Head Coach Jim Toman

Record at Liberty: 64-43-1 (Second Year)

Career Record: Same

After a solid campaign in his first year as Liberty's head coach, Jim Toman is in his second season at the helm of the program.

Last season, the Flames fashioned a 13-3-1 record in the month of May to finish the season with a 35-26-1 mark, making Toman the winningest first-year coach in the program's 36-year history. Toman guided the Flames to their third straight Big South Championship title game appearance, claiming the conference's runner-up position in 2008. Liberty's May record was the best ever by a Flames team, as Liberty won 30 or more games in a season for the fourth consecutive year for the first time in program history.

In addition, the Liberty pitching staff set a new season strikeout record, fanning 508 opposing batters during the year. The Flames' strikeout total led the Big South Conference and their 8.2 strikeouts per nine innings ranked 22nd nationally at season's end. Two pitchers from the staff, Ryan Page and David Stokes, went on to be drafted and play in the professional ranks this past summer. Page was taken in the 20th round of the MLB draft by the Toronto Blue Jays, while Stokes was picked in the 28th round by the Detroit Tigers.

Liberty batters eclipsed the school's single-season doubles mark, ripping 155 two-base hits. The total ranked the Flames fifth in the country in the category. Liberty hitters also set a program record for hit by pitch.

The Flames finished their season with a 14-7 record in conference play. The mark allowed Liberty to claim the No. 2 seed for the Big South Championship, their highest seed for the Big South Baseball Championship since a No. 1 seed in 2000. The Flames went on to post four consecutive double-digit victories during six games in the Big South Championship to set a championship record with 55 runs scored.

Toman is the sixth head coach in the 34-year history of the Liberty Baseball program. The second-year skipper comes to Liberty after 11 seasons as the senior member of Ray Tanner's coaching staff at South Carolina. Toman worked a total of 18 years alongside Tanner, dating back to the 1990 season at N.C. State.

During his time at South Carolina, Toman served as recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's catchers. Known as one of the top recruiters in college baseball, the 19-year college coaching veteran was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year. Before joining the Gamecock staff in 1996, Toman served under Tanner for seven years at N.C. State.

Toman has recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball. Toman's 2003, 2005 and 2006 classes were named the top recruiting classes by the publication.

During his time on the staff in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight-straight since 2000, and three consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 15 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

In addition, South Carolina posted eight-straight seasons of 40 or more wins with Toman on the Gamecock coaching staff, including 2007. During Toman's 11 seasons at South Carolina, he helped the Gamecocks to a combined 500-220 (.694) record.

Toman earned four baseball letters at N.C. State, 1981-84, and was captain of the Wolfpack his junior and senior seasons. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in vocational industrial education in 1985. He received a Master of Science degree in sport management from N.C. State in 1995.

Upon graduation, Toman entered the coaching profession as an assistant at Richmond County High School in Rockingham, N.C., for two years. He moved into the collegiate coaching ranks in 1989 as an assistant at Florida International for one year. At FIU, he was responsible for the weight program, worked with the squad's catchers and coached first base. Toman joined the N.C. State staff before the 1990 season.

The Coaches

Liberty Head Coach Jim Toman is in his second year at the helm of the Flames. In this first season at Liberty, he guided the Flames to a 35-26-1 mark, the best record by a Liberty team under a first-year coach in program history. This season, his Flames have posted the most victories by a Liberty team in conference play, eclipsing the previous mark of 15.

A 20-year member of the college coaching ranks, he served 18 years as a member of Ray Tanner's staffs at South Carolina and N.C. State. Toman was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball.

During his time in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight-straight since 2000, and three-consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 15 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

Virginia Tech Head Coach Pete Hughes is in his third year with the Hokies. Hughes has earned a reputation for producing results on the field and in the classroom during his 12 years as a head coach on the collegiate level, and two seasons into his Blacksburg tenure, that reputation is proving to be true. With Hughes and his staff having rebuilt the roster through recruiting, Hughes appears to have the Hokies poised to post their best record since joining the ACC.

