Women's Basketball Game Notes

Game No. 30 - March 15, 2008 - 6 p.m.

No. 1 LIBERTY Lady Flames (26-3, 11-1 Big South)

VS.

No. 4 HIGH POINT Panthers (14-14, 6-6 Big South) or
No. 5 COASTAL CAROLINA Chanticleers (16-11, 4-8 Big South)
Justice Center (1,100) - Asheville, N.C.

The Game

The Liberty Lady Flames (26-3, 11-1 Big South) enter the Big South Women's Basketball Championship as the No. 1 seed for the 10th time in the last 11 years, by virtue of claiming the regular-season conference title. After receiving a first-round bye, the Lady Flames will open tournament play in the first of Saturday's two semifinal contests, against either No. 4-seeded High Point (14-14, 6-6 Big South) or No. 5-seeded Coastal Carolina (16-11, 4-8 Big South).

The Last Time Out

Liberty held off Radford for a 70-62 Senior Night victory at the Vines Center, March 7. Egle Smigelskaite's putback at 4:30 of the second half sparked a 6-0 Lady Flames run, snapping a 54-54 tie. Megan Frazee paced all players in points (26), rebounds (13) and steals (5).

Lady Flames On The Air

All Lady Flames basketball games can be heard LIVE on WWMC 90.9 FM "The Light." Jamie Hall, who is celebrating his 14th year of broadcasting Lady Flames basketball, will once again be handling the courtside play-by-play duties for most road games. Jerod Brooks, who serves as the primary commentator for home games, is the color commentator on the road.

Lady Flames On TV

For the fifth year in a row, the Flames Television Network (FTN) broadcasted all 13 home women's basketball games. FTN's regular announcing team consists of Ray Jones on play-by-play and Jamie Hall on color. Saturday's game will be televised by SportSouth, which will also cover Sunday's Big South title tilt.

Women's Basketball Game Notes

Liberty University Head Coach: Carey Green (Coastal Carolina, '79)

Record at Liberty: 211-67 (Ninth year)

Overall Record: Same

You must be doing something right as a collegiate head women's basketball coach, if a 19-12 season is considered to be a bit of a letdown by many observers. That's just the case for Carey Green, the ninth-year head coach of the Liberty Lady Flames, who has raised the program's standards to an extremely high level.

Green has accumulated a 211-67 record on the Liberty bench, good for a winning percentage of .759. He ranked 12th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches in winning percentage, at the beginning of the season.

More importantly, Liberty has won the Big South Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament seven times with Green as head coach. Liberty has totaled 23 or more victories during seven years, including the 2004-05 season, which saw the Lady Flames reach the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history.

Green has actually been to the postseason on 19 occasions as a women's basketball coach, a span which includes a dozen years as an assistant coach at Clemson. In all but one of the 19 appearances, he has experienced the NCAA Tournament.

Last season, the Lady Flames went 19-12 and tied for second place in the Big South. The season was highlighted by a 75-71 win at Virginia, which made the Lady Flames the first visiting team ever to triumph in the brand-new John Paul Jones Arena.

Rebounding and defense have always been staples of Green-coached teams, and the 2006-07 Lady Flames were no exception. Liberty outrebounded opponents by an average of 10.6 caroms per game, ranking fifth nationally. The Lady Flames have now been listed among the nation's top five teams in rebounding margin for four-straight years. Liberty led the nation in the category in both 2003-04 and 2004-05.

The 2005-06 season represented one of the best coaching jobs of Green's career. The Lady Flames had lost the top four scorers from the Sweet 16 squad to graduation. Moreover, freshman Megan Frazee averaged 18.5 points and 9.8 rebounds per game through the first 14 games of her collegiate career, but was lost for the remainder of the season due to injury. Yet, Liberty was still able to win 25 games, capture its 10th-straight Big South title and earn its 10th-consecutive NCAA Tournament berth.

Green's efforts were recognized by both the Big South Conference and the Virginia Sports Information Directors (VaSID). Both groups named Green as women's basketball coach of the year at season's end. It was the third time he has won each of those honors and marked Green's second-straight selection as VaSID Coach of the Year.

A key late-season conference victory over High Point in 2006 made Green the winningest coach in Big South Conference history. The previous season, Green had passed Rick Reeves as Liberty's career wins leader.

The record-setting victory was just one of the many reasons the 2004-05 year was a special one on Liberty Mountain. A senior-laden Lady Flames team recorded upset wins over No. 4 seed Penn State (78-70) and No. 5 seed DePaul (88-79) in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, becoming just the second team ever to advance to the Sweet 16 as a No. 13 seed. The Lady Flames ended the season with their highest national ranking to date, No. 21 (USA Today/ESPN).

Green's track record shows he has the ability to meet strong challenges. The Lady Flames have recorded two wins each over UNLV, Virginia and West Virginia and solo victories over No. 19 DePaul, James Madison, No. 17 Kansas State, No. 25 Penn State, Xavier and Wake Forest during Green's tenure. The upset victory over No. 25 Virginia in 2002 marked Liberty's first win over a Top 25 team.

His record against conference foes is equally impressive. He led the Lady Flames on a Big South-record 47-game winning streak and currently has a .912 (134-13) winning percentage against conference teams. Green has marched through conference play with one or fewer setbacks six times, while guiding the Lady Flames to two undefeated conference seasons (2002-03 & 2003-04).

2007-08 Liberty University Women's Basketball Game Notes

Scouting High Point

The High Point Panthers may have to shake off some rust before they begin play in the Big South Women's Basketball Championship. Thirteen days will have passed since the Panthers' regular-season finale (a 65-59 win at Coastal Carolina on March 1) when they tip off their first-round contest against the same Chanticleer squad, Friday at 2 p.m.

The Panthers are seeded No. 4, after finishing with a 6-6 conference mark. High Point enters the tournament on a two-game winning streak, after sweeping a road trip to Charleston Southern and Coastal Carolina.

High Point was seeded No. 1 at last year's Big South Women's Basketball Championship, but the Panthers were upset by No. 8-seed Winthrop in the first round, 57-50.

Many of coach Tooley Loy's players have no recollection of that contest, as five of the Panthers' six leading scorers are freshmen. Pacing the squad is Mackenzie Maier, a 6-3 forward who is a leading candidate for Big South Freshman of the Year. She is posting 12.0 ppg and 5.9 rpg on the season.

The Coaching Matchup

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green is in his ninth season with the Lady Flames. He owns a 211-67 career record and is the all-time wins leader at Liberty and among Big South women's basketball coaches. His career winning percentage (.759) ranked 12th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the beginning of the season. Green is 17-5 against High Point during his career.

Tooley Loy owns a career record of 114-89 and is in his seventh year as head coach of his alma mater. Loy has won two of the last three Big South Coach of the Year honors, capturing the award in 2005 and 2007. He is 4-12 versus the Lady Flames.

Liberty-High Point Series Notes

Liberty leads the all-time head-to-head series with High Point by a 21-8 margin, but the teams have split their last eight meetings. The Panthers have dealt Carey Green five of his 13 career losses to Big South competition.

High Point swept the season series from Liberty a season ago, but the Lady Flames returned the favor in 2007-08. Liberty took a 76-57 home decision on Jan. 29, despite shooting just 37.3 percent from the floor. The Lady Flames then prevailed, 78-68, at High Point on Feb. 23 to wrap up their first season sweep of the Panthers since 2003-04. Megan Frazee averaged 24.0 ppg and 10.5 rpg in the teams' two meetings.

The Lady Flames are 4-0 versus High Point all-time in the Big South Tournament. The teams' most recent meeting came on March 11, 2006, in the championship game. Allyson Fasnacht's jumper with 14.9 seconds left clinched a 53-50 Liberty win at the Vines Center.

Women's Basketball Game Notes

Scouting Coastal Carolina

The Coastal Carolina Chanticleers enter the Big South Women's Basketball Championship as the No. 5 seed for the second-straight year. In 2007, Coastal Carolina was eliminated by UNC Asheville in the opening round, 65-51.

The Chanticleers earned their seeding by winning at in-state rival Charleston Southern, 58-45, in their final game of the regular season, on March 5. The victory, which featured a 20-point, nine-rebound evening by 5-11 sophomore forward Lacey Lyons, snapped a four-game skid.

Defense has been Coastal Carolina's strong suit this year, as the Chanticleers have fashioned their third-consecutive winning season. Coastal Carolina is No. 17 in the nation in scoring defense, yielding only 55.6 points per contest. When the Chanticleers hold a foe under 60 points, they are 15-2. However, they are just 1-9 when the opposition scores 60 or more points.

Lyons has paced her team's offensive attack all season and ranks sixth in the conference at 12.7 ppg. She is also listed No. 31 nationally with 2.5 made three-pointers per game, although Lyons hit only two of her 10 long-range attempts against Liberty this season.

The Coaching Matchup

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green is in his ninth season with the Lady Flames. He owns a 211-67 career record and is the all-time wins leader at Liberty and among Big South women's basketball coaches. His career winning percentage (.759) ranked 12th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the beginning of the season. Green is 21-0 versus Coastal Carolina, his alma mater, during his career.

Alan LeForce, the longest-tenured head coach in the Big South, owns a 159-149 record in his 11 years at Coastal Carolina. The 1998-99 Big South Coach of the Year is 399-229 in his 26 seasons of collegiate head coaching.

