Game No. 16 - Jan. 17, 2009

Liberty LADY FLAMES
(8-7, 2-0 Big South)

at

Presbyterian BLUE HOSE
(2-11, 0-2 Big South)

Clinton, S.C. - Templeton Arena - 5 p.m.

The Game

The Liberty Lady Flames (8-7, 2-0 Big South) will return to the road for a Saturday afternoon conference tilt against Presbyterian (2-11, 0-2 Big South). The Lady Flames' first-ever visit to Templeton Arena in Clinton, S.C., is slated for a 5 p.m. tip-off.

What to Watch

Liberty and Presbyterian enter Saturday's game on opposite ends of the spectrum. The Lady Flames are riding a season-long five-game winning streak, since senior Megan Frazee returned from injury. Liberty is looking to remain one of the conference's two unbeaten teams, along with High Point.

Meanwhile, Presbyterian has dropped eight decisions in a row and is seeking the first Big South win in program history. This is the first season the Blue Hose have counted in the conference standings.

Liberty senior Moriah Frazee is nearing a milestone, as she is only 19 points away from becoming the Lady Flames' 12th member of the career 1,000-point club.

Liberty athletic teams have not fared well in visits to Clinton during the 2008-09 athletic year. The men's soccer team pulled out a 2-1 win at Presbyterian on Oct. 18, but the football, volleyball and men's basketball squads all went down to defeat on the road against the Blue Hose.

Lady Flames On The Air

All Lady Flames basketball games may be heard LIVE on WWMC 90.9 FM "The Light." Jamie Hall, celebrating his 15th year of broadcasting Lady Flames basketball, will once again be handling the courtside play-by-play duties for most road games. Josh Wood will serve as the primary commentator for home contests and will provide color analysis on the road.

Head Coach Carey Green

Record at Liberty: 221-75 (10th Year)
Career Record: Same

Eight Big South Championships: 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2008
Eight NCAA Appearances: 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005 (Sweet 16), 2006, 2008
Four-time Big South Coach of the Year: 2000, 2003, 2006, 2008
Three-time VaSID State Coach of the Year: 2003, 2005, 2006

Liberty head women's basketball coach Carey Green, in his 10th season with the Lady Flames, has instilled quite a winning tradition during his tenure at the institution. His teams have averaged more than 23 victories per year during his time at Liberty, putting his name alongside the nation's premier women's basketball coaches.

Green has accumulated a 221-75 record on the Liberty bench, good for a winning percentage of .747. He entered the season ranked 10th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches in winning percentage, ahead of renowned coaching names like Rutgers' Vivian Stringer, LSU's Van Chancellor and North Carolina's Sylvia Hatchell.

More importantly, Liberty has won the Big South Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament eight times with Green as head coach. Liberty has totaled 23 or more victories during seven of those years, including the 2004-05 season, which saw the Lady Flames reach the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history.

Green has actually been to the postseason on 20 occasions as a women's basketball coach, a span which includes a dozen years as an assistant coach at Clemson. In all but one of the 20 appearances, he has experienced the NCAA Tournament.

Last season, Green led the Lady Flames to one of the best seasons in program history. Liberty tied a school record for victories, finishing the year 28-4. Along the way, the Lady Flames captured three tournament titles—the National City Xavier Invitational, the UNLV Lady Rebel Christmas Classic and their eighth Big South Championship in Green's nine years as head coach. The latter championship earned Liberty a spot in the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time. Green won his 200th career game, Jan. 19 at Charleston Southern, and became the first four-time Big South Women's Basketball Coach of the Year in conference history.

Rebounding and defense have always been staples of Green-coached teams, and the 2007-08 Lady Flames were no exception. Liberty outrebounded opponents by an average of 10.2 caroms per game, ranking fifth nationally. The Lady Flames have now been listed among the nation's top five teams in rebounding margin for five-straight years. Liberty led the nation in the category in 2003-04 and 2004-05. The Lady Flames also ended the season ranked in the top 15 in the nation for field goal percentage defense (fourth) and scoring defense (15th).

A key late-season conference victory over High Point in 2006 made Green the winningest coach in Big South Conference history. He is also Liberty's career wins leader.

The record-setting victory was just one of the many reasons the 2004-05 year was a special one on Liberty Mountain. A senior-laden Lady Flames team recorded upset wins over No. 4 seed Penn State (78-70) and No. 5 seed DePaul (88-79) in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, becoming just the second team ever to advance to the Sweet 16 as a No. 13 seed. The Lady Flames ended the season with their highest national ranking to date, 21st (USA Today/ESPN).

Green's track record shows he has the ability to meet strong challenges. The Lady Flames have recorded two wins over UNLV, Virginia and West Virginia and solo victories over No. 19 DePaul, No. 17 Kansas State, No. 25 Penn State, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest during Green's tenure. The upset victory over No. 25 Virginia in 2003 marked Liberty's first win over a Top 25 team.

His record against conference foes is equally impressive. He led the Lady Flames on a Big South record 47-game winning streak and currently owns a .914 (138-13) winning percentage against conference teams. Green has marched through conference play with one or fewer setbacks six times, while guiding the Lady Flames to two undefeated conference seasons.

Scouting Presbyterian

The Presbyterian Blue Hose are in their second year of transition between the NCAA's Division II and Division I. For the first time, the Blue Hose are eligible for the Big South regular-season championship, and they are seeking the first conference win in program history.

Presbyterian has already matched its win total from the 2007-08 season, picking up back-to-back home triumphs over Colgate and Montreat in November. Since then, the Blue Hose have struggled through an eight-game losing skid.

The young Blue Hose roster, which features no seniors and only two juniors, is paced by a pair of sophomore guards. Amanda Mills is the team's leading scorer with 10.5 ppg and ranks fourth in the conference with 28 three-pointers. Backcourt mate Katlin Moore is posting 10.5 ppg and sits sixth in the Big South for assists (3.9 apg).

The Coaching Matchup

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green is in his 10th season with the Lady Flames, and has led his team to eight Big South titles. A four-time Big South Coach of the Year, Green owns a 221-75 career record and is the all-time wins leader at Liberty and among Big South women's basketball coaches. His career winning percentage (.747) ranked 10th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the season's outset. Green is 1-0 all-time against Presbyterian.

Ronny Fisher is 2-11 in his first season as Presbyterian's head coach. The Furman alumnus had previously spent 10 years as an assistant coach for the Blue Hose men's basketball team.

Liberty-Presbyterian Series Notes

Liberty rolled to an 88-41 victory in its only previous meeting with Presbyterian, last season at the Vines Center.

