Baseball Game Notes

Another Fantastic February

The month of February has been good to the Flames the past three seasons. Liberty won its last five contests in the second month of the year in 2006 to post a 7-2 mark. In 2005, the Flames started 7-1 in February to begin the season.

2007 was no different, as Liberty finished the year's opening month on a six-game win streak to post a 7-3 mark in the season's first month.

2007 by the Month

The Flames will play 19 contests in the month of March. Liberty started the third month by winning five of its first six contests, before dropping three-straight contests. Matt Royer's club then rebounded to win three of its next four games to currently stand at 8-5 in March.

Last season, Liberty dropped its first game of the month at James Madison on March 1, before reeling off nine victories to tie the school Division I record for consecutive wins. The Flames finished 12-6 during March 2006. In Big South Conference games in March, Liberty went 1-4 in the month to open league play.

Liberty opened the 2007 season by going 7-3 in February.

Liberty's 2007 record, by the month:

Month	.Record
February	7-3, 0-0 Big South
March	8-5, 2-1 Big South

Liberty's 2006 record, by the month:

Month	.Record
February	7-2, 0-0 Big South
March	12-6, 1-3 Big South
April	14-5, 10-4 Big South
May	6-8, 2-4 Big South

Over Two Years and Counting

The Flames have gone 161 games and over three years without being shut out in a contest. During the span, Liberty mound staff has pitched six shutouts, including three in 2006.

The last time a Liberty team was shut out was April 10, 2004 at Winthrop. Eagles' starter Jeff Reeves combined with relievers Jonathan Settle and Chris Leroux to allow the Flames three hits in a 6-0 win.

Liberty has been limited to one run five times during the period. Last season, Birmingham-Southern allowed the Flames single runs in in back-to-back games on April 28 and 29. Liberty also scored one run in a loss at Winthrop on March 24.

In 2005, Liberty scored only one run on two occasions, in a 1-0 victory over Fairfield on March 9 and in the last game of the season, a 2-1 setback to Coastal Carolina on May 27 at the Big South Baseball Championship.

The Flames have scored more than one run in each of its first 23 games this season.

Winning the Close Ones

Liberty finished last season 10-5 in one-run games. Its record in one-run games was one of the keys to Liberty's fast start to 2006 on its way to breaking the school mark for victories in a season. Six of the Flames' first 10 games were decided by one run. Liberty went 5-1 in those games.

The Flames have started 2007, 2-1, in contests decided by one run this season. The last two were Matt Royer's team's first two extra-inning contests of 2007. Two weeks ago, Liberty had back-to-back games go extra frames in order to determine an outcome. The Flames defeated George Washington, 7-6, in 10 innings on March 10, before falling to the Colonials, 6-5, in 10 innings on March 11.

What is It About the Fifth?

Liberty has scored 18 percent of their runs this season in the fifth inning. Of the 162 runs the Flames have scored in their 23 games this season, Liberty has plated 29 in the fifth frame. The mound staff been equally successful in the inning, yielding just four runs.

In addition, the Flames are 14-2 when leading after the fifth.

Some Things To Ponder

Liberty:

- is 11-0 when leading after the fourth inning
- is 14-1 when leading after the seventh inning (The Flames' only loss when leading after the seventh came in a 10-inning setback to George Washington on March 11)
- is 5-0 when leading after one inning
- is 14-2 when out-hitting an opponent and 1-6 when being out-hit
- is 9-0 when allowing an opponent two runs or less
- has won a season-high seven in a row, while dropping a season-high three straight
- has not had a player start all 23 games this season
- catchers have thrown out 16-of-32 would be base stealers this season

Running Again

The Flames are off and running again this season. So far in 2007, Liberty has stolen 31 bases in 34 attempts, a 91 percent success rate. Leading the way with nine steals is first baseman Aaron Grijalva. He has not been caught yet this season. Phil John is next with seven steals.

In 2006, Liberty led the Big South with 104 stolen bases. In addition, the Flames ranked 30th in the country among Division I programs in stolen bases per game, as they averaged 1.73 steals per contest, marking a stark contrast to 2005.

Last season, the Flames swiped 39 more stolen bases in 60 contests than they had in 55 the previous year. Liberty averaged 1.73 steals per game as they swiped 104 bases in 127 attempts, an 82 percent success rate.

In 2005, Liberty finished the season with a 77 percent success rate, as they stole 63 bases in 81 attempts (less than 1.15 per game).

Chad Miller finished fourth in the Big South with 24 steals in his final season with Flames. Aaron Grijalva ranked fifth in the conference with 23 stolen bases. Patrick Gaillard was also among the Big South leaders with 16 thefts, ranking ninth.

