2008 Liberty Baseball Game Notes

Games No. 27-29 - April 4-6, 2008

LIBERTY Flames (12-14, 1-2 Big South)

at

UNC ASHEVILLE Bulldogs (12-19, 0-3 Big South)

Friday, April 4 - 1 p.m.

Saturday, April 5 - 1 p.m.

Sunday, April 6 - 1 p.m.

Greenwood Field - Asheville, N.C.

The Games

The Liberty Flames (12-14, 1-2 Big South) travel to Asheville, N.C., for the first Big South three-game series of 2008 against the UNC Asheville Bulldogs (12-19, 0-3 Big South), April 4-6, at Greenwood Field. Game time Friday is scheduled for 1 p.m. Saturday's contest is set for 1 p.m., while Sunday's series finale is scheduled for 1 p.m.

All-Time Series Against UNC Asheville

Friday will be the 50th meeting between the Flames and Bulldogs. Liberty enters the weekend series with a 34-15 advantage in the all-time series since 1977.

Last year, the Flames won three of the four meetings between the two teams, taking two games of a three-game series at Liberty's Worthington Stadium, March 17-19. Liberty then took an elimination game at the 2007 Big South Championship, 12-8, on the morning of May 25 to advance in the tournament.

The Last Time Out

The visiting Norfolk State Spartans scored three times in the eighth inning, en route to an 8-5 victory over the Liberty Flames, Wednesday afternoon at Worthington Stadium.

The Flames had taken a 5-3 lead with a four-run sixth inning, before the Spartans claimed the lead for good in the eighth.

Kenneth Negron and Cody Brown each had two hits in the contest for Liberty.

2008 Liberty Baseball Game Notes

Liberty Head Coach Jim Toman (N.C. State, '85,'95)
Record at School: 12-14 (First Year)
Overall Record: Same

On June 24, 2007, Jim Toman was named the sixth head coach in the 34-year history of the Liberty Baseball program.

The first-year skipper comes to Liberty after 11 seasons as the senior member of Ray Tanner's coaching staff at South Carolina. Toman worked a total of 18 years alongside Tanner, dating back to the 1990 season at N.C. State.

During his time at South Carolina, Toman served as recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's catchers. Known as one of the top recruiters in college baseball, the 19-year college coaching veteran was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year. Before joining the Gamecock staff in 1996, Toman served under Tanner for seven years at N.C. State.

Toman has recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball. Toman's 2003, 2005 and 2006 classes were named the top recruiting classes by the publication.

During his time on the staff in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight-straight since 2000, and three consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 15 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

In addition, South Carolina posted eight-straight seasons of 40 or more wins with Toman on the Gamecock coaching staff, including 2007. During Toman's 11 seasons at South Carolina, he helped the Gamecocks to a combined 500-220 (.694) record.

Toman earned four baseball letters at N.C.State, 1981-84, and was captain of the Wolfpack his junior and senior seasons. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in vocational industrial education in 1985. He received a Master of Science degree in sport management from N.C. State in 1995.

Upon graduation, Toman entered the coaching profession as an assistant at Richmond County High School in Rockingham, N.C., for two years. He moved into the collegiate coaching ranks in 1989 as an assistant at Florida International for one year. At FIU, he was responsible for the weight program, worked with the squad's catchers and coached first base. Toman joined the N.C. State staff before the 1990 season.

The Coaches

Liberty Head Coach Jim Toman is in his first season at the helm of the Flames. A 19-year member of the college coaching ranks, he served 18 years as a member of Ray Tanner's staffs at South Carolina and N.C. State.

Toman was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina.

During his time in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight-straight since 2000, and three-consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 15 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

UNC Asheville Head Coach Willie Stewart is in his fourth year as the head coach of his alma mater. In 2006, Stewart led the Bulldogs to their first-ever Big South Tournament title and NCAA Regional appearance. After winning only 11 games in 2005, Stewart's Bulldogs won a school-record 28 contests in 2006. Overall, UNC Asheville is 74-134 under Stewart.

