The Game

After dropping its first two contests of the Chicago Invitational Challenge to Notre Dame and Northwestern, the Flames will travel to the UIC Pavilion in Chicago, Ill., to square off with the Mississippi Valley State Delta Devils on Friday at 3:30 p.m. In the final contest of the invitational, The Flames will face either Kennesaw State or Tennessee State on Nov. 28. Tipoff is set for 12:30 or 3 p.m., depending on seeding.

Recent Results

On Nov. 14, a crowd of 8,143 watched Liberty host an ACC powerhouse for the first time, making it the ninth-largest attendance in Vines Center history. The Flames looked to make up for last year's narrow loss to the Tigers, but Clemson prevented the team from accomplishing the feat, taking a 79-39 decision in its first-ever trip to Liberty.

Two days later, The Old Dominion Monarchs visited the Vines Center in a rematch of last season's BracketBuster contest. Old Dominion proved to be just as formidable this time around against Liberty as it was in the last meeting, defeating the Flames, 73-41.

Liberty began its slate of games in the Chicago Invitational Challenge in South Bend, Ind. against the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame. After being down only eight points in the first half, Notre Dame pulled away with the help of Naismith candidate Luke Harangody to take the contest, 91-72. The Flames then travelled to Evanston, Ill., to take on Northwestern on Tuesday. Three-point shooting by the Wildcats' Drew Crawford played a role in the match-up as the Flames dropped their fourth straight contest, 69-53.

Listen for the Flames

There will be a radio broadcast which will air on the Flames Sports Network (flagship WRVL 88.3 FM) with Jerry Edwards providing the play-by-play for his 29th season. Additionally, an Internet audio broadcast on LibertyFlames.com will be available.

Head Coach Dale Layer

Record at Liberty: 1-5 (First Year)
Career Record: 271-198 (17th Year)

Mountain West Conference Championship: 2003
2 NCAA Division II Appearances: 1996 (Sweet 16), 1998

Entering his first season as head coach of the Flames, Dale Layer is the eighth coach in program history. Layer returns to Liberty Mountain after previously serving as an assistant coach for the Flames during the 2007-08 season.

This will be Layer's third head coaching stint and first since leaving Colorado State in 2007. Layer, 50, comes to Liberty most recently from a successful run as an assistant coach at BIG EAST member and nationally ranked Marquette this past season where he worked with the guards. Layer helped the Eagles to a 25-10 record and a second round appearance in the NCAA Tournament despite lacking the full-time services of All-American Dominic James, who injured himself near the end of the season.

Dale Layer first served as an assistant at Liberty during the 2007-08 season, helping the Flames to its best regular season finish since Liberty won the 2004 Big South Championship.

