Saturday, April 14 or Sunday, April 15 - TBD
Worthington Stadium - Lynchburg, Va.

The Games

The Liberty University Flames (21-14, 3-3 Big South) host the Charleston Southern University Buccaneers (14-25, 1-8 Big South) in a three-game Big South Conference series, Friday-Sunday, April 13-15. The Flames and the Buccaneers will square off on Friday at Worthington Stadium in a doubleheader. The first game is slated to begin at Noon. Depending on the weather, the final game of the series will be played on Saturday or Sunday at a time to be determined.

The Series Against Charleston Southern

Friday's first game will be the 49th meeting between the Flames and the Buccaneers on the diamond. Liberty enters the game with a 29-19 all-time series advantage since 1976.

Last season at Buccaneer Field, the Flames took two-of-three from the Buccaneers. Charleston Southern took the opening game of the series on April 14, 7-5, with the Flames rebounding the following day to sweep a doubleheader, 13-6 and 7-2.

The Last Time Out

A trio of William & Mary hitters had three hits apiece to pace a 14-hit attack as the host Tribe defeated the Liberty Flames, 11-1, in the Flames' first night contest of the season, Tuesday night at Plumeri Park.

Despite grabbing the lead in the top of the first inning in its first night game of the season, Liberty soon saw it disappear in the bottom of the inning and trailed the rest of the way.

P.K. Keller went 3-for-3 and Phil John had two hits for the Flames on the night.

Flames on the Radio

This season, the Flames Sports Network plans to broadcast 20 Liberty baseball regular season games. Games will air live on WWMC 90.9 FM "The Light" and on the World Wide Web at both www.LibertyFlames.com and www.thelightonline.com. The station's plans to broadcast Friday's second game against Charleston Southern. The broadcast is should begin around 3:30 p.m. It will also broadcast the final game of the three-game series if it is played on Sunday .

The Coaches

Liberty: Matt Royer (Liberty, '80)
Record at School: 138-121 (Five Years)
Overall Record: 456-360 (17 Years)

Notes: Matt Royer is in his fifth year at the helm of his alma mater ... last season, Royer guided the Flames to their second-straight 30-plus win season, their first back-to-back 30-win seasons during his tenure and the fourth in school history ... Liberty posted 39 victories in 2006, the most Division I wins in program history ... on Feb. 21, 2006, he won his 400th career game as a head coach when the Flames defeated Longwood, 4-3 ... in each of his first four years, the Liberty win total has improved each season ... Royer has led the Flames to the Big South Championship final game in both 2002 and 2006 ... prior to his stint at Liberty, he had a nine-year run at Kutztown, where he posted a 271-176 mark ... the Golden Bears never had a losing season in his nine years at the school ... guided Kutztown to the Division II College World Series during his final two seasons at the school.

Charleston Southern University: Jason Murray (Ball State, 1997)
Record at School: 56-92 (Third Year)
Overall Record: Same

Notes: Jason Murray is in his third year as head coach of Charleston Southern ... last season, led the Buccaneers to an 18-38 overall record, including 8-16 in the Big South ... in 2005, Charleston Southern went 24-29 in his first year at the helm of the program ... he served the two previous seasons (2003-04) as the recruiting coordinator at Michigan under Rich Maloney, who he played for at Ball State from 1993-97... he has also held assistant coaching positions at Florida, Winthrop and Ball State.

Returning to Their Alma Mater

The Liberty coaching staff, led by head coach Matt Royer, along with assistant coaches Terry Weaver and Reggie Reynolds, is unusual for Division I baseball. All three coaches are graduates of Liberty University.

Royer received his degree in 1980, while playing baseball for the program's founder, Al Worthington. Weaver and Reynolds also obtained their bachelor's degrees from Liberty, with Weaver achieving his in the fall of 1997 and Reynolds having his conferred upon him in 1998.

2007 Liberty University Baseball Game Notes

Flames at Worthington Stadium

For the past 27 years, the Flames have called Worthington Stadium their home. The Flames have compiled an impressive 466-211-4 record at home for a winning percentage of .687 since the stadium's inception in 1979. Under head coach Matt Royer, the Flames are proving the stadium to be an even tougher venue for opponents, having posted a 124-51 record (.709) during Royer's five years at the helm.

