Head Coach Jim Toman

Record at Liberty:130-82-1 (Fourth Year)

Career Record: Same

After leading his team to a school-record 42 victories in 2010, Jim Toman enters his fourth year at Liberty with the best mark of any Flames head coach over his first three years.

Since taking over the program for the 2008 season, Liberty has won 35 or more games twice and last season posted only the second 40-win campaign in the 37-year history of the program. The Flames notched a 110-66-1 record during his first three seasons on Liberty Mountain.

On May 2, 2010, Toman recorded his 100th career victory, as the Flames defeated Gardner-Webb, 10-7, at Worthington Stadium. The sixth coach in program history, Toman became the fastest Liberty baseball head coach to amass the milestone, passing first coach Al Worthington, by reaching his 100th win in 160 games, six fewer than Worthington.

The impressive strides made by the program have not gone unnoticed. This past November, Rivals.com cited Liberty as one being one of college baseball's top 10 rising programs.

Last season, the Flames had their best season under Toman, posting a school record for wins in a single season with a 42-19 record. The team's ledger was boosted by a 21-8 road mark, the nation's 10th-best road record in 2010.

In addition, Liberty recorded a 19-7 mark in Big South play, eclipsing its record of the previous season for most victories by the school since joining the conference in 1992. The Flames finished second in the league's regular season and were conference runner-up at the Big South Baseball Championship.

Pitcher Shawn Teufel became the fourth player from one of Toman's Liberty squads to be taken in the MLB Draft. The two-time Big South all-conference first team pitcher and National Pitcher of the Year Watch list member capped a strong senior campaign by being selected by the Detroit Tigers.

In 2009, Liberty recorded a 33-21 overall record, while posting a 17-9 mark in Big South Conference play. Liberty set a new fielding standard in 2009, committing the fewest errors, 53, and finishing the year with the highest fielding percentage, .974, in team history. From that infield, third baseman Tyler Bream was named a Freshman All-American by the Collegiate Baseball News.

Pitcher Andrew Wilson became the third player during Toman's time at Liberty to be taken in the MLB draft (Atlanta Braves).

In 2008, the Flames fashioned a 13-3-1 record in the month of May to finish Toman's first season at Liberty with a 35-26-1 mark. The record made Toman the winningest first-year coach in the program's history. He guided the Flames to their third straight Big South Championship title game appearance, claiming the conference's runner-up position in 2008. Liberty's May record was the best ever by a Flames team.

In addition, the Liberty pitching staff set a new season strikeout record, fanning 508 opposing batters during the year. The Flames' strikeout total led the Big South Conference and their 8.2 strikeouts per nine innings ranked 22nd nationally at season's end. Two pitchers from the staff, Ryan Page and David Stokes, went on to be drafted and play in the professional ranks. Page was taken in the 20th round of the MLB Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays, while Stokes was picked in the 28th round by the Detroit Tigers.

Liberty finished its season with a 14-7 record in conference play. The mark allowed the Flames to claim the No. 2 seed for the Big South Championship, their highest seed for the Big South Baseball Championship since a No. 1 seed in 2000. Liberty would go on to post four consecutive double-digit victories during six games in the Big South Championship to set a championship record with 55 runs scored.

Toman was named the sixth head coach in the history of the Liberty Baseball program in June 2007, after 11 seasons as the senior member of Ray Tanner's coaching staff at South Carolina. Toman worked a total of 18 years alongside Tanner, dating back to the 1990 season at N.C. State.

During his time at South Carolina, Toman served as recruiting coordinator and coached the catchers. Known as one of the top recruiters in college baseball, the 22-year college coaching veteran was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year. Before joining the Gamecock staff in 1996, Toman served under Tanner for seven years at N.C. State.

Toman has recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. During his final years with the Gamecocks, he recruited many of the players who were members of the 2010 South Carolina National Championship team. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball.

During his time on the staff in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight straight between 2000 and 2007, and three consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 14 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

Toman was a four-year letterwinner at N.C. State from 1981-84, and served as team captain of the Wolfpack his junior and senior seasons.