The Lady Flames held the Blue Hose without a field goal for the first 12 minutes of their Jan. 26, 2008 tilt, running out to a 29-2 lead to open the contest. Presbyterian got no closer than 19 points down the remainder of the afternoon.

Four Liberty players reached double figures in the scoring column, including all three Frazee triplets. Moriah Frazee paced the Lady Flames with 15 markers.

However, Presbyterian's Amy Jones led all players with her 16 points and also chipped in a quartet of assists.

New Year's Resolution

Liberty owns a 150-105 all-time record in January contests, after winning its first three contests of 2009. Head coach Carey Green has gone 66-8 with the Lady Flames during the year's opening month, including a 7-0 January last season.

The Lady Flames have won 34 straight home games during the month of January. Liberty has not lost a January contest at the Vines Center since Jan. 13, 2000, when Elon dealt the Lady Flames a 77-72 setback.

Liberty has won 12 consecutive January contests overall, since a 64-62 overtime loss at High Point on Jan. 20, 2007.

Playing Well in the Palmetto State

Liberty head coach Carey Green has strong ties to the Palmetto State, South Carolina. He graduated from Coastal Carolina and served for 12 years as an assistant women's basketball coach at Clemson.

Since taking over at Liberty in 1999-2000, Green has enjoyed returning to South Carolina, leading his team to a 28-2 record in games played in the state. The Lady Flames are 1-0 in South Carolina this season and have three more Palmetto State tilts scheduled.

Down, But Not Out

On Tuesday, East Tennessee State ran out to an early seven-point advantage at the Vines Center, before Liberty rallied for a 64-54 win. It was the fifth time the Lady Flames have erased a six-point deficit to win this season (also UC Riverside, North Carolina A&T, Virginia Tech and Winthrop).

Liberty's largest rally of the season came on Dec. 30, in the Hokie Hardwood Classic title game against Virginia Tech. The Hokies led by eight points midway through the second half, but the Lady Flames came back to notch a 45-43 triumph.

She's Back!

Senior guard/forward Megan Frazee was sidelined with an ankle injury for eight games, before returning to action Dec. 29 against North Carolina A&T. In the five games since Frazee's return, she is averaging 19.6 ppg and 9.6 rpg and has helped Liberty go 4-0.

Frazee was recognized as Big South Women's Basketball Player of the Week on Jan. 5, based upon those three performances. A two-time conference player of the week this season, Frazee was the first Big South player to win the award multiple times in 2008-09. She is now a 14-time Big South Player of the Week in her career.

We are the Champions!

The Lady Flames defeated Virginia Tech, 45-43, on Dec. 30 at Cassell Coliseum to win the Hokie Hardwood Classic. Megan Frazee hit the game-winning shot from 18 feet with just 51 seconds remaining, giving Liberty its first-ever win over the Hokies and preventing Virginia Tech from winning its 11th straight home tournament title.

Frazee was named tournament MVP, marking the fourth tournament MVP trophy she has won in the last two seasons (also 2007 National City Xavier Invitational, 2007 Lady Rebel Christmas Classic and 2008 Big South Championship). Avery Warley, who nabbed 29 rebounds in two games at the tournament, also made the all-tournament team.

Spreading the Wealth

Six Lady Flames reached double figures in the scoring column during Liberty's 92-68 triumph over Saint Paul's on Dec. 13. Freshman Kylee Beecher led the way with 18 points, followed by Moriah Frazee (16 points), Avery Warley (13), Danika Dale (12), Kittery Maine (12) and Amber Mays (10).

Liberty had not featured six double-digit scorers in the same game since Jan. 19, 1987, when Pam Wilder (25 points), Pam Stanfield (14), Harriett Blair (12), Sandra Bridges (11), Annetta Paraham (11) and Sharon Freet (10) accomplished the feat for the Lady Flames. Their efforts helped Liberty claim a 98-83 home win over Ferrum.

None of Liberty's double-figure scorers from the Saint Paul's contest were born on Jan. 19, 1987. Moriah Frazee was born a little more than two months later, on March 29.

Spreading the Wealth, Part 2

Rebounding played a key role in Liberty's 72-58 triumph over North Carolina A&T in the opening round of the Hokie Hardwood Classic on Dec. 29. The Lady Flames out-rebounded the Aggies by a 51-31 count, led by three double-digit rebounders. Megan Frazee snared a game-high 12 rebounds, while Avery Warley corralled 11 boards and Kylee Beecher came up with 10 caroms.

Liberty had not seen three players grab double-digit rebounds in the same game since Jan. 31, 1998, during a 79-66 home win over Radford. A Vines Center women's basketball-record crowd of 5,117 watched Elena Kisseleva tally 15 rebounds, while Kirstyn Bliss and Sharon Wilkerson rounded up 10 rebounds apiece.

2008-09 Opponents in Bold

Liberty's Magic Number is 55

Liberty has scored 55 points in two of its last three victories, after recording a 55-42 win over Gardner-Webb on Jan. 3 and a 55-51 decision at Winthrop on Jan. 10.

The Lady Flames also defeated Winston-Salem State by a 55-43 count on Dec. 20, meaning three of Liberty's eight victories this season have been won with 55 points.

Coach Green Versus the Big South

Liberty head coach Carey Green has enjoyed considerable success versus the Big South during his first nine seasons with the Lady Flames. His teams are 138-13 against Big South opponents, including 114-12 in the regular season and 24-1 in the Big South Championship.

Green has never lost to his alma mater, Coastal Carolina (21-0), or Charleston Southern (20-0) during his time at Liberty.

Fabulous Freshman

Freshman post player Kylee Beecher enjoyed the best game of her young collegiate career, Dec. 13 against Saint Paul's. She paced the Lady Flames with a career-high 18 points, matching the Roanoke, Va., native's point total from her first six appearances. Beecher also contributed six rebounds and a career-best five assists to Liberty's 92-68 win.

As a result, Beecher was tabbed Big South Women's Basketball Freshman of the Week on Dec. 15. She became Liberty's first Big South Freshman of the Week since current Lady Flame senior Moriah Frazee won the award on Feb. 20, 2006.

Balanced Scoring

Redshirt freshman Avery Warley led all players in scoring during Liberty's 55-43 win at Winston-Salem State on Dec. 20, tossing in a career-high 17 points. She became the sixth different player to pace the Lady Flames' scoring parade during this season's first 13 contests, joining Kylee Beecher, Brittany Campbell, Megan Frazee, Moriah Frazee and Rachel Hammond.

