LIBERTY Lady Flames (21-2, 6-0 Big South)

Vines Center (8,500) - Lynchburg, Va.

The Game

The Liberty Lady Flames (21-2, 6-0 Big South) will continue their homestand with a Saturday evening Big South contest against Coastal Carolina (15-7, 3-4 Big South). Liberty will attempt to sweep the season series from the Chanticleers, after claiming a 71-44 win at Coastal Carolina on Jan. 21. The Lady Flames will also look to extend their 10-game home winning streak and their 10-game overall winning skein.

The Last Time Out

Liberty ran out to an 8-0 lead against the depleted UNC Asheville Bulldogs, who only dressed seven players for the Feb. 9 contest at the Vines Center. The Lady Flames never looked back, leading the game from wire to wire in a 69-55 victory. Liberty prevailed by a 45-29 margin in the battle of the boards. Megan and Moriah Frazee paced the Lady Flames with eight rebounds each, while Megan Frazee led all players with 19 points.

Lady Flames On The Air

All Lady Flames basketball games can be heard LIVE on WWMC 90.9 FM "The Light." Jamie Hall, who is celebrating his 14th year of broadcasting Lady Flames basketball, will once again be handling the courtside play-by-play duties for most road games. Women's Basketball Game Notes

Liberty University Head Coach: Carey Green (Coastal Carolina, '79)

Record at Liberty: 206-66 (Ninth year)

Overall Record: Same

You must be doing something right as a collegiate head women's basketball coach, if a 19-12 season is considered to be a bit of a letdown by many observers. That's just the case for Carey Green, the ninth-year head coach of the Liberty Lady Flames, who has raised the program's standards to an extremely high level.

Green has accumulated a 206-66 record on the Liberty bench, good for a winning percentage of .757. He ranked 12th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches in winning percentage, at the beginning of the season.

More importantly, Liberty has won the Big South Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament seven times with Green as head coach. Liberty has totaled 23 or more victories during six of those years, including the 2004-05 season, which saw the Lady Flames reach the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history.

Green has actually been to the postseason on 19 occasions as a women's basketball coach, a span which includes a dozen years as an assistant coach at Clemson. In all but one of the 19 appearances, he has experienced the NCAA Tournament.

Last season, the Lady Flames went 19-12 and tied for second place in the Big South. The season was highlighted by a 75-71 win at Virginia, which made the Lady Flames the first visiting team ever to triumph in the brand-new John Paul Jones Arena.

Rebounding and defense have always been staples of Green-coached teams, and the 2006-07 Lady Flames were no exception. Liberty outrebounded opponents by an average of 10.6 caroms per game, ranking fifth nationally. The Lady Flames have now been listed among the nation's top five teams in rebounding margin for four-straight years. Liberty led the nation in the category in both 2003-04 and 2004-05.

The 2005-06 season represented one of the best coaching jobs of Green's career. The Lady Flames had lost the top four scorers from the Sweet 16 squad to graduation. Moreover, freshman Megan Frazee averaged 18.5 points and 9.8 rebounds per game through the first 14 games of her collegiate career, but was lost for the remainder of the season due to injury. Yet, Liberty was still able to win 25 games, capture its 10th-straight Big South title and earn its 10th-consecutive NCAA Tournament berth.

Green's efforts were recognized by both the Big South Conference and the Virginia Sports Information Directors (VaSID). Both groups named Green as women's basketball coach of the year at season's end. It was the third time he has won each of those honors and marked Green's second-straight selection as VaSID Coach of the Year.

A key late-season conference victory over High Point in 2006 made Green the winningest coach in Big South Conference history. The previous season, Green had passed Rick Reeves as Liberty's career wins leader.

The record-setting victory was just one of the many reasons the 2004-05 year was a special one on Liberty Mountain. A senior-laden Lady Flames team recorded upset wins over No. 4 seed Penn State (78-70) and No. 5 seed DePaul (88-79) in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, becoming just the second team ever to advance to the Sweet 16 as a No. 13 seed. The Lady Flames ended the season with their highest national ranking to date, No. 21 (USA Today/ESPN).

Green's track record shows he has the ability to meet strong challenges. The Lady Flames have recorded two wins each over UNLV, Virginia and West Virginia and solo victories over No. 19 DePaul, James Madison, No. 17 Kansas State, No. 25 Penn State, Xavier and Wake Forest during Green's tenure. The upset victory over No. 25 Virginia in 2002 marked Liberty's first win over a Top 25 team.

His record against conference foes is equally impressive. He led the Lady Flames on a Big South-record 47-game winning streak and currently has a .915 (129-12) winning percentage against conference teams. Green has marched through conference play with one or fewer setbacks five times, while guiding the Lady Flames to two undefeated conference seasons (2002-03 & 2003-04).

2007-08 Liberty University Women's Basketball Game Notes

Scouting Coastal Carolina

Coastal Carolina clinched its third-straight winning season with a 54-46 home victory over UNC Asheville on Wednesday. The Chanticleers have taken advantage of a heavy home schedule, winning 10 of 13 games at Kimbel Arena.

Coastal Carolina is also getting the job done defensively, ranking No. 9 in the nation in scoring defense (53.6 ppg). The Chanticleers have held 16 out of 22 opponents under 60 points and are 14-2 in the contests.

The Chanticleers are only 2-4 in their last six road games, but one of the victories was a notable one. Coastal Carolina came from behind to claim a 52-47 decision at Winthrop on Jan. 30, handing the Eagles their first conference setback.

Lacey Lyons, a 5-11 sophomore forward, is her team's leading scorer at 12.5 ppg and sits No. 12 nationally with 58 three-pointers made. Vicky Blanchard, a 5-9 senior guard, has stepped up her play in Big South action, posting a team-high 15.6 ppg and 7.7 rpg.

The Coaching Matchup

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green is in his ninth season with the Lady Flames. He owns a 206-66 career record and is the all-time wins leader at Liberty and among Big South women's basketball coaches. His career winning percentage (.757) ranked 12th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the beginning of the season. Green is 20-0 versus Coastal Carolina, his alma mater, during his career.

Alan LeForce is 158-145 at Coastal Carolina, in his 11th year with the Chanticleers. The 1998-99 Big South Coach of the Year is 398-325 in 26 seasons of collegiate head coaching.

Liberty-Coastal Carolina Series Notes

Liberty is 38-7 all-time versus Coastal Carolina and has won 28-straight meetings with the Chanticleers. Coastal Carolina's most recent victory in the teams' head-to-head series came on Feb. 19, 1996. The Chanticleers are one of three teams (also Charleston Southern and Winthrop) Carey Green has never lost to.

