Game No. 4 - Sept. 25, 2010

No. 22/21 Liberty Flames
 (2-1, 0-0 Big South)

vs.

No. 3/3 James Madison
 (2-0, 0-0 CAA)

Harrisonburg, Va. - Bridgeforth Stadium - 6 p.m.

Today's Game

The Flames will close out a three-game road swing when they travel to Harrisonburg, Va., for a in-state match-up with No. 3/3 James Madison. The Flames come into the game with a 2-1 record after a 30-23 road loss at Robert Morris last week, while the 2-0 Dukes have had the week off since upsetting previously ranked FBS opponent Virginia Tech.

Jousting with James Madison

Today's meeting will be the 16th time the Flames and the Dukes have met on the gridiron, with James Madison holding a 10-5 series lead. The two teams met last year, with No. 6 ranked James Madison using two fourth quarter touchdowns to move ahead of No. 24 Liberty, 24-10, at Williams Stadium in a game that was played in a torrential downpour.

Another Look at the Series

Liberty won five out of seven meetings with James Madison from 1985 to 1992, before the series went on an eight-year hiatus. The Dukes have won the last four meetings in the series since it restarted in 2000, including victories in Harrisonburg in 2000 (38-7) and 2003 (48-6).

Duke Second Most Faced Foe

Today's meeting with James Madison marks the 16th time Liberty has faced James Madison in football. The Flames have only squared off against two other opponents more than 15 times, with both foes being Big South Conference opponents (Charleston Southern – 17, Gardner-Webb 16).

Commonwealth Clash

Liberty enters today's matchup with James Madison with a 33-29 overall record against teams from inside the Commonwealth of Virginia. Of the 11 Virginia-based teams Liberty has previously faced, St. Paul's is the team Liberty has had the most total victories against (6-0), followed by James Madison (5-9) and VMI (5-3).

Previous Bouts with the CAA

Liberty enters today's matchup with James Madison having posted a 12-23 record against the current membership of the Colonial Athletic Association. Liberty has squared off against six current CAA teams, having previously faced James Madison (5-10), Maine (0-1), Towson (6-5), Villanova (1-3) and William & Mary (0-4). Liberty's last game against a CAA foe came in 2009, when No. 6 James Madison downed No. 24 Liberty, 24-10, inside of Williams Stadium in Lynchburg, Va.

Wrangling with Ranked Foes

Prior to last year's 24-10 setback to No. 6 James Madison at Williams Stadium, Liberty had posted wins over its previous three ranked FCS opponents. In 2006, Liberty defeated No. 24 Charleston Southern (34-20/home), while the Flames reeled off wins over No. 23 Youngstown State (31-28/road) and No. 12 Elon (26-3/home) in 2008. Since 1983, Liberty has posted an overall 10-40 record against nationally ranked FCS programs, with the Flames' victory over Elon in 2008 marking the highest ranked FCS opponent Liberty has ever defeated.

Rocco against the Rank and File

Head coach Danny Rocco has been Liberty's most successful coach against nationally ranked opponents, as the skipper is 3-2 against ranked FCS opponents since taking over the program in 2006. Rocco was 1-1 against ranked opponents during his first season at Liberty (lost to No. 22 Coastal Carolina/26-28 and won over No. 24 Charleston Southern/34-20), followed by a 2-0 showing against ranked foes in 2008 (won over No. 23 Youngstown State/31-28 and won over No. 12 Elon/26-3). Last year, the Flames dropped its only match-up against a Top 25 program, when No. 24 Liberty fell, 24-10, to No. 6 James Madison at home.

Tangling with the Top 10

Liberty's matchup with James Madison will mark the 14th time in program history the Flames have squared off against a Top 10 ranked FCS program. Liberty is winless in 13 previous contests against ranked Top 10 teams, having faced programs ranked No. 2 (Western Illinois/1988), No. 3 (Troy State/1993, Hampton/1998 and Appalachian State/1999), No. 4 (Youngstown State/1993 and Appalachian State/2002), No. 5 (Appalachian State/2001), No. 6 (Furman/1991, James Madison/2009), No. 7 (Appalachian State/1987 and Youngstown State/1990), No. 9 (North Carolina A&T/1993) and No. 10 (Appalachian State/2000).

Third Game Speed Bump

Liberty dropped its game at Robert Morris last weekend, 30-23, marking the third time in five seasons that the Flames have dropped the third game of the year. Liberty lost games at Towson (2006) and William & Mary (2007), before picking up wins over Western Carolina (2008) and Lafayette (2009).

In the National Spotlight

No. 22/21 Liberty's match-up with No. 3/3 James Madison will mark one of six national games this weekend where two Top 25 programs will be pitted against each other (according to the Sports Network rankings). Joining the list, will be No. 9 Eastern Washington at No. 17 Montana State, No. 7 Delaware at No. 5 Richmond, No. 24 Penn at No. 1 Villanova, No. 21 South Dakota State at No. 18 North Dakota State and No. 20 Caly Poly at No. 19 McNeese State.

Rocco's Road Record

Head coach Danny Rocco has put a strong emphasis on the importance of road victories since taking over the program in 2006. During his five years at Liberty, Rocco has guided the Flames to a 12-10 road record, including a 4-1 mark away from Williams Stadium in 2008. Liberty has won four of its last six road games, with the two losses during the stretch coming in Liberty's season-finale at Stony Brook, last year (36-33) and last week's setback to Robert Morris (30-23).

Road Warriors

The Flames are currently in the midst of a three-game road swing before returning to Lynchburg for the grand re-opening of Williams Stadium on Oct. 2 against Savannah State. This is the third time Liberty has pieced together three-straight road games under head coach Danny Rocco. The first time was in 2006 where Liberty won one of three games (at Savannah State). The second was in 2008, when the Flames reeled off three-straight wins, closing with a 43-38 victory over Big South foe Coastal Carolina.

Great Out of the Gates

For the fourth time in five years under head coach Danny Rocco, Liberty started a season with a 2-0 record. The only time Liberty has not started a Rocco-coached season 2-0 was last year, when the Flames opened the year with a 33-20 loss at West Virginia. Liberty's best start under Rocco was a 6-0 start in 2008, helping the Flames to a record-setting 10-2 season.

A Glance at Game 4

Under head coach Danny Rocco, the Flames have posted a 2-2 record during the fourth game of the season. Three of those four games have been on the road, with the lone fourth-game contest at home taking place last year, when No. 6 James Madison upended Liberty, 24-10, at home.

Second and Climbing

Following the first three games of the year, Liberty is now 34-14 under head coach Danny Rocco. The win against Ball State on Sept. 11 pushed the five-year head coach past Tom Dowling for second place on Liberty's all-time coaching wins list, as Dowling finished his seven years as head coach with a 33-38-2 record (1977-83). Liberty's all-time winningest coach is Sam Rutigliano, who posted a 67-53 record during 11 years with the program (1989-99).

Seven Points Costs Seven Spots

Following a seven-point setback to Robert Morris, 30-23, Liberty dropped seven spots in both national FCS polls. The Flames enter this week ranked No. 21 in the FCS Coaches poll and No. 22 in the Sports Network/Fathead.com FCS Top 25 listing. For the first time under head coach Danny Rocco, Liberty received a preseason national ranking in both polls (No. 20 in FCS Coaches and No. 21 in Sports Network).

Join the Group

Liberty was not the only Top 25 FCS program to suffer defeat this past weekend, as the Flames were one of 11 ranked programs to fall last Saturday. The most notable setbacks of the weekend occurred to New Hampshire, Southern Illinois and Montana. New Hampshire dropped a 28-25 game at Rhode Island and fell 10 spots from No. 8 to No. 18. Southern Illinois and Montana both suffered losses and dropped eight spots in the national polls. Southern Illinois lost a home game to SE Missouri State, 24-21, and dropped from No. 5 to No. 13, while Montana suffered a 30-27 setback to previous No. 16 Eastern Washington on the road to fall from No. 6 to No. 14.

A Rankings Review

Dating back to the second week of the 2008 season, Liberty has been ranked inside the Top 25 for 25 out of the last 33 weekly polls (including preseason and end of the year rankings). Following their victory over Glenville State on Sept. 6, 2008, The Flames jumped into the Top 25 at No. 25 and remained there the rest of the season. Liberty was in and out of the polls in 2009, as the Flames received a Top 25 billing in nine of the 13 polls released last season.

Brown is Back on Top

Mike Brown has been selected the Big South Preseason Offensive Player of the Year, as announced at Big South Football Media Day in July. The quarterback was the first sophomore in league history to be named Offensive Player of the Year, last season, when he finished second in the league with 11 total touchdowns (nine rushing and two receiving). Brown ranked second on the squad in rushing yards (442) and led the team with 698 receiving yards on 60 receptions.

Bending it with Bevins

Matt Bevins, a consensus first-team All-America kicker in 2009, finds himself atop most rankings coming into this 2010 season. The junior has been named to the Sports Network Preseason All-America first-team squad and to the 2010 Fred Mitchell Award watch list. Last year, Bevins set new program and Big South Conference records by scoring 107 points. He ranked No. 1 in the country in field goals (2.00 per game) and No. 3 in scoring (9.73 points per game).

Defending Their Own House

Under head coach Danny Rocco, the Flames have won 21 out of 25 home games. Liberty has won 84.0 percent of its home contests under the skipper, who is in his fifth year at the helm of the program. Liberty was 4-2 under Rocco at home in 2006, a perfect 6-0 in 2007, 6-1 under Rocco in 2008 and 5-1 on Liberty Mountain in 2009.