Last year, only five different players--Allyson Fasnacht, Megan Frazee, Molly Frazee, Moriah Frazee and Rebecca Lightfoot--led Liberty in scoring during the team's 32 games. Megan Frazee led the way 24 times.

Turning Up the Heat in the Furnace

The 2008-09 campaign is the 17th season the Liberty University women's basketball team has called the Vines Center its full-time home. Liberty's first-ever contest at the Vines Center was an 86-74 loss to East Tennessee State, on Dec. 7, 1990, but the "Furnace" has served as a favorable venue for the Lady Flames over the years. Liberty is 181-51 (.780) all-time at the Vines Center, including 13-0 last season. The Lady Flames, 3-2 at the Vines Center in 2008-09, have 12 home games scheduled this season.

Liberty Versus Non-Conference Opposition

The Lady Flames finished 6-7 during the non-conference portion of their 2008-09 slate. Liberty is now 266-292 all-time in non-conference outings.

Last season, Liberty went 15-3 versus non-conference opponents. The Lady Flames won all six of their non-conference home games in 2007-08.

Liberty's best-ever season against non-conference foes came in 1997-98, when the Lady Flames went 14-1 outside the Big South. Liberty's non-conference setback that season came to national champion Tennessee in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Dial Three Digits for Long Distance

The Lady Flames have been able to continue a long-standing streak, so far this season. The Lady Flames have made at least one three-pointer in a school-record 118 straight games, a run which began on Feb. 26, 2005. None of the current Lady Flames were in college when the streak began.

Liberty kept the streak alive on Tuesday, when three different players (Megan Frazee, Moriah Frazee and Rachel McLeod) all connected from beyond the three-point arc.

Winningest Active Coaches

Through nine seasons at Liberty, head coach Carey Green remains in elite company. He ranked as the 10th-winningest head coach among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the beginning of the 2008-09 season, with his .758 career winning percentage.

Longest-Tenured Assistant Coaches

The 2008-09 season is Heather Stephens' sixth campaign as an assistant on Carey Green's coaching staff. She is now tied with Jeri (Wiley) Porter as the longest-tenured assistant coach in Liberty women's basketball history. Porter is now the head coach at George Mason. The Lady Flames have gone 131-43 and won four Big South titles during Stephens' tenure and made the "Sweet 16" of the 2005 NCAA Tournament.

Lady Flames Excel in the Classroom

Liberty has received national recognition numerous times for its work in the classroom. Last season, the Lady Flames tallied a 3.354 GPA, ranking 14th in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Top 25 Team Honor Roll.

It was the third straight season and the fifth time in program history that Liberty has been included in the Top 25 Team Honor Roll. The Lady Flames were listed a program-best seventh in 2006-07 and tied for 14th in 2005-06. Liberty was rated 13th in 1999-2000, which was Carey Green's first season as head coach, and came in 12th during the 1998-99 campaign.

Liberty was one of only three teams to be included in last season's WBCA Top 25 Honor Roll and play in the NCAA Tournament, joining Kansas State and New Mexico.

The top 15 teams on the 2007-08 WBCA Top 25 Team Honor Roll are listed below.

Windex Warley

Redshirt freshman Avery Warley has been controlling the glass for the Lady Flames, since returning to campus after Christmas break. She has totaled 59 rebounds in the last five contests, including a career-high 18 boards versus Virginia Tech on Dec. 30. Warley has been active at both ends of the floor, as 27 of her caroms have come off the offensive glass.

One of Warley's most important rebounds came during the closing stages of Liberty's Jan. 10 win at Winthrop. With the score knotted at 49-all, Warley snared an offensive rebound and converted a layup, giving her team the lead for good with just 30.0 seconds left on the clock.

It was also Warley's offensive rebound off a missed free throw that set the stage for Megan Frazee's game-winning jumper, Dec. 30 at Virginia Tech.

Warley has also boosted her offensive production of late, as she is averaging a double-double (10.0 ppg, 11.8 rpg) over the last five games and has recorded the first two double-doubles of her Liberty career.

Start Me Up

Head coach Carey Green used only four different starting lineups in Liberty's 32 games last season. The most common starting five consisted of Allyson Fasnacht, Courtney Watkins, Megan Frazee, Rebecca Lightfoot and Moriah Frazee. The unit went 18-2 in its 20 games as a starting unit.

This year, Liberty has already used five different starting lineups in the first 14 games of the season. Moriah Frazee, Rachel Hammond and Avery Warley have been the only three Lady Flames to start every contest.

The Lady Flames' most recent lineup, consisting of Moriah Frazee, Hammond, Warley, Amber Mays and Megan Frazee, is a perfect 5-0.

Counting Up the Votes

Liberty was listed among the "Others Receiving Votes" in the Nov. 25 ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 poll, for the third straight week, receiving one vote.

Last season, the Lady Flames regularly received votes in both national polls, but did not quite crack the Top 25. Liberty's most recent Top 25 ranking came in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll of the 2004-05 season. The Lady Flames were listed No. 21, after reaching the "Sweet 16" of the NCAA Tournament.

Winning Streaks in Abundance

Liberty has won five consecutive games, entering this weekend's conference road swing to Presbyterian and UNC Asheville. The winning streak is the Lady Flames' longest of the season, but such streaks are nothing new for head coach Carey Green.

The Lady Flames have posted a winning streak of at least five games every season since Green took over as head coach, prior to the 1999-2000 campaign. Liberty's current winning skein is its 16th streak of at least five consecutive wins under Green's direction.

Lack of Overtime

Liberty has played only one overtime game in its last 161 outings, a 64-62 setback at High Point on Jan. 20, 2007.

The Lady Flames' most recent overtime victory came on Jan. 6, 2004, when Liberty defeated American, 76-72, on the road in double overtime. No current Lady Flame has won an overtime contest in college.

Liberty's most recent overtime contest at the Vines Center was a memorable one. The Lady Flames defeated Virginia, 77-69, in overtime on Nov. 26, 2002, to claim their first-ever win over the Cavaliers. It also marked Liberty's first win over a ranked opponent, as Virginia entered the game with a No. 25 national ranking.

The Container is Half Full

Liberty connected on a season-high 55.7 percent (34-of-61) of its field goal attempts against Saint Paul's on Dec. 13, leading to a 92-68 victory.

The Lady Flames went 9-0 last season when shooting 50 percent or higher. Liberty is now 50-0 in such contests under head coach Carey Green.

