Game No. 22 - Feb. 9, 2009

Liberty LADY FLAMES
(14-7, 8-0 Big South)

at

Gardner-Webb BULLDOGS
(12-10, 4-5 Big South)

Boiling Springs, N.C. - Paul Porter Arena - 7 p.m.

The Game

The Liberty Lady Flames (14-7, 8-0 Big South) return to the road for a quick, one-game trip to Gardner-Webb (12-10, 4-5 Big South), Monday evening. Liberty's first-ever contest at Paul Porter Arena is scheduled for a 7 p.m. tip-off.

What to Watch

The Lady Flames will attempt to complete a regular-season series sweep of Gardner-Webb. Liberty defeated the Bulldogs, 55-42, in Gardner-Webb's first-ever Big South tilt, Jan. 3 at the Vines Center.

Gardner-Webb has played extremely well at Paul Porter Arena this season, winning all nine of its home games. Meanwhile, the Lady Flames have experienced a run of success away from the Vines Center, posting five consecutive road/neutral victories and winning six out of their last seven.

Liberty's winning streak stands at 11 games, entering Monday's game. Smothering defense has highlighted the Lady Flames' streak, as Liberty has held nine of its 11 opponents to 51 points or less.

Liberty has done a stellar job of holding the Big South's top scorers in check this season. Gardner-Webb's Margaret Roundtree is tied for fifth on the conference scoring ledger, at 11.3 ppg. She managed 10 points against the Lady Flames on Jan. 3, but shot just 4-of-16 from the field.

Lady Flames On The Air

All Lady Flames basketball games may be heard LIVE on WWMC 90.9 FM "The Light." Jamie Hall, celebrating his 15th year of broadcasting Lady Flames basketball, will once again be handling the courtside play-by-play duties for most road games. Josh Wood will serve as the commentator for home contests and will provide color analysis on the road.

Head Coach Carey Green

Record at Liberty: 227-75 (10th Year)

Career Record: Same

Eight Big South Championships: 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2008

Eight NCAA Appearances: 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005 (Sweet 16), 2006, 2008

Four-time Big South Coach of the Year: 2000, 2003, 2006, 2008

Three-time VaSID State Coach of the Year: 2003, 2005, 2006

Liberty head women's basketball coach Carey Green, in his 10th season with the Lady Flames, has instilled quite a winning tradition during his tenure at the institution. His teams have averaged more than 23 victories per year during his time at Liberty, putting his name alongside the nation's premier women's basketball coaches.

Green has accumulated a 227-75 record on the Liberty bench, good for a winning percentage of .752. He entered the season ranked 10th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches in winning percentage, ahead of renowned coaching names like Rutgers' Vivian Stringer, LSU's Van Chancellor and North Carolina's Sylvia Hatchell.

More importantly, Liberty has won the Big South Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament eight times with Green as head coach. Liberty has totaled 23 or more victories during seven of those years, including the 2004-05 season, which saw the Lady Flames reach the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history.

Green has actually been to the postseason on 20 occasions as a women's basketball coach, a span which includes a dozen years as an assistant coach at Clemson. In all but one of the 20 appearances, he has experienced the NCAA Tournament.

Last season, Green led the Lady Flames to one of the best seasons in program history. Liberty tied a school record for victories, finishing the year 28-4. Along the way, the Lady Flames captured three tournament titles—the National City Xavier Invitational, the UNLV Lady Rebel Christmas Classic and their eighth Big South Championship in Green's nine years as head coach. The latter championship earned Liberty a spot in the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time. Green won his 200th career game, Jan. 19 at Charleston Southern, and became the first four-time Big South Women's Basketball Coach of the Year in conference history.

Rebounding and defense have always been staples of Green-coached teams, and the 2007-08 Lady Flames were no exception. Liberty outrebounded opponents by an average of 10.2 caroms per game, ranking fifth nationally. The Lady Flames have now been listed among the nation's top five teams in rebounding margin for five-straight years. Liberty led the nation in the category in 2003-04 and 2004-05. The Lady Flames also ended the season ranked in the top 15 in the nation for field goal percentage defense (fourth) and scoring defense (15th).

A key late-season conference victory over High Point in 2006 made Green the winningest coach in Big South Conference history. He is also Liberty's career wins leader.

The record-setting victory was just one of the many reasons the 2004-05 year was a special one on Liberty Mountain. A senior-laden Lady Flames team recorded upset wins over No. 4 seed Penn State (78-70) and No. 5 seed DePaul (88-79) in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, becoming just the second team ever to advance to the Sweet 16 as a No. 13 seed. The Lady Flames ended the season with their highest national ranking to date, 21st (USA Today/ESPN).

Green's track record shows he has the ability to meet strong challenges. The Lady Flames have recorded two wins over UNLV, Virginia and West Virginia and solo victories over No. 19 DePaul, No. 17 Kansas State, No. 25 Penn State, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest during Green's tenure. The upset victory over No. 25 Virginia in 2003 marked Liberty's first win over a Top 25 team.

His record against conference foes is equally impressive. He led the Lady Flames on a Big South record 47-game winning streak and currently owns a .917 (144-13) winning percentage against conference teams. Green has marched through conference play with one or fewer setbacks six times, while guiding the Lady Flames to two undefeated conference seasons.

Scouting Gardner-Webb

Gardner-Webb received a bit of a rude welcome to the Big South Conference, losing its first four league games. However, the Bulldogs have bounced back, claiming four victories in their last five Big South contests. Interestingly, Gardner-Webb has won all of its Big South home games, but lost all of its conference road tilts.

A pair of junior forwards score in double figures for the Bulldogs, led by Margaret Roundtree's 11.3 ppg. Laura Povilyonite, who prepped at Holy Cross High School in Lynchburg, chips in with 11.1 ppg.

Teonika Webb, a 5-10 guard/forward, became the Bulldogs' first weekly award winner in the Big South Conference, on Jan. 26. The only Commonwealth native on Gardner-Webb's roster, Webb was tabbed Big South Freshman of the Week.

The Coaching Matchup

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green is in his 10th season with the Lady Flames, and has led his team to eight Big South titles. A four-time Big South Coach of the Year, Green owns a 227-75 career record and is the all-time wins leader at Liberty and among Big South women's basketball coaches. His career winning percentage (.752) ranked 10th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the season's outset. Green is 1-0 all-time against Gardner-Webb.

Rick Reeves owns a 62-78 record in his fifth season as Gardner-Webb's head coach and is 329-317 in 23 total years of collegiate head coaching. Reeves served as Liberty's head coach for nine seasons (1991-99) and led the Lady Flames to a trio of Big South titles (1996-97, 1997-98 & 1998-99). He is 0-1 coaching against Liberty.

Liberty-Gardner-Webb Series Notes

Monday's game will be only the second contest between Liberty and Gardner-Webb. The Lady Flames were victorious in the teams' first-ever meeting, claiming a 55-42 decision, Jan. 3 at the Vines Center. The game was also Gardner-Webb's first Big South Conference tilt in program history.

Liberty used an 18-2 run, which spanned the first and second half, to open up some breathing room. The Lady Flames' Megan Frazee led all players with 19 points, while teammate Avery Warley fashioned a double-double, with 10 points and a game-high 15 boards.

Margaret Roundtree scored a team-high 10 points for Gardner-Webb, which was held to its lowest point total of the season.

Don't I Know You?

There are a number of interesting connections between Liberty and Gardner-Webb.

Gardner-Webb Head Coach Rick Reeves spent nine seasons as Liberty's head coach (1991-99). While at Liberty, Reeves coached his daughters, Kim and Krystal. Both now serve as assistants on his coaching staff at Gardner-Webb.

