liberty's first seven field goals, as the Flames won their sixth-straight home game, defeating the Nyack Warriors, 74-57, inside the Vines Center. The Warriors quickly jumped out to a 5-2 lead after Brian Roberts opened up the game with a three-point bucket and a transition dunk, giving the Warriors the early advantage at 16:50. Liberty answered back, staking itself to a 13-5 lead, courtesy of an 11-0 run, capped by an Alex McLean bucket at 14:22. The Flames pushed the lead to 18-8, after another McLean bucket via a Bannister assist at the 12:03 mark. A Tracey Quarles bucket and two McLean makes from the charity stripe closed out the half, sending Liberty into the intermission with a 40-32 advantage. The Flames came out of the intermission holding a 15-7 advantage, entering the second media timeout, extending its lead to 55-39. Russell Monroe hit a 15-footer from the corner off a Kyle Ohman pass at 11:22, capping the spurt. Liberty then extended its lead past 20 for the first time in the game when McLean took a B.J. Jenkins pass and laid it in with 8:33 remaining in the contest. The field goal gave the Flames a 62-42 advantage. Head coach Ritchie McKay then emptied his bench, as 14 Liberty players made an appearance in the contest, helping the Flames cruise to an easy victory. Smith tallied 21 points on 7-of-11 shooting, marking the first time in the junior's career he has scored 20 points in back-to-back games.

Game 15
Lynchburg, Va.

Four Vines Center records were matched or broken as the Liberty Flames gallivanted to an 84-45 victory over the Kentucky Christian Knights, in its final non-conference tune-up, inside the Vines Center. Kentucky Christian started the game perfect, hitting its first three shots, including back-to-back three-point buckets by Eric McKee, staking the Knights to an 8-5 lead at 17:29. The Flames then rattled off a 16-2 run to take a 21-10 lead at 13:23. B.J. Jenkins ended the surge with a lay-up. The run also included two three-point baskets by Kyle Ohman and another trey by Anthony Smith, his second up to that point in the game. Liberty then went on another run to take a 38-19 lead. The 17-9 jaunt was capped by Ohman's third trey of the first stanza at 5:25. The Knights hit two three-point buckets by Kalen Jones down the stretch to enter the intermission trailing the Flames by 15 points, 45-30. The second half was all Liberty as the Flames went into the eight-minute media timeout yielding only seven second half points to take a 71-37 advantage. From there Liberty emptied the bench and cruised to the easy 84-45 victory. Smith led all scorers with 20 points on 8-of-12 shooting.

Game 16
Asheville, N.C.

The UNC Asheville Bulldogs had a hot hand from the floor, inside the Justice Center, sending Liberty home with a nail-biting 74-70 setback. The game started out at a slow offensive pace, with the score knotted at six apiece after K.J. Garland hit a jumper in the lane at 15:32. The Bulldogs then scored seven-straight points to take a 13-6 lead. The spurt was finished off by a Bryan Smithson bucket at 12:20. UNC Asheville extended the lead to 23-8, courtesy of a 10-2 run, capped by a Kenny George dunk at 10:13. Liberty then found its outside shooting touch, finishing the half on a 23-11 run, trailing by three, 34-31, going into the intermission. The spurt included three-point buckets by Rell Porter, B.J. Jenkins and two by Jeremy Anderson, his second dropping through the cylinder with two-tenths of a second remaining in the first stanza. The Bulldogs came out of the break holding a slight 15-10 advantage over the first five-and-a-half minutes, extending the lead to 49-41. The surge was capped by a three-point bucket by Smithson at 14:32. The Flames took their first lead since 16:09 in the first half when Kyle Ohman's connected on a three-point bucket from the wing at 3:34, finishing off a 14-5 run, giving Liberty a 68-67 advantage. After Ohman's bucket, Alex McLean dumped in two points off his own offensive rebound to extend the lead to three points, 70-67, with 2:11 left in the contest. Those would be the last points Liberty would score. On UNC Asheville's next trip down the floor, Smithson stuck a three-point bucket, his fourth of the game, tying the contest at 70 apiece with 2:02 left to play. A loose ball foul by Ohman with 55 seconds left in the contest sent Reid Augst to the line to shoot two foul shots. Augst hit the front end of the two-shot foul, giving the Bulldogs a 71-70 lead. A missed Ohman three-point attempt with 18 seconds left forced Liberty to foul. Anthony Smith fouled Garland, who sank both attempts from the foul line, increasing the Bulldog lead to 73-70. Ohman missed once more from three-point range with five seconds left. Rell Porter fouled Garland on the rebound, sending the senior to the line for two shots. Garland made the second attempt with two seconds on the clock, clinching the win for UNC Asheville. Ohman led the way for Liberty in the scoring column, with 14 points and four assists, while Bannister tallied 13 points and dished out a game-high eight assists. McLean and Porter chipped in 12 and 11 points, respectively, as four Flames tallied double figures.