Wanted for Robbery

Liberty ranks only eighth in the Big South for steals, averaging 7.7 thefts per contest. However, the Lady Flames have been very active on defense in the last two contests. Liberty came up with 13 steals on Jan. 10 at Winthrop and matched a season-high with 17 steals, Tuesday night versus East Tennessee State.

Liberty's 17 steals on Tuesday was the most steals by the Lady Flames against a Division I opponent since coming up with 17 thefts against Charleston Southern on Feb. 19, 2007.

Chief Thiefs

Starting guards Amber Mays and Rachel Hammond have led the way for the Lady Flames' surge in steals, as they rank sixth and seventh, respectively, on the Big South steals leaderboard.

Mays has notched a dozen steals in the past two games, including a career-high eight-steal effort versus East Tennessee State on Tuesday. Her eight steals were the most by a Lady Flame since Sharon Wilkerson recorded eight thefts at High Point on Feb. 21, 2000. Mays ties for the fifth-most steals in a single game in Liberty history.

Meanwhile, Hammond has been a consistent disruptive force on defense this season, tallying multiple steals in 10 of the first 15 games. As a result, the senior has already established a career high with 30 steals.

Triple the Trouble

Liberty sports the only set of triplets currently playing for the same NCAA Division I women's basketball team--seniors Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee. Career totals of 1,000 points and 500 rebounds represent a very solid collegiate performer. The Frazee triplets have averaged more than 1,000 points and 500 rebounds between them.

During Liberty's Jan. 3 victory over Gardner-Webb, the triplets exceeded the 3,000-career point total. Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee have totaled 3,083 points and 1,614 rebounds during their four spectacular years at Liberty.

Miss Consistency

Megan Frazee has scored in double figures in each of her last 51 games, dating back to Jan. 27, 2007. It is the longest such streak of her career and the longest by a Liberty player since Elena Kisseleva tallied 10 or more points in 62 straight contests, spanning the 1996-97, 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons.

Frazee has only scored nine or fewer points on four occasions at Liberty, and has never done so in consecutive outings.

Clamping Down on Defense

The Lady Flames have held 66 consecutive opponents under 50 percent field goal shooting. The last Liberty foe to sink more than half of its field goal attempts was Marist, at the Maryland Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29, 2006.

Liberty is off to a good start defensively in 2008-09. Ten of the Lady Flames' first 15 opponents, including the last five in a row, have shot below 40 percent from the floor. Liberty ranks second in the Big South with a .359 opponents field goal percentage.

The Lady Flames are 8-2 this season when their opponents shoot under 40 percent from the field, but 0-5 when their foes make at least 40 percent of their field goal tries.

Nearing a Big South Milestone

Megan Frazee has totaled 772 career rebounds, leaving her just 20 boards shy of a spot among the Big South's all-time top 10 rebounders. Frazee would become the third Lady Flame within the top 10, joining Katie Feenstra (second place) and Elena Kisseleva (sixth place).

A Short Commute

Freshman guard Brittany Campbell attended high school literally right down the street from Liberty University at Brookville High School. She is the first Lynchburg-area player to suit up for the Lady Flames since Tekita Butler in the 2002-03 season.

International Flavor

The addition of Tokyo, Japan native Jessica Nelson to the Lady Flames' roster gives Liberty an international player for the 15th consecutive season. The last time the Lady Flames' roster consisted solely of American-born players was the 1993-94 campaign. Every Carey Green-coached team at Liberty has featured at least one international player.

A Clutch Performer

Megan Frazee drained a game-winning 18-foot jumper with 51 seconds left on Dec. 30 at Virginia Tech, representing her third game-winning shot in the senior's last nine appearances. Frazee also defeated Radford (March 16, 2008 - Big South Championship) and UC Riverside (Nov. 21, 2008 - Preseason WNIT) with close-range field goals in the final seconds.

In Good Company

On Jan. 5, Megan Frazee was honored as Big South Women's Basketball Player of the Week. It was the second time the senior has captured the award this season and was her 14th career weekly conference honor.

Only former Liberty standout Katie Feenstra has collected more Big South Women's Basketball Player of the Week awards in conference history. Feenstra finished her Liberty career with 15 weekly plaques.

Anything You Can Do ...

Last season, Megan Frazee became the 11th player in program history to score 1,000 career points, eclipsing the magical mark at North Carolina on Dec. 30, 2007. This year, she could get some company from within her own family. Sister Moriah Frazee enters the Presbyterian contest with 981 points, leaving her 19 shy of 1,000.

If Frazee scores at her current season average of 10.5 points per contest, she is due to hit the milestone on Jan. 19, during the Lady Flames' game at UNC Asheville.

The Frazees would not be the first sister duo to score over 1,000 points at Liberty. Sharon and Sarah Wilkerson, who graduated in 2000, totaled 1,733 and 1,331 points, respectively.

It is believed that Liberty would be first NCAA Division I women's basketball program ever to boast multiple sets of sisters who scored over 1,000 points. Moreover, the Wilkersons were twins and the Frazees are triplets.

Cranking Up the Defense

Liberty has played exceptional defense during its current five-game winning streak. The Lady Flames have held North Carolina A&T, Virginia Tech and Gardner-Webb all to season-low point totals during the stretch. Liberty's five foes have scored only 49.6 ppg against Liberty and have combined to shoot just 32.9 percent from the field.

Winning the Battle of the Boards

The Lady Flames have outrebounded 12 teams in their first 15 games of the season. Only three teams (Western Carolina, James Madison and Winthrop) have won the rebounding battle against Liberty this season, as the Lady Flames lead the Big South Conference with a +8.1 rebounding margin.

Liberty, which currently ranks No. 25 nationally for rebounding margin, has finished in the top five in the category for five consecutive seasons. The Lady Flames led the nation in rebounding margin during both the 2003-04 and 2004-05 campaigns.

Coming Through in the Clutch

With Liberty's 55-51 win at Winthrop on Jan. 10, the Lady Flames improved to 3-2 this season, in games decided by five points or less. Two of Liberty's last four games have been tight victories, as the Lady Flames also pulled out a 45-43 win at Virginia Tech on Dec. 30.

Last season, Liberty excelled in tight situations, winning five of its seven contests decided by five points or less. The Lady Flames' close victories included the championship games of the National City Xavier Invitational, Lady Rebel Christmas Classic and Big South Championship.