Additionally, Ruth (Hammond) Bailey, the older sister of Liberty senior guard Rachel Hammond, played four seasons for the Gardner-Webb women's basketball team (2000-04).

Fabulous in February

Liberty has won 86 of its last 91 games played during the month of February, dating back to the 1997 Big South Championship. The only teams to defeat the Lady Flames in February since then are High Point (three times), UNC Asheville and Winthrop.

Liberty owns a 167-121 all-time mark during the year's second month, including a 67-5 record under Carey Green. The Lady Flames went 6-1 in February last season and have six February contests on the schedule in 2008-09. Liberty is 1-0 so far this month.

Welcome to the Club

Senior Moriah Frazee drained a pair of free throws with 14:56 remaining in the second half of Liberty's Jan. 24 game against Charleston Southern. The foul shots gave Frazee 1,000 career points, making her the 12th player in program history to reach the milestone.

Frazee's sister Megan is also a member of the 1,000-point club, as are twin sisters Sarah and Sharon Wilkerson, who graduated in 2000. Liberty is the only NCAA Division I women's basketball program featuring multiple sets of sisters in the 1,000-point club.

Recipe For Success

Liberty has won 11 consecutive games, and the following are a few keys the Lady Flames' success.

- All 11 opponents have been held below 60 points.
- All 11 opponents have shot below 40 percent from the field.
- Liberty has outrebounded 10 of 11 opponents by 11 boards or more.
- Megan Frazee has averaged 18.3 ppg and 9.5 rpg, since returning from an ankle injury which sidelined her for eight games.
- Liberty is shooting 37.9 percent from three-point range and averaging 4.5 triples per contest, as compared with 27.5 percent and 2.8 triples per game before the streak.
- The Lady Flames' starting backcourt of Amber Mays and Rachel Hammond has posted 75 assists, 43 steals and only 44 turnovers.
- Liberty is scoring 14.2 more points in the paint than its opponents, on average.

Long-Range Bombers

Liberty has begun to find its outside shooting touch recently, sinking 37 triples and shooting 44.6 percent from beyond the three-point arc in the last six games.

Leading the way are two of the most prolific three-point shooters in program history. Megan Frazee, ranked ninth on Liberty's career list with 89 triples, has hit 14 of her last 25 from downtown (56 percent)

Rachel Hammond, whose 67 career three-pointers tie her for 14th on the list, has connected on 15 of her last 25 three-point attempts (60 percent). Hammond made a program-record nine consecutive triples without a miss, between Jan. 24-31.

Hammond made five treys against High Point on Jan. 31, marking the first time a Lady Flame has connected on five three-pointers in a single game since Dec. 15, 2001, when Daina Staugaitiene did so at Hampton.

Hot-Shooting Hammond

Senior Rachel Hammond was tabbed the Big South Player of the Week on Feb. 2, for the first time in her career. She averaged 16.5 ppg and 5.0 rpg during Liberty's victories over Coastal Carolina and High Point to garner the honor. Hammond shot 77.8 percent (7-of-9) from three-point range for the week, with five of her triples coming during a career-best 25-point outburst against High Point (Jan. 31).

A Little Breathing Room

Liberty has won its last five games, all Big South contests, by 23 points or more. For the season, the Lady Flames are winning their conference games by an average of 21.1 ppg.

This is only the second time in program history Liberty has won five straight games by more than 20 points. The 2004-05 Lady Flames defeated five straight opponents by more than 20 points, from Feb. 28-March 12, 2005.

Ice Water Flows Through Her Veins

Sophomore Rachel McLeod has been a clutch free throw shooter for the Lady Flames this season. Most recently, she drilled four consecutive charity tosses during the final minute of Liberty's 59-49 win at Presbyterian on Jan. 17.

McLeod has connected on nine of her 11 foul shot attempts during the final two minutes of games this year, good for an 81.8 percent clip.

In addition, McLeod has scored a team-high 19 points in the final two minutes of games during the 2008-09 campaign.

Coach Green Versus the Big South

Liberty head coach Carey Green has enjoyed considerable success versus the Big South during his first nine seasons with the Lady Flames. His teams are 144-13 against Big South opponents, including 120-12 in the regular season and 24-1 in the Big South Championship.

Green has never lost to his alma mater, Coastal Carolina (22-0), or Charleston Southern (21-0) during his time at Liberty.

First Since Feenstra

When Rachel Hammond tallied a career-high 25 points against High Point on Jan. 31, she became the first Liberty player not named Frazee to score 20 points in a game since March 22, 2005. That day, Katie Feenstra went for 29 points against DePaul, sending the Lady Flames into the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16.

Since then, sisters Megan and Moriah Frazee had been the only Liberty players to eclipse the 20-point plateau, prior to Hammond's effort.

Turning Up the Heat in the Furnace

The 2008-09 campaign is the 17th season the Liberty University women's basketball team has called the Vines Center its full-time home. Liberty's first-ever contest at the Vines Center was an 86-74 loss to East Tennessee State, on Dec. 7, 1990, but the "Furnace" has served as a favorable venue for the Lady Flames over the years. Liberty is 185-51 (.784) all-time at the Vines Center, including 13-0 last season. The Lady Flames, 7-2 at the Vines Center in 2008-09, have 12 home games scheduled this season.

Dial Three Digits for Long Distance

The Lady Flames have been able to continue a long-standing streak, so far this season. The Lady Flames have made at least one three-pointer in a school-record 124 straight games, a run which began on Feb. 26, 2005. None of the current Lady Flames were in college when the streak started.

Winning Streaks

The Lady Flames are currently on an 11-game winning streak, as they have not lost a game since falling at No. 19/20 Vanderbilt on Dec. 22.

The streak is tied for the ninth longest in program history. Here is a look at the Lady Flames' longest winning streaks, eight of which have come with Carey Green as head coach.

Liberty's other 11-game winning streak came at the end of Green's first season at Liberty, 1999-2000. The Lady Flames won their last eight regular-season contests and all three Big South Championship games.

Lady Flames Excel in the Classroom

Liberty was one of only three Division I women's basketball teams (also Kansas State and Portland State) to place three players on the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District teams. Megan Frazee (3.91 GPA, Kinesiology) was a first-team honoree for the third straight season, while classmates Moriah Frazee (3.64 GPA, Nursing) and Rachel Hammond (3.95 GPA, Social Science) made the second team.

Lady Flames Excel in the Classroom, Take Two

Liberty has received national recognition numerous times for its work in the classroom. Last season, the Lady Flames tallied a 3.354 GPA, ranking 14th in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Top 25 Team Honor Roll.

It was the third straight season and the fifth time in program history that Liberty has been included in the Top 25 Team Honor Roll. The Lady Flames were listed a program-best seventh in 2006-07 and tied for 14th in 2005-06. Liberty was rated 13th in 1999-2000, which was Carey Green's first season as head coach, and came in 12th during the 1998-99 campaign.

Liberty was one of only three teams to be included in last season's WBCA Top 25 Honor Roll and play in the NCAA Tournament, joining Kansas State and New Mexico.

The top 15 teams on the 2007-08 WBCA Top 25 Team Honor Roll are listed below.

Nation's Longest Winning Streaks

Liberty has won 11 games in a row, which is tied for the fifth-longest active winning streak among NCAA Division I women's basketball games, through Saturday's action.

No. 1 Connecticut has won a nation-best 23 consecutive games.

Liberty in the National Rankings

During Liberty's winning streak, the Lady Flames have been surging upward in the NCAA national statistical rankings. Liberty now ranks in the top 10 nationally in three statistical categories. The Lady Flames are listed No. 5 in both rebounding margin (+11.3) and field goal percentage defense (.341) and No. 10 in scoring defense (53.4 ppg).