Liberty-Coastal Carolina Series Notes

Liberty is 39-7 all-time versus Coastal Carolina and has won 29-straight meetings with the Chanticleers. Coastal Carolina's most recent victory in the teams' head-to-head series came on Feb. 19, 1996.

The Lady Flames swept the season series from the Chanticleers in convincing fashion. Liberty won by a 71-44 count in Conway, S.C., on Jan. 21 and came up with a 76-39 home decision on Feb. 16. The squads' first meeting featured a 20-2 Lady Flame run, while the tilt at the Vines Center included a 33-5 Liberty surge.

Coastal Carolina is Liberty's most common Big South Tournament opponent, and the Lady Flames are 6-0 all-time versus the Chanticleers. Most recently, Liberty eliminated Coastal Carolina in the 2003 semifinal round, 78-68.

2007-08 Liberty University
Women's Basketball Game Notes

Fantastic in the First Game

Liberty is 13-3 all-time in its opening game of the Big South Championship. The Lady Flames have won 11-straight openers since losing to UNC Greensboro, 84-40, in the 1996 quarterfinals.

Breaking it Down by Location

Liberty is 17-0 all-time in Big South Championship contests played at home, 0-1 on the road and 14-5 when games are played at neutral sites. The Lady Flames' lone road contest was a 70-62 setback at Radford in the 1993 semifinals.

Familiar Territory

For the 10th time in the last 11 seasons, Liberty enters the Big South Championship as the No. 1 seed. The lone exception came last year, when Liberty was the No. 3 seed.

The Lady Flames have captured the tournament title on all nine previous occasions as the No. 1 seed. Their other Big South championship came in 1997, when Liberty was the No. 2 seed.

All-time, Liberty has been seeded No. 1 10 times, No. 2 one time, No. 3 two times, No. 6 two times, No. 7 one time and No. 8 once. The Lady Flames have not won the tournament title when seeded No. 3 or lower.

Familiar Territory, Part 2

Liberty will compete in the Big South Championship semifinal round for the 12th-straight season and the 14th time in 17 all-time tournament appearances. The Lady Flames have gone on to claim the tournament title 10 out of 13 times they have reached the semifinals.

Success Versus Current Big South Teams

Liberty is 24-3 in Big South Championship games against the six other teams which currently comprise the conference. Radford is the only current conference member which has ever defeated the Lady Flames in the tournament, doing so in 1993, 1994 and 2007.

Unbeaten as the Higher Seed

Liberty owns a 29-0 record all-time in the Big South Championship when the Lady Flames are seeded higher than their opponents. Liberty enters this year's tournament as the No. 1 seed.

Commonwealth Teams in the Championship Game

Either Liberty or Radford has appeared in all 21 Big South Championship title games in history. However, the Lady Flames and Highlanders have never faced each other in the final contest.

A Look Back

The Lady Flames opened the 2007 Big South Championship as the No. 3 seed and faced No. 6-seeded Birmingham-Southern in the quarterfinal round, March 8 at the Justice Center. Liberty claimed a 70-58 triumph, sparked by double-doubles by Megan Frazee (29 points, 13 rebounds) and Karolina Piotrkiewicz (17 points, 15 rebounds).

The following evening, Liberty met No. 2-seeded Radford in the semifinal round. The Lady Flames built an 11-point second-half lead, but the Highlanders came back in the closing minutes. Kelli Darden hit a bank shot at the buzzer, giving Radford a 57-55 win and ending Liberty's 29-game Big South Championship winning streak. The decision also snapped the Lady Flames' 10-year run of Big South titles. Megan Frazee and Rachel Hammond notched 10 points apiece for the Lady Flames.

Frazee earned all-tournament team recognition, after averaging 19.5 ppg and 13.0 rpg during the first two tournament appearances of her career.

Closing with a Flourish

Last Saturday's game marked the 11th-straight season Liberty has met Radford in its last regular-season contest. The Lady Flames are 10-1 in the intrastate match-ups, with the lone loss coming by a 77-54 margin, last season at Radford's Dedmon Center. Seven of Liberty's 10 wins during the run have come by double digits. Liberty is just 16-17 in regular-season finales during program history, though.

Closing with a Flourish, Part 2

Liberty junior guard/forward Megan Frazee has stepped up her production during recent weeks. She recorded four-consecutive double-doubles to close out the regular season. During the four contests (at High Point, at Winthrop, at UNC Asheville, vs. Radford), Frazee averaged 22.0 ppg and 14.3 rpg.

Regular-Season Champions

For the 10th time in the last 11 seasons, the Liberty women's basketball team has won the Big South Conference regular-season title. The Lady Flames clinched the out-right league championship on March 1 at UNC Asheville, as a 60-46 victory improved Liberty's conference mark to 10-1.

Equaling a Record

Liberty's 70-62 triumph over Radford in the March 7 regular-season finale improved the Lady Flames' overall record to 26-3. Liberty tied a program record for most regular-season wins. The only other Lady Flames unit to reach the 26-win mark during the regular season was the 1997-98 squad, which went 26-0.

Home Perfection

Liberty finished 13-0 at the Vines Center during the 2007-08 campaign, after defeating Radford 70-62 on March 7. The Lady Flames completed their home schedule with an unbeaten record for the fifth time in program history and for the third time in the last five seasons.

Liberty was 5-0 at home during its inaugural season of 1975-76, 18-0 at home in 1997-98, 13-0 at home in 2003-04 and 15-0 at home in 2005-06.

Winningest Active Coaches

After the completion of his eighth season, Liberty Head Coach Carey Green remains in elite company. Green ranked as the 12th-winningest head coach among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the beginning of the 2007-08 season, with his .743 winning percentage.

Marvelous in March

Liberty has gone 29-9 during the month of March under Carey Green, with seven of the setbacks coming in the NCAA Tournament. The Lady Flames are 7-1 in the regular season, 20-1 in the Big South Championship and 2-7 in the "Big Dance" during the year's third month, under his direction. Last season, Liberty was 1-2 in March. The Lady Flames are 2-0 during March 2008.

The Lady Flames are 37-34 all-time in March contests and did not pick up their first victory in the month until the program's 13th season. Liberty's initial March triumph was an 82-69 win over Randolph-Macon on March 3, 1988.

A Perfect January

Liberty finished the month of January 7-0, recording its first unbeaten month since February 2006. The Lady Flames outscored their opponents by an average of 21.1 ppg during the month. Liberty was paced by Megan Frazee, who shot 57.8 percent from the field, averaged 19.4 ppg and 8.7 rpg and captured a pair of Big South Player of the Week honors.

Lady Flames Battled Wide Range of Non-Conference Foes

This season, Liberty has faced teams from 11 different Division I conferences during its non-conference slate. These include the ACC (North Carolina and Virginia Tech), America East (Binghamton), the Atlantic Sun (East Tennessee State), the Atlantic 10 (Richmond and Xavier), the CAA (George Mason and James Madison), Conference USA (Houston), the MAC (Ball State), the MEAC (North Carolina A&T), the Mountain West (UNLV), the Southern (UNC Greensboro) and the Southland (McNeese State).

A Tradition of Success

Lady Flame seniors Allyson Fasnacht, Egle Smigelskaite and Courtney Watkins have been a part of 96 victories in their three-plus years with the program and have won at a .774 clip. The trio is the last portion of the 2005 "Sweet 16" qualifier remaining on the Liberty roster.

First Since ...

Megan Frazee accomplished a pair of feats against Radford on Feb. 6 which had not been done by a Lady Flame for quite some time.

She went 9-for-9 from the free throw line against the Highlanders. It was the first time a Liberty player has made that many foul shots in a single game without a miss since Michelle Wymys shot 14-for-14 on Feb. 3, 1996, at home versus Radford.

Frazee also grabbed a career-high 18 rebounds, the most by a Lady Flame since Katie Feenstra's 19 boards against UNC Asheville on Feb. 12, 2005.

Ahead at the Half

The Lady Flames have taken a lead into the locker room at halftime in 24 of 29 games this season. Liberty is outscoring opponents by an average of 10.2 points in the first half and has held 10 opponents to fewer than 20 first-half points. The Lady Flames have translated halftime advantages into victories on 23 occasions, including the last 21 times in succession.

Green's Milestone Win

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green reached a coaching milestone on Jan. 19, as the Lady Flames' 82-53 triumph at Charleston Southern was No. 200 of his nine-year career. He became the first Big South women's basketball coach to reach 200 wins and fittingly, his milestone came against a Big South foe. Green has posted 133 of his 210 victories (over 63 percent) against conference opposition.

Green's 100th win also came during the "Beach Trip," on Jan. 17, 2004 at Coastal Carolina. Liberty's head coach notched a 69-58 win over his alma mater.

Liberty in the NCAA Rankings

Liberty is ranked in the top 15 nationally in six statistical categories in the most recent report, through the games of March 6. The Lady Flames stand second in field goal percentage defense (.336), fifth in rebounding margin (+11.0), seventh in scoring margin (+18.2), 10th in won-lost percentage (.893), 12th in scoring defense (53.8 ppg) and 14th in field goal percentage (.464).

Additionally, junior Megan Frazee sits 11th in the nation in free throw percentage (.878).

Big South Recognition

Liberty has collected eight out of 17 Big South Player of the Week awards this season. Megan Frazee has won the award six times this season (Nov. 26, Jan. 7, Jan. 21, Feb. 11, Feb. 25 and March 10) and 12 times in her career. She is one of three Big South players (also Liberty alumni Katie Feenstra and Elena Kisseleva) to win at least 10 Big South Player of the Week honors during her career.

