KEITH LECLAIR CLASSIC

vs. Rutgers (5-5) - March 11 - 1 p.m.
vs. Monmouth (3-4) - March 12 - 11 a.m.
at East Carolina (8-3) - March 13 - 2 p.m.

Clark - LeClair Stadium - Greenville, N.C.

The Games

The Liberty Flames (5-8) travel to Greenville, N.C., for the eighth annual Keith LeClair Classic, Friday-Sunday at Clark-LeClair Stadium. The tournament honors the late Keith LeClair, who coached East Carolina from 1997-2002 and died of ALS in 2006.

The Flames will square off with the Rutgers Scalet Knights (5-5, 0-0 BIG EAST), Friday at 1 p.m. in the classic's opening game. Saturday, Liberty will face the Monmouth Hawks (3-4, 0-0 NEC) at 11 a.m., before closing out the tournament against the host East Carolina Pirates (8-3, 0-0 C-USA) First pitch is scheduled for 2 p.m.

Last Time Out

The Tribe of William & Mary used a three-run eighth inning to edge the Flames, 10-9, Tuesday afternoon at Worthington Stadium. The contest saw several lead changes before the Tribe posted the three-run eighth to take home the win. Liberty had taken the lead in the contest on two different occasions, but could not hold it.

The Flames had 15 hits in the contest. Shortstop Matt Williams and first baseman Austin Taylor had three hits apiece to lead Liberty.

On Deck

Liberty travels to College Park, Md., for a two-game midweek series with the Maryland Terapins, Tuesday and Wednesday. Game time each day is 4 p.m.

After the two midweek contests, the Flames return home to start conference play. Liberty will host Charleston Southern in a three-game Big South series at Worthington Stadium, beginning Friday evening. Game is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Following the Flames

All three Liberty contests this weekend may be heard LIVE over the World Wide Web at LibertyFlames.com. In addition, Saturday's contest with Monmouth will be broadcasted on WWMC "The Light" 90.9 FM. Nick Pierce will handle the play-by-play and Doug Wallace color duties for the broadcast.

Head Coach Jim Toman

Record at Liberty: 115-74-1 (Fourth Year)

Career Record: Same

After leading his team to a school-record 42 victories in 2010, Jim Toman enters his fourth year at Liberty with the best mark of any Flames head coach over his first three years.

Since taking over the program for the 2008 season, Liberty has won 35 or more games twice and last season posted only the second 40-win campaign in the 37-year history of the program. The Flames notched a 110-66-1 record during his first three seasons on Liberty Mountain.

On May 2, 2010, Toman recorded his 100th career victory, as the Flames defeated Gardner-Webb, 10-7, at Worthington Stadium. The sixth coach in program history, Toman became the fastest Liberty baseball head coach to amass the milestone, passing first coach Al Worthington, by reaching his 100th win in 160 games, six fewer than Worthington.

The impressive strides made by the program have not gone unnoticed. This past November, Rivals.com cited Liberty as one being one of college baseball's top 10 rising programs.

Last season, the Flames had their best season under Toman, posting a school record for wins in a single season with a 42-19 record. The team's ledger was boosted by a 21-8 road mark, the nation's 10th-best road record in 2010.

In addition, Liberty recorded a 19-7 mark in Big South play, eclipsing its record of the previous season for most victories by the school since joining the conference in 1992. The Flames finished second in the league's regular season and were conference runner-up at the Big South Baseball Championship.

Pitcher Shawn Teufel became the fourth player from one of Toman's Liberty squads to be taken in the MLB Draft. The two-time Big South all-conference first team pitcher and National Pitcher of the Year Watch list member capped a strong senior campaign by being selected by the Detroit Tigers.

In 2009, Liberty recorded a 33-21 overall record, while posting a 17-9 mark in Big South Conference play. Liberty set a new fielding standard in 2009, committing the fewest errors, 53, and finishing the year with the highest fielding percentage, .974, in team history. From that infield, third baseman Tyler Bream was named a Freshman All-American by the Collegiate Baseball News.

Pitcher Andrew Wilson became the third player during Toman's time at Liberty to be taken in the MLB draft (Atlanta Braves).

In 2008, the Flames fashioned a 13-3-1 record in the month of May to finish Toman's first season at Liberty with a 35-26-1 mark. The record made Toman the winningest first-year coach in the program's history. He guided the Flames to their third straight Big South Championship title game appearance, claiming the conference's runner-up position in 2008. Liberty's May record was the best ever by a Flames team.