Liberty and No. 21/23 Xavier are the only two teams in the nation which rank in the top 10 of all three of those categories.

On a Record Pace

Liberty is yielding just 53.4 ppg and has held 10 opponents below the 50-point mark. The Lady Flames' stifling defense is among the best in program history. Liberty's all-time record for scoring defense in a season is 54.7 ppg, set in 2001-02.

Reaching the Century Mark

Moriah Frazee made the 100th start of her career on Jan. 24, making her the first Lady Flame with 100 starts since 2000 graduate Elena Kisseleva (program-record 117 career starts) and Sharon Wilkerson (107).

Start Me Up

Head coach Carey Green used only four different starting lineups in Liberty's 32 games last season. The most common starting five consisted of Allyson Fasnacht, Courtney Watkins, Megan Frazee, Rebecca Lightfoot and Moriah Frazee. The unit went 18-2 in its 20 games as a starting unit.

This year, Liberty has used five different starting lineups in the first 21 games of the season. Moriah Frazee, Rachel Hammond and Avery Warley have been the only three Lady Flames to start every contest.

The Lady Flames' most recent lineup, consisting of Moriah Frazee, Hammond, Warley, Amber Mays and Megan Frazee, is a perfect 11-0.

Counting Up the Votes

Liberty was listed among the "Others Receiving Votes" in the Nov. 25 ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 poll, for the third straight week, receiving one vote.

Last season, the Lady Flames regularly received votes in both national polls, but did not quite crack the Top 25. Liberty's most recent Top 25 ranking came in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll of the 2004-05 season. The Lady Flames were listed No. 21, after reaching the "Sweet 16" of the NCAA Tournament.

Lack of Overtime

Liberty has played only one overtime game in its last 167 outings, a 64-62 setback at High Point on Jan. 20, 2007.

The Lady Flames' most recent overtime victory came on Jan. 6, 2004, when Liberty defeated American, 76-72, on the road in double overtime. No current Lady Flame has won an overtime contest in college.

Liberty's most recent overtime contest at the Vines Center was a memorable one. The Lady Flames defeated Virginia, 77-69, in overtime on Nov. 26, 2002, to claim their first-ever win over the Cavaliers. It also marked Liberty's first win over a ranked opponent, as Virginia entered the game with a No. 25 national ranking.

The Container is Half Full

Liberty connected on 52.4 percent (33-of-63) of its field goal attempts versus Radford on Feb. 2, shooting over 50 percent for the third time in the last four games. The Lady Flames are 4-0 this year, when making more than half of their field goals.

The Lady Flames went 9-0 last season when shooting 50 percent or higher, and Liberty is now 53-0 in such contests under head coach Carey Green.

A Boost from the Bench

Liberty's bench was a short one for a good portion of the year, as the Lady Flames battled the injury bug. Since Rebecca Lightfoot returned from injury, though, the bench has played a key role in the Lady Flames' success.

Liberty's bench has outscored its opponent's bench in seven of the eight games since Lightfoot's return, helping the Lady Flames win each of those contests. This season, Liberty is 10-2 when its reserves score more points than the opponent's bench performers.

Chief Thiefs

Starting guards Amber Mays and Rachel Hammond have been keys to Liberty's defensive efforts, as they rank sixth and seventh, respectively, on the Big South steals leaderboard.

Mays has notched 26 steals in the past eight games, including a career-high eight-steal effort versus East Tennessee State on Jan. 13. Her eight steals were the most by a Lady Flame since Sharon Wilkerson recorded eight thefts at High Point on Feb. 21, 2000. Mays tied for the fifth-most steals in a single game in Liberty history.

Four more steals will make Mays the first Liberty player since Sharon Wilkerson in 1999-2000 to record 50 steals in a season.

Meanwhile, Hammond has been a consistent disruptive force on defense this season, tallying multiple steals in 12 of the first 21 games. As a result, the senior has already established a career high with 36 steals.

Triple the Trouble

Liberty sports the only set of triplets currently playing for the same NCAA Division I women's basketball team--seniors Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee. Career totals of 1,000 points and 500 rebounds represent a very solid collegiate performer. The Frazee triplets have averaged more than 1,000 points and 500 rebounds between them.

During Liberty's Jan. 3 victory over Gardner-Webb, the triplets exceeded the 3,000-career point total. Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee have totaled 3,242 points and 1,694 rebounds during their time at Liberty. Those figures represent more than 40 percent of the Lady Flames' points and more than a third of the team's rebounds since they arrived on campus.

Miss Consistency

Megan Frazee has scored in double figures in each of her last 57 games, dating back to Jan. 27, 2007. It is the longest such streak of her career and the second longest ever by a Liberty player. Elena Kisseleva owns the program record, tallying 10 or more points in 62 straight contests, spanning the 1996-97, 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons.

Chasing Another Record

Megan Frazee has posted six double-doubles this season, pushing her career total to 44. Katie Feenstra owns the program record, with 49 career double-doubles.

Clamping Down on Defense

The Lady Flames have held 72 consecutive opponents under 50 percent field goal shooting. The last Liberty foe to sink more than half of its field goal attempts was Marist, at the Maryland Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29, 2006.

Liberty is off to a good start defensively in 2008-09. Sixteen of the Lady Flames' first 21 opponents, including the last 11 in a row, have shot below 40 percent from the floor. Liberty leads the Big South and ranks No. 11 nationally with a .341 opponents field goal percentage.

The Lady Flames are 14-2 this season when their opponents shoot under 40 percent from the field, but 0-5 when their foes make at least 40 percent of their field goal tries.

Climbing the Big South Rebounding Ladder

Megan Frazee's 14 rebounds versus High Point on Jan. 31 pushed her into ninth place on the Big South's career rebounding list, with 829 boards.

Frazee will pass Jennifer Grant of Radford, a 2000 graduate, for eighth place with three more rebounds.

International Flavor

The addition of Tokyo, Japan native Jessica Nelson to the Lady Flames' roster gives Liberty an international player for the 15th consecutive season. The last time the Lady Flames' roster consisted solely of American-born players was the 1993-94 campaign. Every Carey Green-coached team at Liberty has featured at least one international player.

Nearing a Milestone

Liberty is 498-403 all-time in women's basketball, since the inception of the program in 1975-76. As a result, the Lady Flames sit only two wins shy of the 500-victory milestone. Here is a look at some of Liberty's previous milestone triumphs.

Win No.	Date	Opponent	Score
100	12/9/86	Bluefield	107-55
200	2/10/96	UNC Asheville	72-70
300	1/13/01	Winthrop	74-63
400	2/5/05	High Point	72-49

In Good Company

On Jan. 26, Megan Frazee was honored as Big South Women's Basketball Player of the Week. It was the third time the senior has captured the award this season and was her 15th career weekly conference honor.

Frazee is now tied with former Liberty standout Katie Feenstra for the most Big South Player of the Week awards captured during a career, in conference history.

Cranking Up the Defense

Liberty has played exceptional defense during its current 11-game winning streak. The Lady Flames have held North Carolina A&T, Virginia Tech, Gardner-Webb, Coastal Carolina, High Point and Radford all to season-low point totals during the stretch. Liberty's 11 foes have scored only 46.9 ppg against Liberty and have combined to shoot just 31 percent from the field.

Winning the Battle of the Boards

The Lady Flames have outrebounded 17 teams in their first 21 games of the season. Only three teams (Western Carolina, James Madison and Winthrop) have won the rebounding battle against Liberty this season, as the Lady Flames lead the Big South Conference with a +11.3 rebounding margin.

Liberty, which currently ranks No. 5 nationally for rebounding margin, has finished in the top five nationally in the category for five consecutive seasons. The Lady Flames led the nation in rebounding margin during both the 2003-04 and 2004-05 campaigns.

