Game No. 27 - March 2, 2009

Presbyterian BLUE HOSE
(4-22, 1-12 Big South)

at

Liberty LADY FLAMES
(19-7, 13-0 Big South)

Lynchburg, Va. - Vines Center - 7 p.m.

The Game

The Liberty Lady Flames (19-7, 13-0 Big South) will complete their 2008-09 home schedule Monday, when Presbyterian (4-22, 1-12 Big South) invades the Vines Center. Tip-off is slated for 7 p.m.

What to Watch

The Liberty seniors will play their final home game Monday. The Lady Flames are 91-29 over the past four seasons, including 47-5 at the Vines Center.

The Lady Flames will be going for their eighth 20-win season in the last nine years. A victory would give Liberty's men's and women's basketball teams 20 wins apiece for just the second time in school history.

The Lady Flames have won nine straight home games, 16 straight games overall and 17 straight games versus conference foes.

Megan NCEA will look to score in double digits for the 63rd straight contest and break Elena Kisseleva's school record.

Lady Flames On The Air

All Lady Flames basketball games may be heard LIVE on WWMC 90.9 FM "The Light." Jamie Hall, celebrating his 15th year of broadcasting Lady Flames basketball, will once again be handling the courtside play-by-play duties for most road games. Josh Wood will serve as the commentator for home contests and will provide color analysis on the road.

Lady Flames On TV

For the sixth season in a row, the Flames Television Network (FTN) plans to broadcast all 12 home women's basketball games. FTN's regular announcing team will consist of Ray Jones on play-by-play and Jamie Hall on color.

Head Coach Carey Green

Record at Liberty: 232-75 (10th Year)
Career Record: Same

Eight Big South Championships: 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2008
Eight NCAA Appearances: 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005 (Sweet 16), 2006, 2008
Four-time Big South Coach of the Year: 2000, 2003, 2006, 2008
Three-time VaSID State Coach of the Year: 2003, 2005, 2006

Liberty head women's basketball coach Carey Green, in his 10th season with the Lady Flames, has instilled quite a winning tradition during his tenure at the institution. His teams have averaged more than 23 victories per year during his time at Liberty, putting his name alongside the nation's premier women's basketball coaches.

Green has accumulated a 232-75 record on the Liberty bench, good for a winning percentage of .756. He entered the season ranked 10th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches in winning percentage, ahead of renowned coaching names like Rutgers' Vivian Stringer, LSU's Van Chancellor and North Carolina's Sylvia Hatchell.

More importantly, Liberty has won the Big South Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament eight times with Green as head coach. Liberty has totaled 23 or more victories during seven of those years, including the 2004-05 season, which saw the Lady Flames reach the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history.

Green has actually been to the postseason on 20 occasions as a women's basketball coach, a span which includes a dozen years as an assistant coach at Clemson. In all but one of the 20 appearances, he has experienced the NCAA Tournament.

Last season, Green led the Lady Flames to one of the best seasons in program history. Liberty tied a school record for victories, finishing the year 28-4. Along the way, the Lady Flames captured three tournament titles—the National City Xavier Invitational, the UNLV Lady Rebel Christmas Classic and their eighth Big South Championship in Green's nine years as head coach. The latter championship earned Liberty a spot in the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time. Green won his 200th career game, Jan. 19 at Charleston Southern, and became the first four-time Big South Women's Basketball Coach of the Year in conference history.

Rebounding and defense have always been staples of Green-coached teams, and the 2007-08 Lady Flames were no exception. Liberty outrebounded opponents by an average of 10.2 caroms per game, ranking fifth nationally. The Lady Flames have now been listed among the nation's top five teams in rebounding margin for five-straight years. Liberty led the nation in the category in 2003-04 and 2004-05. The Lady Flames also ended the season ranked in the top 15 in the nation for field goal percentage defense (fourth) and scoring defense (15th).

A key late-season conference victory over High Point in 2006 made Green the winningest coach in Big South Conference history. He is also Liberty's career wins leader.

The record-setting victory was just one of the many reasons the 2004-05 year was a special one on Liberty Mountain. A senior-laden Lady Flames team recorded upset wins over No. 4 seed Penn State (78-70) and No. 5 seed DePaul (88-79) in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, becoming just the second team ever to advance to the Sweet 16 as a No. 13 seed. The Lady Flames ended the season with their highest national ranking to date, 21st (USA Today/ESPN).

