(9-1, 0-0 Big South)

Al Worthington Stadium - Lynchburg, Va. - 3 p.m.

The Games

The Liberty Flames (9-1) host the St. John's Red Storm (7-3) in a three-game series, March 12-14 at Worthington Stadium. The weekend series will conclude the Flames first homestand of the season. First pitch on Friday is scheduled for 3 p.m., while Saturday's game is slated to begin at 2 p.m. The series will conclude Sunday afternoon, with first pitch at 1 p.m.

The series will feature two teams expected to contend for their conferences respective title. St. John's was selected to finish fourth in the 12-team BIG EAST in their pre-season poll and have already been ranked in the Top 30 of several national polls. Liberty was picked to finish second in the Big South preseason poll.

Last Time Out

The visiting Old Dominion Monarchs handed the Flames their first defeat of the season, downing Liberty, 5-3, on Tuesday. The setback halted the Flames' nine consecutive game win streak to begin 2010.

Designated hitter Jeff Jefferson hit his first home run of the season, as part of a two-run third inning to give Liberty a 2-0 lead. However, Monarch starter Brandon Smith held the Flames in check the rest of the way, allowing the visitors to come back for the 5-3 victory.

On Deck

Liberty will take to the road for two midweek contests. On Tuesday, the Flames will travel to Harrisonburg, Va., to square off with the James Madison Dukes. It will be the first-ever visit by Liberty to the Dukes' new home field, Veterans Memorial Park. Game time is scheduled for 4 p.m.

Wednesday, the Flames will head south into North Carolina for a contest with the Duke Blue Devils. Game time at Jack Coombs Field is scheduled for 4 p.m.

Head Coach Jim Toman

Record at Liberty: 77-48-1 (Three Years)

Career Record: Same

After leading the Flames to the best record of any Liberty head coach during his first two years, 68-47-1, Jim Toman has his team off to the best start in school history with a 9-0 mark in his third year.

Last season, Liberty recorded a 33-21 overall record, while posting a 17-9 mark in Big South Conference play, the most victories by the school since joining the conference in 1992. While recording 30 or more wins in each of Toman's seasons in Lynchburg, Liberty reached the plateau for the fifth consecutive season for the first time in the program's 36-year history in 2009.

Liberty set a new fielding standard in 2009, committing the fewest errors, 53 and finishing the year with the highest fielding percentage, .974, in team history. The 2009 team's fielding percentage ranked 16th in the country. From that infield, third baseman Tyler Bream was named a Freshman All-American by the Collegiate Baseball News.

Pitcher Andrew Wilson became the third player during Toman's time at Liberty to be taken in the MLB draft (Atlanta Braves), while catcher Errol Hollinger later signed a free agent contract (Arizona Diamondbacks).

In 2008, the Flames fashioned a 13-3-1 record in the month of May to finish the Toman's first season at Liberty with a 35-26-1 mark. The record made Toman the winningest first-year coach in the program's 36-year history. He guided the Flames to their third straight Big South Championship title game appearance, claiming the conference's runner-up position in 2008. Liberty's May record was the best ever by Flames team.

In addition, the Liberty pitching staff set a new season strikeout record, fanning 508 opposing batters during the year. The Flames' strikeout total led the Big South Conference and their 8.2 strikeouts per nine innings ranked 22nd nationally at season's end. Two pitchers from the staff, Ryan Page and David Stokes, went on to be drafted and play in the professional ranks this past summer. Page was taken in the 20th round of the MLB draft by the Toronto Blue Jays, while Stokes was picked in the 28th round by the Detroit Tigers.

Liberty also eclipsed the school's single-season doubles mark, ripping 155 two-base hits. The total ranked the Flames fifth in the country in the category.

Liberty finished its season with a 14-7 record in conference play. The mark allowed the Flames to claim the No. 2 seed for the Big South Championship, their highest seed for the Big South Baseball Championship since a No. 1 seed in 2000. Liberty would go on to post four consecutive double-digit victories during six games in the Big South Championship to set a championship record with 55 runs scored.

Toman is the sixth head coach in the 35-year history of the Liberty Baseball program. The second-year skipper comes to Liberty after 11 seasons as the senior member of Ray Tanner's coaching staff at South Carolina. Toman worked a total of 18 years alongside Tanner, dating back to the 1990 season at N.C. State.

During his time at South Carolina, Toman served as recruiting coordinator and worked with the team's catchers. Known as one of the top recruiters in college baseball, the 19-year college coaching veteran was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year. Before joining the Gamecock staff in 1996, Toman served under Tanner for seven years at N.C. State.