Get Your Running Shoes On

What a difference a year makes. So far this season, Liberty has taken advantage of its team speed, more than doubling its stolen base total from a year ago. The Flames have stolen 75 bases in 92 attempts this season, compared to 2010, when the Flames swiped only 27 bases in 43 tries through 36 games. Liberty's 75 stolen bases lead the Big South Conference in the category. The Flames were ranked fourth in the nation in the latest NCAA Division I statistical report for games played through April 10.

Leading the way for the Flames is catcher Casey Rasmus who is 17-for-18 in steal attempts this season despite playing in 30 games. He is currently third in the Big South Conference and 25th in the nation in stolen bases. Center fielder Ian Parmley is next on the team and ranks fourth in the Big South with 16 thefts (16-for-21).

The Flames stolen base totals are definitely a stark contrast from last season, when only outfielder Curran Redal had stolen eight bases and led the team at this point in the year. No other Flames had more than four thefts. This season, five Liberty players have seven or more base thefts. Shortstop Matt Williams joins the previously mentioned Rasmus and Parmley, with 11 stolen bases, while teammate Michael Robertson has nine thefts. Doug Bream rounds out the five with seven stolen bases. Bream, a senior, entered the year with a career total of two stolen bases over his previous three seasons.

Doug Bream Receives National, Conference Honors

The National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) named Liberty senior outfielder Doug Bream and Clemson junior shortstop Brad Miller National Co-Hitters of the Week, April 12. The Flames outfielder was also selected the Southeast Regional Player of the Week by CollegeBaseballInsider.com, as well as the Big South Player of the Week for games played through April 10.

Bream batted .737 (14-19) with six runs scored, eight RBIs, two doubles, one triple and two walks in four games last week. The senior had four or more hits in three of the games, including a 5-5 day in a midweek contest with James Madison. He finished the week with a .762 on-base percentage and a .947 slugging percentage.

After picking up a hit and RBI Friday at High Point, Bream had four hits in each of Liberty's weekend wins over the Panthers. The outfielder went 4-for-5 and drove in four runs in Saturday's 9-0 win and was 4-for-5 with a double and three RBIs in Liberty's 14-9 victory on Sunday.

Doing the Dougie

On April 6, outfielder Doug Bream had a career-high five hits in a 16-12 setback at Worthington Stadium. Bream surpassed his previous career-high of four hits in a 12-7 win over James Madison at Worthington Stadium on April 21, 2010. It is the first time a Liberty Flame has had five hits in game since outfielder Curran Redal in a 14-8 victory over High Point in game one of a Big South Conference doubleheader at Worthington Stadium on April 3, 2010. Bream went 5-for-5 in the contest and scored three runs.

Later in the week, the senior had two four-hit games in victories at High Point to close the week with a .737 batting average.

The left fielder enters Tuesday's game leading the Flames with a .376 batting average, 36 RBIs and 56 hits. With six multiple-hit games in this last seven, Bream leads Liberty with 18 multi-hit contests. He also leads the team with 11 multi-RBI games. The left fielder has raised his batting average 76 points over his last seven contests.

Williams Moves Up on Career 2Bs List

Shortstop Matt Williams continues to climb the school's Top 10 career doubles list. With a two doubles over the weekend against Presbyterian College, Williams now has 47 two-base hits, moving into eighth place on the all-time list. The shortstop is one double shy of tying Liberty standout Keith Butler (2000-02) for seventh on the list.

Former Liberty outfielder Phillip Laurent (2003-06) holds the school career record for two-base hits with 68. He also set the single season record with 27 in 2006.

Williams' Liberty teammate Tyler Bream has also moved into the Top 10 career doubles list this season. With 45 two-base hits, Bream ranks 10th on the school's career list.

Casey Rasmus - Base Cop

Flames catcher Casey Rasmus has been tough to on base stealers this season. The junior begins the week having thrown out 41% (14-of-34) of would-be base stealers. Rasmus leads the Big South Conference in caught base stealers.

On the flip side, the catcher leads Liberty and ranks second in the Big South with 17 steals. Rasmus is 17-for-18 in steal attempts.