In addition, the Liberty pitching staff set a new season strikeout record, fanning 508 opposing batters during the year. The Flames' strikeout total led the Big South Conference and their 8.2 strikeouts per nine innings ranked 22nd nationally at season's end. Two pitchers from the staff, Ryan Page and David Stokes, went on to be drafted and play in the professional ranks. Page was taken in the 20th round of the MLB Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays, while Stokes was picked in the 28th round by the Detroit Tigers.

Liberty finished its season with a 14-7 record in conference play. The mark allowed the Flames to claim the No. 2 seed for the Big South Championship, their highest seed for the Big South Baseball Championship since a No. 1 seed in 2000. Liberty would go on to post four consecutive double-digit victories during six games in the Big South Championship to set a championship record with 55 runs scored.

Toman was named the sixth head coach in the history of the Liberty Baseball program in June 2007, after 11 seasons as the senior member of Ray Tanner's coaching staff at South Carolina. Toman worked a total of 18 years alongside Tanner, dating back to the 1990 season at N.C. State.

During his time at South Carolina, Toman served as recruiting coordinator and coached the catchers. Known as one of the top recruiters in college baseball, the 22-year college coaching veteran was named the 2002 Baseball America/American Baseball Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year. Before joining the Gamecock staff in 1996, Toman served under Tanner for seven years at N.C. State.

Toman has recruited 15 top 25 classes, including all 11 of his seasons at South Carolina. During his final years with the Gamecocks, he recruited many of the players who were members of the 2010 South Carolina National Championship team. From 2003-2006, three of the four Gamecock recruiting classes were ranked first in the nation by Collegiate Baseball.

During his time on the staff in Columbia, S.C., Toman and the Gamecocks made nine NCAA Regional appearances, including eight straight between 2000 and 2007, and three consecutive trips to the College World Series (2002-04). Add in his seven seasons at N.C. State, and Toman has helped lead 14 teams to NCAA Regional appearances.

Toman was a four-year letterwinner at N.C. State from 1981-84, and served as team captain of the Wolfpack his junior and senior seasons.

Toman Reaches 100 Coaching Wins

With a 10-7 win over Gardner-Webb on May 2, 2010, Liberty head coach Jim Toman recorded his 100th career coaching win.

Of the six head coaches in Liberty history, Toman becomes the fastest to reach 100 coaching victories. Toman reached the milestone in 160 games, eclipsing program founder and first head coach Al Worthington, who reached his 100th win in 166 games.

Remembering Keith LeClair

This weekend's tournament is named in honor of Keith LeClair, who during his collegiate baseball career as a player, assistant coach and head coach at Western Carolina and East Carolina was a part of 13 NCAA Tournament teams and earned five conference coach-of-the-year awards.

LeClair became the second-winningest baseball coach in school history in just five seasons at East Carolina, compiling a 212-96-1 (.688) record. He also led the Pirates to four straight NCAA Regional appearances, three Colonial Athletic Association championships and one Conference USA title. His 2001 club advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals and finished with a No. 11 national ranking after registering a 47-13 mark.

He officially relinquished his coaching duties June 19, 2002, two weeks after leading the Pirates to their fourth consecutive NCAA Regional appearance before finishing with a 43-20-1 record. LeClair remained with the ECU Department of Athletics as a special assistant to the director of athletics until the time of his death on July of 2006.

He is a member of both the East Carolina and Western Carolina Athletic Hall of Fames. LeClair was honored as the first recipient of the Conference USA Student-Athlete Advisory Committee's (SAAC) Coaches Choice Award. In addition, the Conference USA Baseball Coach-of-the-Year Award was named in honor of LeClair.

All-Time Series Against the LeClair Field

The Flames will be playing each team in the Keith LeClair Classic field for the first time under fourth-year head coach Jim Toman, this weekend.

Rutgers and Liberty will meet for the fifth time, Friday afternoon. The two teams have split the previous four games in the all-time series.

Friday's meeting will be the first contests between the two teams since 2006, when the Scarlet Knights visited Lynchburg for a three-game series, March 17-19. The Scarlet Knights took the first and last game of the three-game series, 7-2 and 7-6. The Flames won the middle contest, 5-3.