Turning It Around

After starting the year 1-3, head coach Matt Royer's squad won 11 out of its next 12 games to post a 12-4 record. Following a loss to then No. 1 South Carolina at the Crab House Shootout on Feb. 16, the Flames won a season-high seven games in a row, before dropping a contest to Manhattan on March 3. Liberty then ran off four-straight victories, before falling in extra innings on March 11 to George Washington.

The Flames began the 2006 season at 2-2, before closing out February with five-straight victories. In addition, the Flames ran off nine-game winning streaks twice last season, tying the Division I school mark reached by both the 1985 and 1995 teams. The school record is 15-straight wins, set by the 1976 Liberty team.

2007 Liberty University Baseball Game Notes

Liberty Takes Two in Big South Season-Opening Series

The Flames banged out 15 hits and took advantage of seven UNC Asheville errors to take the rubber game of a three-game Big South Series from the Bulldogs, 15-5, on Monday at Worthington Stadium. Kenneth Negron and Tommy Bussey went 3-for-5 in the game. Errol Hollinger and Aaron Phillips also hit home runs as Liberty scored nine runs in the seventh inning to break open a 6-3 contest. With the win, the Flames took the opening Big South series for both teams, 2-1.

Liberty dropped the middle contest of the series on Sunday. The Bulldogs used a three-run seventh and a four-run eighth to down the Flames, 9-3.

In the Big South opener on Saturday afternoon, Tim Nanry went 3-for-4 with three RBI and Michael Solbach allowed one run on five hits over 7 2/3 innings in a 5-1, Liberty victory. With the win, Solbach notched his fourth-straight victory, running his record to 4-1 on the season. Nanry doubled runs home twice and singled home another in the contest.

Young Off to Strong Start

Garrett Young has started his first season at Liberty in strong fashion. The Liberty center fielder has hit .421 with eight doubles and four home runs in his first 19 games with the Flames. He has also driven in 20 runs and scored 23 others. The junior missed four games due to health concerns.

Young entered the week as the Big South leader in slugging percentage (.716) and ranked second in the conference in total bases with 52. He was third in the league in batting average and tied for the lead in doubles. In addition, he has had at least one hit in 16 of the games he has played in and has nine multi-hit games to go along with a team-leading six multiple RBI contests.

The outfielder batted .556 (10-18) and knocked in nine runs in four contests during the week of March 5-13. He had two or more hits in each game and drove in two more runs in each contest as well. Young was named Big South Player of the Week for the effort.

On Feb. 27 at VCU, the junior went 4-for-5 with three doubles and three RBI in the Flames' victory over the Rams. It was not the first time the outfielder has gone 4-for-5 this season. He also was 4-for-5 with four runs driven in, a double and a home run in helping to pace the Flames' 28-hit attack in a 28-7 win over Richmond on Feb. 18 at the Crab House Shootout in Charleston, S.C.

Solbach Finds Groove

After starting the season 0-1 in his first two starts, right-hander Michael Solbach has given the Flames four-straight strong outings and has run his record to 4-1 on the season. During the four-game stretch, the redshirt junior has a 0.65 ERA and has allowed six runs, only two of which have been earned, in 27 2/3 innings. He also struck out 24 and walked six during the span.

Solbach picked up his first victory of the year to begin the streak on Feb. 23 against Albany in the Flames' home opener. The right-hander gave up two unearned runs and just one hit in six innings of work in a 9-2 Liberty win. Solbach retired the last 16 batters he faced before giving way to a reliever. The following week, he allowed one run on four hits in a 6-2 Flames' win over Manhattan. He struck out a season-high seven in the outing. For the two-week effort, he received Big South Pitcher of the Week honors.

Since then, he has picked up wins in outings against George Washington and UNC Asheville for a 4-1 season mark.

The Woodbridge, Va. native, entered the week with an overall 2.02 ERA, which ranked him fourth in the Big South in the category. Solbach led the conference with the lowest opponent batting average at .203 and sat second with four wins.

Baseball Game Notes

Phil John Gives A Jolt

Senior Phil John has given Liberty a lift with both his glove and bat since his insertion into the line-up on Feb. 16 against then No. 1 South Carolina. The right-fielder had two hits in the game and has continued to aid the Flames by having at least one hit in each of his first seven starts this season. It took a gash to the chin on a diving attempt on a hit to right in a game against George Washington on March 10 to halt the streak as the outfielder was forced to come out in the second inning.

However, the right fielder picked his hot hitting back up where he left off the next day with two hits against the Colonials. He then went 3-for-5 on March 14 at James Madison in his next start. The senior has hit safely in his four starts since.