The Lady Flames were victorious in the teams' first match-up of the season, Jan. 21 in Conway, S.C. Liberty broke the game open with a 20-2 first-half run and limited the home team to 14 first-half points. The final score was 71-44 in favor of the Lady Flames. Megan Frazee led three Liberty double-digit scorers with 17 points and 13 boards, while Moriah Frazee posted 15 markers and Courtney Watkins had 10. Vicky Blanchard's seven points paced Coastal Carolina's attack.

Coastal Carolina's last triumph over Liberty was a 70-55 decision on Feb. 19, 1996 in Conway. Tina Boester led the way with 20 points, seven rebounds and three assists for the victors.

2007-08 Liberty University
Women's Basketball Game Notes

Liberty in Big South Home Contests

After winning their first three home games against Big South foes this season, the Lady Flames are now 93-22 (.809) all-time in Big South Conference home games. Since Carey Green took over as head coach in 1999-2000, Liberty is 54-5 (.915) in conference contests at the Vines Center.

Liberty has posted a home conference record of .500 or better 15 times in 16 seasons as a Big South member. The only exception was a 2-5 home ledger in 1995-96.

Home Cooking

Liberty is 10-0 at the Vines Center during the 2007-08 campaign, but the Lady Flames are not the only Liberty athletic team which has flourished at the Vines Center.

Liberty teams were unbeaten in 31-straight athletic contests played at the 17-year-old on-campus facility, a streak which lasted from Oct. 5, 2007 to Feb. 5, 2008. The string included triumphs by the volleyball, wrestling, men's basketball and women's basketball squads.

Big South Recognition

Liberty has collected six out of 13 Big South Player of the Week awards this season. Megan Frazee, the reigning player of the week, has won the award four times this season (Nov. 26, Jan. 7, Jan. 21 and Feb. 11) and 10 times in her career. She is one of three Big South players (also Liberty alumni Katie Feenstra and Elena Kisseleva) to win at least 10 Big South Player of the Week honors in her career. Moriah Frazee captured the distinction on Dec. 10 and Feb. 4, the first two recognitions of her time at Liberty.

Triple Digits Inside the Furnace

Liberty's 100-29 victory over Virginia Union on Nov. 30 marked the Lady Flames' first 100-point game since a 103-61 triumph over Cedarville, Dec. 13, 1997 at the Vines Center. It was the Lady Flames' first 100-point output since Carey Green took over as head coach, prior to the 1999-200 season. In fact, Green's Liberty teams, which have been built around rebounding and defense, have only gone over the 90-point plateau seven times in his nine seasons.

Winningest Active Coaches

After the completion of his eighth season, Liberty Head Coach Carey Green remains in elite company. Green ranked as the 12th-winningest head coach among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the beginning of the 2007-08 season, with his .743 winning percentage.

2007-08 Liberty University
Women's Basketball Game Notes

Fabulous in February

Liberty has won 82 of its last 86 games played during the month of February, dating back to the 1997 Big South Championship. The only teams to defeat the Lady Flames during February since then are High Point (three times) and UNC Asheville (one time).

Liberty owns a 163-120 all-time mark during the year's second month, including a 63-4 record under Carey Green's direction. The Lady Flames, 6-2 in February a year ago, have seven February contests on the schedule in 2007-08. They have opened the month with a 3-0 record.

A Perfect January

Liberty finished the month of January 7-0, recording its first unbeaten month since February 2006. The Lady Flames outscored their opponents by an average of 21.1 ppg during the month. Liberty was paced by Megan Frazee, who shot 57.8 percent from the field, averaged 19.4 ppg and 8.7 rpg and captured a pair of Big South Player of the Week honors.

Lady Flames Battled Wide Range of Non-Conference Foes

This season, Liberty has faced teams from 11 different Division I conferences during its non-conference slate. These include the ACC (North Carolina and Virginia Tech), America East (Binghamton), the Atlantic Sun (East Tennessee State), the Atlantic 10 (Richmond and Xavier), the CAA (George Mason and James Madison), Conference USA (Houston), the MAC (Ball State), the MEAC (North Carolina A&T), the Mountain West (UNLV), the Southern (UNC Greensboro) and the Southland (McNeese State).

A Tradition of Success

Lady Flame seniors Allyson Fasnacht, Egle Smigelskaite and Courtney Watkins have been a part of 91 victories in their three-plus years with the program and have won at a .771 clip. The trio is the last portion of the 2005 "Sweet 16" qualifier remaining on the Liberty roster.

First Since ...

Megan Frazee accomplished a pair of feats against Radford on Feb. 6 which had not been done by a Lady Flame for quite some time.

She went 9-for-9 from the free throw line against the Highlanders. It was the first time a Liberty player has made that many foul shots in a single game without a miss since Michelle Wymys shot 14-for-14 on Feb. 3, 1996, at home versus Radford.

Frazee also grabbed a career-high 18 rebounds, the most by a Lady Flame since Katie Feenstra's 19 boards against UNC Asheville on Feb. 12, 2005.

Ahead at the Half

The Lady Flames have taken a lead into the locker room at halftime in 19 of 23 games this season. Liberty is outscoring opponents by an average of 10.4 points in the first half and has held seven opponents to fewer than 20 first-half points. The Lady Flames have translated halftime advantages into victories on 18 occasions, including the last 16 times in succession.

Green's Milestone Win

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green reached a coaching milestone on Jan. 19, as the Lady Flames' 82-53 triumph at Charleston Southern was No. 200 of his nine-year career. He became the first Big South women's basketball coach to reach 200 wins and fittingly, his milestone came against a Big South foe. Green has posted 129 of his 206 victories (over 62 percent) against conference opposition.

Green's 100th win also came during the "Beach Trip," on Jan. 17, 2004 at Coastal Carolina. Liberty's head coach notched a 69-58 win over his alma mater.

Coach Carey Green Versus The Big South

Liberty is 129-12 (.915) against Big South opponents under Carey Green's direction since he took the helm of the program prior to the 1999-2000 campaign. The Lady Flames are 107-11 in regular season conference games and 22-1 in the Big South Championship.

The Lady Flames have not lost to current Big South members Coastal Carolina (20-0), Winthrop (20-0) and Charleston Southern (19-0) with Green as head coach.

Lady Flames Excel in the Classroom

Liberty is not only enjoying a string of success on the hardwood, but the Lady Flames have received national recognition for their work in the classroom. 2007-08 Liberty University Women's Basketball Game Notes

Receiving Some Recognition

Liberty received its first Top 25 vote of the season in the Dec. 10 AP Top 25 poll. The Lady Flames equaled a season high with 10 votes in this week's poll, released Feb. 11. Liberty garnered the 33rd-most votes in the poll.