Moriah Frazee captured the distinction on Dec. 10 and Feb. 4, the first two recognitions of her time at Liberty.

Liberty Wraps Up Another Winning Season

With a Jan. 21 win at Coastal Carolina, Liberty's 16th of the year, the Lady Flames clinched their 12th-consecutive winning season and the 16th in program history.

Additionally, Liberty has recorded 13 winning seasons in its 20 campaigns as a NCAA Division I member. Below is a list of the previous years the Lady Flames have finished above the .500 mark.

2006-07	19-12	1998-99	21-8
2005-06	25-6	1997-98	28-1
2004-05	26-7	1996-97	22-8

2000-01	18-12	1975-76	7-1
1999-2000	23-8

Competing with the Commonwealth

Liberty played seven games against teams from the Commonwealth of Virginia during the 2007-08 regular season. The Lady Flames went 6-1 versus in-state foes, defeating Virginia Union (Nov. 30), James Madison (Dec. 4), Richmond (Jan. 5), George Mason (Jan. 15) and Radford (twice, Feb. 6 & March 7) and losing at Virginia Tech (Nov. 19).

Nationally Ranked in Rebounding

Liberty has outrebounded 15-consecutive opponents and is now listed No. 5 nationally in rebounding margin (+11.0). The Lady Flames have ranked among the nation's top 10 squads in rebounding margin four-straight years.

Head coach Carey Green's team led the nation in rebounding margin in both 2003-04 and 2004-05 and was listed third in 2005-06. Last season, Liberty ended the year listed fifth in rebounding margin.

Coach Carey Green Versus The Big South

Liberty is 134-13 (.912) against Big South opponents under Carey Green's direction, since he took the helm of the program. The Lady Flames are 112-12 in regular season conference games and 22-1 in the Big South Championship.

The Lady Flames have not lost to current Big South members Coastal Carolina (21-0) and Charleston Southern (20-0) with Green as head coach.

Lady Flames Excel in the Classroom

Liberty is not only enjoying a string of success on the hardwood, but the Lady Flames have received national recognition for their work in the classroom. Liberty ranked a program-best seventh in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Top 25 Honor Roll this past season on the strength of its 3.508 team GPA.

This is the fourth time in program history the Lady Flames have been included in the Top 25 Honor Roll. Liberty tied for 14th during the 2005-06 academic year and ranked 13th in 1999-2000, Carey Green's first season at Liberty. The Lady Flames were also 12th in 1998-99.

Strong in the Second Half

Megan Frazee enjoyed a stellar second half at Winthrop on Feb. 27, nearly leading Liberty to a come-from-behind victory. Frazee notched 15 points and 12 rebounds after halftime, the latest in a series of exceptional second-half performances by the junior this season.

Frazee totaled 21 points and five rebounds during the second half at Xavier on Nov. 25, had 20 points and 12 boards after the break at Radford on Feb. 6 and contributed 16 points and seven caroms during the final 20 minutes at High Point on Feb. 23.

Record-Setting Night at the Vines

Liberty burned up the Vines Center nets, Feb. 18 against Charleston Southern. The Lady Flames shot 67.3 percent (33-of-49) from the field, breaking the program and Vines Center field goal percentage records.

Lady Flame shooters were at their finest before the intermission, connecting on 19-of-23 (82.6 percent) field goals and draining 8-of-9 (88.9 percent) three-pointers.

Liberty's 99 points were the most the team has ever scored in a Big South game.

Success Versus Tough Competition

The Lady Flames have played six teams this season who currently have 20 or more wins--East Tennessee State, James Madison, North Carolina, North Carolina A&T, Radford and Xavier. Liberty is 6-1 versus the 20-win squads.

2007-08 Liberty University Women's Basketball Game Notes

Receiving Some Recognition

Liberty received its first Top 25 vote of the season in the Dec. 10 AP Top 25 poll. The Lady Flames earned a season-high 32 votes in the Feb. 25 edition. Liberty tied for the 32nd-most votes in the current poll with 8.

In the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 Poll, Liberty garnered its first vote on Dec. 18 and received a season-best 30 votes in the Feb. 26 poll. This week, the Lady Flames tied for the 27th-most votes, 19.

Composure in Close Situations

The Lady Flames are 8-2 in games decided by 10 points or less during the 2007-08 campaign. By contrast, Liberty was only 6-10 in such games a season ago.

Frazee Among Nation's Elite

Megan Frazee is averaging 18.4 ppg and 9.5 rpg on the season, and is one of only nine players in the nation posting at least 18.0 ppg and 9.0 rpg, through March 6.

The other players on the short list include DeWanna Bonner of Auburn, Natalie Doma of Idaho State, Traci Edwards of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Crystal Kelly of Western Kentucky, Angel McCoughtry of Louisville, Courtney Paris of Oklahoma, Jenna Smith of Illinois and Tamera Young of James Madison.

Triple the Trouble

Liberty sports the only set of triplets currently playing for the same NCAA Division I women's basketball team--juniors Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee. Through 29 games, the Frazees are averaging 38.2 points and 19.4 rebounds per outing, good for 53.1 percent of the Lady Flames' scoring output and 45.6 percent of the team's boards. Collectively, the Frazee triplets have totaled 2,687 career points and 1,425 career rebounds.

Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee started together against High Point on Feb. 23 for the sixth time this season and the 14th time in their career.

One of the Frazees has led Liberty in scoring in 27 of this season's first 29 games.

Reaching a Pair of Milestones

Junior Megan Frazee reached a pair of career milestones earlier this season. She became the 19th Lady Flame ever to pull down 500 rebounds, Dec. 21 at UNLV. Frazee then scored career point No. 1,000 at No. 4 North Carolina, Dec. 30. The guard/forward is the 11th member of Liberty's 1,000-point club and is the third fastest to reach the mark, doing so in her 58th career game.

Frazee is the sixth Lady Flame to top both 1,000 career points and 500 career rebounds. Katie Feenstra, Elena Kisseleva, Sharon Snodgrass, Pam Wilder and Sharon Wilkerson are the other members of this exclusive club.

Liberty's Iron Woman

Liberty senior shooting guard Courtney Watkins has yet to miss a contest, in the first three-plus seasons of her Lady Flame career. Her consecutive games played streak currently sits at 124. Liberty's contest against Houston on Nov. 24 was Watkins' 100th-consecutive game played for the Lady Flames.

If Watkins can stay healthy, she is on track to break 2007 graduate Michelle Parker's Liberty and Big South records for career games played during the Lady Flames' second postseason contest. Parker finished with 125 career games played.

Watkins is tied with Daina Staugaitiene for second place on Liberty's career games played list. Watkins' classmate and backcourt mate Allyson Fasnacht has made 121 career appearances, and ranks fourth on Liberty's all-time list.

Junior Molly Frazee has also played in every game since she has been a part of the Liberty roster. The Buckeye State native has appeared in 91-straight contests.

2007-08 Liberty University Women's Basketball Game Notes

Winning Streaks

The Lady Flames saw their 13-game winning streak halted on Feb. 27 at Winthrop. The streak equaled the fifth-longest in program history. Earlier this season, Liberty won nine-straight games, which marks the school's 10th-longest streak. The 1997-98 Lady Flames own the program record, winning 28-consecutive games to start the season.

Academic Honors

Juniors Megan Frazee and Moriah Frazee both earned places on the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first-team roster, making Liberty one of five teams in the nation with multiple first-team selections. For Megan Frazee, it was the second-straight year she has been so honored.

Senior Allyson Fasnacht, a first-team selection a year ago, made the second team this season.

Megan Frazee went on to become a second-team ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American. She was one of only two juniors (Tennessee's Candace Parker) included on either the first or second-team rosters.

Frazee, a kinesiology major carrying a 3.91 cumulative GPA, is the second Academic All-American in program history. Kristal Tharp was also a second-team honoree, during her senior year in 2005.

Sister Act

Megan Frazee scored a game-high 22 points during Liberty's Jan. 29 win over High Point, while sister Moriah Frazee added a career-best 20 markers. The duo became the first set of sisters in the nation to score 20 points or more in the same game this season.

The feat is not unprecedented in Liberty women's basketball history. Twin sisters Sarah and Sharon Wilkerson, who played for the Lady Flames from 1997-2000, both went over the 20-point mark in the same contest four times during their career.

Double-Doubles

Junior Rebecca Lightfoot recorded her first career double-double against High Point on Jan. 29, finishing with 10 points and 10 boards. She is one of three current Lady Flames with a double-double to her credit. Moriah Frazee's lone double-double consisted of 16 points and 11 caroms, Nov. 24 versus Houston.

Megan Frazee has posted 35 career double-doubles, 13 of which have come this season. She leads all Big South performers in the category and has tallied four double-doubles in a row.

Most Wins in Program History

Liberty has recorded 10 20-win seasons, all of which have come in the last 12 years. The 1997-98 Lady Flames set a school record with 28 wins, finishing the campaign at 28-1. This year's team is tied for second on the program's single-season wins list and would equal the school record if it wins this weekend's tournament.

Below are the winningest seasons in program history.

Women's Basketball Game Notes

The Container is Half Full

Liberty has won all eight games this season in which it has shot 50 percent or better and is 48-0 in such contests under head coach Carey Green.

Lack of Overtime

The Lady Flames' 64-62 overtime setback at High Point on Jan. 20, 2007 marked the first time in Liberty's previous 101 contests it had to play extra time.