A strong defender, John has collected 26 hits in 64 at bats for a .406 batting average and began the week second in the Big South Conference in batting average with a .424 average. John also has had the longest hitting streak by a Flame this year by hitting safely in 11-straight contests from Feb. 18 through March 9.

Liberty's Young Named Big South Player of the Week

Liberty outfielder Garrett Young was selected as the Big South Conference Choice Hotels Baseball Player of the Week for games played March 5-11.

Young batted .556 (10-18) and knocked in nine runs in leading the Flames to a 3-1 mark last week. He posted a .579 on-base percentage, 16 total bases, an .889 slugging percentage, four multi-hit games and four multi-RBI games. Young went 3-4 with two runs scored and two RBI to begin the week at Old Dominion, then drove in three runs in Friday's win over George Washington with a home run and a triple. He also tallied five runs scored, one double and two stolen bases during the week.

Flames Get Boost From Outfielders Against GW

Liberty took two-out-of-three from George Washington in a three-game weekend series, March 9-11, thanks to the hitting efforts of its outfielders.

The Flames opened the series with a 9-3 win on Friday as pitcher Michael Solbach won his third-straight start. Designated hitter Tim Nanry went 4-for-4 with two RBI and center fielder Garrett Young continued his big week by driving in three runs with a home run and a triple in the win.

Saturday, Derek Bennion went 3-for-5 and drove in the winning run in the 10th inning as the Flames defeated the Colonials, 7-6. Bennion had entered the game in the second as a replacement in right field for Phil John, who had to leave the contest due to injury. The senior had two doubles among his three hits and drove in three runs as Liberty came from five runs down for the extra-inning victory.

On Sunday, it was the Colonials who took the contest in extra innings, 6-5. A solo home run in the 10th won it for George Washington. Young, Nanry and John had two hits apiece for the Flames. Young also had two RBI, running his week's total to nine.

Stokes Leads Flames Past Monarchs

Liberty right-hander David Stokes gave up one run on four hits over eight innings in his strongest outing of the season, as the Flames defeated the Old Dominion Monarchs, 8-2, on March 6 at the Bud Metheny Baseball Complex.

Stokes scattered four hits and allowed one run over eight innings in the longest outing of his four starts this season. He struck out five and did not yield a walk on the afternoon. The right-hander retired the first 10 batters he faced.

Aaron Grijalva and Garrett Young both were 3-for-4 with two RBI to pace the Liberty attack. Phil John also had two hits as the Flames plated five runs in the fourth inning to take a 5-1 advantage, one they never relinquished.

Baseball Game Notes

Solbach Named New Balance Big South Pitcher of the Week

Liberty right-hander Michael Solbach was selected as the New Balance Pitcher of the Week for games played Feb. 19-March 4.

Solbach picked up his first two wins of the season with victories over Albany and Manhattan during Liberty's season-long seven-game winning streak from Feb. 17-March 2. The Flames' right-hander posted a 0.69 earned run average in 13 innings of work, allowing just one earned run, while striking out 13 batters.

Against Albany on Feb. 23 in Liberty's home opener, the redshirt junior allowed two unearned runs and just one hit over six innings on a cold and windy day at Worthington Stadium. Solbach retired 16-straight batters before giving way to a reliever, collecting his first win of the year.

On March 2, Solbach went seven innings and allowed two runs, one earned, on four hits against Manhattan. The right-hander fanned seven and walked two. With the win over the Jaspers, Solbach moved his 2007 mark to 2-1.

Gaillard and Grijalva Push Flames Past Manhattan

First baseman Aaron Grijalva's bases-clearing triple with two outs broke a 6-6 tie and began an eight-run, eighth-inning uprising, pushing the Flames past the Manhattan Jaspers, 14-6, March 11 at Worthington Stadium. Grijalva went 4-for-5 with five RBI and two runs scored in helping the Flames take the series, two games to one. Third baseman David Giammaresi also drove in three runs with two hits in the contest, while Kenneth Negron and Tommy Bussey had two hits apiece. In addition, catcher Nate Thompson hit a three-run home run.

The previous day, Liberty had seen its seven-game winning streak snapped as the Jaspers defeated the Flames, 9-2. Negron and Patrick Gaillard had two hits apiece for Liberty in the setback.

In the series' opener on March 9, Michael Solbach allowed two runs on four hits over seven innings to run his record to 2-1, and Liberty scored four times in the fifth to defeat Manhattan, 6-2. Gaillard went 3-for-5 and plated a run to pace a 13-hit Flames' attack.

On the weekend, Grijalva was 5-for-11 (.455) in the three games, driving in eight runs. Gaillard went 6-for-13 (.462) with two doubles and three runs scored in the series.