Saturday. Liberty will be squaring off with Monmouth for the fourth time. After a three-game weekend series, March 31-April 1, 2007 at Worthington Stadium, the Hawks hold a 2-1 edge over the Flames. That weekend, Monmouth swept a doubleheader from Liberty on March 31, while the Flames took the series finale on April 1, 11-6.

East Carolina and Liberty will face each other for the seventh time on diamond in Sunday's finale game of the Keith LeClair Classic. The Pirates hold a 5-1 edge in the all-time series. The two squads meet in a season-opening series, Feb. 9-11 at Clark-LeClair Stadium. Liberty won its only game against East Carolina on the diamond in the opening contest of the three-game set, 6-2. The Pirates won the other two contests, 7-4 and 11-2.

A Look at the Classic Field Rutgers

After snapping a four-game losing streak in convincing fashion with a 13-3 victory over NJIT, Wednesday, the Scarlet Knights enter the weekend looking to post an above .500 winning percentage for the first time this season. The Knights have face two nationally ranked opponents in Miami, Fla. and Georgia Tech this season.

The Scarlet Knights are led by Fred Hill, who is in his 34th year of coaching and 27th at Rutgers. He has over 1,000 coaching victories in career and last season led the Scarlet Knights to a 30-26 record.

Rutgers is hitting .233 as a team and averaging 5.3 runs per game through their first 10 games of the year.

Outfielder Michael Lang is the only Scarlet Knight with an above .300 batting average, leading the team with a .333 average. Shortstop Steve Nyisztor driven in a team-high seven runs for Rutgers.

The Scarlet Knight pitching staff has been the team's strength, so far this season. Rutgers has a team ERA of 4.72 and has held opposing hitters to a .282 batting average.

Sophomore Tyler Gebler, who has already earned BIG EAST Pitcher of the Week recognition, is 1-1 with a 2.18 ERA over 20 2/3 innings. The right-hander is likely to face the Flames on Friday in the opening game of the tournament.

Jerry Elsing and Dan O'Neill have been the most called upon relievers out of the Rutgers bullpen in the early going. Elsing has made a team-high five appearances, posting a 0-1 record with a save and a 1.59 ERA over 5 2/3 innings. O'Neill has been in four games and has not figured in a decision. He has a 8.59 ERA over 7 1/3 innings.

Monmouth

The Hawks will be looking to build upon a 5-3 win over St. Bontaventure in their last outing on Monday, when they play host East Carolina, Friday afternoon. Their victory Monday snapped a three-game losing streak. Monmouth is led by Dean Ehelhalt. He is in his 17th year at the New Jersey school.

Monmouth enters the weekend with a .246 batting average over its first seven games of the year. In those outings, the Hawks have averaged 8.4 hits and 4.71 runs per game.

Designated hitter Nick Pulsonetti is off to a strong start at the plate, leading Monmouth with a .462 batting average and six RBIs. Pulsonetti has also hit both home runs by the Hawks this season.

The Monmouth pitching staff has posted a 3.84 ERA in the early going in 2011. Opponents have hit .306 against Hawk hurlers. Freshman left-hander Andrew McGee has recorded two of the three Monmouth wins, entering the weekend with a 2-0 record. The freshman reliever has not allowed a run in 11 1/3 innings over three appearances.

Senior Nick Myers has posted a 1-1 record with a 3.38 ERA over eight innings during his two starts in 2011.

East Carolina

The Pirates have started strong in 2011, rolling out to an 8-3 record. East Carolina has won five out of its last six games, including a 3-2 win over Campbell on Tuesday.

Billy Goodwin is in his six-year at East Carolina, where he has led the Pirates to a 201-120 mark during his tenure. After reaching a NCAA Super Regional in 2009, East Carolina posted a 32-27 mark last season.

The Pirates begin the weekend with a .272 batting average. They have averaged 4.8 runs and 8.9 hits per game in the early part of the year.

Third baseman Corey Thompson paces the Pirate offense with a .429 batting average and nine RBIs.

The strength of East Carolina looks to be its pitching staff. The Pirates enter their game on Friday with a 1.91 ERA and a .221 opponent batting average.

After an All-American campaign in 2010, right-hander Seth Maness has returned to lead the Pirates staff. The 2011 Conference USA Pitcher of the Year, Maness has started the year, 2-1 with a 1.86 ERA in 19 1/3 innings. He has struck out 21 and walked just one batter. Fellow starter Mike Wright is 2-0 with a 2.08 ERA over 17 1/3 innings. The right-hander has struck out 11.