In the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 Poll, Liberty garnered its first vote on Dec. 18 and received a season-best 20 votes in this week's poll, announced Feb. 12. The Lady Flames received the 28th-most votes in the most recent poll.

Composure in Close Situations

The Lady Flames are 6-1 in games decided by 10 points or less during the 2007-08 campaign, after prevailing in their last five single-digit decisions. By contrast, Liberty was only 6-10 in such games a season ago.

At Home on the Road

Liberty has only played 10 home games out of its first 23 contests of the season. However, the Lady Flames have not minded life on the road, as evidenced by their 8-2 road ledger. Liberty opened the year with consecutive road triumphs and later claimed tournament championships with victories at Xavier (Nov. 25) and UNLV (Dec. 21).

Liberty is 77-35 in road games under Green's guidance, winning at a .688 rate. The Lady Flames have posted six-straight winning seasons on the road.

Triple the Trouble

Liberty sports the only set of triplets currently playing for the same NCAA Division I women's basketball team--juniors Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee. Through 23 games, the Frazees are averaging 38.4 points and 19.4 rebounds per outing, good for 53.5 percent of the Lady Flames' scoring output and 46.1 percent of the team's boards. Collectively, the Frazee triplets have totaled 2,462 career points and 1,309 career rebounds.

Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee started together against UNC Asheville on Feb. 9 for the third time this season and the 11th time in their career.

One of the Frazees has led Liberty in scoring in 22 of this season's first 23 games. Allyson Fasnacht notched a team-high 19 markers at UNLV, Dec. 21.

Reaching a Pair of Milestones

Junior Megan Frazee recently reached a pair of career milestones. She became the 19th Lady Flame ever to pull down 500 rebounds, Dec. 21 at UNLV. Frazee then scored career point No. 1,000 at No. 4 North Carolina, Dec. 30. The guard/forward is the 11th member of Liberty's 1,000-point club and is the third fastest to reach the mark, doing so in her 58th career game.

Frazee is the sixth Lady Flame to top both 1,000 career points and 500 career rebounds. Katie Feenstra, Elena Kisseleva, Sharon Snodgrass, Pam Wilder and Sharon Wilkerson are the other members of this exclusive club.

Liberty's Iron Woman

Liberty senior shooting guard Courtney Watkins has yet to miss a contest, in the first three-plus seasons of her Lady Flame career. Her consecutive games played streak currently sits at 118. Liberty's contest against Houston on Nov. 24 was Watkins' 100th-consecutive game played for the Lady Flames. If she can stay healthy, she is on track to break 2007 graduate Michelle Parker's Liberty and Big South records for career games played during the Lady Flames' second contest at the Big South Women's Basketball Championship. Parker finished with 125 career games played.

Watkins is tied with Rachel Young (1998-2002) for fourth place on Liberty's career games played list. Elena Kisseleva (1997-2000) is third with 119 games.

Juniors Molly and Moriah Frazee have also played in every game since they have been a part of the Liberty roster. Each of them has appeared in 85-straight contests.

Winning Streaks

The Lady Flames are currently on a 10-game winning streak, as they have not dropped a decision since an 88-67 setback at North Carolina on Dec. 30.

Through the games of Feb. 12, Liberty is tied with North Carolina A&T and Stanford for the 10th-longest active streak in the nation. The Lady Flames have also recorded the ninth-longest streak in program history.

Below are the Lady Flames' 10 longest winning skeins.

Sister Act

Megan Frazee scored a game-high 22 points during Liberty's Jan. 29 win over High Point, while sister Moriah Frazee added a career-best 20 markers. The duo became the first set of sisters in the nation to score 20 points or more in the same game this season.

The feat is not unprecedented in Liberty women's basketball history. Twin sisters Sarah and Sharon Wilkerson, who played for the Lady Flames from 1997-2000, both went over the 20-point mark in the same contest four times during their career.

Molly Frazee, the third member of Liberty's triplets, joined her sisters in double digits during the High Point contest, tallying 11 points against the Panthers. The game marked the fourth time this year, and the second in a row, all three Frazees reached double figures. The Frazees also accomplished the feat three times in 2006-07.

Double-Doubles

Junior Rebecca Lightfoot recorded her first career double-double against High Point on Jan. 29, finishing with 10 points and 10 boards. She is one of three current Lady Flames with a double-double to her credit. Moriah Frazee's lone double-double consisted of 16 points and 11 caroms, Nov. 24 versus Houston.

Megan Frazee has posted 31 career double-doubles, nine of which have come this season. She leads all Big South performers in the category.

Most Wins in Program History

Liberty has recorded 10 20-win seasons, all of which have come in the last 12 years. The 1997-98 Lady Flames set a school record with 28 wins, finishing the campaign at 28-1. Below are the winningest seasons in program history.

Women's Basketball Game Notes

The Container is Half Full

Liberty shot the ball well during its first three home games this year, connecting on more than 50 percent of its field goals in each contest. The string included a school and facility-record 64.6 percent outburst against Virginia Union in the Nov. 30 home opener.

Liberty has won all seven games this season in which it has shot 50 percent or better and is 47-0 in such contests under head coach Carey Green.

Lack of Overtime

The Lady Flames' 64-62 overtime setback at High Point on Jan. 20, 2007 marked the first time in Liberty's previous 101 contests it had to play extra time.

The Lady Flames' most recent win in overtime came on Jan. 6, 2004, when Liberty defeated American, 76-72, on the road in double overtime. No current Lady Flame has won an overtime contest in college.

Liberty's most recent overtime contest at the Vines Center was a memorable one. The Lady Flames defeated Virginia, 77-69, in overtime on Nov. 26, 2002, to claim their first-ever win over the Cavaliers.

Hot in the Furnace

The 2007-08 campaign is the 16th season the Liberty University women's basketball team has called the Vines Center its full-time home. Liberty's first-ever contest at the Vines Center was an 86-74 loss to East Tennessee State, on Dec. 7, 1990, but the "Furnace" has served as a favorable venue for the Lady Flames over the years. Liberty is 175-49 (.781) all-time at the Vines Center, including 10-0 this season.

Long Distance Connection

The Lady Flames have made at least one three-pointer in a school-record 94-straight games, a streak which began on Feb. 26, 2005. Liberty set the mark at UNLV on Dec. 21. The Lady Flames previously went 82-consecutive games with a three-pointer between Jan. 24, 1998 and Dec. 20, 2000.

First Since Feenstra

Junior forward Moriah Frazee tallied a career-high 20 points against High Point during a Jan. 29 victory over High Point. She became the first Liberty player other than sister Megan Frazee to reach the 20-point plateau since March 22, 2005, when Katie Feenstra totaled 29 points against DePaul, enabling the Lady Flames to reach the "Sweet 16."