Game 1
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty battled back from a 21-4 deficit in its season opener to take a pair of second-half leads. However, visiting VCU edged the Lady Flames, 59-57, in a first-round Preseason WNIT contest, as Radoslava Bachvarova drained three free throws with just 2.1 seconds left. VCU tallied the evening's first 12 points, before Megan Frazee canned a one-handed floater from six feet, at the 14:10 mark of the opening half. The Rams later notched nine straight points, bolstering their advantage to 21-4 at 10:48. Liberty limited VCU to one field goal over the final 4:20 of the opening stanza, running off an 11-2 surge in the meantime and closing the gap to 31-27 at the intermission. Megan Frazee finally gave Liberty its initial lead of the contest, 45-44, draining a three-pointer from the right wing at the 11:02 mark. The Lady Flames' next lead did not come until 4:30 remained on the game clock, when Megan Frazee found Avery Warley for an open layup. Warley's basket was part of a 7-0 Liberty burst. Megan Frazee's reverse layup at 3:11 capped the run, increasing the Lady Flames' lead to 54-51. VCU came back to tie things up again, 54-54, when Quanitra Hollingsworth split a pair of free throws with 2:18 remaining, setting the stage for a frenetic final minute of play. Mays put Liberty on top, 56-54, with a driving layup at the 44-second mark, before Hollingsworth answered with a hoop from in close, 10 seconds later. Warley went to the free throw line on the Lady Flames' ensuing possession, splitting a pair of free throws with 6.4 seconds remaining. Her connection briefly put Liberty in front, 57-56, before Bachvarova's clutch charity tosses for the Rams.

Game 2
Cullowhee, N.C.

Megan Frazee banked in a layup from the left side of the lane as the buzzer sounded, giving the Lady Flames a thrilling, 45-44 win over UC Riverside in a Preseason WNIT consolation contest at the Ramsey Center in Cullowhee, N.C. The Highlanders had taken a 44-43 advantage with just 3.3 seconds left, when Alyssa Morris made a tightly-contested three-pointer from the right wing. Her hoop capped a 9-0 UC Riverside surge, consisting solely of triples. UC Riverside appeared to seal its first victory of the year, when Roney Friend intercepted Liberty's inbounds pass with 0.9 ticks remaining. However, Friend shuffled her feet, giving the Lady Flames one final opportunity, with the ball out of bounds under the basket. Rachel Hammond bounced the inbounds pass to a cutting Frazee, who calmly sank the game-winning shot from close range. Liberty notched the evening's first seven points, keeping the Highlanders off the scoreboard for the first 5:29 of play. The game was deadlocked at 15 apiece, before the Highlanders suffered another extended scoring drought. Liberty kept UC Riverside scoreless for 4:19, reeling off seven consecutive points in the meantime. Amber Mays split a pair of free throws 2:25 before halftime, giving the Lady Flames a 22-15 edge. Liberty led 22-17 at the intermission. It was UC Riverside which opened the second half on a roll. The Highlanders recorded the first nine points of the stanza. Tainoisouti Lott's layup at the 15:53 mark increased UC Riverside's first advantage of the contest to 26-22. Four straight tallies by Friend boosted the Highlanders to their largest lead, 32-26, with 12:26 showing on the second-half clock. Liberty later went back on top with a 13-0 run between UC Riverside hoops. Mays' pair of free throws made the score 43-35, Liberty, with 4:10 remaining.

Game 3

Cullowhee, N.C.

The Western Carolina Catamounts fashioned a 16-0 run, spanning the first and second halves, boosting them to a 73-53 victory over Liberty, Saturday evening at the Ramsey Center. The triumph gave Western Carolina the championship of this four-team Preseason WNIT consolation bracket. Both teams got off to a slow start at the offensive end. When the buzzer sounded for the contest's first media timeout at 14:42, the home-standing Catamounts owned a 5-2 advantage. Liberty did not get on the scoreboard until the 15:30 mark, when Hammond sank a layup. Western Carolina's edge bulged to six points, 16-10, after Brooke Johnson's layup 9:54 before the half. The Lady Flames then knotted the game at 16-16 with six consecutive markers. A Brittany Campbell three-pointer from the right corner, marking her first collegiate points, evened the score at 7:58. However, Liberty only made one more basket during the remainder of the opening stanza, Moriah Frazee's first triple of the season. The Catamounts closed the half on an 8-0 surge, taking a 30-19 advantage into the locker room. The Catamounts notched the first eight tallies of the second half, including a pair of three-pointers, extending their overall run to 16-0 and their lead to 38-19. Liberty trimmed its deficit to 13 points, 42-29, with 14:15 remaining. Rachel Hammond contributed four points to the Lady Flames' 6-0 run. The red-clad Lady Flames got to within 47-37 at 10:11, after another 6-0 surge, capped by consecutive Avery Warley layups. Liberty was unable to shave the lead to single digits, though, and the hot-shooting Catamounts pulled away during the final 10 minutes.

Game 4

Washington, D.C.

A late 13-2 run enabled Hartford to emerge victorious from its defensive struggle with Liberty. The Hawks prevailed by a 46-39 count in the opening game of the GW Thanksgiving Classic, at the Smith Center in Washington, D.C. Liberty tallied eight of the contest's first 11 points over the opening 4:43 of play. Rachel McLeod provided six of the Lady Flames' markers, including a short baseline jumper at 15:17 which put Liberty on top, 8-3. The Lady Flames managed only two points during the next 8:55. During the meantime, Hartford tallied 13 markers, building its initial lead of the game to 16-10 on Lisa Etienne's pair of free throws, 6:32 before halftime. Liberty quickly leveled the score at 16-16, by scoring on each of its next three possessions. Avery Warley contributed four points to the Lady Flames' 6-0 burst, tying the score with her putback with 5:05 showing on the first-half clock. The Lady Flames kept the Hawks off the scoreboard for the final 2:58 of the opening stanza. Liberty recorded the half's last four points during Hartford's drought, taking a 22-20 lead into the locker room. Hartford emerged from halftime with a 10-0 surge. Amanda Weaver's layup at 12:50 capped the run, giving the Hawks their largest advantage up to that point, 30-22. Brittany Campbell then posted five points and an assist during a 9-0 surge, which put Liberty back on top. Amber Mays finished off the run with two free throws at the 8:15 mark, making the score 31-30, Liberty. Shortly thereafter, MaryLynne Schaefer keyed Hartford's decisive 13-2 surge, bookending the run with a pair of three-pointers. Her triple from the left wing boosted the Hawks' lead to 45-35. With only 1:22 remaining, the edge proved to be insurmountable for the Lady Flames.

Game 5

Washington, D.C.

