UNLV Lady Rebels (3-6, 0-0 Mountain West)
Cox Pavilion (2,500) - Las Vegas, Nev.

The Games

The Liberty Lady Flames (9-1, 0-0 Big South) will attempt to win their second tournament this season, when they travel to Thursday and Friday's Lady Rebel Christmas Classic, hosted by UNLV in Las Vegas, Nev. Liberty will square off with Mid-American Conference foe Ball State (3-7, 0-0 MAC) in Thursday's opening round. The Lady Flames will then play for either first or third place Friday, against either Austin Peay (4-5, 1-1 Ohio Valley) or host UNLV (3-6, 0-0 Mountain West).

The Last Time Out

The Lady Flames utilized a 14-0 run during the early stages of the second half to distance themselves from a scrappy Glensville State outfit. Liberty went on to claim its seventh-straight victory, 66-54 over the Pioneers, completing a 4-0 homestand. Megan Frazee paced all players with 17 points, while sister Moriah Frazee added 12 points and a game-high eight boards for the Lady Flames.

Lady Flames On The Air

All Lady Flames basketball games can be heard LIVE on WWMC 90.9 FM "The Light." Jamie Hall, who is celebrating his 14th year of broadcasting Lady Flames basketball, will once again be handling the courtside play-by-play duties for most road games. Due to Hall's television responsibilities, Jerod Brooks will serve as the primary commentator for home games.

Lady Flames On TV

For the fifth year in a row, the Flames Television Network (FTN) plans to broadcast all 13 home women's basketball games. FTN's regular announcing team will consist of Ray Jones on play-by-play and Jamie Hall on color.

Women's Basketball Game Notes

Liberty University Head Coach: Carey Green (Coastal Carolina, '79)

Record at Liberty: 194-65 (Ninth year)

Overall Record: Same

You must be doing something right as a collegiate head women's basketball coach, if a 19-12 season is considered to be a bit of a letdown by many observers. That's just the case for Carey Green, the ninth-year head coach of the Liberty Lady Flames, who has raised the program's standards to an extremely high level.

Green has accumulated a 194-65 record on the Liberty bench, good for a winning percentage of .749. He ranked 12th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches in winning percentage, at the beginning of the season.

More importantly, Liberty has won the Big South Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament seven times with Green as head coach. Liberty has totaled 23 or more victories during six of those years, including the 2004-05 season, which saw the Lady Flames reach the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history.

Green has actually been to the postseason on 19 occasions as a women's basketball coach, a span which includes a dozen years as an assistant coach at Clemson. In all but one of the 19 appearances, he has experienced the NCAA Tournament.

Last season, the Lady Flames went 19-12 and tied for second place in the Big South. The season was highlighted by a 75-71 win at Virginia, which made the Lady Flames the first visiting team ever to triumph in the brand-new John Paul Jones Arena.

Rebounding and defense have always been staples of Green-coached teams, and the 2006-07 Lady Flames were no exception. Liberty outrebounded opponents by an average of 10.6 caroms per game, ranking fifth nationally. The Lady Flames have now been listed among the nation's top five teams in rebounding margin for four-straight years. Liberty led the nation in the category in both 2003-04 and 2004-05.

The 2005-06 season represented one of the best coaching jobs of Green's career. The Lady Flames had lost the top four scorers from the Sweet 16 squad to graduation. Moreover, freshman Megan Frazee averaged 18.5 points and 9.8 rebounds per game through the first 14 games of her collegiate career, but was lost for the remainder of the season due to injury. Yet, Liberty was still able to win 25 games, capture its 10th-straight Big South title and earn its 10th-consecutive NCAA Tournament berth.

Green's efforts were recognized by both the Big South Conference and the Virginia Sports Information Directors (VaSID). Both groups named Green as women's basketball coach of the year at season's end. It was the third time he has won each of those honors and marked Green's second-straight selection as VaSID Coach of the Year.

A key late-season conference victory over High Point in 2006 made Green the winningest coach in Big South Conference history. The previous season, Green had passed Rick Reeves as Liberty's career wins leader.

The record-setting victory was just one of the many reasons the 2004-05 year was a special one on Liberty Mountain. A senior-laden Lady Flames team recorded upset wins over No. 4 seed Penn State (78-70) and No. 5 seed DePaul (88-79) in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, becoming just the second team ever to advance to the Sweet 16 as a No. 13 seed. The Lady Flames ended the season with their highest national ranking to date, No. 21 (USA Today/ESPN).

Green's track record shows he has the ability to meet strong challenges. The Lady Flames have recorded two wins over both Virginia and West Virginia and solo victories over No. 19 DePaul, No. 17 Kansas State, No. 25 Penn State, UNLV and Wake Forest during Green's tenure. The upset victory over No. 25 Virginia in 2003 marked Liberty's first win over a Top 25 team.

His record against conference foes is equally impressive. He led the Lady Flames on a Big South-record 47-game winning streak and currently has a .911 (123-12) winning percentage against conference teams. Green has marched through conference play with one or fewer setbacks five times, while guiding the Lady Flames to two undefeated conference seasons.

2007-08 Liberty University Women's Basketball Game Notes

Scouting Ball State

Ball State, hailing from Muncie, Ind., went 24-7 a season ago, matching a school record for victories and claiming the Mid-American Conference (MAC) West Division title. The runners-up in the MAC Tournament, the Cardinals played in the WNIT Tournament for the third time in head coach Tracy Roller's six years.

Four starters return from last season's squad, headed by 5-10 senior forward Julie DeMuth, a first-team All-MAC honoree a year ago. As a result, the Cardinals were picked as the favorite to win the MAC Tournament.