Megan Frazee accumulated 24 games of 20-plus points during the intervening period, including a 22-point outing on Jan. 29.

Feasting at the Foul Line

Liberty led the Big South Conference in free throw percentage a season ago, connecting on 70.3 percent of its charity tosses. The Lady Flames are off to an even better start from the line through their first 23 games of the 2007-08 season. Liberty is shooting 74.3 percent at the free throw line, a mark superior to the school record of 71.7 percent, achieved in 1997-98. The Lady Flames rank 42nd in the nation in the category.

Academic Honors

Juniors Megan Frazee and Moriah Frazee both earned places on the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first-team roster, making Liberty one of five teams in the nation with multiple first-team selections. For Megan Frazee, it was the second-straight year she has been so honored.

Senior Allyson Fasnacht, a first-team selection a year ago, made the second team this season.

Women's Basketball Game Notes

Miss Consistency

Junior Megan Frazee has scored in double figures in each of her last 35 games, dating back to Jan. 27, 2007. It is the longest such streak of her career and the longest by a Liberty player since Elena Kisseleva scored 10 or more points in 62-straight contests, a streak which began in 1996-97 and ended in 1998-99.

Frazee has only scored nine or fewer points on four occasions at Liberty, and the Ohioan has never done so in consecutive outings.

Clamping Down on Defense

The Lady Flames have held their last 42 opponents under 50 percent from the field. The last Liberty foe to shoot 50 percent or higher was Marist, at the Maryland Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29, 2006.

Liberty has limited 11 of its 23 opponents to 35 percent or lower field goal efficiency this season, and the opposition is shooting just 34.1 percent versus the Lady Flames. Liberty ranks No. 5 nationally in the category.

No Offense, No Problem

Liberty defeated Richmond on Jan. 5 despite scoring a season-low 45 points and making just three field goals after halftime. The Lady Flames had not scored that few points in a victory since taking a 36-32 defensive struggle from Radford, Jan. 27, 2001.

Rewriting the Record Book

Liberty set or tied a number of records during its 100-29 victory over Virginia Union on Nov. 30. Here is a look at some of the notable accomplishments from the contest:

- The Lady Flames' field goal percentage (.646, 42-65) set new team and Vines Center single-game records.
- Liberty's 11 three-pointers equaled the most the Lady Flames have ever made in a game at the Vines Center.
- Liberty's 33 assists set a program NCAA Division I record.
- Moriah Frazee went 8-for-8 from the field to establish a new Vines Center record for single-game field goal percentage.
- Liberty's 100 points marked the eighth time in program history the Lady Flames have scored in triple digits.

Lady Flames in Elite Company

Liberty is both shooting the ball well from the field and limiting its opponents' field goal percentage this season. The Lady Flames rank 14th nationally in field goal percentage (.463) and are fifth in field goal percentage defense (.341).

No. 2 Connecticut, No. 3 North Carolina and No. 19 Utah are the only other teams in the nation to rank in the top 15 of both statistical categories.

Tournament Success

Liberty claimed its second tournament championship of the season with a 70-68 victory over host UNLV in the title tilt of the inaugural Lady Rebel Christmas Classic on Dec. 21. Megan Frazee was voted tournament MVP and sister Moriah Frazee joined her on the all-tournament team.

The Lady Flames previously won the championship trophy at the Nov. 23-25 National City Xavier Invitational in Cincinnati, Ohio. Liberty won all three of its games, becoming only the second visiting team ever to capture first place in the tournament. Megan Frazee garnered tournament MVP honors after spearheading Liberty's second-half comeback against Xavier and Moriah Frazee made the all-tournament team.

It is believed to be the first time in Liberty history the Lady Flames have won a pair of in-season tournaments during a single campaign.

Game 1
Greensboro, N.C.

Liberty opened the second half with a 13-0 run, breaking open a tight, season-opening contest at UNC Greensboro. The Lady Flames went on to claim a 62-44 win at Fleming Gym, Tuesday evening, opening its season with a road win for the first time since the 1979-80 campaign. Molly Frazee's career-best 17 points helped Liberty open its 2007-08 season at 1-0. The Lady Flames forced 19 turnovers, limited the Spartans to 32.6 percent from the field and owned a 42-25 edge on the glass. UNC Greensboro fashioned an early 7-0 run, taking a 9-2 advantage on a pair of Agne Girstautaitė free throws at the 12:53 mark. The Lady Flames held UNCG scoreless for nearly six minutes late in the half and were able to open up their largest advantage of the opening 20 minutes, 23-17, on Rachel Hammond's third field goal of the half. Liberty owned a 23-21 halftime edge. Megan Frazee initiated a 13-0 second half-opening run by the Lady Flames with a pair of layups. Rebecca Lightfoot's 10-foot baseline jumper with 14:30 left ended the run and put Liberty on top by a 36-21 count. Molly Frazee later poured in eight-straight points to highlight a 12-0 Liberty run, which gave Liberty a 20-point lead, 50-30, with 7:05 remaining. From that point on, the Lady Flames cruised to their fourth-consecutive victory in a season opener and defeated the Spartans for the first time since March 1, 1997.

Game 2
Greensboro, N.C.

Megan Frazee's first double-double of the season (16 points, 10 rebounds), Courtney Watkins' career-high 15 points and a late 10-0 run added up to Liberty's second win in Greensboro, N.C., in four days. The Lady Flames held off North Carolina A&T by a 68-64 score, at the Corbett Sports Center. A three-pointer by Rachel McLeod capped an 11-0 Liberty surge during the opening half, putting the Lady Flames on top, 26-17. Liberty, which shot 51.9 percent from the field during the opening 20 minutes, took a 41-34 lead into the locker room. The homestanding Aggies whittled away at the Liberty advantage throughout the second half. A 13-5 surge cut the deficit to a single point, 53-52, with 13:10 left. A Ta'Wuana Cook three-pointer and two Lamona Smalley foul shots put North Carolina A&T ahead, 59-57, at 4:29. Liberty responded with a 10-0 run, spanning the next 4:09 and featuring a Courtney Watkins triple and an Allyson Fasnacht three-point play. Watkins' three-pointer gave the Lady Flames the lead for good. A Megan Frazee lay-up finished the span and lifted the Lady Flames to a 67-59 edge with just 37 seconds left. The Aggies quickly trimmed the margin to three points, after a Brittany Taylor-James three-pointer and a Jaleesa Sams layup. Fasnacht then sealed Liberty's second-straight road victory to start the season, when her charity toss provided the final margin of 68-64.

Game 3
Blacksburg, Va.