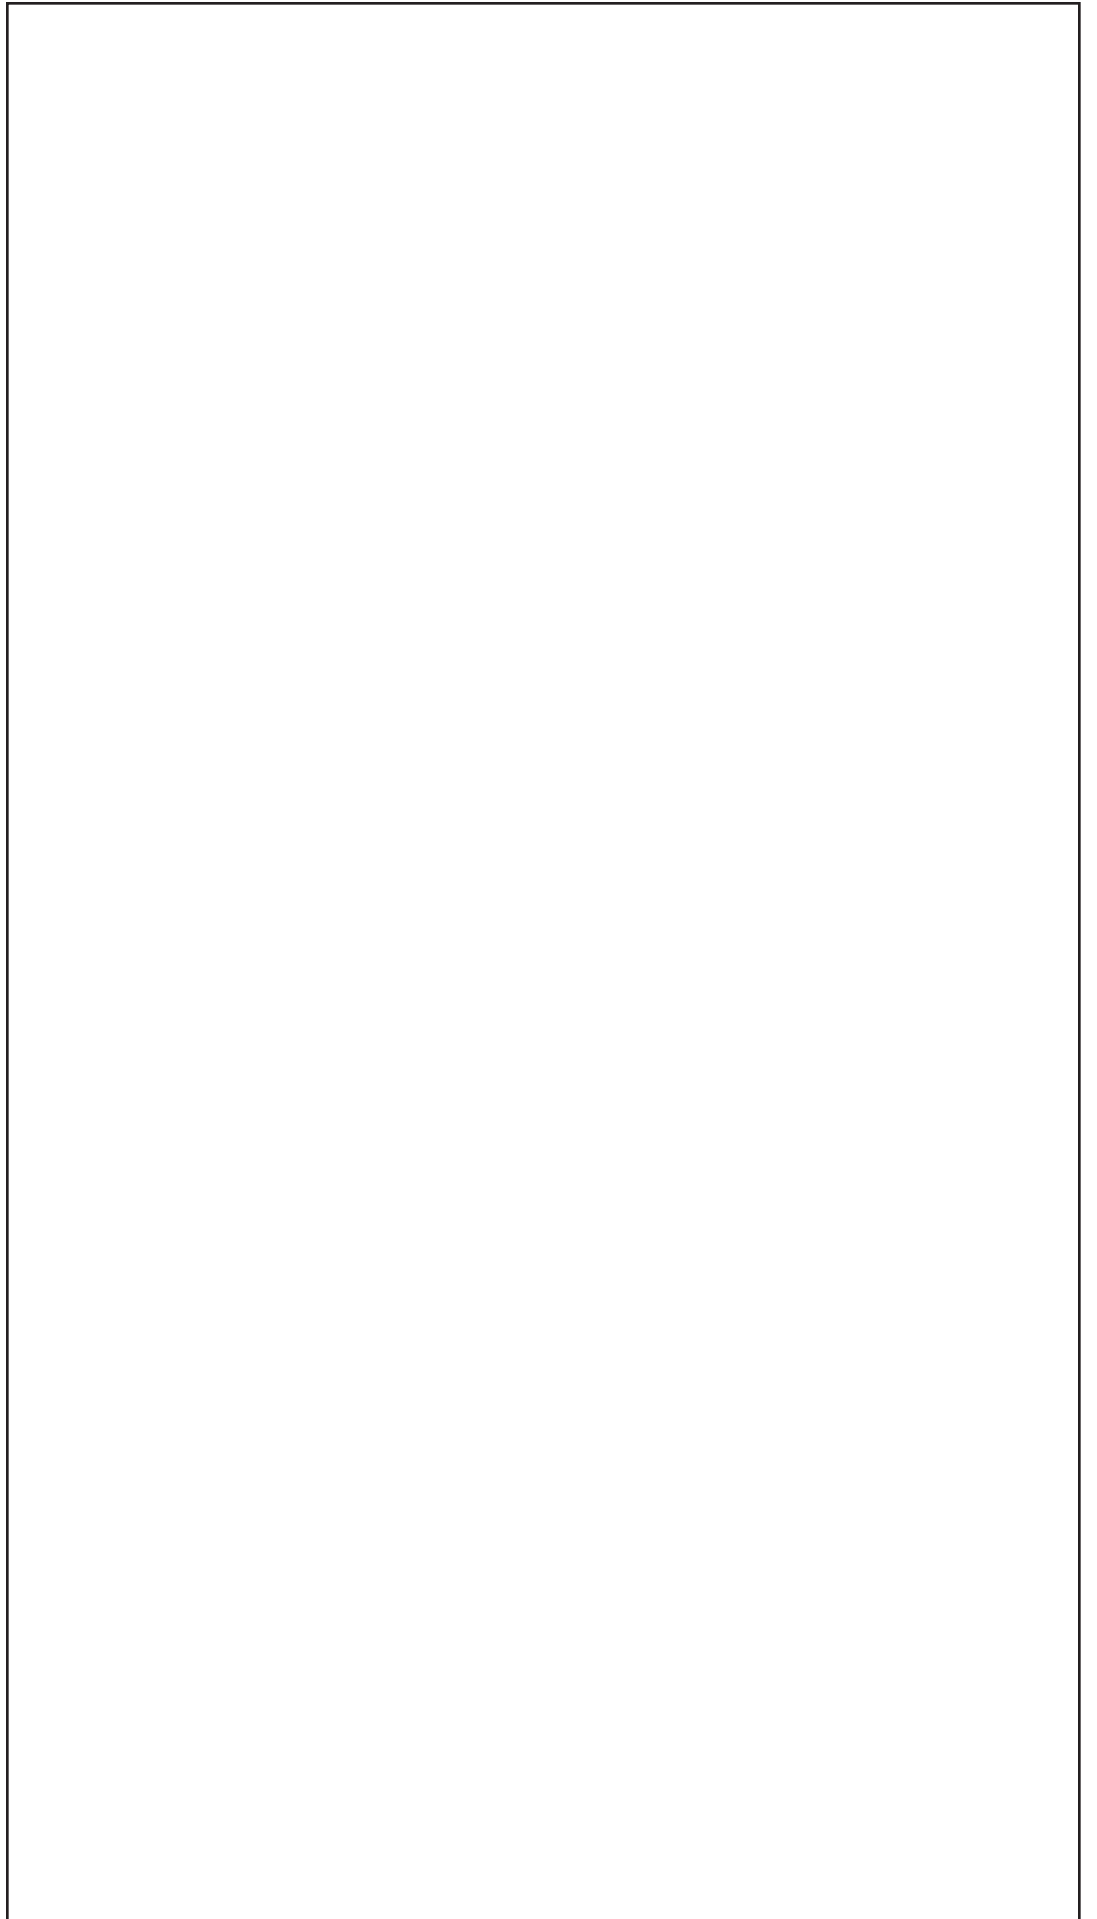

Layer has also demonstrated the ability to develop talent, including former Colorado State center Jason Smith. The seven-footer scored over 1,500 points for Layer's Rams during his three seasons with the program before entering the NBA Draft following his junior campaign. Due to his development under Layer's tutelage, Smith was chosen with the 20th selection of the NBA Draft's first round by the Miami Heat in 2007. His rights were traded to the Philadelphia 76ers. When Smith graduated high school he was ranked as the 276th best player in his class and under Layer developed in three seasons to the 20th selection in the NBA Draft. Several of Layer's recruiting classes at Colorado State were ranked among the top 40 nationally by various recruiting publications.

Layer has a career 271-198 record (17th year) as a head coach, including nine seasons at the helm of Queens University (formally Queens College) in Charlotte, N.C. He also served as the athletics director while at the school and started the basketball program in 1989 from scratch at the formerly all women's institution. Layer's student-athletes excel in the classroom too. In Layer's 16 seasons as a head coach, he has accompanied 43 seniors to be honored on senior night and all 43 earned a college degree, marking 100 percent graduation rate of all players who finish their eligibility under Layer.

After graduating from Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Fla., in 1980, Layer started his coaching career as an assistant under Jim Harley, his former coach. Before moving on to Queens University, Layer spent seven of the next eight years at Eckerd College except for the 1982-83 season, when he was an assistant at Eastern Kentucky.

