2008 Liberty Baseball Game Notes

Games No. 5-7 - Feb. 29 - Mar. 2, 2008
RIDER Broncs (3-0, 0-0 MAAC)

vs.
LIBERTY Flames (4-0, 0-0 Big South)

Friday, Feb. 29 - 3 p.m.

Saturday, Mar. 1 - 2 p.m.

Sunday, Mar. 2 - 1 p.m.

Worthington Stadium - Lynchburg, Va.

The Games

After opening the 2008 campaign with four road games, the Liberty University Flames (4-0, 0-0 Big South) open the home portion of their schedule this weekend, Feb. 29-Mar. 2. The Flames will host the Rider Broncs (3-0, 0-0 MAAC) in a three-game series at Worthington Stadium. Friday's home opener is scheduled for 3 p.m., while first pitch for Saturday's middle contest is slated for 2 p.m. The series will conclude on Sunday with the final game of the series at 1 p.m.

All-Time Against Rider

Friday will be the fifth meeting between Liberty and Rider on the diamond. The Flames hold a 4-0 advantage in the all-time series, which began in 1999.

The two squads met in 2006 at Worthington Stadium with Liberty taking all three games in the weekend series, Feb. 24-26, 11-10, 7-5 and 3-2 in 10 innings.

The Last Time Out

The Flames led from start to finish in a 5-1 triumph over Norfolk State, Wednesday at Marty L. Miller Field in Norfolk, Va.

Left fielder Doug Bream had two hits and knocked in Liberty's first three runs of the contest. Lead off hitter Kenneth Negron also had two hits for the Flames in the victory.

Starter Andrew Wilson pitched five scoreless innings to record a win in his first outing of 2008.

2008 Liberty Baseball Game Notes

Liberty Head Coach Jim Toman (N.C. State, '85,'95)

Record at School: 4-0 (First Year)

Overall Record: Same

On June 24, 2007, Jim Toman was named the sixth head coach in the 34-year history of the Liberty Baseball program.

The first-year skipper comes to Liberty after 11 seasons as the senior member of Ray Tanner's coaching staff at South Carolina. Toman worked a total of 18 years alongside Tanner, dating back to the 1990 season at N.C. State.

During his time at South Carolina, Toman served as recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's catchers. Known as one of the top recruiters in college baseball, the 19-year college coaching veteran was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year. Before joining the Gamecock staff in 1996, Toman served under Tanner for seven years at N.C. State.

Toman has recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball. Toman's 2003, 2005 and 2006 classes were named the top recruiting classes by the publication.

During his time on the staff in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight-straight since 2000, and three consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 15 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

In addition, South Carolina posted eight-straight seasons of 40 or more wins with Toman on the Gamecock coaching staff, including 2007. During Toman's 11 seasons at South Carolina, he helped the Gamecocks to a combined 500-220 (.694) record.

Toman earned four baseball letters at N.C. State, 1981-84, and was captain of the Wolfpack his junior and senior seasons. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in vocational industrial education in 1985. He received a Master of Science degree in sport management from N. C. State in 1995.

Upon graduation, Toman entered the coaching profession as an assistant at Richmond County High School in Rockingham, N. C., for two years. He moved into the collegiate coaching ranks in 1989 as an assistant at Florida International for one year. At FIU, he was responsible for the weight program, worked with the squad's catchers and coached first base. Toman joined the N. C. State staff before the 1990 season.

The Coaches

Liberty Head Coach Jim Toman is in his first season at the helm of the Flames. A 19-year member of the college coaching ranks, he served 18 years as a member of Ray Tanner's staffs at South Carolina and N.C. State.

Toman was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball.

During his time in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight-straight since 2000, and three-consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 15 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

Rider Head Coach Barry Davis is in his fourth year with the Broncs. He has led Rider to a 69-89 mark. Last season, he led the Broncs to a 20-29 mark. In 2006, Davis was named co-MAAC Coach of the Year after leading Rider to a playoff berth in the conference's tournament and a third-place finish. The 18-year coaching veteran has a 640-285-4 career record with prior stints at Georgia Southwestern St. and Gloucester County, where he was a four-time NJCAA Division III National Coach of the Year.

A Look at the Broncs

Rider opened its 2008 campaign by sweeping a three-games series at Maryland-Eastern Shore last Sunday and Monday. The Broncs defeated Maryland-Eastern Shore, 9-1, in their season opener on Sunday. Junior Mike Petrowski pitched six innings and allowed just one unearned run, striking out seven without allowing a walk in the win. He was named MAAC Pitcher of the Week for his efforts. On Monday, Rider took both ends of a doubleheader, 6-2 and 11-6.