Liberty opened up a 10-point halftime lead at Virginia Tech, but the Hokies came out of the intermission on a 23-6 run, propelling them to a 73-68 decision at Cassell Coliseum. Virginia Tech improved to 14-0 all-time versus Liberty. The Hokies controlled the early part of the game, and a 7-0 run capped by a Brittany Cook layup at 12:00 put them on top, 16-9. Six different Lady Flames scored during their most effective stretch of the first half, a 13-2 surge. Rachel McLeod's close-range basket lifted Liberty to a 38-28 advantage, and the Lady Flames took the same 10-point edge (40-30) into the locker room. It took the Hokies just 3:14 to erase Liberty's lead, and the home team had built a 53-46 edge, a little over six minutes into the half. The Lady Flames battled back and briefly retook the lead at the 3:44 mark, when Moriah Frazee's layup made the count 62-61, Liberty. The score was deadlocked at 64 apiece when an intentional foul call paved the way for a four-point Hokie possession. The Lady Flames were unable to get any closer the rest of the way, and Virginia Tech made three-of-four charity tosses in the final minute to seal its 73-68 triumph. The Hokies received 29 points from freshman Andrea Barbour and 22 markers from Brittany Cook. Liberty's Moriah Frazee contributed 14 points and eight rebounds.

Game 4
Cincinnati, Ohio

Liberty shot a season-best 55.2 percent from the field and all 11 players scored during a 92-52 win over McNeese State, the opening game of the National City Xavier Invitational. The Lady Flames made their first three shots of the evening, culminating with a fast break layup by Rebecca Lightfoot at 17:35, which put Liberty on top by a 6-0 count. After Marcy Robinson got McNeese State on the scoreboard with a mid-range jumper at the 16:18 mark, Liberty answered with 14-consecutive points. The Lady Flames' run included a trio of three-pointers, and the Liberty advantage ballooned to 20-2 when Molly Frazee sank a pair of free throws at 11:53. The Lady Flames' lead reached 40 points, 55-15, 1:09 before the half, when Moriah Frazee made a basket in the paint to cap a 7-0 burst. Liberty took a 57-18 lead into the locker room at halftime, after connecting on 64.5 percent (20-of-31) of their field goals and six three-pointers during the opening 20 minutes. The Cowgirls scored four of the first five points to start the second half, closing the gap to 58-22 on Robinson's hoop with 18:33 remaining. Alexandria Bream recorded seven-straight Liberty points near the middle of the second half, the last two of which increased the Lady Flame edge to 82-35. From that point on, Liberty cruised to a 92-52 victory, scoring 90-plus points for the sixth time under head coach Carey Green's direction. Megan Frazee finished with 21 points and seven rebounds in just 16 minutes of work, in a return to her home state of Ohio.

Game 7
Lynchburg, Va.

Playing its home opener after six games away from the Vines Center, the Lady Flames shot a team and Vines Center-record 64.6 percent from the field in a 100-29 win over Virginia Union. The Lady Flames scored 100 points for the first time in Carey Green's nine seasons at the helm. The Lady Flames and Panthers combined to score on their first seven possessions of the game. Liberty owned a 9-6 advantage after the barrage, which featured a pair of hoops by Moriah Frazee. Liberty held Virginia Union to a single field goal over a 12-and-a-half minute span. During the stretch, the Lady Flames ripped off a 34-2 run. Liberty connected on six triples during the extended surge, two apiece by Alexandria Bream and Allyson Fasnacht, taking a 41-8 lead. A Dashia Chandler three-point play kick-started an ensuing 5-0 Virginia Union surge. However, Liberty tallied eight of the half's final 10 markers to claim a 49-15 halftime edge. The Lady Flames posted 28 of the second half's first 32 points, taking a 77-19 lead on Rebecca Lightfoot's layup with 11:17 left. Moriah Frazee posted 11 tallies during the stretch. Kittery Maine's basket with 20 seconds left put Liberty at the 100-point plateau for the first time since a 103-61 triumph over Cedarville on Dec. 13, 1997. Five Lady Flames reached double figures in the points column, including all three Frazee triplets. Moriah Frazee led all players with a season-high 18 points, sinking all eight of her field goals.

Game 8
Lynchburg, Va.

All five Liberty starters scored in double figures, helping the Lady Flames record a pair of notable "firsts." Liberty recorded its first-ever win over James Madison, 79-66, and handed the Dukes their initial loss of the season. JMU scored on its first three possessions of the evening and led by a 7-2 count after Tamera Young's old-fashioned three-point play at 18:34. The Dukes' advantage reached a game-high six points, 25-19, with 9:41 on the first-half clock after a Jasmin Lawrence fast break layup. The homesteading Lady Flames were then able to put together an 8-1 burst and take their first lead of the game, 27-26, 6:00 before halftime. The lead saw-sawed back and forth before Liberty took a 37-35 lead into the locker room, courtesy of Moriah Frazee's seventh field goal of the opening 20 minutes. Sister Megan Frazee made an offensive push during the opening minutes of the second half. Her two free throws at 9:47 gave the Lady Flames their first double-digit advantage, 59-49. Freshman center Lauren Jimenez came off the James Madison bench and tallied nine-straight Duke points. Her three-point play at the 9:01 mark finished a 5-0 burst, which sliced JMU's deficit in half. On Liberty's ensuing possession, the Lady Flames made their first three-pointer of the contest, a timely connection by Courtney Watkins which halted the James Madison run and increased her team's lead to 62-54. The Dukes were unable to get any closer than eight points the rest of the way.

Game 9
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty connected on 62.8 percent of its field goals versus Binghamton. The Lady Flames' shooting efficiency propelled them to their sixth-consecutive win, a 76-40, wire-to-wire triumph over the Bearcats. Liberty made four of its five field goal attempts during an early 8-0 run, giving the Lady Flames their first double-digit advantage. Courtney Watkins wrapped up the surge with a layup off a Kittery Maine steal, pushing the Liberty edge to 18-6 at the 10:34 mark. Binghamton tossed in the game's next three points, trimming the deficit to nine on Brianna Thompson's free throw with 9:04 showing on the first-half clock. The Bearcats were still within 10 at 7:54, before experiencing a 6:24 scoring drought. During the stretch, Liberty ran off 15-consecutive points. Moriah Frazee and Rachel Hammond each contributed six markers to the run. Hammond's steal and fast break layup capped off the surge with Liberty on top, 36-11, 1:57 before the break. The Lady Flames owned a 40-13 advantage at halftime. The Bearcats scored four of the first six points after the break, cutting the Liberty lead to 42-17 on Jaki Goldner's hoop with 17:10 left. That's as close as Binghamton would get the rest of the afternoon, however. Later in the second half, Liberty fashioned a 12-0 run, featuring five Rachel McLeod points. From that point on, Liberty cruised to a 76-40 decision, as all 11 players registered their names in the scorebook, paced by Moriah Frazee's 17 markers.