Oh What a Run

Head Coach Danny Rocco enters the 2010 season having posted a 16-3 record against Big South teams since taking over the program in 2006. Liberty's three Big South losses under Rocco have come by a combined eight points. Liberty lost two Big South games during Rocco's first season, falling to Coastal Carolina (28-26/2006) and Gardner-Webb (27-24/2006), and dropped the 2009 season finale at Stony Brook (36-33/2009).

Trying to be the First

Liberty enters the 2010 season trying to become the first program in Big South history to win four conference titles in a row. Coastal Carolina and Liberty have each won three-straight titles. The Chanticleers won outright titles in 2004 and 2006, while sharing the title with Charleston Southern in 2005. Liberty won outright titles in 2007 and 2008, before sharing the conference crown with Stony Brook, last season.

Bold Indicates 2010 opponent

Offensive Explosion

Under first-year offensive coordinator Brandon Streeter, a younger Liberty squad surprised many around the country, as the Flames led all FCS programs in scoring in 2009. Liberty finished the season with 400 points scored, which ranked No. 1 in the nation in FCS scoring offense (36.36). Liberty has reached the 400-point mark the last three years, including the 2007 season where they finished with a program-best 469 points scored.

Production Reduction

Following the first weekend of FCS football, Liberty ranked No. 9 nationally in scoring offense after a 52-7 victory over St. Francis. However, a 27-point effort in a win over Ball State and a 23-point outing in a loss at Robert Morris has dropped back to No. 16 nationally in scoring offense. The Flames have 102 points in three games, averaging 34.0 points per contest.

Racking it Up for Rocco

Head Coach Danny Rocco has brought a high-powered offense to Liberty, as the Flames have scored an average of 34.0 points per game since Rocco took over the program. The figure ranks 7.3 points per game ahead of the next highest scoring average under any other coach in program annals, as Sam Rutigliano's crew was able to score 26.7 points per game during his 11-year tenure.

Coach	Avg.	Points/Games
Danny Rocco	34.0	1,634/48
Sam Rutigliano	26.7	3,205/120
Rock Royer	24.2	145/6
Tom Dowling	20.9	1,524/73
Morgan Hout	20.8	1,040/50
Ken Karcher	20.6	1,382/67
John Cartwright	20.2	565/28

Running with the Flames

The Flames have been one of the nation's top FCS rushing programs over the past eight seasons, as Liberty has ranked among the Top 30 rushing teams in the nation seven out of the last eight years. During the span, the Flames have surpassed the 2,000-yard mark six out of eight years and have averaged 2,138 rushing yards per season. Last year, Liberty just missed the mark, rushing for 1,937 yards, but still managed to finish the year ranked No. 21 in the country in rushing offense (176.1 yards per game).

Ground Game Success

The Flames finished the 2009 season with 31 rushing touchdowns, falling just one scoring run shy of tying the 2007 team record of 32 rushing touchdowns. Liberty finished the year ranked No. 4 in the country in total rushing touchdowns. Only Appalachian State (45), FCS national champion Villanova (36) and McNeese State (34) finished the year with more rushing touchdowns than the Flames.

Winning Ways

Last year, Liberty finished the season with an 8-3 record, marking its fourth-straight season with a winning record. The previous record was three-consecutive winning seasons from 1988-90 (1988 – last year under Morgan Hout, 1989-90 – first two years under Sam Rutigliano).

Sensational Seniors

Liberty is coming off the best four-year span in program history, as last year's senior class finished their careers with a 32-13 overall record. The previous record for wins by a senior class was 27, recorded by the 1997 and 1998 classes. Both finished their days at Liberty with 27-17 overall records.

A Decisive Number

The Flames' prolific offense in 2009 had Liberty atop the national statistical category of scoring offense. The team led the nation in scoring offense by averaging 36.36 points per game. Liberty has had a Top 20 scoring offense the last three years, as the Flames ranked No. 19 in 2008 (33.67) and No. 3 in 2007 (42.64). The 30-point mark seems to be the key number for a Flames victory, as Liberty is 26-2 under head coach Danny Rocco when Liberty scores more than 30 points in a game. The Flames are 8-12 under Rocco when Liberty fails to reach the 30-point threshold.

Don't Forget About the "D"

Despite Liberty's gaudy offensive numbers over the past three seasons, the Flames' defense has played a significant factor in the team's success, bringing a smile to head coach Danny Rocco's face, as he is a 20-plus year defensive coaching veteran. Since 2006, Liberty has held its opponents to an average of 19.0 points per game, bolstered by Rocco's first season when the Flames allowed a program-record low 172 points (15.6 points per game, which ranked No. 12 nationally in scoring defense).

Equally as Impressive

Liberty finished the 2009 season ranked No. 1 in scoring offense (36.36 points per game) and No. 24 in scoring defense (19.09 points per game). Liberty was one of eight FCS programs to finish the 2009 season ranked inside the Top 25 in both scoring offense and defense. The Flames were joined by: Elon, Jacksonville State, Northern Iowa, Richmond, South Carolina State, So. Illinois and Villanova.

Besting Ball State

Liberty beat Ball State in several statistical categories on Sept. 11, with the most notable one coming on the scoreboard. However, the Flames also outgained the Cardinals 395 to 338 total offensive yards. Following the outing at Ball State, the Flames have now outgained opponents 34 times in 48 games under head coach Danny Rocco.

20-20 Vision

For the third-straight game, the Flames finished a contest with 20 or more first downs. Liberty racked up 23 new sets of downs, including 12 by passing plays and nine by rushing attempts, last Saturday. Liberty currently ranks No. 11 in the country in first downs, averaging 23.67 first downs per game.

Reinventing Itself

The Flames have become a predominate run-oriented program during the last eight seasons, but 2010 has seen Liberty find a new way to move the football. Through three games this season, Liberty has racked up 41 first downs by passing plays (out of 71 first downs). Only four other FCS programs have more passing first downs than the Flames this season (Elon – 49, Stephen F. Austin – 46, Weber State – 43 and Jackson State – 43).

Stopping Them When It Counts

Ball State elected to give it one more go on two fourth-down plays on Sept. 11 and Liberty's defense was able to come up with a stop on both occasions. The most notable was on a fourth-and-two play with 45 seconds left from the Liberty 26-yard line. Looking to pick up a new set of downs and extend the game, Ball State quarterback Keith Wenning attempted to get off a pass, but Flames nose guard Asa Chapman sacked him and Mike Connolly pounced on the loose ball to end the game. The Flames continued the trend last weekend, when Liberty stopped Robert Morris on a fourth-down play midway first quarter. Liberty is tied with 22 other FCS programs to perfectly defend fourth-down plays in 2010.

Moving Those Chains

One of the busiest crews on the field during a Danny Rocco-coached football game is the "chain gang," as the Flames have ranked inside the Top 30 all four years in third-down conversion rate. Last year, the Flames finished the season ranked No. 22 (42.66 percent), while the 2008 team finished the year with a 50.98 conversion rate (which ranked No. 3 in the country).

Liberty is off to another great start in 2010, as the Flames currently rank No. 8 nationally in third-down efficiency (53.66). Liberty was 8-of-13 on third-down plays against St. Francis, Pa., 6-of-11 against Ball State and 8-of-17 against Robert Morris. Under Rocco, Liberty has converted on 46.3 percent of third-down plays (279-of-603) over the last four-plus seasons.

Fourth-Down Frenzy

Liberty found much success on fourth-down plays in 2009, converting on 7-of-10 fourth-down plays, which ranked No. 5 nationally in fourth-down conversion rate (70.0 percent). All seven successful fourth-down conversions eventually led to the Flames adding points to the scoreboard. Liberty has not been as successful in 2010, failing to pick up a first down on two attempted fourth-down plays.

Don't Even Think About It

Liberty is coming off two of its better games in turns of third-down efficiency defense under head coach Danny Rocco. The Flames held Ball State to three first downs on 11 third-down plays on Sept. 11 and Robert Morris to three first downs on 10 third-down plays last weekend. During the last five years, only six times have the Flames held an opponent to less than three third-down conversion. Liberty now ranks No. 16 nationally in third-down efficiency defense (27.78 percent/10-of-36).

Home Turf Advantage

The Flames rushed for five touchdowns against Presbyterian last year, marking the fourth time in six home games the Flames tallied four or more rushing touchdowns. In six home games, the Flames managed to run for 24 of their 31 team rushing touchdowns (77.4 percent). Liberty scored single rushing touchdowns on the road against West Virginia, Lafayette and Charleston Southern, while scoring twice on the ground at Gardner-Webb and Stony Brook.

Over the Century Mark

With Liberty's six rushing touchdowns against Coastal Carolina on Oct. 17, 2009, Liberty moved over the century mark for rushing touchdowns under head coach Danny Rocco. During Rocco's 47 games as head coach on Liberty Mountain, the Flames have rushed for 118 touchdowns (2.51 rushing touchdowns per game), including 34 games with multiple rushing touchdowns.

Colonials Halt Scoring Streak

For first time in 43 games, the Flames failed to finish a contest with a rushing touchdown last weekend at Robert Morris. The last game Liberty did not record a rushing touchdown in was against Wake Forest on Sept. 30, 2006. Liberty has rushed for a touchdown in 45 out of 48 games under head coach Danny Rocco.