The Lady Flames' most recent win in overtime came on Jan. 6, 2004, when Liberty defeated American, 76-72, on the road in double overtime. No current Lady Flame has won an overtime contest in college.

Liberty's most recent overtime contest at the Vines Center was a memorable one. The Lady Flames defeated Virginia, 77-69, in overtime on Nov. 26, 2002, to claim their first-ever win over the Cavaliers.

Hot in the Furnace

The 2007-08 campaign is the 16th season the Liberty University women's basketball team has called the Vines Center its full-time home. Liberty's first-ever contest at the Vines Center was an 86-74 loss to East Tennessee State, on Dec. 7, 1990, but the "Furnace" has served as a favorable venue for the Lady Flames over the years. Liberty is 178-49 (.784) all-time at the Vines Center, including 13-0 this season.

Dial Three Digits for Long Distance

The Lady Flames have made at least one three-pointer in a school-record 100-straight games, a streak which began on Feb. 26, 2005. Liberty set the mark at UNLV on Dec. 21. The Lady Flames previously went 82-consecutive games with a three-pointer between Jan. 24, 1998 and Dec. 20, 2000.

First Since Feenstra

Junior forward Moriah Frazee tallied a career-high 20 points against High Point during a Jan. 29 victory over High Point. She became the first Liberty player other than sister Megan Frazee to reach the 20-point plateau since March 22, 2005, when Katie Feenstra totaled 29 points against DePaul, enabling the Lady Flames to reach the "Sweet 16."

Megan Frazee accumulated 24 games of 20-plus points during the intervening period, including a 22-point outing on Jan. 29.

Going the Distance

Megan Frazee set a new career high by playing all 40 minutes of Liberty's 70-62 triumph over Radford, March 7 at the Vines Center. She had played 38 minutes on three previous occasions, at George Washington (12/10/06), at UNLV (12/21/07) and at UNC Asheville (03/01/08).

Frazee became the first Lady Flame to play 40 or more minutes in a game since a double overtime contest at American on Jan. 6, 2004. In the game, Kristal Tharp logged a school-record 48 minutes and Katie Feenstra played 47 minutes.

Spectacular on Saturday

Saturdays are generally popular among college students, and the Liberty women's basketball players are no exception. The Lady Flames have been victorious in all 11 Saturday contests this season, with nine of the victories coming by double digits.

Most recently, Liberty clinched the Big South regular-season title during a Saturday contest at the Justice Center, on March 1.

Freshman Rachel McLeod is the Lady Flame who has benefitted the most from Saturday tilts. For the season, the rookie is averaging 4.1 ppg and 1.9 apg. On Saturday, her numbers rise to 5.7 ppg and 2.6 apg.

Women's Basketball Game Notes

Miss Consistency

Junior Megan Frazee has scored in double figures in each of her last 41 games, dating back to Jan. 27, 2007. It is the longest such streak of her career and the longest by a Liberty player since Elena Kisseleva scored 10 or more points in 62-straight contests, a streak which began in 1996-97 and ended in 1998-99.

Frazee has only scored nine or fewer points on four occasions at Liberty, and the Ohioan has never done so in consecutive outings.

Clamping Down on Defense

The Lady Flames have held their last 48 opponents under 50 percent from the field. The last Liberty foe to shoot 50 percent or higher was Marist, at the Maryland Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29, 2006.

Liberty has limited 14 of its 29 opponents to 35 percent or lower field goal efficiency this season, and the opposition is shooting just 33.8 percent versus the Lady Flames. Liberty ranks No. 2 nationally in the category.

No Offense, No Problem

Liberty defeated Richmond on Jan. 5 despite scoring a season-low 45 points and making just three field goals after halftime. The Lady Flames had not scored that few points in a victory since taking a 36-32 defensive struggle from Radford, Jan. 27, 2001.

Rewriting the Record Book

Liberty set or tied a number of records during its 100-29 victory over Virginia Union on Nov. 30. Here is a look at some of the notable accomplishments from the contest:

- The Lady Flames' field goal percentage (.646, 42-65) set new team and Vines Center single-game records. (Broken on 2/18/08 - .673, 33-49 vs. Charleston Southern)
- Liberty's 11 three-pointers equaled the most the Lady Flames have ever made in a game at the Vines Center.
- Liberty's 33 assists set a program NCAA Division I record.
- Moriah Frazee went 8-for-8 from the field to establish a new Vines Center record for single-game field goal percentage.
- Liberty's 100 points marked the eighth time in program history the Lady Flames have scored in triple digits, and the first since Dec. 13, 1997.

Lady Flames in Elite Company

Liberty is both shooting the ball well from the field and limiting its opponents' field goal percentage this season. The Lady Flames rank 14th nationally in field goal percentage (.464) and are second in field goal percentage defense (.336).

No. 1 Connecticut, No. 2 North Carolina and No. 14 Utah are the only other teams in the nation to rank in the top 15 of both statistical categories.

Tournament Success

Liberty claimed its second tournament championship of the season with a 70-68 victory over host UNLV in the title tilt of the inaugural Lady Rebel Christmas Classic on Dec. 21. Megan Frazee was voted tournament MVP and sister Moriah Frazee joined her on the all-tournament team.

The Lady Flames previously won the championship trophy at the Nov. 23-25 National City Xavier Invitational in Cincinnati, Ohio. Liberty won all three of its games, becoming only the second visiting team ever to capture first place in the tournament. Megan Frazee garnered tournament MVP honors after spearheading Liberty's second-half comeback against Xavier and Moriah Frazee made the all-tournament team.

It is believed to be the first time in Liberty history the Lady Flames have won a pair of in-season tournaments during a single campaign.

Game 1
Greensboro, N.C.

Liberty opened the second half with a 13-0 run, breaking open a tight, season-opening contest at UNC Greensboro. The Lady Flames went on to claim a 62-44 win at Fleming Gym, Tuesday evening, opening its season with a road win for the first time since the 1979-80 campaign. Molly Frazee's career-best 17 points helped Liberty open its 2007-08 season at 1-0. The Lady Flames forced 19 turnovers, limited the Spartans to 32.6 percent from the field and owned a 42-25 edge on the glass. UNC Greensboro fashioned an early 7-0 run, taking a 9-2 advantage on a pair of Agne Girstautaitė free throws at the 12:53 mark. The Lady Flames held UNCG scoreless for nearly six minutes late in the half and were able to open up their largest advantage of the opening 20 minutes, 23-17, on Rachel Hammond's third field goal of the half. Liberty owned a 23-21 halftime edge. Megan Frazee initiated a 13-0 second half-opening run by the Lady Flames with a pair of layups. Rebecca Lightfoot's 10-foot baseline jumper with 14:30 left ended the run and put Liberty on top by a 36-21 count. Molly Frazee later poured in eight-straight points to highlight a 12-0 Liberty run, which gave Liberty a 20-point lead, 50-30, with 7:05 remaining. From that point on, the Lady Flames cruised to their fourth-consecutive victory in a season opener and defeated the Spartans for the first time since March 1, 1997.

Game 2
Greensboro, N.C.

Megan Frazee's first double-double of the season (16 points, 10 rebounds), Courtney Watkins' career-high 15 points and a late 10-0 run added up to Liberty's second win in Greensboro, N.C., in four days. The Lady Flames held off North Carolina A&T by a 68-64 score, at the Corbett Sports Center. A three-pointer by Rachel McLeod capped an 11-0 Liberty surge during the opening half, putting the Lady Flames on top, 26-17. Liberty, which shot 51.9 percent from the field during the opening 20 minutes, took a 41-34 lead into the locker room. The homestanding Aggies whittled away at the Liberty advantage throughout the second half. A 13-5 surge cut the deficit to a single point, 53-52, with 13:10 left. A Ta'Wuana Cook three-pointer and two Lamona Smalley foul shots put North Carolina A&T ahead, 59-57, at 4:29. Liberty responded with a 10-0 run, spanning the next 4:09 and featuring a Courtney Watkins triple and an Allyson Fasnacht three-point play. Watkins' three-pointer gave the Lady Flames the lead for good. A Megan Frazee lay-up finished the span and lifted the Lady Flames to a 67-59 edge with just 37 seconds left. The Aggies quickly trimmed the margin to three points, after a Brittany Taylor-James three-pointer and a Jaleesa Sams layup. Fasnacht then sealed Liberty's second-straight road victory to start the season, when her charity toss provided the final margin of 68-64.

Game 3
Blacksburg, Va.

Liberty opened up a 10-point halftime lead at Virginia Tech, but the Hokies came out of the intermission on a 23-6 run, propelling them to a 73-68 decision at Cassell Coliseum. Virginia Tech improved to 14-0 all-time versus Liberty. The Hokies controlled the early part of the game, and a 7-0 run capped by a Brittany Cook layup at 12:00 put them on top, 16-9. Six different Lady Flames scored during their most effective stretch of the first half, a 13-2 surge. Rachel McLeod's close-range basket lifted Liberty to a 38-28 advantage, and the Lady Flames took the same 10-point edge (40-30) into the locker room. It took the Hokies just 3:14 to erase Liberty's lead, and the home team had built a 53-46 edge, a little over six minutes into the half. The Lady Flames battled back and briefly retook the lead at the 3:44 mark, when Moriah Frazee's layup made the count 62-61, Liberty. The score was deadlocked at 64 apiece when an intentional foul call paved the way for a four-point Hokie possession. The Lady Flames were unable to get any closer the rest of the way, and Virginia Tech made three-of-four charity tosses in the final minute to seal its 73-68 triumph. The Hokies received 29 points from freshman Andrea Barbour and 22 markers from Brittany Cook. Liberty's Moriah Frazee contributed 14 points and eight rebounds.

