

2017 BARK AT THE PARK RULES

I have requested permission to enter and participate in a 2017 Bark at the Park day to be conducted in conjunction with a Liberty University baseball game at Liberty Baseball Stadium, located in Lynchburg, Virginia.

1. I acknowledge that I know the risks and dangers involved in the activities associated with this promotion and that unanticipated and unexpected dangers may arise during such activities.
2. I freely assume all such risk of injury to my person and property, both known and unknown, that may be sustained in connection with the promotion or activities, in and about the premises.
3. In consideration of the permission granted to me to participate in the promotion or stated activities, I agree to exercise care in participating so as to limit the risk of injury to others and myself. In addition, I hereby for myself, my heirs, administrators and assigns, release and discharge Liberty University and all Trustees, operators, and sponsors of Liberty University and Liberty University Department of Athletics, officers, employees and officials, and all other participants in the promotion or stated activities, of and from any and all claims, demands, actions, and causes of actions of any nature, for injuries sustained to my person and/or property during my presence at the Liberty Baseball Stadium and my participation in the promotion or stated activities due to their negligence or any other fault.
4. I represent and can certify that my age is 18 years or older.
5. I certify that my dog is up to date on all vaccines, including: Rabies, DHHL, and Bordatella.
6. I understand that my dog must be on a non-retractable leash at all times while in the Liberty Baseball Stadium.
7. I understand that I am responsible for cleaning up after my dog.
8. I understand that I am solely responsible for the actions of my dog while in and around the Liberty Baseball Stadium.

Liberty University staff reserve the right to deny any dog or human entrance to the ballpark for any reason they may see fit.
