

Dubbed by the College Soccer News as "A Season to Remember," the Liberty Flames put together arguably the best season in school history in 2007, capturing the program's first-ever Big South Championship for its initial NCAA Tournament appearance. Using head coach Jeff Alder's philosophy of team over individual, the Flames' group effort propelled the squad to 13 wins, the second-most victories in a season in Liberty history.

In each contest, a different player stepped up for the Flames, who used a strong defensive effort to limit opponents' shooting chances and a quick striking, opportunistic offense, in fashioning a 13-5-2 overall mark and a 5-1 Big South record. In addition, Liberty, for the first time in the history of the NSCAA South Atlantic Region Weekly Poll, was ranked among the region's top 10 teams throughout the entire season, reaching its highest ranking of No. 5 on Oct. 2.

On a humid, overcast afternoon in Lynchburg, the Flames opened their season at Liberty Soccer Field against the Mount Vernon Nazarene Mountain Lions with what would become a familiar sight throughout the season in home contests, a shutout. Senior Adrian Bumbut netted his first two goals of the year and fellow senior Toby Lewis scored on a header to lead Liberty to a 3-0 triumph in its opening match of the season.

Four days later, the Flames used an outstanding defensive effort at Campbell to hand the Fighting Camels only their second loss at home in two years. Freshman goalkeeper Paul Gilbert had an excellent night in goal, turning away seven shots, as Liberty made Chris Phillips' blast on the first shot of the game stand up for a 1-0 triumph.

Solid defense continued to be a strong suit in the following contest at Gardner-Webb.

Toby Lewis

Despite seven corner kicks for the Runnin' Bulldogs in the first half, the Liberty defenders allowed only one shot to reach Gilbert in a 0-0 draw at intermission.

However, in the second half, the Flames quickly took control. Junior midfielder Joshua Boateng pounced on a loose ball two minutes into the period and tallied his first marker of the season. Bumbut followed 15 minutes later with a score of his own, as Liberty would go on to defeat Gardner-Webb, 2-1. The home team's goal was the first tally allowed by the Flames in 243:18 to open the year.

During the ensuing week, Alder's club was ranked in the first regional poll. Looking to continue its momentum, Liberty squared off with unbeaten College of Charleston on the first day of the UNCW/Jameson Inn Soccer Classic. The Cougars scored two quick goals after the 65th minute to hand the Flames their first setback of the season in 2-0.

However, the Flames rebounded two days later with a 2-1 victory over host UNC Wilmington. Bumbut found Boateng for a goal in each half of the Flames' triumph. The duo, along with midfielder Daniel McGarry, was named to the all-tournament team at its close. Early in the ensuing week, Boateng garnered Big South Player of the Week honors for his efforts in the weekend tournament.

After four straight road games, the Flames returned home to host Longwood. In an evenly played defensive tilt, the two clubs battled to a 0-0, two overtime draw. A week later, Liberty hosted instate rival Radford in its first conference match-up of the season. The Flames made it two straight shutouts and four on the season in defeating the Highlanders, 3-0. Midfielder Juan Guzman got Liberty on the scoreboard early with his first goal of the year. Lewis and Bumbut added second-half goals in the victory.

The Flames ended September looking to extend their start to 2-0 in the conference and 6-1-1 overall when they closed out their three-game home stand against Winthrop in a much anticipated early Big South match. On a warm afternoon, Liberty struck first, as Bumbut converted a free kick just outside the penalty area for a 1-0 lead less than six minutes into the contest. The Flames then held a talented Eagles defense in check the rest of the way for their third consecutive shutout and fifth of the year.

Off to a good start in conference play and sporting a 7-1-1 record, Liberty entered the month of October with its highest-ever regional ranking in the Oct. 1 South Atlantic Region Poll, being voted No. 5 in the region. In addition, Bumbut was named the Big South Player of the Week for his performances against Radford and Winthrop.

On the field, the Flames' struggled a bit at the start of the year's 10th month. Liberty took to the road for a match at North Carolina, coming up on the short end of a 7-1 score. Four days later, the Flames hosted Marshall in a back-and-forth defensive struggle which ended in a 0-0, two overtime draw.

Liberty continued its shutout streak at home the following week with an 8-0 win over Columbia Union. Senior Brandon Patterson netted a hat trick for the Flames in the win. Alder's club then closed the week by traveling to Conway, S.C., for a meeting with Big South co-leader Coastal Carolina. The Chanticleers scored two early first-half goals, only to see the Flames mount a furious rally in the second half. Lewis cleaned-up a rebound in the contest's 60th minute to cut the Liberty deficit in half and then proceeded to force five keeper saves in the closing minutes. However, the rally fell short as Coastal Carolina held on for a 2-1 win.

Putting their first conference defeat behind them, the Flames quickly got back into the win column in conference play with a 2-0 victory over UNC Asheville. Junior midfielder Chris Mandell found Bumbut with a pass for a tally in the first half, while forward Justin Willoughby scored his first goal of the year in the second half. The shutout ran Liberty's season total to eight.

Once again stepping out of conference, the Flames faced nationally-ranked Virginia in a midweek tilt. Despite outshooting the Cavaliers, 10-9, Liberty did not score in a 3-0 setback.

Standing 8-4-2 overall and 3-1 in the Big South standings, the Flames looked to make a push for a high seed in the conference tournament in their final two matches, both against league rivals. In their last road match of the regular season, Bumbut scored three times and Liberty's defense shut down High Point offensively, after allowing a first half goal, in a 3-1 win to close out October.

