at

LIBERTY FLAMES
(25-10, 9-3 Big South)

Worthington Stadium - Lynchburg, Va.

The Games

Coming off a three-game sweep of No. 26 VMI, the Liberty Flames (25-10, 9-3 Big South) complete a six-game homestand, with two non-conference games, Tuesday and Wednesday. Tuesday, the Flames will host the Duke Blue Devils (21-16, 6-12 ACC) at Worthington Stadium for a night contest, starting at 6 p.m. Wednesday, Liberty will square off with James Madison at Worthington Stadium. First pitch is scheduled for 3 p.m.

Last Time Out

All nine Flames in the starting line-up had at least one hit, as Liberty completed a three-game sweep of No. 26 VMI, 13-8, Sunday afternoon at Worthington Stadium. Outfielder Curran Redal had four hits and scored twice, while designated hitter Justin Richardson had three hits, scoring twice and driving in a run. Liberty left-hander Steven Evans allowed three runs over 6 1/3 innings to run his record to 5-1 on the season. He struck out a season-high seven batters in the contest.

On Deck

Liberty will make its first-ever visit to Clinton, S.C., to face the Presbyterian Blue Hose in a three-game Big South Conference series, Friday-Sunday. The series gets underway, Friday at 3 p.m.

Flames on the Air

Tuesday's game between Duke and Liberty will be video streamed LIVE. The feed will be available for a nominal fee on the Big South Network. Nick Pierce will handle play-by-play duties and former Flames pitcher Doug Wallace will provide commentary for all three games. The broadcast will also be available on the World Wide Web at both LibertyFlames.com and BigSouthSports.com. Wednesday's game between James Madison and Liberty may be heard LIVE on WVMC 90.9 FM. The broadcast will also be available on the World Wide web at both LibertyFlames.com and thelightonline.com, with Pierce and Wallace handling the broadcast duties.

Head Coach Jim Toman

Record at Liberty: 93-57-1 (Three Years)
Career Record: Same

After leading the Flames to the best record of any Liberty head coach during his first two years, 68-47-1, Jim Toman is in his third year at the helm of the Flames.

Last season, Liberty recorded a 33-21 overall record, while posting a 17-9 mark in Big South Conference play, the most victories by the school since joining the conference in 1992. While recording 30 or more wins in each of Toman's seasons in Lynchburg, Liberty reached the plateau for the fifth consecutive season for the first time in the program's 36-year history in 2009.

Liberty set a new fielding standard in 2009, committing the fewest errors, 53 and finishing the year with the highest fielding percentage, .974, in team history. The 2009 team's fielding percentage ranked 16th in the country. From that infield, third baseman Tyler Bream was named a Freshman All-American by the Collegiate Baseball News.

Pitcher Andrew Wilson became the third player during Toman's time at Liberty to be taken in the MLB draft (Atlanta Braves), while catcher Errol Hollinger later signed a free agent contract (Arizona Diamondbacks).

In 2008, the Flames fashioned a 13-3-1 record in the month of May to finish the Toman's first season at Liberty with a 35-26-1 mark. The record made Toman the winningest first-year coach in the program's 36-year history. He guided the Flames to their third straight Big South Championship title game appearance, claiming the conference's runner-up position in 2008. Liberty's May record was the best ever by Flames team.

In addition, the Liberty pitching staff set a new season strikeout record, fanning 508 opposing batters during the year. The Flames' strikeout total led the Big South Conference and their 8.2 strikeouts per nine innings ranked 22nd nationally at season's end. Two pitchers from the staff, Ryan Page and David Stokes, went on to be drafted and play in the professional ranks this past summer. Page was taken in the 20th round of the MLB draft by the Toronto Blue Jays, while Stokes was picked in the 28th round by the Detroit Tigers.

Liberty also eclipsed the school's single-season doubles mark, ripping 155 two-base hits. The total ranked the Flames fifth in the country in the category.

Liberty finished its season with a 14-7 record in conference play. The mark allowed the Flames to claim the No. 2 seed for the Big South Championship, their highest seed for the Big South Baseball Championship since a No. 1 seed in 2000. Liberty would go on to post four consecutive double-digit victories during six games in the Big South Championship to set a championship record with 55 runs scored.

Toman is the sixth head coach in the 35-year history of the Liberty Baseball program. The second-year skipper comes to Liberty after 11 seasons as the senior member of Ray Tanner's coaching staff at South Carolina. Toman worked a total of 18 years alongside Tanner, dating back to the 1990 season at N.C. State.