Getting Better and Better

For the last three years, Liberty has bettered its own school record in completion percentage. Last year, the Flames raised the new school standard to 68.06 percent, completing 211-of-310 passing attempts. Liberty finished the 2008 season with a 64.2 completion percentage and a 62.0 percentage in 2007. Only two other programs in FCS posted better completion percentages in 2009, as Stephen F. Austin led the nation (68.33) and Lafayette finished second (68.12).

Will Have to Get Better

Entering the Robert Morris game, Liberty had completed 70.4 percent of its passing attempts (50-of-71) during the first two games of the year. However, a 24-of-40 effort against the Colonials has knocked Liberty's team completion percentage down to 66.7 percent (74-of-111). Liberty is one of 16 FCS programs in the country who have completed two-thirds or better of its passing attempts this season.

Airing It Out

During the first three games of the year, the Flames have certainly taken to the air to find a way to score. Liberty currently ranks No. 4 nationally in passing offense (331.67 average passing yards per game). The three teams ahead of the Flames in the statistical category are Yale (407.0 per game), Princeton (392.0 per game) and Jackson State (356.0 per game).

Pass Happy

Liberty currently ranks No. 4 in the country in passing yards, as the Flames are averaging 331.67 passing yards per game. The Flames have surpassed the 250-yard mark in all three games, marking the second time Liberty has accomplished the feat during three-consecutive games under head coach Danny Rocco (also against Presbyterian, Coastal Carolina and VMI in 2007). Coming into the year, Liberty had tallied only 10 250-plus passing games during the first four seasons under Rocco (45 games).

Finding a Different Way to Score

During the last several years, Liberty has become known as one of the top rushing programs in the nation. However, the 2010 season has found the Flames finding another way to score points. Ten of Liberty's 13 touchdowns have come via the passing game, with six passing touchdowns against St. Francis, Pa., and two passing scores against both Ball State and Robert Morris.

A Quick Comparison

Through three games this season, Liberty has thrown for 10 touchdowns, which is tied for the national lead in team passing touchdowns. Just as a point of comparison, the Flames finished the 2009 season with 13 total passing touchdowns. It took the Flames 10 games to reach the same mark last year, doing so against Gardner-Webb on Nov. 14, 2009.

First Down Focus

Liberty has finished the first two games of the year with 71 first downs, while surrendering a combined 48 first downs to St. Francis, Pa., Ball State and Robert Morris. Liberty currently ranks No. 11 in average first downs (23.67) and No. 25 in average first downs allowed (16.00). Liberty is one of 13 FCS programs in the country to currently rank inside the Top 23 in both statistical categories.

Taking Better Care of the Ball

Since taking over the program in 2006, head coach Danny Rocco has tried to instill the importance of taking care of the football. Liberty has finished inside the Top 25 all four years under Rocco in turnover margin, highlighted by the 2009 campaign, where the Flames led the country in turnover margin (+1.91). Liberty ranked No. 7 in 2007 (1.27), No. 20 in 2006 (0.55) and No. 21 in 2008 (0.67) in turnover margin.

Saturday Night Lights

Under head coach Danny Rocco, the Flames are 16-4 in night games. Since 1976, Liberty has compiled a 57-66-3 record in night games.

In Broad Daylight

Under head coach Danny Rocco, the Flames are 19-10 in games played during the day. Since 1976, Liberty is 121-118-1 in day games.

Natural Versus Artificial Surfaces

Under head coach Danny Rocco, the Flames are 26-11 on artificial turf and 9-3 on natural grass. Overall, Liberty is 100-108-4 on natural grass and 86-79 on artificial turf. The Flames play their home games at Williams Stadium, which has an artificial surface, as new state-of-the-art FieldTurf was installed prior to the start of the 2006 season. Liberty has posted a 21-4 record at home since the new type of surface was installed.

Overtime Update

The Flames enter today's game having posted a 3-5 record in overtime games. Liberty's last overtime game came on Sept. 15, 2007, when the Flames dropped a 48-41 decision to William & Mary in double overtime in Williamsburg, Va.

Liberty has only played two of its eight overtime games away from Williams Stadium. Liberty's first extra-period game was a 34-28 road loss to Morgan State on Sept. 21, 1996. Liberty's last victory in an overtime contest came on Nov. 22, 2003, when it closed out the 2003 campaign with a 49-42 home win over Hofstra.

Back in the Big South

Liberty is currently in the midst of its ninth season of competition in Big South Conference action, and is set to open league play against Charleston Southern at home on Oct. 9. Since beginning league play in 2002, Liberty has posted a 23-11 Big South record.

Liberty series records against Big South schools since 2002

Charleston Southern	7-1
Coastal Carolina	4-3
Elon (game from 2002)	0-1
Gardner-Webb	4-4
Presbyterian (since 2009)	1-0
Stony Brook	1-1
VMI	6-1

Raising Up No. 71

Prior to the start of the Flames' contest against Tusculum on Sept. 1, 2007, Liberty ceremonially honored founder Dr. Jerry Falwell, who had passed away the previous May, by starting a new game day tradition. Members of the University Police force raised a No. 71 flag underneath the Liberty Flames flag above the South end zone at Williams Stadium, just prior to the team taking the field, bringing the 14,925 fans in attendance to their feet. The new tradition has become a permanent part of the Flames' pregame ceremonies at all home football games.

Aerial Attack

Liberty finished the Robert Morris game with two passing touchdowns, giving the Flames 10 passing touchdowns in three games. Liberty, along with Montana and Lamar, currently lead the nation in passing touchdowns.

Winning the Turnover Battle

For the first time since taking over the program five seasons ago, the Flames have posted a minus turnover number in consecutive games. Liberty was -2 against Ball State (three passes intercepted to one fumble recovery). Robert Morris was +2 in the turnover battle last weekend, finishing with an interception and a fumble recovery, while the Flames failed to force a turnover. The consecutive outings mark the ninth and tenth time an opponent has finished with less turnovers than Liberty during a Danny Rocco coach game (48 total games). Since 2006, Liberty has a +48 turnover figure as compared to its opponents, as Liberty has committed 51 turnovers, while forcing 92 giveaways. Liberty finished five games in 2009 without committing a turnover, doing so against Lafayette, Coastal Carolina, VMI and Gardner-Webb. Since Rocco took over the program in 2006, Liberty has finished 17 games (out of 48 total games) without committing a turnover, including the victory over St. Francis, Pa.

A Different Kind of Year

Through five games this year, Liberty has committed five turnovers and currently ranks No. 80 in the country in turnover margin (-0.67). Last year, Liberty finished 11 games with eight total giveaways and led the country in the statistical category (+1.91).

Setting a New Standard

During a five-game stretch late in the year (Oct. 17 – Nov. 14), Liberty avoided throwing an interception to set a new school record for consecutive games without a picked-off pass. Under head coach Danny Rocco, Liberty's quarterbacks have thrown just 26 interceptions in 48 games (0.54 per game).

A QB's Best Friend

Liberty finished the 2009 season allowing 15 sacks in 11 games, which ranked No. 25 in the country in sacks allowed (1.36 per game). The Flames have allowed less than a sack per game under head coach Danny Rocco (0.94/45 in 48 games) during the last four-plus years and have finished 18 games without allowing a sack.

Interception Anomaly

Ball State did something no other opponent has done while Danny Rocco has been the football coach at Liberty. The Cardinals finished the game with three interceptions, marking the most interceptions by an opponent in the last five years. In fact, Ball State marks the sixth opponent since 2006 to finish a game with more than one interception per contest. Robert Morris picked off the fourth Liberty pass of the season, but the Colonials did so on the last play of the game, when Mike Brown got a 55-yard pass down into the end zone where the "Hail Mary" attempt was intercepted.

Picking Off Passes

After finishing the 2009 season ranked No. 16 in the country in interceptions with 17 picks, the Flames seem to be starting off the 2010 season right where they left off. In his first career game as a defender, Danny Broggin intercepted a pass against St. Francis, Pa., returning it for three yards and setting up a two-play, 39-yard touchdown scoring drive during the season-opener.

Since taking over the program in 2006, head coach Danny Rocco has helped his defenders hone their skills. Liberty has picked off 55 passes in 48 games, finishing 30 of those contests with at least one interception.

Streeter Streamlines the Passers

Under quarterback coach and second-year offensive coordinator Brandon Streeter, Liberty has been one of the most effective passing units in the country. Since joining head coach Danny Rocco's staff, Streeter has seen his quarterbacks throw at a 63.5 completion percentage clip, completing 764-of-1,197 passing attempts for 9,802 yards and 66 touchdowns. During the span, Liberty has averaged 204.2 passing yards per game and has a passing efficiency rating of 146.46 since 2006.

Doubling Them Up

After holding its first two opponents to a combined 271 passing yards (St. Francis, Pa. – 78 yards, Ball State – 193 yards), Liberty allowed Robert Morris to double up its opponent passing total in a single game. The Colonials completed 13-of-22 passing attempts for 271 yards, with four of the 13 completions going for 25 or more yards.

Rocco Draws National Attention

Head coach Danny Rocco's efforts in 2008 and 2009 did not go unnoticed on the national scene, as the three-time Big South Coach of the Year recipient saw his name listed among the nation's elite both seasons. Rocco was a Top 5 finalist in the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year contest in the I-AA category in 2008 and 2009. Rocco also became the second coach in Big South history to be named to the Eddie Robinson Award list, as he was one of 20 coaches up for the top FCS coaching honor in the country for both seasons.