Layer made the jump to Division I in 1998 when Ritchie McKay took the head coaching job at Colorado State and named him to his staff. During McKay's two seasons with the Rams, Layer helped lead Colorado State to the NIT Tournament in 1999, where they beat Mississippi State and Colorado before falling to eventual champion, California.

While with the Rams, Layer had a 103-106 record, including a 17-13 mark in 2007. In 2003, Layer led Colorado State to the Mountain West Conference Championship and its first NCAA Tournament bid in 13 years, falling to Duke in the first round.

A Glance at the Delta Devils

The Mississippi Valley State Delta Devils are looking to rebound after going 7-25 and being eliminated in the SWAC tournament by Prairie View A&M, 65-60. Mississippi Valley State is off to a 1-4 start with losses to Washington State (94-66) Gonzaga (92-74), Iowa State (96-55) and Saint Louis (75-39), and a victory over Champion Baptist College (102-56).

Liberty versus the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC)

The Delta Devils are just the second opponent Liberty has faced from the SWAC. The last time the Flames matched up with a current member of the conference was Dec. 22, 1990 at the Youngstown Holiday Christmas Tournament against Alabama State. The Hornets defeated the Flames in the contest, 69-57.

Layer versus the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC)

Layer holds a perfect 3-0 record over current members of the SWAC. As head coach of Colorado State, he picked up his first SWAC win over Prairie View A&M, 85-73, on Dec. 27, 2002. The following season, on Dec. 4, 2003, the Rams soundly defeated Texas Southern, 91-66. Layer's most recent encounter with a SWAC team occurred in his final season at Colorado State before coming to Liberty as an assistant. On Dec. 29, 2006, Layer's Rams edged Alabama State, 61-56.