Game 17
Rock Hill, S.C.

Liberty fell on the short end of a physical battle, inside the Winthrop Coliseum, as the Winthrop Eagles topped the Flames, 55-48. With the loss, the Flames record falls to 8-9 and 0-2 in Big South play. The Flames took an early 7-2 advantage at 15:13, on the heels of back-to-back three-point buckets by Rell Porter and Anthony Smith. Then, the Eagles the reeled off eight-straight points, taking a 10-7 lead. Charles Corbin finished the surge with a bucket in the paint at 10:30. Liberty regained the lead, 13-10, after Jeremy Anderson and pair of back-to-back three-point buckets, his second coming at 8:52. The Flames extended the lead to five, 17-12, after Alex McLean made both his attempts from the charity stripe at 6:40. The Eagles then closed out the half on a 16-7 run, capped by a three-point bucket at the buzzer by Michael Jenkins. During the spurt, Winthrop received seven points from Jenkins and a three-point play by Mantis Robinson. The Flames cut the Eagles' lead to one point, 31-30, after a Smith dunk in transition at 16:18. Winthrop was able to increase its lead to seven, 40-33, when Robinson tallied a bucket at 11:45. Liberty then cut the lead back down to three, 40-37, on a McLean dunk with 9:54 left in the game. The Flames managed to trim the lead to two, 42-40, when Smith connected on a three-point basket from the wing at 8:43. But that would be as close as Liberty would get, as Winthrop extended the lead up to eight, 51-43, when Jenkins knocked down a three-point bucket with 1:23 remaining in the contest. The Flames were able cut it back to a three-point deficit, 51-48, with 48 seconds left, when Bannister knocked down a three-point bucket and two free throws. However, Taj McCullough solidified the victory with two transition buckets, sending the Eagles to the 55-48 triumph. Liberty got a solid performance from Smith, who led all scorers with 17 points on 6-of-8 shooting. McLean chipped in 10 points and nine rebounds, while Bannister dished out a game-high nine assists.

Game 18
Lynchburg, Va.

Anthony Smith scored a game-high 22 points and TeeJay Bannister dished out eight assists to help the Liberty Flames to its first Big South victory of the season, 79-63, over the Charleston Southern Buccaneers, inside the Vines Center. Charleston Southern jumped out to the early 5-2 lead, courtesy of an Omar Carter bucket in the lane, followed by a three-pointer from the wing at 17:30. The Buccaneers then extended the lead to four points, 8-4, via a three-point bucket by Shelton Carter at 15:34. The Flames responded, exploding on a 20-5 run to take a 24-13 lead, capped by two Alex McLean baskets from the charity stripe at 9:10. The Buccaneers were able to cut the lead to five, 32-28, courtesy of a 15-8 advantage over the next nine minutes of play. Jamarco Warren's three-point bucket with 47.2 seconds left ended the spurt. Charleston Southern went into the intermission down four points, 34-30, after Tovi Bailey sank both his free throw attempts with seven-tenths of a second left in the opening period. The Flames opened up the second half on a 24-9 run, taking a 54-39 lead into the second media timeout at 11:35. McLean scored the first five points of the half and seven of the Flames' first nine markers. Bannister hit two free throws to extend the lead to 21 points, 62-41, after Quinton Goods was tagged for a technical foul. Charleston Southern then ripped off a 15-4 run, cutting the lead down to 10 points, 66-56, capped by an Omar Carter bucket at 6:09. However, that would be as close as the Buccaneers would get. Liberty closed out the game on a 13-7 surge, taking home its first Big South Conference win of the season, 79-63. Smith tallied a game-high 22 points on 8-of-14 shooting, including 4-of-8 from three-point range.