Left fielder Mo Williams, with a .571 batting average and 5 runs scored, and catcher/first baseman Sean Olsen, who has totaled six RBIs and a .500 batting average, have paced the Broncs hitting attack in the early going.

Last season, Rider finished 20-29 and 11-15 in the MAAC.

A New Staff For 2008

With the hire of Jim Toman as head coach, the Liberty baseball team was greeted by a new coaching staff when fall practice began. Joining Toman are Scott Jackson, Nick Schnabel and Jeremiah Boles as assistants.

Jackson heads up the Flames' pitching staff, while Schnabel serves as the team's hitting and infield instructor. Schnabel also coaches third base.

Boles, a former Liberty baseball player, rounds out the staff. Boles is assisting with hitting instruction, working with the squad's outfielders and coaching first base.

Flames at Worthington Stadium

For the past 28 years, the Flames have called Worthington Stadium their home. The Flames have compiled an impressive 475-214-4 record at the facility for a winning percentage of .688 since the stadium's inception in 1979. Last season, Liberty went 23-9 at Worthington. The 23 wins tie for the third most by the Flames in a year at the facility.

This year, the Flames are slated to play 28 home games at the stadium. Liberty hosts Rider to begin its home schedule today. The slate of 28 games is tentatively scheduled to host its first night contests in the history of the stadium this season. The lights at the facility are to be installed by March 28, with 12 contests scheduled to be played under the lights.

Liberty on the Road

This year, Liberty is scheduled to play 22 contests on the road, plus six on neutral fields. Jim Toman's team's road schedule includes two tournaments. This first is in Clearwater, Fla., which opened the season, followed by The Coca-Cola Classic in Hattiesburg, Miss., March 14-15.

2008 Liberty Baseball Game Notes

The Flames are off to a good start away from Lynchburg, after winning all four of their contests to begin the 2008 campaign.

Last season, Liberty posted a 10-15 road mark, plus a 3-1 neutral field record.

Liberty in Season Lid Lifters

Last week's season opener was the 34th since the Flames began playing baseball in 1974. With its 6-2 victory over Notre Dame at the Clearwater Invitational last Friday, Liberty now sports a 22-10 record in the first game of the season since 1976.

The Flames have played a majority of their season openers on the road, compiling a 11-7 mark. Meanwhile, Liberty has a 9-2 mark at home and posted 2-1 on a neutral playing field.

The Flames have won four-straight campaign openers. Liberty has not dropped a opener since 2004. Last season, the visiting Flames defeated East Carolina, 6-2, on catcher Errol Hollinger's grand slam. In 2006, Liberty beat host Wofford, 4-1, while in 2005, Liberty scored five first-inning runs and Aaron Grijalva belted a home run, as the Flames edged Old Dominion, 7-6.

The Flames in Home Openers

This Friday will be the 31st home opener at Liberty's Worthington Stadium. The Flames are 25-5 in home openers at the facility.

Last season, the Flames scored four runs in the third inning and five in the fourth in a 9-2 win over Albany in the home opener at Worthington on Feb. 23.

Baseball in the Commonwealth

Thirteen Division I baseball teams call the Commonwealth of Virginia home. With their 5-1 victory over Norfolk State, the Flames have begun their slate of 25 games against opponents from the "Old Dominion State" this season at 1-0. Liberty posted a 11-6 record against Virginia teams in 2007.

The Flames are scheduled to meet state squads George Mason (two times), James Madison (three times), Longwood (three times), Norfolk St. (two times), Old Dominion (two times), Radford (three times), VCU (two times), VMI (three times), Virginia (one time), Virginia Tech (two times) and William & Mary (two times) this season.

Flames by the Month

The Flames will play five contests during the month of February in 2008, with the inception of the common starting date for college baseball. For the first time this season, NCAA Division I programs could not begin competition until Feb. 22.

Liberty has been successful in the month with all-time mark of 59-29. In the past two years, the Flames have had strong opening months. Last season, Liberty started the 2007 campaign by posting a 7-3 mark in February, while in 2006, Liberty started 7-2.

With their wins to open the 2008 campaign in Clearwater, Fla., this past weekend, the Flames have started the month, 4-0.

Liberty's 2007 record, by the month:

Month	Record
February	7-3, 0-0 Big South
March	10-9, 3-3 Big South
April	11-6, 6-3 Big South
May	8-7, 5-1 Big South

Avoiding Goose Eggs

The Flames have gone 203 games and over three years without being shut out in a contest. The last time a Liberty team was shut out was April 10, 2004 by the Winthrop Eagles at the Winthrop Ballpark. During the span, the Liberty mound staff has pitched eight shutouts, including two in 2007.