Green's track record shows he has the ability to meet strong challenges. The Lady Flames have recorded two wins over UNLV, Virginia and West Virginia and solo victories over No. 19 DePaul, No. 17 Kansas State, No. 25 Penn State, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest during Green's tenure. The upset victory over No. 25 Virginia in 2003 marked Liberty's first win over a Top 25 team.

His record against conference foes is equally impressive. He led the Lady Flames on a Big South-record 57-game winning streak and currently owns a .920 (149-13) winning percentage against conference teams. Green has marched through conference play with one or fewer setbacks six times, while guiding the Lady Flames to two undefeated conference seasons.

Scouting Presbyterian

Presbyterian is battling several apparent disadvantages, as the Blue Hose sport only eight players on their active roster, including just two juniors and no seniors. Additionally, sophomore forward Chelsea Wright, the tallest player on Ronny Fisher's team, stands 5-11.

The Blue Hose picked up their first-ever Big South victory on Feb. 21, defeating Gardner-Webb by a 62-53 score in Clinton, S.C. All four of Presbyterian's triumphs in 2008-09 have come at Templeton Arena. The Blue Hose are 0-13 in road contests this season and have dropped 26 consecutive road decisions since a 63-62 win at South Carolina State on Dec. 4, 2007.

A pair of sophomore guards have led the way for the Blue Hose this season. Katlin Moore paces the team with 11.8 ppg. The conference leader in minutes played, at 36.4 mpg, Moore is sixth in the Big South with 3.9 apg and sits seventh in scoring.

Classmate Amanda Mills chips in with 11.5 ppg. She ranks third in the Big South with 63 three-pointers and is making her free throws at a 86.4 percent clip.

Wright is Presbyterian's leading rebounder, hauling in 5.8 rpg, the 13th-highest figure in the conference.

The Coaching Matchup

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green is in his 10th season with the Lady Flames, and has led his team to eight Big South titles. A four-time Big South Coach of the Year, Green owns a 232-75 career record and is the all-time wins leader at Liberty and among Big South women's basketball coaches. His career winning percentage (.756) ranked 10th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the season's outset. Green is 2-0 all-time against Presbyterian.

Ronny Fisher is 4-22 in his first season as Presbyterian's head coach. The Furman alumnus had previously spent 10 years as an assistant coach for the Blue Hose men's basketball team. He is 0-1 coaching against Liberty.

Liberty-Presbyterian Series Notes

Liberty is 2-0 all-time versus Presbyterian, winning the teams' lone matchup at the Vines Center.

The Blue Hose put up a strong fight in their first meeting with the Lady Flames this season, Jan. 17 at Templeton Arena. Presbyterian trailed by a single point, 20-19, at halftime, before Liberty gained some breathing room with a 15-2 run to open the second stanza. The Lady Flames went on to post a 59-49 triumph. Sisters Megan and Moriah Frazee both reached double digits for the victors, totaling 14 and 11 points, respectively. Amanda Mills and Katlin Moore provided more than 75 percent of Presbyterian's offensive production. Mills hit four triples in a 21-point effort, while Moore added 16 points.

Last year, Liberty defeated Presbyterian, 88-41, Jan. 26, 2008 at the Vines Center. The Lady Flames held the Blue Hose without a field goal for the first 12 minutes of the game, running out to a 29-2 lead. All three Frazee triplets scored in double digits for Liberty, led by Moriah's 15 points. The game's high scorer was Presbyterian's Amy Jones, with 16 markers.

Masterful in March

Liberty has gone 31-10 during the month of March under Carey Green, with eight of the setbacks coming in the NCAA Tournament. The Lady Flames are 7-1 in the regular season, 22-1 in the Big South Championship and 2-8 in the "Big Dance" during the year's third month, under his direction. Last season, Liberty went 4-1 in March.

At home, the Lady Flames have won 15 consecutive March tilts, since a 68-58 loss to American on March 7, 1992.

The Lady Flames are 39-35 all-time in March contests and did not pick up their first victory in the month until the program's 13th season. Liberty's initial March triumph was an 82-69 win over Randolph-Macon on March 3, 1988.