Game 19
Lynchburg, Va.

TeeJay Bannister dished out 15 assists and Alex McLean collected his seventh double-double, as the Liberty Flames cruised to a 78-59 victory, over the Coastal Carolina Chanticleers, inside the Vines Center. Liberty struck early when Anthony Smith stuck a three-point bucket 13 seconds into the game, staking the Flames to the early 3-0 lead. Coastal Carolina cut the Flames' lead to one, 5-4, after a Phil Wallace bucket in the paint at 17:46. Liberty extended its lead to 21-11, courtesy of a 16-7 spurt, capped by a B.J. Jenkins bucket at 10:32. A three-point bucket by Jeremy Anderson at 8:02 and two free throws by Alex McLean extended the Liberty lead to 15, 28-13, with 7:13 left in the first stanza. The Chanticleers quickly bounced back, cutting the Liberty lead to eight, 28-20, after an old-fashioned three-point play by Phil Wallace at 3:56. The Chanticleers trimmed the Flames' lead down to five at the break, 34-29, after six-straight points, which included a Wallace bucket and two makes from the charity stripe by Logan Johnson. After Wallace scored on Coastal Carolina's first possession of the second stanza to cut Liberty's lead to three, 34-31, at the 19:36 mark, Liberty went on an 8-0 run. The surge pushed the lead back up to 11 points, 42-31, courtesy of a McLean bucket at the 17:47 mark. During the remainder of the contest, the score never got closer than 14 points, as Liberty cruised to the 19-point victory, 78-59. McLean led the way with game highs with 22 points and 12 rebounds, marking his seventh double-double of the season.

Game 20
Lynchburg, Va.

Alex McLean's two free throws with 20.7 seconds left lifted the Liberty Flames over the High Point Panthers, 55-51, inside the Vines Center. The contest was close all night, as the final minutes determined the outcome. A B.J. Jenkins three-point basket from the top of the key put Liberty up by one point, 50-49, with 2:26 remaining in the contest. After a Eugene Harris miss, Arizona Reid fouled Alex McLean on Liberty's ensuing possession. Liberty was in the bonus, sending McLean to the line to shoot the one-and-one. McLean sank 1-of-2, giving the Flames a narrow two-point lead, 51-49, with 1:44 left. McLean then returned the favor to Reid, fouling the Preseason Big South Player of the Year, sending him to the line to shoot a one-and-one. Reid hit both free throw attempts, tying the game at 51, with 45.8 seconds remaining. On Liberty's next trip down the court, McLean was fouled while rebounding a Jenkins miss, sending the Liberty senior to the line with 20.7 seconds left. McLean sank both attempts from the charity stripe, giving the Flames the lead, 53-51. High Point went down the court, looking for Reid, who was heavily covered. Jefferson dumped a pass to Cruz Daniels, who lost the handle and dropped the ball out of bounds, giving possession to Liberty with four seconds left. After a High Point timeout, TeeJay Bannister tossed a baseball pass to a streaking Jenkins who layed it in, solidifying the Liberty victory, 55-51, with 2.0 seconds remaining. McLean finished with a team-high 18 points and a game-high 10 rebounds.

Game 21
Lexington, Va.

Anthony Smith scored 22 points and Jeremy Anderson erupted for 20 points, as Liberty recorded its fourth-straight win, 87-81, with a victory over the VMI Keydets, inside Cameron Hall. VMI raced out to a quick nine point lead, 15-6, capped by a Quinn Brownfield three-point bucket at 14:47. The Flames quickly settled in after that bucket, taking a 20-17 lead, courtesy of a 14-2 run. The run was capped by back-to-back three-point buckets by Anderson, the latter coming at 12:07. Liberty extended its lead, 32-26, with 7:41 left in the opening stanza, courtesy of five-straight points by Smith. Anderson and Kyle Ohman took over the next five minutes, pushing Liberty's lead to 46-37, as each guard nailed two three-point buckets. Anderson's trey at 2:39 ended the Liberty run. The Flames finished the half with a 7-2 advantage, entering the intermission with the 53-39 lead. The Keydets came out of the break and quickly cut Liberty's 16-point lead to seven points, 57-50, via an 11-4 run, capped by a Travis Holmes three-point bucket at 16:10. Liberty then went up 12 points, 87-75, after TeeJay Bannister knocked down 3-of-4 free throw attempts with 58 seconds left. VMI was able to slice the lead to six, but it wasn't enough as the Flames held onto the 87-81 triumph. Smith led the Liberty charge with 22 points on 10-of-16 shooting, as five Flames reached double figures. Anderson tallied a career-high 20 points on 7-of-9 shooting, including 6-of-8 from three-point range.