Game 4
Cincinnati, Ohio

Liberty shot a season-best 55.2 percent from the field and all 11 players scored during a 92-52 win over McNeese State, the opening game of the National City Xavier Invitational. The Lady Flames made their first three shots of the evening, culminating with a fast break layup by Rebecca Lightfoot at 17:35, which put Liberty on top by a 6-0 count. After Marcy Robinson got McNeese State on the scoreboard with a mid-range jumper at the 16:18 mark, Liberty answered with 14-consecutive points. The Lady Flames' run included a trio of three-pointers, and the Liberty advantage ballooned to 20-2 when Molly Frazee sank a pair of free throws at 11:53. The Lady Flames' lead reached 40 points, 55-15, 1:09 before the half, when Moriah Frazee made a basket in the paint to cap a 7-0 burst. Liberty took a 57-18 lead into the locker room at halftime, after connecting on 64.5 percent (20-of-31) of their field goals and six three-pointers during the opening 20 minutes. The Cowgirls scored four of the first five points to start the second half, closing the gap to 58-22 on Robinson's hoop with 18:33 remaining. Alexandria Bream recorded seven-straight Liberty points near the middle of the second half, the last two of which increased the Lady Flame edge to 82-35. From that point on, Liberty cruised to a 92-52 victory, scoring 90-plus points for the sixth time under head coach Carey Green's direction. Megan Frazee finished with 21 points and seven rebounds in just 16 minutes of work, in a return to her home state of Ohio.

Game 5
Cincinnati, Ohio

Sisters Megan and Moriah Frazee both fashioned double-doubles against Houston and Liberty held off the Cougars' valiant comeback attempt to prevail, 70-61. Megan and Moriah Frazee combined to score the Lady Flames' first 14 points of the evening, but a Ryan Bradley three-pointer for Houston knotted the score at 10-10 with 14:11 left in the first half. Liberty answered with a 12-3 spurt, featuring two field goals apiece by Molly Frazee and Rebecca Lightfoot. At the conclusion of the run, Liberty's lead was 22-13 at 8:26. Houston came right back with a 16-4 run, taking its first lead of the game, 29-26, on Tye Jackson's three-pointer from the corner, 26 seconds before intermission. Molly Frazee's triple tied the score at 29-all, heading to the locker room. The duo of Megan and Moriah Frazee got Liberty started in the second half, notching the first 10 points of a half-opening 12-2 burst. Courtney Watkins' coast-to-coast layup at the 14:52 mark pushed the Lady Flames' lead to 41-31. Liberty's advantage reached 17, 61-44, before Houston's final comeback attempt. The Cougars put together a 13-1 surge, trimming the deficit to 62-57 when Courtney Taylor cashed out a pair of free throws with 1:15 left. Liberty then put the game away with five-straight points of its own, on its way to a 70-61 decision in its first-ever meeting with Houston. Megan Frazee's 25th career double-double included 19 points and 12 boards, while Moriah Frazee's first double-double featured 16 points and 11 rebounds.

Game 6
Cincinnati, Ohio

With her team trailing host Xavier by 11 points in the second half of the National City Xavier Invitational championship game, Liberty's Megan Frazee took over offensively. She scored 21 of her game-high points after halftime, earning tournament MVP honors and leading the Lady Flames to a 61-56 victory. A pair of Amber Harris three-pointers enabled the Musketeers to start out with an 8-2 lead. It took just over a minute for Liberty to respond with seven-straight markers. A Molly Frazee three-pointer from the wing put the Lady Flames in front, 9-8, at the 13:06 mark. Xavier countered with an extended 17-3 run, featuring three triples. Ta'Shia Phillips pair of free throws 4:51 before halftime, gave the home team its largest lead of the afternoon, 25-12. Liberty cut into the lead with a 9-2 run, which ended with a long three-pointer by Megan Frazee. At halftime, the Lady Flames trailed by nine points, 30-21. The Xavier edge reached 11 before Liberty started to chip away at it. A 9-3 Lady Flame burst trimmed the gap to 35-30, after Moriah Frazee's three-pointer with 14:33 remaining. Liberty got to within a single point three times before breaking through with a decisive 10-0 run. Megan Frazee recorded the final eight points of the run, including a pair of free throws at 5:00. Her foul shots gave the Lady Flames the lead for good at 49-48. By the time the run was completed, Liberty was up, 55-48, and went on to claim victory.

Game 7
Lynchburg, Va.

Playing its home opener after six games away from the Vines Center, the Lady Flames shot a team and Vines Center-record 64.6 percent from the field in a 100-29 win over Virginia Union. The Lady Flames scored 100 points for the first time in Carey Green's nine seasons at the helm. The Lady Flames and Panthers combined to score on their first seven possessions of the game. Liberty owned a 9-6 advantage after the barrage, which featured a pair of hoops by Moriah Frazee. Liberty held Virginia Union to a single field goal over a 12-and-a-half minute span. During the stretch, the Lady Flames ripped off a 34-2 run. Liberty connected on six triples during the extended surge, two apiece by Alexandria Bream and Allyson Fasnacht, taking a 41-8 lead. A Dashia Chandler three-point play kick-started an ensuing 5-0 Virginia Union surge. However, Liberty tallied eight of the half's final 10 markers to claim a 49-15 halftime edge. The Lady Flames posted 28 of the second half's first 32 points, taking a 77-19 lead on Rebecca Lightfoot's layup with 11:17 left. Moriah Frazee posted 11 tallies during the stretch. Kittery Maine's basket with 20 seconds left put Liberty at the 100-point plateau for the first time since a 103-61 triumph over Cedarville on Dec. 13, 1997. Five Lady Flames reached double figures in the points column, including all three Frazee triplets. Moriah Frazee led all players with a season-high 18 points, sinking all eight of her field goals.

Game 8
Lynchburg, Va.

All five Liberty starters scored in double figures, helping the Lady Flames record a pair of notable "firsts." Liberty recorded its first-ever win over James Madison, 79-66, and handed the Dukes their initial loss of the season. JMU scored on its first three possessions of the evening and led by a 7-2 count after Tamera Young's old-fashioned three-point play at 18:34. The Dukes' advantage reached a game-high six points, 25-19, with 9:41 on the first-half clock after a Jasmin Lawrence fast break layup. The homesteading Lady Flames were then able to put together an 8-1 burst and take their first lead of the game, 27-26, 6:00 before halftime. The lead saw-sawed back and forth before Liberty took a 37-35 lead into the locker room, courtesy of Moriah Frazee's seventh field goal of the opening 20 minutes. Sister Megan Frazee made an offensive push during the opening minutes of the second half. Her two free throws at 9:47 gave the Lady Flames their first double-digit advantage, 59-49. Freshman center Lauren Jimenez came off the James Madison bench and tallied nine-straight Duke points. Her three-point play at the 9:01 mark finished a 5-0 burst, which sliced JMU's deficit in half. On Liberty's ensuing possession, the Lady Flames made their first three-pointer of the contest, a timely connection by Courtney Watkins which halted the James Madison run and increased her team's lead to 62-54. The Dukes were unable to get any closer than eight points the rest of the way.

Game 9
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty connected on 62.8 percent of its field goals versus Binghamton. The Lady Flames' shooting efficiency propelled them to their sixth-consecutive win, a 76-40, wire-to-wire triumph over the Bearcats. Liberty made four of its five field goal attempts during an early 8-0 run, giving the Lady Flames their first double-digit advantage. Courtney Watkins wrapped up the surge with a layup off a Kittery Maine steal, pushing the Liberty edge to 18-6 at the 10:34 mark. Binghamton tossed in the game's next three points, trimming the deficit to nine on Brianna Thompson's free throw with 9:04 showing on the first-half clock. The Bearcats were still within 10 at 7:54, before experiencing a 6:24 scoring drought. During the stretch, Liberty ran off 15-consecutive points. Moriah Frazee and Rachel Hammond each contributed six markers to the run. Hammond's steal and fast break layup capped off the surge with Liberty on top, 36-11, 1:57 before the break. The Lady Flames owned a 40-13 advantage at halftime. The Bearcats scored four of the first six points after the break, cutting the Liberty lead to 42-17 on Jaki Goldner's hoop with 17:10 left. That's as close as Binghamton would get the rest of the afternoon, however. Later in the second half, Liberty fashioned a 12-0 run, featuring five Rachel McLeod points. From that point on, Liberty cruised to a 76-40 decision, as all 11 players registered their names in the scorebook, paced by Moriah Frazee's 17 markers.

Game 10
Lynchburg, Va.