Flames Mound Staff Off to Good Start

The Liberty pitching staff is off to a strong start in 2008. Over the first four games of the year, the Flames' hurlers have a 1.75 ERA, allowing seven runs in 36 innings pitched.

The Liberty staff has not allowed an opponent more than two runs in three of its four contests this season. Flames starters have pitched into the fifth inning on three occasions also, with last Saturday's starting hurler Ryan Page's outing cut short due to rain.

Liberty Picked Third in Big South Preseason Poll

The Flames were tabbed by Big South coaches and sports information directors to finish third in the conference standings this season. VMI edged Liberty by one point in being selected to place second in the Big South race. The Keydets tallied 97 points, while the Flames garnered 96.

Defending champion Coastal Carolina was named on all 16 ballots to win the conference title again this season. After VMI and Liberty, Winthrop was selected fourth and High Point was picked fifth. UNC Asheville was tabbed to finish in sixth place, while Charleston Southern and Radford were selected to tie for seventh.

Lights for Worthington on Their Way

The Liberty Athletics Department announced the department has entered into a contract which will allow lights to be installed at Worthington Stadium.

The lights will be installed at Worthington Stadium, the home of the Flames, by Musco Sports Lighting. Founded in 1976, Musco is recognized as a world-class leader in sports lighting, with lighting systems installed around the globe. The company, based in Oskaloosa, Iowa, expects to complete the project in time for the first game of a three-game Big South series with defending conference champion Coastal Carolina, March 28.

The installation of lights is one of several improvement projects to Worthington Stadium and the adjacent Crowder/Muckel Field House over the past year. The Liberty baseball program moved to the on-campus facility in 1979. At the time, the field was named Liberty Field. In May 1989, the field was renamed Worthington Stadium after the program's first coach and later Athletic Director Al Worthington.

Young Selected to Brooks Wallace Watch List

Liberty outfielder Garrett Young has been named to the preseason 2008 Brooks Wallace Player of the Year Award Watch List. The Wallace Award is presented to the nation's top collegiate baseball player at the end of the season.

Young is one of 224 collegiate players appearing on the preseason Wallace Watch list. The senior is the first Liberty player to appear on the list since its inception in 2004.

Last season, the outfielder led the Flames and finished among the Big South leaders in batting average, slugging percentage, on base percentage, hits, runs scored, RBI and home runs. The senior hit .389 with 12 doubles, two triples, eight home runs, 46 RBI and 53 runs scored in 50 games. He also hit in 18-straight games, the longest hitting streak by a Liberty player this year, and capped his season by being named to the 2007 Big South All-Tournament team.

Young was selected by the Boston Red Sox in the 46th round of Major League Baseball's June amateur draft. After completing his first season with the Flames in 2007, he was selected to both the Big South all-conference and VaSID all-state second teams.

The Wallace award is a dedication to the memory of the former Texas Tech player and assistant coach Brooks Wallace. The shortstop was diagnosed with cancer and fought the disease courageously until his death in March, 1985, at age 27. The 2008 award banquet will be held July 3, in the United Spirit Arena on the campus of Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas.

Flames Name Tri-Captains

The Liberty Flames have selected Aaron Grijalva, Errol Hollinger and P.K. Keller captains for 2008. The three players were selected in a vote by team members.

Keller, an outfielder from Clearwater, Fla., and Grijalva, a first baseman from Redlands, Calif., return for their final seasons in a Flames uniform in 2008, while Hollinger, a native of Upland, Calif., is in his third year as Liberty's starting catcher.

Three-Straight Years of 30-plus

For the third-straight season, Liberty won 30-plus contests in 2007, only the second time in the program's 33-year history. The Flames recorded a 36-25 overall mark and reached the Big South Championship for the second-straight season.

Liberty began the string in 2005 by recording a 36-19 campaign in 2005. The following year, the Flames posted the most victories by a Liberty team at the Division I level with a 39-21 record.

The Flames recorded three-straight 30 or more victory seasons on one other occasion in program in program history. From 2000-02, Liberty won 30-plus games each season. The Flames have never had four-straight years of 30 or more wins.

A Look Ahead

Next week, the Flames travel to Richmond, Va., on Tuesday, for a midweek contest at VCU. The contest is set for 3 p.m., at The Diamond. The following afternoon, Liberty will host Old Dominion at Worthington Stadium. The first pitch, Wednesday, is scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

The Flames continued the homestand by hosting Army in a three-game set at Worthington Stadium over the weekend. The series between Jim Toman's squad and the Cadets, begins on Friday with a 3 p.m. first pitch. Saturday's contest is scheduled for 2 p.m. and the final game of the series is slated for Sunday at 1 p.m.