During his time at South Carolina, Toman served as recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's catchers. Known as one of the top recruiters in college baseball, the 19-year college coaching veteran was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year. Before joining the Gamecock staff in 1996, Toman served under Tanner for seven years at N.C. State.

Toman has recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball. Toman's 2003, 2005 and 2006 classes were named the top recruiting classes by the publication.

During his time on the staff in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight-straight since 2000, and three consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 15 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

In addition, South Carolina posted eight-straight seasons of 40 or more wins with Toman on the Gamecock coaching staff, including 2007. During Toman's 11 seasons at South Carolina, he helped the Gamecocks to a combined 500-220 (.694) record.

Toman earned four baseball letters at N.C. State, 1981-84, and was captain of the Wolfpack his junior and senior seasons. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in vocational industrial education in 1985. He received a Master of Science degree in sport management from N.C. State in 1995.

Upon graduation, Toman entered the coaching profession as an assistant at Richmond County High School in Rockingham, N.C., for two years. He moved into the collegiate coaching ranks in 1989 as an assistant at Florida International for one year. At FIU, he was responsible for the weight program, worked with the squad's catchers and coached first base. Toman joined the N.C. State staff before the 1990 season.

The Coaches

Liberty Head Coach Jim Toman is in his third year at the helm of the Flames. In his first two seasons, he guided the Flames to 68 wins, the most during the first two years under any head coach in program history, and best winning percentage (.591) over the same span.

Last season, Liberty posted the most victories in Big South Conference play with a 17-9 mark, since joining the conference in 1992. The Flames recorded an overall record of 33-21 in Toman's second year.

A 21-year member of the college coaching ranks, he served 18 years as a member of Ray Tanner's staffs at South Carolina and N.C. State. Toman was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball.

Duke Head Coach Sean McNally is in his fifth season guiding his alma mater. With a 137-123-1 record during his career, McNally is off to the best start by any coach in Duke history.

In 2009, McNally became the first Blue Devils coach to reach 100 wins by his fourth year and the first to compile two 30-win seasons during that span. He has also led Duke to more ACC wins in each of his first four seasons, capped by a 15-15 ACC record in 2009. Last season, the Blue Devils went 35-24, while racking up the second most ACC victories in school history.

Duke's 2008 season also showed the progress of the program under McNally, as the Blue Devils posted a 37-18-1 record. The mark enabled McNally to become the first coach in Duke baseball history to reach the 30-win season plateau in just his third year of coaching.

Head Coach Joe "Spanky" McFarland is in his 13th season as the skipper of the James Madison Dukes. In 12 seasons, he has guided the Dukes to seven NCAA Regional appearances.

Last season, James Madison posted a 30-24 mark. The Dukes had four players from that team named to the All-CAA first team.

In 2008, McFarland led James Madison to the CAA title and a 39-19 record. The Dukes have won 35 or more games six times during McFarland's tenure and posted a 44-win season in 2002.

McFarland led Northern Illinois for seven years prior to coming to James Madison, resurrecting a dormant Hokies program. He has an all-time career record of 569-547-3 during his 20-year head coaching career. Known for developing pitchers, McFarland has seen over 60 hurlers under his guidance sign contracts to play professionally.

All-Time against Duke and James Madison

Tuesday's meeting between Duke and Liberty will be the second of the season and eighth all-time between the two teams, with the Flames holding a 4-3 edge. In their earlier meeting this season, the Blue Devils defeated the Flames, 3-2, in 11 innings on March 17 at the USA Baseball Complex.

One of Liberty's more common opponents over the years, James Madison and Liberty will meet for the 61st time since 1976, Wednesday. The Dukes hold a 35-26 edge in the all-time series.

James Madison has had the Flames' number in recent meetings, winning eight consecutive meetings between the two Commonwealth rivals. Liberty last defeated the Dukes on April 11, 2006 at Worthington Stadium, 12-11, rallying for six runs in the eighth inning to pull out the victory.

Earlier this season, James Madison defeated Liberty, 13-2, at Veteran's Memorial Park in Harrisonburg, Va., on March 16.

Scouting the Blue Devils

Duke enters the week, 5-5, over their last 10 contests. The Blue Devils dropped two games this past weekend in a ACC match-up with No. 6 Florida State. Outside the ACC, Duke has posted a 14-4 record.