Game 10
Lynchburg, Va.

A 14-0 run early in the second half helped Liberty women's basketball team break away from a pesky Glensville State club for a 66-54 victory at the Vines Center. The Pioneers, making their first-ever visit to the Vines Center, got off to a fast start, utilizing the three-point shot. Glensville State owned a 9-4 advantage after its third long-distance connection, by Christine DiSabato at the 18:04 mark. Liberty responded with a 15-2 surge over the next 8:18. Moriah Frazee provided six points during the burst, including a layup at 9:46, which put the Lady Flames on top by a 19-11 margin. A 5-0 Glensville State burst trimmed the Pioneers' deficit to 19-16, 7:51 before the half. Courtney Watkins answered with Liberty's lone triple of the afternoon on her team's ensuing possession, initiating an 11-2 run. Watkins' two free throws at 4:33 boosted the Lady Flames' advantage to 30-18. Liberty took a 36-29 lead into halftime. Pioneer Kristen Golden made the first basket of the second half, bringing her team within five, 36-31. Liberty held Glensville State scoreless for more than five minutes after Golden's hoop, fashioning a 14-0 run. Rebecca Lightfoot completed the surge with a layup at 15:41. Another connection by Golden finished a 5-0 burst by the visitors, shaving the Glensville State disadvantage to 50-36 with 12:55 left. The Lady Flames then sealed the victory with a 12-4 run, which posted Liberty to its largest lead, 62-40. The visitors got no closer than 12 the rest of the afternoon, falling by that margin.

The Lady Flames went on to defeat Ball State, 68-56. Liberty's 24-2 surge included five three-pointers. Rachel Hammond scored 11 points during the run and drained three of Liberty's three-pointers. The last of her long-distance connections came at 9:44, putting the Lady Flames on top by a 29-7 margin. All of the Cardinals' points during a 9-2 run came from three-pointers. Audrey McDonald connected from long range with 1:58 on the first-half clock to pull her team within 11 at 36-25. Molly Frazee recorded four of the first half's final six markers, including a layup with 16 seconds left, lifting Liberty to a 40-27 advantage at the intermission. After Moriah Frazee opened the second-half scoring with a hoop 1:30 into the stanza, Ball State scored the next four points, cutting the Liberty edge to 42-31 on Green's two free throws at 16:52. The Cardinals were still within 11 points, before Megan and Moriah Frazee combined for all of Liberty's offense during an 8-2 burst. Moriah Frazee's putback at the 12:00 mark capped the run, increasing the Lady Flames' lead to 52-35. Consecutive triples initiated a 9-2 surge, enabling Ball State to pull to within 10 points, 54-44, with 7:50 remaining in the second half. However, the Cardinals were unable to get any closer and Liberty closed out a 68-56 victory by making six of eight foul shots in the final minute.

Game 12
Las Vegas, Nev.

Allyson Fasnacht made all six of her free throws in the final 32.5 seconds, enabling her team to hold off host UNLV's late rally and claim a hard-fought 70-68 victory. With the win, the Lady Flames captured the inaugural Lady Rebel Christmas Classic title. An 8-2 run allowed UNLV to claim a 13-11 advantage on Allison Holiday's three-pointer from the top of the key, 13:57 before halftime. The teams were tied at 25-apiece before Molly Frazee drilled Liberty's first three-pointer of the night, starting a 12-2 Liberty surge. Subsequent three-pointers by Courtney Watkins and Fasnacht highlighted the extended Liberty run, which ended with the Lady Flames holding their first double-digit lead of the game. Megan Frazee's field goal closed out the surge, putting her team on top by a 37-27 margin, 1:00 before the break. UNLV trimmed the gap to six with four quick points, but Liberty owned a 39-31 halftime edge. Liberty's lead ballooned to 47-36 points at the 17:13 mark, after a 6-1 burst. Sequoia Holmes began to find her range for the Lady Rebels, and her back-to-back triples finished a 9-2 Lady Rebel run. The burst trimmed Liberty's lead to 54-52 with 8:22 to play. Holmes' four-straight points tied the score at 62 with 2:29 on the clock. Neither team scored again until Megan Frazee sank a jumper in transition with 56 seconds left, giving Liberty the lead for good, 64-62. Fasnacht then sealed the win by making six-consecutive free throws.

Game 13
Chapel Hill, N.C.

Megan Frazee became the 11th Liberty player to reach 1,000 career points, but the Lady Flames saw their nine-game winning streak halted by No. 4 North Carolina, 88-67. Frazee scored on the first Liberty possession of the afternoon, putting back her own missed shot for the Lady Flames' only lead of the game. North Carolina then roared back with 11-answered points and went ahead by an 11-2 margin when Jessica Breland made both of her free throws at the 16:29 mark. Frazee's 999th and 1,000th career points came when she banked in a shot from the right block with 9:23 showing on the first-half clock. Her milestone connection ignited an extended, 13-4 Liberty run. Frazee's third field goal of the surge pulled her team to within two points, 25-23, 6:17 before the break. Cetera DeGraffenreid's fast break layup off a Tar Heel steal at the 2:23 mark finished an ensuing 14-4 North Carolina surge. LaToya Pringle contributed five points to the run, which boosted coach Sylvia Hatchell's squad's edge to 39-27. North Carolina then took a 45-31 halftime lead. North Carolina's initial three-point connection of the contest, by Rebecca Gray, enabled the Tar Heels to claim a 20-point advantage with 13:44 on the clock, 60-40. Liberty countered with eight-straight markers, six of them by Molly Frazee. Frazee's pair of foul shots at the 11:54 mark made the score 60-48, North Carolina. That was as close as the Lady Flames would get, though. North Carolina claimed an 88-67 win on the strength of 21 steals and 28 made free throws.

Game 14
Lynchburg, Va.

The Liberty women's basketball team held Richmond to a single field goal during a 14-minute stretch of the second half, as the Lady Flames prevailed in a defensive struggle, 45-38. Liberty won despite making only three shots from the field in the second half. Megan Frazee, who finished with a game-high 21 markers and eight rebounds, scored Liberty's first seven points, helping stake the Lady Flames to an early 9-4 edge. The Spiders came back to tie the score twice during an ensuing 7-2 spurt. Megan Frazee then closed out the half in the same manner she had started it. She made back-to-back layups, giving Liberty a 25-16 halftime edge. Richmond tallied the initial seven points of the second half, trimming its deficit to 25-23 when Katie Holzer sank a layup, 2:48 after the intermission. Liberty held the visitors scoreless for 9:02, fashioning an 8-0 run in the meantime. Megan Frazee gave Liberty its first double-digit lead of the contest, 36-26, with a pair of free throws at the 8:36 mark. Kara Powell's two charity tosses with 1:03 left cut the deficit to 40-34. But that's as close as the Spiders would get, as Liberty closed out a 45-38 triumph by draining five-of-six free throws in the final minute. The 45 points marked the fewest the Lady Flames have scored in a victory since edging Radford, 36-32, on Jan. 27, 2001.