Toman has recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball. Toman's 2003, 2005 and 2006 classes were named the top recruiting classes by the publication.

During his time on the staff in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight-straight since 2000, and three consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 15 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

In addition, South Carolina posted eight-straight seasons of 40 or more wins with Toman on the Gamecock coaching staff, including 2007. During Toman's 11 seasons at South Carolina, he helped the Gamecocks to a combined 500-220 (.694) record.

Toman earned four baseball letters at N.C. State, 1981-84, and was captain of the Wolfpack his junior and senior seasons. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in vocational industrial education in 1985. He received a Master of Science degree in sport management from N.C. State in 1995.

Upon graduation, Toman entered the coaching profession as an assistant at Richmond County High School in Rockingham, N.C., for two years. He moved into the collegiate coaching ranks in 1989 as an assistant at Florida International for one year. At FIU, he was responsible for the weight program, worked with the squad's catchers and coached first base. Toman joined the N.C. State staff before the 1990 season.

The Coaches

Liberty Head Coach Jim Toman is in his third year at the helm of the Flames. In his first two seasons, he guided the Flames to 68 wins, the most during the first two years under any head coach in program history, and best winning percentage (.591) over the same span.

Last season, Liberty posted the most victories in Big South Conference play with a 17-9 mark, since joining the conference in 1992. The Flames recorded an overall record of 33-21 in Toman's second year.

A 21-year member of the college coaching ranks, he served 18 years as a member of Ray Tanner's staffs at South Carolina and N.C. State. Toman was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball.

During his time in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight-straight since 2000, and three-consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 15 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

St. John's Head Coach Ed Blankenship is in his 15th season with the Red Storm. During his tenure, St. John's has posted a 477-288-3 record, won three BIG EAST regular season titles, one tournament championship, made five NCAA Regional appearances and 10 BIG EAST Tournament appearances.

The Red Storm reached the BIG EAST Tournament for the sixth-straight year in 2009 and finished the season 30-22 under Blankenship. A prolific offense set new school records in batting average (.349), runs scored (473), RBI (440) and doubles (149). Five players earned All-BIG EAST honors and juniors Brian Kemp and Tim Morris were both drafted in the 2009 MLB Draft.

Blankenship has guided St. John's to four 40-win seasons, including a school-record 42 victories in 2008. He has been named BIG EAST Coach of the Year four times and the American Baseball Coaches Association Northeast Region Coach of the Year four times. This past September, he was named to the coaching staff of the USA Baseball Collegiate National team.

All-Time Against St. John's

Friday's game will be the first-ever meeting on the diamond between the Flames and the Red Storm.

Scouting the Red Storm

After starting the year with a 7-0 record, St. John's enters the weekend series with the Flames, looking to halt a three-game losing skid. Wednesday, the Red Storm dropped an 8-2 decision at No. 11 North Carolina. Including its three-game series this weekend, St. John's will open 2010 with 13 road games.

The Red Storm, once again considered to be a contenders for the BIG EAST title, has hit .328 as a team early in the season.

Led by outfielder Jimmy Parque, three players will begin the weekend with above .400 batting averages. Parque has opened his year, with a .457 average and a .528 on base percentage. Designated hitter Sean O'Hare has a .425 batting average, while shortstop and 2008 Freshman All-American Joe Panik has a .421 average.

First baseman Paul Karmas has provided the Red Storm with the big hits, leading the team with three home runs and 17 RBIs.

The St. John's pitching staff has been effective this season, and enters the weekend with a 4.80 ERA and held opponents to a .240 batting average. Probable Friday starter, Bruce Kern, has posted a 2-0 record with a 2.45 ERA over 14 2/3 innings this season. The right-hander leads the Red Storm with 14 strikeouts and has only walked four batters.

The St. John's bullpen has been the strength of the staff, so far. Wednesday at North Carolina, four relievers held the Tar Heels scoreless over the final seven innings. Reliever Daniel Burawa has recorded two saves and not yielded a run in three appearances this season. Fellow reliever Matt Carasti has posted a 2-0 mark and not allowed in three appearances. Right-hander Eddie Medina has also picked up a save for the Red Storm.

Pretty Pitching

One of the keys to the Flames' early season success has been the strong work of their pitching staff. Liberty enters Friday's game, having allowed 24 runs, a 2.4 runs per game average. Liberty leads the nation, along with UCLA in runs allowed per game average.

Flames hurlers have posted a 2.15 ERA during 88 innings of work on the season, while holding opponent batters to a .193 batting average. Only one opponent, Old Dominion, has scored more than four runs in a game this season.