This season, the Flames have posted a 14-7 mark (.647) at home. Liberty went 22-9 (.710) at Worthington Stadium in 2006.

Liberty Away From Worthington

Liberty is 7-7 in contests played away from Worthington Stadium in 2007. This season, the Flames are 6-6 in road contests and 1-1 at neutral sites. Liberty finished the 2006 season with a 17-12 road mark. Its record was a four-game improvement over 2005, when the Flames went 9-12 away from home.

Flames Against the Big South

Liberty has compiled a 194-150 record against current members of the Big South. The Flames have also compiled a 30-16 mark in Big South Championship games over the same span.

2007 Liberty University Baseball Game Notes

Another Fantastic February

The month of February has been good to the Flames the past three seasons. Liberty won its last five contests in the second month of the year in 2006 to post a 7-2 mark. In 2005, the Flames started 7-1 in February to begin the season.

2007 was no different, as Liberty finished the year's opening month on a six-game win streak to post a 7-3 mark in the season's first month.

Baseball in the Commonwealth

Thirteen Division I baseball teams call the Commonwealth of Virginia home. This season, the Flames are scheduled to face opponents from the "Old Dominion State" 17 times. After Tuesday's contest at William & Mary, Liberty now stands at 4-4 against in-state opponents so far this season. Liberty posted a 15-5 record against Virginia teams in 2006.

The Flames are scheduled to meet state squads George Mason (twice), James Madison (twice), Old Dominion (once), Radford (three times), Richmond (once), VCU (once), VMI (three times), Virginia Tech (twice) and William & Mary (twice) this season.

Over Two Years and Counting

The Flames have gone 173 games and three years without being shut out in a contest. During the span, the Liberty mound staff has pitched six shutouts, including three in 2006.

The last time a Liberty team was shut out was April 10, 2004 at Winthrop. Eagles' starter Jeff Reeves combined with relievers Jonathan Settle and Chris Leroux to allow the Flames three hits in a 6-0 win.

Liberty has been limited to one run six times during the period. On Tuesday, the Flames scored their lone run of the game in the first inning and were held scoreless the rest of the way in an 11-1 setback at William & Mary. It was the first time in 2007, Liberty has only scored once in a game.

Last season, Birmingham-Southern allowed the Flames single runs in in back-to-back games on April 28 and 29. Liberty also scored one run in a loss at Winthrop on March 24.

In 2005, Liberty scored only one run on two occasions, in a 1-0 victory over Fairfield on March 9 and in the last game of the season, a 2-1 setback to Coastal Carolina on May 27 at the Big South Baseball Championship.

The Flames have scored more than one run in each of its first 34 games this season.

First Night Game

Liberty played its first night contest of the season Tuesday at William & Mary, falling to the Tribe, 11-1. The Flames have six more games scheduled under the lights this season, including contests at Coastal Carolina, Virginia Tech, Arizona and VMI. Last season, Liberty was 2-4 under the lights.

Winning the Close One

Liberty is 3-2 this season in contests decided by one run this season. Of the three Flames' contests which have gone to extra innings this season, each had been decided by one run. On March 31, Liberty dropped a 3-2 decision in 11 innings to Monmouth. The Flames also had back-to-back games go extra frames in order to determine an outcome on March 10 and 11. The Flames defeated George Washington, 7-6, in 10 innings, on March 10, before falling to the Colonials, 6-5, in 10 innings on March 11.

Liberty finished last season 10-5 in one-run games. Its record in one-run games was one of the keys to Liberty's fast start to 2006 on its way to breaking the school mark for victories in a season. Six of the Flames' first 10 games were decided by one run. Liberty went 5-1 in those games.

Some Things To Ponder

Liberty:

- is 16-0 when leading after the fourth inning
- is 20-1 when leading after the seventh inning (The Flames' only loss when leading after the seventh came in a 10-inning setback to George Washington on March 11.)
- is 9-0 when leading after two innings
- is 17-2 when out-hitting an opponent and 3-11 when being out-hit
- is 9-0 when allowing an opponent two runs or less
- has a season-high winning streak of seven in a row and has a season-high losing streak of three straight
- has not had a player start more than 31 games this season (last season, three Flames started in all 60 Liberty contests)

Bullpen Closes Door

The Liberty mound relief corps has been outstanding in protecting leads this season. So far in 2007, the Flames are 20-1 when holding a lead after the seventh inning and 20-0 in games in which they held an advantage after eight innings of play.