Game 22
Radford, Va.

The Liberty Flames tallied 62 second half point, but it wasn't enough as the Radford Highlanders recorded an 89-88 homecoming victory, inside the Dedmon Center. Liberty wasted no time getting started, jumping out to an 8-2 lead, courtesy of B.J. Jenkins layup at 17:55. Back-to-back Anthony Smith buckets, his second coming at 13:28, extended the Liberty lead to five points, 12-7. Radford then went out on a 7-0 run, to take their first lead at 13-12. McDuffy capped the run with his jumper at 13:08. The Highlanders held a 7-5 advantage over the final two minutes to enter the intermission with a 32-26 lead. A 10-5 jaunt pushed Radford's lead to a game-high 14 points, 49-35, with 13:22 left in the contest. Amir Johnson's three-point bucket capped the run. Liberty roared back on the heels of a 15-2 run, cutting the Highlander lead to one point, 51-50. Jeremy Anderson's layup in transition capped the run at 9:45. Within 90 seconds, the Radford lead was back to eight points, 61-53, via a Kenny Thomas three-point bucket that capped a 10-2 run with 8:06 left in the second stanza. However, the game was far from over, as Ritchie McKay had his troops in quick foul mode after Anderson hit his three-point attempt with 42 seconds left. Anderson's bucket cut the Radford advantage to four points, 81-77. Liberty scored 11 points over the next 42 seconds but it wasn't enough as Radford held onto the 89-88 victory. Five Flames reached double figures, led by Jenkins' 21 points on 8-of-10 shooting.

Game 23
High Point, N.C.

A cold-shooting night by Liberty helped send the Flames to a 67-53 setback against the High Point Panthers, inside the Millis Athletic Center. The Panthers jumped out to a quick advantage with an 8-2 run, which included five-straight points by Arizona Reid to start the game. Eugene Harris capped the opening stretch with a three-point bucket at 17:15. Liberty cut the High Point lead with an 8-4 spurt. High Point quickly pushed its lead to eight points, 21-13. The Panthers' surge consisted of a Harris three-point bucket, followed by six-straight points by Reid, including two free throws at 10:48. Liberty fought back to take its only lead of the game, 22-21, reeling off nine-straight points. The spurt was finished off by an Anthony Smith three-point bucket at 6:55. High Point pulled away over the remaining 6:55 to cruise into the intermission with a 36-28 advantage, outscoring the Flames 15-6. The second half started off with a three-point bonanza, as the Panthers and Flames traded three point baskets through the opening eight minutes of the second. High Point extended its lead during the exchange to 51-40. Six three-point buckets were made, three by each squad during the barge. Reid ended the trey exchange by grabbing a Harris miss, and laying it in with 11:44 left. Liberty was able cut their deficit to seven points a couple times during the second half, the last coming at 7:35. McLean grabbed a Bannister miss, and put it back for a bucket, cutting the Panthers' advantage to 55-48. It was as close as Liberty would get the rest of the way, as High Point went on a 12-1 run for a 67-49 advantage with 1:59 left. Russell Monroe scored in the lane with 43 seconds left, Liberty's first field goal in nearly seven minutes. Monroe added two more points from the charity stripe in the closing second, as the Panthers closed out the 76-53 victory. The Flames were led by McLean's 10th double-double of the season.

Game 24
Lynchburg, Va.