City Stadium Flashback

Due to an extensive renovation project to Williams Stadium, Liberty moved the 2010 season-opening football game against St. Francis, Pa., to Lynchburg City Stadium, where Liberty won the game, 52-7. The facility is no stranger to Liberty, as the Flames played all of their home games at City Stadium from the inception of the program in 1973 until Williams Stadium opened in 1989. During their 17-year stay at City Stadium, Liberty posted a 43-35-1 record on the historic grass gridiron.

Three Times as Nice

Liberty became the second program in Big South Conference history to win three-straight Big South titles, when it captured a share of the conference crown in 2009.

Last year, the Flames shared the crown with Stony Brook, while winning the title outright in 2007 and 2008 and posting a 14-1 conference record during the span. Coastal Carolina accomplished the same feat, winning outright conference titles in 2004 and 2006 and a shared championship in 2005 (with Charleston Southern).

Best in the Big South

For the fourth-straight season, Liberty is predicted to win the Big South Conference title. Liberty finished atop the Big South Preseason Poll, earning 103 points in the annual ranking that is selected by the league's head coaches and a media panel. The Flames garnered 13 out of 15 first-place votes, while Stony Brook finished second in the listing with 81 points.

Big Time Prize

For the first time in league history, the winner of the Big South Conference will receive an automatic bid into the NCAA FCS Playoffs. In 2010, the NCAA FCS Playoffs will expand from 16 teams to 20 selections, creating an extra round of playoff games to be contested during the opening weekend of Nov. 27.

Stony Brook is Staying

On Sept. 1, the Big South Conference announced a contract extension with Stony Brook, keeping the associate member in the league for football for another four years. Stony Brook first joined the league in 2008 and its membership will extend through the 2015 season. In just two seasons, Stony Brook has posted an 9-3 Big South record (4-2 in 2008 and 5-1 in 2009) and claimed a share of the Big South title in 2009.

The Sack Attack

For the second game in row, Liberty finished a contest with more than one sack in game, as Liberty recorded a season-best three stops of the opposing quarterback for a loss of 23 yards against Robert Morris. Liberty posted two sacks against Ball State on Sept. 11, including one on a fourth-and-two play within the last minute to seal the victory for Liberty. The Flames have now posted 17 games under head coach Danny Rocco with two or more sacks. Under Rocco, the Flames have averaged 1.82 sacks per game (87 total) for an average loss of 13.52 yards per game (649 total yards lost on sacks).

Defending the Airwaves

During the first two games of the year, Liberty held its opponent to less than 200 team passing yards (St. Francis, Pa. – 78 yards, Ball State – 193 yards). In five seasons under head coach Danny Rocco, the Flames have held 28 out of 48 opponents under 200 passing yards in a game.

Red Zone Rapport

Liberty finished the 2009 season ranked No. 2 in the country in red zone offense, as the Flames found a way to add points to the scoreboard on 47 of 51 drives that reached the opponent's 20-yard line. Of Liberty's 51 trips inside its opponents' 20-yard line, Liberty scored 34 touchdowns (27 rushing/7 passing) and kicked 13 field goals.

Liberty has scored all nine times that it has penetrated the opponent's 20-yard line in 2010, doing so three times against Robert Morris, four times against St. Francis, Pa., and twice against Ball State. Since 2006, Liberty has added points to the scoreboard 85.0 percent of the time under head coach Danny Rocco (181-of-213 Red Zone opportunities) when penetrating the opponents' 20-yard line.

Nearly Perfect

The Flames have managed to tack points onto the scoreboard all nine times the team has penetrated the opponent's 20-yard line, including five touchdowns this season. Dating back to Liberty's Sept. 29, 2009, game against James Madison, Liberty has scored on 48-of-49 drives that have penetrated the opponent's 20-yard line.

Making Them Count

Liberty has scored on 48 of its last 49 drives that have crossed the opponent's 20-yard line. The Flames have made the most of those scoring chances, finding a way to record a touchdown on 33 of the 48 scoring drives (68.75 percent). This season, Liberty has scored all nine times it has crossed the opponent's 20-yard line and is one of 17 FCS programs in the country to have scored each time it has entered the Red Zone.

Tough Inside the 20

To score against the Flames inside their own red zone was a tough task in 2009, as Liberty ranked No. 9 in the country in red zone defense (66.7 percent). Opponents were only able to add points to the scoreboard on 24-of-36 drives that penetrated the Flames' 20-yard line, including nine times when Liberty's opponents had to settle for a field goal.

Liberty was one of seven FCS programs in the country to keep their opponent from scoring when crossing its 20-yard line, on opening weekend against St. Francis. During the past two weekends, Liberty's opponents have scored on six of seven trips inside the Flames 20-yard line and Liberty now ranks No. 34 in the country in red zone defense.

Bend but Don't Break

Ball State had much more success against the Flames in terms of scoring inside of Liberty's red zone on Sept. 11 than St. Francis did the previous weekend. The Cardinals scored on four of five trips inside Liberty's 20-yard line; however, they could only muster one touchdown and had to settle for three field goals. Liberty has allowed just three red zone touchdowns in three games this season.

Painful Penalties

Liberty more than doubled its season penalty total against Robert Morris last weekend, as the Flames were flagged for eight infractions for 46 yards. Liberty had only committed seven penalties for 64 yards during the first two games of the season. Liberty currently ranks No. 18 nationally in fewest penalties per game (5.00/average) and No. 15 in fewest penalty yards per game (37.00/average).

Tallying TFLs

For the third time this year, Liberty finished a game with seven or more tackles for a loss, as the Flames hit the mark against Robert Morris, last weekend (for a loss of 28 yards). Liberty currently ranks No. 17 nationally in tackles for a loss (7.33 per game) and has tallied seven or more tackles for a loss in 20 games under head coach Danny Rocco since 2006.

Second was Twice as Nice

On Sept. 11, Mike Brown scored from one yard out, giving Liberty a 27-23 lead with five minutes left against Ball State. Four minutes later, Asa Chapman sacked Cardinals quarterback Keith Wenning on a fourth-and-two place, securing the program's second-ever win over a FBS program. Liberty's first was a 25-24 victory over Eastern Michigan on Oct. 14, 1989, in Ypsilanti, Mich.

Missed By Mere Hours

Liberty nearly became the first program in Big South Conference history to upend a FBS program, when the Flames downed Ball State, 27-23, on Sept. 11. However, the Flames fellow conference member Gardner-Webb secured the honors just hours beforehand, when the Runnin' Bulldogs scored a 38-37 overtime victory over Akron.

Fantastic Four

Liberty was one of four FCS programs to post a victory over a FBS team on Saturday, when the Flames completed a fantastic day for FCS football with a 27-23 victory over Ball State. Earlier in the day, No. 12 (FCS) James Madison shocked No. 13 (FBS) Virginia Tech with a 21-16 victory in Blacksburg, Va. Later in the day, Gardner-Webb beat Akron, 38-37, in overtime and South Dakota downed Minnesota, 41-38. In total, six FCS programs have defeated FBS teams through the first two weeks of the season.

FCS wins over FBS programs in 2010:

9/4 - Jacksonville State 49, Ole Miss 48
9/4 - North Dakota State 6, Kansas 3
9/11 - James Madison 21, Virginia Tech 16
9/11 - Gardner-Webb 38, Akron 37
9/11 - Liberty 27, Ball State 23
9/11 - South Dakota 41, Minnesota 38

Rocco Is Better Against the Best

Liberty's 27-23 victory over Ball State should not be a shock to those who have followed the progress of the team in recent years against FBS programs. Since head coach Danny Rocco took over the program five years ago, Liberty has dropped its first three games against FBS programs by a combined 34 points (Wake Forest/34-14, Toledo/35-34, West Virginia/33-20). Prior to Rocco's arrival on Liberty Mountain, Liberty lost its last FBS contest by 59 points, in a 59-0 shutout against Connecticut on Sept. 10, 2005.

Sensational "Sellouts"

More than an inch of rain might have fallen on Sept. 26, at Williams Stadium, but the steady downpour never dampened the spirits of the crowd on Liberty Mountain. Against No. 6/7 James Madison, Liberty had 15,532 fans fill the stadium, marking the third-largest crowd in program and Big South history. Since head coach Danny Rocco arrived at Liberty, the Flames have filled Williams Stadium beyond capacity 19 out of 25 games. Liberty has posted a 21-4 record during those contests, averaging 13,340 fans per home game.

Big Time Mark

The Flames finished their season-opening game with 599 total offensive yards, marking the most offensive yards during head coach Danny Rocco's five-year tenure with the program. The previous record was 591 total offensive yards, when the Flames downed St. Francis, Pa., 68-10, on Sept. 29, 2007. Liberty has surpassed the 500-yard mark eight times under Rocco (in 47 games/17.0 percent).

Only two other FCS programs in the country have finished with more total offensive yards in a game than Liberty's 599 in its season opener. Bethune-Cookman racked up 635 yards against Edward Waters on Sept. 4 and Appalachian State piled on 620 yards against Jacksonville on Sept. 11.

Nearly a Record Day

Liberty finished its season-opening game against St. Francis, Pa., with 452 passing yards, as Mike Brown and Tyler Brennan combined to complete 26-of-33 pass attempts. The figure missed the school record by three yards, as Liberty's best passing performance in program history was 455 yards against Towson State on Oct. 26, 1991.