A 14-0 run early in the second half helped Liberty women's basketball team break away from a pesky Glensville State club for a 66-54 victory at the Vines Center. The Pioneers, making their first-ever visit to the Vines Center, got off to a fast start, utilizing the three-point shot. Glensville State owned a 9-4 advantage after its third long-distance connection, by Christine DiSabato at the 18:04 mark. Liberty responded with a 15-2 surge over the next 8:18. Moriah Frazee provided six points during the burst, including a layup at 9:46, which put the Lady Flames on top by a 19-11 margin. A 5-0 Glensville State burst trimmed the Pioneers' deficit to 19-16, 7:51 before the half. Courtney Watkins answered with Liberty's lone triple of the afternoon on her team's ensuing possession, initiating an 11-2 run. Watkins' two free throws at 4:33 boosted the Lady Flames' advantage to 30-18. Liberty took a 36-29 lead into halftime. Pioneer Kristen Golden made the first basket of the second half, bringing her team within five, 36-31. Liberty held Glensville State scoreless for more than five minutes after Golden's hoop, fashioning a 14-0 run. Rebecca Lightfoot completed the surge with a layup at 15:41. Another connection by Golden finished a 5-0 burst by the visitors, shaving the Glensville State disadvantage to 50-36 with 12:55 left. The Lady Flames then sealed the victory with a 12-4 run, which posted Liberty to its largest lead, 62-40. The visitors got no closer than 12 the rest of the afternoon, falling by that margin.

Game 11
Las Vegas, Nev.

Liberty drilled five three-pointers during a 24-2 run early in the first half, taking control of the opening game of the Lady Rebel Christmas Classic early on. The Lady Flames went on to defeat Ball State, 68-56. Liberty's 24-2 surge included five three-pointers. Rachel Hammond scored 11 points during the run and drained three of Liberty's three-pointers. The last of her long-distance connections came at 9:44, putting the Lady Flames on top by a 29-7 margin. All of the Cardinals' points during a 9-2 run came from three-pointers. Audrey McDonald connected from long range with 1:58 on the first-half clock to pull her team within 11 at 36-25. Molly Frazee recorded four of the first half's final six markers, including a layup with 16 seconds left, lifting Liberty to a 40-27 advantage at the intermission. After Moriah Frazee opened the second-half scoring with a hoop 1:30 into the stanza, Ball State scored the next four points, cutting the Liberty edge to 42-31 on Green's two free throws at 16:52. The Cardinals were still within 11 points, before Megan and Moriah Frazee combined for all of Liberty's offense during an 8-2 burst. Moriah Frazee's putback at the 12:00 mark capped the run, increasing the Lady Flames' lead to 52-35. Consecutive triples initiated a 9-2 surge, enabling Ball State to pull to within 10 points, 54-44, with 7:50 remaining in the second half. However, the Cardinals were unable to get any closer and Liberty closed out a 68-56 victory by making six of eight foul shots in the final minute.

Game 12
Las Vegas, Nev.

Allyson Fasnacht made all six of her free throws in the final 32.5 seconds, enabling her team to hold off host UNLV's late rally and claim a hard-fought 70-68 victory. With the win, the Lady Flames captured the inaugural Lady Rebel Christmas Classic title. An 8-2 run allowed UNLV to claim a 13-11 advantage on Allison Holiday's three-pointer from the top of the key, 13:57 before halftime. The teams were tied at 25-apiece before Molly Frazee drilled Liberty's first three-pointer of the night, starting a 12-2 Liberty surge. Subsequent three-pointers by Courtney Watkins and Fasnacht highlighted the extended Liberty run, which ended with the Lady Flames holding their first double-digit lead of the game. Megan Frazee's field goal closed out the surge, putting her team on top by a 37-27 margin, 1:00 before the break. UNLV trimmed the gap to six with four quick points, but Liberty owned a 39-31 halftime edge. Liberty's lead ballooned to 47-36 points at the 17:13 mark, after a 6-1 burst. Sequoia Holmes began to find her range for the Lady Rebels, and her back-to-back triples finished a 9-2 Lady Rebel run. The burst trimmed Liberty's lead to 54-52 with 8:22 to play. Holmes' four-straight points tied the score at 62 with 2:29 on the clock. Neither team scored again until Megan Frazee sank a jumper in transition with 56 seconds left, giving Liberty the lead for good, 64-62. Fasnacht then sealed the win by making six-consecutive free throws.

Chapel Hill, N.C.

Megan Frazee became the 11th Liberty player to reach 1,000 career points, but the Lady Flames saw their nine-game winning streak halted by No. 4 North Carolina, 88-67. Frazee scored on the first Liberty possession of the afternoon, putting back her own missed shot for the Lady Flames' only lead of the game. North Carolina then roared back with 11-unanswered points and went ahead by an 11-2 margin when Jessica Breland made both of her free throws at the 16:29 mark. Frazee's 999th and 1,000th career points came when she banked in a shot from the right block with 9:23 showing on the first-half clock. Her milestone connection ignited an extended, 13-4 Liberty run. Frazee's third field goal of the surge pulled her team to within two points, 25-23, 6:17 before the break. Cetera DeGraffenreid's fast break layup off a Tar Heel steal at the 2:23 mark finished an ensuing 14-4 North Carolina surge. LaToya Pringle contributed five points to the run, which boosted coach Sylvia Hatchell's squad's edge to 39-27. North Carolina then took a 45-31 halftime lead. North Carolina's initial three-point connection of the contest, by Rebecca Gray, enabled the Tar Heels to claim a 20-point advantage with 13:44 on the clock, 60-40. Liberty countered with eight-straight markers, six of them by Molly Frazee. Frazee's pair of foul shots at the 11:54 mark made the score 60-48, North Carolina. That was as close as the Lady Flames would get, though. North Carolina claimed an 88-67 win on the strength of 21 steals and 28 made free throws.

Game 14
Lynchburg, Va.

The Liberty women's basketball team held Richmond to a single field goal during a 14-minute stretch of the second half, as the Lady Flames prevailed in a defensive struggle, 45-38. Liberty won despite making only three shots from the field in the second half. Megan Frazee, who finished with a game-high 21 markers and eight rebounds, scored Liberty's first seven points, helping stake the Lady Flames to an early 9-4 edge. The Spiders came back to tie the score twice during an ensuing 7-2 spurt. Megan Frazee then closed out the half in the same manner she had started it. She made back-to-back layups, giving Liberty a 25-16 halftime edge. Richmond tallied the initial seven points of the second half, trimming its deficit to 25-23 when Katie Holzer sank a layup, 2:48 after the intermission. Liberty held the visitors scoreless for 9:02, fashioning an 8-0 run in the meantime. Megan Frazee gave Liberty its first double-digit lead of the contest, 36-26, with a pair of free throws at the 8:36 mark. Kara Powell's two charity tosses with 1:03 left cut the deficit to 40-34. But that's as close as the Spiders would get, as Liberty closed out a 45-38 triumph by draining five-of-six free throws in the final minute. The 45 points marked the fewest the Lady Flames have scored in a victory since edging Radford, 36-32, on Jan. 27, 2001.

Game 15
Johnson City, Tenn.

Liberty came from behind with a game-ending 9-2 run at East Tennessee State, claiming a hard-fought, 64-60 victory at the Memorial Center. Molly Frazee's three-point play with 1:05 left put the Lady Flames ahead for good. Liberty drained its first five shots from the field, running out to an early 11-2 advantage. Megan Frazee closed out the surge with a baseline jumper at the 17:47 mark. The Lady Flames were then able to score only four points over the next 12:19, and the Liberty drought enabled ETSU to take its first lead, 17-15, on Devin Thompson's old-fashioned three-point play, 6:46 before halftime. The two sides then went back and forth for the remainder of the opening 20 minutes. Jenny Norman's layup at the 17-second mark gave the Lady Bucs a 30-29 advantage at the intermission. The Lady Flames got off to a strong start in the second half. Liberty put together a 10-0 spurt, keeping ETSU off the scoreboard for nearly five minutes. The run resulted in a 41-32 Lady Flame edge. East Tennessee State battled back and a 10-2 run put the Lady Bucs back on top, 55-53, with 3:19 remaining. The ETSU lead stood at 58-55 at 2:05. Megan Frazee cut the deficit to one, after going two-for-two from the line at 2:01. Sister Molly Frazee followed with the aforementioned three-point play with 1:05 left, giving her squad the lead for good at 60-58. Siarre Evans' second-chance layup with 21 seconds on the clock sliced the lead to a single point, 61-60, but those would be the Lady Bucs' final tallies of the evening. A Moriah Frazee lay-in and another charity toss by Megan Frazee wrapped up a 64-60 squeaker for the Lady Flames.

Game 16
Lynchburg, Va.

An 11-2 surge early in the second half helped the Liberty women's basketball team break open a close game against George Mason, and the Lady Flames went on to claim a 69-54 victory over the Patriots. Liberty's early edge reached five points before the visiting Patriots fashioned an 11-2 surge. Eugenia Broadus' connections from the line left the Patriots in front, 18-14. The Lady Flames went back on top after a 7-1 burst. Molly Frazee's driving layup at the 5:56 mark gave Liberty a 23-21 edge. The two squads continued to exchange the lead over the next several minutes, trading the advantage six times over the remainder of the stanza. Liberty closed out the half with an 8-0 surge over the final 2:05. Megan Frazee sent the Lady Flames into the break on top, 36-31, after sinking a three-pointer from the corner as the halftime buzzer sounded. Liberty took its first double-digit lead of the contest at 14:32 of the second half, when Courtney Watkins' tri-fecta put Liberty ahead by a 47-36 count. The long-distance connection finished a string of seven-consecutive Lady Flame markers for the senior shooting guard. Her hot streak ignited an 11-2 Liberty run, which concluded with Liberty holding a 51-36 edge. George Mason got no closer than 12 the rest of the way, and the Lady Flames boosted their edge to as large as 16 before closing out a 69-54 triumph.

Game 17
Charleston, S.C.