As a team, the Blue Devils have hit .285 and are averaging 5.9 runs per game.

Designated hitter Will Currier begins the week with a team-leading .325 average. He also is tied for the team lead with eight home runs. First baseman Jeremy Gould has also hit .322 in 37 starts for Duke.

On the mound, Tuesday's starter, Eric Pfisterer has nine appearances, with eight starts. He has a 2-4 record with a 7.13 ERA over 41 1/3 innings.

Ben Grisz, who made a relief appearance against the Flames in the first meeting between the two teams earlier this season, has made a team-leading 18 appearances out of the bullpen, posting a 2-1 record with a 3.55 ERA and three saves.

As a team, the Blue Devils have a 5.32 ERA and allowed 6.0 runs per game.

Scouting the Dukes

After posting a 5-2 mark over their last seven games, James Madison will come to Lynchburg on Wednesday for its only contest during the midweek. The Dukes took its series with CAA foe UNC Wilmington over the weekend, two games to one.

Hitting .312 as a team, James Madison is led by third baseman Matt Browning with a .394 batting average and 44 runs scored. Outfielder Matt Tenaglia, who has played in 28 games, has a .367 batting average.

In addition, outfielder Trevor Knight hit safely in 24 straight games, the third longest such streak in the nation this season. The streak came to an end this past Saturday. Knight is hitting .345 with 43 runs scored for the Dukes.

On the mound, the James Madison staff has posted a 7.09 ERA this season. The Dukes have relied on two pitchers for the most part during the midweek. Alex Valadja has made six starts and had 11 appearances. The left-hander enters the week with a 1-4 record with a 8.03 ERA. Jason Kuhn has also started in the midweek. He is 1-3 with a 9.20 ERA over 30 1/3 innings.

Closer Kevin Munson, who is on the Stopper of the Year Watch list, is 6-0 with six saves. He has a 0.76 ERA and 51 strikeouts during 35 1/3 inning of work this season.

Baseball in the Commonwealth

Thirteen Division I baseball teams call the Commonwealth of Virginia home. The Flames will play a slate of 15 games against opponents from the "Old Dominion State" this season. Liberty will enter Wednesday's contest against in-state opponent James Madison, with a 10-3 mark in games against Virginia foes. Head Coach Jim Toman's squad has won eight straight games against in-state opponents.

The Flames are scheduled to meet state squads George Mason (two times), James Madison (two times), Old Dominion (two times), VCU (two times) and Virginia Tech (one time) along with Big South Conference opponents Radford (three times) and VMI (three times) this season.

Analyzing April

The Flames have posted a 9-2 record, including a 8-1 Big South mark, so far during the month of April. Liberty is scheduled to play 18 games during the month.

Last season, the Flames finished the month of April with a 10-8 record. Liberty posted a 9-3 mark in Big South Conference play. Since 1976, the Flames have recorded an all-time mark of 340-283-1 (.546) in April.

March Mayhem

With three-straight victories to close the month, Liberty posted a 10-8 mark in games during March this season, including a 1-2 start to Big South Conference play. The Flames are 347-275-2 (.558) all-time in program history during the month.

Fast Starts in February

After completing the month of February with a 6-0 record, its best February start since 1995, the Flames have recorded a .500 or better mark for the month 20 out of 23 times. Since beginning play during the month of February in 1984, Liberty has posted an all-time mark of 70-32 for a .686 winning percentage.

Over the past five years, the Flames are 28-9 (.757) during the month of February, while recording a 14-3 mark under head coach Jim Toman during his three years at Liberty.

Home Sweet Home

For the past 32 years, the Flames have called Worthington Stadium home. Named for program architect and the first Liberty head baseball coach, Al Worthington, Liberty has compiled an impressive 518-234-5 record at the stadium for a winning percentage of .688 since the facility's inception in 1979.

The Flames have posted a 13-5 record at Worthington this season. Liberty is slated to play 28 contests at home in 2010.

The Flames finished the 2009 regular season with a 19-5 record at the facility and are 43-23-1 at home under three-year head coach Jim Toman's guidance.

Flames on the Road

Propelled by a five-game road winning streak, the Flames have posted a 10-5 mark on the road this season. Liberty's five game win streak is currently tied for the fifth-longest in the country. The Flames are also 2-0 in contests on neutral fields.

