Game No. 21 - Feb. 2, 2008 - 7 p.m.

WINTHROP Eagles (14-7, 2-1 Big South)

at

LIBERTY Lady Flames (18-2, 3-0 Big South)

Vines Center (8,500) - Lynchburg, Va.

The Game

Two of the Big South's top teams will match up Saturday at 7 p.m. at the Vines Center, as conference leader Liberty (18-2, 3-0 Big South) plays host to second-place Winthrop (14-7, 2-1 Big South). The Lady Flames will look to close out their three-game homestand with their ninth-straight home victory. Liberty will also seek its 25th-consecutive win in the head-to-head series with the Eagles.

The Last Time Out

Liberty overcame an off shooting night by dominating the boards, Tuesday evening against High Point. The Lady Flames shot just 37.3 percent from the field, but outbounded the Panthers by 17 caroms in a 76-57 conference win. Sisters Megan and Moriah Frazee led the way with 22 and 20 points, respectively. Lady Flame junior Rebecca Lightfoot posted her first career double-double, with 10 points and 10 boards.

Lady Flames On The Air

All Lady Flames basketball games can be heard LIVE on WWMC 90.9 FM "The Light." Jamie Hall, who is celebrating his 14th year of broadcasting Lady Flames basketball, will once again be handling the courtside play-by-play duties for most road games. Due to Hall's television responsibilities, Jerod Brooks will serve as the primary commentator for home games. Nick Pierce will step in as tonight's radio play-by-play voice.

Lady Flames On TV

For the fifth year in a row, the Flames Television Network (FTN) plans to broadcast all 13 home women's basketball games. FTN's regular announcing team consists of Ray Jones on play-by-play and Jamie Hall on color.

Women's Basketball Game Notes

Liberty University Head Coach: Carey Green (Coastal Carolina, '79)

Record at Liberty: 203-66 (Ninth year)

Overall Record: Same

You must be doing something right as a collegiate head women's basketball coach, if a 19-12 season is considered to be a bit of a letdown by many observers. That's just the case for Carey Green, the ninth-year head coach of the Liberty Lady Flames, who has raised the program's standards to an extremely high level.

Green has accumulated a 203-66 record on the Liberty bench, good for a winning percentage of .755. He ranked 12th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches in winning percentage, at the beginning of the season.

More importantly, Liberty has won the Big South Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament seven times with Green as head coach. Liberty has totaled 23 or more victories during six of those years, including the 2004-05 season, which saw the Lady Flames reach the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history.

Green has actually been to the postseason on 19 occasions as a women's basketball coach, a span which includes a dozen years as an assistant coach at Clemson. In all but one of the 19 appearances, he has experienced the NCAA Tournament.

Last season, the Lady Flames went 19-12 and tied for second place in the Big South. The season was highlighted by a 75-71 win at Virginia, which made the Lady Flames the first visiting team ever to triumph in the brand-new John Paul Jones Arena.

Rebounding and defense have always been staples of Green-coached teams, and the 2006-07 Lady Flames were no exception. Liberty outrebounded opponents by an average of 10.6 caroms per game, ranking fifth nationally. The Lady Flames have now been listed among the nation's top five teams in rebounding margin for four-straight years. Liberty led the nation in the category in both 2003-04 and 2004-05.

The 2005-06 season represented one of the best coaching jobs of Green's career. The Lady Flames had lost the top four scorers from the Sweet 16 squad to graduation. Moreover, freshman Megan Frazee averaged 18.5 points and 9.8 rebounds per game through the first 14 games of her collegiate career, but was lost for the remainder of the season due to injury. Yet, Liberty was still able to win 25 games, capture its 10th-straight Big South title and earn its 10th-consecutive NCAA Tournament berth.

Green's efforts were recognized by both the Big South Conference and the Virginia Sports Information Directors (VaSID). Both groups named Green as women's basketball coach of the year at season's end. It was the third time he has won each of those honors and marked Green's second-straight selection as VaSID Coach of the Year.

A key late-season conference victory over High Point in 2006 made Green the winningest coach in Big South Conference history. The previous season, Green had passed Rick Reeves as Liberty's career wins leader.

The record-setting victory was just one of the many reasons the 2004-05 year was a special one on Liberty Mountain. A senior-laden Lady Flames team recorded upset wins over No. 4 seed Penn State (78-70) and No. 5 seed DePaul (88-79) in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, becoming just the second team ever to advance to the Sweet 16 as a No. 13 seed. The Lady Flames ended the season with their highest national ranking to date, No. 21 (USA Today/ESPN).

Green's track record shows he has the ability to meet strong challenges. The Lady Flames have recorded two wins each over UNLV, Virginia and West Virginia and solo victories over No. 19 DePaul, James Madison, No. 17 Kansas State, No. 25 Penn State, Xavier and Wake Forest during Green's tenure. The upset victory over No. 25 Virginia in 2002 marked Liberty's first win over a Top 25 team.

His record against conference foes is equally impressive. He led the Lady Flames on a Big South-record 47-game winning streak and currently has a .913 (126-12) winning percentage against conference teams. Green has marched through conference play with one or fewer setbacks five times, while guiding the Lady Flames to two undefeated conference seasons.

2007-08 Liberty University Women's Basketball Game Notes

Scouting Winthrop

The Winthrop Eagles went 6-26 a season ago without a single upperclassman on their roster. This year, with nine letterwinners back in the fold, Winthrop has already matched a program Division I record with 14 victories. The Eagles opened their Big South slate with wins over High Point and Charleston Southern and are currently tied for second in the conference standings at 2-1.

Defense has been the key to Winthrop's early-season success, as the Eagles rank third in the nation (behind Connecticut and Rutgers) in field goal percentage defense. (Liberty ranks fifth nationally in the category.) Opponents are shooting just 33.4 percent from the field against Winthrop this season.

Ashley Fann, a 6-0 junior forward, is the reigning Big South Player of the Week and has done it all for Winthrop this year. She leads the squad in points (13.5 ppg), rebounds (6.5 rpg) and steals (1.2 spg). Fann also recently eclipsed the 1,000-point barrier. Classmate Tiffany Rodd is the Eagles' top outside sharpshooter. She is connecting on 40.9 of her tries from long distance and has made a team-high 56 three-pointers.

The Coaching Matchup

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green is in his ninth season with the Lady Flames. He owns a 203-66 career record and is the all-time wins leader at Liberty and among Big South women's basketball coaches. His career winning percentage (.755) ranked 12th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the beginning of the season. Green is 19-0 against the Eagles in his career.

Bud Childers owns a record of 36-74 in his fourth season at Winthrop. He is 423-313 in 26 total seasons as a collegiate head coach, including time at Cumberland College, Montevallo, Murray State, Louisville and James Madison. Childers is 1-8 against Liberty, with his one win coming during 1996-97, when he was at Louisville.

Liberty-Winthrop Series Notes

Saturday's contest will be the 40th meeting between Liberty and Winthrop. The Lady Flames are 33-6 in the series and have won 24-straight matchups against the Eagles. Liberty is 18-1 all-time versus Winthrop at the Vines Center.

The Lady Flames took both of last season's meetings, winning by a 69-42 count in Lynchburg on Jan. 22 and running to a 77-52 win at Winthrop on Feb. 13. Rachel Hammond scored 10 points in Liberty's home triumph against the Eagles and has scored in double figures three times in four career meetings with Winthrop.