Prior to his arrival at Virginia Tech, he was the spent the previous eight seasons as the head coach at Boston College. He also was the head coach at Trinity University in Texas for two seasons (1997-98). During their eight seasons under Hughes, the Eagles averaged 31 wins per year. In 2005, he led Boston College to a school record 37 wins and his squad was named the Division I New England Baseball Team of the Year.

Flames Post Most Victories in Big South Play

With their 10-9, 11-inning win at Gardner-Webb, April 26, the 2009 Liberty Flames have recorded 16 Big South victories, the most ever by a Liberty baseball team since joining the conference in 1992. The victory total surpasses the 15 Big South wins by the 1995 Flames, who finished their conference season at 15-9. Jim Toman's squad still has six Big South Conference games remaining.

On the Verge of 30 Wins

With one more victory, Liberty will have reached 30 wins for the fifth consecutive season, and the first two years under head coach Jim Toman.

Last season, the Flames posted a 35-26-1 mark to record four-straight seasons of 30 wins are more. It was the first time in the 36-year history of the program, Liberty has accomplished the four-year feat.

Before last season, the Liberty baseball program had won 30 games in season, three consecutive years. The Flames won 30 or more contests three consecutive seasons from 2000-03.

The Last Time Out

After Liberty had tied the contest in the top of the fifth inning, the Coastal Carolina Chanticleers scored four runs in the bottom of the inning, en route to a 7-2 victory over the Flames, Sunday afternoon in Big South Conference baseball action at Charles Watson Stadium.

With one out in the top of the fifth inning, left fielder Casey Brown blasted a drive over the left field wall, knotting the contest at 1-1. The outfielder's four-bagger was his third of the year. However, the Chanticleers went back on top for good in the bottom of the frame with four runs.

Brown had three hits for Liberty in the contest.

Taking One for the Team

Liberty batters have been hit by a pitch 86 times, setting a new school record. The mark eclipses the record of 82, the Flames set last season. Liberty batters have been plunked by the opposition an average of 1.87 times per game. The Flames ranked fourth in the nation in the category in the latest NCAA Division I statistical report, through games of April 26, with 81.

This year, Flames batters have been hit by a pitch seven times in a game twice to set a new school standard. Temple pitchers hit seven Liberty hitters on March 7 and High Point hurlers plunked seven Flames on March 22.

Last season, the Flames set a new school record by being hit by a pitch 82 times. The mark eclipsed the previous standard of 75 in the 2001 season.

Fine Fielding

Jim Toman's squad ranked seventh in the nation in fielding percentage with a .978 percentage in the latest NCAA Division I statistical report, for games through April 26. In addition, the Flames' current percentage of .973 tops the Big South Conference. Liberty has committed 47 errors in 1755 chances this season.

The Flames fielding percentage is 13 points higher than at the same juncture of the year, last season. Through 46 games, Liberty had made 73 errors, 26 more than this year, in 1840 chances for a .960 fielding percentage in 2008. The Flames ended the year with a .963 percentage.

The best team fielding percentage over a season in school history was set by the 2005 Flames. That season, Liberty posted a .971 fielding percentage and also committed the fewest errors in school history with 62.

Two Flames Tough to K

Entering the week, Liberty outfielders Curran Redal and Doug Bream have shown themselves to be two of the toughest hitters in the nation to strike out.

Through games played on April 26, Redal had struck out once every 20.6 at bats, ranking him 12th among NCAA Division I batters in the country. Meanwhile, fellow Flame Doug Bream ranked 13th on the same list, striking out once every 20.4 at bats.

Flames Win 16th Big South Contest

Liberty catcher Errol Hollinger hit a game-tying grand slam and first baseman Trey Wimmer blasted the game-winning home run, as the Flames rallied from a 9-3 deficit for a 10-9, 11-inning win over the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs in Big South Conference baseball action, April 26 at Masters Field.

With the win, the Flames moved to 16-4 in conference play. Liberty's 16 league victories are the most ever by a Liberty baseball team since joining the Big South in 1992. The victory total surpasses the 15 Big South wins by the 1995 Flames. With the win, Liberty takes the three-game series, two games to one.