Head Coach Jim Toman's team finished 2009 with a 11-13 final road ledger. The Flames also compiled a 3-3 record on neutral fields.

Liberty at Night

After splitting a pair of night games last week, Liberty will enter Tuesday night's contest under the lights with a 3-1 record in night games this season. Liberty will play 11 games under the lights this year. The Flames went 8-7 at night last season.

What's Up with Fridays

After its come-from-behind victory over No. 26 VMI, Friday, the Flames are 8-1 in Friday night contests. Liberty has also won eight games on Saturday (8-3).

Scoring First

Liberty has gotten on the scoreboard first in 27 of their 35 contests this season. The Flames are 22-5, when scoring first.

However this past weekend, Liberty reversed the trend coming from behind in contests against VMI on both Friday and Saturday. On Friday, the Flames plated six runs in the seventh inning to erase a 6-3 Keydet advantage on their way to a 12-9 win. Trailing 6-0 on Saturday, Liberty scored seven runs in the sixth inning to overtake the Keydets for a 9-6 victory.

With the wins, the Flames are 3-5 when their opponents score first in a contest.

What's the RISP?

Liberty hitters are batting .307 (142/462) with runners in scoring position (RISP). Outfielder Doug Bream leads the Flames by hitting .417 (16/24) with runners in scoring position, while Curran Redal has hit .433 (13/30) with runners in scoring position and two outs.

Bats Power Recent Success

The Flames have won 12 out of their last 14 games to post a .857 winning percentage from March 28 through April 18.

Fueling the success is the Liberty bats. The Flames hit .353 as a team during the span, raising their team average 22 points during the period from .299 to .321.

Over the 14 games, three Flames hit better than .400, led by outfielder Curran Redal who has hit .500 during the stretch, with 30 hits to raise his batting average to a team-leading .400. He has had nine multi-hit games, including a five and a four hit game.

Second baseman P.J. Jimenez has hit .472 over the span, while outfielder Michael Robertson has posted a .426 average. He has seen his average go from .309 to .363 during the stretch. Robertson also has scored 17 times, the most of any Flames during the span.

Linza and Teufel Among Nation's Leaders

Right-hander Keegan Linza has recorded a 7-0 mark this season, while teammate Shawn Teufel has posted a 7-1 record. Both pitchers are tied for eighth in the country with seven wins. In addition, the two hurlers are tied for the conference lead in wins.

Teufel also leads the Big South with 61 innings pitched. The left-hander is fourth in the conference with a 2.51 ERA and 53 strikeouts.

Linza is also among the top five in the conference rankings for innings pitched. The right-hander has pitched 55 1/3 innings so far this season.

Redal At It Again

After being one of the toughest hitters in the nation to strike out in 2009, Liberty outfielder Curran Redal is once again proving to be hard to strike out this season. The senior has fanned only three times in 121 at bats this season, or once per every 46.7 at bats. The outfielder ranked as the second toughest batter to strike out in the country in the latest NCAA statistics through games of April 11.

Last season, Redal finished the year, striking out once every 21.3 at bats, ranking him ninth among NCAA Division I batters in the country. Redal struck out only 10 times in 213 at bats over 54 games in 2010.

The outfielder enters the week ranked fourth in the Big South Conference in on base percentage with a .494 average.

Victory 1,000 Reached

With a 10-2 win at Radford on April 9, Liberty recorded its 1,000th win in the program's history. Flames' left-hander Shawn Teufel, who ran his record to 6-1 in the contest, set a new career-high of his own with 10 strikeouts in the game.

Liberty baseball is in its 37th year of intercollegiate competition. The Flames posted an 11-14 record in its inaugural season under Al Worthington in 1974.

Notable Liberty wins in the program's history:

- 100th win - Liberty 9 Hampden-Sydney 2, April 17, 1979
- 200th win - Liberty 5, Azusa Pacific 4, NAIA National Tournament, June 4, 1981
- 300th win - Liberty 21, Radford 0, March 19, 1985
- 500th win - Liberty 9, Campbell 4, April 23, 1994
- 750th win - Liberty 8, Kutztown 4, March 7, 2003
- 900th win - Liberty 13, Radford 1, April 21, 2007
- 1,000th win - Liberty 10, Radford 2, April 9, 2010
- NCAA Tournament Win - Liberty 10, Seton Hall 2, May 27, 2000

Other things to note:

- The Flames have recorded one 40-win season (1983).
- The Flames have won 30 or more games in a season on 14 occasions. In addition, Liberty has posted 30 or more victories in a season each of the last five seasons.
- The Flames have had six head coaches during their 37 years - Al Worthington, Bobby Richardson, Johnny Hunton, Dave Pastors, Matt Royer and Jim Toman. Worthington, the program's first coach, is also its winningest and longest tenured, recording 343 victories over 13 seasons.