Nation's Best

Following Liberty's 452-yard passing performance against St. Francis, Pa., on Sept. 4, the Flames ranked No. 1 in the country in passing offense. The only other FCS program in the country to pass the 400-yard mark on the first weekend of the year was Jackson State, who threw for 404 yards in a 32-17 victory over Delta State. The figure is the second most passing yards in a game this season by any FCS program, ranking only behind Morehead State, who passed for 458 yards against St. Francis, Pa., on Sept. 11.

Big Time Burst

Just to put the 452-yard passing game in perspective, the performance against St. Francis marked only the fourth time in 46 games under head coach Danny Rocco that Liberty has thrown for 300 or more yards in a game.

Big South Record

Liberty's 452-yard passing game against St. Francis, Pa., on Sept. 4, set a new Big South Conference record. The previous team standard for passing was 431 yards by Charleston Southern against North Greenville on Oct. 25, 2003.

Tandem Ties Records

The quarterbacking tandem of Mike Brown and Tyler Brennan threw six touchdown passes against St. Francis, Pa., on Sept. 4, tying a Big South record for most touchdown passes in a game. The six touchdown passes also ties a program record, as the Flames previously threw for six touchdowns against Mars Hill on Oct. 6, 1984.

Big Day for Brown

Mike Brown had a career day against St. Francis, Pa., as the junior became the 10th quarterback in program history to throw for 300 yards in a game. He completed 17-of-22 passing attempts for 338 yards and four touchdown passes. His 338 passing yards marked the 15th-best single-game performance in program history, bettering Tommy Beecher's 337-yard effort against Gardner-Webb, last year.

Better Day Against Ball State

Following a 338-yard passing performance against St. Francis, Pa., Mike Brown posted even better numbers against Ball State on Sept. 11. The junior completed 24-of-38 passing attempts for 276 yards, while carrying the ball 18 times for 87 yards. The 363 total offensive yards marked a new career high for Brown, surpassing his 352 yards against St. Francis the previous weekend.

Getting to Be Old Hat

For the third time this year, Mike Brown finished a game with 300 or more total offensive yards, as the junior ranked up 344 yards last weekend at Robert Morris. The quarterback tallied 267 passing yards and 77 more on the ground and currently ranks No. 4 in the country in total offensive yards per game (353.00).

A Dazzling Dozen

Mike Brown completed his first 12 passing attempts at Robert Morris and finished the game by completing 24-of-40 attempts on the afternoon. In four career starts at quarterback, Brown has completed a combined 94-of-136 passing attempts, has led the program to three wins, has thrown for 1,123 yards, nine touchdowns and just four interceptions. Brown's career passing efficiency rating as a starting quarterback is 154.44 and his completion percentage as a starting quarterback is 69.1.

Home Sweet Home

On Oct. 2, the Flames will welcome Savannah State to Williams Stadium, a facility Liberty has called home for the past 21 seasons. The on-campus facility was opened on Oct. 21, 1989, when the Flames rallied for a 37-18 victory over Towson State. Liberty has since won 66.1 percent of its games in the stadium, having posted a 77-39 record at the on-campus facility. In 2007, the Flames went undefeated at home for the second time in program history, posting a school-record 6-0 mark, en route to their Big South title run.

Tracking toward a Million

Following last year's Gardner-Webb crowd of 15,208 fans on Senior Day on Nov. 14, Liberty has seen 985,223 fans pass through the gates at Williams Stadium since the on-campus facility opened its doors in 1989. In 2009, Liberty ranked No. 12 in the country, averaging 14,931 fans per home game. Should Liberty continue this trend, the Flames could have its millionth fan pass through the turnstiles month when Liberty welcomes Savannah State to town on Oct. 2. The game will mark the grand re-opening of Williams Stadium, following a nine-month project to expand the stadium from a seating capacity of 12,000 to 19,200, with 18 luxury boxes and a state-of-the-art press box. Liberty will need just 14,777 fans to attend the game to pass the millionth-fan mark.

Top 10 Performances

A Liberty Flames football ticket has been a hot commodity in 2009, leading to some of the largest crowds in all of FCS nation last year. The attendance figures at all six of Liberty's home games ranked inside the Top 10 for that specific weekend in terms of highest attended home FCS game. Liberty's Big South matchup with VMI on Nov. 7, attracted 15,208 fans, was the ninth-highest attended home FCS game in the country.

Back Against the Best

The Flames' 2008 schedule snapped a near-decade run against the nation's top level of collegiate football, as Liberty had faced a FBS opponent in nine-straight seasons. Prior to 2008, the last time Liberty did not have a FBS opponent on its slate was in 1998.

During the nine-year run, Liberty faced programs such as South Florida, Marshall, UCF, Akron, Toledo, Bowling Green, Kent State, Connecticut and Wake Forest. In 2009, Liberty opened the season at West Virginia, falling 34-20 to the BIG EAST powerhouse in Morgantown, W.Va.

The Flames are slated to continue their run against FBS foes in years to come, as Liberty has N.C. State (2011), Wake Forest (2012) and Kent State (2013) currently on future schedules.

Joining the Program's Elite

Mike Brown threw for 267 yards against Robert Morris last weekend, marking the third-straight game the junior has surpassed the 250-passing yard mark in a game. Brown is the first quarterback in more than a decade to accomplish this feat, as the last was Biff Parson in 2000.

Accurate and Efficient

Not only is Mike Brown ranked No. 3 in the country in passing yards (293.7/average), but the junior hurler also ranks No. 9 in passing efficiency (157.40). He has completed 65-of-100 pass attempts for 881 yards and eight touchdowns, while tossing just four interceptions. He is one of FCS quarterbacks in the country to rank inside the Top 10 in both statistical categories.

Eight Is Enough

Mike Brown finished the Robert Morris game with two passing touchdowns, giving him eight scoring passes through three games in 2010. The junior is currently tied for No. 3 in the country in total passing touchdowns, as he is joined by Jackson State's Casey Therriault, Morehead State's Zach Lewis, Chattanooga's B.J. Coleman and Charleston Southern's A.J. Toscano.

Painful Passes

Mike Brown came into the Ball State game without having thrown a career interception. However, the junior walked away with three intercepted passes, including one being returned 36 yards for a touchdown. Of the two interceptions that were not returned for a touchdown, Brown picked up the solo tackle to end the scoring threat following one of the errant throws. Last weekend, the junior tossed his fourth career interception, but it came on the last play of the game when he heaved a 55-yard pass downfield to the end zone on a "Hail Mary" pass.

Honors Bestowed Upon Brown

Following his 338-yard performance against St. Francis, Pa., Mike Brown was named Big South Offensive Player of the Week, marking his fourth-career Big South weekly accolade. The junior was also honored by the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA), as he was named the web site's Quarterback Performer of the Week.

Even More Accolades

Following his performance at Ball State, quarterback Mike Brown was named the Big South Co-Offensive Player of the Week and was named to the College Sporting New FCS Weekly All-Star team. Brown shared league offensive honors with Gardner-Webb's James Perry, III, who also helped lead his squad to a 38-37 overtime victory over FBS foe Akron by catching 10 passes for 125 yards and two touchdowns.

Doing It All

Mike Brown was heavily featured during Liberty's game-winning drive late in the contest against Ball State. The junior completed all three of his passing attempts for a combined 30 yards, while he carried the ball five more times on the nine-play, 64-yard drive. The last time he carried the ball, he carried two Ball State defenders into the end zone with him, scoring on a one-yard run with 4:55 left in the ball game.

Liberty's No. 1 Option

Mike Brown was involved in 75.8 percent of Liberty's total offensive plays last weekend at Robert Morris (56-out-of-74 total plays). The junior threw for 267 yards as he was 24-of-40, while he carried the ball 16 times for 77 yards. This has become a pattern for Liberty this year, as Brown has been involved in 66.5 percent of Liberty's total offensive plays (139-of-209) and is responsible for 75.7 percent of the team's total offensive yard (1059-out-1399).

Scoring Machine

SirChauncey Holloway finished with one of Liberty's two rushing touchdowns against Ball State on Sept. 11 on a four-yard scamper late in the first quarter. Holloway has two of Liberty's three team rushing touchdowns in 2010. The four-yard burst marked the sophomore's ninth career rushing touchdown in 10 career games. He has scored in eight of 11 career outings, only failing to break the goal line against West Virginia Wesleyan and Charleston Southern, last year, and against Robert Morris last weekend.

A Triple Threat

The wide receiver trio of Chris Summers (129 yards), B.J. Hayes (110 yards) and Pat Kelly (115 yards) joined an elite group, on Sept. 4, as the trio became just the second group in program history to surpass the 100-yard receiving mark in the same game. The first time Liberty had three wide receivers finish a game with 100 more receiving yards was against Toledo on Sept. 17, 1994 – Tony Dews (106 yards), Robert Butz (104 yards) and Dion Cook (100).

Leader of the Pack

Chris Summers posted his second career 100-yard game, as the junior led Liberty with seven receptions for 129 yards against St. Francis, Pa. Two of his seven catches were for touchdowns, including a “Hail Mary”-type play that saw Mike Brown heave up a 40-yard pass into the end zone on the final play of the first half.

Summers became the 27th player in program history to have multiple 100-yard receiving games. His 129-yard performance was the sixth-best single game performance, on Sept. 4, among all FCS wide receivers.

Big Time Threat

Chris Summers became the 12th player in program history to have consecutive 100-yard games, as the junior hauled in 11 receptions for 146 yards and two scores against Ball State, on Sept. 11. One of his 11 catches was a 65-yard scamper for a touchdown, marking the longest reception of his collegiate career. Summers currently ranks No. 6 nationally in receiving yards per game (121.0) and No. 13 in scoring average (10.0 points per game).