Reliever Seth Simmons has also keyed the early success of the East Carolina staff. In six relief appearances, a team high, Simmons has a 1-0 record with two saves and has not allowed a run this season over eight innings.

We Have Some Catching Up to Do

Former Liberty assistant coach Nick Schnabel is in his second year as an assistant at his alma mater East Carolina. The former Pirate infielder was a coach on the Flames staff during head coach Jim Toman's first two seasons in Lynchburg, 2008-09, serving as the hitting instructor, recruiting coordinator and third base coach. During his two years at Liberty, the Flames posted a 68-47-1 record and appeared in the Big South title game each season.

In July of 2009, Schnabel left the Flames to return to his East Carolina. He was a first-team Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) selection and was named CAA Defensive Player-of-the-Year in 1999. He helped the Pirates to consecutive league championships and No. 1 NCAA Regional seeds in 1999 and 2000.

March Musings

Liberty enters the Keith LeClair Classic with a 2-3 record during the month of March. Jim Toman's squad is scheduled to play 19 games during the month and will start Big South Conference play with three-game series at Worthington Stadium against Charleston Southern (March 18-20) and Winthrop (March 25-27).

Liberty posted a 10-8 mark in games during March last season, including a 1-2 start to Big South Conference play. The Flames are 349-278-2 (.556) all-time in program history during the month.

February Record

The Flames finished the the month of February with a 3-5 record. Since beginning play during the month of February in 1984, Liberty has posted an all-time mark of 73-37 for a .664 winning percentage for the month.

Over the past six years, the Flames are 31-14 (.689) during the month of February, while recording a 17-8 mark under head coach Jim Toman during his four years at Liberty.

Home Sweet Home

For the past 32 years, the Flames have called Worthington Stadium home. Named for program architect and the first Liberty head baseball coach, Al Worthington, Liberty has compiled an impressive 526-240-5 record at the stadium for a winning percentage of .686 since the facility's inception in 1979.

The Flames have started 2-2 on the year at Worthington Stadium. Liberty opened the home portion of their 2011 schedule, this past Friday, defeating Binghamton, 12-2. The victory runs Liberty's record in home openers to 25-8 since the facility opened.

Liberty posted a 19-9 record at home in 2010. The Flames are 52-27-1 at home under four-year head coach Jim Toman's guidance.

Playing Under the Lights

Liberty fell in its first night contest, 5-0 at North Florida, Feb. 25 to drop to 0-1 in night games this season. Liberty is scheduled to play 17 games under the stars this year. The Flames' next night game is slated for March 18 against Big South opponent Charleston Southern at Worthington Stadium

Last season, Liberty posted a 5-6 record in night contests.

Road Warriors Again in '11?

The Flames have started the season, 3-6 away from home. Liberty is slated to play 29 regular-season contests away from home. The Flames will square off with 27 of their opponents on their home field, while meeting two teams, Rutgers and Monmouth, on a neutral field during the Keith LeClair Classic in Greenville, N.C., March 11-13.

The Flames went 21-10 away from their home, Worthington Stadium, in 2010. Liberty posted the 10th-best road mark in the nation during the year. The Flames went 18-8 in road games and 3-2 in neutral site contests during the year. Liberty won six consecutive road contests to open the 2010 season.

Liberty Versus the Big South

Liberty, a 20-year member of the Big South Conference, has compiled a 265-185 (.589) record against the Big South Conference's current membership. The Flames finished the regular season in second place in conference play with a 19-7 record in 2010. The victory total was the most wins by a Liberty team since joining the Big South in 1992.

What's the RISP?

Over the first 13 games of the year, the Flames have hit .255 with runners in scoring position. First baseman Austin Taylor and second baseman Zach Haley led the team with a .556 batting averages with runners in scoring position. The two players are also each hitting .500 with runners in scoring position and two outs.

Taylor and outfielder Doug Bream lead the Flames by driving in eight runs when hitting with runners in scoring position. All five of Haley's RBIs this season have come with two outs.

In comparison, Liberty hitters batted .316 with runners in scoring position (RISP) in 2010. Bream led the Flames with a .429 batting average with runners in scoring position, while catcher Nathan Thompson, who graduated last season, had 44 RBIs, the most with runners in scoring position. Justin Richardson has also hit .438 with runners in scoring position and two outs to lead the team.