Since no Liberty starter has gone the distance, the relief staff has been relied on to close out the victories for the Flames this season. Tim John and Ryan Page entered the week with four saves apiece and have posted ERAs of 2.36 and 3.62 respectively, to pace the Liberty pen.

The past two weekends, right-hander Andrew Wilson has given the Flames two more strong relief efforts to pick up his first two wins of 2007. Wilson gave up one run on three hits in 3 1/3 innings, allowing Liberty to rally for six runs in the seventh inning for an 8-6 win over Marshall, last Friday. A week earlier, he entered April 1's contest against Monmouth with runners on first and third and one out in the seventh frame and induced the next batter to hit into a double play to end the threat. He would go on to allow only one hit in 2 2/3 innings of work in Liberty's 11-6 victory over the Hawks.

Negrón Makes the Move

Liberty's Kenneth Negrón has shown his defensive versatility in the past few weeks. With the Flames already down a middle infield player due to an injury to starting short-stop Patrick Gaillard, Negrón, who had played his first 24 games in the outfield, took over the duties at second base, when Tommy Bussey could not play due to illness before Liberty's contest at George Mason.

Since then, Negrón has played eight games at second base, committing his first error last Saturday in his most recent contest at the position. He has also seen time in the outfield

Young's Hit Streak Continues

Center fielder Garrett Young enters today's contest with an 18-game hitting streak. The outfielder has maintained the streak despite missing eight games in the middle of it due to injury and illness.

Young began the streak on Feb. 27 with a 4-for-5 afternoon at VCU. Three of the hits were doubles as he drove in three runs in the Flames' 8-2 win over the Rams. He would go on to hit safely in his next nine games, before having to come out of the Liberty line-up first due to injury and then illness. He played in only one of the Flames' next nine games, collecting a hit in two at bats against UMBC to keep the run going.

The junior then returned to the line-up against Monmouth on March 31 and resumed his streak. Young has had at least one hit in each of the seven contests he has played since his return, including an eighth-inning single to keep it alive on Tuesday night.

During the span, the center fielder is batting .400 with 28 hits in 70 at bats. He also has had two or more hits in six of the 17 games.

2007 Liberty University Baseball Game Notes

Six Seems to Do the Trick

Liberty is 17-0 when scoring six or more runs in a game this season, while posting a 4-14 mark when tallying five or less in a contest. The Flames are also 18-2 when leading after the sixth inning.

Liberty Sweeps Marshall

Liberty took both ends of a non-conference doubleheader from the Marshall Thundering Herd on Saturday afternoon at Worthington Stadium, 11-7 and 10-4, to complete a sweep of the three-game series.

In the first game, Kenneth Negron and Cody Brown each had three hits to lead a 15-hit Liberty attack, as the Flames came from behind to defeat the Marshall Thundering Herd, 11-7, in the first game. Trailing 5-0, Liberty plated six runs on six hits in the fourth inning to take the lead.

In the nightcap, Garrett Young and Phil John each connected for two-run home runs to back Tyler Light, who ran his season's mark to 4-1, in the 10-4 victory. John also drove in another run with a single for three RBI in the game. Light pitched six strong innings, allowing an unearned run on five hits.

Liberty opened the series by plating six runs in the seventh inning for an 8-6 victory on last Friday. The six-run uprising by the Flames made a winner of reliever Andrew Wilson, who allowed one run on three hits in 3 1/3 innings to improve his record to 2-1 on the year. Tim John picked up his fourth save of the season by closing out the ninth.

Six-Run Seven Lifts Flames Past Hawks

After swapping the lead with the Monmouth Hawks several times on the afternoon, the Liberty Flames plated six runs in the seventh inning to take their final advantage and defeat the Hawks, 11-6, on April 1 at Worthington Stadium. With the win, the Flames captured the final game of the non-conference series after dropping both ends of a doubleheader the previous day.

Garrett Young homered and tripled in the contest for Liberty, driving in two runs. Teammates Derek Bennion and Tim Nanry also had two hits and two RBI apiece.