Jimenez's Multi-Hit Binge

Second baseman P.J. Jimenez had eight multi-hit games in 10 contests from March 27 through April 11. During the span, the senior hit .564, with at least one hit in each of the 10 contest.

The burst at the plate has raised the senior's batting average to its highest at .388 on the year.

Over the period, Jimenez has had three hits in a contest four times. Each of the four contests were Flames' wins.

Turning Two

After turning four double plays this past weekend, Liberty has turned 38 double plays this season, and ranked 25th nationally in double plays in the last NCAA Statistical Report for games through April 11. The Flames total eclipsed last year's season total of 36 over 54 games.

In addition, the Liberty Flames turned five ground balls into double plays during their 9-1 win over St. John's on March 12. The five double plays turned by the Liberty infield are the most in a game by the Flames over the past 11 seasons.

In 2008, the Flames turned four double plays in a game twice. The contests happened a week apart, as Liberty had four double plays in an 11-5 win over Army, March 8. Seven days later, the Flames recorded four double plays in a 5-0 loss at Southern Miss, March 15.

Liberty also turned four double plays this season in a 6-3 victory over Lehigh on Feb. 27 at the Hughes Brothers Challenge in Wilmington, N.C.

Flames Take Three from No. 26 VMI

All nine Flames in the starting line-up had at least one hit to power a 19-hit attack, as Liberty defeated the No. 26 VMI Keydets, 13-8, Sunday at Worthington Stadium to complete a three-game sweep of the Big South Conference series. Curran Redal had four hits and scored twice, while Justin Richardson added three hits, a RBI and scored twice for the Flames.

Left-hander Steven Evans upped his record to 5-1, allowing three runs on 10 hits over the first 6 1/3 innings. He struck out seven batters and walked one.

The day before, Liberty overcame a Keydet advantage with a seven-run sixth to defeat VMI, 9-6. Trailing 6-2 in the sixth, the Flames sent 10 men to the plate in scoring seven runs on six hits and an error to take a 9-6 advantage in the contest. A two-run double by shortstop Matt Williams to give Liberty the lead, highlighted the frame. Catcher Nathan Thompson hit his fifth home run earlier in the game.

Reliever Dane Beakler evened his record at 2-2, with help from 2 2/3 innings of scoreless relief from Tim Dudley. Josh Richardson struckout the last batter in the ninth with two men on to record his fifth save.

Held in check for the most part through the first six innings of Friday's opener, Liberty erupted for six seventh-inning runs and then held off the No. 26 VMI Keydets for a 12-9 victory.

The Flames, who had only two hits through the first six innings, sent 12 men to the plate in the seventh, turning its three-run deficit into a three-run advantage.

Trey Wimmer led the Flames with four RBIs on two hits, one a two-run home run. Pitcher Shawn Teufel picked up his seventh win, while Josh Richardson earned the save.

Teufel Strikes Out Career High

Senior left-hander Shawn Teufel struck out 10 batters in a 10-2 Liberty victory at Radford, April 9. The 10 strikeouts were a career-high for the left-hander. Previously, he had struck out nine on three different occasions.

Teufel moved to 6-1 on the season in the contest, allowing two runs on eight hits over eight innings. He walked only one batter to go along with the 10 strikeouts, the most by a Liberty pitcher this season. The senior finished strong, retiring the last nine batters he faced in the game.

Liberty Sweeps Radford

Curran Redal had three hits, including a two-run home run, as the Liberty Flames defeated the Radford Highlanders, 7-6, April 11 at the RU Baseball Field to complete a sweep of a three-game Big South series.

Starter Steven Evans picked up the win to move to 4-1 on the year. The left-hander gave up four runs on 11 hits. He struck out six batters and walked two. J.J. McLeod, the last of four Flames to take the mound in the contest, earned his fourth save of the season. He pitched the final 1 2/3 innings, striking out three batters and walking one. Liberty pitchers stranded 15 Highlander baserunners in the contest.