Megan Frazee's 24 points and nine rebounds helped the Lady Flames cruise to an 82-53 win over Charleston Southern in their Big South opener, giving head coach Carey Green his 200th career triumph. Consecutive three-pointers by Courtney Watkins, the second of which came at 14:23, bumped Liberty's early advantage to eight points, 11-3. The Lady Buccaneers quickly sliced their deficit in half with four-straight markers. Cindee Wright's hoop in transition made the score 11-7, Liberty with 13:43 showing on the first-half clock. The Lady Flames came right back with a 12-0 surge. Watkins closed out the run with a jumper from the corner, putting Liberty on top by a 23-7 count at the 8:37 mark. A string of nine-consecutive Liberty points scored by Megan Frazee enabled the Lady Flames to take their largest lead of the stanza, 34-13. The Lady Buccaneers responded, notching 12 of the half's final 16 points. By halftime, the Liberty advantage had been trimmed to 38-25. Liberty roared out of the gate to start the second half, sinking its first four shots as part of a half-opening, 9-2 surge. Allyson Fasnacht's fast break layup capped the run, bolstering the Lady Flames' lead to 47-27. A 19-3 Liberty spurt, featuring 11 points from sister tandem Megan and Molly Frazee, allowed the Lady Flames to double up CSU's score, 68-34. From that point on, Liberty cruised to its fourth-straight victory to open the calendar year 2008.

Game 18
Conway, S.C.

Liberty's defense limited Coastal Carolina to 14 first-half points, enabling the Lady Flames to complete a 2-0 "Beach Trip" with a 71-44 triumph. After Coastal Carolina got on the board first, Liberty's halfcourt-trapping defense began to cause some problems for the Chanticleers. The Lady Flames forced a trio of turnovers during an ensuing 10-0 run, which put Liberty on top by a 10-2 margin at the 15:59 mark. Consecutive three-pointers by Vicky Blanchard and Lacey Lyons quickly cut the Coastal Carolina deficit to 10-8, with 15:07 remaining in the half. Liberty then limited the homestanding Chanticleers to a single field goal over the next 12 minutes of action. The stinginess enabled the Lady Flames to put together a 20-2 surge, featuring eight Allyson Fasnacht points. Moriah Frazee's hoop at the 3:18 mark lifted Liberty to a 20-point advantage, 30-10. Liberty took the same margin into the locker room, leading 34-14 after 20 minutes. The Lady Flames built their lead during the first 2:18 of the second half, tallying six-consecutive points. Moriah Frazee's layup made the score 40-14, Lady Flames. Coastal Carolina's first field goal of the second half did not come until 6:34 had elapsed. By that time, Liberty's edge had ballooned to 32, 50-18. C.J. Ware closed out a 7-2 burst by the Chanticleers with a basket at 12:01, pulling her team to within 52-25. Liberty scored the next seven points, recapturing the momentum on its way to a 71-44 win.

Game 19
Lynchburg, Va.

The Liberty defense held visiting Presbyterian without a field goal for the first 12 minutes, running out to a 29-2 lead. The Lady Flames went on to claim an 88-41 win in their first-ever meeting with the Lady Blue Hose. Megan and Moriah Frazee combined to score the afternoon's first eight points for the Lady Flames, giving the home team a lead it never relinquished. Presbyterian got on the board at the 17:18 mark of the opening half, on a pair of charity tosses by Amy Jones. The Lady Blue Hose did not score again for more than nine minutes, allowing Liberty to reel off a 21-0 run. Rachel Hammond lifted Liberty's lead to 29-2 with a jumper at 8:37. Katlin Moore's three-pointer snapped Presbyterian's field goal drought and initiated a 9-1 burst for the blue-clad visitors. Sharie Hopkins' third layup of the surge, coming with 5:42 on the first-half clock, trimmed her team's deficit to 30-11. Presbyterian only scored two more points the remainder of the stanza, though, and Liberty took a 38-13 edge into the intermission. Head coach Carey Green's squad opened the second half with an 8-2 burst, bumping its lead over 30 points for the first time at the 17:22 mark, when Lightfoot drained a layup to make it 46-15. The Lady Blue Hose never got closer than 29 the rest of the way. Liberty was able to build its lead by shooting 71 percent from the floor during the second half. All 11 Lady Flames scored, paced by Moriah Frazee's 15 tallies.

Game 20
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty shot just 37.3 percent from the floor but outrebounded High Point by 17 caroms in a 76-57 triumph. Both squads sputtered at the offensive end to start the game. Three-consecutive markers by Courtney Watkins after the first media timeout highlighted an 8-2 spurt by the Lady Flames. Rebecca Lightfoot's free throw at 11:17 boosted her team's edge to 16-8. Four-consecutive points by freshman LaTeisha Dean halved the visitors' deficit. Her two free throws with 10:48 showing on the first-half clock cut the gap to 16-12. The Lady Flames countered with a 13-4 surge, taking their first double-digit lead of the night. Molly Frazee went 6-for-6 from the charity stripe during the run, including a pair at 5:16 which increased the lead to 29-16. Liberty's lead reached 16 before the Panthers tallied the stanza's final three markers, bringing the halftime score to 35-22. Consecutive Jurica Hargraves hoops, the second of which came at the 18:23 mark and closed out a 10-1 Panther run to start the second half, shaved High Point's deficit to 36-29. Megan Frazee's tip-in rebuilt Liberty's advantage to 46-31 with 11:56 remaining in the half, capping an 8-2 run. Back-to-back three-pointers by High Point's Dean and Ayonna Thompson pulled their team to within single digits at 52-43 at 9:29. Megan Frazee answered immediately with a triple. Another Frazee three-pointer, coming with 6:53 to play, wrapped up the Lady Flames' 9-1 burst and lifted their edge to 61-44. High Point got to within 14 points twice before Liberty put the game away with a 10-1 burst.

Game 21
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty came up with 13 steals, leading to 31 points off turnovers, sparking the Lady Flames to a 76-51 Big South triumph over Winthrop. Liberty sank just four of its first 14 shots from the floor, before building a bit of a cushion with a 6-0 burst. Moriah Frazee tallied the last four points of the run, and made it 13-6 with two foul shots at the 11:57 mark. Winthrop twice trimmed its deficit to four points, but Liberty was able to take its first double-digit lead, 23-12, by tallying seven-consecutive markers. The teams traded points for the next couple minutes, until Winthrop fashioned a 7-0 surge. Ashley Fann's tip-in narrowed the gap to 27-23, with 2:25 showing on the first-half clock. Fasnacht closed out an ensuing 7-1 run for the Lady Flames with a three-pointer at 1:04. Her triple rebuilt a double-digit lead, boosting Liberty's margin to 34-24. The Lady Flames went into halftime up, 34-27. Courtney Watkins drilled a three-pointer from the corner, just 15 seconds into the second half, initiating a half-opening 11-3 Liberty surge. Moriah Frazee's layup at 16:15 increased her team's edge to 45-30. Shortly thereafter, Liberty began to force turnovers in rapid succession. The Lady Flames came up with five steals during an 11-0 run, capped by Rachel McLeod's fast break layup with 11:11 left. Liberty was in front by a 56-32 margin after her two points went through the cylinder. Shanice Cole canned a layup for Winthrop, breaking her team's six-minute offensive drought and trimming the Liberty advantage to 22. The visitors could get no closer the rest of the way, however.

Game 22
Radford, Va.

Megan Frazee tallied 26 points and a career-high 18 rebounds, helping Liberty hold off Radford, 63-50. The Lady Flames owned a 30-8 second-half rebounding advantage and held the Highlanders to 27.6 field goal shooting in the contest. Liberty did not claim the lead until 6:36 in, when Moriah Frazee completed an old-fashioned three-point play, putting the Lady Flames on top by a 7-6 margin. Liberty later built its margin with a 10-2 surge. Allyson Fasnacht's jumper 3:33 before the intermission lifted the Lady Flames' advantage to nine, 24-15. Rachel McLeod's three-pointer from the corner at the 1:00 mark sent Liberty to halftime with a 10-point bulge, 27-17. Liberty tallied six of the second half's first eight points, increasing its lead to 33-19 on Fasnacht's one-handed floater in the lane, at the 16:41 mark. The Lady Flames still owned a 14-point lead before Radford used a pair of three-pointers to spark a 10-0 run. Taleia Moton's foul shot with 11:12 left in the half finished off the burst, paring her team's deficit to 35-31. Liberty was able to gain some breathing room, thanks to a 10-0 spurt of its own. McLeod's triple lifted the Lady Flames to a 51-35 advantage at 4:35. An 8-2 surge allowed Radford to cut an 18-point edge to 12 with 2:02 to play. A Moton free throw made the score 58-46 in favor of Liberty. The Lady Flames then sealed its fifth-straight double-digit conference win by sinking five of their six charity tosses in the final 1:29.

Game 23
Lynchburg, Va.