The six-run outburst made a winner of reliever Andrew Wilson. The right-hander held the Hawks off the board over 2 2/3 innings, allowing one hit to even his season's mark at 1-1. With Monmouth runners at first and third and one out and leading the contest, 6-5, Wilson got the next batter to ground into an inning ending double play to end the Hawks' threat, setting the stage for the Flames' six-run rally in the bottom of the frame.

Stokes, Bullpen Strong in Win Over George Mason

Liberty defeated George Mason, 5-4, in a mid-week road contest played at the Patriots' Spuhler Field on March 28. Flames' starter David Stokes went six innings, giving up four runs on six hits to win his fifth game of the season. The win was Stokes' second consecutive victory, following his seven-inning, four-hit performance versus UMBC on Mar. 21.

The Flames plated three runs in the third inning and then relieved outstanding mound efforts out of the bullpen by Ryan Page and Tim John in perserving the Liberty edge throughout the remainder of the contest.

The Liberty offense was sparked by Phil John, Giammaresi, Keller and Nanry, who each recorded a pair of base hits, sparking the Flames' 11-hit attack.

John Has Big Day as Flames Win Series Opener From High Point

Phil John went 3-for-5 with four RBI including a bases loaded double as the Liberty Flames held off a ninth-inning rally by the High Point Panthers for a 7-5 victory, March 23 in the opener of a three-game Big South series at High Point's Willard Stadium. The win was Liberty's fourth win in five games.

Baseball Game Notes

With the bases loaded in the fourth inning, John ripped a double down the right field line, clearing the sacks and giving the Flames a 6-0 advantage.

Michael Solbach won his fifth straight start, allowing one run on five hits over six innings. David Giammaresi was 3-for-3 in the game and scored twice.

Flames Power Past UMBC

The Liberty Flames used a balanced offensive attack and a solid seven innings from starting pitcher David Stokes to defeat the UMBC Retrievers, 10-2, on March 21 at Worthington Stadium.

Stokes went seven innings, giving up just four hits, three of them singles, to improve his record to 4-3 on the season. The junior right-hander struck out three batters and did not issue a walk on the day.

P. K. Keller, Tim Nanry, Kenneth Negron and Nate Thompson all had multiple-hit performances for Liberty on the afternoon. Nanry hit a home run and drove in four runs with a 3-for-5 afternoon, while Keller went 3-for-4 with two RBI in the contest.

Liberty Takes Two in Big South Season-Opening Series

The Flames banged out 15 hits and took advantage of seven UNC Asheville errors to take the rubber game of a three-game Big South Series from the Bulldogs, 15-5, on March 18 at Worthington Stadium. Kenneth Negron and Tommy Bussey went 3-for-5 in the game. Errol Hollinger and Aaron Phillips also hit home runs as Liberty scored nine runs in the seventh inning to break open a 6-3 contest. With the win, the Flames took the opening Big South series for both teams, 2-1.

Liberty dropped the middle contest of the series, a day earlier, on March 17. The Bulldogs used a three-run seventh and a four-run eighth to down the Flames, 9-3.

In the Big South opener on March 16, Tim Nanry went 3-for-4 with three RBI and Michael Solbach allowed one run on five hits over 7 2/3 innings in a 5-1, Liberty victory. With the win, Solbach notched his fourth-straight victory, running his record to 4-1 on the season. Nanry doubled runs home twice and singled home another in the contest.

Liberty's Young Named Big South Player of the Week

Liberty outfielder Garrett Young was selected as the Big South Conference Choice Hotels Baseball Player of the Week for games played March 5-11.

Young batted .556 (10-18) and knocked in nine runs in leading the Flames to a 3-1 mark last week. He posted a .579 on-base percentage, 16 total bases, an .889 slugging percentage, four multi-hit games and four multi-RBI games. Young went 3-4 with two runs scored and two RBI to begin the week at Old Dominion, then drove in three runs in Friday's win over George Washington with a home run and a triple. He also tallied five runs scored, one double and two stolen bases during the week.

Flames Get Boost From Outfielders Against GW

Liberty took two-out-of-three from George Washington in a three-game weekend series, March 9-11, thanks to the hitting efforts of its outfielders.