Down, But Not Out

On Jan. 13, East Tennessee State ran out to an early seven-point advantage at the Vines Center, before Liberty rallied for a 64-54 win. It was the fifth time the Lady Flames have erased a six-point deficit to win this season (also UC Riverside, North Carolina A&T, Virginia Tech and Winthrop).

Liberty's largest rally of the season came on Dec. 30, in the Hokie Hardwood Classic title game against Virginia Tech. The Hokies led by eight points midway through the second half, but the Lady Flames came back to notch a 45-43 triumph.

Less Than a Point Per Minute

Liberty held Radford to 15 first-half points on Saturday, marking the sixth time this season, the Lady Flames have limited their opponent to fewer than 20 first-half markers. Liberty has gone on to win all six contests.

During the Lady Flames' current winning streak, they have outscored their opponents by an average score of 31.8 to 21.2 in the first half.

Road Warriors

The Lady Flames enter Monday's contest on a four-game road winning streak, and Liberty has won five of its last six road outings.

Game 1
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty battled back from a 21-4 deficit in its season opener to take a pair of second-half leads. However, visiting VCU edged the Lady Flames, 59-57, in a first-round Preseason WNIT contest, as Radoslava Bachvarova drained three free throws with just 2.1 seconds left. VCU tallied the evening's first 12 points, before Megan Frazee canned a one-handed floater from six feet, at the 14:10 mark of the opening half. The Rams later notched nine straight points, bolstering their advantage to 21-4 at 10:48. Liberty limited VCU to one field goal over the final 4:20 of the opening stanza, running off an 11-2 surge in the meantime and closing the gap to 31-27 at the intermission. Megan Frazee finally gave Liberty its initial lead of the contest, 45-44, draining a three-pointer from the right wing at the 11:02 mark. The Lady Flames' next lead did not come until 4:30 remained on the game clock, when Megan Frazee found Avery Warley for an open layup. Warley's basket was part of a 7-0 Liberty burst. Megan Frazee's reverse layup at 3:11 capped the run, increasing the Lady Flames' lead to 54-51. VCU came back to tie things up again, 54-54, when Quanitra Hollingsworth split a pair of free throws with 2:18 remaining, setting the stage for a frenetic final minute of play. Mays put Liberty on top, 56-54, with a driving layup at the 44-second mark, before Hollingsworth answered with a hoop from in close, 10 seconds later. Warley went to the free throw line on the Lady Flames' ensuing possession, splitting a pair of free throws with 6.4 seconds remaining. Her connection briefly put Liberty in front, 57-56, before Bachvarova's clutch charity tosses for the Rams.

Game 2
Cullowhee, N.C.

Megan Frazee banked in a layup from the left side of the lane as the buzzer sounded, giving the Lady Flames a thrilling, 45-44 win over UC Riverside in a Preseason WNIT consolation contest at the Ramsey Center in Cullowhee, N.C. The Highlanders had taken a 44-43 advantage with just 3.3 seconds left, when Alyssa Morris made a tightly-contested three-pointer from the right wing. Her hoop capped a 9-0 UC Riverside surge, consisting solely of triples. UC Riverside appeared to seal its first victory of the year, when Roney Friend intercepted Liberty's inbounds pass with 0.9 ticks remaining. However, Friend shuffled her feet, giving the Lady Flames one final opportunity, with the ball out of bounds under the basket. Rachel Hammond bounced the inbounds pass to a cutting Frazee, who calmly sank the game-winning shot from close range. Liberty notched the evening's first seven points, keeping the Highlanders off the scoreboard for the first 5:29 of play. The game was deadlocked at 15 apiece, before the Highlanders suffered another extended scoring drought. Liberty kept UC Riverside scoreless for 4:19, reeling off seven consecutive points in the meantime. Amber Mays split a pair of free throws 2:25 before halftime, giving the Lady Flames a 22-15 edge. Liberty led 22-17 at the intermission. It was UC Riverside which opened the second half on a roll. The Highlanders recorded the first nine points of the stanza. Tainoisouti Lott's layup at the 15:53 mark increased UC Riverside's first advantage of the contest to 26-22. Four straight tallies by Friend boosted the Highlanders to their largest lead, 32-26, with 12:26 showing on the second-half clock. Liberty later went back on top with a 13-0 run between UC Riverside hoops. Mays' pair of free throws made the score 43-35, Liberty, with 4:10 remaining.

Game 3

Cullowhee, N.C.

The Western Carolina Catamounts fashioned a 16-0 run, spanning the first and second halves, boosting them to a 73-53 victory over Liberty, Saturday evening at the Ramsey Center. The triumph gave Western Carolina the championship of this four-team Preseason WNIT consolation bracket. Both teams got off to a slow start at the offensive end. When the buzzer sounded for the contest's first media timeout at 14:42, the home-standing Catamounts owned a 5-2 advantage. Liberty did not get on the scoreboard until the 15:30 mark, when Hammond sank a layup. Western Carolina's edge bulged to six points, 16-10, after Brooke Johnson's layup 9:54 before the half. The Lady Flames then knotted the game at 16-16 with six consecutive markers. A Brittany Campbell three-pointer from the right corner, marking her first collegiate points, evened the score at 7:58. However, Liberty only made one more basket during the remainder of the opening stanza, Moriah Frazee's first triple of the season. The Catamounts closed the half on an 8-0 surge, taking a 30-19 advantage into the locker room. The Catamounts notched the first eight tallies of the second half, including a pair of three-pointers, extending their overall run to 16-0 and their lead to 38-19. Liberty trimmed its deficit to 13 points, 42-29, with 14:15 remaining. Rachel Hammond contributed four points to the Lady Flames' 6-0 run. The red-clad Lady Flames got to within 47-37 at 10:11, after another 6-0 surge, capped by consecutive Avery Warley layups. Liberty was unable to shave the lead to single digits, though, and the hot-shooting Catamounts pulled away during the final 10 minutes.

Game 4

Washington, D.C.

A late 13-2 run enabled Hartford to emerge victorious from its defensive struggle with Liberty. The Hawks prevailed by a 46-39 count in the opening game of the GW Thanksgiving Classic, at the Smith Center in Washington, D.C. Liberty tallied eight of the contest's first 11 points over the opening 4:43 of play. Rachel McLeod provided six of the Lady Flames' markers, including a short baseline jumper at 15:17 which put Liberty on top, 8-3. The Lady Flames managed only two points during the next 8:55. During the meantime, Hartford tallied 13 markers, building its initial lead of the game to 16-10 on Lisa Etienne's pair of free throws, 6:32 before halftime. Liberty quickly leveled the score at 16-16, by scoring on each of its next three possessions. Avery Warley contributed four points to the Lady Flames' 6-0 burst, tying the score with her putback with 5:05 showing on the first-half clock. The Lady Flames kept the Hawks off the scoreboard for the final 2:58 of the opening stanza. Liberty recorded the half's last four points during Hartford's drought, taking a 22-20 lead into the locker room. Hartford emerged from halftime with a 10-0 surge. Amanda Weaver's layup at 12:50 capped the run, giving the Hawks their largest advantage up to that point, 30-22. Brittany Campbell then posted five points and an assist during a 9-0 surge, which put Liberty back on top. Amber Mays finished off the run with two free throws at the 8:15 mark, making the score 31-30, Liberty. Shortly thereafter, MaryLynne Schaefer keyed Hartford's decisive 13-2 surge, bookending the run with a pair of three-pointers. Her triple from the left wing boosted the Hawks' lead to 45-35. With only 1:22 remaining, the edge proved to be insurmountable for the Lady Flames.

Game 5

Washington, D.C.