However, Ball State has struggled through the early stages of the 2007-08 season. The Cardinals have dropped five-consecutive games to fall to 3-7. DeMuth, one of three Ball State players averaging double figures in scoring, paces the squad in points (12.8 ppg) and rebounds (7.0 rpg).

Scouting Austin Peay

The Austin Peay Lady Gobs, from Clarksville, Tenn., represented the Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) at the NCAA Tournament four-straight times, between 2001 and 2004. However, Austin Peay has won 15 or fewer games in each of the past three seasons, including a 10-20 campaign a season ago.

Two starters are back from the 2006-07 Lady Gobs team, but Austin Peay is currently being led in scoring by a pair of freshman guards. Ashley Herring, a 5-9 guard/forward, is averaging 12.9 ppg and 6.4 rpg, leading Austin Peay in both categories. Alex Bivens, a 5-8 guard, is next with 11.1 ppg and has made 21 three-pointers. The duo has combined for three OVC Freshman of the Week honors already, two by Herring and one by Bivens.

The Lady Gobs had won four of five games, before dropping back-to-back contests against Eastern Kentucky and Middle Tennessee State to slip to 4-5.

Scouting UNLV

Last season, the host UNLV Lady Rebels suffered their first losing season (14-15) in head coach Regina Miller's nine years at the helm of the program. The Lady Rebels had qualified for postseason play six-straight seasons prior to the 2006-07 campaign.

UNLV is looking to rebound this season behind four returning starters, including 6-1 senior guard/forward Sequoia Holmes, the reigning Mountain West Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Holmes posted 14.2 ppg, 6.3 rpg and 2.6 spg as a junior.

The Lady Rebels are 3-6 to open the 2007-08 season, including an improbable 62-61 triumph over No. 16 George Washington on Nov. 30. UNLV erased a 25-point deficit to stun the Colonials. Holmes is averaging 22.3 ppg, which is tied for fifth in the nation.

The Coaching Matchups

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green is in his ninth season with the Lady Flames. He owns a 194-65 career record and is the all-time wins leader at Liberty and among Big South women's basketball coaches. His career winning percentage (.749) ranked 12th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the beginning of the season.

Tracy Roller owns a career record of 118-73 in her seventh season at Ball State. Already the winningest coach in program history, Roller has guided the Cardinals to three 20-win seasons and three trips to the WNIT Tournament. She will miss the Lady Rebel Christmas Classic, though, due to illness. Associate head coach Lisa McDonald, in her seventh year with the Cardinals, will take the reins in Roller's absence.

Carrie Daniels is 14-25 in her second year as head coach at her alma mater, Austin Peay. She was an assistant coach at Western Kentucky for seven seasons prior to returning to the Lady Gobs.

Regina Miller has tallied a 170-109 mark in 10 seasons as UNLV's head coach, a run which includes a 26-win season in 2003-04 and a NCAA Tournament appearance in 2001-02. Her overall record stands at 230-209 in 16 seasons.

Women's Basketball Game Notes

Series History

Liberty has never faced either Austin Peay or Ball State on the basketball hardwood. However, the Lady Flames have squared off with UNLV once, during Carey Green's first season as head coach, 1999-2000.

Liberty defeated the Lady Rebels, 75-71, in the opening game of the Nassau Sun Splash Shootout in the Bahamas, on Dec. 20, 1999. UNLV's all-time leading scorer, Linda Frohlich, recorded 26 points and helped her team take a four-point halftime lead. Sharon Wilkerson, one of four Liberty players in double figures with 17 points, then helped the Lady Flames come from behind during the final 20 minutes.

Liberty Versus the Mid-American Conference

Thursday's game versus Ball State will be just the fourth game the Lady Flames have ever played against one of the 12 current members of the Mid-American Conference (MAC) and only the second under Carey Green's guidance. Liberty owns a 2-1 record versus MAC opposition.

The Lady Flames are 1-0 versus Akron, 1-0 versus Buffalo and 0-1 versus Miami (Ohio). Liberty's most recent game against a MAC opponent was a 59-40 triumph over Buffalo at the Michigan State Spartan Chevrolet Classic, on Nov. 17, 2001.

Liberty has yet to face MAC squads Ball State, Bowling Green, Central Michigan, Eastern Michigan, Kent State, Northern Illinois, Ohio, Toledo and Western Michigan in women's basketball.

Liberty Versus the Ohio Valley Conference

Liberty is 2-2 all-time versus the Ohio Valley Conference's (OVC) 11 member institutions. The Lady Flames have met four different OVC squads one time apiece. They defeated Samford and Tennessee State and fell to Morehead State and Tennessee-Martin.

The Lady Flames defeated Tennessee State by a 74-38 margin on Dec. 3, 2004, in the opening round of the Kansas State Commerce Bank Wildcat Tournament, marking Carey Green's only meeting with an OVC foe. Liberty senior Egle Smigelskaite helped her team reach the tournament championship game with five points and eight caroms against the Tigers.

Liberty has never been matched up against the OVC's Austin Peay, Eastern Illinois, Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State, Murray State, Southeast Missouri State and Tennessee Tech.

Liberty Versus the Mountain West Conference

Liberty's 1999 victory over UNLV is the only game the Lady Flames have ever played against the current nine-team membership of the Mountain West Conference. The conference also includes Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, TCU, Utah and Wyoming.

In-Season Tournament Notes

After going 0-4 during a pair of in-season tournaments during the 2006-07 campaign, Liberty found success at the National City Xavier Invitational, Nov. 23-25 at the Cintas Center in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Lady Flames won all three of their games over the weekend, including a come-from-behind, 61-56 triumph over the host Musketeers in the title tilt, Nov. 25. Liberty captured the tournament championship trophy, becoming only the second visiting team ever to do so. Megan Frazee was tabbed tournament MVP and Moriah Frazee earned a spot on the all-tournament team.