Scoring Margin

Liberty enters this weekend, seventh in the country in scoring margin. The Flames are tied for seventh in the nation in the category with UCLA, averaging a 6.7 runs per game margin of victory.

Liberty has outscored its opponents, 91-24, on the year. In six of their 10 contests, the Flames have scored 10 or more runs in a game.

Flames Open Home Slate with Sweep

Last weekend, Liberty opened its 2010 home schedule with a sweep of a three-game series with the Delaware State Hornets. The Flames dominated the series, outscoring the Hornets, 34-2, over the span of the three games. Liberty also hit .368 as a team, while Flames pitchers limited Delaware State to a .167 batting average.

Catcher Nathan Thompson paced Liberty at the plate in the series, going 5-for-10 (.500) with two home runs, a double, five runs scored and seven RBIs. In Sunday's final game, the senior catcher hit his team-leading fourth home run, a three-run round tripper in the first inning, and drove in five of Liberty's runs in the Flames' 10-1 win. Center fielder Curran Redal also hit .500 for Liberty.

Flames pitchers had a 0.72 ERA during the three-game series, striking out 24 and walking 10. Starters Keegan Linza and Steven Evans each won their third game of the year in as many outings, while Friday's starter Shawn Teufel ran his mark to 2-0 on the season.

Starters Strong at Hughes Brothers

Strong pitching helped the Flames win each of their three games in the Hughes Brothers Challenge, last weekend in Wilmington, N.C.

On Friday, starter Shawn Teufel did not allow a run over six innings in a no-decision against Morehead State. The Flames rallied with three, two-out runs in the seventh inning to take a 5-2 win. Catcher Nathan Thompson tied the game with a home run in the frame.

Saturday, starter Keegan Linza was in control during his seven innings of work, running his mark to 2-0 on the year. He gave up one run on four hits, as Liberty defeated Lehigh, 6-3. Catcher Jerry Neufang belted his first home run of the year in the contest and shortstop Matt Williams had four of the Flames' eight hits in the game.

Sunday, backed by a four-hit effort, including a home run, by third baseman Tyler Bream, Steven Evans ran his record to 2-0 on the season in a 12-2 win over UNC Wilmington. Evans allowed two runs on six hits over 6 2/3 innings for the victory. Shortstop Josh Richardson and right fielder Michael Robertson each also hit roundtrippers for the Flames.

Bream Named Conference Player of the Week

Liberty sophomore third baseman Tyler Bream was named as the Big South Conference Choice Hotels Baseball Player of the Week for Feb. 23.

Bream hit .700 (7-for-10) in the Flames' three-game, season-opening sweep of Kennesaw State. The third baseman scored six runs and drove in five RBIs during the three-game series, reaching base three times in each contest to record a .688 on-base percentage. The sophomore had two doubles and a towering two-run home run during the weekend to post a 1.200 slugging percentage.

Bream opened the season on Feb. 19 by going 3-for-3, including an RBI-double and a two-run homer, while driving in four runs. The following afternoon, the third baseman walked twice, drove in a run with a sacrifice fly and scored twice. In the final game of the series on Feb. 21, Bream finished the series by going 4-for-5 with a double and three runs scored to lead the Flames to the sweep.

Liberty opened its 2010 season with a three-game sweep of host Kennesaw State, Feb. 19-21. Led by third baseman Tyler Bream, who hit .700 in the series, the Flames batted .321 during the series and posted double-digit run totals in each contest. Right-fielder Michael Robertson hit .417 with a team-high six RBIs in his debut in a Liberty uniform.

In the opener of the series on Feb. 19, Bream went 3-for-3 with four RBIs and a home run in a 10-2 victory and in the final game of the three-game set on Feb.21, the third baseman went 4-for-5 with a double and scored three runs in another 10-2 win. Robertson drove in two runs in each game of the series and was 3-for-5 and scored three runs in the Flames' victory in the final game of the series.

The Liberty mound staff held the Owls in check over the span of the series. The Kennesaw State batters hit .194 for the series and struck out 31 times. Flames right-hander Keegan Linza highlighted the weekend for the staff, allowing one run on two hits and striking out eight over six innings in his first outing in a Liberty uniform in an 11-2 victory during the middle contest on Feb. 20. Freshman Josh Richardson did not allow a run in two appearances out of the Flames bullpen during the weekend.

Umberger Among Flames' All-Time K Kings

Liberty senior right-hander Dustin Umberger entered 2010, his final season in a Flames uniform, already listed among the program's all-time leaders in strikeouts. With three strikeouts in three appearances this season, Umberger has struck out 197 batters over his Liberty career to rank sixth on the school's career strikeout list.

