Opponents

For the first time Liberty University will participate in the annual ESPN BracketBuster event, a two-day men's college basketball extravaganza pitting potential NCAA Tournament hopefuls against each other on February 16-17.

For the second consecutive year, the event will feature five BracketBusters games exclusively on ESPNU, the 24-hour college sports network, and two on ESPN360, ESPN's customized broadband service. ESPN2 will televise six contests. The 13 televised BracketBusters matchups will be announced January 29, while game times and network assignments will be announced February 5.

BracketBusters, so named because of the success of the participating teams in NCAA Tournament play over the past few years, will provide the 26 televised teams an opportunity to play other top non-conference opponents three weeks prior to Selection Sunday. The 76 teams not selected for BracketBusters will compete against each other over the same two days.

The 102-team field will feature 12 teams from the Mid-American Conference and Colonial Athletic; 11 from the Ohio Valley Conference; 10 from the Missouri Valley and Metro Atlantic Athletic; nine from the Western Athletic Conference and Horizon League; eight from the Big West; four from the Big Sky and Southern; three from the Big South and Patriot; two from the America East, Mid-Continent and Southland; and San Francisco from the West Coast Conference.

Liberty joins fellow Big South members Winthrop and Coastal Carolina in the BracketBuster field. The Big South went 2-1 last year in the BracketBusters, its first-ever involvement in the event. Winthrop defeated MAC member Northern Illinois in double overtime, 98-97, while UNC Asheville won at OVC member Eastern Kentucky, 83-77. High Point fell in the closing minutes at MAAC member Loyola (Md.), 77-71. In this year's series, Coastal Carolina has drawn a home game while Winthrop and Liberty will play road contests.

As part of the agreement, all 13 of the BracketBusters home teams, as well as the remaining 38 home squads, will play a "return" game at the home facility of their opponent in November or December of the 2007-08 season.
