

Natalie A. Strategy

1400 Pennsylvania Ave.

Washington, DC

220-770-2220

nastrategy@liberty.edu

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS PROFILE:

- Developed skills in problem-solving and conflict resolution with hands-on experience
- Effective oral and written communication with a diverse population
- Possess firm understanding of complex political and cultural issues
- Willing to relocate nationally and internationally
- Basic understanding of German and French

EDUCATION:

BA in International Relations, Liberty University, Lynchburg, VA

Anticipated: May 2013

- Specialization: Strategic Intelligence Studies
- GPA: 3.9
- Honors: Tau Sigma Honors Society
- Relevant Coursework: Intelligence, Counterterrorism, Political Economy and Public Policy

Foreign Policy Training Institute Seminar: Liberty University

Spring 2010

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Service Excellence Associate, J. Crew, Lynchburg, VA

August 2012 – Present

- Handle various situations with irate customers gaining conflict resolution skills with a broad range of clientele
- Provide exceptional and professional customer service by successfully meeting needs on an individual basis, resulting in positive customer surveys

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE:

Intern, Republican Campaign for Lynchburg City Council, Lynchburg, VA

Summer 2012

- Learned the fundamentals of a political campaign and practiced strategies to achieve desired results
- Recruited and managed all volunteers and coordinated their involvement in campaign activities such as phone-banking, door-to-door canvassing, and advertising assistance

AFFILIATIONS:

Student Government Association, Liberty University

August 2010 – May 2012

- Collaborated with other members to encourage student body to vote in local elections with a growth in student participation
- Actively contributed to weekly meetings in the planning of campus-wide events, keeping accurate record of meeting minutes