Special Seniors

Saturday was Senior Night, but Liberty's seniors will play at the Vines Center for the final time on Monday. The senior class has posted a 91-29 record over the past four seasons, including a 47-5 mark at its home venue.

Looking for the Extra Point

Liberty has won its first 13 Big South games of the season, leaving the Lady Flames just one victory shy of tying the Big South record for most conference wins in a single year. A team has won 14 Big South contests on four previous occasions, including Liberty in back-to-back years (2002-03 and 2003-04) and UNC Greensboro twice (1992-93 and 1994-95).

We Are the (Regular-Season) Champions!

Liberty's 81-59 win at Charleston Southern on Feb. 23 not only kept the Lady Flames unbeaten in conference play, but it clinched the outright Big South regular-season title. Liberty has now captured 11 conference regular-season crowns in the last 12 years.

In a Class All Her Own

Megan Frazee repeated as Big South Women's Basketball Player of the Week on Feb. 23, marking her fifth conference weekly honor this season. She extends her Big South record to 17 career Big South Women's Basketball Player of the Week plaudits. Former Liberty standout Katie Feenstra previously held the record, with 15 awards.

Recipe For Success

Liberty has won 16 consecutive games, and the following are a few keys the Lady Flames' success.

- All 16 opponents have been held below 60 points.
- All 16 opponents have shot below 45 percent from the field.
- Liberty has outrebounded 13 of 16 opponents by 11 boards or more.
- Liberty is shooting 38.0 percent from three-point range and averaging 4.1 triples per contest, as compared with 27.5 percent and 2.8 triples per game before the streak.
- Liberty is scoring 15.8 more points in the paint than its opponents, on average.

Long-Range Bombers

Megan Frazee, ranked ninth on Liberty's career list with 93 triples, has hit 18 of her last 33 from downtown (54.5 percent).

Rachel Hammond, whose 74 career three-pointers rank 14th on the list, has connected on 22 of her last 38 three-point attempts (57.9 percent). Hammond made a program-record nine consecutive triples without a miss, between Jan. 24-31.

Hammond made five treys against High Point on Jan. 31, marking the first time a Lady Flame has connected on five three-pointers in a single game since Dec. 15, 2001, when Daina Staugaitiene did so at Hampton.

Accurate Avery

Avery Warley made 11 consecutive field goal attempts, between Feb. 9 and Feb. 21. The Big South field goal percentage leader at 61.7 percent, Warley has connected on 21 of her last 24 field goals (87.5 percent).

A Star On the Court and In the Classroom

Megan Frazee, a kinesiology major with a 3.91 cumulative GPA, was recognized on Feb. 23 as a first-team ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American. A second team Academic All-American last season, Frazee is the first Lady Flame ever to earn first-team status. She is Liberty's sixth first-team honoree at the Division I level, in all sports. Frazee is also the fourth individual in school history to earn multiple Academic All-America honors.

Coach Green Versus the Big South

Liberty head coach Carey Green has enjoyed considerable success versus the Big South during his first nine seasons with the Lady Flames. His teams are 149-13 against Big South opponents, including 125-12 in the regular season and 24-1 in the Big South Championship.

Green has never lost to his alma mater, Coastal Carolina (23-0), or Charleston Southern (22-0) during his time at Liberty.

First Since Feenstra

When Rachel Hammond tallied a career-high 25 points against High Point on Jan. 31, she became the first Liberty player not named Frazee to score 20 points in a game since March 22, 2005. That day, Katie Feenstra went for 29 points against DePaul, sending the Lady Flames into the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16.

Turning Up the Heat in the Furnace

The 2008-09 campaign is the 17th season the Liberty University women's basketball team has called the Vines Center its full-time home. Liberty's first-ever contest at the Vines Center was an 86-74 loss to East Tennessee State, on Dec. 7, 1990, but the "Furnace" has served as a favorable venue for the Lady Flames over the years. Liberty is 187-51 (.786) all-time at the Vines Center, including 13-0 last season. The Lady Flames, 9-2 at the Vines Center in 2008-09, only have one home game left this year.