Picking Up the Pace

With new bats and new rules to speed up time between innings and govern mound visits, the time Flames contests have been played in this season has seen a significant drop. So far this season, Liberty games have run an average of 2:32, compared to 2:49 at this point in 2010, an 17-minute difference.

Last season through 36 games, Liberty had already played 10 games which lasted three hours or longer, with the longest being 3:43 in a 14-13, 10 inning setback to Manhattan on March 20. This season, the Flames have had only four games go over three hours, the longest 3:26 in a wild, come-from-behind, 14-9 victory at High Point, April 10.

Are New Bats Affecting Power Numbers?

How much has the new bat affected play this season? The Flames have 43 less hits than last season through 36 games and have seen their extra base hits drop also. The Flames have 98 extra base hits - 70 doubles, eight triples and 20 home runs, so far in 2011. Liberty has a .408 slugging percentage.

In comparison at this point last season, the Flames had 23 more extra base hits or 21% more than this season. Jim Toman's 2010 club had 121 extra base hits at this point of the season - 88 doubles, eight triples and 25 home runs.

Flames Take Series From High Point with Comeback

Down by two runs, the Liberty Flames erupted for seven runs in the ninth inning for a 14-9 victory over the High Point Panthers, April 10, in a Big South Conference contest at Coy O. Willard Stadium. With the win, the Flames took the weekend series.

Trailing 9-7, Liberty pounced on High Point relief pitching, batting around in the top of the ninth inning to take the lead. The Flames scored seven runs on seven hits and an error to erase the host team's edge.

Liberty had 19 hits in the game. For the second consecutive day, outfielder Doug Bream had four hits to lead all players in the contest. The Liberty left fielder hit .643 during the three-game series against the Panthers. Center fielder Ian Parmley, right fielder Michael Robertson and shortstop Matt Williams each had three hits apiece for the Flames.

Reliever Mark Swanson evened his record at 1-1 on the year. After entering the contest with runners on second and third base and no one out, the senior right-hander kept the Flames close, pitching 3 1/3 scoreless innings of relief.

Niggli Delivers

Liberty right-hander John Niggli held High Point in check over eight innings, as the Flames downed the Panthers, 9-0, April 9 in a Big South contest at Coy O. Willard Stadium.

Niggli was in control throughout the first eight innings of the contest, scattering three hits. He allowed only two High Point runners to move into scoring position throughout his time on the mound, before giving way to relief pitcher Jacob Kemmerer. The right-hander struck out two batters and walked one, running his record to 4-2 on the year. After allowing a hit to the leadoff batter in the fourth inning, he did not allow another hit until two outs into his final inning, the eighth.

Niggli and Kemmerer combined to pitch the second shutout by the Flames pitching staff this season.

Six 2011 Flames hail from the Golden State, the second highest number on the roster next to Liberty's home state of Virginia. Seven members of the Liberty roster are natives of Virginia. Four Flames each hail from the states of Florida, Georgia, North Carolina and Washington, while three are Pennsylvania natives. States also represented on the Liberty roster are Alabama, Arizona, New York, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Connections - Part I

Three Liberty Flames, catcher Casey Rasmus, third baseman Tyler Bream and infielder Austin Taylor, each have connections to Major League Baseball through family members.

Rasmus, a junior, is in his first season as a member of the Liberty roster. His brother Colby is a member of the St. Louis Cardinals and enters his third season as an outfielder with the team in 2011.

Bream, also a junior, is the son of former major leaguer Sid Bream. Sid Bream, a Liberty standout during his collegiate days, played 12 seasons in the majors (1983-94) with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Pittsburgh Pirates, Atlanta Braves and Houston Astros.

Taylor, a senior, is the nephew of former major leaguer Bill Taylor. Bill Taylor spent parts of eight seasons with the Oakland A's, New York Mets and Tampa Bay Rays.

Connections - Part II

Three Flames are carrying on a family tradition, as a member of their family formerly played baseball at Liberty.

First baseman/outfielder Doug Bream's uncle Dave was a member of the Liberty baseball program from 1982-85.