Season-long Road Trip Starts Year

The Flames completed a season-long nine game road trip to open the 2011 season. During the swing, Liberty traveled to Mercer, North Florida and Virginia Tech for games to begin the year. When completed, the Flames will have travel 2,314 miles for contests during the road swing. Its trip to Jacksonville, Fla., Feb. 25-27, for a four-game series with North Florida was the longest road trip of the year for head coach Jim Toman's squad.

Flames Belt 20 in Game as Bats Come Alive vs. Binghamton

In its home opener last Friday, Liberty pounded out 20 hits, a season-high in a 12-2 win over the Bearcats in the first game of the year at Worthington Stadium. The last time the Flames had 20 or more hits in a single game since Liberty belted 21 hits in a 16-9, 10-inning victory at Presbyterian College on April 25, 2010.

The Flames hit .396 as team during the three games and averaged 9.3 runs per game. Leading the way during the series was catcher Casey Rasmus, who hit .545 and tied for the team-high in hits with six. The junior ripped his first home run of the season and scored four times during the three-game series.

Third baseman Tyler Bream and shortstop Matt Williams also had six hits during the weekend series. Williams hit his first roundtripper of the year and had a double and triple among his hits.

In addition, infielders Austin Taylor and Justin Sizemore helped power the Liberty offense with big offensive weekends. Taylor hit .444 (4/9) with a double and two home runs, driving in a team-high seven runs during the series. Sizemore belted his first home run of the year and had five RBIs for the Flames.

Linza and Niggli Come Up Big at UNF

Liberty right-handers Keegan Linza and John Niggli each picked up their first win of the year, with strong outings Feb. 25-27 at North Florida.

Linza allowed two runs on eight hits over 7 1/3 innings in his second start of 2011, running his record to 1-0, in a 4-2 victory, Feb. 25 in game one of a doubleheader. The senior struck out seven batters and walked one. Designated hitter Jeff Jefferson backed the right-hander with a solo home run, his first of the season in the seventh.

With a 9-1 victory on Feb. 26, Niggli won his first start in a Liberty uniform. The junior gave up one run on four hits over six innings, moving to 1-0 on the year. He struck out five batters and walked two. Third baseman Tyler Bream had four hits, driving in two runs and right fielder Michael Robertson hit his first home run of the year, powering the Flames past the North Florida Ospreys in the series finale.

Williams Starts Off Strong

Liberty shortstop Matt Williams started his year on a high note, Feb. 18-20 at Mercer. The junior hit a team-high .533 with a double, triple, two runs scored and three RBIs during the Flames' season-opening series.

Williams was one of two Flames to collect four hits in a contest during the four-game series. The shortstop went 4-for-5 in game two of a doubleheader on Feb. 19. Designated hitter Ian Parmley also had four hits in his first game in a Liberty uniform in the team's season opener, Feb. 18.

Baseball in the Commonwealth

Thirteen Division I baseball teams call the Commonwealth of Virginia home. This season, Liberty is scheduled to play 14 contests against Commonwealth foes. The Flames are 0-2, so far this season against "Old Dominion" state teams. Liberty's next game against an instate foe is March 22, when Virginia Tech squares off with the Flames at Worthington Stadium.

The Flames will also meet Radford and VMI in three-game Big South series and play James Madison, Virginia Tech, VCU and William & Mary in single games, once at home and once away this season.

In 2010, the Flames played a slate of 15 games against opponents from the "Old Dominion State," posting a 12-3 mark in games against Virginia foes. Head Coach Jim Toman's squad finished the year with 10 straight games against instate opponents.

Connections - Part I

Three Liberty Flames, catcher Casey Rasmus, third baseman Tyler Bream and infielder Austin Taylor, each have connections to Major League Baseball through family members.

Rasmus, a junior, is in his first season as a member of the Liberty roster. His brother Colby is a member of the St. Louis Cardinals and enters his third season as an outfielder with the team in 2011.

Bream, also a junior, is the son of former major leaguer Sid Bream. Sid Bream, a Liberty standout during his collegiate days, played 12 seasons in the majors (1983-94) with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Pittsburgh Pirates, Atlanta Braves and Houston Astros.

Taylor, a senior, is the nephew of former major leaguer Bill Taylor. Bill Taylor spent parts of eight seasons with the Oakland A's, New York Mets and Tampa Bay Rays.