Dial Three Digits for Long Distance

The Lady Flames have been able to continue a long-standing streak, so far this season. The Lady Flames have made at least one three-pointer in a school-record 129 straight games, a run which began on Feb. 26, 2005. None of the current Lady Flames were in college when the streak started.

Winning Streaks

The Lady Flames are currently on an 16-game winning streak, as they have not lost a game since falling at No. 19/20 Vanderbilt on Dec. 22.

The streak is the fourth longest in program history. Here is a look at the Lady Flames' longest winning streaks, eight of which have come with Carey Green as head coach.

Welcome to the Club

Senior Moriah Frazee drained a pair of free throws with 14:56 remaining in the second half of Liberty's Jan. 24 game against Charleston Southern. The foul shots gave Frazee 1,000 points, making her the 12th player in program history to reach the milestone.

Frazee's sister Megan is also a member of the 1,000-point club, as are twin sisters Sarah and Sharon Wilkerson, who graduated in 2000. Liberty is the only NCAA Division I women's basketball program featuring multiple sets of sisters in the 1,000-point club.

Lady Flames Excel in the Classroom

Liberty was one of only three Division I women's basketball teams (also Kansas State and Portland State) to place three players on the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District teams. Megan Frazee (3.91 GPA, Kinesiology) was a first-team honoree for the third straight season, while classmates Moriah Frazee (3.64 GPA, Nursing) and Rachel Hammond (3.95 GPA, Social Science) made the second team.

Lady Flames Excel in the Classroom, Take Two

Liberty has received national recognition numerous times for its work in the classroom. Last season, the Lady Flames tallied a 3.354 GPA, ranking 14th in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Top 25 Team Honor Roll.

It was the third straight season and the fifth time in program history that Liberty has been included in the Top 25 Team Honor Roll. The Lady Flames were listed a program-best seventh in 2006-07 and tied for 14th in 2005-06. Liberty was rated 13th in 1999-2000, which was Carey Green's first season as head coach, and came in 12th during the 1998-99 campaign.

Liberty was one of only three teams to be included in last season's WBCA Top 25 Honor Roll and play in the NCAA Tournament, joining Kansas State and New Mexico.

The top 15 teams on the 2007-08 WBCA Top 25 Team Honor Roll are listed below.

20-20 Vision

The Lady Flames can make Big South Conference history with one more victory, by joining the Liberty men's basketball team in the 20-win club this season. Coach Ritchie McKay's squad takes a 21-10 ledger into this week's Big South Men's Basketball Championship.

The Lady Flames' next win would give the university a pair of 20-win basketball teams for the second time in program history. In 1996-97, the Lady Flames went 22-7, while their male counterparts racked up a 23-9 mark.

The feat has only been accomplished four times in Big South annals: by Radford in 1991-92, UNC Greensboro in 1994-95, Liberty in 1996-97 and Winthrop last season. Liberty would become the first conference school to make two appearances in the 20/20 club.

Home Wreckers

Liberty became the first visiting team to come away from Gardner-Webb's Paul Porter Arena with a win, posting a 58-51 victory over the Bulldogs on Feb. 9. Gardner-Webb had won its first nine home games of the season.

Last season, the Lady Flames won in difficult venues like North Carolina A&T's Corbett Sports Center and Xavier's Cintas Center. Liberty was the only visiting team to win at North Carolina A&T in 2007-08, and the Aggies have won 20 straight home games since that Nov. 16, 2007 contest.

Nation's Longest Winning Streaks

Liberty has won 16 games in a row, which is tied for the fifth-longest current winning streak among NCAA Division I women's basketball games, through the weekend.

Liberty in the National Rankings

During Liberty's winning streak, the Lady Flames have been surging upward in the NCAA national statistical rankings. Liberty now ranks in the top 15 nationally in four statistical categories. The Lady Flames are listed No. 2 in rebounding margin (+12.4), No. 7 in scoring defense (53.0 ppg), No. 8 in field goal percentage defense (.343) and No. 12 in field goal percentage (.455)

Liberty and No. 1 Connecticut are the only two teams in the nation which rank in the top 15 of all four of those categories.

On a Record Pace

Liberty is yielding just 52.5 ppg and has held 13 opponents below the 50-point mark. The Lady Flames' stifling defense is among the best in program history. Liberty's all-time record for scoring defense in a season is 54.7 ppg, set in 2001-02.