The South Alabama Jaguars connected on nine three-pointers, pushing them past Liberty, 65-61, in the GW Thanksgiving Classic consolation game at the Smith Center in Washington, D.C. Amber Mays, later named to the all-tournament team, opened the game's scoring by canning a pair of left-handed layups in the first 1:36 of play, staking the Lady Flames to an early 4-0 lead. South Alabama answered with five straight markers, claiming its first advantage, 5-4, when Shakira Nettles made two free throws at 16:30. The Jaguars' Karina Sproal tallied five points in a row, opening up a bit of breathing room for her team. Her long three-pointer at the 8:20 mark pushed South Alabama's edge to 18-14. South Alabama did not trail again until only 1:48 remained in the stanza, when Rachel McLeod went two-for-two from the foul line for the Lady Flames, putting her team in front, 29-27. The sophomore's free throws finished a 6-0 Liberty run. Liberty took a 31-30 lead into the locker room. Back-to-back triples initiated an 8-0 burst by the Jaguars, early in the second half. Brittny Rutledge's long jumper from the corner with 17:53 remaining closed the run with South Alabama owning a 38-32 edge. Moriah Frazee made both the first and the last baskets of Liberty's ensuing 8-0 surge. Her layup from the right block reclaimed the lead for the Lady Flames, 40-38, with 14:05 showing on the second-half clock. South Alabama bounced right back, and gained a four-point lead, 50-46, on Siedah Banks' old-fashioned three-point play at 7:48. Liberty could get no closer than two for the remainder of the contest. South Alabama sealed its win by sinking five of six foul shots in the final minute.

Game 6

Harrisonburg, Va.

Rebounding and stellar free throw shooting down the stretch enabled the James Madison Dukes to claim a 77-64 victory over Liberty at the JMU Convocation Center. Back-to-back baskets by JMU's Dawn Evans, the nation's leading scorer entering the contest, finished an 8-0 Dukes run. The surge built the home team's early lead to nine points, 17-8. The Lady Flames clawed back to within three points, 21-18, after Moriah Frazee's three-pointer at the 9:43 mark punctuated Liberty's 5-0 run. Evans nailed a triple on the Dukes' ensuing possession, beginning a 9-3 surge by the home squad. Sarah Williams' layup closed the run, boosting her team's advantage back up to 30-21, with 6:39 on the clock. Liberty took its first lead since 4-2, when Moriah Frazee's hoop at 1:29 capped an 11-0 Lady Flames run. Her connection made the score 38-36, Liberty. JMU then tallied the stanza's final three points, taking a 39-38 advantage into the locker room. Liberty opened the second half by scoring four points in the first 47 seconds. The Lady Flames reclaimed the edge, 42-39, after Moriah Frazee's pair of made charity tosses. James Madison quickly bounced back with six consecutive markers of its own. The Dukes went ahead once again, 47-44, on Evans' three-pointer with 15:13 left. The Dukes' edge ballooned to nine, 56-47, after a run of seven consecutive points. Moriah Frazee's second three-pointer of the game, at 6:43, trimmed JMU's lead to six, 60-54. However, that was Liberty's last made field goal for the next five minutes. During the Lady Flames' drought, the Dukes put together a 10-2 surge. Another Evans triple, with just 2:28 remaining, gave JMU its largest lead of the evening, 70-56. Evans scored the Dukes' final 14 points, nine of which came from the free throw line, enabling her team to finish off a 13-point victory.

Game 7
Lynchburg, Va.

An 11-0, late second-half run helped No. 13/14 Auburn to pull away from Liberty in a tightly-played contest. The Tigers were able to remain undefeated on the season with a 64-53 triumph over the Lady Flames. Lady Flame Amber Mays came up with four steals during the game's first five minutes. Two of her thefts came during a 10-0 Liberty surge, which turned a 7-5 deficit into a 15-7 advantage, at 14:08. Liberty's edge eventually reached 10 points, 23-13, after Kittery Maine put back her own missed shot, 10:54 before the intermission. The Tigers' defense then kept Liberty off the scoreboard for nearly seven minutes, while Auburn reeled off a 15-0 run. Alli Smalley, who hit a pair of three-pointers during the surge, capped the burst with a made jumper at 5:05. Her connection lifted Auburn to a 28-23 edge. The Lady Flames bounced right back, fashioning a 10-2 spurt. Moriah Frazee notched five of the run's points, and the senior's old-fashioned three-point play with 55 seconds remaining put Liberty up, 33-30. Liberty took a 33-32 lead into the break. Rachel Hammond's layup with 17:28 showing on the second-half clock increased the Liberty advantage to 37-33. The Lady Flames were still in front, 41-39, after another Hammond basket, coming at the 14:11 mark. However, those were Liberty's last points for 9:23. In the meantime, Auburn crafted its previously mentioned 11-0 surge. Sherell Hobbs tallied five points during the run, which increased the Tigers' lead to 50-41. Danika Dale canned a three-pointer on Liberty's next possession, ending the drought and trimming the Lady Flames' deficit to six, 50-44. It was close as Liberty would get for the remainder of the contest, though, as Auburn put the Lady Flames away by hitting nine-of-12 free throws during the last 1:32.

Game 8
Lynchburg, Va.

A 22-1, early second-half run broke open a close game, propelling Liberty to a 92-68 victory over Commonwealth foe Saint Paul's. Six Lady Flames scored in double figures, helping Liberty snap a five-game losing skid. The two teams went back and forth several times in the early going, before Liberty built its first double-digit lead of the afternoon with a 10-2 surge. Kittery Maine provided six of the Lady Flames' points during the run, including a layup at 8:56, which pushed the home team's edge to 21-10. Shortly thereafter, Saint Paul's responded with a 12-2 run, trimming its deficit to a single point. Johnson went six-for-six from the free-throw line during the span, and her pair of free throws made the score 26-25, Liberty, 4:04 before halftime. The Lady Flames' advantage climbed back to eight points, before Liberty claimed a 36-32 halftime lead. The Lady Tigers had trimmed Liberty's lead to 38-37 on Johnson's layup at the 18:13 mark of the second half, before suffering an offensive drought. Saint Paul's did not make another field goal for 4:50, enabling Liberty to reel off its aforementioned 22-1 burst. Amber Mays contributed seven points to the Liberty run, and Beecher's second old-fashioned three-point play of the surge bolstered the Lady Flame advantage to 60-38 with 13:30 left. The visiting Lady Tigers would get no closer than 19 points down for the remainder of the afternoon. Meanwhile, Liberty's edge reached 30 on three occasions, as the Lady Flames finished with a season-high point total in their 92-68 triumph. Head coach Carey Green's squad was efficient at the offensive end, sinking 63.6 percent (21-of-33) of its field goal attempts after the intermission.