Young Has Big Day Against VCU

Center fielder Garrett Young went 4-for-5 with three doubles and three RBI as visiting Liberty defeated VCU, 8-2, on Feb. 27 in its first midweek contest of 2007. The victory was the Flames' sixth-straight win.

Tyler Light ran his record to 2-0 on the year with five innings of work, providing another strong performance from the Flames' mound staff. The right-hander yielded one run on five hits, before giving way to Ryan Page in the sixth.

First baseman Aaron Grijalva and second baseman Aaron Phillips also had two hits apiece for the Flames. The tandem both drove in runs during a five-run sixth inning as Grijalva doubled home one run and Phillips followed with a triple to score two more in the frame.

Strong Mound Efforts Help Flames Sweep Albany

Liberty swept a doubleheader on Feb. 24 from the Albany Great Danes to complete a sweep of a three-game weekend series between the two teams. The host Flames got solid mound outings from starters Dustin Umberger and Michael Solbach during the weekend.

Ryan Page saved both ends of the doubleheader as the Flames downed the Great Danes, 5-1 and 7-5, Saturday. In the opening game, starter Dustin Umberger pitched seven scoreless innings, scattering five hits, striking out four and walking one. It was the second-straight seven-inning outing for the right-hander, as he moved his mark to 2-1 on the year. Left fielder Kenneth Negron went 3-for-4 with two RBI, a run scored and two stolen bases in the contest.

In the nightcap, Liberty plated five runs in the second inning to take a 5-1 lead and never trailed the rest of the way in a 7-5 victory. Third baseman David Giammaresi paced the Flames with two doubles and two RBI.

On Feb. 23, starter Michael Solbach evened his record at 1-1, allowing two unearned runs in the first inning and one hit in six strong innings in a 9-2 victory over Albany in the home opener at Worthington Stadium. After a shaky first frame, the right-hander retired 16 batters in a row, before yielding to a reliever on a cold and windy afternoon. Taking advantage of several Great Dane fielding miscues, the Flames scored four runs in the third inning and five in the fourth inning in the victory.

Nanry Receives Conference Player of the Week Honors

Outfielder Tim Nanry was selected the Big South Conference Choice Hotels Player of the Week for games played Feb. 12-18.

Nanry batted .667 (6-for-9) in three games, helping the Flames post a 2-1 record at the Crab House Shootout in Charleston, S.C. He garnered his first two starts of the season on Feb. 17 against host The Citadel and Feb. 18 against Richmond.

The outfielder responded with Liberty's first hit of the day against The Citadel in the fifth inning and scored the tying run in the Flames' 2-1, Feb. 17 win.

The next day against intra-state rival Richmond, Nanry belted three home runs, plated eight runs and scored four times in the Flames' 28-7 victory over the Spiders. The senior, who had the best day of his Liberty career, went 5-for-5 in the contest and was hit by a pitch to pace a 28-hit afternoon for the Flames, a new school record for hits in one game. Nanry finished with a 1.667 slugging percentage on the week.

Flames Break Records in Victory over Richmond

Tim Nanry hit three home runs to pace a school record-breaking, 28-hit attack as the Flames defeated the Richmond Spiders, 28-7, Feb. 18 at Riley Park in their final game at the Crab House Shootout in Charleston, S.C. The Flames broke the school mark with 28 hits and tied the single-game record for runs in the contest.

Liberty's 28 hits set a new standard for hits in a contest, breaking the old mark of 26, which the 2006 squad reached in a contest at UNC Asheville on May 13 of last season and on March 25, 1995, against UMBC. The Flames also surpassed the school mark of 25 RBI in a contest with 28. Liberty tied the school record for runs scored as the Flames also plated 28 runs in a 28-3 victory over Radford on March 19, 1985.

Nanry led the Liberty outburst by going 5-for-5 and being hit by a pitch. The outfielder hit three home runs, had eight RBI and scored four times in the contest. Center fielder Garrett Young went 4-for-5 on the afternoon with four RBI and a home run. Right fielder Phil John also had three hits and drove in six runs for the Flames. Shortstop Patrick Gaillard tied a school mark by scoring five times in the contest.

Looking Ahead

Liberty will follow up this weekend series with a non-conference midweek contest at George Mason on Wednesday. The single game in Fairfax, Va. is scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

The Flames return to Worthington Stadium for a weekend series with Monmouth on March 31 and April 1. The two teams will play a doubleheader on Saturday afternoon with a starting time of 11 a.m. Monmouth and Liberty will then meet on Sunday in a single game set for 1 p.m.