The South Alabama Jaguars connected on nine three-pointers, pushing them past Liberty, 65-61, in the GW Thanksgiving Classic consolation game at the Smith Center in Washington, D.C. Amber Mays, later named to the all-tournament team, opened the game's scoring by canning a pair of left-handed layups in the first 1:36 of play, staking the Lady Flames to an early 4-0 lead. South Alabama answered with five straight markers, claiming its first advantage, 5-4, when Shakira Nettles made two free throws at 16:30. The Jaguars' Karina Sproal tallied five points in a row, opening up a bit of breathing room for her team. Her long three-pointer at the 8:20 mark pushed South Alabama's edge to 18-14. South Alabama did not trail again until only 1:48 remained in the stanza, when Rachel McLeod went two-for-two from the foul line for the Lady Flames, putting her team in front, 29-27. The sophomore's free throws finished a 6-0 Liberty run. Liberty took a 31-30 lead into the locker room. Back-to-back triples initiated an 8-0 burst by the Jaguars, early in the second half. Brittny Rutledge's long jumper from the corner with 17:53 remaining closed the run with South Alabama owning a 38-32 edge. Moriah Frazee made both the first and the last baskets of Liberty's ensuing 8-0 surge. Her layup from the right block reclaimed the lead for the Lady Flames, 40-38, with 14:05 showing on the second-half clock. South Alabama bounced right back, and gained a four-point lead, 50-46, on Siedah Banks' old-fashioned three-point play at 7:48. Liberty could get no closer than two for the remainder of the contest. South Alabama sealed its win by sinking five of six foul shots in the final minute.

Game 6

Harrisonburg, Va.

Rebounding and stellar free throw shooting down the stretch enabled the James Madison Dukes to claim a 77-64 victory over Liberty at the JMU Convocation Center. Back-to-back baskets by JMU's Dawn Evans, the nation's leading scorer entering the contest, finished an 8-0 Dukes run. The surge built the home team's early lead to nine points, 17-8. The Lady Flames clawed back to within three points, 21-18, after Moriah Frazee's three-pointer at the 9:43 mark punctuated Liberty's 5-0 run. Evans nailed a triple on the Dukes' ensuing possession, beginning a 9-3 surge by the home squad. Sarah Williams' layup closed the run, boosting her team's advantage back up to 30-21, with 6:39 on the clock. Liberty took its first lead since 4-2, when Moriah Frazee's hoop at 1:29 capped an 11-0 Lady Flames run. Her connection made the score 38-36, Liberty. JMU then tallied the stanza's final three points, taking a 39-38 advantage into the locker room. Liberty opened the second half by scoring four points in the first 47 seconds. The Lady Flames reclaimed the edge, 42-39, after Moriah Frazee's pair of made charity tosses. James Madison quickly bounced back with six consecutive markers of its own. The Dukes went ahead once again, 47-44, on Evans' three-pointer with 15:13 left. The Dukes' edge ballooned to nine, 56-47, after a run of seven consecutive points. Moriah Frazee's second three-pointer of the game, at 6:43, trimmed JMU's lead to six, 60-54. However, that was Liberty's last made field goal for the next five minutes. During the Lady Flames' drought, the Dukes put together a 10-2 surge. Another Evans triple, with just 2:28 remaining, gave JMU its largest lead of the evening, 70-56. Evans scored the Dukes' final 14 points, nine of which came from the free throw line, enabling her team to finish off a 13-point victory.

Game 7
Lynchburg, Va.

An 11-0, late second-half run helped No. 13/14 Auburn to pull away from Liberty in a tightly-played contest. The Tigers were able to remain undefeated on the season with a 64-53 triumph over the Lady Flames. Lady Flame Amber Mays came up with four steals during the game's first five minutes. Two of her thefts came during a 10-0 Liberty surge, which turned a 7-5 deficit into a 15-7 advantage, at 14:08. Liberty's edge eventually reached 10 points, 23-13, after Kittery Maine put back her own missed shot, 10:54 before the intermission. The Tigers' defense then kept Liberty off the scoreboard for nearly seven minutes, while Auburn reeled off a 15-0 run. Alli Smalley, who hit a pair of three-pointers during the surge, capped the burst with a made jumper at 5:05. Her connection lifted Auburn to a 28-23 edge. The Lady Flames bounced right back, fashioning a 10-2 spurt. Moriah Frazee notched five of the run's points, and the senior's old-fashioned three-point play with 55 seconds remaining put Liberty up, 33-30. Liberty took a 33-32 lead into the break. Rachel Hammond's layup with 17:28 showing on the second-half clock increased the Liberty advantage to 37-33. The Lady Flames were still in front, 41-39, after another Hammond basket, coming at the 14:11 mark. However, those were Liberty's last points for 9:23. In the meantime, Auburn crafted its previously mentioned 11-0 surge. Sherell Hobbs tallied five points during the run, which increased the Tigers' lead to 50-41. Danika Dale canned a three-pointer on Liberty's next possession, ending the drought and trimming the Lady Flames' deficit to six, 50-44. It was close as Liberty would get for the remainder of the contest, though, as Auburn put the Lady Flames away by hitting nine-of-12 free throws during the last 1:32.

Game 8
Lynchburg, Va.

A 22-1, early second-half run broke open a close game, propelling Liberty to a 92-68 victory over Commonwealth foe Saint Paul's. Six Lady Flames scored in double figures, helping Liberty snap a five-game losing skid. The two teams went back and forth several times in the early going, before Liberty built its first double-digit lead of the afternoon with a 10-2 surge. Kittery Maine provided six of the Lady Flames' points during the run, including a layup at 8:56, which pushed the home team's edge to 21-10. Shortly thereafter, Saint Paul's responded with a 12-2 run, trimming its deficit to a single point. Johnson went six-for-six from the free-throw line during the span, and her pair of free throws made the score 26-25, Liberty, 4:04 before halftime. The Lady Flames' advantage climbed back to eight points, before Liberty claimed a 36-32 halftime lead. The Lady Tigers had trimmed Liberty's lead to 38-37 on Johnson's layup at the 18:13 mark of the second half, before suffering an offensive drought. Saint Paul's did not make another field goal for 4:50, enabling Liberty to reel off its aforementioned 22-1 burst. Amber Mays contributed seven points to the Liberty run, and Beecher's second old-fashioned three-point play of the surge bolstered the Lady Flame advantage to 60-38 with 13:30 left. The visiting Lady Tigers would get no closer than 19 points down for the remainder of the afternoon. Meanwhile, Liberty's edge reached 30 on three occasions, as the Lady Flames finished with a season-high point total in their 92-68 triumph. Head coach Carey Green's squad was efficient at the offensive end, sinking 63.6 percent (21-of-33) of its field goal attempts after the intermission.

Game 9
Winston-Salem, N.C.

Rachel Hammond scored all 13 of her points during the second half, and Liberty limited Winston-Salem State to three field goals in the first 17:30 after halftime, at the C.E. Gaines Center. As a result, the Lady Flames opened the half with a 26-9 surge, overcoming a one-point halftime deficit to win, 55-43. Winston-Salem State made its first two three-pointers of the contest, while Liberty utilized its size advantage. The Lady Flames owned a 9-6 lead at the 14:59 mark, scoring all nine of their points inside the paint and free-throw line. The Lady Rams briefly reclaimed the advantage, 13-12, after a MaLisa Bumpus three-pointer, 9:32 before halftime. Liberty then clamped down on defense, limiting Winston-Salem State to a single field goal over the next five minutes. In the meantime, the Lady Flames reeled off an 8-2 surge, featuring a pair of Amber Mays layups. Rachel McLeod nailed both ends of a one-and-one at 5:01. Her second charity toss gave Liberty its largest lead of the opening half, 20-15. The Lady Rams closed out the stanza by tallying 10 of the final 14 markers. A Bumpus jumper with 1:20 left sent her team into the locker room in front by a single point, 25-24. Hammond drained a three-pointer on Liberty's opening possession of the second half, giving the Lady Flames a lead they would not relinquish. Her hoop was part of a half-opening 7-0 run by the Lady Flames. Rene Rector then nailed two three-pointers in 44 seconds for Winston-Salem State. Her second triple, with 16:05 remaining in the contest, trimmed her team's deficit to 33-31. Hammond made two more three-pointers during Liberty's ensuing 10-0 surge, bolstering the Lady Flames' advantage to 43-31. The Lady Rams got no closer than nine points down for the remainder of the afternoon.