Winthrop's last win against the Lady Flames was a 71-66 home decision in the 1996-97 regular-season finale, on Feb. 22, 1997. Jennifer Churchill paced the Eagles with 21 points and 11 rebounds, while freshman Elena Kisseleva sparked Liberty with 23 markers. Liberty won its first of 10 Big South Championships a week later.

2007-08 Liberty University Women's Basketball Game Notes

Liberty in Big South Home Contests

With Liberty's 76-57 over High Point in its Big South home opener on Tuesday, the Lady Flames are now 91-22 (.805) all-time in Big South Conference home games. Since Carey Green took over as head coach in 1999-2000, Liberty is 52-5 (.912) at the Vines Center.

Liberty has posted a home conference record of .500 or better 15 times in 16 seasons as a Big South member. The only exception was a 2-5 home ledger in 1995-96.

Home Cooking

Liberty is 8-0 at the Vines Center during the 2007-08 campaign, but the Lady Flames are not the only Liberty athletic team which has flourished at the Vines Center.

Liberty is unbeaten in the last 30 athletic contests played at the 17-year-old on-campus facility, since the volleyball team lost to James Madison on Sept. 18. The Liberty netters won 11-straight matches to end the year, the wrestling team tied N.C. State and the Flames men's basketball team has been victorious in its first 10 home decisions of the season.

Big South Recognition

Liberty became the first conference team to garner a quartet of Big South Player of the Week honors this season, and Megan Frazee became the first three-time winner of the award. Frazee earned the honor on Nov. 26, Jan. 7 and Jan. 21, while sister Moriah Frazee was recognized on Dec. 10. Megan Frazee has captured nine Big South Player of the Week awards in her career, while the conference honor was the first of sister Moriah Frazee's time at Liberty.

Triple Digits Inside the Furnace

Liberty's 100-29 victory over Virginia Union on Nov. 30 marked the Lady Flames' first 100-point game since a 103-61 triumph over Cedarville, Dec. 13, 1997 at the Vines Center. It was the Lady Flames' first 100-point output since Carey Green took over as head coach, prior to the 1999-200 season. In fact, Green's Liberty teams, which have been built around rebounding and defense, have only gone over the 90-point plateau seven times in his nine seasons.

Winningest Active Coaches

After the completion of his eighth season, Liberty Head Coach Carey Green remains in elite company. Green ranked as the 12th-winningest head coach among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the beginning of the 2007-08 season, with his .743 winning percentage.

2007-08 Liberty University
Women's Basketball Game Notes

Fabulous in February

Liberty has won 79 of its last 83 games played during the month of February, dating back to the 1997 Big South Championship. The only teams to defeat the Lady Flames during February since then are High Point (three times) and UNC Asheville (one time).

Liberty owns a 160-120 all-time mark during the year's second month, including a 60-4 record under Carey Green's direction. The Lady Flames, 6-2 in February a year ago, have seven February contests on the schedule in 2007-08.

A Perfect January

Liberty finished the month of January 7-0, recording its first unbeaten month since February 2006. The Lady Flames outscored their opponents by an average of 21.1 ppg during the month. Liberty was paced by Megan Frazee, who shot 57.8 percent from the field, averaged 19.4 ppg and 8.7 rpg and captured a pair of Big South Player of the Week honors.

Lady Flames Battled Wide Range of Non-Conference Foes

This season, Liberty has faced teams from 11 different Division I conferences during its non-conference slate. These include the ACC (North Carolina and Virginia Tech), America East (Binghamton), the Atlantic Sun (East Tennessee State), the Atlantic 10 (Richmond and Xavier), the CAA (George Mason and James Madison), Conference USA (Houston), the MAC (Ball State), the MEAC (North Carolina A&T), the Mountain West (UNLV), the Southern (UNC Greensboro) and the Southland (McNeese State).

A Tradition of Success

Lady Flame seniors Allyson Fasnacht, Egle Smigelskaite and Courtney Watkins have been a part of 88 victories in their three-plus years with the program and have won at a .765 clip. The trio is the last portion of the 2005 "Sweet 16" qualifier remaining on the Liberty roster.

The Bench Bunch

Liberty's bench players, highlighted by Molly Frazee, Rachel Hammond and Rachel McLeod, have been a key component in the Lady Flames' success. The Lady Flames' reserves have outscored their opponent's counterparts in 12 of 20 games this year. Liberty is averaging 21.2 bench points per contest, 5.3 more than its opponents. Four times (Glenville State, Richmond, Virginia Tech and Xavier), the Lady Flames have limited their foe to four or fewer bench points.

Ahead at the Half

The Lady Flames have taken a lead into the locker room at halftime in 16 of 20 games this season. Liberty is outscoring opponents by an average of 10.5 points in the first half and has owned a double-digit advantage at the break four-straight times. The Lady Flames have translated halftime advantages into victories on 15 occasions, including the last 13 times in succession.

Green's Milestone Win

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green reached a coaching milestone on Jan. 19, as the Lady Flames' 82-53 triumph at Charleston Southern was No. 200 of his nine-year career. He became the first Big South women's basketball coach to reach 200 wins and fittingly, his milestone came against a Big South foe. Green has posted 126 of his 203 victories (over 62 percent) against conference opposition.

Green's 100th win also came during the "Beach Trip," on Jan. 17, 2004 at Coastal Carolina. Liberty's head coach notched a 69-58 win over his alma mater, aided by 25 points and 11 rebounds from Katie Feenstra.

Liberty in the NCAA Rankings

Liberty is ranked in the top 25 nationally in six statistical categories in the most recent report, through the games of Jan. 27. The Lady Flames stand fifth in field goal percentage defense (.339), ninth in won-lost percentage (.895), ninth in field goal percentage (.472), 12th in scoring margin (+17.1), 13th in rebounding margin (+8.8) and 18th in scoring defense (54.8 ppg).

Additionally, junior Megan Frazee sits 13th in the nation in free throw percentage (.878).

Green Tops in Big South

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green currently ranks as the winningest coach in Big South Conference history with a .755 winning percentage. His 203 career wins also put him atop the conference's coaching list.

Green is 104-11 in Big South Conference games and is the all-time leader in Big South Conference victories. He passed former Radford coach Luby Lichonczak with a home win over Charleston Southern, Feb. 19, 2007.

Liberty Wraps Up Another Winning Season

With a Jan. 21 win at Coastal Carolina, Liberty's 16th of the year, the Lady Flames clinched their 12th-consecutive winning season and the 16th in program history.

Additionally, Liberty has recorded 13 winning seasons in its 20 campaigns as a NCAA Division I member. Below is a list of the previous years the Lady Flames have finished above the .500 mark.

2006-07	19-12	1998-99	21-8
2005-06	25-6	1997-98	28-1
2004-05	26-7	1996-97	22-8
2003-04	25-7	1992-93	16-12
2002-03	26-4	1983-84	13-11
2001-02	23-8	1976-77	8-4
2000-01	18-12	1975-76	7-1
1999-2000	23-8

Competing with the Commonwealth

Liberty is slated to play seven games against teams from the Commonwealth of Virginia during the 2007-08 season. The Lady Flames are 4-1 versus in-state foes so far, defeating Virginia Union (Nov. 30), James Madison (Dec. 4), Richmond (Jan. 5) and George Mason (Jan. 15) and losing at Virginia Tech (Nov. 19).