A New Staff For 2008

With the hire of Jim Toman as head coach, the Liberty baseball team was greeted by a new coaching staff when fall practice began. Joining Toman are Scott Jackson, Nick Schnabel and Jeremiah Boles as assistants.

Jackson heads up the Flames' pitching staff, while Schnabel serves as the team's hitting and infield instructor. Schnabel also coaches third base.

Boles, a former Liberty baseball player, rounds out the staff. Boles is assisting with hitting instruction, working with the squad's outfielders and coaching first base.

Flames at Worthington Stadium

For the past 28 years, the Flames have called Worthington Stadium their home. The Flames have compiled an impressive 481-220-4 record at the facility for a winning percentage of .685 since the stadium's inception in 1979.

This year, the Flames are slated to play 24 home games at the stadium. Liberty has posted a 6-7 record at Worthington, so far this season.

The slate of home games includes the first night contests in the history of the stadium. This past Friday night was the first night contest ever at the stadium, and nine contests currently are scheduled to be played under the lights.

Last season, Liberty went 23-9 at Worthington. The 23 wins tie for the third most by the Flames in a season at the facility.

Liberty on the Road

This year, Liberty is scheduled to play 22 contests on the road, plus 10 on neutral fields. Jim Toman's team's road schedule includes two tournaments. The first is in Clearwater, Fla., which opened the season, followed by The Coca-Cola Classic in Hattiesburg, Miss., March 14-15.

For the season, Liberty sports a 1-3 road record and a 5-4 neutral field mark. Last season, Liberty posted a 10-15 road record, plus a 3-1 mark on neutral fields.

2008 Liberty Baseball Game Notes

Flames by the Month

The Flames posted a 7-12 record and began Big South play at 1-2 in the just completed month of March. Last season, Liberty posted a 10-9 record in March and began Big South play with a 3-3 record. Since 1978, the Flames have posted a record of 325-266-2 (.549) in the month of March.

Liberty played five contests during the month of February in 2008, with the inception of the common starting date for college baseball. For the first time this season, NCAA Division I programs could not begin competition until Feb. 22. Liberty went unbeaten during the month, posting a 5-0 mark to open the 2008 campaign

Last season, Liberty started the 2007 campaign by posting a 7-3 mark in February, while in 2006, Liberty started 7-2. The Flames have been successful during the month with a mark of 69-29 (.704) since 1976. It is the third-straight season the Flames have had a strong opening month.

Liberty has started the month of April at 0-2. Last season, the Flames went 11-6 in the fourth month of the year. Since 1976, Liberty has recorded an all-time mark of 312-268-1 (.538) in April.

Liberty's 2008 record, by the month:

Flames in Big South Openers

Last weekend's series was only the fourth time in 17 years in the Big South, the Flames have started conference play at home. With the results of this past weekend, Liberty is now 23-25 in their Big South opening series of the season all-time.

Of the 48 games, Liberty has opened conference play on the road 13 times with a record of 15-21. The Flames have opened at home four times, posting an 8-4 mark.

A Historic Night

Last Friday night was a historic one for the Liberty baseball program, as Worthington Stadium, the Flames' home field, hosted its first-ever night game.

The contest between Coastal Carolina and Liberty, the opening game of Big South play for both teams, drew a stadium-record 3,183 fans. The stadium also debuted a new sound system at the game, which was won, 5-3, in 11 innings by the Chanticleers.

2008 Liberty Baseball Game Notes

The installation of lights is one of several improvement projects to Worthington Stadium and the adjacent Crowder/Muckel Field House over the past year.

The Liberty baseball program moved to the on-campus facility in 1979. At the time, the field was named Liberty Field. In May 1989, the field was renamed Worthington Stadium after the program's first coach and later Athletic Director Al Worthington.