Liberty's most recent in-season tournament title, prior to its win at Xavier earlier this season, came at the Kansas State Commerce Bank Wildcat Tournament, Dec. 3-4, 2004. The Lady Flames won both of their games, including a victory over No. 17 Kansas State in the championship contest, to earn the championship.

2007-08 Liberty University Women's Basketball Game Notes

Big South Recognition

Liberty became the first conference team to garner a pair of Big South Player of the Week honors this season. Megan Frazee won the award on Nov. 26, after leading the Lady Flames to the National City Xavier Invitational title. Sister Moriah Frazee was the conference honoree on Dec.10, for the first time in her career. She averaged 17.0 ppg and 6.0 rpg and shot 82.4 percent (14-of-17) for the week, helping Liberty win games against James Madison and Binghamton.

Double Figures x 5

All five Liberty starters scored in double figures during the Lady Flames' 79-66 win over previously unbeaten James Madison on Dec. 4. Megan Frazee led the way with 20 points and was followed by Moriah Frazee (17 points), Courtney Watkins (13), Rebecca Lightfoot (11) and Allyson Fasnacht (10).

Fasnacht was a freshman starter the last time the Lady Flames accomplished the feat, in an 86-71 home victory against Radford, Jan. 29, 2005. That evening, Katie Feenstra tossed in 20 points, Kristal Tharp had 19, Daina Staugaitine posted 15, Fasnacht notched 11 and Rima Margeviciute tallied 10.

Triple Digits Inside the Furnace

Liberty's 100-29 victory over Virginia Union on Nov. 30 marked the Lady Flames' first 100-point game since a 103-61 triumph over Cedarville, Dec. 13, 1997 at the Vines Center. It was the Lady Flames' first 100-point output since Carey Green took over as head coach, prior to the 1999-200 season. In fact, Green's Liberty teams, which have been built around rebounding and defense, have only gone over the 90-point plateau seven times in his nine seasons.

TGIF

The Lady Flames have gone 3-0 in Friday games so far this season and have exploded for 92 and 100 points in their last two Friday tilts. Unfortunately, Liberty only has two Friday contests left on the docket, the championship/consolation game at the Lady Rebel Christmas Classic on Dec. 21 and the season-ending home game against Radford on March 7.

Winningest Active Coaches

After the completion of his eighth season, Liberty Head Coach Carey Green remains in elite company. Green ranked as the 12th-winningest head coach among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the beginning of the 2007-08 season, with his .743 winning percentage.

Women's Basketball Game Notes

Record in December

Liberty is 72-97 all-time in December contests, while Carey Green is 28-28 during the year's final month. Last season, the Lady Flames were only able to win one of seven December outings.

In 2007-08, Liberty is scheduled to play six contests in December. The month's first three games will be played at the Vines Center, while the Lady Flames will return to the road for the final three tilts. Liberty is 3-0 to start the year's 12th month.

Liberty Versus Non-Conference Opposition

The Lady Flames own a 254-283 all-time record against non-conference competition. Liberty's best season against non-conference foes came in 1997-98, when the Lady Flames went 14-1 outside the Big South. Liberty's lone non-conference setback that season came to eventual national champion Tennessee in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The Lady Flames are 9-1 in non-conference tilts in the 2007-08 season.

Lady Flames to Battle Wide Range of Non-Conference Foes

This season, Liberty will face teams from 11 different Division I conferences during its non-conference slate. These include the ACC (North Carolina and Virginia Tech), America East (Binghamton), the Atlantic Sun (East Tennessee State), the Atlantic-10 (Richmond and Xavier), the CAA (George Mason and James Madison), Conference USA (Houston), the MAC (Ball State), the MEAC (North Carolina A&T), the Southern (UNC Greensboro) and the Southland (McNeese State). The Lady Flames will also meet either a Mountain West (UNLV) or Ohio Valley Conference (Austin Peay) opponent in their second game at the Lady Rebel Christmas Classic, on Dec. 21.

A Tradition of Success

Liberty finished the 2006-07 season with a 19-12 record, sealing the Lady Flames' 11th-straight winning campaign. Lady Flame seniors Allyson Fasnacht, Egle Smigelskaite and Courtney Watkins have been a part of 79 victories in their three-plus years with the program and have won at a .752 clip. The trio is the last portion of the 2005 "Sweet 16" qualifier remaining on the Liberty roster.

The Bench Bunch

Liberty's bench players, highlighted by Molly Frazee, Rachel Hammond and Rachel McLeod, have been a key component in the Lady Flames' early-season success. The Lady Flames' reserves have outscored their opponent's counterparts in seven of 10 games this year. Liberty is averaging 22.6 bench points per contest, 8.4 more than its opponents. Three times (Glenville State, Virginia Tech and Xavier), the Lady Flames limited their foe to four or fewer bench points.

Ahead at the Half

The Lady Flames have taken a lead into the locker room at halftime in eight out of 10 games this season, including the last four contests. Liberty is outscoring opponents by an average of 11.8 points during the first half thus far. The Lady Flames have translated halftime advantages into victories seven out of eight times.

Win No. 200 is on the Horizon

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green is closing in on a milestone. He has compiled 194 victories during his first eight-plus seasons with the Lady Flames, leaving him just six wins shy of 200. Green would become the first women's basketball coach in Liberty and Big South Conference history to reach the milestone.