A Look at the Owls

Kennesaw State is looking to bounce back after going 7-22 in 2008-09. The Owls are off to a 2-2 start with wins over North Greenville (89-79) and North Georgia (78-65). Kennesaw State has dropped two-straight contests, falling to Saint Louis (76-66) and Notre Dame 80-62.

Liberty versus the Atlantic Sun Conference

Liberty is 10-18 all-time against current members of the Atlantic Sun Conference. The Flames are 1-1 against Belmont, 9-9 against Campbell, 0-5 against East Tennessee State. 0-2 against Lipscomb and 0-1 against Stetson.

Liberty's rivalry with Campbell dates back to the program's NAIA days and includes match-ups from when both teams were members of the Big South. Campbell is slated to depart from the Atlantic Sun and rejoin the conference in the 2011-2012 season.

Layer versus the Atlantic Sun Conference

If the Flames meet Kennesaw State in the Chicago Invitational, it will be Dale Layer's third match-up with an Atlantic Sun team. Layer has two previous wins over Stetson as head coach of Colorado State, defeating the Hatters 79-70 and 93-57 in back-to-back seasons (2003-04, 2004-05).

Atlantic Sun on the Docket

Kennesaw State is not the only Atlantic Sun team the Flames could encounter on the schedule this season. Liberty could potentially face the Jacksonville Dolphins on Dec. 30 at the UCF Holiday Classic in Orlando, Fla.

Remember When

Before Kennesaw State made the move to Division I, the Owls were a solid Division II member, capturing the national title in 2004. Like the Owls, Liberty also competed in Division II, prior to making the leap to Division I on Sept. 1, 1988. The Flames were a Division II member for only eight years total.

Liberty versus the Ohio Valley Conference (OVC)

The Flames hold 4-3 record over current members of the Ohio Valley Conference. Liberty is 2-1 against Eastern Kentucky and 2-2 against Morehead State. Liberty picked up its two wins over Eastern Kentucky during the 1988-89 season, defeating the Colonels, 77-70 and 62-61. The teams' most recent meeting took place in the 1989-90 campaign, when Eastern Kentucky edged out the Flames, 79-78.

Liberty also faced Morehead State during those two seasons, losing their first meeting 66-63 on Dec. 19, 1988. The following season, Liberty defeated the Eagles, 70-64. Morehead State responded the following year, besting the Flames 77-70. In the final contest of the series (Feb. 20, 1992), Liberty picked up a 98-78 win over the Eagles.

Layer versus the Ohio Valley Conference

If the Flames face off with Tennessee State, it will only be Dale Layer's second contest against an Ohio Valley Conference member since becoming a Division I head coach. Layer's Rams lost to Austin Peay, 74-72 in his first season with the Rams.

Minaya knows best

While the Flames themselves have not faced off against Tennessee State, one member has. Liberty guard David Minaya competed against the Tigers during his one year at fellow Ohio Valley Conference member Tennessee Tech. On Jan. 26, 2008, Minaya received the start for the Golden Eagles, recording seven points in the contest. The Tigers narrowly took the contest 73-72. The next meeting between the two teams occurred on Feb. 9, 2008. Minaya's Golden Eagles won the match-up, 78-75.

Recent Invitational Success

Last season, Liberty hosted the Liberty Thanksgiving Classic in the Vines Center, Nov. 28-29. The mini tournament featured three other teams - Coker, South Carolina State and William & Mary. In their first contest, the Flames picked up a solid win against Coker, defeating the Cobras, 88-66. Jesse Sanders recorded 15 points in the contest, picking up 11 in the first half. Kyle Ohman chipped in with 13 points.

Game two pitted the Flames against intra-state competitor William & Mary. Liberty saw its first overtime game in 75 contests, as the match-up went to two extra periods. The Flames bested the Tribe in double overtime, 80-74, to win the invitational.

No Rest in November

The 2009-10 schedule features eight contests in November, tying for the most 11th-month match-ups in school history. The last season Liberty played eight November games was back in 1979 during the program's NAIA days. The team was coached by Dale Gibson and finished with a 4-4 November record (28-11 on the season).