Besides Redal with three hits, Tyler Bream and P.J. Jimenez had two hits apiece for the Flames. The Highlanders loaded the bases twice in the game, once with one out and once with two outs, but were unable to score a run.

The Flames defeated Radford, 3-1, in a pitcher's duel, the day before. Starter Keegan Linza and reliever Josh Richardson combined to keep Radford off the scoreboard in the game.

Linza ran his record to a Big South-leading 7-0. The junior gave up one run on five hits over 5 1/3 innings. He struck out six batters and walked five.

Richardson earned his third save of the season, with 3 2/3 innings of relief. The freshman struck out three batters. He gave up five hits and received an assist from left fielder Doug Bream in the bottom of seventh, when the outfielder threw out a runner trying to tie the game at 2-2 at home plate.

Tyler Bream had two hits for the Flames, including a RBI double in the eighth to extend the Liberty advantage to 3-1.

In the opener April 9, Liberty jumped out to a five-run advantage in the first inning and Shawn Teufel struck out a career-high 10 batters, as the Flames cruised to a 10-3 victory over the Highlanders.

Teufel moved to 6-1 on the season. The left-hander allowed three runs on eight hits over eight innings. He struck out 10 and walked one, retiring the last nine batters he faced.

Liberty batted around to open the contest, plating five runs on five hits and two errors. Jimenez had three hits for the Flames. Matt Williams, Jeff Jefferson and Michael Robertson each had two hits apiece. Robertson also had three RBIs.

Umberger Joins Big South 200 Ks Club

With two strikeouts in his first start of the season on March 17 at Duke, Liberty senior right-hander Dustin Umberger became the 53rd pitcher in Big South Conference history to record 200 or more strikeouts. The senior became the first Flame since David Bechtold in 2005 to strike out over 200 batters. Bechtold struck out 241 hitters from 2002-05.

Currently, Umberger's career strikeout totals ranks sixth on the school's career strikeout list. The right-hander has struck out 209 batters, and enters the weekend, three strikeouts away from moving ahead of Randy Tomlin for fifth place on the list.

Tomlin recorded 211 strikeouts for the Flames from 1986-88. For two years, he was Umberger's pitching coach with the Flames. Mike Brown, who pitched at Liberty from 1994-97, holds the career strikeout mark with 287.

Returning from a medical redshirt in 2009, Umberger is 0-1 on the year with a 6.20 ERA in nine appearances this season. The right-hander has struck out 15 batters in 20 1/3 innings this season. He has made four starts.

Liberty Scorches Old Dominion

Liberty opened the game with seven runs in the top of the first inning and never looked back, downing the Old Dominion Monarchs, 12-9, April 6 at Bud Metheny Stadium in Norfolk, Va. With the win, the Flames posted their sixth win in their last seven contests.

Four Flames, Curran Redal, Doug Bream, Tyler Bream and P.J. Jimenez, had three hits each in the contest. Jeff Jefferson hit a two-run home run, his second roundtripper of the year, for Liberty, capping the seven-run first frame.

Freshman right-hander Cameron Giannini picked up his second consecutive win to run his record to 2-1 on the season. The first of four Liberty pitchers in the contest, the right-hander allowed one run on five hits through the first five innings.

Redal Garners Player of the Week Honors

Liberty senior outfielder Curran Redal was named the Big South Conference Player of the Week for games played March 29-April 4.

Redal hit .579 (11-19) with three multi-hit games and a .654 on-base average from the leadoff spot in the Liberty order, helping the Flames post a 4-1 mark during the week. He opened his week with two walks, a hit-by-pitch and an RBI in Liberty's 9-7 win against George Mason on March 30, and followed that by reaching base five times in a win at VCU, the next day. In the 7-4 win, Redal was 3-3 with a walk, hit-by-pitch, stolen base and run scored.

The Flames center fielder hit .571 (8-14) in Liberty's three-game series against High Point at Worthington Stadium, April 2-3. He notched a hit and a run scored in the Flames' 6-4 win in the series opener, April 2, and went 7-10 in doubleheader split on April 3. In the first game, Redal had the first five-hit game of his Liberty career, and added two hits in the nightcap. For the week, Redal slugged .684, had 13 total bases and walked four times. In addition, he added two doubles, four runs scored and three RBIs.

He is the second Flame tabbed the conference's Player of the Week. Third baseman Tyler Bream was named the Big South Player of the Week for games played Feb. 19-21.