If the Lady Flames win their next six games, Green will capture victory No. 200 at home, versus George Mason (Jan. 15). If not, Green's next opportunities will come at Charleston Southern (Jan. 19) and at his alma mater, Coastal Carolina (Jan. 21).

Liberty in the NCAA Rankings

Liberty is ranked in the top 25 nationally in eight statistical categories. The Lady Flames are fifth in field goal percentage defense (.325), tied for 10th in win-loss percentage (.900), 12th in scoring margin (+20.3), 14th in field goal percentage (.477), 15th in free throw percentage (.774), 18th in rebounding margin (+9.9), 24th in scoring (74.2 ppg) and 24th in scoring defense (53.9 ppg).

Additionally, junior Megan Frazee sits 17th in the nation in free throw percentage (.907).

Green Tops in Big South

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green currently ranks as the winningest coach in Big South Conference history with a .749 winning percentage. His 194 career wins also put him atop the conference's coaching list.

Green is 101-11 in Big South Conference games and is also the all-time leader in Big South Conference victories. He passed former Radford coach Luby Lichonczak with a home win over Charleston Southern, Feb. 19, 2007.

Liberty and Winning Seasons

The Lady Flames have posted 11-consecutive winning seasons and 15 total winning seasons in their 32 years of competition. Liberty has posted 12 records of above .500 in its 19 seasons as a NCAA Division I program.

Competing with the Commonwealth

Liberty is slated to play seven games against teams from the Commonwealth of Virginia during the 2007-08 season. The Lady Flames are 2-1 versus in-state foes so far, defeating Virginia Union (Nov. 30) and James Madison (Dec. 4) and losing at Virginia Tech (Nov. 19).

Later in the season, Liberty will meet Richmond (Jan. 5), George Mason (Jan. 15) and Radford twice (Feb. 6 and March 7). A year ago, the Lady Flames were victorious in six of 10 games against Commonwealth opposition.

A Hard Row to Hoe

Six of Liberty's 2006-07 opponents earned spots in the NCAA Tournament (George Washington, James Madison, Marist, Pittsburgh, Texas-Arlington and UNC Asheville), and this season's schedule appears to be just as difficult.

The Lady Flames will face a quartet of 2007 NCAA Tournament teams this season, including Final Four team North Carolina, James Madison, UNC Asheville and Xavier. Liberty has 11 regular-season games slated versus 20-win squads from a season ago. Eight of the contests against 20-win teams will be played away from the Vines Center.

Coach Carey Green Versus The Big South

Liberty is 123-12 (.911) against Big South opponents under Carey Green's direction since he took the helm of the program prior to the 1999-2000 campaign. The Lady Flames are 101-11 in regular season conference games and 22-1 in the Big South Championship.

The Lady Flames have not lost to current Big South members Coastal Carolina (19-0), Winthrop (19-0) and Charleston Southern (18-0) with Green as head coach.

Lady Flames Excel in the Classroom

Liberty is not only enjoying a string of success on the hardwood, but the Lady Flames have received national recognition for their work in the classroom. Liberty ranked a program-best seventh in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Top 25 Honor Roll this past season on the strength of its 3.508 team GPA.

This is the fourth time in program history the Lady Flames have been included in the Top 25 Honor Roll. Liberty tied for 14th during the 2005-06 academic year and ranked 13th in 1999-2000, Carey Green's first season at Liberty. The Lady Flames were also 12th in 1998-99.

Big South Conference
2007 Preseason Rankings
& All-Conference Team

Liberty, which saw its streak of Big South titles halted at 10 a season ago, has been picked to finish second in the conference this season. Additionally, Lady Flame junior guard/forward Megan Frazee has been tabbed the Preseason Big South Player of the Year for the second-straight time, in a poll of the Big South coaches, sports information directors and members of the media.

The Lady Flames return three starters and nine letterwinners from their 2006-07 squad, which went 19-12 overall and tied for second in the conference with a 10-4 loop mark. Liberty was ousted in the Big South semifinals by Radford, who edged the Lady Flames for first place in the preseason conference poll.

The Highlanders, the 2007 Big South Championship runners-up, took 16 of 25 first-place votes and 162 total points. Liberty finished six points back, with 156 points. The Lady Flames received the remaining nine first-place votes.

Defending Big South Championship titlist UNC Asheville, the host of the 2008 conference tournament, was voted third with 113 points. High Point, the 2007 Big South regular-season champion, claimed 81 points to take fourth place.

The fifth and sixth-place teams finished very closely behind the Panthers. Winthrop was voted fifth with 80 points, while Coastal Carolina took sixth with 77 points. Charleston Southern is predicted to finish seventh, as the Buccaneers tallied 31 points.

Frazee, Liberty's lone representative on the preseason all-conference roster, was a first-team All-Big South honoree a season ago. She led the conference in rebounds (8.5 rpg), free throw percentage (.772) and three-point field goal percentage (.410) as a sophomore. The 6-3 guard/forward also ranked second with 17.2 ppg.

Receiving Some Recognition

After handing James Madison its first loss of the season and defeating Binghamton to push its winning streak to six games, Liberty received its first Top 25 vote of the season. The Lady Flames earned a single vote in the Dec. 10 AP Top 25 Poll and increased the total to four votes in the Dec. 17 AP Top 25 Poll.

A Tale of Two Halves

In six of 10 games this season, Megan Frazee has scored more second-half points than she tallied in the first half. She is averaging 9.7 points during the final 20 minutes, as compared to 7.2 points prior to intermission.

Frazee's most recent example of dramatically increased second-half production came Nov. 25 at Xavier. She helped the Lady Flames come from 11 points down to win, 61-56, notching 21 of her 28 markers after the break.