Third baseman Tyler Bream's father, Sid, and two uncles, Dave and Sheldon, were members of the Flames. Sid, who went on to play in the major leagues, was a standout for Liberty on the diamond from 1979-81. The first baseman and Liberty Athletics Hall of Fame member was named a NAIA and NABC All-American in 1981, as the Flames reached the NAIA National Tournament.

Bream's uncles, Dave and Sheldon, were also members of the Flames baseball team during their college days. Dave played infield for Liberty from 1982-85, while Sheldon was an outfielder with the Flames from 1989-93. Tyler and Doug are second cousins.

Meanwhile, pitcher Garrett Baker begins his first season at Liberty. The junior left-hander's brothers, Jason and Steve, played for the Flames. Jason patrolled the outfield for the Flames from 1993-95, earning first team All-Big South honors in 1995. Steve was also an outfielder at Liberty from 1999-02. He was named to the Big South all-conference second team in 2002.

The Captains

Seniors Jeff Jefferson, Mark Swanson and Steven Evans, along with junior Tyler Bream have been chosen as captains for the 2011 Liberty Baseball team. The four were selected by virtue of a team vote.

MLB Draft Picks Dot Roster

A trio of players, who are on the Liberty roster for 2011, have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft. Senior Austin Taylor and juniors Michael Robertson and Tony McClendon have each been selected in a Major League Draft.

Taylor, an infielder, was drafted out of Thomas County Central High School by the Cincinnati Reds in 2007. The junior college transfer was taken in the 43rd round.

Robertson was also picked in the MLB Draft by the Cincinnati Reds in 2009. The outfielder was selected in the 40th round of the draft.

McClendon, in his first year as a Flame, has been selected in two different MLB Drafts. The outfielder was taken in 2008 by the Houston Astros in the 40th round. Last year, McClendon was chosen by the Oakland A's in the 47th round.

Season-long Road Trip Starts Year

The Flames completed a season-long nine game road trip to open the 2011 season. During the swing, Liberty traveled to Mercer, North Florida and Virginia Tech for games to begin the year. During the trip, the Flames traveled 2,314 miles. Its trip to Jacksonville, Fla., Feb. 25-27, for a four-game series with North Florida was the longest road trip of the year for head coach Jim Toman's squad.

Back-to-Back Home Runs - Curran Redal and Doug Bream connected for back-to-back home runs to lead off the fifth inning, putting Liberty in front 8-4 over Presbyterian at Worthington Stadium, March 29, 2009. The home runs were two of the Flames' three home runs in the frame, as first baseman Trey Wimmer later hit a three-run home run. The Flames went on to defeat the Blue Hose, 14-7.

Five or More RBIs in a Game - Shortstop Matt Williams drove in five runs with four hits in a 16-7 Liberty win over the Winthrop Eagles, March 26 at Worthington Stadium. Williams had a two-run single in the fifth inning, a home run leading off the sixth and a two-run double in the seventh, as the Flames scored a season-high 16 runs.

Inside the Park Home Run - Kenneth Negron belted a liner into the right field gap which glanced off the Coastal Carolina right fielder's glove to cash in two runners at Charles Watson Stadium in Conway, S.C. on April 28, 2007. When the ball rolled all the way to the wall, the Liberty second baseman came home and scored standing up for his first home run of the season, knotting the back-and-forth contest with the No. 19 Chanticleers at 7-7. Coastal Carolina rallied in the bottom of the eighth inning to take the contest, 9-7.

Grand Slam Home Run - Trailing 9-5 in the seventh inning, catcher Errol Hollinger drove a 1-0 pitch over the left field wall at Masters Field in Boiling Springs, N.C., tying the visiting Flames with the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs, April 26, 2009. Liberty was down 9-3 in the contest after six innings. The Flames later won the game in the 11th inning, 10-9, on a lead-off home run by first baseman Trey Wimmer.

Cycle - Third baseman Chad Miller hit for the cycle in his first four at bats as the Flames downed the Longwood Lancers, 8-0, April 18, 2006 in a non-conference contest at Worthington Stadium. This game sparked three-consecutive shutouts for Valentin, during a span of 29-consecutive scoreless innings.