The Liberty women's basketball team defeated Big South rival UNC Asheville, 69-55, after leading the contest from start to finish. Liberty ran out to an 8-0 lead to start the game against the depleted Bulldogs, who dressed only seven players. Chioma Okoli came off UNC Asheville's bench and made an immediate impact. She drained two three-pointers during an 8-2 Asheville burst, the second of which narrowed the gap to 13-10 at the 14:51 mark. Liberty answered with nine-consecutive markers, building a 22-10 advantage by the second media timeout. Once again, UNC Asheville utilized the three-point shot to get back into the game. A long-distance connection by Ashton Barton shaved her squad's deficit to 24-18, 9:01 before the half. Liberty displayed its defensive prowess during the half's closing minutes. The Lady Flames held UNC Asheville to a single field goal over the remainder of the period, enabling Liberty to craft a 14-point halftime edge, 43-29. An Okoli layup with 18:28 remaining trimmed UNC Asheville's deficit to 47-34. But that's as close as the visiting Bulldogs would get in their attempt to win at the Vines Center for the second-straight season. Despite a 6:07 scoreless drought during the final stanza, the Lady Flames went on to claim a 69-55 triumph, their sixth-consecutive double-digit victory to open conference play.

Game 24
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty held Coastal Carolina without a field goal for a 14-minute span of the second half, enabling the Lady Flames to begin the stanza with a 33-5 surge. The run fueled a 76-39 conference win. Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee scored the Lady Flames' first 13 points of the contest, including all of Liberty's tallies during a game-opening 10-2 run. Molly Frazee's layup at 14:22 capped the burst. The Chanticleers responded with five-straight points over the next 56 seconds. Amanda Stull's jumper trimmed her team's deficit to 10-7. Coastal Carolina also pulled to within a trio of points at 14-11 and 16-13, as both teams struggled to find the hoop. The two sides scored only six markers apiece during a seven-minute stretch of the first half. A 13-4 surge boosted the Lady Flames' advantage to 29-17, 1:30 before the intermission. Megan Frazee's second jumper of the span finished off the run. The Chanticleers trailed by a 29-19 count at the break, after a long jumper by Jessica Noll provided the final points of the half. Stull made another jump shot at 18:27 of the second half to keep her team within 13, 34-21. Coastal Carolina did not make another field goal for the next 14 minutes, allowing Liberty's lead to balloon as large as 40 points. The Lady Flames' 33-5 half-opening run ended with 5:30 left in the contest. Alexandria Bream's left-handed layup extended the home team's edge to 62-24 at the end of the surge. The surge incorporated 16-0 and 10-0 bursts by Liberty. The Chanticleers got no closer than 34 the rest of the way.

Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty set program and Vines Center records, by shooting 67.3 percent (33-of-49) from the field against Charleston Southern. The Lady Flames' proficient marksmanship propelled them to a 99-42 rout of the Lady Buccaneers. Liberty was also hot from long range, connecting on 71.4 percent (10-of-14) of its three-point tries. Charleston Southern scored on two of its first three possessions, taking a 5-4 advantage when Katie Tull swished a three-pointer just 1:21 into the contest. Liberty answered with a 17-2 surge, taking the lead for good. Courtney Watkins tallied nine points during the run, including a three-pointer at 14:32, which lifted the Lady Flames to a 21-7 lead. Later in the half, four-consecutive Lady Flame possessions resulted in triples. Rachel Hammond's trifecta closed the stretch and left Liberty in front, 41-15. Charleston Southern responded with an 8-2 burst, which featured a pair of Whitney Wiley three-pointers. The freshman's second triple trimmed the Lady Buccaneers' deficit to 43-23 at the 4:22 mark. Molly Frazee tallied the next four points, initiating a 10-0 Liberty surge. The Lady Flames' edge reached 30 at 53-23 on Rachel McLeod's layup at the 57-second mark. Liberty's halftime advantage was 53-24. The Lady Flames only missed four field goals during the first half, shooting 82.6 percent (19-of-23) from the floor and 88.9 percent (8-of-9) from the three-point line. During the second half, Liberty cruised to its 12th-straight win.

Game 26
High Point, N.C.

Liberty raced out to a 17-2 lead at the outset of its game at High Point. However, the Panthers came back to tie the game in the second half, before the Lady Flames were able to hang on for a 78-68 triumph. With the victory, Liberty clinched at least a share of the Big South conference regular-season title. High Point only made one of its first 14 field goal attempts, an Amber Manuel layup at 15:59. The Panthers' early offensive struggles enabled Liberty to open the game with a 17-2 surge. Megan Frazee and Moriah Frazee combined for 13 of the visitors' points during the run, which spanned the first 8:21 of action. High Point battled back for the remainder of the half, pulling to within three before trailing 32-27 at the intermission. The Lady Flames recorded the initial two points of the second half, boosting their lead to seven prior to an 8-1 High Point run. Hargraves connected on two triples from the left wing during the surge. Her second three-pointer knotted the game at 35 apiece, at 16:23. Megan Frazee posted eight points during Liberty's ensuing 11-1 burst. The junior took a rebound coast-to-coast for a layup, with 13:17 left in the second half, making the score 46-36 in favor of the visitors. High Point later notched six-straight points, cutting the gap to 60-58 on Jurica Hargraves' third triple of the half, with 5:48 remaining. Watkins continued her stellar second-half shooting, making two more triples during an ensuing 8-2 Liberty surge. High Point trimmed its disadvantage to seven twice, but got no closer.

Game 27
Rock Hill, S.C.

A 19-foot jumper by Megan Frazee gave Liberty its first lead of the game, with 1:38 left at Winthrop. However, the Eagles scored the game's final five points to halt the Lady Flames' winning streak at 13 with a 56-52 triumph. Winthrop composed an early 12-2 surge. Shanice Cole's layup at the 11:27 mark gave the homestanding Eagles a double-digit lead, 18-8. The Lady Flames tallied the final three points of the stanza, and trimmed their halftime deficit to 28-22 when Molly Frazee hit a free throw at the 48.4-second mark. Molly Frazee answered with a three-pointer on Liberty's ensuing possession, pulling her team back to five points down at 34-29. That was as close as the visitors would get for the time being, as Winthrop's lead climbed back to nine on three occasions, 40-31, 42-33 and 46-37. The last nine-point edge came when Cole scored on a putback with 7:30 remaining. Five-consecutive Molly Frazee points started an 8-2 surge by the Lady Flames. Megan Frazee's layup at the 3:50 mark cut the gap to 48-45. After a Fann charity toss, Liberty scored seven of the next nine points, all courtesy of Megan Frazee. Her long jumper at 1:38 put the Lady Flames on top for the first time all evening, 52-51. Rodd scored from just outside the paint on Winthrop's next possession, reclaiming a one-point edge with 1:08 left. Her little hook shot proved to be the game winner. Liberty misfired on its last three shot attempts, and the Eagles closed out their first victory over the Lady Flames since Feb. 22, 1997 with a trio of van Daalen free throws in the last 20.3 ticks.

Game 28
Asheville, N.C.

Megan Frazee led all players with 19 points and matched a career high with 18 rebounds, helping Liberty defeat host UNC Asheville, 60-46. With the victory, the Lady Flames sewed up the Big South Conference regular-season title. The Lady Flames scored the first 10 points of the afternoon. Megan Frazee brought the game-opening surge to a close with a perimeter jumper at 16:07. Liberty did not score its next points for 7:50. During the drought, UNC Asheville tallied its first seven markers. Shortly thereafter, coach Carey Green's unit experienced another extended pointless span. The offensive outage, which lasted five minutes, enabled UNC Asheville to knot the score at 15-all. Stacy Shepard evened the score 3:22 prior to halftime. Liberty closed out the opening stanza with eight-straight markers of its own. Megan Frazee sent the Lady Flames into the locker room with a 23-15 edge by sinking a hoop at the 32-second mark. Megan Frazee's putback 33 seconds into the stanza gave the Lady Flames another 10-point bulge, 25-15. UNC Asheville trimmed the deficit to four, 27-23, after a subsequent 8-2 run. Later, a 9-0 Liberty surge pushed the lead to 40-27, when Megan Frazee connected from close range at 11:02. Shepard's five-foot bank shot with 8:27 left narrowed the white-clad UNC Asheville team's disadvantage to 40-36, capping a 9-0 run. Liberty then put the game out of reach with eight-straight markers.

Game 29
Lynchburg, Va.

For the second time this season, a stellar performance by Megan Frazee played a key role in her team's victory over in-state rival Radford. Frazee finished with 26 points, 13 rebounds and five steals, helping the Lady Flames hold off the Highlanders, 70-62, in the regular-season finale at the Vines Center. Liberty made its first four field goal attempts of the evening, sparking a game-opening 10-2 run. Megan Frazee scored six points during the spurt, including a fast break lay-up at 15:47, which gave the Lady Flames an early eight-point edge. Radford was within six before Megan Frazee's old-fashioned three-point play initiated a 9-2 Lady Flames surge. Rebecca Lightfoot contributed four points to the run, including a 15-foot baseline jumper with 3:38 on the first-half clock, which made it 27-14, Liberty. The Highlanders responded, scoring five of the stanza's final six markers. The late surge trimmed the Lady Flames' halftime lead to 28-19. The second half featured four ties and a pair of lead changes, as the teams exchanged scoring runs. Six-consecutive Radford markers, including a Corrie Fertitta triple at 8:53, provided the red-clad visitors a 50-49 edge, their lone lead of the night. The score was deadlocked at 54 apiece before Liberty's decisive 6-0 surge. Egle Smigelskaite's putback at the 4:30 mark gave Liberty the lead for good, and Megan Frazee's second-chance hoop 1:13 later built the advantage to 60-54. Radford shaved its deficit to four points on four occasions during the final three minutes. However, Liberty held off each comeback attempt with some clutch free throw shooting. The Lady Flames went 6-of-8 from the charity stripe during the last 37 seconds of the game, wrapping up a 70-62 triumph.