This phenomenon is not unprecedented for the junior from Xenia, Ohio, whose most memorable collegiate game to date featured a stellar second half. Frazee led Liberty to a 75-71 win at Virginia on Nov. 20, 2006, recording 31 of her 37 points and nine of her 15 boards after halftime at John Paul Jones Arena.

Triple the Trouble

Liberty sports the only set of triplets currently playing for the same NCAA Division I women's basketball team--juniors Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee. Through eight games, the Frazees are averaging 37.6 points and 18.1 rebounds per outing, good for 50.7 percent of the Lady Flames' scoring output and 42.3 percent of the team's boards.

One of the Frazees has led Liberty in scoring in each game this season. Molly Frazee paced the squad once, Moriah Frazee has done so three times and Megan Frazee has led the way in the other six contests.

Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee started together for the first time this season, Dec. 8 versus Binghamton, helping the Lady Flames defeat the Bearcats. The triplets were a part of the same starting lineup on eight occasions during the 2006-07 season.

Collectively, the Frazee triplets are nearing the 2,000-point plateau for their career. Megan Frazee has posted 961 points, Moriah Frazee has added 612 markers and Molly Frazee has chipped in with 382, for a total of 1,955 career points.

Tracking a Pair of Milestones

Through 55 career games, Megan Frazee has tossed in 961 points, for an average of 17.5 points per game. If she continues at her current scoring rate, Frazee is in line to become Liberty's 11th all-time 1,000-point scorer at North Carolina, on Dec. 30. Frazee would be the third-fastest Lady Flame to reach 1,000 points. Elena Kisseleva took 47 games to score her 1,000th point and Brenda Gunsallus got there in game No. 50.

Frazee is also nearing 500 rebounds. She has pulled down 484 boards in her career, good for an average of 8.8 rpg. Frazee is on pace to collect her 500th board on Dec. 21, during either the championship or consolation game of the Lady Rebel Christmas Classic. She would become the 19th member of Liberty's 500-rebound club and the sixth Lady Flame to post 1,000 points and 500 caroms in her career.

Liberty's Iron Woman

Liberty senior shooting guard Courtney Watkins has yet to miss a contest, in the first three-plus seasons of her Lady Flame career. Her consecutive games played streak currently sits at 105. Liberty's contest against Houston on Nov. 24 was Watkins' 100th-consecutive game played for the Lady Flames. If she can stay healthy, she is on track to break 2007 graduate Michelle Parker's Liberty and Big South records for career games played during the Lady Flames' second contest at the Big South Women's Basketball Championship. Parker finished with 125 career games played.

Juniors Molly and Moriah Frazee have also played in every game since they have been a part of the Liberty roster. Each of them has appeared in 72-straight contests.

The Container is Half Full

Liberty shot the ball well during its first three home games this year, connecting on more than 50 percent of its field goals in each contest. The string included a school and facility-record 64.6 percent outburst against Virginia Union in the Nov. 30 home opener.

Liberty has won all four games this season in which it has shot 50 percent or better and is 44-0 in such contests under head coach Carey Green.

Cleaning the Glass

The Lady Flames have outrebounded their opponents in seven-straight games and have won each of the last seven contests. For the season, Liberty has won the rebounding battle eight of 10 times and is 8-0 when it does so.

Lack of Overtime

The Lady Flames' 64-62 overtime setback at High Point on Jan. 20, 2007 marked the first time in Liberty's previous 101 contests it had to play extra time.

The Lady Flames' most recent win in overtime came on Jan. 6, 2004, when Liberty defeated American, 76-72, on the road in double overtime. No current Lady Flame has won an overtime contest in college.

Liberty's most recent overtime contest at the Vines Center was a memorable one. The Lady Flames defeated Virginia, 77-69, in overtime on Nov. 26, 2002, to claim their first-ever win over the Cavaliers.

Hot in the Furnace

The 2007-08 campaign is the 16th season the Liberty University women's basketball team has called the Vines Center its full-time home. The Lady Flames' Big South home opener against Winthrop on Jan. 22, 2007 was Liberty's 200th contest at the facility. The "Furnace" has served as a favorable venue for the Lady Flames over the years. Liberty is 168-42 (.800) all-time at the Vines Center, including 4-0 this season.

Long Distance Connection

The Lady Flames have made at least one three-pointer in 81-straight games, a streak which began on Feb. 26, 2005. This is Liberty's second-longest streak in program history. The Lady Flames went 82-consecutive games with a three-pointer between Jan. 24, 1998 and Dec. 20, 2000.

There is Only One

Junior guard/forward Megan Frazee has gone over the 20-point barrier 20 times during her Liberty career. However, she is the only current Lady Flame with a 20-point game to her credit. (Allyson Fasnacht and Moriah Frazee both own career highs of 19 points.)

The last time a Liberty player other than Megan Frazee scored 20 points was March 22, 2005, when Katie Feenstra totaled 29 points against DePaul, enabling the Lady Flames to reach the "Sweet 16."

Feasting at the Foul Line

Liberty led the Big South Conference in free throw percentage a season ago, connecting on 70.3 percent of its charity tosses. The Lady Flames are off to an even better start from the line through their first eight games of the 2007-08 season. Liberty is shooting 77.4 percent at the free throw line, a mark superior to the school record of 71.7 percent, achieved in 1997-98. The Lady Flames rank 15th in the nation in the category.

Megan Frazee is leading the way, connecting on a conference-leading 90.7 percent of her free throws. She sank a career-best 18-consecutive charity tosses at one point earlier this season and has drained her last 13 attempts.