The Flames at Night

Last Friday night was the first night contest of 2008 for Liberty. The Flames are now 0-2 under the lights this season. Last year, the Flames went 4-6 in night contests. Since 2004, Liberty has gone 10-18 under artificial lighting.

The Flames are scheduled to play 12 games at night this season, including six at Worthington Stadium and six on the road. Liberty's next contest under the lights is scheduled for Tuesday night against James Madison at Worthington Stadium. The Flames will play their first road night contest at Virginia on Wednesday.

Flames Announce Midweek Time Changes

Start times for two midweek games were announced this week. Tuesday's contest against James Madison at Worthington Stadium will start at 6 p.m., instead of the original time of 7 p.m. In addition, the Flames' home contest against Virginia Tech on April 16 has been changed to a 3 p.m. start time. The game had originally been scheduled as a night contest.

Game Time Changes at Worthington

3/28 Coastal Carolina	7 p.m.	4/18 VMI	7 p.m.
3/29 Coastal Carolina	4 p.m.	4/19 VMI	4 p.m.
4/1 William & Mary	6 p.m.	5/13 VCU	7 p.m.
4/8 James Madison	6 p.m.	5/16 High Point	7 p.m.
4/16 Virginia Tech	3 p.m.	5/17 High Point	4 p.m.

Some Early Trends

The Flames are 7-3 when scoring first in a contest and 6-4 when scoring in the first inning. Jim Toman's squad has posted an even better 10-2 mark when out-hitting an opponent.

However, the Flames are 5-11 when their opposition scores first and 4-7 when their opponent scores in the first inning. Liberty is also 2-10 when it is out-hit.

Liberty Against Nationally Ranked Opponents

Coastal Carolina, who the Flames played last weekend, was the first nationally ranked opponent for Liberty this season. The Chanticleers entered this last weekend's series ranked 18th in the country. The Flames have now met a nationally ranked opponent 43 times in the program's history.

The Flames have posted a 11-31 mark in those meetings, with one contest ending in a tie after being called in the 7th inning due to rain.

Besides Coastal Carolina, Liberty is slated to face nationally-ranked Virginia in Charlottesville next Wednesday. The Cavaliers currently are No. 12 in this week's National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Poll.

Double Dipping

Entering play this week, Liberty leads the Big South in doubles with 64 two-base hits. Right-fielder P. K. Keller is tied atop the conference with 11 doubles.

Defensively, the Flames head up the conference in double plays. Liberty is tied with Winthrop with 31 double plays this season.

2008 Liberty Baseball Game Notes

Giammaresi Makes Most of Opportunity

Senior David Giammaresi made the most of an opportunity. The senior, who earned second-team all-conference honors as a third baseman in 2007, started at first base against Columbia on March 20, and became a tough out in the middle of the Liberty batting order.

Over a stretch of eight games from March 20-30, Giammaresi led the Flames in hitting with a .484 average. The switch hitter raised his batting average 77 points since taking over the duties at first base.

Giammaresi had two or more hits in five of the eight games, including a trio of three-hit contests.

Two-Out Runs Key Liberty Victory Over Coastal Carolina

The Liberty Flames plated seven runs with two outs, en route to a 9-6 victory over the 18th-ranked Coastal Carolina Chanticleers, last Saturday afternoon at Worthington Stadium.

At the time, the victory evened the weekend series between the Big South Conference foes at one game apiece.

In the bottom of the third inning, the Flames struck for five runs to take a 5-1 lead. All five runs scored with two outs. Left fielder Jeff Jefferson and third baseman Cody Brown each belted two-run hits. Jefferson got the scoring started with a single and Brown followed with a double inside the bag. Designated hitter Garrett Young capped the two-out rally with a RBI single.

Liberty added two more two-out runs on a sixth-inning RBI single by P.K. Keller and another tally on an error in the eighth.