Game 10
Nashville, Tenn.

No. 19/20 Vanderbilt composed an 18-0 run early in the first half of its contest against Liberty at Memorial Gymnasium. The Commodores then fought off numerous Lady Flame comeback attempts, claiming a 67-50 triumph. The Lady Flames got off to a fast start, jumping out to a 5-0 lead in the first minute, as Hammond swished a three-pointer and Avery Warley scored on a putback. Jennifer Risper's basket was part of an 18-0 Vanderbilt run. Tia Gibbs scored seven points during the surge, which concluded with a Hannah Tuomi basket from the paint at 10:28. Her connection increased the home team's advantage to 23-8. A Moriah Frazee layup with 2:38 on the first-half clock, part of a 7-0 Liberty run, cut the Lady Flames' deficit to 30-18. The Commodores rebuilt a 17-point advantage, 38-21, at halftime. Vanderbilt's initial 20-point point lead of the game came at 41-21, when Risper converted an offensive rebound into two points, just 1:43 into the second half. The Lady Flames roared back with a 9-0 burst over the next 2:15. Hammond bookended the run with a triple and a fast-break jumper. Her latter hoop, coming with 16:02 left, brought Liberty to within 41-30. The Lady Flames still trailed by 11 points, before Vanderbilt opened up a bit more breathing room with 19-4 surge over the next 7:37 of action. The Commodores' lead reached a game-high 26 points, 64-38, on a Christina Wirth second-chance hoop with 5:19 left. The Lady Flames then reeled off a 10-0 run, started off on consecutive triples by Hammond and Amber Mays. Frazee split a pair of charity tosses at the 3:04 mark, trimming Vanderbilt's advantage to 64-48. That's as close as the Lady Flames got, though.

Game 11
Blacksburg, Va.

Megan Frazee, returning to the Liberty lineup after an ankle injury had sidelined her for eight straight contests, tallied 19 points and 10 rebounds after halftime, against North Carolina A&T. Her performance lifted the Lady Flames to a 72-58 win in the opening game of the Hokie Hardwood Classic. North Carolina A&T recorded an 8-0 burst to claim an early 13-8 lead. The Aggies' edge reached seven points, 21-14, when Brittanie Taylor-James swished a jumper from just inside the three-point arc, 8:30 before halftime. Liberty gradually chipped away at its disadvantage, and Amber Mays' charity toss at 1:52 provided the Lady Flames with their first lead since 8-5, at 27-26. The teams exchanged the advantage three times during the remainder of the opening stanza, before heading to the locker room deadlocked at 31. North Carolina A&T put together an 8-2 surge, early in the second half. Taylor-James capped the run with a long jumper, giving her team a 39-35 edge with 15:14 remaining. Liberty battled back to tie the game at 44 apiece, on another Hammond layup, before one play shifted the game's momentum significantly. Lamona Smalley was called for both her fourth foul and a technical foul at 10:59. Megan Frazee stepped to the line for a quartet of foul shots. Frazee made all four tries, giving Liberty an edge it never relinquished, 48-44. Shortly thereafter, Liberty took control of the contest with a 10-0 burst. North Carolina A&T could not get closer than eight points down the rest of the way.

Game 12
Blacksburg, Va.

Tournament MVP Megan Frazee drilled the game-winning shot from just inside the three-point arc with 51 seconds remaining in the Hokie Hardwood Classic championship contest. Her last-minute heroics lifted Liberty to a hard-fought 45-43 win over host Virginia Tech, giving the Lady Flames the tournament title and their first-ever win over the Hokies. The Commonwealth foes were deadlocked at 43-43 when Megan Frazee stepped to the foul line for a one-and-one with 1:04 remaining in the contest. The senior missed the front end, but Warley was there to snatch her 18th rebound. Thirteen seconds later, Rachel McLeod found Frazee for the game-winning hoop. Virginia Tech's Laura Haskins had two chances to knot the contest in the final 38 seconds, but Liberty hung on for a long-awaited win over the Hokies. The teams traded the lead 11 times during an evenly-played opening half, and neither team led by more than three points. The Hokies' Lindsay Biggs drilled a three-pointer from well beyond the arc as the first-half buzzer sounded, giving her team a 24-23 halftime edge. Liberty did not score for a 6:32 span of the second half, enabling Virginia Tech to reel off an 8-0 surge. Shanel Harrison's steal and fast break layup at the 13:26 mark gave the Hokies their largest lead of the contest, 37-29. Virginia Tech then experienced its own extended offensive drought, going 8:16 without a point. In the meantime, Liberty reclaimed the lead with a 10-0 run, as Warley's putback hoop with 6:45 left in the contest put the Lady Flames back in front, 39-37. Liberty's lead was short-lived, however, as Biggs nailed her fourth triple 1:25 later, giving Virginia Tech a 40-39 advantage. A McLeod mid-range jumper and two Megan Frazee charity tosses swung the lead back in Liberty's favor, 43-40. Utahya Drye then converted an old-fashioned three-point play with 1:28 remaining, knotting the score at 43-all and setting the stage for Frazee's third game-winning shot in her last six appearances, dating back to last season.

Game 13*Lynchburg, Va.*

Liberty broke open a close game against Gardner-Webb with a 18-2 run spanning the first and second halves. The Lady Flames went on to hand the Bulldogs a 55-42 setback in Gardner-Webb's first-ever Big South contest and the conference opener for both squads. The score was deadlocked at 8-8 early on, before Liberty fashioned an 8-0 burst. Megan Frazee tossed in the final five points of the Lady Flame run, lifting the home team's lead to 16-8 at the 9:52 mark. A Margaret Roundtree jumper from the paint, this one coming at 4:38, narrowed the visitors' deficit to 18-14. The Lady Flames then closed the stanza on a 9-0 run. Moriah Frazee initiated the surge with five straight points, and Megan Frazee ended the half's scoring with a layup, sending Liberty to the locker room with a 27-14 advantage. Warley scored the second half's first two baskets, helping Liberty begin the stanza on a 9-2 run. Megan Frazee's hoop at 16:17 pushed the Lady Flames' lead to 36-16, finishing off an overall surge of 18-2, which started in the first half. Soon thereafter, the Bulldogs crafted their best extended run of the evening. The Lady Flames did not score for 5:03, as Gardner-Webb posted a 10-0 burst to trim its deficit in half. Meranda Burnett's mid-range jumper with 6:42 left put her team back within 10, at 40-30. Freshman Kylee Beecher halted the Gardner-Webb run with a free throw on Liberty's next possession, and the Bulldogs were never able to cut their deficit to single digits. Rachel McLeod put the finishing touches on Liberty's 55-42 decision, connecting on a driving layup with 14 seconds remaining.