After Liberty erased a 9-3 Gardner-Webb lead to knot the contest at 9-9, Wimmer led off the 11th inning by blasting the first pitch of the inning over the left field wall. The home run, the first baseman's sixth of the season, gave Liberty a 10-9 advantage. Reliever Andrew Wilson then closed out the Bulldogs in bottom of the inning, stranding the tying run on second base to run his record to 5-2. The right-hander threw four innings of scoreless relief, allowing two hits, while striking out five and walking one.

The Flames knotted the contest in the eighth inning. The first three hitters in the inning, second baseman P.J. Jimenez, shortstop Matt Williams and center fielder Curran Redal, each singled to begin the frame, loading the bases with no one out. Two batters later, Hollinger drilled a 1-0 pitch over the left field wall, tying the contest at 9-9. The grand slam was the catcher's eighth round tripper of the year.

The Flames' Redal had four hits to lead all players in the contest. Doug Bream added three hits. Hollinger had five RBIs for Liberty.

A day earlier, Tyler Bream drove in six runs and Liberty pitchers held Gardner-Webb hitters in check throughout the contest, as the Flames downed the Bulldogs, 10-2.

Bream, who was 4-for-4 in the contest, ripped a pair of two-out, two-run base hits in first and the third innings. In the first, the Liberty third baseman singled and in the third, he doubled. He drove in his final two runs in the ninth with a single.

Liberty starter Shawn Teufel won his sixth consecutive start, running his record to 7-1 on the year. The left-hander gave up one run, while scattering six hits over 6 1/3 innings. Carter Browning pitched out of a bases loaded jam in the seventh inning, recording two outs. Andrew Wilson came on in the eighth inning to also end a bases loaded Bulldog threat. The trio of hurlers stranded 12 Gardner-Webb runners and blanked Bulldog hitters with runners in scoring position, as the Flames' hosts went 0-12 with men on second or third base through the first eight innings. Freshman John Long pitched the ninth in the victory.

Tyler Bream's Record Helps Complete Sweep

Third baseman Tyler Bream tied the Liberty record for RBIs in a game with nine, as the Flames defeated the High Point Panthers, 19-5, March 22 at Coy Willard Stadium to complete a sweep of its three-game Big South series.

With a run-scoring single in seventh inning, Bream tied the Liberty record for RBIs in a game with nine. The freshman third baseman's nine RBIs tied the school mark set by former Flame standout Pat Sipe, who recorded nine RBIs in a 13-2 win over Richmond on April 19, 1986, at Worthington Stadium.

Bream went 3-for-4 with four runs scored to go along with his nine RBIs for the Flames. Catcher Errol Hollinger went 3-for-3 with three RBIs and a run scored.

Left-hander Steven Evans went the distance, recording his first complete game of the season, as the Liberty Flames defeated the High Point Panthers, 7-3, Saturday night in the middle game of the series.

After the first inning, Evans cruised throughout the remainder of the contest, keeping the Panther batters in check to run his record to 3-0. The sophomore allowed three runs on nine hits. He struck out three and walked one. He became the first Flames pitcher to pitch a complete game this season.

Bream paced Liberty at the plate with three hits and three RBIs. Second baseman Kizuku Scott also had three hits for the Flames, scoring three times in the victory.

Friday night in the opening game of a three-game Big South series, Justin Richardson doubled home the go ahead run in the top of the ninth and reliever Andrew Wilson made it stand in the bottom of the frame, as the Liberty Flames defeated the High Point Panthers, 9-8.

With the game tied 8-8 in the top of the ninth, Liberty took the lead for good on a two-base hit by Richardson. With two out and first baseman Trey Wimmer on second base, Richardson rocketed a double to the left center field gap to give the Flames a 9-8 lead. Earlier in the contest, Richardson had tied the game with a pinch-hit, RBI double in the seventh inning.

In the bottom of the inning, High Point threatened to tie the contest by putting runners on the corners with two out against Wilson on a bad hop single by designated hitter Max Fulginiti. But, the Liberty right-hander induced Panther catcher Billy Alvino to ground out to second base, sealing the Flames' victory.

Wilson, the third pitcher on the night for Liberty, recorded the win, running his record to 3-1 on the year. The senior right-hander pitched 3 1/3 scoreless innings, giving up three hits.

Hollinger led all hitters in the contest with three hits. Right fielder Doug Bream and Richardson had two hits apiece and each drove in two runs for the Flames.