Game 9
Winston-Salem, N.C.

Rachel Hammond scored all 13 of her points during the second half, and Liberty limited Winston-Salem State to three field goals in the first 17:30 after halftime, at the C.E. Gaines Center. As a result, the Lady Flames opened the half with a 26-9 surge, overcoming a one-point halftime deficit to win, 55-43. Winston-Salem State made its first two three-pointers of the contest, while Liberty utilized its size advantage. The Lady Flames owned a 9-6 lead at the 14:59 mark, scoring all nine of their points inside the paint and free-throw line. The Lady Rams briefly reclaimed the advantage, 13-12, after a MaLisa Bumpus three-pointer, 9:32 before halftime. Liberty then clamped down on defense, limiting Winston-Salem State to a single field goal over the next five minutes. In the meantime, the Lady Flames reeled off an 8-2 surge, featuring a pair of Amber Mays layups. Rachel McLeod nailed both ends of a one-and-one at 5:01. Her second charity toss gave Liberty its largest lead of the opening half, 20-15. The Lady Rams closed out the stanza by tallying 10 of the final 14 markers. A Bumpus jumper with 1:20 left sent her team into the locker room in front by a single point, 25-24. Hammond drained a three-pointer on Liberty's opening possession of the second half, giving the Lady Flames a lead they would not relinquish. Her hoop was part of a half-opening 7-0 run by the Lady Flames. Rene Rector then nailed two three-pointers in 44 seconds for Winston-Salem State. Her second triple, with 16:05 remaining in the contest, trimmed her team's deficit to 33-31. Hammond made two more three-pointers during Liberty's ensuing 10-0 surge, bolstering the Lady Flames' advantage to 43-31. The Lady Rams got no closer than nine points down for the remainder of the afternoon.

Game 10
Nashville, Tenn.

No. 19/20 Vanderbilt composed an 18-0 run early in the first half of its contest against Liberty at Memorial Gymnasium. The Commodores then fought off numerous Lady Flame comeback attempts, claiming a 67-50 triumph. The Lady Flames got off to a fast start, jumping out to a 5-0 lead in the first minute, as Hammond swished a three-pointer and Avery Warley scored on a putback. Jennifer Risper's basket was part of an 18-0 Vanderbilt run. Tia Gibbs scored seven points during the surge, which concluded with a Hannah Tuomi basket from the paint at 10:28. Her connection increased the home team's advantage to 23-8. A Moriah Frazee layup with 2:38 on the first-half clock, part of a 7-0 Liberty run, cut the Lady Flames' deficit to 30-18. The Commodores rebuilt a 17-point advantage, 38-21, at halftime. Vanderbilt's initial 20-point point lead of the game came at 41-21, when Risper converted an offensive rebound into two points, just 1:43 into the second half. The Lady Flames roared back with a 9-0 burst over the next 2:15. Hammond bookended the run with a triple and a fast-break jumper. Her latter hoop, coming with 16:02 left, brought Liberty to within 41-30. The Lady Flames still trailed by 11 points, before Vanderbilt opened up a bit more breathing room with 19-4 surge over the next 7:37 of action. The Commodores' lead reached a game-high 26 points, 64-38, on a Christina Wirth second-chance hoop with 5:19 left. The Lady Flames then reeled off a 10-0 run, started off on consecutive triples by Hammond and Amber Mays. Frazee split a pair of charity tosses at the 3:04 mark, trimming Vanderbilt's advantage to 64-48. That's as close as the Lady Flames got, though.

Game 11
Blacksburg, Va.

Megan Frazee, returning to the Liberty lineup after an ankle injury had sidelined her for eight straight contests, tallied 19 points and 10 rebounds after halftime, against North Carolina A&T. Her performance lifted the Lady Flames to a 72-58 win in the opening game of the Hokie Hardwood Classic. North Carolina A&T recorded an 8-0 burst to claim an early 13-8 lead. The Aggies' edge reached seven points, 21-14, when Brittanie Taylor-James swished a jumper from just inside the three-point arc, 8:30 before halftime. Liberty gradually chipped away at its disadvantage, and Amber Mays' charity toss at 1:52 provided the Lady Flames with their first lead since 8-5, at 27-26. The teams exchanged the advantage three times during the remainder of the opening stanza, before heading to the locker room deadlocked at 31. North Carolina A&T put together an 8-2 surge, early in the second half. Taylor-James capped the run with a long jumper, giving her team a 39-35 edge with 15:14 remaining. Liberty battled back to tie the game at 44 apiece, on another Hammond layup, before one play shifted the game's momentum significantly. Lamona Smalley was called for both her fourth foul and a technical foul at 10:59. Megan Frazee stepped to the line for a quartet of foul shots. Frazee made all four tries, giving Liberty an edge it never relinquished, 48-44. Shortly thereafter, Liberty took control of the contest with a 10-0 burst. North Carolina A&T could not get closer than eight points down the rest of the way.

Game 12
Blacksburg, Va.

Tournament MVP Megan Frazee drilled the game-winning shot from just inside the three-point arc with 51 seconds remaining in the Hokie Hardwood Classic championship contest. Her last-minute heroics lifted Liberty to a hard-fought 45-43 win over host Virginia Tech, giving the Lady Flames the tournament title and their first-ever win over the Hokies. The Commonwealth foes were deadlocked at 43-43 when Megan Frazee stepped to the foul line for a one-and-one with 1:04 remaining in the contest. The senior missed the front end, but Warley was there to snatch her 18th rebound. Thirteen seconds later, Rachel McLeod found Frazee for the game-winning hoop. Virginia Tech's Laura Haskins had two chances to knot the contest in the final 38 seconds, but Liberty hung on for a long-awaited win over the Hokies. The teams traded the lead 11 times during an evenly-played opening half, and neither team led by more than three points. The Hokies' Lindsay Biggs drilled a three-pointer from well beyond the arc as the first-half buzzer sounded, giving her team a 24-23 halftime edge. Liberty did not score for a 6:32 span of the second half, enabling Virginia Tech to reel off an 8-0 surge. Shanel Harrison's steal and fast break layup at the 13:26 mark gave the Hokies their largest lead of the contest, 37-29. Virginia Tech then experienced its own extended offensive drought, going 8:16 without a point. In the meantime, Liberty reclaimed the lead with a 10-0 run, as Warley's putback hoop with 6:45 left in the contest put the Lady Flames back in front, 39-37. Liberty's lead was short-lived, however, as Biggs nailed her fourth triple 1:25 later, giving Virginia Tech a 40-39 advantage. A McLeod mid-range jumper and two Megan Frazee charity tosses swung the lead back in Liberty's favor, 43-40. Utahya Drye then converted an old-fashioned three-point play with 1:28 remaining, knotting the score at 43-all and setting the stage for Frazee's third game-winning shot in her last six appearances, dating back to last season.