Later on this season, the Lady Flames are scheduled to play Radford twice (Feb. 6 and March 7). A year ago, the Lady Flames were victorious in six of 10 games against Commonwealth opposition.

A Hard Row to Hoe

Six of Liberty's 2006-07 opponents earned spots in the NCAA Tournament (George Washington, James Madison, Marist, Pittsburgh, Texas-Arlington and UNC Asheville), and this season's schedule appears to be just as difficult.

The Lady Flames will face a quartet of 2007 NCAA Tournament teams this season, including Final Four team North Carolina, James Madison, UNC Asheville and Xavier. Liberty has 11 regular-season games slated versus 20-win squads from a season ago. Eight of the contests against 20-win teams will be played away from the Vines Center.

Coach Carey Green Versus The Big South

Liberty is 126-12 (.913) against Big South opponents under Carey Green's direction since he took the helm of the program prior to the 1999-2000 campaign. The Lady Flames are 104-11 in regular season conference games and 22-1 in the Big South Championship.

The Lady Flames have not lost to current Big South members Coastal Carolina (20-0), Charleston Southern (19-0) and Winthrop (19-0) with Green as head coach.

Lady Flames Excel in the Classroom

Liberty is not only enjoying a string of success on the hardwood, but the Lady Flames have received national recognition for their work in the classroom. Liberty ranked a program-best seventh in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Top 25 Honor Roll this past season on the strength of its 3.508 team GPA.

This is the fourth time in program history the Lady Flames have been included in the Top 25 Honor Roll. Liberty tied for 14th during the 2005-06 academic year and ranked 13th in 1999-2000, Carey Green's first season at Liberty. The Lady Flames were also 12th in 1998-99.

Out of the Gate Quickly

Liberty opened Big South play with wins at Charleston Southern and Coastal Carolina on Jan. 19 and 21, marking the ninth-straight year the Lady Flames have completed the "Beach Trip" with a 2-0 record. Liberty has never lost to either the Lady Buccaneers or Chanticleers under head coach Carey Green's direction, going 39-0 against the pair of South Carolina institutions.

Liberty is now 3-0 to open conference play for the ninth time in 17 seasons as a Big South member. The Lady Flames went on to win the Big South title on each of the previous eight occasions.

Bouncing Back with a Win

Liberty has never lost back-to-back Big South Conference games under Carey Green's direction. In fact, the Lady Flames have not lost consecutive conference tilts since Feb. 20 & 22, 1997, when Liberty fell to UNC Greensboro and Winthrop in its last two regular-season contests.

Scorching the Nets Inside the Furnace

The Lady Flames shot 58.6 percent from the field against Presbyterian on Jan. 26, the fourth time in eight home games Liberty has shot over 50 percent. For the year, the Lady Flames are sinking 50.1 percent of their field goal tries at the Vines Center.

2007-08 Liberty University Women's Basketball Game Notes

Receiving Some Recognition

Liberty received its first Top 25 vote of the season in the Dec. 10 AP Top 25 poll. The Lady Flames notched a season-high eight votes on Dec. 24 and earned two votes in the most recent poll, released on Jan. 28.

In the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 Poll, Liberty garnered its first vote on Dec. 18 and received a season-best 14 votes in this week's poll, announced Jan. 29. The Lady Flames tied Hartford for the 33rd-most votes in the most recent poll.

Composure in Close Situations

The Lady Flames are 6-1 in games decided by 10 points or less during the 2007-08 campaign, after prevailing in their last five single-digit decisions. By contrast, Liberty was only 6-10 in such games a season ago.

At Home on the Road

Liberty has only played eight home games out of its first 20 contests of the season. However, the Lady Flames have not minded life on the road, as evidenced by their 7-2 road ledger. Liberty opened the year with consecutive road triumphs and later claimed tournament championships with victories at Xavier (Nov. 25) and UNLV (Dec. 21).

Liberty is 76-35 in road games under Green's guidance, winning at a .685 rate. The Lady Flames have posted six-straight winning seasons on the road.

Triple the Trouble

Liberty sports the only set of triplets currently playing for the same NCAA Division I women's basketball team--juniors Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee. Through 20 games, the Frazees are averaging 38.4 points and 18.9 rebounds per outing, good for 53.2 percent of the Lady Flames' scoring output and 45.3 percent of the team's boards. Collectively, the Frazee triplets have totaled 2,346 career points and 1,241 career rebounds.

Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee started together for the first time this season, Dec. 8 versus Binghamton, helping the Lady Flames defeat the Bearcats. The triplets were a part of the same starting lineup on eight occasions during the 2006-07 season.

One of the Frazees has led Liberty in scoring in 19 of this season's first 20 games. Allyson Fasnacht notched a team-high 19 markers at UNLV, Dec. 21.

Reaching a Pair of Milestones

Junior Megan Frazee recently reached a pair of career milestones. She became the 19th Lady Flame ever to pull down 500 rebounds, Dec. 21 at UNLV. Frazee then scored career point No. 1,000 at No. 4 North Carolina, Dec. 30. The guard/forward is the 11th member of Liberty's 1,000-point club and is the third fastest to reach the mark, doing so in her 58th career game.

Frazee is the sixth Lady Flame to top both 1,000 career points and 500 career rebounds. Katie Feenstra, Elena Kisseleva, Sharon Snodgrass, Pam Wilder and Sharon Wilkerson are the other members of this exclusive club.

Liberty's Iron Woman

Liberty senior shooting guard Courtney Watkins has yet to miss a contest, in the first three-plus seasons of her Lady Flame career. Her consecutive games played streak currently sits at 115. Liberty's contest against Houston on Nov. 24 was Watkins' 100th-consecutive game played for the Lady Flames. If she can stay healthy, she is on track to break 2007 graduate Michelle Parker's Liberty and Big South records for career games played during the Lady Flames' second contest at the Big South Women's Basketball Championship. Parker finished with 125 career games played.

Juniors Molly and Moriah Frazee have also played in every game since they have been a part of the Liberty roster. Each of them has appeared in 82-straight contests.

2007-08 Liberty University Women's Basketball Game Notes

Winning Streaks

The Lady Flames are currently on a seven-game winning streak, as they have not dropped a decision since an 88-67 setback at North Carolina on Dec. 30. Through the games of Jan. 30, Liberty is tied with LSU for the 15th-longest active streak in the nation. No. 1 Connecticut has won a nation-high 20-straight games to open the season. The Lady Flames are also tied for the 10th-longest streak in program history.

Liberty previously won nine-straight contests this year, spanning Nov. 23-Dec. 21. The nine-game run was the ninth-longest winning streak in Liberty history. Below are the Lady Flames' 10 longest winning skeins.