Lack of Overtime

Liberty has played only one overtime game in its last 172 outings, a 64-62 setback at High Point on Jan. 20, 2007.

The Lady Flames' most recent overtime victory came on Jan. 6, 2004, when Liberty defeated American, 76-72, on the road in double overtime. No current Lady Flame has won an overtime contest in college.

Liberty's most recent overtime contest at the Vines Center was a memorable one. The Lady Flames defeated Virginia, 77-69, in overtime on Nov. 26, 2002, to claim their first-ever win over the Cavaliers. It also marked Liberty's first win over a ranked opponent, as Virginia entered the game with a No. 25 national ranking.

The Container is Half Full

Liberty connected on a school-record 70.2 percent (33-of-47) of its field goal attempts at Charleston Southern on Feb. 23, shooting over 50 percent for the sixth time in the last nine games. The Lady Flames are 7-0 this year, when making more than half of their field goals. Liberty is now 56-0 in such contests under head coach Carey Green.

Big South Win Streak

The Lady Flames have defeated 17 consecutive Big South opponents.

Burning Up the Nets

Liberty not only enjoyed warmer temperatures outdoors during its annual South Carolina "Beach Trip," but the Lady Flames also scorched the nets at both Kimbel Arena and CSU Field House, last weekend.

Liberty combined to shoot 68.5 percent (61-of-89) from the floor during the pair of victories, including a program-record 70.2 percent (33-of-47) at Charleston Southern on Feb. 23. The Lady Flames had set the previous single-game field goal percentage standard, 67.3 percent, versus the Lady Buccaneers on Jan. 19, 2008.

Chief Thiefs

Starting guards Amber Mays and Rachel Hammond have been keys to Liberty's defensive efforts, as they rank fifth and seventh, respectively, on the Big South steals leaderboard.

Mays has notched 36 steals in the past 13 games, including a career-high eight-steal effort versus East Tennessee State on Jan. 13. Her eight steals were the most by a Lady Flame since Sharon Wilkerson recorded eight thefts at High Point on Feb. 21, 2000. Mays tied for the fifth-most steals in a single game in Liberty history. The junior is the first Lady Flame to tally at least 50 steals in a season since 1999-2000.

Meanwhile, Hammond has been a consistent disruptive force on defense this season, tallying multiple steals in 14 of the first 26 games. As a result, the senior has established a career high with 44 steals.

Triple the Trouble

Liberty sports the only set of triplets currently playing for the same NCAA Division I women's basketball team--seniors Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee. Career totals of 1,000 points and 500 rebounds represent a very solid collegiate performer. The Frazee triplets have averaged more than 1,000 points and 500 rebounds between them.

During Liberty's Jan. 3 victory over Gardner-Webb, the triplets exceeded the 3,000-career point total. Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee have totaled 3,397 points and 1,765 rebounds during their time at Liberty. Those figures represent more than 40 percent of the Lady Flames' points and more than a third of the team's rebounds since they arrived on campus.

Miss Consistency

Megan Frazee has scored in double figures in each of her last 62 games, dating back to Jan. 27, 2007. It is the longest such streak of her career and is tied for the program record.

Elena Kisseleva shares the Liberty record, tallying 10 or more points in 62 straight contests, spanning the 1996-97, 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons.

Miss Consistency, Part 2

Megan Frazee's streak of 62 straight games scoring in double figures is the second-longest active streak in the nation, among Division I women's basketball players. Robyn Fairbanks of Utah Valley State tops the list, as the nation's leading scorer has reached double digits in 77 consecutive outings.

Chasing Another Record

Megan Frazee has posted 10 double-doubles this season, including one in six of her last seven outings, pushing her career total to 46. Katie Feenstra owns the program record, with 49 career double-doubles.

Clamping Down on Defense

The Lady Flames have held 77 consecutive opponents under 50 percent field goal shooting. The last Liberty foe to sink more than half of its field goal attempts was Marist, at the Maryland Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29, 2006.

Liberty is off to a good start defensively in 2008-09. Twenty of the Lady Flames' first 26 opponents have shot below 40 percent from the floor. Liberty leads the Big South and ranks No. 8 nationally with a .343 opponents field goal percentage.