The Nation’s Best

Chris Summers was held under the 100-yard mark for the first time this year, when he finished the Robert Morris game with nine catches for 88 yards. However, one of his nine receptions was a 24-yard touchdown reception, giving him five scores this year. Summers is now tied for the national lead in total touchdown receptions (5), a mark he shares with J.J. Hayes of Lamar.

Nearing the Mark

Chris Summers 363 receiving yards through three games this year leaves the junior just 20 yards shy of 1,000 career receiving yards. The wide receiver has caught 75 career passes for 980 yards in 26 career outings.

Joining the Group

B.J. Hayes and Pat Kelly became the 46th and 47th players in program history to record a 100-yard receiving game, doing so in the season opener against St. Francis, Pa.. Hayes finished the game with seven receptions for 110 yards and a score, while Kelly caught four passes for 115 yards, including a 75-yard touchdown reception.

One More Makes Four

Ervin Garner became the fourth Liberty player this year to surpass the 100-yard receiving mark in a game this past weekend at Robert Morris. The junior finished the game with five receptions for 106 yards, including his first career touchdown on a 36-yard strike. Garner is now the 48th player in program history to have recorded a 100-yard receiving game.

Making His First Count

Redshirt senior wide receiver Kyle DeArmon made the most of his first career reception, as the wide receiver caught a pass from Tyler Brennan and broke two tackles to score on a 27-yard pass against St. Francis. DeArmon, who was a former quarterback for Liberty, finished the game with four receptions for 78 yards, including a second score midway through the fourth quarter (a 10-yard strike from Brennan).

Career Numbers Together

Tyler Brennan’s 27-yard touchdown pass to Kyle DeArmon early in the fourth quarter against St. Francis, Pa., on Sept. 4, was the first touchdown pass of Brennan’s career and the first reception of DeArmon’s career. In six career games played at Liberty, Brennan has completed 18-of-25 passing attempts for 215 yards (72.0 completion percentage) and two touchdowns.

Bevins is Back

Matt Bevins regained his All-America form on Saturday, when the junior connected on 3-of-4 field goal attempts. His lone miss was a 51-yard attempt, which marked the third time this year Bevins had missed a 50-plus yard attempt. Bevins is 4-of-8 on field goal attempts on the season, with a 4-of-5 mark on attempts inside the 50-yard mark.

Double-Digit Dandy

Matt Bevins finished the Robert Morris game with 11 points, as the junior knocked down three of four field goal attempts and two point-after attempts. This marked the sixth time in his career that Bevins has scored 10 or more points in a single game.

Moving Up the Charts

Matt Bevins finished the Robert Morris game with 11 points, as the All-America kicker knocked down three field goals and two PATs. Following the 11-point burst, Bevins now ranks third in program history in career kicker scoring with 186 career points. He has a ways to go to catch Liberty’s No. 1 and No. 2 kicking scorers, as Daniel Whitehead ranks No. 2 with 238 career points and Philip Harrelson is the program’s all-time points leader with 250 career points.

Second to Almost None

With three field goals against Robert Morris last weekend, Matt Bevins moved into a tie for second place on the Big South’s career field goal list and sole possession of Liberty’s No. 2 all-time mark. Bevins, who now has 38 career field goals, ranks behind Coastal Carolina’s Josh Hoke (40) and Liberty’s Daniel Whitehead (43).

Mike Makes the Most of His Time

Punter Mike Larsson earned all-conference honors in 2009, despite being the starting punter with the fewest number of total punts in the Big South. When he was called upon to boot the football down the field, he did it with precision and focus. Larsson finished the year with 40 punts for 1,469 yards (36.7 yards per punt average), with 18 punts pinning Liberty's opponent inside their 20-yard line. Liberty also finished the year ranked No. 10 nationally in punt return yardage defense. Only 13 of Larsson's 40 punts resulted in attempted punt returns for a total of 44 yards (3.38 yards per opponent return).

Pinning Them Deep in the Zone

Mike Larsson finished the Ball State game with two punts for a total of 78 yards (39.0 average), with one of his two punts starting the Cardinals at the own 20-yard line. The 42-yard punt marked the 25th time he has pinned an opponent inside their own 20-yard line in 63 career punts (39.7 percent).

Mayo Moves Right In

Chris Mayo made the most of his first career game at Liberty, as the freshman defensive back led the Flames in tackles against St. Francis, Pa., during Liberty's season-opener on Sept. 4. The former Fork Union Military standout finished the contest with 10 tackles, including seven assisted stops and a tackle for a one-yard loss. Mayo continued to add to his growing resume last weekend, when the freshman posted four stops at Robert Morris, including 10-yard sack.

Adjusting to the Adjuster

Head Coach Danny Rocco made a few alterations to his standard "3-4" defensive scheme during the offseason, adding a hybrid linebacker-cornerback position he calls an "adjuster." Brent Vinson and Danny Broggin are the two athletes filling that role, and the pair found success during the opening game against St. Francis, Pa. Broggin finished with five tackles and an interception, while Vinson added two assisted stops and a pass breakup.

A Different Vantage Point

Danny Broggin was not only playing a newly created position on defense against St. Francis, but the redshirt senior also was seeing a different side of the field. For the first time in his Liberty career, Broggin was a defensive player, having made the switch during spring practice. During his previous years at Liberty, Broggin was used as a running back and wide receiver, having 225 total offensive yards and two touchdowns to his credit in 27 previous games.

One Score or Less

St. Francis, Pa., opened the game strong on Sept. 4, scoring on the opening drive. However, Liberty clamped down and held the Red Flash from scoring again the rest of the way. The outing marked the ninth time Liberty has held an opponent to one score or fewer under head coach Danny Rocco, which includes six shutout victories.

Career Day for Claiborne

Larry Claiborne led the Flames' defensive effort against Ball State, as the junior finished the game with eight tackles and his first career fumble recovery. Claiborne also finished the James Madison game, last year, with eight tackles. Of his eight tackles against the Cardinals, five were solo tackles, setting a new career high for the defensive back.

Claiborne followed his Ball State performance up with four additional solo tackles against Robert Morris last weekend. The junior now leads the program with 10 solo stops in 2010 and ranks ninth in the Big South in unassisted stops.

Kyle Comes on Strong

Kyle O'Donnell followed behind Larry Claiborne and also had a career day, as he finished the Ball State game with six stops. The half-dozen tackles matches his six-tackle outing against Gardner-Webb in 2009. O'Donnell also finished the game with 1.5 tackles for a loss, setting a new career high and nearly matching his career total (came into the game with 2.5 career tackles for a loss).

Last weekend, O'Donnell matched the figure again, as the linebacker tied defensive lineman Terry Adams for game-high tackling honors with six stops against Robert Morris.

Making the Most of His First

It took Asa Chapman 25 career games to record his first career sack, but it was worth the wait. With Ball State trying to drive late in the contest for a rally, the Cardinals' Keith Wenning took a snap from center on a fourth-and-two play from Liberty's 26-yard line with 45 seconds left. However, the Ball State quarterback was stopped, as Chapman knocked the ball out of the hurler's hand for his first career sack, sealing Liberty's second-ever victory over a FBS program.

Bannon in the Backfield

Asa Chapman was not the only Liberty player to finish his way behind the line of scrimmage against Ball State on Sept. 11. Patrick Bannon, Chapman's fellow defensive lineman, finished the game with a career-high 2.5 tackles for a loss, surpassing his total of 2.0 tackles for a loss against St. Francis, Pa., in 2007 and West Virginia Wesleyan in 2009.

Quite a Day for KaJuan

KaJuan Lee is coming off a career performance last weekend, as the defensive back finished the Robert Morris game with five solo tackles. Lee, who came into the game with four tackles on the year, had previously tallied three solo tackles during the last three games of the 2009 season to account for his former career high in the individual statistical category.

Terrific Day for Terry

Terry Adams tied Kyle O'Donnell for team-high tackling honors, as the defensive end finished Robert Morris contest with six tackles (three solo, three assisted). The half-dozen figure was third-best single-game performance of his career, ranking only behind a seven-tackle effort against West Virginia and an eight-stop tally against VMI in 2009.

On Aug. 28, during Liberty University's convocation service, Chancellor Jerry Falwell, Jr., announced plans for extensive stadium expansion at Williams Stadium and in the Vines Center, which will put Liberty's athletics facilities on par with those at the highest level of NCAA competition.

"I think these projects will take us to a higher level of competition," Falwell said. "It will put Liberty on the same level as other major universities in the state and in the region. I think it is amazing what we are accomplishing with God's help. The sky's the limit for Liberty."

Before a packed house inside the Vines Center, Falwell unveiled plans to increase Williams Stadium seating to 19,200 by the opening of the 2010 season, plus plans to add 3,000 seats inside the Vines Center.

Directly following the Flames final home against VMI on Nov. 7, Liberty began to renovate Williams Stadium, marking the first major expansion to the Flames home for football since the stadium was completed in 1989.

The first of a three-phase plan calls for the addition of 6,600 seats added to the west side of the stadium, plus a 34,000-square foot press box. The brick and glass encased, Jeffersonian-style four-story tower will house club-level seating for qualified Flames Club donors, 18 permanent luxury suites, a banquet room which can hold up to 500 people, a 1,000-seat classroom and a state-of-the-art press area.

