

Creative Writing Workshop

with Mrs. Donalyn Parker

If you are looking for the right tools to begin your writing career you won't be disappointed. This isn't your ordinary writing workshop. Donalyn will guide you inspire you and get you going from conception to publication. Guest speakers include Debbie MaGann (children's author) and Shelley Basinger (ABC 13 news).

The Class will cover:

- Finding your writers voice
- Where do story ideas come from
- What makes a page turner
- Putting it on paper/Presentation for publication
- Creative writing used in media
- Writing and presenting your screen play
- Writing for children and young adults
- Writing the adult romance fiction
- The importance of revision
- Submitting magazine articles
- Book publishers/Paid publication
- Do I need an agent
- Presentation of manuscript/ Guidelines
- Query letter
- How to handle rejection
- What to do when you receive a letter of praise without publication
- Accepting an offer and what happens next
- Publicity for the self published and book published
- Author etiquette
- Selling in this economy

DATE AND TIME:

ROOM:

Demoss 1104

October 16: 7pm-9pm

COST:

October 17: 9am-3pm

$25 per person

To register, contact Kristen A. Lilly
@ 434-592-4718, email kalilly@liberty.edu,
Or visit www.liberty.edu/cpce