Trailing by six points with less than five minutes remaining at Winthrop, Liberty responded with a game-ending 14-4 run to pull out a hard-fought 55-51 victory. Avery Warley's putback with 30.0 seconds left gave the Lady Flames the lead for good in their fourth straight win. Winthrop owned a 47-41 advantage at the 4:53 mark of the second half, before Liberty began chipping away at its deficit. Megan Frazee swished a three-pointer from the right wing off an out-of-bounds play and Amber Mays followed with a mid-range jumper on Liberty's next possession, enabling the Lady Flames to level the score at 49-all with 2:11 remaining. The score was still deadlocked in the final minute, when Warley tracked down her own missed shot and banked it home for the go-ahead hoop. On Winthrop's next possession, an aggressive double team forced a turnover. Liberty was then able to finish off its road win with four straight made free throws by Rachel McLeod and Megan Frazee, sandwiching a Yvonne van Daalen layup. Winthrop had fashioned the game's first extended run, as Jessica Fansler's three-pointer capped a 9-2 surge, boosting the Eagles' lead to 12-8 at the 11:09 mark. Liberty later erased its deficit with a 13-1 run, including nine points by Megan Frazee. Her old-fashioned three-point play with only 7.7 seconds remaining in the half finished off the surge with the Lady Flames owning a 29-24 advantage. Jennifer Walker canned a layup as the first-half buzzer sounded, pulling the homestanding Eagles to within three, 29-26, at the intermission. Winthrop gradually built its aforementioned six points lead, before going nearly five minutes without a field goal at the end of the game. The Eagles' offensive drought enabled Liberty to initiate its decisive comeback.

Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty closed the first half with a 15-0 run, Tuesday evening at the Vines Center, propelling the Lady Flames to a 64-54 victory over East Tennessee State. Liberty scored on its opening possession of the evening, when Avery Warley nailed a shot from the paint. However, the Lady Flames did not score again until Megan Frazee's layup, 4:45 later. In the meantime, East Tennessee State reeled off nine consecutive points. Back-to-back layups by Latisha Belcher finished off the run, putting the Lady Buccaneers in front by a 9-2 margin at the 14:32 mark. Liberty responded with a 9-0 surge of its own, ending with Rachel Hammond's mid-range jumper at 10:06, which reclaimed the lead for the Lady Flames, 11-9. The game continued to swing back and forth, as a 12-4 surge by the visitors resulted in a 24-20 East Tennessee State lead. TaRonda Wiles tossed in the last five points of the Lady Buccaneers' extended run, including a triple from the corner at 5:01. Those would be East Tennessee State's final points of the opening stanza, however, as Liberty closed the half on a 15-0 run. Five Liberty steals keyed the surge, which was highlighted by Mays' four points and two thefts. The Lady Flames owned a 35-24 half-time advantage, after Rachel McLeod closed the half's scoring with a layup at the 25-second mark. A pair of triples early in the second half enabled East Tennessee State to trim its deficit to seven points, 37-30, with 16:27 remaining. Liberty's lead fluctuated between six and 10 points until Tara Davis hit two free throws at the 10:30 mark, bringing her team to within 46-41. The Lady Flames quickly responded with their second 9-0 burst of the evening, initiated by a three-pointer and putback by Megan Frazee. Mays later converted her eighth steal into a fast break layup at 8:21, capping the run with Liberty leading, 55-41. Liberty's lead remained in double figures for the remainder of the contest, as the Lady Flames closed out a 64-54 win.

Game 16
Clinton, S.C.

Presbyterian battled Liberty closely throughout much of the two teams' contest at Templeton Arena. However, the Lady Flames opened the second half with a 15-2 run, and went on to claim their sixth-straight victory, 59-49. Presbyterian did not make its first field goal of the game until 11:37 showed on the first-half clock. The contest-opening drought by the Blue Hose enabled Liberty to build an early 11-4 advantage. Liberty's lead reached double digits for the first time at the 10:43 mark, when Moriah Frazee drilled a three-pointer from the top of the key to make it 16-6, Liberty. Frazee's triple closed out an 11-2 Lady Flame run. Liberty's lead stood at eight, before homestanding Presbyterian closed the opening half on a 7-0 surge. A Katlin Moore three-pointer with 15 seconds remaining wrapped up the run, sending the Blue Hose into the locker room with just a one-point deficit, 20-19. Taking advantage of a loose zone defense by Presbyterian, Liberty connected on three triples during a 15-2 burst to open the second half, with Rachel Hammond hitting two of the three-pointers. Amber Mays' steal and resulting fast break layup at 14:42 finished off the half-opening run, giving Liberty a 35-21 edge. Amanda Mills tossed in seven points during a 10-2 run by the Blue Hose, which ended with a Moore free throw at the 9:53 mark. Moore's point brought her team to within 39-33. A quick 5-0 Liberty spurt, capped by Megan Frazee's second three-pointer, rebuilt a double-digit lead for the Lady Flames, 46-35, with 7:21 left. Presbyterian got not closer than seven points down for the rest of the contest.

Game 17
Asheville, N.C.

Liberty senior Megan Frazee led all players in both points (22) and rebounds (14), as the Lady Flames led from wire to wire in a 75-48 win at UNC Asheville. The victory, coupled with a High Point setback, enabled Liberty to move into first place in the Big South Conference standings. After Lindsey Thompson pulled the home team within four points, 11-7, with a long three-pointer from the right wing, the red-clad Lady Flames scored 13 straight markers to open up their first double-digit advantage of the evening. Liberty made all five of its field goal attempts during the prolonged surge, which was capped off at the 10:43 mark with Rachel Hammond's three-point play. Hammond's trio of points bolstered Liberty's advantage to 24-7. The Lady Flames did not score again for four and a half minutes, enabling the Bulldogs to cut their deficit to 24-12, 6:52 before the intermission. Liberty later posted a 14-0 run, highlighted by five Rebecca Lightfoot points. The Lady Flames' lead reached 42-17 with 44 seconds remaining, after a pair of foul shots by Amber Mays. Liberty took a 42-19 advantage into the locker room, after its highest-scoring first half of the season. Kendall Shepard scored seven straight points for the Bulldogs, including a three-point play at 14:30 that trimmed the Lady Flames' edge to 50-30. Liberty countered with a 9-0 run over the next five minutes, boosting their lead to 29 points (59-30) when Lightfoot canned both of her free throws with 10:27 to play. The Lady Flames maintained at least a 23-point lead for the remainder of the contest, and the advantage ballooned to as many as 31 points, 75-44, when Rachel McLeod drilled a deep triple at 1:31.

Game 18
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty's Moriah Frazee made a bit of history, scoring her 1,000th career point during the Lady Flames' 76-51 conference triumph over Charleston Southern. Three of Frazee's fellow seniors joined her in double figures, as Liberty remained unbeaten in conference play. Frazee recorded her milestone at the 14:56 mark of the second half. She drilled a pair of free throws, making her the 12th player in program history to score 1,000 career points. Megan Frazee scored 10 straight Liberty points during a game-opening 17-5 surge by the Lady Flames, over the first 6:52 of play. Ali Schwagmeyer converted an old-fashioned three-point play with 12:01 left in the first half, trimming the Lady Buccaneers' deficit to 17-8. However, Rachel Hammond swished a three-pointer on Liberty's ensuing possession, and the Lady Flames led by double digits for the remainder of the opening stanza. Charleston Southern twice closed the gap to 10, including at the 5:28 mark, when Katie Tull's deep triple made the score 29-19. Rebecca Lightfoot, Hammond and Frazee all connected from beyond the three-point arc during an 11-2 Liberty run, which gave the Lady Flames their largest lead of the half, 40-21, with 2:02 showing on the clock. Liberty took a 42-26 advantage into the intermission. Liberty emerged from the locker room with a 10-2 run to start the second half. Megan Frazee's second three-pointer of the afternoon increased the home team's advantage to 52-28 with 17:19 remaining. A Danielle Gibson jumper with 6:10 left cut Charleston Southern's deficit to 18, at 63-45, after a 7-2 run. Danika Dale then fueled a 6-0 spurt by the Lady Flames, enabling them to boost the advantage back to 69-45 at 3:38. Liberty's lead stayed above 21 points for the remainder of the game.