"The expansion of Williams Stadium will have a monumental effect on Liberty University and its football program," stated Jeff Barber, Liberty's Director of Athletics. "Above all else, this shows a great commitment from the University, and when you have a commitment, a lot of wonderful things can happen."

Phase One of the plan is part of a multiphase effort to boost the stadium's seating from its current capacity of 12,000 to 30,000 over the next five years. Phases Two and Three will add a new 4,000-seat middeck for the east side of the stadium and 6,400 seats in a horseshoe-shape area surrounding the end zone in the south end of the stadium.

When all three phases are complete, the stadium will have undergone an estimated $22 million in improvements. The renovated facility will also ready the stadium for the future construction of upper decks on the west and east sides of the stadium that will bring the capacity to 60,000.

"You cannot ignore the importance of facilities in recruiting. Kids always look for nicer facilities and to be a part of a team where they feel the program is an important overall part of the University," stated Liberty Head Football Coach Danny Rocco. "Above all, I think it just shows a great commitment from our University's administration to get our program to a level of national prominence."

Falwell said the Williams Stadium expansion is keeping up with Liberty's overall growth pattern. Fall enrollment for residential studies this year is expected to reach 11,900. Liberty had just over 5,000 on-campus students just 10 years ago.

"This stadium project is a natural step for Liberty in its progression from a small Bible college to a major university," added Falwell. "That was the goal from the beginning - to be for evangelical young people what Notre Dame is to the Catholics and what Brigham Young is to the Mormons. Athletics, and football in particular, was always a big part in that vision."

"Prospective student-athletes will see Liberty as a serious contender in NCAA Division I athletics," continued Falwell. "We'll be able to better recruit the top student-athletes in every sport. Improvements like this will help us convey the message that Liberty is achieving excellence in academics and in all of our facilities and programs. I think this will provide a major boost in both our athletics and academic recruiting. My father always said, 'If it's Christian, it ought to be better.'"

Game No. 1 - No. 21/20 Liberty 52, St. Francis, Pa. 7

Sept. 4, 2010 - Lynchburg, Va. - Lynchburg City Stadium (8,286)

Liberty's season opener against St. Francis, Pa., turned out to be a throwback day in more ways than one. The Flames aired the ball out and rolled off 52-unanswered points en route to 52-7 win, Saturday afternoon, at historic Lynchburg City Stadium.

The contest was the first Liberty had played at Lynchburg City Stadium since Oct. 7, 1989, when the Flames upended No. 19 Eastern Illinois, 9-7. Liberty moved into Williams Stadium two weeks later and downed Towson State, 37-18, on Homecoming.

Reminiscent of the days of old, when some of Liberty's most prolific quarterbacks like Glenn Inverso (1977-80), Phil Basso (1981-84) and Paul Johnson (1986-89) used to roam the turf at City Stadium, Liberty used the passing game as its key to victory.

The Flames threw for 452 yards and six touchdowns against the Red Flash on Saturday. The yardage figure was the second most ever by a Liberty team in program history and the most since the Flames threw for 407 yards at South Florida on Oct. 27, 2001.

The beginning of the game belonged to the visitors, until one of several lengthy passing plays helped ignite the Flames' prolific attack. St. Francis was the first team to dent the scoreboard, jumping out to a 7-0 lead five minutes into the contest. The Red Flash won the coin toss, but gave the ball to the Flames first.

Liberty managed to get the ball to the 35 yard line, but the 23-yard drive stalled after seven plays. All-America kicker Matt Bevins was called upon to attempt a career-long field goal, 52 yards, which just missed to the right of the uprights.

The visitors kept the ball on the ground for the first four times they had possession, with the fourth resulting in a touchdown. Kyle Harbridge carried the ball three of the four plays where he picked up a total of 59 yards. The last was a 38-yard scoring burst up the middle to put St. Francis up 7-0 with 9:55 left to play in the opening quarter.

The score remained the same until the fifth play of the second quarter, when Bevins knocked down a 33-yard field goal with 12:35 left before halftime.

Liberty was able to piece together a 12-play, 55-yard drive that penetrated the Red Flash 10-yard line. However, Mike Brown was sacked for an 11-yard loss on a third-and-two play from the seven-yard line, leaving the Flames to settle for the three-point play.

A back-and-forth defensive battle was broken up with five minutes remaining in the first half. After picking up 10 yards on a quarterback scramble, Mike Brown found Pat Kelly open over the middle of the field and the sophomore wide receiver bested two defenders before finding an open field for a 75-yard touchdown reception with 5:05 left before halftime.

The scoring sprint, tied for the fourth-longest scoring play during head coach Danny Rocco's five years at Liberty, seemed to jumpstart Liberty's offense.

Trailing for the first time in the game, 10-7, St. Francis tried to take to the air to move the ball down the field. However, Danny Broggin was able to step in front of a John Kelly pass, giving Liberty the ball back at the Red Flash 39-yard line.

Brown and B.J. Hayes teamed up on the ensuing quick scoring drive to push Liberty's lead to 10 points. Following a seven-yard screen pass to the junior, Brown found Hayes open again and this time, the wide receiver was able to sprint down the field for a 49-yard touchdown reception with 2:02 left to play in the second quarter.

Liberty's defense made a quick stand, forcing the visitors to punt the ball away after a three-and-out series. With just 42 ticks left on the opening half, Brown orchestrated the Flames fourth scoring drive of the game.

Following a pair of short-yardage receptions to Chris Summers and a third to Kelly that dwindled away the clock, Brown was left with his own option, a deep heave to the end zone. The 40-yard pass easily made it to the end zone with Summers finding a way to reach over top of several would-be defenders for a last-minute score to give Liberty a 24-7 halftime lead.

The Flames managed to post 195 more total offensive yards than St. Francis during the opening 30 minutes of play, as Liberty tallied 313 yards on 37 plays to the Red Flash's 118 yards on 28 plays.

More than 80 percent of Liberty's offensive yards came via the passing game, as Brown completed 14-of-19 passes for 260 yards and three touchdowns. Liberty only managed to rush for 53 yards on 17 carries during the first half, led by SirChauncey Holloway's five rushing attempts for 24 yards.

Harbridge was the leading offensive player for St. Francis, as the running back carried the ball 15 times for 94 yards. Kelly completed 4-of-9 passes for 17 yards.

Following a three-and-out series to open the third quarter, Liberty quickly widened its advantage, moving the ball 74 yards on eight plays for their fourth-straight scoring drive.

The quarterbacking tandem of Brown and Tyler Brennan were a combined 4-for-4 on the drive for 50 yards, with the final 20 coming on a faded pass to Summers in the far corner of the end zone to give Liberty a 31-7 edge at 9:07 of the third quarter.

Summers and Brown found each other again on Liberty's next drive, with Brown lofting a 40-yard sideline pass to Brown before he was pushed out at the 12-yard line. On the next play, Holloway broke a few attempted tackles to bowl his way into the end zone for this eighth career rushing touchdown.

The scoring run pushed Liberty's lead to 31 points, 38-7, with 6:05 left in the third quarter and allowed the Flames to continue to control the pace of play the rest of the game.

Spotlighting the final 21 minutes of action were three plays of note for the Flames. The first was a blocked 33-yard field goal attempt by Brent Vinson, who nearly was able to pick up the loose football and return it for a score.

The second saw a pair of players pick up career firsts. Midway through the fourth quarter, Brennan found Kyle DeArmon open on the fair sideline and the former quarterback was able to break two tackles to score his first career touchdown on a 27-yard strike.

Following the fifth of six three-and-out drives for St. Francis on the day, Brennan and DeArmon hooked up again, this time for the game's final score on a 10-yard strike with just over four minutes to play in the contest.

The Flames rolled up 599 total offensive yards in the game, the most under a Rocco-led program.

Game No. 2 - No. 19/18 Liberty 27, Ball State 23

Sept. 11, 2010 - Muncie, Ind. - Scheumann Stadium (9,110)

Completing a day of upsets for Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) programs, Liberty became the fourth FCS program to down a FBS team. The Flames used a late touchdown by Mike Brown and numerous key defensive stands to upend Ball State, 27-23, inside Scheumann Stadium.

A defensive shift for the Flames on the opening drive to a "4-3" scheme gave Liberty a quick edge and forced the home squad to punt the ball away following a three-and-out series.

Liberty then took to the air on its first drive of the contest to take a quick 7-0 lead at the 8:59 mark of the first quarter.

Eight of the plays on the 11-play, 79-yard scoring push were of the passing variety, spotlighted by two lengthy completions. The first was a 34-yard strike from Brown to Ervin Garner on a third-and-10 play and the second was a 21-yard scoring pass to Chris Summers after Brown avoided two would-be tacklers.

Ball State tried to answer right back on the next drive and managed to penetrate the Flames' 20-yard line on a 26-yard rush by MiQuale Lewis to the Liberty nine. However, Liberty's defense once again was able to stop the Cardinals and the home squad was forced to settle for a 28-yard field goal by Ian McGarvey with 5:25 left in the opening period.

Liberty responded and widened its lead on the ensuing drive, as the Flames started to keep the ball on the ground a bit more. Four different players carried the ball on the 10-play, 69-yard drive.

The final player with a rushing attempt was SirChauncey Holloway. He used a block by offensive lineman Malcolm Boyd on the nearside of the field, allowing him to easily scamper in for a four-yard touchdown run with 11 seconds left in the opening quarter. The four-yard burst was the ninth of Holloway's career in 10 career games, giving Liberty a 14-3 advantage after 15 minutes of play.