1)	28 games	(Nov. 21, 1997 - Feb. 28, 1998)
2)	22 games	(Dec. 21, 2002 - March 9, 2003)
3)	19 games	(Jan. 6, 2004 - March 13, 2004)
4)	14 games	(Jan. 28, 2006 - March 11, 2006)
5)	13 games	(Jan. 24, 2002 - March 2, 2002)
T6)	12 games	(Jan. 23, 1999 - Feb. 27, 1999)
T6)	12 games	(Jan. 15, 2005 - Feb. 21, 2005)
8)	11 games	(Feb. 3, 2000 - March 4, 2000)
9)	9 games	(Nov. 23, 2007 - Dec. 21, 2007)
T10)	7 games	(Jan. 20, 1976 - Nov. 26, 1977) *spans two seasons
T10)	7 games	(Feb. 28, 2005 - March 22, 2005)
T10)	7 games	(Jan. 5, 2008 - Jan. 29, 2008)

Sister Act

Megan Frazee scored a game-high 22 points during Tuesday's win over High Point, while sister Moriah Frazee added a career-best 20 markers. The duo became the first set of sisters in the nation to score 20 points or more in the same game this season.

The feat is not unprecedented in Liberty women's basketball history. Twin sisters Sarah and Sharon Wilkerson, who played for the Lady Flames from 1997-2000, both went over the 20-point mark in the same contest four times during their career.

Molly Frazee, the third member of Liberty's triplets, joined her sisters in double digits during Tuesday's contest, tallying 11 points against the Panthers. The game marked the fourth time this year, and the second in a row, all three Frazees reached double figures. The Frazees also accomplished the feat three times during the 2006-07 campaign, bumping their career total to seven.

Double-Doubles

Junior Rebecca Lightfoot recorded her first career double-double against High Point, finishing with 10 points and 10 boards. She is one of three current Lady Flames with a double-double to her credit. Moriah Frazee's lone double-double consisted of 16 points and 11 caroms, Nov. 24 versus Houston.

Megan Frazee has posted 30 career double-doubles, eight of which have come this season. She leads all Big South performers in the category.

Recipe for Success

Several common themes have consistently contributed to Liberty wins this season. The Lady Flames are unbeaten when they lead with five minutes remaining (17-0), when they outshoot their opponent (17-0), when the opponent attempts more three-pointers (17-0), when they attempt more free throws (15-0) and when they control the tip (13-0).

Liberty's favorite day of the week is a popular one among college students. The Lady Flames have thrived in Saturday contests, going 6-0 overall and 4-0 at the Vines Center.

The Container is Half Full

Liberty shot the ball well during its first three home games this year, connecting on more than 50 percent of its field goals in each contest. The string included a school and facility-record 64.6 percent outburst against Virginia Union in the Nov. 30 home opener.

Liberty has won all six games this season in which it has shot 50 percent or better and is 46-0 in such contests under head coach Carey Green.

Cleaning the Glass

The Lady Flames have outrebounded their opponents in 15 of their last 17 outings. For the season, Liberty has won the rebounding battle 16 out of 20 times and is 15-1 when it does so.

Lack of Overtime

The Lady Flames' 64-62 overtime setback at High Point on Jan. 20, 2007 marked the first time in Liberty's previous 101 contests it had to play extra time.

The Lady Flames' most recent win in overtime came on Jan. 6, 2004, when Liberty defeated American, 76-72, on the road in double overtime. No current Lady Flame has won an overtime contest in college.

Liberty's most recent overtime contest at the Vines Center was a memorable one. The Lady Flames defeated Virginia, 77-69, in overtime on Nov. 26, 2002, to claim their first-ever win over the Cavaliers.

Hot in the Furnace

The 2007-08 campaign is the 16th season the Liberty University women's basketball team has called the Vines Center its full-time home. Liberty's first-ever contest at the Vines Center was an 86-74 loss to East Tennessee State, on Dec. 7, 1990, but the "Furnace" has served as a favorable venue for the Lady Flames over the years. Liberty is 173-49 (.779) all-time at the Vines Center, including 8-0 this season.

Long Distance Connection

The Lady Flames have made at least one three-pointer in a school-record 91-straight games, a streak which began on Feb. 26, 2005. Liberty set the mark at UNLV on Dec. 21. The Lady Flames previously went 82-consecutive games with a three-pointer between Jan. 24, 1998 and Dec. 20, 2000.

First Since Feenstra

Junior forward Moriah Frazee tallied a career-high 20 points against High Point during Tuesday's victory over High Point. She became the first Liberty player other than sister Megan Frazee to reach the 20-point plateau since March 22, 2005, when Katie Feenstra totaled 29 points against DePaul, enabling the Lady Flames to reach the "Sweet 16."

Megan Frazee accumulated 24 games of 20-plus points during the intervening period, including a 22-point outing on Tuesday.

Feasting at the Foul Line

Liberty led the Big South Conference in free throw percentage a season ago, connecting on 70.3 percent of its charity tosses. The Lady Flames are off to an even better start from the line through their first 20 games of the 2007-08 season. Liberty is shooting 74.4 percent at the free throw line, a mark superior to the school record of 71.7 percent, achieved in 1997-98. The Lady Flames rank 30th in the nation in the category.

Megan Frazee is leading the way, connecting on a conference-leading 87.1 percent of her free throws. She has posted separate streaks of 19 and 18-consecutive made charity tosses during the 2007-08 season.

Miss Consistency

Junior Megan Frazee has scored in double figures in each of her last 32 games, dating back to Jan. 27, 2007. It is the longest such streak of her career and the longest by a Liberty player since Elena Kisseleva scored 10 or more points in 62-straight contests, a streak which began in 1996-97 and ended in 1998-99.

Frazee has only scored nine or fewer points on four occasions at Liberty, and the Ohioan has never done so in consecutive outings.

Clamping Down on Defense

The Lady Flames have held their last 39 opponents under 50 percent from the field. The last Liberty foe to shoot 50 percent or higher was Marist, at the Maryland Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29, 2006.

Liberty has limited half of its 20 opponents to 35 percent or lower field goal efficiency this season, and the opposition is shooting just 34.0 percent versus the Lady Flames. Liberty ranks No. 5 nationally in the category.

No Offense, No Problem

Liberty defeated Richmond on Jan. 5 despite scoring a season-low 45 points and making just three field goals after halftime. The Lady Flames had not scored that few points in a victory since taking a 36-32 defensive struggle from Radford, Jan. 27, 2001.

Rewriting the Record Book

Liberty set or tied a number of records during its 100-29 victory over Virginia Union on Nov. 30. Here is a look at some of the notable accomplishments from the contest:

- The Lady Flames' field goal percentage (.646, 42-65) set new team and Vines Center single-game records.
- Liberty's 11 three-pointers equaled the most the Lady Flames have ever made in a game at the Vines Center.
- Liberty's 33 assists set a program NCAA Division I record.
- Moriah Frazee went 8-for-8 from the field to establish a new Vines Center record for single-game field goal percentage.
- Liberty's 100 points marked the eighth time in program history the Lady Flames have scored in triple digits.

Lady Flames in Elite Company

Liberty is both shooting the ball well from the field and limiting its opponents' field goal percentage this season. The Lady Flames rank ninth nationally in field goal percentage (.472) and are fifth in field goal percentage defense (.339).

No. 1 Connecticut is the only other team in the nation to rank in the top 10 of both statistical categories. The unbeaten Huskies are third in field goal percentage and first in field goal percentage defense.

Tournament Success

Liberty claimed its second tournament championship of the season with a 70-68 victory over host UNLV in the title tilt of the inaugural Lady Rebel Christmas Classic on Dec. 21. Megan Frazee was voted tournament MVP and sister Moriah Frazee joined her on the all-tournament team.