The right-hander is 15 strikeouts away from moving ahead of Randy Tomlin for fifth place on the list. Tomlin recorded 211 strikeouts for the Flames from 1986-88. Mike Brown, who pitched at Liberty from 1994-97, holds the career strikeout mark with 287.

Voted as one of the three toughest pitchers to face in the conference by Big South head coaches in a preseason poll by CollegeInsider.com, Umberger returns after receiving a medical redshirt in 2009.

In 2008, he led the league with 88 strikeouts and tied for second with eight wins. The right-hander posted an 8-3 record with one save and a 3.80 ERA over 83 innings. He walked only 19 batters for a 4.6-to-1 strikeout to walk ratio. After starting the year in the bullpen, Umberger made nine starts, pitching two complete games and compiling a 6-1 record.

Liberty Picked Second in Big South Preseason Poll

Liberty was tabbed to finish second in the Big South Conference standings this season in voting by the Big South Coaches. The Flames were selected second, behind three-time defending champion Coastal Carolina.

The Flames, who received one first-place vote, garnered 88 points in the poll, nine less than Coastal Carolina. The Chanticleers received eight first-place votes and 97 total points.

Winthrop, who garnered the final first-place vote, was tabbed third by the panel with 91 points, followed by Radford, High Point and VMI. Charleston Southern was picked seventh, while Gardner-Webb was voted to finish eighth. Presbyterian, who is eligible for the regular-season title but not the tournament title, and UNC Asheville round out the poll.

The 2010 Big South Championship will be contested May 25-29 at the Winthrop Ballpark in Rock Hill, S.C. The winner of the double-elimination tournament receives the conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Flames Post Most Victories in Big South Play

The 2009 Liberty Flames recorded a 17-9 Big South mark. Their victory total was the most ever by a Liberty baseball team since joining the conference in 1992.

The victory total surpassed the 15 Big South wins recorded by the 1995 Flames, who finished their conference season at 15-9.

In addition, Toman's .591 winning percentage during his first two seasons is the highest among the six head coaches to ever guide the Flames.

Third Baseman Bream Named Freshman All-American

Liberty third baseman Tyler Bream was selected to the Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America team, chosen and announced by Collegiate Baseball newspaper last season. The infielder becomes the fourth Flame to be named to Louisville Slugger team in its 19-year history.

Bream finished the year ranked third in the Big South Conference with 57 RBIs. In 46 games, the Zelenople, Pa., native hit .337 with 16 doubles and eight home runs. He scored 35 runs for the Flames and was third on the team with 107 total bases.

Bream opened his first season in a Liberty uniform as the starter at third base and started the first 46 games of the 2009 campaign, until an injury cut short his maiden season of college baseball. He tied the school record with nine RBIs in a game during the Flames' 19-5 victory over High Point, March 22. During a seven-game stretch, Bream drove in 23 runs (March 20-29), leading to him being named the Big South Player of the Week on March 30.

Returners Redal and Teufel Honored in 2009

Senior outfielder Curran Redal and pitcher Shawn Teufel were named to the 2009 Big South Conference first and the VaSID All-State second teams.

In his first year with the Flames in 2009, Redal finished the season ranked among the Big South leaders in batting average (.380), hits (81), triples (4) and on base percentage (.447). He scored 50 runs and drove in 42 runs, with 13 doubles and six home runs.

Redal also set a new Big South record by hitting safely in 32 consecutive games from Feb. 24-April 17. He led the Flames with 23 multi-hit games and 13 multi-RBI contests. The outfielder was selected the Big South Player of the week for March 9-16.

Teufel finished the year second in the Big South with nine wins and third with 72 strikeouts in his first season on the mound for the Flames. The left-hander was also among the conference leaders in ERA (4.33). He went 9-2 in 14 games over 72 2/3 innings, and won six consecutive starts from March 22 to May 2.

Redal Tough to K

Outfielder Curran Redal completed the 2009 season as one of the toughest hitters in the nation to strike out. The junior finished the year, striking out once every 21.3 at bats, ranking him ninth among NCAA Division I batters in the country. Redal struck out 10 times in 213 at bats over 54 games this past season.

Redal Breaks Big South Consecutive Game Hit Mark

Last season, outfielder Curran Redal singled through the left side of the infield in the first inning, April 17 against Winthrop, to hit safely in his 32nd game in a row, a new Big South record. The junior broke the previous mark of 31 consecutive games with at least one hit, which he held along with UNC Asheville shortstop Kevin Weidenbacher. The UNC Asheville shortstop set the previous record last season.

During the streak, the junior hit .452, collecting 57 hits in 126 at bats. He also drove in 40 RBIs over the span.