Game 15
Johnson City, Tenn.

Liberty came from behind with a game-ending 9-2 run at East Tennessee State, claiming a hard-fought, 64-60 victory at the Memorial Center. Molly Frazee's three-point play with 1:05 left put the Lady Flames ahead for good. Liberty drained its first five shots from the field, running out to an early 11-2 advantage. Megan Frazee closed out the surge with a baseline jumper at the 17:47 mark. The Lady Flames were then able to score only four points over the next 12:19, and the Liberty drought enabled ETSU to take its first lead, 17-15, on Devin Thompson's old-fashioned three-point play, 6:46 before halftime. The two sides then went back and forth for the remainder of the opening 20 minutes. Jenny Norman's layup at the 17-second mark gave the Lady Bucs a 30-29 advantage at the intermission. The Lady Flames got off to a strong start in the second half. Liberty put together a 10-0 spurt, keeping ETSU off the scoreboard for nearly five minutes. The run resulted in a 41-32 Lady Flame edge. East Tennessee State battled back and a 10-2 run put the Lady Bucs back on top, 55-53, with 3:19 remaining. The ETSU lead stood at 58-55 at 2:05. Megan Frazee cut the deficit to one, after going two-for-two from the line at 2:01. Sister Molly Frazee followed with the aforementioned three-point play with 1:05 left, giving her squad the lead for good at 60-58. Siarre Evans' second-chance layup with 21 seconds on the clock sliced the lead to a single point, 61-60, but those would be the Lady Bucs' final tallies of the evening. A Moriah Frazee lay-in and another charity toss by Megan Frazee wrapped up a 64-60 squeaker for the Lady Flames.

Game 16
Lynchburg, Va.

An 11-2 surge early in the second half helped the Liberty women's basketball team break open a close game against George Mason, and the Lady Flames went on to claim a 69-54 victory over the Patriots. Liberty's early edge reached five points before the visiting Patriots fashioned an 11-2 surge. Eugenia Broadus' connections from the line left the Patriots in front, 18-14. The Lady Flames went back on top after a 7-1 burst. Molly Frazee's driving layup at the 5:56 mark gave Liberty a 23-21 edge. The two squads continued to exchange the lead over the next several minutes, trading the advantage six times over the remainder of the stanza. Liberty closed out the half with an 8-0 surge over the final 2:05. Megan Frazee sent the Lady Flames into the break on top, 36-31, after sinking a three-pointer from the corner as the halftime buzzer sounded. Liberty took its first double-digit lead of the contest at 14:32 of the second half, when Courtney Watkins' tri-recta put Liberty ahead by a 47-36 count. The long-distance connection finished a string of seven-consecutive Lady Flame markers for the senior shooting guard. Her hot streak ignited an 11-2 Liberty run, which concluded with Liberty holding a 51-36 edge. George Mason got no closer than 12 the rest of the way, and the Lady Flames boosted their edge to as large as 16 before closing out a 69-54 triumph.

Game 17
Charleston, S.C.

Megan Frazee's 24 points and nine rebounds helped the Lady Flames cruise to an 82-53 win over Charleston Southern in their Big South opener, giving head coach Carey Green his 200th career triumph. Consecutive three-pointers by Courtney Watkins, the second of which came at 14:23, bumped Liberty's early advantage to eight points, 11-3. The Lady Buccaneers quickly sliced their deficit in half with four-straight markers. Cindee Wright's hoop in transition made the score 11-7, Liberty with 13:43 showing on the first-half clock. The Lady Flames came right back with a 12-0 surge. Watkins closed out the run with a jumper from the corner, putting Liberty on top by a 23-7 count at the 8:37 mark. A string of nine-consecutive Liberty points scored by Megan Frazee enabled the Lady Flames to take their largest lead of the stanza, 34-13. The Lady Buccaneers responded, notching 12 of the half's final 16 points. By halftime, the Liberty advantage had been trimmed to 38-25. Liberty roared out of the gate to start the second half, sinking its first four shots as part of a half-opening, 9-2 surge. Allyson Fasnacht's fast break layup capped the run, bolstering the Lady Flames' lead to 47-27. A 19-3 Liberty spurt, featuring 11 points from sister tandem Megan and Molly Frazee, allowed the Lady Flames to double up CSU's score, 68-34. From that point on, Liberty cruised to its fourth-straight victory to open the calendar year 2008.

Game 18
Conway, S.C.

Liberty's defense limited Coastal Carolina to 14 first-half points, enabling the Lady Flames to complete a 2-0 "Beach Trip" with a 71-44 triumph. After Coastal Carolina got on the board first, Liberty's halfcourt-trapping defense began to cause some problems for the Chanticleers. The Lady Flames forced a trio of turnovers during an ensuing 10-0 run, which put Liberty on top by a 10-2 margin at the 15:59 mark. Consecutive three-pointers by Vicky Blanchard and Lacey Lyons quickly cut the Coastal Carolina deficit to 10-8, with 15:07 remaining in the half. Liberty then limited the homestanding Chanticleers to a single field goal over the next 12 minutes of action. The stinginess enabled the Lady Flames to put together a 20-2 surge, featuring eight Allyson Fasnacht points. Moriah Frazee's hoop at the 3:18 mark lifted Liberty to a 20-point advantage, 30-10. Liberty took the same margin into the locker room, leading 34-14 after 20 minutes. The Lady Flames built their lead during the first 2:18 of the second half, tallying six-consecutive points. Moriah Frazee's layup made the score 40-14, Lady Flames. Coastal Carolina's first field goal of the second half did not come until 6:34 had elapsed. By that time, Liberty's edge had ballooned to 32, 50-18. C.J. Ware closed out a 7-2 burst by the Chanticleers with a basket at 12:01, pulling her team to within 52-25. Liberty scored the next seven points, recapturing the momentum on its way to a 71-44 win.

Game 19
Lynchburg, Va.