Game 13*Lynchburg, Va.*

Liberty broke open a close game against Gardner-Webb with a 18-2 run spanning the first and second halves. The Lady Flames went on to hand the Bulldogs a 55-42 setback in Gardner-Webb's first-ever Big South contest and the conference opener for both squads. The score was deadlocked at 8-8 early on, before Liberty fashioned an 8-0 burst. Megan Frazee tossed in the final five points of the Lady Flame run, lifting the home team's lead to 16-8 at the 9:52 mark. A Margaret Roundtree jumper from the paint, this one coming at 4:38, narrowed the visitors' deficit to 18-14. The Lady Flames then closed the stanza on a 9-0 run. Moriah Frazee initiated the surge with five straight points, and Megan Frazee ended the half's scoring with a layup, sending Liberty to the locker room with a 27-14 advantage. Warley scored the second half's first two baskets, helping Liberty begin the stanza on a 9-2 run. Megan Frazee's hoop at 16:17 pushed the Lady Flames' lead to 36-16, finishing off an overall surge of 18-2, which started in the first half. Soon thereafter, the Bulldogs crafted their best extended run of the evening. The Lady Flames did not score for 5:03, as Gardner-Webb posted a 10-0 burst to trim its deficit in half. Meranda Burnett's mid-range jumper with 6:42 left put her team back within 10, at 40-30. Freshman Kylee Beecher halted the Gardner-Webb run with a free throw on Liberty's next possession, and the Bulldogs were never able to cut their deficit to single digits. Rachel McLeod put the finishing touches on Liberty's 55-42 decision, connecting on a driving layup with 14 seconds remaining.

Trailing by six points with less than five minutes remaining at Winthrop, Liberty responded with a game-ending 14-4 run to pull out a hard-fought 55-51 victory. Avery Warley's putback with 30.0 seconds left gave the Lady Flames the lead for good in their fourth straight win. Winthrop owned a 47-41 advantage at the 4:53 mark of the second half, before Liberty began chipping away at its deficit. Megan Frazee swished a three-pointer from the right wing off an out-of-bounds play and Amber Mays followed with a mid-range jumper on Liberty's next possession, enabling the Lady Flames to level the score at 49-all with 2:11 remaining. The score was still deadlocked in the final minute, when Warley tracked down her own missed shot and banked it home for the go-ahead hoop. On Winthrop's next possession, an aggressive double team forced a turnover. Liberty was then able to finish off its road win with four straight made free throws by Rachel McLeod and Megan Frazee, sandwiching a Yvonne van Daalen layup. Winthrop had fashioned the game's first extended run, as Jessica Fansler's three-pointer capped a 9-2 surge, boosting the Eagles' lead to 12-8 at the 11:09 mark. Liberty later erased its deficit with a 13-1 run, including nine points by Megan Frazee. Her old-fashioned three-point play with only 7.7 seconds remaining in the half finished off the surge with the Lady Flames owning a 29-24 advantage. Jennifer Walker canned a layup as the first-half buzzer sounded, pulling the homestanding Eagles to within three, 29-26, at the intermission. Winthrop gradually built its aforementioned six points lead, before going nearly five minutes without a field goal at the end of the game. The Eagles' offensive drought enabled Liberty to initiate its decisive comeback.

Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty closed the first half with a 15-0 run, Tuesday evening at the Vines Center, propelling the Lady Flames to a 64-54 victory over East Tennessee State. Liberty scored on its opening possession of the evening, when Avery Warley nailed a shot from the paint. However, the Lady Flames did not score again until Megan Frazee's layup, 4:45 later. In the meantime, East Tennessee State reeled off nine consecutive points. Back-to-back layups by Latisha Belcher finished off the run, putting the Lady Buccaneers in front by a 9-2 margin at the 14:32 mark. Liberty responded with a 9-0 surge of its own, ending with Rachel Hammond's mid-range jumper at 10:06, which reclaimed the lead for the Lady Flames, 11-9. The game continued to swing back and forth, as a 12-4 surge by the visitors resulted in a 24-20 East Tennessee State lead. TaRonda Wiles tossed in the last five points of the Lady Buccaneers' extended run, including a triple from the corner at 5:01. Those would be East Tennessee State's final points of the opening stanza, however, as Liberty closed the half on a 15-0 run. Five Liberty steals keyed the surge, which was highlighted by Mays' four points and two thefts. The Lady Flames owned a 35-24 half-time advantage, after Rachel McLeod closed the half's scoring with a layup at the 25-second mark. A pair of triples early in the second half enabled East Tennessee State to trim its deficit to seven points, 37-30, with 16:27 remaining. Liberty's lead fluctuated between six and 10 points until Tara Davis hit two free throws at the 10:30 mark, bringing her team to within 46-41. The Lady Flames quickly responded with their second 9-0 burst of the evening, initiated by a three-pointer and putback by Megan Frazee. Mays later converted her eighth steal into a fast break layup at 8:21, capping the run with Liberty leading, 55-41. Liberty's lead remained in double figures for the remainder of the contest, as the Lady Flames closed out a 64-54 win.

-- Tallied a career-high eight rebounds and six assists during the Nov. 14 season opener against VCU.

-- The game versus VCU, which marked McLeod's first career start, saw her become the first Liberty point guard to notch at least eight rebounds and six assists in the same contest since Daina Staugaitiene totaled 13 rebounds and six helpers versus Birmingham-Southern in the Big South title tilt on March 13, 2004.

-- Dished out six assists versus South Alabama on Nov. 29.

-- Made a successful return from an injury which had sidelined her for the previous three contests, Dec. 20 at Winston-Salem State. Totaled five points, three rebounds and two steals in 16 minutes of action off the bench, including her first three-pointer of the season.

-- Did not make a turnover in 21 minutes of action versus Virginia Tech on Dec. 30 and assisted on Megan Frazee's game-winning jumper with 51 seconds remaining.

-- Sank both ends of a one-and-one from the free throw line with 13.4 seconds left at Winthrop on Jan. 10, helping Liberty close out a 55-51 road win.

-- Scored a season-high seven points in victory over East Tennessee State (Jan. 13).