Game 19
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty's defense made the difference, holding Coastal Carolina to a season-low point total in a 65-40 triumph. Visiting Coastal Carolina recorded an early 7-2 surge, closed out by a Sydnei Moss layup at the 15:08 mark of the opening half. The sophomore's field goal lifted the Chanticleers to a 7-4 edge. Liberty responded with a 7-2 burst of its own. Layups by Amber Mays bookended the quick run, which ended with the Lady Flames in front by an 11-9 score at 12:31. After Amanda Stull's triple from the top of the key briefly reclaimed the advantage for the Chanticleers, Liberty went on a 15-0 run. Megan Frazee scored eight of the Lady Flames' points during the surge and assisted on Rebecca Lightfoot's left-handed layup which capped the run. Lightfoot's first two points of the evening made the score 26-12 in favor of the Lady Flames, 6:52 before half-time. Liberty then went scoreless for 5:30, during which time the Chanticleers crafted a 7-0 run to slice their deficit in half. Kendra Reynolds' contested jumper in the paint cut the Lady Flames' advantage to 26-19. The same seven-point margin separated the two teams at the intermission, as Liberty took a 28-21 lead into the locker room. The Lady Flames opened the second half on an 8-2 run. Moriah Frazee hit three layups during the surge, including one which increased her team's lead to 36-23 at the 16:01 mark. Coastal Carolina tallied a 7-1 run soon thereafter. Reynolds' hoop brought the Chanticleers to within single digits once again, 41-32. A layup and a three-point play by Moriah Frazee on consecutive possessions helped Liberty reclaim the momentum, and the Lady Flames' lead never dropped below 10 points again.

Game 20
Lynchburg, Va.

Rachel Hammond poured in a career-high 25 points, leading Liberty to a comfortable, 65-42 victory over High Point. Hammond began scorching the Vines Center nets as soon as referee Mark Hardcastle tossed the opening tip skyward. Hammond tallied 13 points during Liberty's game-opening 17-5 run which spanned the first 6:34, including a trio of three-pointers. High Point got to within 10 points on three occasions, including at 21-11 after a short jumper by point guard Frances Fields at 10:15. The Lady Flames then fashioned a 10-1 burst, widening their advantage to 19 points, 31-12. Kylee Beecher's layup capped off the run, 6:17 before the intermission. Both teams struggled at the offensive end for the remainder of the half, managing only two points apiece. Liberty owned a 33-14 halftime advantage. The Lady Flames did not score for the first 3:34 of the second half, as High Point opened the stanza with six straight points. Fields' running bank shot with 16:47 remaining in the contest cut the Panthers' deficit to 33-20. Hammond then heated up once again for the Lady Flames. She scored the last seven points of an 11-0 Liberty surge, including a fast break layup at the 13:26 mark which made it 44-20, Lady Flames. High Point notched five consecutive points, including a nifty reverse layup by Amy Dodd, trimming Liberty's edge to 21 points, 51-30. But that's as close as the black-clad visitors would get the rest of the afternoon. A 14-2 Liberty run, finished off by Megan Frazee's trey from the right wing, gave the Lady Flames their largest lead of the contest, 65-33. High Point scored the game's final nine markers, making the final score 65-42, Liberty.

Game 21
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty dominated the painted area versus Radford at the Vines Center. The Lady Flames scored 50 points in the paint and outrebounded the Highlanders, 59-30, during an 80-38 triumph. Radford took its only lead of the night when Rachel Morris drilled a three-pointer from the left wing on the Highlanders' initial possession of the contest. However, those were red-clad Radford's only points until the 13:00 mark. The Highlanders' drought enabled the Lady Flames to reel off a 15-2 run. Megan Frazee contributed seven points to the Liberty surge, including a put-back at 11:42, which made the score 17-5, in favor of the Lady Flames. Radford cut its deficit to 10 points twice, including at 19-9 when Kymesha Alston canned a layup. Liberty then put together a 13-3 burst, increasing its advantage to 20 (32-12) on a successful alley-oop pass play from Rachel McLeod to Rachel Hammond, 5:11 before the break. The Lady Flames bolstered their lead to 25 points, 40-15, at halftime, after holding their opponent under 20 first-half points for the fourth time in the last six contests. Liberty, which had scored the final four points of the first half, opened the second stanza with six consecutive markers. The Lady Flames' overall 10-0 surge ended at 17:44, when Moriah Frazee's spinning finger roll increased Liberty's edge to 46-15. Radford went 7:18 without a point during the second half, during which time Liberty's lead extended to 42 points (60-18) with a 12-0 surge. Liberty's advantage got as large as 49 points on two occasions, before the Lady Flames closed out their biggest win of the season, 80-38.

2008-09 Season Notes/Highlights

-- ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District second-team selection.

-- Broke her then-career high with 17 points at James Madison (Dec. 2) and also equaled a career high with six assists versus the Dukes.

-- Scored all 13 of her points during the second half of the Lady Flames' come-from-behind win at Winston-Salem State (Dec. 20), nailing a trio of three-pointers.

-- Tallied 13 of her then-career high 18 points after halftime at No. 19/20 Vanderbilt (Dec. 22) and made three triples for the second straight outing.

-- Eclipsed the 500-point plateau for her career with a three-pointer on Liberty's opening possession, Dec. 30 at Virginia Tech.

-- Twice tied her career-long streak by making a three-pointer in five straight games, from Dec. 20-Jan. 3 and from Jan. 17-31.

-- Came up with four steals during her 100th career game, Jan. 10 at Winthrop.

-- Posted 16 points in only 23 minutes versus Charleston Southern (Jan. 24), sinking four three-pointers.

-- Set career highs for points (25) and three-pointers made (5) against High Point (Jan. 31), becoming the first Lady Flame since Dec. 15, 2001 to hit five triples in a game.

-- Made nine consecutive three-pointers, spanning three games (Jan. 24-31).

-- Named Big South Player of the Week for the first time in her career, on Feb. 2.

-- Has recorded two or more steals in 12 of Liberty's first 21 contests, including a career high five thefts at Winston-Salem State on Dec. 20.

-- Tallied a career-high eight rebounds and six assists during the Nov. 14 season opener against VCU.

-- The game versus VCU, which marked McLeod's first career start, saw her become the first Liberty point guard to notch at least eight rebounds and six assists in the same contest since Daina Staugaitiene totaled 13 rebounds and six helpers versus Birmingham-Southern in the Big South title tilt on March 13, 2004.

-- Dished out six assists versus South Alabama on Nov. 29.

-- Made a successful return from an injury which had sidelined her for the previous three contests, Dec. 20 at Winston-Salem State. Totaled five points, three rebounds and two steals in 16 minutes of action off the bench, including her first three-pointer of the season.

-- Did not make a turnover in 21 minutes of action versus Virginia Tech on Dec. 30 and assisted on Megan Frazee's game-winning jumper with 51 seconds remaining.

-- Sank both ends of a one-and-one from the free throw line with 13.4 seconds left at Winthrop on Jan. 10, helping Liberty close out a 55-51 road win.

-- Went 4-for-4 at the free throw line during the final minute of a 59-49 triumph at Presbyterian (Jan. 17), to help seal the victory.

-- Tied a season high and game high with six helpers, Jan. 31 versus High Point (Jan. 31).

-- Scored a season-high nine points, distributed four assists and paced the Lady Flames with a season-best three steals, Feb. 2 against Radford.