Brandon Patterson

As November began, the Flames looked to secure second place in the Big South standings in its final game, a match at home with VMI. Bumbut, McGarry, Guzman and Willoughby all netted goals, as Liberty closed the regular season with a 4-1 win. The VMI goal was the only goal the Flames allowed at Liberty Soccer Field in seven games during 2007.

Before the contest, the nine graduating seniors on the Liberty roster were honored. Part of the largest recruiting class in the program's history, the group played a key role in the development of Liberty soccer over their four years in Lynchburg. Bumbut, David Cassidy, Dan Garber, Andrew Kappler, Jeremiah Kappler, Jon Letsen, Toby Lewis, David McCall and Brandon Patterson were each recognized for their contributions to Liberty soccer.

Finishing the regular season with a 5-1 conference record and a 10-4-2 overall mark, Liberty garnered the No. 2 seed in the 2007 Big South Championship in Rock Hill, S.C., where the Flames opened the tournament on Nov. 15 against the No. 7 seed, UNC Asheville.

The night before the contest, several Flames took home honors at the annual awards banquet. Goalkeeper Gilbert was named the league's Freshman of the Year, while seven Flames earned all-conference team mentions. Bumbut, Guzman and defender Mike Gelatt were named to the All-Big South first team, while Boateng, Gilbert, McGarry and defender Douglas Nyame were selected to the second team.

The following afternoon, Liberty found itself locked in a physical, defensive struggle through the first 62 minutes of play, before UNC Asheville netted the contest's first goal for a 1-0 lead. However, the Flames struck quickly in the game's final eight minutes, as Chastain knotted the game in the 82nd minute and Willoughby scored with 3:19 left to advance the Flames to the next round with a 2-1 win.

In the semifinals, Liberty squared off against No. 3 seed and tournament host Winthrop. Neither team could find the mark in regulation, as the contest headed to over after 90 minutes. And after a scoreless first overtime, the Flames advanced to the Big South Final, when Boateng found the mark for a 1-0 victory.

Two days later, Liberty claimed its first-ever Big South Championship title and an automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament, also its first, with a 2-1 triumph over No. 4 seed Radford. After falling behind 1-0 earlier, Nyame tied the contest late in the first half on header off a corner kick. A few moments later, Chastain beat the Radford keeper for the game-winner.

Liberty's Boateng was named the tournament's MVP, while fellow Flames Chastain, Willoughby and defender Andrew Kappler joined the midfielder on the all-tournament squad. Boateng also earned mention on both the College Soccer News National and Soccer Weekly's Player of the Week teams.

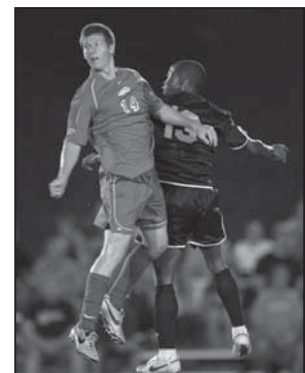

The following week, the Flames played Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference champion Loyola, Md., in the first round of the NCAA Tournament on the Greyhounds' home field in Baltimore, Md. Host Loyola scored two goals in the first half and then held off a strong second-half from the Flames for a 2-0 win in Liberty's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

A few days later, Gelatt became the fourth Liberty student-athlete to be named a first-team ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American. In addition, Boateng, Bumbut and Gelatt were named to the VaSID all-state squad, while Bumbut, Boateng and Guzman earned All-South Atlantic region honors.

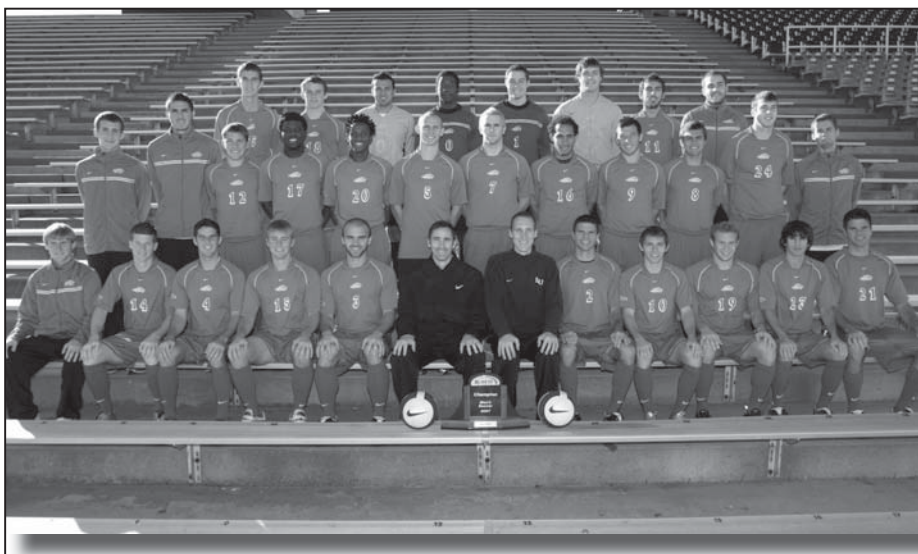

The College Soccer News paid tribute to the 2007 Liberty season by recognizing the Flames as one of 17 Division I programs with "Seasons to Remember." The distinction paid tribute to the programs which "greatly exceeded expectations, or won more games than ever before, or accomplished something that will be a springboard for future seasons, or put together an improbable run." No matter what the reason, the Flames certainly had a "Season to Remember."