Miss Consistency

Junior Megan Frazee has scored in double figures in each of her last 22 games, dating back to the 2006-07 season. It is the longest such streak of her career and the longest by a Liberty player since Katie Feenstra scored 10 or more points in the first 26 games of the 2003-04 campaign.

Frazee has only scored nine or fewer points on four occasions at Liberty, and the Ohioan has never done so in consecutive outings.

Clamping Down on Defense

The Lady Flames have held their last 29 opponents under 50 percent from the field. The last Liberty foe to shoot 50 percent or higher was Marist, at the Maryland Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29, 2006.

Liberty has limited six of its 10 opponents to 35 percent or lower field goal efficiency this season, and the opposition is shooting just 32.5 percent versus the Lady Flames. Liberty ranks fifth nationally in the category.

Lady Flames On a Hot Streak

Liberty has won seven games in a row, which ties the Lady Flames for the ninth-longest current winning streak in the nation. The streak is Liberty's lengthiest since a 14-game winning skein from Jan. 28 to March 11, 2006.

Rewriting the Record Book

Liberty set or tied a number of records during its 100-29 victory over Virginia Union on Nov. 30. Here is a look at some of the notable accomplishments from the contest:

- The Lady Flames' field goal percentage (.646, 42-65) set new team and Vines Center single-game records.
- Liberty's 11 three-pointers equaled the most the Lady Flames have ever made in a game at the Vines Center.
- Liberty's 33 assists set a program NCAA Division I record.
- Moriah Frazee went 8-for-8 from the field to establish a new Vines Center record for single-game field goal percentage.
- Liberty's 100 points marked the eighth time in program history the Lady Flames have scored in triple digits.

Starting Quickly

The Lady Flames' 9-1 start is their best since the 1997-98 squad won its first 28 games of the year. Below is a list of Liberty's all-time best openings to a season.

1997-98: 28-0 (Final Record: 28-1)

2007-08: 9-1 (Final Record: ??)

1996-97: 8-1 (Final Record: 22-8)

1983-84: 7-1 (Final Record: 13-11)

1975-76: 7-1 (Final Record: 7-1)

Fastest to Nine Wins

Liberty has reached the nine-win mark the earliest on the calendar in program history, tying the 1997-98 squad, after the Lady Flames improved to 9-1 with a 66-54 triumph over Glensville State on Dec. 15. The 1997-98 Lady Flames, who went undefeated during the regular season, also posted their ninth win on Dec. 15, a victory over South Carolina State.

If the Lady Flames can win one game at this week's Lady Rebel Christmas Classic, they will become only the second Liberty squad to win 10 games before the end of December, and the earliest to accomplish the feat. The 1997-98 team finished December with a 10-0 ledger, after knocking off College of Charleston on Dec. 30.

Greensboro, N.C.

Liberty opened the second half with a 13-0 run, breaking open a tight, season-opening contest at UNC Greensboro. The Lady Flames went on to claim a 62-44 win at Fleming Gym, Tuesday evening, opening its season with a road win for the first time since the 1979-80 campaign. Molly Frazee's career-best 17 points helped Liberty open its 2007-08 season at 1-0. The Lady Flames forced 19 turnovers, limited the Spartans to 32.6 percent from the field and owned a 42-25 edge on the glass. UNC Greensboro fashioned an early 7-0 run, taking a 9-2 advantage on a pair of Agne Girstautaitė free throws at the 12:53 mark. The Lady Flames held UNCG scoreless for nearly six minutes late in the half and were able to open up their largest advantage of the opening 20 minutes, 23-17, on Rachel Hammond's third field goal of the half. Liberty owned a 23-21 halftime edge. Megan Frazee initiated a 13-0 second half-opening run by the Lady Flames with a pair of layups. Rebecca Lightfoot's 10-foot baseline jumper with 14:30 left ended the run and put Liberty on top by a 36-21 count. Molly Frazee later poured in eight-straight points to highlight a 12-0 Liberty run, which gave Liberty a 20-point lead, 50-30, with 7:05 remaining. From that point on, the Lady Flames cruised to their fourth-consecutive victory in a season opener and defeated the Spartans for the first time since March 1, 1997.

Game 2
Greensboro, N.C.

Megan Frazee's first double-double of the season (16 points, 10 rebounds), Courtney Watkins' career-high 15 points and a late 10-0 run added up to Liberty's second win in Greensboro, N.C., in four days. The Lady Flames held off North Carolina A&T by a 68-64 score, at the Corbett Sports Center. A three-pointer by Rachel McLeod capped an 11-0 Liberty surge during the opening half, putting the Lady Flames on top, 26-17. Liberty, which shot 51.9 percent from the field during the opening 20 minutes, took a 41-34 lead into the locker room. The homestanding Aggies whittled away at the Liberty advantage throughout the second half. A 13-5 surge cut the deficit to a single point, 53-52, with 13:10 left. A Ta'Wuana Cook three-pointer and two Lamona Smalley foul shots put North Carolina A&T ahead, 59-57, at 4:29. Liberty responded with a 10-0 run, spanning the next 4:09 and featuring a Courtney Watkins triple and an Allyson Fasnacht three-point play. Watkins' three-pointer gave the Lady Flames the lead for good. A Megan Frazee lay-up finished the span and lifted the Lady Flames to a 67-59 edge with just 37 seconds left. The Aggies quickly trimmed the margin to three points, after a Brittany Taylor-James three-pointer and a Jaleesa Sams layup. Fasnacht then sealed Liberty's second-straight road victory to start the season, when her charity toss provided the final margin of 68-64.

Game 3
Blacksburg, Va.