The Flames played their eighth contest on Nov. 30 against Mt. Vernon Nazarene and then jumped into their December slate the next night against the Cougars. This season, the Flames will receive five days rest between their last November and first December contests, as Liberty plays its last game of the Chicago Invitational on Nov. 28 and then returns to Lynchburg, Va. to open conference play against Charleston Southern on Dec. 3.

Liberty Selected Seventh in Big South Preseason Poll

The Flames were predicted to finish seventh out of 10 teams in the Big South Conference for the 2009-10 season, as voted on by the conference's head coaches and members of the media. Liberty is coming off a 23-12 season and a third-place finish in the Big South. The Flames went 12-6 in conference play a year ago, and participated in the inaugural CollegenInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT).

All-American Brothers

Two members of the 2009-10 Flames' roster are younger brothers of 2008 All-Americans. Eric Gordon, Jr., is the older brother to freshman guard Evan Gordon. The elder Gordon spent one season at Indiana and was Third Team All-America member in his lone season with the Hoosiers. Gordon was picked seventh overall by the Los Angeles Clippers in the 2008 NBA Draft and averaged 16.1 ppg his rookie season in the league. He is currently averaging 18.9 ppg with the team.

Sophomore point guard Jesse's Sanders older brother Thomas received an honorable mention on the 2008 All-America listing. The elder Sanders played four seasons at Gardner-Webb prior to the team joining the Big South. In his senior season with the Runnin' Bulldogs, he was named 2008 Atlantic Sun Player of the Year. He currently plays professionally in Spain.

Foreign Born

Freshman forward Patrick Konan, a native of the Ivory Coast, is the first Flame hailing from outside the United States since the 2004-05 season, when Liberty's roster featured three foreign-born players — power forward Leo Lightbourne (Andros, Bahamas), guard John Clarke (Freeport, Bahamas) and Christian Webborn (La Ceiba, Honduras).

Almost Perfect

Kyle Ohman is currently shooting 22-25 (88.0 percent) from the foul line this season. In the contest against Southern Virginia, Ohman netted all 10 of his shots from the charity stripe. This past Thursday against Old Dominion, he shot 7-7 from the line. The senior's pair of missed free throws occurred in Liberty's first contest of the season against George Mason.

Second Time Around

Coach Dale Layer is no stranger to the Chicago Invitational Challenge. Layer was on the sidelines as an assistant during Marquette's appearance in the invitational last season. The Golden Eagles defeated Chicago State (106-87), Texas Southern (85-68) and Northern Iowa (73-43), before being halted by Dayton (89-75).

Starter and Stopper

In last Thursday's contest against Old Dominion, freshman Patrick Konan earned the first start of his collegiate career. During the contest, Konan tallied six points while grabbing six boards. The forward looked even more impressive on the defensive end, helping hold Old Dominion's leading scorer and big man Gerald Lee to just four points.

800 and counting

After Tuesday's contest against Northwestern, Kyle Ohman now has 828 points, ranking him 25th on Liberty's all-time scoring list. Ohman now needs four points to take 24th place and 15 points to grab the 23rd position.

Offensive Spark

In the Flames' first two contests this season, Kyle Ohman was the first player to light up the scoreboard for Liberty. In the season opener against George Mason, Ohman tallied the Flames' first eight points, six coming from three-point land, giving Liberty a 6-0 start.

The following night on Nov. 14, Liberty found itself down early to the Southern Virginia Knights when Ohman came through once again, scoring six-straight points for the Flames to close the gap. The Flames went on to win 89-53.

Watchlist Week

The Nov. 17 contest against Clemson marked Liberty's first encounter with a member of the 2009-10 Naismith Award Watchlist, as Trevor Booker entered the Vines Center this past Tuesday, collecting 12 points and 12 rebounds. The second meeting with a Watchlist member took place this past Sunday when the Flames traveled to South Bend, Ind., for a match-up with Notre Dame's Luke Harangody. The Fighting Irish's center posted 32 points and nine rebounds on the night.

The Naismith Award Watchlist consists of the nation's top 50 players who are selected based on their performances last season and expectations heading into the 2009-10 campaign. The list will be narrowed down to 30 players in February and four finalists in March. In addition to making the list, Harangody is also nominated for the 2009-10 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award.