The Flames opened the series with a 9-3 win on Friday as pitcher Michael Solbach won his third-straight start. Designated hitter Tim Nanry went 4-for-4 with two RBI and center fielder Garrett Young continued his big week by driving in three runs with a home run and a triple in the win.

Saturday, Derek Bennion went 3-for-5 and drove in the winning run in the 10th inning as the Flames defeated the Colonials, 7-6. Bennion had entered the game in the second as a replacement in right field for Phil John, who had to leave the contest due to injury. The senior had two doubles among his three hits and drove in three runs as Liberty came from five runs down for the extra-inning victory.

2007 Liberty University
Baseball Game Notes

On Sunday, it was the Colonials who took the contest in extra innings, 6-5. A solo home run in the 10th won it for George Washington. Young, Nanry and John had two hits apiece for the Flames. Young also had two RBI, running his week's total to nine.

Turning It Around

After starting the year 1-3, head coach Matt Royer's squad won 11 out of its next 12 games to post a 12-4 record. Following a loss to then No. 1 South Carolina at the Crab House Shootout on Feb. 16, the Flames won a season-high seven games in a row, before dropping a contest to Manhattan on March 3. Liberty then ran off four-straight victories, before falling in extra innings on March 11 to George Washington.

Stokes Leads Flames Past Monarchs

Liberty right-hander David Stokes gave up one run on four hits over eight innings in his strongest outing of the season, as the Flames defeated the Old Dominion Monarchs, 8-2, on March 6 at the Bud Metheny Baseball Complex.

Stokes scattered four hits and allowed one run over eight innings in the longest outing of his four starts this season. He struck out five and did not yield a walk on the afternoon. The right-hander retired the first 10 batters he faced.

Aaron Grijalva and Garrett Young both were 3-for-4 with two RBI to pace the Liberty attack. Phil John also had two hits as the Flames plated five runs in the fourth inning to take a 5-1 advantage, one they never relinquished.

Solbach Named New Balance Big South Pitcher of the Week

Liberty right-hander Michael Solbach was selected as the New Balance Pitcher of the Week for games played Feb. 19-March 4.

Solbach picked up his first two wins of the season with victories over Albany and Manhattan during Liberty's season-long seven-game winning streak from Feb. 17-March 2. The Flames' right-hander posted a 0.69 earned run average in 13 innings of work, allowing just one earned run, while striking out 13 batters.

Against Albany on Feb. 23 in Liberty's home opener, the redshirt junior allowed two unearned runs and just one hit over six innings on a cold and windy day at Worthington Stadium. Solbach retired 16-straight batters before giving way to a reliever, collecting his first win of the year.

On March 2, Solbach went seven innings and allowed two runs, one earned, on four hits against Manhattan. The right-hander fanned seven and walked two. With the win over the Jaspers, Solbach moved his 2007 mark to 2-1.

Gaillard and Grijalva Push Flames Past Manhattan

First baseman Aaron Grijalva's bases-clearing triple with two outs broke a 6-6 tie and began an eight-run, eighth-inning uprising, pushing the Flames past the Manhattan Jaspers, 14-6, March 11 at Worthington Stadium. Grijalva went 4-for-5 with five RBI and two runs scored in helping the Flames take the series, two games to one. Third baseman David Giammaresi also drove in three runs with two hits in the contest, while Kenneth Negron and Tommy Bussey had two hits apiece. In addition, catcher Nate Thompson hit a three-run home run.

The previous day, Liberty had seen its seven-game winning streak snapped as the Jaspers defeated the Flames, 9-2. Negron and Patrick Gaillard had two hits apiece for Liberty in the setback.

In the series' opener on March 9, Michael Solbach allowed two runs on four hits over seven innings to run his record to 2-1, and Liberty scored four times in the fifth to defeat Manhattan, 6-2. Gaillard went 3-for-5 and plated a run to pace a 13-hit Flames' attack.

On the weekend, Grijalva was 5-for-11 (.455) in the three games, driving in eight runs. Gaillard went 6-for-13 (.462) and scored three runs in the series.

2007 Liberty University Baseball Game Notes

Young Has Big Day Against VCU

Center fielder Garrett Young went 4-for-5 with three doubles and three RBI as visiting Liberty defeated VCU, 8-2, on Feb. 27 in its first midweek contest of 2007. The victory was the Flames' sixth-straight win.