Connections - Part II

Three Flames are carrying on a family tradition, as a member of their family formerly played baseball at Liberty.

First baseman/outfielder Doug Bream's uncle Dave was a member of the Liberty baseball program from 1982-85.

Third baseman Tyler Bream's father, Sid, and two uncles, Dave and Sheldon, were members of the Flames. Sid, who went on to play in the major leagues, was a standout for Liberty on the diamond from 1979-81. The first baseman and Liberty Athletics Hall of Fame member was named a NAIA and NABC All-American in 1981, as the Flames reached the NAIA National Tournament.

Bream's uncles, Dave and Sheldon, were also members of the Flames baseball team during their college days. Dave played infield for Liberty from 1982-85, while Sheldon was an outfielder with the Flames from 1989-93. Tyler and Doug are second cousins.

Meanwhile, pitcher Garrett Baker begins his first season at Liberty. The junior left-hander's brothers, Jason and Steve, played for the Flames. Jason patrolled the outfield for the Flames from 1993-95, earning first team All-Big South honors in 1995. Steve was also an outfielder at Liberty from 1999-02. He was named to the Big South all-conference second team in 2002.

Among Nation's Rising Programs

The Flames were one of 10 programs cited by Rivals.com, as one of College Baseball's Rising Programs in early November.

The Liberty program was mentioned along with Auburn, Oregon, Washington State, New Mexico, Connecticut, Pitt, Texas State, Florida International and Florida Atlantic.

California Dreaming

Six 2011 Flames hail from the Golden State, the second highest number on the roster next to Liberty's home state of Virginia. Seven members of the Liberty roster are natives of Virginia. Four Flames each hail from the states of Florida, Georgia, North Carolina and Washington, while three are Pennsylvania natives. States also represented on the Liberty roster are Alabama, Arizona, New York, South Carolina and Tennessee.

MLB Draft Picks Dot Roster

A trio of players, who are on the Liberty roster for 2011, have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft. Senior Austin Taylor and juniors Michael Robertson and Tony McClendon have each been selected in a Major League Draft.

Taylor, an infielder, was drafted out of Thomas County Central High School by the Cincinnati Reds in 2007. The junior college transfer was taken in the 43rd round.

Robertson was also picked in the MLB Draft by the Cincinnati Reds in 2009. The outfielder was selected in the 40th round of the draft.

McClendon, in his first year as a Flame, has been selected in two different MLB Drafts. The outfielder was taken in 2008 by the Houston Astros in the 40th round. Last year, McClendon was chosen by the Oakland A's in the 47th round.

Liberty Picked Second in Big South Preseason Poll

Liberty was tabbed to finish second in the Big South Conference standings this season in voting by the Big South Coaches. The Flames were selected second, behind four-time defending conference champion Coastal Carolina.

The Flames received all 10 second-place votes in garnering 90 points, while the Chanticleers received all 10 first-place votes for 100 total points.

Winthrop was tabbed third by the panel, followed by High Point. Radford and VMI tied for the fifth spot. Gardner-Webb was picked seventh, while Charleston Southern was voted to finish eighth. UNC Asheville and Presbyterian College round out the poll.

The 2011 Big South Championship will be held May 24-28 at Gray-Minor Stadium in Lexington, Va. The winner of the double-elimination tournament receives the conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Flames Set New Standard for Wins in a Season

The 2010 Flames finished the year with a 42-19 overall record, setting a new program standard for wins in a single season. The 42 victories eclipsed the previous school standard of 40 set by the 1983 Liberty team.

New Big South Victory Record Also

With 19 Big South victories, the 2010 Flames recorded the most conference wins ever by a Liberty baseball team since joining the Big South in 1992. The mark surpasses last season's 17 wins, which had eclipsed the 1995 Liberty squad's 15 conference wins.

The Flames posted a 19-8 record and finished in second place in the Big South regular-season standings, garnering the No. 2 seed for the conference tournament. Liberty was the No. 2 seed for the second time, having previously secured the No. 2 seed for the Big South Baseball Championship in 2008.

Longest Big South Win Streak

Propelling Liberty to its most victories in conference play was the longest Big South winning streak in program history, with 15-straight victories. The streak, which ran from March 27 to May 14, eclipsed the 2001 Liberty team, which won 10-straight Big South games.