Like Father, Like Son

The addition of Evan Gordon to the Flames' roster this season makes him the program's first second-generation player. Evan's father, Eric Gordon, Sr., suited up for the Flames from 1981-1984. The three-year letterwinner is currently No. 16 on Liberty's all time scoring list with 1,154 points.

While Gordon is the first second-generation Flame, he is not the first player whose father is also in the Liberty men's basketball annals. Mark Manley, who played three seasons with the Flames between 1998 and 2002 is the son of Dan Manley, the program's first head coach (1973-77).

Finding the Mark

The Flames shot their highest first half field goal percentage of the season Sunday night against Notre Dame, shooting 14-27 (51.9 percent).

Game 1
Fairfax, Va.

The Flames (0-1) jumped out to quick 6-0 lead thanks to back-to-back treys from senior forward Kyle Ohman. Following a George Mason basket, the Mechanicsburg, Pa., native tallied two more points to maintain the six-point cushion at 16:12 in the first half. The Patriots soon erased the deficit, racking up five quick points off a three-point play and a steal to cut Liberty's lead to one. An Ohman free throw gave the Flames a 9-7 advantage at 15:35, but the Flames' lead would end when Patriots guard Cam Long hit a three-pointer to put George Mason up 10-9 at 14:25. The Patriots gradually extended their lead over the course of the half's remaining 14 minutes. The largest Mason lead occurred at 3:33, as the Flames trailed the home team 35-20. Guards Jesse Sanders and Jeremy Anderson provided the Flames with scoring, posting a quick layup and three-pointer to cut the deficit to 10, 35-25, with 2:39 left on the clock. George Mason would answer with a trey of its own followed by a dunk, going back up by 15. Freshman guard Chris Perez put up a layup at 0:55 making it 40-27 at halftime. At the start of the second half, Sanders made the first strike, posting a jumper to cut the Patriots' lead to 11. George Mason then began gradually increasing its advantage over the Flames just as it did in the first half. A free throw at 14:19 would give the Patriots' their largest lead of the contest, holding a 53-34 advantage over the Flames. Liberty received another scoring punch from Sanders less than a minute later, as the guard nailed a trey and a layup to trim the deficit to 14. Both teams would trade baskets the next four minutes. The Flames began chipping away at the George Mason lead as Ohman recorded a layup to give Liberty a spark, making it 62-50 with 8:04 remaining. The deficit was cut to seven points three minutes later thanks to a trey from freshman guard Evan Gordon, trimming the Patriots lead to seven points, 64-57, at 6:07. Liberty would later come within three points of the Patriots at 2:31 off two free throws from red shirt freshman Carter McMasters, 68-65. Both teams traded baskets down the stretch, with George Mason extending its lead to seven off free throws at 0:07. Guard David Minaya closed out the game with a three-pointer for Liberty, but George Mason was able to escape with their 17th-straight home victory.

Lynchburg, Va.

The Knights struck early with a three-pointer from guard Bryce Pendleton, latching on a layup and a second trey to take an early 8-0 lead at 16:50. Kyle Ohman then answered by scoring the Flames' first points six points for the second-straight game to spark Liberty's offensive attack. At 12:41, Carter McMasters knotted the game at eight with a baseline jumper. Following a Knights' basket, freshman Evan Gordon made a layup to kick start a 15-0 Flames run. Pendleton ended Liberty's run with a trey, making it, 25-13, at 5:37. The Flames added six more points, before the Knights answered with one at the foul line. After a layup from point guard Jesse Sanders, freshman guard Chris Perez made his mark with two-straight baskets to give Liberty a 37-14 advantage with 2:52 remaining in the half. Southern Virginia stopped the 6-0 spurt with a layup a minute later. Patrick Konan scored the first points of his collegiate career, hitting a layup at 1:29 to give the Flames a 23-point margin. The Knights concluded the 20-minute period with a three-pointer by Derek Cutler, making it 39-19 Liberty at halftime. In the second half, forward Tyler Baker racked up six-straight points in the first two and a half minutes to extend Liberty's advantage. Liberty managed to hold the Knights scoreless for nearly three minutes of play, before Southern Virginia's Cory Evans nailed a jumper at 17:19, to make it 45-21. A minute later, David Minaya electrified the Vines Center crowd with a two-handed jam, finishing off a layup attempt from Gordon. Both teams traded baskets over the next five and a half minutes, with Liberty holding a 53-33 lead over the Knights at 10:55. The Flames began to distance themselves further from the Knights in the contest's final 10 minutes. With 8:26 remaining, Gordon faked out his defender with a spin move en route to a layup to increase Liberty's bulge to 65-40. The fast breaks began for Flames with under eight minutes left, when Perez found Minaya for a quick dunk. Perez found himself on the opposite end of a one-two scoring punch soon after, when Baker dishd it to him for a layup to give the Flames a 29-point advantage at 7:16. Liberty went on to outscore the Knights 20-13 over the final seven minutes to capture their first win of the 2009-10 season, 89-53.