Liberty opened up a 10-point halftime lead at Virginia Tech, but the Hokies came out of the intermission on a 23-6 run, propelling them to a 73-68 decision at Cassell Coliseum. Virginia Tech improved to 14-0 all-time versus Liberty. The Hokies controlled the early part of the game, and a 7-0 run capped by a Brittany Cook layup at 12:00 put them on top, 16-9. Six different Lady Flames scored during their most effective stretch of the first half, a 13-2 surge. Rachel McLeod's close-range basket lifted Liberty to a 38-28 advantage, and the Lady Flames took the same 10-point edge (40-30) into the locker room. It took the Hokies just 3:14 to erase Liberty's lead, and the home team had built a 53-46 edge, a little over six minutes into the half. The Lady Flames battled back and briefly retook the lead at the 3:44 mark, when Moriah Frazee's layup made the count 62-61, Liberty. The score was deadlocked at 64 apiece when an intentional foul call paved the way for a four-point Hokie possession. The Lady Flames were unable to get any closer the rest of the way, and Virginia Tech made three-of-four charity tosses in the final minute to seal its 73-68 triumph. The Hokies received 29 points from freshman Andrea Barbour and 22 markers from Brittany Cook. Liberty's Moriah Frazee contributed 14 points and eight rebounds.

Game 4
Cincinnati, Ohio

Liberty shot a season-best 55.2 percent from the field and all 11 players scored during a 92-52 win over McNeese State, the opening game of the National City Xavier Invitational. The Lady Flames made their first three shots of the evening, culminating with a fast break layup by Rebecca Lightfoot at 17:35, which put Liberty on top by a 6-0 count. After Marcy Robinson got McNeese State on the scoreboard with a mid-range jumper at the 16:18 mark, Liberty answered with 14-consecutive points. The Lady Flames' run included a trio of three-pointers, and the Liberty advantage ballooned to 20-2 when Molly Frazee sank a pair of free throws at 11:53. The Lady Flames' lead reached 40 points, 55-15, 1:09 before the half, when Moriah Frazee made a basket in the paint to cap a 7-0 burst. Liberty took a 57-18 lead into the locker room at halftime, after connecting on 64.5 percent (20-of-31) of their field goals and six three-pointers during the opening 20 minutes. The Cowgirls scored four of the first five points to start the second half, closing the gap to 58-22 on Robinson's hoop with 18:33 remaining. Alexandria Bream recorded seven-straight Liberty points near the middle of the second half, the last two of which increased the Lady Flame edge to 82-35. From that point on, Liberty cruised to a 92-52 victory, scoring 90-plus points for the sixth time under head coach Carey Green's direction. Megan Frazee finished with 21 points and seven rebounds in just 16 minutes of work, in a return to her home state of Ohio.

Game 5
Cincinnati, Ohio

Sisters Megan and Moriah Frazee both fashioned double-doubles against Houston and Liberty held off the Cougars' valiant comeback attempt to prevail, 70-61. Megan and Moriah Frazee combined to score the Lady Flames' first 14 points of the evening, but a Ryan Bradley three-pointer for Houston knotted the score at 10-10 with 14:11 left in the first half. Liberty answered with a 12-3 spurt, featuring two field goals apiece by Molly Frazee and Rebecca Lightfoot. At the conclusion of the run, Liberty's lead was 22-13 at 8:26. Houston came right back with a 16-4 run, taking its first lead of the game, 29-26, on Tye Jackson's three-pointer from the corner, 26 seconds before intermission. Molly Frazee's triple tied the score at 29-all, heading to the locker room. The duo of Megan and Moriah Frazee got Liberty started in the second half, notching the first 10 points of a half-opening 12-2 burst. Courtney Watkins' coast-to-coast layup at the 14:52 mark pushed the Lady Flames' lead to 41-31. Liberty's advantage reached 17, 61-44, before Houston's final comeback attempt. The Cougars put together a 13-1 surge, trimming the deficit to 62-57 when Courtney Taylor cashed out a pair of free throws with 1:15 left. Liberty then put the game away with five-straight points of its own, on its way to a 70-61 decision in its first-ever meeting with Houston. Megan Frazee's 25th career double-double included 19 points and 12 boards, while Moriah Frazee's first double-double featured 16 points and 11 rebounds.

Game 6
Cincinnati, Ohio

With her team trailing host Xavier by 11 points in the second half of the National City Xavier Invitational championship game, Liberty's Megan Frazee took over offensively. She scored 21 of her game-high points after halftime, earning tournament MVP honors and leading the Lady Flames to a 61-56 victory. A pair of Amber Harris three-pointers enabled the Musketeers to start out with an 8-2 lead. It took just over a minute for Liberty to respond with seven-straight markers. A Molly Frazee three-pointer from the wing put the Lady Flames in front, 9-8, at the 13:06 mark. Xavier countered with an extended 17-3 run, featuring three triples. Ta'Shia Phillips pair of free throws 4:51 before halftime, gave the home team its largest lead of the afternoon, 25-12. Liberty cut into the lead with a 9-2 run, which ended with a long three-pointer by Megan Frazee. At halftime, the Lady Flames trailed by nine points, 30-21. The Xavier edge reached 11 before Liberty started to chip away at it. A 9-3 Lady Flame burst trimmed the gap to 35-30, after Moriah Frazee's three-pointer with 14:33 remaining. Liberty got to within a single point three times before breaking through with a decisive 10-0 run. Megan Frazee recorded the final eight points of the run, including a pair of free throws at 5:00. Her foul shots gave the Lady Flames the lead for good at 49-48. By the time the run was completed, Liberty was up, 55-48, and went on to claim victory.

Game 7
Lynchburg, Va.