International Flavor

The addition of Tokyo, Japan native Jessica Nelson to the Lady Flames' roster gives Liberty an international player for the 15th consecutive season. The last time the Lady Flames' roster consisted solely of American-born players was the 1993-94 campaign. Every Carey Green-coached team at Liberty has featured at least one international player.

Milestone Victory

Liberty is 503-403 all-time in women's basketball, since the inception of the program in 1975-76. The Lady Flames picked up win No. 500 in program history, Feb. 16 versus Winthrop. Here is a look at some of Liberty's milestone triumphs.

Win No.	Date	Opponent	Score
100	12/9/86	Bluefield	107-55
200	2/10/96	UNC Asheville	72-70
300	1/13/01	Winthrop	74-63
400	2/5/05	High Point	72-49
500	2/16/09	Winthrop	63-48

Playing with a Lead

Liberty has not trailed often during its last 11 games. The Lady Flames led six of those contests from wire to wire, and their opponents have held the lead for only 7:39 of the last 440 minutes of action.

Cranking Up the Defense

Liberty has played exceptional defense during its current 16-game winning streak. The Lady Flames have held North Carolina A&T, Virginia Tech, Gardner-Webb, Coastal Carolina, High Point and Radford all to season-low point totals during the stretch. Liberty's 16 foes have scored only 47.4 ppg and have combined to shoot just 31.9 percent from the field.

Winning the Battle of the Boards

The Lady Flames have outrebounded 22 teams in their first 26 games of the season. Only three teams (Western Carolina, James Madison and Winthrop) have won the rebounding battle against Liberty this season, as the Lady Flames lead the Big South Conference with a +12.0 rebounding margin.

Liberty, which currently ranks No. 2 nationally for rebounding margin, has finished in the top five nationally in the category for five consecutive seasons. The Lady Flames led the nation in rebounding margin during both the 2003-04 and 2004-05 campaigns.

Down, But Not Out

On Jan. 13, East Tennessee State ran out to an early seven-point advantage at the Vines Center, before Liberty rallied for a 64-54 win. It was the fifth time the Lady Flames have erased a six-point deficit to win this season (also UC Riverside, North Carolina A&T, Virginia Tech and Winthrop).

Liberty's largest rally of the season came on Dec. 30, in the Hokie Hardwood Classic title game against Virginia Tech. The Hokies led by eight points midway through the second half, but the Lady Flames came back to notch a 45-43 triumph.

Less Than a Point Per Minute

Liberty held Radford to 15 first-half points on Feb. 2, marking the sixth time this season, the Lady Flames have limited their opponent to fewer than 20 first-half markers. Liberty has gone on to win all six contests.

During the Lady Flames' current winning streak, they have outscored their opponents by an average score of 32.0 to 21.9 in the first half.

Liberty Triumvirate

Megan Frazee now ranks No. 8 all-time in the Big South for points (1,747) and No. 6 for rebounds (882). She is one of three players to rank in the top 10 of both categories. The other two include former Liberty standouts, Katie Feenstra and Elena Kisseleva.

Game 1
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty battled back from a 21-4 deficit in its season opener to take a pair of second-half leads. However, visiting VCU edged the Lady Flames, 59-57, in a first-round Preseason WNIT contest, as Radoslava Bachvarova drained three free throws with just 2.1 seconds left. VCU tallied the evening's first 12 points, before Megan Frazee canned a one-handed floater from six feet, at the 14:10 mark of the opening half. The Rams later notched nine straight points, bolstering their advantage to 21-4 at 10:48. Liberty limited VCU to one field goal over the final 4:20 of the opening stanza, running off an 11-2 surge in the meantime and closing the gap to 31-27 at the intermission. Megan Frazee finally gave Liberty its initial lead of the contest, 45-44, draining a three-pointer from the right wing at the 11:02 mark. The Lady Flames' next lead did not come until 4:30 remained on the game clock, when Megan Frazee found Avery Warley for an open layup. Warley's basket was part of a 7-0 Liberty burst. Megan Frazee's reverse layup at 3:11 capped the run, increasing the Lady Flames' lead to 54-51. VCU came back to tie things up again, 54-54, when Quanitra Hollingsworth split a pair of free throws with 2:18 remaining, setting the stage for a frenetic final minute of play. Mays put Liberty on top, 56-54, with a driving layup at the 44-second mark, before Hollingsworth answered with a hoop from in close, 10 seconds later. Warley went to the free throw line on the Lady Flames' ensuing possession, splitting a pair of free throws with 6.4 seconds remaining. Her connection briefly put Liberty in front, 57-56, before Bachvarova's clutch charity tosses for the Rams.

