

BIBL 450- Daniel/Revelation

- A detailed knowledge of the contents of the biblical books of Daniel and Revelation, especially their correspondence as understood by a pre-tribulational, pre-millennial understanding of the doctrines of eschatology and Bible prophecy is required to pass this test.
- Topics covered on this exam include: The historicity of Daniel and Revelation, the two original languages of Daniel and how this influences the historicity and dating of the book, the dating issues of Daniel and Revelation (especially the debate among critical and conservative scholars), the authorship issues of Daniel and Revelation, and the nuances of the prophetic-apocalyptic genre. Also, the general contents, especially the eschatological and prophetic elements, of both books and their interpretations according to the most common critical and conservative scholars.
- Multiple choice, and True/False
- 146 Questions
- Suggested Study Resources:
  - John C. Whitcomb, Daniel, Everyman's Bible Commentary (Chicago: Moody Press, 1985). ISBN # 9780802420671
  - Ed Hindson, Revelation: Unlocking the Future, Twenty-First Century Bible Commentary, eds. Couch and Hindson (Chattanooga, TN: AMG Publishers, 2002). ISBN # 9780899578101