Umberger Pitches Seven Strong in Finale Against Columbia

On March 22, junior right-hander Dustin Umberger's six scoreless innings helped key a 12-2 victory over the Columbia Lions in the final game of a four-game series between the two teams at Lynchburg City Stadium.

Umberger improved his season mark to 3-2. Having worked mainly out of the bullpen this year, the right-hander allowed two runs on seven hits over seven innings. He struck out seven and walked one in the Liberty victory.

Grand Slam Highlights Three-Home Run Game

The homestanding Flames hit three home runs at their home, Worthington Stadium, March 8 in a 11-5 victory in the first game of a doubleheader against Army. It was the first time since March 31, 2006 in an 8-5 victory over VMI, the Flames have hit three home runs in a game at Worthington Stadium.

Shortstop Aaron Phillips ripped the first home run of the contest, breaking a 2-2 tie in the third inning. The leadoff homer was Phillips' second of the season. Both roundtrippers have given the Flames leads they never relinquished.

In the sixth frame, designated hitter Garrett Young connected for his first home run of a season, a two-run shot. Freshman Doug Bream then touched them all for the first time in his Liberty career with a grand slam in the seventh inning.

The Flames went on to sweep the three-game series. Liberty took the second game of the doubleheader, which was suspended in the top half of the ninth inning on March 8, 13-7. The Flames completed the sweep with a 15-7 victory on March 9.

Flames Break Out With 21 Hits to Take Rider Series

Liberty's bats came alive March 2 at Worthington Stadium, as the Flames had 21 hits in an 18-2 win over Rider to take the three-game series, two games to one. Aaron Grijalva went 4-for-5 with four RBIs, two doubles and a triple, while Doug Bream continued his hot hitting with a 4-for-5 afternoon. Tommy Bussey, making his first start of the season at second base, drove in five runs, helping make a winner of David Stokes. The senior extended his record to 2-0 with six innings of one-hit pitching.

The Flames dropped their first contest of the season on March 1, 5-4, to Rider, while on Feb. 29, a seventh-inning home run by Aaron Phillips gave Liberty a 4-3 victory over the Broncs.

Freshman left-fielder Doug Bream hit .636 and drove in seven runs during the series. He went 7-for-11 with two walks in the three-game series and had two multiple-hit games.

Liberty Opens With Trio of Wins in Clearwater

The Flames began the 2008 season in grand fashion, going 3-0 at the Clearwater Invitational at Jack Russell Stadium, Feb. 22-24.

In Jim Toman's head coaching debut on Feb. 22, Liberty plated four runs in the fourth inning to take the lead and never looked back in a 6-2 victory over Notre Dame in the first-ever meeting between the squads on the diamond. Liberty starter Clarence Nicely picked up the win in his first appearance in a Flames uniform. The right-hander went six innings, allowing one run on five hits, striking out three and walking one.

The next day, after trailing 3-1 and waiting over six and a half hours to resume play due to rain, the Flames used a Garrett Young double in the seventh inning to score the go-ahead run. Dustin Umberger pitched a scoreless 2 2/3 innings to record his first win of the season in a 5-4 win.

Liberty concluded the series with a 3-1 win over Iowa on Feb. 24. David Stokes pitched 7 1/3 solid innings, allowing only an unearned run in the victory. Clearwater native P.K. Keller hit a home run in the ninth inning for the Flames.

A Look Ahead

The Flames return home for a Tuesday contest with James Madison at Worthington Stadium. Game time is slated for 6 p.m. Liberty will then travel on Wednesday to Charlottesville, Va., to sqare off with No. 12 Virginia at Davenport Stadium. First pitch Wednesday is scheduled for 6 p.m.

The Flames will then continue on the road for conference action over the weekend. Liberty will travel to Radford, Va., to face the Radford Highlanders in a three-game Big South series, April 11-13. Friday's series opener is scheduled for 3 p.m., while Saturday's middle game is slated for 2 p.m. The series will conclude on Sunday at 1 p.m.