Teufel Named to Watch List

Liberty senior Shawn Teufel has been listed on the 2010 National Pitcher of the Year Watch List. The Flames left-hander is one of 49 pitchers on the initial list released by the College Baseball Foundation, March 23.

Teufel has posted a 2.51 ERA with a 7-1 record this season. He is among the national ERA leaders, ranking 13th in the latest NCAA National Statistical Summary through games of April 11. In addition, the left-hander is tied the Big South lead in wins.

Teufel leads the conference with 61 innings pitched. He has also struck out 53 batters, ranking fourth in the conference.

Teufel has set personal milestones this season. On April 9 at Radford, he struck out a career-high 10 batters in a 10-2 Liberty win. A week before (April 2), the left-hander recorded his first career complete game in a 6-4 win over High Point.

After yielding one run in the opening inning of Liberty's season opener at Kennesaw State, Teufel ran off a string of 24 scoreless innings, before giving up a run during the Flames' 8-4 win over Manhattan, March 19.

Teufel Notches Complete Game

Liberty left-hander Shawn Teufel went the distance for the first time in his career, as the Flames downed the High Point Panthers, 6-4, April 2 in a Big South Conference night contest at Worthington Stadium.

Facing the fourth-best hitting team in the country, Teufel held the Panthers in check for most of the contest, running his record to 5-1 on the year. The senior scattered four runs on nine hits in the game. He struck out eight batters and walked two.

Liberty took the lead for good in the contest during the bottom of the fifth inning, sending 11 men to the plate to score five runs on five hits and taking advantage of three Panther errors. Left fielder Doug Bream had the big blow of the frame, launching a first pitch, bases-loaded, double off the wall in right-center field, to give the Flames the lead at 5-3.

Catcher Nathan Thompson had three hits, drove in a run and scored a run in the contest.

Bream Backs Giannini's First Win

Liberty third baseman Tyler Bream had three hits, including a home run, and Cameron Giannini pitched seven strong innings, as the Liberty Flames defeated the VCU Rams, 7-4, March 31st in an evening contest at the Diamond.

Bream drove in three runs with the trio of hits, including his third home run of the season and his first triple of the year. Center fielder Curran Redal also had three hits in the contest. He also walked and scored a run for the Flames.

Giannini, making his second career start, recorded his first win in a Liberty uniform. The freshman right-hander allowed four runs on four hits over seven innings. He struck out four batters and walked three. Josh Richardson finished up for the Flames, pitching two scoreless frames.

Double Delight

Liberty first baseman Trey Wimmer drove in five runs with three doubles, propelling the Flames past the George Mason Patriots, 9-7, March 30 at Worthington Stadium.

The Liberty first baseman went 3-for-3 with a walk in the contest, scoring two runs. He got things started in the first inning with a two-run double, and later scored in a three-run inning. His second two-base hit in the fifth inning scored a run, giving the Flames the lead for good. In the seventh, he chased home his final two runs of the contest with his third double of the game.

Wimmer's three doubles tie 13 other Liberty players for most doubles in a game in program history. The last time a Flame had three two-base hits in a contest was on May 21, 2009, when catcher Errol Hollinger had three in a 20-10 win over High Point at the Big South Conference Baseball Championship at McCormick Field in Asheville, N.C.

Dane Beakler, the second Liberty pitcher of the contest, evened his record at 1-1 on the year. The reliever yielded one run, while scattering seven hits over 4 1/3 innings. He struck out two and did not walk a batter. J.J. McLeod entered the contest with two outs and retired the one batter he faced with the bases full for his third save of the season.

Michael Robertson had three hits in the contest for Liberty and scored three times.

Teufel's Scoreless Streak Ends

Senior left-hander Shawn Teufel gave up only his second run of the season March 19. A Manhattan home run in the fourth halted the left-hander's scoreless innings streak at 24, which spanned over five starts for the senior. Teufel had allowed only one prior run, in the first inning of his season-opening start at Kennesaw State on Feb. 19, and has not allow one since.

The streak tops a previous career-high of 10 scoreless innings by the pitcher last season, from April 4-18. The scoreless span left the left-hander five innings shy of the school record of 29, set by Tim Harrell in 2000.

Best Start Since 1995

Liberty started its 2010 season with a 9-0 record. The mark tied the 1995 Flames for the best start to a year in the 36-year history of the program. Liberty tied the mark with a 10-1 win over Delaware State at Worthington Stadium on March 7.