Bream, Williams among Big South Honorees

2011 roster returnees, third baseman Tyler Bream and shortstop Matt Williams, were named to the 2010 Big South all-conference second team. Joining the infield duo was by catcher Nathan Thompson, who graduated in 2010.

Left-hander Shawn Teufel, who also graduated in 2010 and now pitches in the Detroit Tigers minor league system, was the Flames lone first team All-Big South member.

Toman Reaches 100 Coaching Wins

With a 10-7 win over Gardner-Webb on May 2, 2010, Liberty head coach Jim Toman recorded his 100th career coaching win.

Of the six head coaches in Liberty history, Toman becomes the fastest to reach 100 coaching victories. Toman reached the milestone in 160 games, eclipsing program founder and first head coach Al Worthington, who reached his 100th win in 166 games.

Bream Sets New Season Hit Record

Third baseman Tyler Bream finished the 2010 season with 96 hits, setting a new school season record. The sophomore surpassed the previous Liberty program standard of 94 in 2006 by Michael Just. Bream led the Big South Conference in hits. Now a junior, Bream has been picked by Big South head coaches as one of the conference's best hitters in a 2011 preseason poll by College Baseball Insider.com.

Bream's teammates P.J. Jimenez, Curran Redal and Matt Williams also finished their years in the program's Top 10 for hits during a single season. Jimenez, a senior in 2010, had 92 hits in his final season with the Flames, tying him for third on the all-time list with Jason Benham, who had the same total in 1998. Redal completed his last season in a Flames uniform with 90 hits to tie for fifth on the season list with Phillip Laurent

*- Graduated in 2010

(2006) and Jeremiah Boles (2004). Shortstop Williams, a sophomore in 2010, had 85 hits last season, placing him ninth on the all-time season list.

As a team, head coach Jim Toman's squad had 691 hits, the team's most since 2002. The Flames had a school-record 702 that season.

We Got Your Back

The Liberty relief corps recorded 16 saves in 2010, the second most in program history. Only the 2000 Flames team had more, posting 18 saves behind Liberty's all-time career saves leader Josh Brey (27), who had 16 during the year.

2011 returnee Josh Richardson tied for fourth in the Big South with six saves, while right-hander J.J. McLeod, in his first season as a Flame, had five saves. Bullpen workhorse Dane Beakler, who returns for his final year in a Liberty uniform in 2011, led the Flames with 26 appearances and recorded two saves. Senior Carter Browning had three saves, all three coming with three coming or more innings of relief.

Turning Two

Liberty turned 62 double plays in 2010, finishing the year 19th nationally. The Flames' total eclipsed 2009's total of 36, recorded over 54 games. The program season record is 77 double plays, set by the 1998 squad.

In addition, the Liberty Flames turned five ground balls into double plays during their 9-1 win over St. John's on March 12. The five double plays turned by the Liberty infield are the most in a game by the Flames over the past 11 seasons. In 2008, the Flames turned four double plays in a game twice. The contests happened a week apart, as Liberty had four double plays in an 11-5 win over Army, March 8. A week later, the Flames recorded four double plays in a 5-0 loss at Southern Miss, March 15. Liberty also turned four double plays this season in a 6-3 victory over Lehigh on Feb. 27.

Taking One for the Team

In each of the previous two seasons, the Flames had set a new team record for being hit by a pitch, and 2010 was no different. A Liberty player was hit by a pitch 126 times in 2010, once again setting a new program standard. The total eclipses the 2009 season's team record of 95, which was set over 54 games.

The Flames tied for No. 1 in the nation with fellow Big South member High Point in the category. The total goes into the NCAA record book as second all-time, behind the 2005 Notre Dame team, which was hit by a pitch on 130 occasions.

Senior catcher Nathan Thompson was hit by a pitch 20 times to lead the Flames. The Liberty record for number of times being hit by a pitch in a season is 22, set by David Benham in 1998. Benham is also the school's career leader in the category, as the catcher was hit by a pitch on 55 occasions from 1995-98.

The Last Time

By Liberty

Back-to-Back Home Runs - Curran Redal and Doug Bream connected for back-to-back home runs to lead off the fifth inning, putting Liberty in front 8-4 over Presbyterian at Worthington Stadium, March 29, 2009. The home runs were two of the Flames' three home runs in the frame, as first baseman Trey Wimmer later hit a three-run home run. The Flames went on to defeat the Blue Hose, 14-7.