The Lady Flames previously won the championship trophy at the Nov. 23-25 National City Xavier Invitational in Cincinnati, Ohio. Liberty won all three of its games, becoming only the second visiting team ever to capture first place in the tournament. Megan Frazee garnered tournament MVP honors after spearheading Liberty's second-half comeback against Xavier and Moriah Frazee made the all-tournament team.

It is believed to be the first time in Liberty history the Lady Flames have won a pair of in-season tournaments during a single campaign.

Game 1
Greensboro, N.C.

Liberty opened the second half with a 13-0 run, breaking open a tight, season-opening contest at UNC Greensboro. The Lady Flames went on to claim a 62-44 win at Fleming Gym, Tuesday evening, opening its season with a road win for the first time since the 1979-80 campaign. Molly Frazee's career-best 17 points helped Liberty open its 2007-08 season at 1-0. The Lady Flames forced 19 turnovers, limited the Spartans to 32.6 percent from the field and owned a 42-25 edge on the glass. UNC Greensboro fashioned an early 7-0 run, taking a 9-2 advantage on a pair of Agne Girstautaitė free throws at the 12:53 mark. The Lady Flames held UNCG scoreless for nearly six minutes late in the half and were able to open up their largest advantage of the opening 20 minutes, 23-17, on Rachel Hammond's third field goal of the half. Liberty owned a 23-21 halftime edge. Megan Frazee initiated a 13-0 second half-opening run by the Lady Flames with a pair of layups. Rebecca Lightfoot's 10-foot baseline jumper with 14:30 left ended the run and put Liberty on top by a 36-21 count. Molly Frazee later poured in eight-straight points to highlight a 12-0 Liberty run, which gave Liberty a 20-point lead, 50-30, with 7:05 remaining. From that point on, the Lady Flames cruised to their fourth-consecutive victory in a season opener and defeated the Spartans for the first time since March 1, 1997.

Game 2
Greensboro, N.C.

Megan Frazee's first double-double of the season (16 points, 10 rebounds), Courtney Watkins' career-high 15 points and a late 10-0 run added up to Liberty's second win in Greensboro, N.C., in four days. The Lady Flames held off North Carolina A&T by a 68-64 score, at the Corbett Sports Center. A three-pointer by Rachel McLeod capped an 11-0 Liberty surge during the opening half, putting the Lady Flames on top, 26-17. Liberty, which shot 51.9 percent from the field during the opening 20 minutes, took a 41-34 lead into the locker room. The homestanding Aggies whittled away at the Liberty advantage throughout the second half. A 13-5 surge cut the deficit to a single point, 53-52, with 13:10 left. A Ta'Wuana Cook three-pointer and two Lamona Smalley foul shots put North Carolina A&T ahead, 59-57, at 4:29. Liberty responded with a 10-0 run, spanning the next 4:09 and featuring a Courtney Watkins triple and an Allyson Fasnacht three-point play. Watkins' three-pointer gave the Lady Flames the lead for good. A Megan Frazee lay-up finished the span and lifted the Lady Flames to a 67-59 edge with just 37 seconds left. The Aggies quickly trimmed the margin to three points, after a Brittany Taylor-James three-pointer and a Jaleesa Sams layup. Fasnacht then sealed Liberty's second-straight road victory to start the season, when her charity toss provided the final margin of 68-64.

Game 3
Blacksburg, Va.

Liberty opened up a 10-point halftime lead at Virginia Tech, but the Hokies came out of the intermission on a 23-6 run, propelling them to a 73-68 decision at Cassell Coliseum. Virginia Tech improved to 14-0 all-time versus Liberty. The Hokies controlled the early part of the game, and a 7-0 run capped by a Brittany Cook layup at 12:00 put them on top, 16-9. Six different Lady Flames scored during their most effective stretch of the first half, a 13-2 surge. Rachel McLeod's close-range basket lifted Liberty to a 38-28 advantage, and the Lady Flames took the same 10-point edge (40-30) into the locker room. It took the Hokies just 3:14 to erase Liberty's lead, and the home team had built a 53-46 edge, a little over six minutes into the half. The Lady Flames battled back and briefly retook the lead at the 3:44 mark, when Moriah Frazee's layup made the count 62-61, Liberty. The score was deadlocked at 64 apiece when an intentional foul call paved the way for a four-point Hokie possession. The Lady Flames were unable to get any closer the rest of the way, and Virginia Tech made three-of-four charity tosses in the final minute to seal its 73-68 triumph. The Hokies received 29 points from freshman Andrea Barbour and 22 markers from Brittany Cook. Liberty's Moriah Frazee contributed 14 points and eight rebounds.

Game 4
Cincinnati, Ohio

Liberty shot a season-best 55.2 percent from the field and all 11 players scored during a 92-52 win over McNeese State, the opening game of the National City Xavier Invitational. The Lady Flames made their first three shots of the evening, culminating with a fast break layup by Rebecca Lightfoot at 17:35, which put Liberty on top by a 6-0 count. After Marcy Robinson got McNeese State on the scoreboard with a mid-range jumper at the 16:18 mark, Liberty answered with 14-consecutive points. The Lady Flames' run included a trio of three-pointers, and the Liberty advantage ballooned to 20-2 when Molly Frazee sank a pair of free throws at 11:53. The Lady Flames' lead reached 40 points, 55-15, 1:09 before the half, when Moriah Frazee made a basket in the paint to cap a 7-0 burst. Liberty took a 57-18 lead into the locker room at halftime, after connecting on 64.5 percent (20-of-31) of their field goals and six three-pointers during the opening 20 minutes. The Cowgirls scored four of the first five points to start the second half, closing the gap to 58-22 on Robinson's hoop with 18:33 remaining. Alexandria Bream recorded seven-straight Liberty points near the middle of the second half, the last two of which increased the Lady Flame edge to 82-35. From that point on, Liberty cruised to a 92-52 victory, scoring 90-plus points for the sixth time under head coach Carey Green's direction. Megan Frazee finished with 21 points and seven rebounds in just 16 minutes of work, in a return to her home state of Ohio.

Game 5
Cincinnati, Ohio

Sisters Megan and Moriah Frazee both fashioned double-doubles against Houston and Liberty held off the Cougars' valiant comeback attempt to prevail, 70-61. Megan and Moriah Frazee combined to score the Lady Flames' first 14 points of the evening, but a Ryan Bradley three-pointer for Houston knotted the score at 10-10 with 14:11 left in the first half. Liberty answered with a 12-3 spurt, featuring two field goals apiece by Molly Frazee and Rebecca Lightfoot. At the conclusion of the run, Liberty's lead was 22-13 at 8:26. Houston came right back with a 16-4 run, taking its first lead of the game, 29-26, on Tye Jackson's three-pointer from the corner, 26 seconds before intermission. Molly Frazee's triple tied the score at 29-all, heading to the locker room. The duo of Megan and Moriah Frazee got Liberty started in the second half, notching the first 10 points of a half-opening 12-2 burst. Courtney Watkins' coast-to-coast layup at the 14:52 mark pushed the Lady Flames' lead to 41-31. Liberty's advantage reached 17, 61-44, before Houston's final comeback attempt. The Cougars put together a 13-1 surge, trimming the deficit to 62-57 when Courtney Taylor cashed out a pair of free throws with 1:15 left. Liberty then put the game away with five-straight points of its own, on its way to a 70-61 decision in its first-ever meeting with Houston. Megan Frazee's 25th career double-double included 19 points and 12 boards, while Moriah Frazee's first double-double featured 16 points and 11 rebounds.