The Liberty defense held visiting Presbyterian without a field goal for the first 12 minutes, running out to a 29-2 lead. The Lady Flames went on to claim an 88-41 win in their first-ever meeting with the Lady Blue Hose. Megan and Moriah Frazee combined to score the afternoon's first eight points for the Lady Flames, giving the home team a lead it never relinquished. Presbyterian got on the board at the 17:18 mark of the opening half, on a pair of charity tosses by Amy Jones. The Lady Blue Hose did not score again for more than nine minutes, allowing Liberty to reel off a 21-0 run. Rachel Hammond lifted Liberty's lead to 29-2 with a jumper at 8:37. Katlin Moore's three-pointer snapped Presbyterian's field goal drought and initiated a 9-1 burst for the blue-clad visitors. Sharie Hopkins' third layup of the surge, coming with 5:42 on the first-half clock, trimmed her team's deficit to 30-11. Presbyterian only scored two more points the remainder of the stanza, though, and Liberty took a 38-13 edge into the intermission. Head coach Carey Green's squad opened the second half with an 8-2 burst, bumping its lead over 30 points for the first time at the 17:22 mark, when Lightfoot drained a layup to make it 46-15. The Lady Blue Hose never got closer than 29 the rest of the way. Liberty was able to build its lead by shooting 71 percent from the floor during the second half. All 11 Lady Flames scored, paced by Moriah Frazee's 15 tallies.

Game 20
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty shot just 37.3 percent from the floor but outrebounded High Point by 17 caroms in a 76-57 triumph. Both squads sputtered at the offensive end to start the game. Three-consecutive markers by Courtney Watkins after the first media timeout highlighted an 8-2 spurt by the Lady Flames. Rebecca Lightfoot's free throw at 11:17 boosted her team's edge to 16-8. Four-consecutive points by freshman LaTeisha Dean halved the visitors' deficit. Her two free throws with 10:48 showing on the first-half clock cut the gap to 16-12. The Lady Flames countered with a 13-4 surge, taking their first double-digit lead of the night. Molly Frazee went 6-for-6 from the charity stripe during the run, including a pair at 5:16 which increased the lead to 29-16. Liberty's lead reached 16 before the Panthers tallied the stanza's final three markers, bringing the halftime score to 35-22. Consecutive Jurica Hargraves hoops, the second of which came at the 18:23 mark and closed out a 10-1 Panther run to start the second half, shaved High Point's deficit to 36-29. Megan Frazee's tip-in rebuilt Liberty's advantage to 46-31 with 11:56 remaining in the half, capping an 8-2 run. Back-to-back three-pointers by High Point's Dean and Ayonna Thompson pulled their team to within single digits at 52-43 at 9:29. Megan Frazee answered immediately with a triple. Another Frazee three-pointer, coming with 6:53 to play, wrapped up the Lady Flames' 9-1 burst and lifted their edge to 61-44. High Point got to within 14 points twice before Liberty put the game away with a 10-1 burst.

Game 21
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty came up with 13 steals, leading to 31 points off turnovers, sparking the Lady Flames to a 76-51 Big South triumph over Winthrop. Liberty sank just four of its first 14 shots from the floor, before building a bit of a cushion with a 6-0 burst. Moriah Frazee tallied the last four points of the run, and made it 13-6 with two foul shots at the 11:57 mark. Winthrop twice trimmed its deficit to four points, but Liberty was able to take its first double-digit lead, 23-12, by tallying seven-consecutive markers. The teams traded points for the next couple minutes, until Winthrop fashioned a 7-0 surge. Ashley Fann's tip-in narrowed the gap to 27-23, with 2:25 showing on the first-half clock. Fasnacht closed out an ensuing 7-1 run for the Lady Flames with a three-pointer at 1:04. Her triple rebuilt a double-digit lead, boosting Liberty's margin to 34-24. The Lady Flames went into halftime up, 34-27. Courtney Watkins drilled a three-pointer from the corner, just 15 seconds into the second half, initiating a half-opening 11-3 Liberty surge. Moriah Frazee's layup at 16:15 increased her team's edge to 45-30. Shortly thereafter, Liberty began to force turnovers in rapid succession. The Lady Flames came up with five steals during an 11-0 run, capped by Rachel McLeod's fast break layup with 11:11 left. Liberty was in front by a 56-32 margin after her two points went through the cylinder. Shanice Cole canned a layup for Winthrop, breaking her team's six-minute offensive drought and trimming the Liberty advantage to 22. The visitors could get no closer the rest of the way, however.

Game 22
Radford, Va.

Megan Frazee tallied 26 points and a career-high 18 rebounds, helping Liberty hold off Radford, 63-50. The Lady Flames owned a 30-8 second-half rebounding advantage and held the Highlanders to 27.6 field goal shooting in the contest. Liberty did not claim the lead until 6:36 in, when Moriah Frazee completed an old-fashioned three-point play, putting the Lady Flames on top by a 7-6 margin. Liberty later built its margin with a 10-2 surge. Allyson Fasnacht's jumper 3:33 before the intermission lifted the Lady Flames' advantage to nine, 24-15. Rachel McLeod's three-pointer from the corner at the 1:00 mark sent Liberty to halftime with a 10-point bulge, 27-17. Liberty tallied six of the second half's first eight points, increasing its lead to 33-19 on Fasnacht's one-handed floater in the lane, at the 16:41 mark. The Lady Flames still owned a 14-point lead before Radford used a pair of three-pointers to spark a 10-0 run. Taleia Moton's foul shot with 11:12 left in the half finished off the burst, paring her team's deficit to 35-31. Liberty was able to gain some breathing room, thanks to a 10-0 spurt of its own. McLeod's triple lifted the Lady Flames to a 51-35 advantage at 4:35. An 8-2 surge allowed Radford to cut an 18-point edge to 12 with 2:02 to play. A Moton free throw made the score 58-46 in favor of Liberty. The Lady Flames then sealed its fifth-straight double-digit conference win by sinking five of their six charity tosses in the final 1:29.

Game 23
Lynchburg, Va.

The Liberty women's basketball team defeated Big South rival UNC Asheville, 69-55, after leading the contest from start to finish. Liberty ran out to an 8-0 lead to start the game against the depleted Bulldogs, who dressed only seven players. Chioma Okoli came off UNC Asheville's bench and made an immediate impact. She drained two three-pointers during an 8-2 Asheville burst, the second of which narrowed the gap to 13-10 at the 14:51 mark. Liberty answered with nine-consecutive markers, building a 22-10 advantage by the second media timeout. Once again, UNC Asheville utilized the three-point shot to get back into the game. A long-distance connection by Ashton Barton shaved her squad's deficit to 24-18, 9:01 before the half. Liberty displayed its defensive prowess during the half's closing minutes. The Lady Flames held UNC Asheville to a single field goal over the remainder of the period, enabling Liberty to craft a 14-point halftime edge, 43-29. An Okoli layup with 18:28 remaining trimmed UNC Asheville's deficit to 47-34. But that's as close as the visiting Bulldogs would get in their attempt to win at the Vines Center for the second-straight season. Despite a 6:07 scoreless drought during the final stanza, the Lady Flames went on to claim a 69-55 triumph, their sixth-consecutive double-digit victory to open conference play.