The Flames' start was the best during the three-year tenure of Liberty Head Coach Jim Toman. During Toman's first season in 2008, the Flames opened the year, 5-1.

Liberty also tied the programs' record for consecutive wins at the NCAA Division I level with the streak. Five other Flames squads have won nine consecutive games (2009, 2008, 2006, 1995, 1985). The 1976 Liberty team holds the school record for consecutive victories with 15.

Bream Named Conference Player of the Week

Liberty sophomore third baseman Tyler Bream was named as the Big South Conference Choice Hotels Baseball Player of the Week for Feb. 23.

Bream hit .700 (7-for-10) in the Flames' three-game, season-opening sweep of Kennesaw State. The third baseman scored six runs and drove in five RBIs during the three-game series, reaching base three times in each contest to record a .688 on-base percentage. The sophomore had two doubles and a towering two-run home run during the weekend to post a 1.200 slugging percentage.

Bream opened the season on Feb. 19 by going 3-for-3, including an RBI-double and a two-run homer, while driving in four runs. The following afternoon, the third baseman walked twice, drove in a run with a sacrifice fly and scored twice. In the final game of the series on Feb. 21, Bream finished the series by going 4-for-5 with a double and three runs scored to lead the Flames to the sweep.

The Last Time

Back-to-Back Home Runs

By Liberty: Curran Redal and Doug Bream connected for back-to-back home runs to lead off the fifth inning, putting Liberty in front 8-4 over Presbyterian at Worthington Stadium, March 29, 2009. The home runs were two of the Flames' three home runs in the frame, as first baseman Trey Wimmer later hit a three-run home run. The Flames went on to defeat the Blue Hose, 14-7.

By Opponent: George Mason outfielder Scott Kreiger and first baseman Justin Bour hit back-to-back home runs in the fourth inning during the Patriots' 12-0 win over Liberty, April 8, 2009 at Spuhler Field in Fairfax, Va. Kreiger connected for a three-run home run, tying him for the George Mason career RBI record with 201.

Grand Slam Home Run

By Liberty: Trailing 9-5 in the seventh inning, catcher Errol Hollinger drove a 1-0 pitch over the left field at Masters Field in Boiling Springs, N.C., tying the visiting Flames with the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs, April 26, 2009. Liberty was down 9-3 in the contest after six innings. The Flames later won the game in the 11th inning, 10-9, on a lead-off home run by first baseman Trey Wimmer.

By Opponent: George Mason's Justin Bour hit the first of his two home runs in the game, a grand slam in the sixth inning, to push the Patriots past Liberty, 13-0, on March 26, 2008 at Spuhler Field in Fairfax, Va.

No-Hitter

By Liberty: Dan Valentin pitched a seven-inning no-hitter against Elon on April 16, 2000, at Worthington Stadium, marking the first no-hitter by a Flames pitcher in 20 years. Valentin walked seven batters and struck out eight in the game to give Liberty a 4-0 win. This game sparked three-consecutive shutouts for Valentin, during a span of 29-consecutive scoreless innings.

By Opponent: UNC Asheville's Jason Walker pitched a seven-inning no-hitter against the Flames on April 29, 2000, at Greenwood Field in Asheville, N.C. Walker allowed two walks and struck out four, leading the Bulldogs to a 3-0 win. The game marked the only shutout against the Flames on the season and the first no-hitter thrown against Liberty since 1992.

Triple Play

By Liberty: Liberty has never recorded a triple play.

By Opponent: Leading 6-4 with a runner on first and second to open the fourth inning, Patrick Gaillard hit a line drive which High Point second baseman Dustin Hoffman caught. Hoffman then tagged second and threw quickly to first to complete the triple play. The Flames went on to win the Big South Championship game, 9-7, on May 25, 2006 at Charles Watson Stadium in Conway, S.C.

Shutout

By Liberty: Starter Keegan Linza pitched six scoreless innings and reliever Zane Bator one inning, as the Liberty Flames pair combined to shut out the Delaware State Hornets in a 16-0, Liberty victory, March 6, 2010 at Worthington Stadium. The Hornets were held to three hits in the contest shortened to seven innings due to a 10- run rule being agreed upon by the teams before the game.

By Opponent: Three Virginia Tech pitchers allowed the Flames just four hits in a 10-0 win, March 23 at English Field in Blacksburg, Va. Starter Manny Martir pitched seven scoreless innings for the Hokies.