Tyler Light ran his record to 2-0 on the year with five innings of work, providing another strong performance from the Flames' mound staff. The right-hander yielded one run on five hits, before giving way to Ryan Page in the sixth.

Young's 4-for-5 day was his third game with three or more hits and his second with four hits. First baseman Aaron Grijalva and second baseman Aaron Phillips also had two hits apiece for the Flames. The tandem both drove in runs during a five-run sixth inning as Grijalva doubled home one run and Phillips followed with a triple to score two more in the frame.

Strong Mound Efforts Help Flames Sweep Albany

Liberty swept a doubleheader on Feb. 24 from the Albany Great Danes to complete a sweep of a three-game weekend series between the two teams. The host Flames got solid mound outings from starters Dustin Umberger and Michael Solbach during the weekend.

Ryan Page saved both ends of the doubleheader as the Flames downed the Great Danes, 5-1 and 7-5, Saturday. In the opening game, starter Dustin Umberger pitched seven scoreless innings, scattering five hits, striking out four and walking one. It was the second-straight seven-inning outing for the right-hander, as he moved his mark to 2-1 on the year. Left fielder Kenneth Negrón went 3-for-4 with two RBI, a run scored and two stolen bases in the contest.

In the nightcap, Liberty plated five runs in the second inning to take a 5-1 lead and never trailed the rest of the way in a 7-5 victory. Third baseman David Giammarsi paced the Flames with two doubles and two RBI.

On Feb. 23, starter Michael Solbach evened his record at 1-1, allowing two unearned runs in the first inning and one hit in six strong innings in a 9-2 victory over Albany in the home opener at Worthington Stadium. After a shaky first frame, the right-hander retired 16 batters in a row, before yielding to a reliever on a cold and windy afternoon. Taking advantage of several Great Dane fielding miscues, the Flames scored four runs in the third inning and five in the fourth inning in the victory.

Nanry Receives Conference Player of the Week Honors

Outfielder Tim Nanry was selected the Big South Conference Choice Hotels Player of the Week for games played Feb. 12-18.

Nanry batted .667 (6-for-9) in three games, helping the Flames post a 2-1 record at the Crab House Shootout in Charleston, S.C. He garnered his first two starts of the season on Feb. 17 against host The Citadel and Feb. 18 against Richmond.

The outfielder responded with Liberty's first hit of the day against The Citadel in the fifth inning and scored the tying run in the Flames' 2-1, Feb. 17 win.

The next day against intra-state rival Richmond, Nanry belted three home runs, plated eight runs and scored four times in the Flames' 28-7 victory over the Spiders. The senior, who had the best day of his Liberty career, went 5-for-5 in the contest and was hit by a pitch to pace a 28-hit afternoon for the Flames, a new school record for hits in one game. Nanry finished with a 1.667 slugging percentage on the week.

Flames Break Records in Victory over Richmond

Tim Nanry hit three home runs to pace a school record-breaking, 28-hit attack as the Flames defeated the Richmond Spiders, 28-7, Feb. 18 at Riley Park in their final game at the Crab House Shootout in Charleston, S.C. The Flames broke the school mark with 28 hits and tied the single-game record for runs in the contest.

Liberty's 28 hits set a new standard for hits in a contest, breaking the old mark of 26, which the 2006 squad reached in a contest at UNC Asheville on May 13 of last season and on March 25, 1995, against UMBC. The Flames also surpassed the school mark of 25 RBI in a contest with 28. Liberty tied the school record for runs scored as the Flames also plated 28 runs in a 28-3 victory over Radford on March 19, 1985.

Nanry led the Liberty outburst by going 5-for-5 and being hit by a pitch. The outfielder hit three home runs, had eight RBI and scored four times in the contest.

Looking Ahead

Liberty's eight-game homestand continues with a visit from James Madison to Worthington Stadium in the midweek. The Flames and Dukes will square off at 3 p.m. on Wednesday.

Next weekend, Liberty host intra-state Big South rival Radford for three-games. The Highlanders and Flames will open their series on Friday at 3 p.m., follow by a noon start on Saturday. First pitch on Sunday is set for 1 p.m.