Lynchburg, Va.

The Tigers began their offensive attack early, off a three-pointer from David Potter. Turnovers and solid defensive pressure from Clemson stifled the Flames in the opening minutes, while the visiting squad managed to pull out to a 6-0 lead at 15:58. Tyler Baker tallied Liberty's first point 30 seconds later, going one-for-two at the foul line. Clemson responded by going on another 11-0 tear, making it 17-1 at 13:12, which forced Liberty to call a timeout. Following the stoppage, Jesse Sanders raced down the court and laid it in for Liberty's first field goal of the contest. After a Clemson basket, Kyle Ohman sank two free throws to cut the deficit back to 14. The Flames received quality minutes from Patrick Konan, as he posted a layup with 11:03 left in the half and later found Carter McMasters alone underneath the basket for a two-handed jam. Clemson created a fast break opportunity at 9:42 when Andre Young snatched a pass from Sanders and dished it to Trevor Booker for a quick dunk. Shortly after stepping onto the court, Johnny Stephene drained a baseline jumper just before the shot clock sounded to make it 32-13 at 6:26. Sanders followed up the Florida native's effort with a layup to give Liberty two-straight baskets, but Clemson answered the brief burst with another 9-0 run. Minaya ended the Tigers' scoring streak at 1:35 with a layup. Minaya's teammate and fellow Oldsmar Christian alum Chris Perez chipped in another hoop less than a half-minute later to give Liberty a first half total of 19. Booker then tacked on one more point at the foul line for a 42-19 Clemson lead at halftime. Liberty came out in the second half immediately applying defensive pressure. However, the Tigers managed to pick up where they left off, posting six unanswered points. Baker ended the run, shooting a trey to make it 48-22 at 17:03. Booker countered by tallying five points off back-to-back long-range jumpers. After two made free throws from Konan, both teams went scoreless for the next three and a half minutes, until Potter ended the drought with his fifth three-pointer of the contest to give the Tigers a 56-24 lead with 12:18 remaining. Clemson then tacked on a made free throw to extend its lead to 33. Less than a minute later, Stephene capitalized on an old-fashioned three-point play to cut it back to 30. With the offensive pace slowing on both sides, the Tigers managed to distance themselves further from the Flames, forcing turnovers and hitting outside shots, outscoring Liberty 22-12 in the last 11 minutes. Liberty ultimately fell to the No. 22 team in the country, 79-39.

Lynchburg, Va.

The Monarchs looked to run early, lighting up the scoreboard with a layup in just 13 seconds of the opening. A scoring lull ensued over the next two minutes, until Old Dominion's Ben Finney drained a shot from outside the three-point arc. The Flames quickly answered with a stick back from Patrick Konan. The basket by the freshman, who got his first career start on the night, trimmed the lead to three, 5-2, at the 17:16 mark. Konan then made his presence known again 28 seconds later, picking the pocket of Darius James, which resulted in a jumper from David Minaya. The Monarchs responded by going on an 11-0 run, to take a 16-4 advantage at 13:20. Ohman ended the streak, hitting a jump shot to cut the deficit to 10, 16-6, less than a minute later. Turnovers became a factor as the Monarchs capitalized on Liberty's miscues to go on another 13-0 run. Ohman came through for the Flames once again with an old-fashion three-point play, trimming the Monarch's lead to 20, 29-9, with 4:28 remaining. The Monarchs pace slowed in the closing minutes of the period, as the two Commonwealth teams headed into the locker room with the halftime score favoring the visitors 35-14. The Monarchs extended their margin in the second half with 10-unanswered points. Minaya netted the first basket for the Flames during the second half, making it 45-16 in favor of Old Dominion at 15:31. Old Dominion then posted six-straight points to extend its lead to 35. The Monarchs led by as much 36, but Liberty would find its range, trading baskets with Monarchs down the stretch. Old Dominion would go on to take the contest 73-41, handing the Flames their second-straight home loss and the third on the season.