Game 6
Cincinnati, Ohio

With her team trailing host Xavier by 11 points in the second half of the National City Xavier Invitational championship game, Liberty's Megan Frazee took over offensively. She scored 21 of her game-high points after halftime, earning tournament MVP honors and leading the Lady Flames to a 61-56 victory. A pair of Amber Harris three-pointers enabled the Musketeers to start out with an 8-2 lead. It took just over a minute for Liberty to respond with seven-straight markers. A Molly Frazee three-pointer from the wing put the Lady Flames in front, 9-8, at the 13:06 mark. Xavier countered with an extended 17-3 run, featuring three triples. Ta'Shia Phillips pair of free throws 4:51 before halftime, gave the home team its largest lead of the afternoon, 25-12. Liberty cut into the lead with a 9-2 run, which ended with a long three-pointer by Megan Frazee. At halftime, the Lady Flames trailed by nine points, 30-21. The Xavier edge reached 11 before Liberty started to chip away at it. A 9-3 Lady Flame burst trimmed the gap to 35-30, after Moriah Frazee's three-pointer with 14:33 remaining. Liberty got to within a single point three times before breaking through with a decisive 10-0 run. Megan Frazee recorded the final eight points of the run, including a pair of free throws at 5:00. Her foul shots gave the Lady Flames the lead for good at 49-48. By the time the run was completed, Liberty was up, 55-48, and went on to claim victory.

Game 7
Lynchburg, Va.

Playing its home opener after six games away from the Vines Center, the Lady Flames shot a team and Vines Center-record 64.6 percent from the field in a 100-29 win over Virginia Union. The Lady Flames scored 100 points for the first time in Carey Green's nine seasons at the helm. The Lady Flames and Panthers combined to score on their first seven possessions of the game. Liberty owned a 9-6 advantage after the barrage, which featured a pair of hoops by Moriah Frazee. Liberty held Virginia Union to a single field goal over a 12-and-a-half minute span. During the stretch, the Lady Flames ripped off a 34-2 run. Liberty connected on six triples during the extended surge, two apiece by Alexandria Bream and Allyson Fasnacht, taking a 41-8 lead. A Dashia Chandler three-point play kick-started an ensuing 5-0 Virginia Union surge. However, Liberty tallied eight of the half's final 10 markers to claim a 49-15 halftime edge. The Lady Flames posted 28 of the second half's first 32 points, taking a 77-19 lead on Rebecca Lightfoot's layup with 11:17 left. Moriah Frazee posted 11 tallies during the stretch. Kittery Maine's basket with 20 seconds left put Liberty at the 100-point plateau for the first time since a 103-61 triumph over Cedarville on Dec. 13, 1997. Five Lady Flames reached double figures in the points column, including all three Frazee triplets. Moriah Frazee led all players with a season-high 18 points, sinking all eight of her field goals.

Game 8
Lynchburg, Va.

All five Liberty starters scored in double figures, helping the Lady Flames record a pair of notable "firsts." Liberty recorded its first-ever win over James Madison, 79-66, and handed the Dukes their initial loss of the season. JMU scored on its first three possessions of the evening and led by a 7-2 count after Tamera Young's old-fashioned three-point play at 18:34. The Dukes' advantage reached a game-high six points, 25-19, with 9:41 on the first-half clock after a Jasmin Lawrence fast break layup. The homesteading Lady Flames were then able to put together an 8-1 burst and take their first lead of the game, 27-26, 6:00 before halftime. The lead saw-sawed back and forth before Liberty took a 37-35 lead into the locker room, courtesy of Moriah Frazee's seventh field goal of the opening 20 minutes. Sister Megan Frazee made an offensive push during the opening minutes of the second half. Her two free throws at 9:47 gave the Lady Flames their first double-digit advantage, 59-49. Freshman center Lauren Jimenez came off the James Madison bench and tallied nine-straight Duke points. Her three-point play at the 9:01 mark finished a 5-0 burst, which sliced JMU's deficit in half. On Liberty's ensuing possession, the Lady Flames made their first three-pointer of the contest, a timely connection by Courtney Watkins which halted the James Madison run and increased her team's lead to 62-54. The Dukes were unable to get any closer than eight points the rest of the way.

Game 9
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty connected on 62.8 percent of its field goals versus Binghamton. The Lady Flames' shooting efficiency propelled them to their sixth-consecutive win, a 76-40, wire-to-wire triumph over the Bearcats. Liberty made four of its five field goal attempts during an early 8-0 run, giving the Lady Flames their first double-digit advantage. Courtney Watkins wrapped up the surge with a layup off a Kittery Maine steal, pushing the Liberty edge to 18-6 at the 10:34 mark. Binghamton tossed in the game's next three points, trimming the deficit to nine on Brianna Thompson's free throw with 9:04 showing on the first-half clock. The Bearcats were still within 10 at 7:54, before experiencing a 6:24 scoring drought. During the stretch, Liberty ran off 15-consecutive points. Moriah Frazee and Rachel Hammond each contributed six markers to the run. Hammond's steal and fast break layup capped off the surge with Liberty on top, 36-11, 1:57 before the break. The Lady Flames owned a 40-13 advantage at halftime. The Bearcats scored four of the first six points after the break, cutting the Liberty lead to 42-17 on Jaki Goldner's hoop with 17:10 left. That's as close as Binghamton would get the rest of the afternoon, however. Later in the second half, Liberty fashioned a 12-0 run, featuring five Rachel McLeod points. From that point on, Liberty cruised to a 76-40 decision, as all 11 players registered their names in the scorebook, paced by Moriah Frazee's 17 markers.

Game 10
Lynchburg, Va.

A 14-0 run early in the second half helped Liberty women's basketball team break away from a pesky Glensville State club for a 66-54 victory at the Vines Center. The Pioneers, making their first-ever visit to the Vines Center, got off to a fast start, utilizing the three-point shot. Glensville State owned a 9-4 advantage after its third long-distance connection, by Christine DiSabato at the 18:04 mark. Liberty responded with a 15-2 surge over the next 8:18. Moriah Frazee provided six points during the burst, including a layup at 9:46, which put the Lady Flames on top by a 19-11 margin. A 5-0 Glensville State burst trimmed the Pioneers' deficit to 19-16, 7:51 before the half. Courtney Watkins answered with Liberty's lone triple of the afternoon on her team's ensuing possession, initiating an 11-2 run. Watkins' two free throws at 4:33 boosted the Lady Flames' advantage to 30-18. Liberty took a 36-29 lead into halftime. Pioneer Kristen Golden made the first basket of the second half, bringing her team within five, 36-31. Liberty held Glensville State scoreless for more than five minutes after Golden's hoop, fashioning a 14-0 run. Rebecca Lightfoot completed the surge with a layup at 15:41. Another connection by Golden finished a 5-0 burst by the visitors, shaving the Glensville State disadvantage to 50-36 with 12:55 left. The Lady Flames then sealed the victory with a 12-4 run, which posted Liberty to its largest lead, 62-40. The visitors got no closer than 12 the rest of the afternoon, falling by that margin.