Five or More RBIs in a Game - Catcher Nathan Thompson had four hits, including a home run, and drove in seven runs in Liberty's 16-9, 10-inning victory over Presbyterian College, April 25, 2010 at the PC Baseball Complex in Clinton, S.C.

Inside the Park Home Run - Kenneth Negron belted a liner into the right field gap which glanced off the Coastal Carolina right fielder's glove to cash in two runners at Charles Watson Stadium in Conway, S.C. on April 28, 2007. When the ball rolled all the way to the wall, the Liberty second baseman came home and scored standing up for his first home run of the season, knotting the back-and-forth contest with the No. 19 Chanticleers at 7-7. Coastal Carolina rallied in the bottom of the eighth inning to take the contest, 9-7.

Grand Slam Home Run - Trailing 9-5 in the seventh inning, catcher Errol Hollinger drove a 1-0 pitch over the left field wall at Masters Field in Boiling Springs, N.C., tying the visiting Flames with the Gardner-Webb Bulldogs, April 26, 2009. Liberty was down 9-3 in the contest after six innings. The Flames later won the game in the 11th inning, 10-9, on a lead-off home run by first baseman Trey Wimmer.

Cycle - Third baseman Chad Miller hit for the cycle in his first four at bats as the Flames downed the Longwood Lancers, 8-0, April 18, 2006 in a non-conference contest at Worthington Stadium. Miller led off the home half of the first inning with a home run and in the second, drove in a run with a double to the wall off the left field wall. In the fourth, the third baseman singled and completed the cycle in the sixth inning with a triple. Miller had two RBIs and scored four runs in the contest.

No-Hitter - Dan Valentin pitched a seven-inning no-hitter against Elon on April 16, 2000, at Worthington Stadium, marking the first no-hitter by a Flames pitcher in 20 years. Valentin walked seven batters and struck out eight in the game to give Liberty a 4-0 win. This game sparked three-consecutive shutouts for Valentin, during a span of 29-consecutive scoreless innings.

Shutout - Left-hander Shawn Teufel pitched his second complete game of the year in leading the Liberty Flames to a 13-0 shutout victory over the Presbyterian Blue Hose, April 24, 2010. Teufel scattered five hits over nine innings, striking out eight and walking two. After the first inning, he did not allow a runner to pass second base.

Triple Play - Liberty has never recorded a triple play.

By an Opponent

Back-to-Back Home Runs - Mercer catcher Travis Benn and left fielder Derrick Workman led off the third inning with back-to-back home runs during the second game of a doubleheader, Feb., 19, 2011 at Claude Smith Field in Macon, Ga. The Bears went on to take the contest from the Flames, 17-5.

Five or More RBIs in a Game - Binghamton first baseman Dave Ciochi drove in five runs with a two-run double and a bases-clearing double at Worthington Stadium in a 9-6 loss to Liberty in game two of a doubleheader this past Saturday. The Bearcat first baseman went 3-for-3 in the contest.

Grand Slam Home Run - Winthrop first baseman Patrick Gamblin capped a nine-run sixth inning with a grand slam in an 11-2 victory over the visiting Flames, on May 21, 2010 at Winthrop Ballpark in Rock Hill, SC. Gamblin hit his two-out home run to straight-away center field.

No-Hitter - UNC Asheville's Jason Walker pitched a seven-inning no-hitter against the Flames on April 29, 2000, at Greenwood Field in Asheville, N.C. Walker allowed two walks and struck out four, leading the Bulldogs to a 3-0 win. The game marked the only shutout against the Flames on the season and the first no-hitter thrown against Liberty since 1992.

Triple Play - Leading 6-4 with a runner on first and second to open the fourth inning, Patrick Gaillard hit a line drive which High Point second baseman Dustin Hoffman caught. Hoffman then tagged second and threw quickly to first to complete the triple play. The Flames went on to win the Big South Championship game, 9-7, on May 25, 2006 at Charles Watson Stadium in Conway, S.C.

Shutout - North Florida pitchers Casey Medlen and Tyler Moore combined to hold Liberty to three hits, to shut out the Flames, 5-0, Feb. 25 in the opening game of a four-game series between the two teams at Harmon Stadium in Jacksonville, Fla. Medlen, the starter, allowed two hits, striking out seven and walking one in the win.