The Liberty Flames knocked off the first place UNC Asheville Bulldogs, 83-54, in front of 6,566 raucous fans, inside the Vines Center. The Flames wasted no time getting started, staking themselves to a quick 9-0 lead. B.J. Jenkins capped the run with a bucket at the 15:11 mark. The Bulldogs hit their first field goal at 12:36 when Sean Smith connected from behind the arc. The trey cut the Flames' advantage to 14-4. Smith followed with another tally from outside the arc on the Bulldogs ensuing trip down the court, slicing the Liberty lead to seven points with 12:14 left in the first stanza. Finding their shooting touch, UNC Asheville started to get things rolling, cutting the Liberty lead two points, 21-19, by virtue of a 12-7 spurt. Garland completed the run with a shot in the lane at the 6:54 mark. An Anthony Smith free throw at 3:16 extended the lead up to seven points, 29-22, finishing an 8-3 Liberty burst. The Bulldogs then scored seven unanswered points to knot the game at 29 apiece, with 42.5 seconds left before intermission. TeeJay Bannister was fouled with 39.4 seconds, giving Liberty a chance to enter the intermission with the lead. The senior guard sank both attempts from the charity stripe to send the Flames into the break with the 31-29 advantage. Reid Augst knocked down back-to-back three-point buckets to open the second half, providing UNC Asheville its first lead of the game, 35-31. Liberty quickly retook the lead, 36-35, courtesy of a B.J. Jenkins trey and a Porter marker at 18:11. Liberty went on to outscore the Bulldogs 47-19, securing the victory. Liberty had five players in double figures, headed by Smith's 18 points on 7-of-12 shooting.

Lynchburg, Va.

Cold shooting and turnovers led to Liberty's 59-50 setback to the Winthrop Eagles, inside the Vines Center. Liberty was the first on the board when TeeJay Bannister found Alex McLean on the block for a basket at 19:41. Winthrop quickly matched the Flames, as Michael Jenkins hit a jumper from the right elbow on the Eagles next possession at 19:22. Bannister then stole an errant pass by Chris Gaynor and dished out another assist on transition, this time to a streaking Anthony Smith who dunked home two points at 18:34, giving Liberty the 4-2 advantage. The Flames then stormed to a seven-point lead, 15-7, due to an 11-2 run. A Kyle Ohman trey capped the surge at 11:10. Liberty extended the margin to nine points, 18-9, after Smith connected from behind the arc with 10:18 left in the opening stanza. Liberty managed just one more field the remainder of the first period, a B.J. Jenkins basket at 7:24, allowing Winthrop to tie the game at 21 a piece going into the intermission. Robinson capped the 12-3 run with a jumper at the 1:05 mark. Winthrop opened up the second half on an 8-2 spurt, taking a six-point lead, 29-23, on a Charles Corbin bucket with 17:10 left to play. Liberty struck back quickly, tying the game at 29 with 15:55 left in the contest, courtesy of treys by Ohman and Jeremy Anderson. The Eagles' Jenkins connected for a three-pointer at 15:34, allowing Winthrop to take a three point lead, 32-29. However, Liberty rode a Jenkins bucket and a McLean marker to retake the lead, 33-32, with 12:41 remaining. That would be the last time Liberty would hold the advantage. The Eagles took the lead and extended it 12 points, outscoring the Flames 15-5. Byron Faison's basket at 2:26 capped the stretch. The Eagles held their advantage over the final two-and-a-half minutes, securing the nine-point victory, 59-50. The Flames were led by McLean, who tallied his third-straight double-double with 16 points and 11 rebounds. McLean also collected his 500th career rebound during the contest.

Lynchburg, Va.

Anthony Smith scored his 1,000 career point, as the Liberty Flames topped the Coastal Carolina Chanticleers, 65-51, inside Kimbel Arena. It took Liberty nearly three minutes to score its first points of the game. B.J. Jenkins' trey hit the bottom of the net at 17:12, to give the Flames an early 3-2 lead in a half which started out as a defensive struggle. The Flames didn't score another field goal in the following two minutes, yet regained the lead, 6-4, when Jenkins hit another three-point bucket at 15:15. Five-straight points by Logan Johnson staked Coastal Carolina to its largest lead of the first half at 9-6. Johnson's jumper from the right elbow capped the run at 14:15. Liberty then held the Chanticleers scoreless for the next seven minutes. Using the solid defensive effort, the Flames tallied nine unanswered points to take a 15-9 advantage. TeeJay Bannister finished the stretch with a jumper in the lane with 12:55 remaining. Coastal Carolina came back in the closing four minutes of the first stanza, going into the intermission on the heels of a 10-2 run. Jack Leasure hit a three-point bucket with 2.5 seconds left before the break, slicing the Liberty lead to 25-21 at halftime. In the second half, Coastal Carolina tied the game at 32-32 with a basket in the paint by Anthony Breeze at the 16:34 mark. The Chanticleers then took its final lead of the game, 37-36, courtesy of a 5-4 exchange, capped by two free throws by Phil Wallace at 13:55. Liberty followed by opening up the game with an 18-5 run, retaking the lead, 54-42. A Jenkins trey from the corner at 7:55 completed the Flames' burst, as Liberty took control. Head coach Ritchie McKay's squad's lead never dropped below 12 points the rest of the way.