Game 11
Las Vegas, Nev.

Liberty drilled five three-pointers during a 24-2 run early in the first half, taking control of the opening game of the Lady Rebel Christmas Classic early on. The Lady Flames went on to defeat Ball State, 68-56. Liberty's 24-2 surge included five three-pointers. Rachel Hammond scored 11 points during the run and drained three of Liberty's three-pointers. The last of her long-distance connections came at 9:44, putting the Lady Flames on top by a 29-7 margin. All of the Cardinals' points during a 9-2 run came from three-pointers. Audrey McDonald connected from long range with 1:58 on the first-half clock to pull her team within 11 at 36-25. Molly Frazee recorded four of the first half's final six markers, including a layup with 16 seconds left, lifting Liberty to a 40-27 advantage at the intermission. After Moriah Frazee opened the second-half scoring with a hoop 1:30 into the stanza, Ball State scored the next four points, cutting the Liberty edge to 42-31 on Green's two free throws at 16:52. The Cardinals were still within 11 points, before Megan and Moriah Frazee combined for all of Liberty's offense during an 8-2 burst. Moriah Frazee's putback at the 12:00 mark capped the run, increasing the Lady Flames' lead to 52-35. Consecutive triples initiated a 9-2 surge, enabling Ball State to pull to within 10 points, 54-44, with 7:50 remaining in the second half. However, the Cardinals were unable to get any closer and Liberty closed out a 68-56 victory by making six of eight foul shots in the final minute.

Game 12
Las Vegas, Nev.

Allyson Fasnacht made all six of her free throws in the final 32.5 seconds, enabling her team to hold off host UNLV's late rally and claim a hard-fought 70-68 victory. With the win, the Lady Flames captured the inaugural Lady Rebel Christmas Classic title. An 8-2 run allowed UNLV to claim a 13-11 advantage on Allison Holiday's three-pointer from the top of the key, 13:57 before halftime. The teams were tied at 25-apiece before Molly Frazee drilled Liberty's first three-pointer of the night, starting a 12-2 Liberty surge. Subsequent three-pointers by Courtney Watkins and Fasnacht highlighted the extended Liberty run, which ended with the Lady Flames holding their first double-digit lead of the game. Megan Frazee's field goal closed out the surge, putting her team on top by a 37-27 margin, 1:00 before the break. UNLV trimmed the gap to six with four quick points, but Liberty owned a 39-31 halftime edge. Liberty's lead ballooned to 47-36 points at the 17:13 mark, after a 6-1 burst. Sequoia Holmes began to find her range for the Lady Rebels, and her back-to-back triples finished a 9-2 Lady Rebel run. The burst trimmed Liberty's lead to 54-52 with 8:22 to play. Holmes' four-straight points tied the score at 62 with 2:29 on the clock. Neither team scored again until Megan Frazee sank a jumper in transition with 56 seconds left, giving Liberty the lead for good, 64-62. Fasnacht then sealed the win by making six-consecutive free throws.

Chapel Hill, N.C.

Megan Frazee became the 11th Liberty player to reach 1,000 career points, but the Lady Flames saw their nine-game winning streak halted by No. 4 North Carolina, 88-67. Frazee scored on the first Liberty possession of the afternoon, putting back her own missed shot for the Lady Flames' only lead of the game. North Carolina then roared back with 11-unanswered points and went ahead by an 11-2 margin when Jessica Breland made both of her free throws at the 16:29 mark. Frazee's 999th and 1,000th career points came when she banked in a shot from the right block with 9:23 showing on the first-half clock. Her milestone connection ignited an extended, 13-4 Liberty run. Frazee's third field goal of the surge pulled her team to within two points, 25-23, 6:17 before the break. Cetera DeGraffenreid's fast break layup off a Tar Heel steal at the 2:23 mark finished an ensuing 14-4 North Carolina surge. LaToya Pringle contributed five points to the run, which boosted coach Sylvia Hatchell's squad's edge to 39-27. North Carolina then took a 45-31 halftime lead. North Carolina's initial three-point connection of the contest, by Rebecca Gray, enabled the Tar Heels to claim a 20-point advantage with 13:44 on the clock, 60-40. Liberty countered with eight-straight markers, six of them by Molly Frazee. Frazee's pair of foul shots at the 11:54 mark made the score 60-48, North Carolina. That was as close as the Lady Flames would get, though. North Carolina claimed an 88-67 win on the strength of 21 steals and 28 made free throws.

Game 14
Lynchburg, Va.

The Liberty women's basketball team held Richmond to a single field goal during a 14-minute stretch of the second half, as the Lady Flames prevailed in a defensive struggle, 45-38. Liberty won despite making only three shots from the field in the second half. Megan Frazee, who finished with a game-high 21 markers and eight rebounds, scored Liberty's first seven points, helping stake the Lady Flames to an early 9-4 edge. The Spiders came back to tie the score twice during an ensuing 7-2 spurt. Megan Frazee then closed out the half in the same manner she had started it. She made back-to-back layups, giving Liberty a 25-16 halftime edge. Richmond tallied the initial seven points of the second half, trimming its deficit to 25-23 when Katie Holzer sank a layup, 2:48 after the intermission. Liberty held the visitors scoreless for 9:02, fashioning an 8-0 run in the meantime. Megan Frazee gave Liberty its first double-digit lead of the contest, 36-26, with a pair of free throws at the 8:36 mark. Kara Powell's two charity tosses with 1:03 left cut the deficit to 40-34. But that's as close as the Spiders would get, as Liberty closed out a 45-38 triumph by draining five-of-six free throws in the final minute. The 45 points marked the fewest the Lady Flames have scored in a victory since edging Radford, 36-32, on Jan. 27, 2001.

Game 15
Johnson City, Tenn.

Liberty came from behind with a game-ending 9-2 run at East Tennessee State, claiming a hard-fought, 64-60 victory at the Memorial Center. Molly Frazee's three-point play with 1:05 left put the Lady Flames ahead for good. Liberty drained its first five shots from the field, running out to an early 11-2 advantage. Megan Frazee closed out the surge with a baseline jumper at the 17:47 mark. The Lady Flames were then able to score only four points over the next 12:19, and the Liberty drought enabled ETSU to take its first lead, 17-15, on Devin Thompson's old-fashioned three-point play, 6:46 before halftime. The two sides then went back and forth for the remainder of the opening 20 minutes. Jenny Norman's layup at the 17-second mark gave the Lady Bucs a 30-29 advantage at the intermission. The Lady Flames got off to a strong start in the second half. Liberty put together a 10-0 spurt, keeping ETSU off the scoreboard for nearly five minutes. The run resulted in a 41-32 Lady Flame edge. East Tennessee State battled back and a 10-2 run put the Lady Bucs back on top, 55-53, with 3:19 remaining. The ETSU lead stood at 58-55 at 2:05. Megan Frazee cut the deficit to one, after going two-for-two from the line at 2:01. Sister Molly Frazee followed with the aforementioned three-point play with 1:05 left, giving her squad the lead for good at 60-58. Siarre Evans' second-chance layup with 21 seconds on the clock sliced the lead to a single point, 61-60, but those would be the Lady Bucs' final tallies of the evening. A Moriah Frazee lay-in and another charity toss by Megan Frazee wrapped up a 64-60 squeaker for the Lady Flames.

