- Liberty has won one set in two NCAA Tournament matches, against No. 7 California in 2007 (30-26 in set two) and at No. 4 Nebraska in 2008 (25-21 in set two).

- Liberty took on No. 11 Minnesota in the first round of the 2012 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championship. The Lady Flames fell to the Golden Gophers, 34-32, in set three. That remains the longest set in an NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championship match under the current 25-point rally-scoring format.

- The Lady Flames are the first Big South volleyball team to win six straight conference regular-season championships, doing so from the 2007 through 2012 seasons. Liberty appeared in the Big South Volleyball Championship final in each of those six seasons, winning the tournament championship in 2007, 2008, 2011 and 2012. The team has won 20 or more matches in seven out of the last 10 seasons, going 206-117 (.637) overall and 114-32 (.780) in conference play during that span.

- On Oct. 3, 2014 at Gardner-Webb, Liberty swept the Runnin' Bulldogs, 3-0, making Pinder the winningest head coach in program history. The next day at UNC Asheville, Pinder became the fourth volleyball coach in Big South history with 200 career wins.