Game 27
Charleston, S.C.

Liberty let an opportunity to climb up the Big South Conference standings slip away, as the Flames fall to the Charleston Southern Buccaneers, 87-82, inside the CSU Field House. Omar Carter's jumper from the corner at 16:51 helped Charleston Southern stake itself to an early 10-2 lead. Liberty quickly answered the Buccaneers' call with a 12-3 spurt, taking a 14-13 lead. Jeremy Anderson's trey from the wing at 13:15 capped the run. Shawn Outen retook the lead for Charleston Southern, 15-14, with his bucket at 12:30. Liberty quickly snatched the lead away via an Anthony Smith three-point field goal at 12:12, giving the Flames a 17-15 advantage. The Buccaneers regained the lead, 18-17, courtesy of a Chris Moore trey at 12:00. Each team traded the lead one more time each before Liberty stormed out to its largest lead of the half at five points, 30-25. After trailing by one point, 25-24, Anderson hit his second three-point field goal of the first stanza, followed by Alex McLean old-fashioned three-point play at 3:00. Charleston Southern fought back with a 6-0 run of its own, capped by two makes from the charity stripe by Tovi Bailey, giving the Buccaneers its final lead of the first half, 31-30. Liberty retook the lead going into the intermission, 34-31, courtesy of a Smith bucket at 1:33 and a McLean make with eight-tenths of a second left before the break. The start of the second half was a seesaw battle with Liberty holding a slight 11-9 advantage, increasing its lead to five points, 45-40. Smith's trey at 15:25 topped the run. Charleston Southern then cut the Liberty advantage down to one point, 54-53, via an Omar Carter layup with 9:26 left. The Buccaneers would never trail again and was able to hold on to the five point victory, 87-82, despite a late surge by the Flames. Smith and TeeJay Bannister each tallied 20 points. Bannister registered his first double-double in a Flame uniform, while dishing out a game-high 12 assists.

Game 28
Farmville, Va.

Timely three-point shooting by the Longwood Lancers led to Liberty's 79-68 non-conference setback, inside Willett Hall. Alex McLean grabbed a Kyle Ohman miss under the basket and placed it back in the cylinder at 17:32, helping Liberty to the early 9-4 lead. Longwood then scored five-straight points to tie the game at nine apiece when Billy Robinson, Jr. tallied a bucket at 13:35. Liberty retook the lead, 22-16, via a 13-7 spurt, capped by Anthony Smith's old-fashioned three-point play at 8:45. Longwood took its first lead of the game, 23-22, at 7:15 when Brandon Giles hit a trey from the wing, capping a 7-0 run. The Lancers maintained their narrow lead, closing out the half with a 12-9 advantage to head in the intermission leading at 35-31. A Giles trey 66 seconds into the second stanza extended the Longwood lead to seven points, 38-31, with 18:54 left in the game. Liberty cut the deficit down to one point, 40-39, after a Tim Layer steal from Ryan Bogan led to an old-fashioned three-point play by Alex McLean, capping an 8-2 spurt with 16:11 left in the game. The Lancers struck back quickly and hard, sprinting on 17-4 run, extending its lead to 13 points, 57-44. Giles ended the spurt with a trey from the wing with 11:23 left in the second stanza. The Liberty deficit ran to 17 points, 67-50, after a Bogan three-point bucket, his third-of-five in the second half, hit the bottom of the net at the 7:45 mark. Liberty never got closer than 12 point until a Russell Monroe bucket cut the deficit to the game's final mark of 11 points, 79-68, with seven seconds left. Smith led the Flames with 24 points.