Playing its home opener after six games away from the Vines Center, the Lady Flames shot a team and Vines Center-record 64.6 percent from the field in a 100-29 win over Virginia Union. The Lady Flames scored 100 points for the first time in Carey Green's nine seasons at the helm. The Lady Flames and Panthers combined to score on their first seven possessions of the game. Liberty owned a 9-6 advantage after the barrage, which featured a pair of hoops by Moriah Frazee. Liberty held Virginia Union to a single field goal over a 12-and-a-half minute span. During the stretch, the Lady Flames ripped off a 34-2 run. Liberty connected on six triples during the extended surge, two apiece by Alexandria Bream and Allyson Fasnacht, taking a 41-8 lead. A Dashia Chandler three-point play kick-started an ensuing 5-0 Virginia Union surge. However, Liberty tallied eight of the half's final 10 markers to claim a 49-15 halftime edge. The Lady Flames posted 28 of the second half's first 32 points, taking a 77-19 lead on Rebecca Lightfoot's layup with 11:17 left. Moriah Frazee posted 11 tallies during the stretch. Kittery Maine's basket with 20 seconds left put Liberty at the 100-point plateau for the first time since a 103-61 triumph over Cedarville on Dec. 13, 1997. Five Lady Flames reached double figures in the points column, including all three Frazee triplets. Moriah Frazee led all players with a season-high 18 points, sinking all eight of her field goals.

Game 8
Lynchburg, Va.

All five Liberty starters scored in double figures, helping the Lady Flames record a pair of notable "firsts." Liberty recorded its first-ever win over James Madison, 79-66, and handed the Dukes their initial loss of the season. JMU scored on its first three possessions of the evening and led by a 7-2 count after Tamera Young's old-fashioned three-point play at 18:34. The Dukes' advantage reached a game-high six points, 25-19, with 9:41 on the first-half clock after a Jasmin Lawrence fast break layup. The homesteading Lady Flames were then able to put together an 8-1 burst and take their first lead of the game, 27-26, 6:00 before halftime. The lead saw-sawed back and forth before Liberty took a 37-35 lead into the locker room, courtesy of Moriah Frazee's seventh field goal of the opening 20 minutes. Sister Megan Frazee made an offensive push during the opening minutes of the second half. Her two free throws at 9:47 gave the Lady Flames their first double-digit advantage, 59-49. Freshman center Lauren Jimenez came off the James Madison bench and tallied nine-straight Duke points. Her three-point play at the 9:01 mark finished a 5-0 burst, which sliced JMU's deficit in half. On Liberty's ensuing possession, the Lady Flames made their first three-pointer of the contest, a timely connection by Courtney Watkins which halted the James Madison run and increased her team's lead to 62-54. The Dukes were unable to get any closer than eight points the rest of the way.

Game 9
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty connected on 62.8 percent of its field goals versus Binghamton. The Lady Flames' shooting efficiency propelled them to their sixth-consecutive win, a 76-40, wire-to-wire triumph over the Bearcats. Liberty made four of its five field goal attempts during an early 8-0 run, giving the Lady Flames their first double-digit advantage. Courtney Watkins wrapped up the surge with a layup off a Kittery Maine steal, pushing the Liberty edge to 18-6 at the 10:34 mark. Binghamton tossed in the game's next three points, trimming the deficit to nine on Brianna Thompson's free throw with 9:04 showing on the first-half clock. The Bearcats were still within 10 at 7:54, before experiencing a 6:24 scoring drought. During the stretch, Liberty ran off 15-consecutive points. Moriah Frazee and Rachel Hammond each contributed six markers to the run. Hammond's steal and fast break layup capped off the surge with Liberty on top, 36-11, 1:57 before the break. The Lady Flames owned a 40-13 advantage at halftime. The Bearcats scored four of the first six points after the break, cutting the Liberty lead to 42-17 on Jaki Goldner's hoop with 17:10 left. That's as close as Binghamton would get the rest of the afternoon, however. Later in the second half, Liberty fashioned a 12-0 run, featuring five Rachel McLeod points. From that point on, Liberty cruised to a 76-40 decision, as all 11 players registered their names in the scorebook, paced by Moriah Frazee's 17 markers.

Game 10
Lynchburg, Va.

A 14-0 run early in the second half helped Liberty women's basketball team break away from a pesky Glensville State club for a 66-54 victory at the Vines Center. The Pioneers, making their first-ever visit to the Vines Center, got off to a fast start, utilizing the three-point shot. Glensville State owned a 9-4 advantage after its third long-distance connection, by Christine DiSabato at the 18:04 mark. Liberty responded with a 15-2 surge over the next 8:18. Moriah Frazee provided six points during the burst, including a layup at 9:46, which put the Lady Flames on top by a 19-11 margin. A 5-0 Glensville State burst trimmed the Pioneers' deficit to 19-16, 7:51 before the half. Courtney Watkins answered with Liberty's lone triple of the afternoon on her team's ensuing possession, initiating an 11-2 run. Watkins' two free throws at 4:33 boosted the Lady Flames' advantage to 30-18. Liberty took a 36-29 lead into halftime. Pioneer Kristen Golden made the first basket of the second half, bringing her team within five, 36-31. Liberty held Glensville State scoreless for more than five minutes after Golden's hoop, fashioning a 14-0 run. Rebecca Lightfoot completed the surge with a layup at 15:41. Another connection by Golden finished a 5-0 burst by the visitors, shaving the Glensville State disadvantage to 50-36 with 12:55 left. The Lady Flames then sealed the victory with a 12-4 run, which posted Liberty to its largest lead, 62-40. The visitors got no closer than 12 the rest of the afternoon, falling by that margin.