The Cardinals appeared to trim the margin back to four points, when wide receiver Daniel Ifft scored on a 26-yard reverse play. But the scoring effort was called back after Ball State was whistled for an illegal block.

Ball State managed to get the ball to 14-yard line and elected to go for it on a fourth-and-two play, but linebacker Kyle O'Donnell was able to get behind the line of scrimmage and halt Lewis for a four-yard loss to keep the score at 14-3.

Both teams tried to tack on additional points during the final minutes of the second quarter, but both squads missed lengthy field goals that could have added three points to the scoreboard.

Liberty's miss, a 41-yard attempt by Matt Bevins, sailed just to the right of the goalpost, ending a seven-play, 27-yard Liberty drive with 57 seconds left before intermission.

Ball State's Keith Wenning was able to quickly move the Cardinals downfield, as the quarterback completed all four of his passing attempts for a total of 40 yards. Wenning's success got the ball to the 26-yard line, but McGarvey missed his 44-yard attempt to the left to leave the halftime score at 14-3.

Liberty took over possession of the ball to start the second half, but it only took three plays before Ball State got its hands on the ball.

Following two short-yardage receptions by Summers, Brown's attempt pass to Pat Kelly was picked off by Charlie Todd. Liberty's first turnover of the 2010 season was returned 36 yards by the cornerback for a touchdown, trimming Liberty's lead to four points, 14-10, 54 seconds into the third period.

Liberty managed to get to the Ball State 33-yard line on the next drive. Following two incomplete pass attempts, the visitors were forced to settle for another field goal attempt. However, Bevins' 50-yard attempt was blocked by Sean Baker and returned 10 yards.

Four plays later, Ball State took its first lead of the day, when Wenning tossed up a ball to Aaron Mershman and the freshman was able to corral in the 15-yard reception and get one foot in the end zone, giving the Cardinals a 17-14 edge with 9:54 left in the third quarter.

But the lead was short-lived for the home team, as Brown found Summers open for a career-long reception by the junior. Following two plays that resulted in a loss of two yards, Brown found Summers over the middle of the field and the wide receiver was able to outrun the defense. The 65-yard scoring reception gave Liberty a 21-17 lead with 8:47 left in the period.

A 43-yard kickoff return and a personal foul by Liberty on the coverage gave Ball State prime field position on the next play. But a defensive stand by the Flames kept the Cardinals from finding the end zone, as Ball State had to settle for a 22-yard field goal by McGarvey to pull Ball State with one, 21-20.

On the third play of the next drive, Brown threw his second interception of the day and of his career and the junior's attempted pass was returned by Baker 31 yards to the 14-yard line.

Ball State did manage to pick up a first down on a play that got to the two-yard line, but once again Liberty's defense was able to keep the Cardinals out of the end zone. McGarvey was called upon for a 21-yard field goal on the first play of the fourth period, giving Ball State a 23-21 lead with 14:57 left in the game.

Following a third interception by Brown and a three-and-out series by Ball State, Liberty took over possession of the football with just over nine minutes of play at its own 26-yard line.

Brown completed three-straight pass attempts to get to midfield and then used his legs to move the ball the rest of the way. Three-straight rushing plays by the Big South Preseason Offensive Player of the Year set up the eventual game-winning run.

Brown called his own number again on a second-and-goal play from the one yard line and the junior bowled his way into the end zone, taking Ball State linebacker Tony Martin along with him. Following a failed two-point attempt, Liberty held a 27-23 lead with 4:47 left to play.

Ball State used the tandem of Wenning and Eric Williams to move the ball quickly downfield into Liberty territory to try and respond.

However, the Flames' battle-tested defense came up with one last defensive stand, as nose guard Asa Chapman was able to sack Wenning on a fourth-and-two play and Mike Connolly pounced on the loose ball to secure the victory with 38 seconds left in the game.

Game No. 3 - Robert Morris 30, No. 15/14 Liberty 23

Sept. 18, 2010 - Moon Township, Pa. - Joe Walton Stadium (2,893)

A 29-yard field goal by Matt Bevins left enough time on the clock for Robert Morris to drive the length of the field and score the game-winner with 22 seconds left. A 12-yard run by Myles Russ lifted the Colonials to a 30-23 victory over No. 15/14 Liberty, inside of Joe Walton Stadium.

Liberty looked like it was going to force Robert Morris to punt the ball away following a three-and-out series, as the Flames flushed Jeff Sinclair out of the pocket and nearly sacked the sophomore quarterback.

However, the hurler scrambled and found Myles Russ open over the middle of the field. The halfback made two or three moves with the last juke opening up the field for a 67-yard touchdown reception at the 12:54 mark of the first quarter.

Liberty quickly answered back, scoring on a nine-play, 60-yard drive to knot the game at 7-7 with 8:39 left in the first quarter.

On a third-and-12 play from the Colonials' 24-yard line, Liberty's offensive line gave Mike Brown enough time to find Chris Summers open in the corner of the end zone. The 24-yard strike was the fifth touchdown reception for the junior this year, who came into the weekend as the nation's No. 1-ranked wide receiver, averaging 137.5 receiving yards per game.

Following a pair of series where both teams were halted on short yardage fourth-down plays, Liberty took over possession around midfield late in the first quarter.

The Flames managed to move the football inside the Colonials' 20-yard line, but a 16-yard passing play to Pat Kelly was called back following a holding penalty.

Liberty was able to get the ball into lengthy field goal range, but Matt Bevins' 51-yard attempt missed just to the left to leave the score tied at 7-7. The failed attempt marked the third time this year Bevins has been called upon to try a 50-plus yard attempt, with all three tries narrowly missing the uprights.

The score remained the same until the final two minutes of the opening half. Robert Morris was able to piece together its longest drive of the half, an eight-play, 75-yard scoring drive to reclaim the lead, 14-7, with 1:31 left before halftime.

Sinclair dropped back on a first-and-10 play and got just enough protection to unload a 25-yard strike to Jamie Cobb before he was taken to the ground by a Liberty defender.

Cobb was able to leap over two downfield defenders and pull in the 25-yard reception, giving the Colonials a seven-point lead with 91 seconds left in the first half.

The remaining time was enough for Liberty to add points to the scoreboard when Bevins knocked down a 37-yard field goal with six seconds left before intermission.

Brown was able to quickly move the Flames downfield and nearly connected with Summers for his second touchdown reception of the game. On a third-and-eight play from the 16-yard line, Brown dropped back and tried to thread the needle for a scoring strike to Summers, but Ryan Nearhoof batted the ball down at the goal line, forcing Liberty to settle for three points on the drive and a four-point deficit at the break.

LU took to the ground to open the second half, getting back-to-back lengthy rushing plays by running backs Korrey Davis (13 yards) and SirChauncey Holloway (17 yards) to set up Bevins' second field goal of the day.

His 23-yard field goal at the 12:26 mark of the third quarter trimmed Robert Morris' lead to 14-13, and finished off a nine-play, 54-yard second half opening scoring drive.

After Robert Morris' next series, Nick Schirtzinger's 51-yard punt pinned Liberty at its own two-yard line. After two failed attempts to move the football, Mike Brown dropped back into the end zone for a sideline pass to the near side of the field on a third-and-10 play.

However, Liberty was called for holding on the play, resulting in the first safety Liberty has allowed since the Presbyterian game, last season, and gave Robert Morris a 16-13 edge with 6:07 left in the third quarter.

Following the free kick, the Colonials looked like they might extend their lead again, as a 37-yard pass play to T.J. Green drove Robert Morris deep into Liberty territory. But, Liberty's defense came up with a stand and forced the home squad to punt the ball away.

The defensive stand seemed to spur Liberty's offense, as the Flames put together their best drive of the day to take their first lead of the afternoon.

Brown dropped back to pass on back-to-back plays, but was forced to tuck the ball and run to pick up short-yardage gains and set up a third-and-five play at the Colonials' 36-yard line.

On the next play, Brown got enough time to throw the ball down field and he found Ervin Garner open in single coverage. The sophomore was able to pull in the reception and beat his defender, scoring his first career touchdown on a 36-yard reception to give Liberty a 20-16 lead with 13:01 left in the final quarter. The advantage was short lived, as the Colonials quickly marched downfield and regained the lead.

A 34-yard pass from Sinclair to Anthony Coleman got Robert Morris near the red zone and a personal foul penalty gave the Colonials the ball at the four-yard line. Following a failed pass play to Shadrae King on a slant route, Russ took a handoff and found room on the outside to score and give Robert Morris a three-point lead, 23-20, with 10:20 left in the game.

The two teams traded unsuccessful drives during the next five minutes, leaving the Flames down three with just over five minutes left in the game.

Two double-digit yard pass plays from Brown to Summers got the Flames inside the Robert Morris red zone, but the pair could not complete a third, forcing Liberty to settle for Bevins' game-tying 29-yarder with 1:19 left on the game clock.

Sinclair took to the air in an attempt to move his team into field goal range. He completed four-straight pass attempts for a combined 68 yards, including a 32-yard strike to Green to get to the LU's 12-yard line.

Trying to position the ball near the center of the field, Robert Morris elected to hand the ball to Russ one last time and the senior found a hole on the right side, scoring the eventual game winner from 12 yards out with 22 seconds left.

Liberty managed to pick up one first down on the ensuing drive, but Brown's "Hail Mary" pass downfield on the game's final play was picked off by Michael Landers in the end zone to give Robert Morris its first-ever win over a ranked FCS opponent.