South Bend, Ind.

Notre Dame's Luke Harangody lived up to his billing, posting the first four points of the contest to give the Fighting Irish the early lead. The Flames answered with baskets from Patrick Konan and Carter McMasters to knot the game at four. Jonathan Peoples recaptured the lead for the Fighting Irish with a three-pointer, but Liberty's McMasters matched the shot with a trey of his own, tying it again at 15:40. After made shot at the free line by the Irish, Kyle Ohman hit another Liberty three-point basket, giving the Flames a two-point advantage, 10-8. Liberty's lead was short-lived, as the Fighting Irish responded with a 7-0 run to take a 15-10 lead at 13:31. The Flames were able to cut the deficit to one, 15-14, with baskets from Konan and Evan Gordon, but Notre Dame countered with five unanswered points to extend its lead, 20-14, at 10:38. Jesse Sanders hit a jumper to cut the lead to four, 20-16, but the Fighting Irish distanced themselves again with another 5-0 spurt. At 8:22, Carter McMasters reached the free throw line, making both shots to trim the disadvantage to seven, 25-18. A three-point shootout commenced with Luke Harangody nailing a shot from outside to put the Fighting Irish up by 10, 28-18. Gordon answered the Naismith candidate by hitting a trey just seven seconds later, followed by another basket behind the three-point arc from Ohman, making it 28-24 in favor of the home team at 7:40. Notre Dame then out-scored the Flames 13-7 over the next 3:42, extending the lead, 41-28. Both teams then traded baskets down the stretch as the Flames scored four-straight points, followed by an identical spurt by Notre Dame. Refusing to go into the locker room down by double digits, Liberty posted five more points to make it 47-39 at the half. Konan hit a shot from the foul line to give the Flames the first tally of the second half, 47-40. But, Notre Dame proceeded to go on a 9-0 tear courtesy of three Ben Hansbrough foul shots and three-straight baskets from Harangody, giving the home team a 56-40 edge at 16:44. The Fighting Irish began to gradually extend its advantage, leading 79-53 with 9:32 left on the game clock. After trading baskets, Notre Dame would recapture its 28-point lead just two minutes later, but the Flames prevented their host from stretching it out further, outscoring the Fighting Irish 16-4 over a near six-minute span. Despite Liberty getting as close as 17 points in the latter portion of the second half, Notre Dame would go onto to take the contest, 91-72, dropping the Flames 1-4 on the season.

Evanston, Ill.

Liberty jumped out to an early 4-2 lead with baskets by Patrick Konan and Carter McMasters. The Wildcats proceeded to go on an 11-0 run, until Konan ended the scoring streak with a layup to make it 13-6 at 14:49. Northwestern then went on another run, putting up six-unanswered points. An Evan Gordon layup halted the Wildcats momentarily, giving the host team a 19-8 advantage at 11:41. Both teams began swapping baskets over the next minute and a half, which was capped off by a Kyle Ohman three-pointer to trim the deficit to 10, 23-13, with 10:07 remaining. The Flames added a tally at the charity stripe, but the Wildcats responded with their second 11-0 run of the opening 20 minutes to take a 34-14 lead. Liberty scored six of the last nine points of the opening half, trimming the home squad's lead to 17 points at the break, 37-20. The Flames struck back early in the second half, racking up seven-straight points to cut the Wildcat lead to 37-27 at 17:31. Northwestern countered the spurt, outscoring the Flames 12-6 over a near five-minute span to go up 52-33 with 12:38 left on the clock. Jeremy Anderson sliced the deficit to 16 with trey, 52-36, helping spark a 7-2 jolt by the Flames. The Wildcats then began to gradually extend their advantage to 19, leading 63-44 with 6:46 remaining. Liberty then went on a 9-2 burst to get within 12 points of Northwestern at 2:56, 65-53. The Northwestern closed out the contest with two more baskets to take the contest 69-53, handing the Flames their fifth loss in six games in 2009.