Game 16
Lynchburg, Va.

An 11-2 surge early in the second half helped the Liberty women's basketball team break open a close game against George Mason, and the Lady Flames went on to claim a 69-54 victory over the Patriots. Liberty's early edge reached five points before the visiting Patriots fashioned an 11-2 surge. Eugenia Broadus' connections from the line left the Patriots in front, 18-14. The Lady Flames went back on top after a 7-1 burst. Molly Frazee's driving layup at the 5:56 mark gave Liberty a 23-21 edge. The two squads continued to exchange the lead over the next several minutes, trading the advantage six times over the remainder of the stanza. Liberty closed out the half with an 8-0 surge over the final 2:05. Megan Frazee sent the Lady Flames into the break on top, 36-31, after sinking a three-pointer from the corner as the halftime buzzer sounded. Liberty took its first double-digit lead of the contest at 14:32 of the second half, when Courtney Watkins' tri-fecta put Liberty ahead by a 47-36 count. The long-distance connection finished a string of seven-consecutive Lady Flame markers for the senior shooting guard. Her hot streak ignited an 11-2 Liberty run, which concluded with Liberty holding a 51-36 edge. George Mason got no closer than 12 the rest of the way, and the Lady Flames boosted their edge to as large as 16 before closing out a 69-54 triumph.

Game 17
Charleston, S.C.

Megan Frazee's 24 points and nine rebounds helped the Lady Flames cruise to an 82-53 win over Charleston Southern in their Big South opener, giving head coach Carey Green his 200th career triumph. Consecutive three-pointers by Courtney Watkins, the second of which came at 14:23, bumped Liberty's early advantage to eight points, 11-3. The Lady Buccaneers quickly sliced their deficit in half with four-straight markers. Cindee Wright's hoop in transition made the score 11-7, Liberty with 13:43 showing on the first-half clock. The Lady Flames came right back with a 12-0 surge. Watkins closed out the run with a jumper from the corner, putting Liberty on top by a 23-7 count at the 8:37 mark. A string of nine-consecutive Liberty points scored by Megan Frazee enabled the Lady Flames to take their largest lead of the stanza, 34-13. The Lady Buccaneers responded, notching 12 of the half's final 16 points. By halftime, the Liberty advantage had been trimmed to 38-25. Liberty roared out of the gate to start the second half, sinking its first four shots as part of a half-opening, 9-2 surge. Allyson Fasnacht's fast break layup capped the run, bolstering the Lady Flames' lead to 47-27. A 19-3 Liberty spurt, featuring 11 points from sister tandem Megan and Molly Frazee, allowed the Lady Flames to double up CSU's score, 68-34. From that point on, Liberty cruised to its fourth-straight victory to open the calendar year 2008.

Game 18
Conway, S.C.

Liberty's defense limited Coastal Carolina to 14 first-half points, enabling the Lady Flames to complete a 2-0 "Beach Trip" with a 71-44 triumph. After Coastal Carolina got on the board first, Liberty's halfcourt-trapping defense began to cause some problems for the Chanticleers. The Lady Flames forced a trio of turnovers during an ensuing 10-0 run, which put Liberty on top by a 10-2 margin at the 15:59 mark. Consecutive three-pointers by Vicky Blanchard and Lacey Lyons quickly cut the Coastal Carolina deficit to 10-8, with 15:07 remaining in the half. Liberty then limited the homestanding Chanticleers to a single field goal over the next 12 minutes of action. The stinginess enabled the Lady Flames to put together a 20-2 surge, featuring eight Allyson Fasnacht points. Moriah Frazee's hoop at the 3:18 mark lifted Liberty to a 20-point advantage, 30-10. Liberty took the same margin into the locker room, leading 34-14 after 20 minutes. The Lady Flames built their lead during the first 2:18 of the second half, tallying six-consecutive points. Moriah Frazee's layup made the score 40-14, Lady Flames. Coastal Carolina's first field goal of the second half did not come until 6:34 had elapsed. By that time, Liberty's edge had ballooned to 32, 50-18. C.J. Ware closed out a 7-2 burst by the Chanticleers with a basket at 12:01, pulling her team to within 52-25. Liberty scored the next seven points, recapturing the momentum on its way to a 71-44 win.

Game 19
Lynchburg, Va.

The Liberty defense held visiting Presbyterian without a field goal for the first 12 minutes, running out to a 29-2 lead. The Lady Flames went on to claim an 88-41 win in their first-ever meeting with the Lady Blue Hose. Megan and Moriah Frazee combined to score the afternoon's first eight points for the Lady Flames, giving the home team a lead it never relinquished. Presbyterian got on the board at the 17:18 mark of the opening half, on a pair of charity tosses by Amy Jones. The Lady Blue Hose did not score again for more than nine minutes, allowing Liberty to reel off a 21-0 run. Rachel Hammond lifted Liberty's lead to 29-2 with a jumper at 8:37. Katlin Moore's three-pointer snapped Presbyterian's field goal drought and initiated a 9-1 burst for the blue-clad visitors. Sharie Hopkins' third layup of the surge, coming with 5:42 on the first-half clock, trimmed her team's deficit to 30-11. Presbyterian only scored two more points the remainder of the stanza, though, and Liberty took a 38-13 edge into the intermission. Head coach Carey Green's squad opened the second half with an 8-2 burst, bumping its lead over 30 points for the first time at the 17:22 mark, when Lightfoot drained a layup to make it 46-15. The Lady Blue Hose never got closer than 29 the rest of the way. Liberty was able to build its lead by shooting 71 percent from the floor during the second half. All 11 Lady Flames scored, paced by Moriah Frazee's 15 tallies.

Game 20
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty shot just 37.3 percent from the floor but outrebounded High Point by 17 caroms in a 76-57 triumph. Both squads sputtered at the offensive end to start the game. Three-consecutive markers by Courtney Watkins after the first media timeout highlighted an 8-2 spurt by the Lady Flames. Rebecca Lightfoot's free throw at 11:17 boosted her team's edge to 16-8. Four-consecutive points by freshman LaTeisha Dean halved the visitors' deficit. Her two free throws with 10:48 showing on the first-half clock cut the gap to 16-12. The Lady Flames countered with a 13-4 surge, taking their first double-digit lead of the night. Molly Frazee went 6-for-6 from the charity stripe during the run, including a pair at 5:16 which increased the lead to 29-16. Liberty's lead reached 16 before the Panthers tallied the stanza's final three markers, bringing the halftime score to 35-22. Consecutive Jurica Hargraves hoops, the second of which came at the 18:23 mark and closed out a 10-1 Panther run to start the second half, shaved High Point's deficit to 36-29. Megan Frazee's tip-in rebuilt Liberty's advantage to 46-31 with 11:56 remaining in the half, capping an 8-2 run. Back-to-back three-pointers by High Point's Dean and Ayonna Thompson pulled their team to within single digits at 52-43 at 9:29. Megan Frazee answered immediately with a triple. Another Frazee three-pointer, coming with 6:53 to play, wrapped up the Lady Flames' 9-1 burst and lifted their edge to 61-44. High Point got to within 14 points twice before Liberty put the game away with a 10-1 burst.