Game 2
Cullowhee, N.C.

Megan Frazee banked in a layup from the left side of the lane as the buzzer sounded, giving the Lady Flames a thrilling, 45-44 win over UC Riverside in a Preseason WNIT consolation contest at the Ramsey Center in Cullowhee, N.C. The Highlanders had taken a 44-43 advantage with just 3.3 seconds left, when Alyssa Morris made a tightly-contested three-pointer from the right wing. Her hoop capped a 9-0 UC Riverside surge, consisting solely of triples. UC Riverside appeared to seal its first victory of the year, when Roney Friend intercepted Liberty's inbounds pass with 0.9 ticks remaining. However, Friend shuffled her feet, giving the Lady Flames one final opportunity, with the ball out of bounds under the basket. Rachel Hammond bounced the inbounds pass to a cutting Frazee, who calmly sank the game-winning shot from close range. Liberty notched the evening's first seven points, keeping the Highlanders off the scoreboard for the first 5:29 of play. The game was deadlocked at 15 apiece, before the Highlanders suffered another extended scoring drought. Liberty kept UC Riverside scoreless for 4:19, reeling off seven consecutive points in the meantime. Amber Mays split a pair of free throws 2:25 before halftime, giving the Lady Flames a 22-15 edge. Liberty led 22-17 at the intermission. It was UC Riverside which opened the second half on a roll. The Highlanders recorded the first nine points of the stanza. Tainoisouti Lott's layup at the 15:53 mark increased UC Riverside's first advantage of the contest to 26-22. Four straight tallies by Friend boosted the Highlanders to their largest lead, 32-26, with 12:26 showing on the second-half clock. Liberty later went back on top with a 13-0 run between UC Riverside hoops. Mays' pair of free throws made the score 43-35, Liberty, with 4:10 remaining.

Game 3

Cullowhee, N.C.

The Western Carolina Catamounts fashioned a 16-0 run, spanning the first and second halves, boosting them to a 73-53 victory over Liberty, Saturday evening at the Ramsey Center. The triumph gave Western Carolina the championship of this four-team Preseason WNIT consolation bracket. Both teams got off to a slow start at the offensive end. When the buzzer sounded for the contest's first media timeout at 14:42, the home-standing Catamounts owned a 5-2 advantage. Liberty did not get on the scoreboard until the 15:30 mark, when Hammond sank a layup. Western Carolina's edge bulged to six points, 16-10, after Brooke Johnson's layup 9:54 before the half. The Lady Flames then knotted the game at 16-16 with six consecutive markers. A Brittany Campbell three-pointer from the right corner, marking her first collegiate points, evened the score at 7:58. However, Liberty only made one more basket during the remainder of the opening stanza, Moriah Frazee's first triple of the season. The Catamounts closed the half on an 8-0 surge, taking a 30-19 advantage into the locker room. The Catamounts notched the first eight tallies of the second half, including a pair of three-pointers, extending their overall run to 16-0 and their lead to 38-19. Liberty trimmed its deficit to 13 points, 42-29, with 14:15 remaining. Rachel Hammond contributed four points to the Lady Flames' 6-0 run. The red-clad Lady Flames got to within 47-37 at 10:11, after another 6-0 surge, capped by consecutive Avery Warley layups. Liberty was unable to shave the lead to single digits, though, and the hot-shooting Catamounts pulled away during the final 10 minutes.

Game 4

Washington, D.C.

A late 13-2 run enabled Hartford to emerge victorious from its defensive struggle with Liberty. The Hawks prevailed by a 46-39 count in the opening game of the GW Thanksgiving Classic, at the Smith Center in Washington, D.C. Liberty tallied eight of the contest's first 11 points over the opening 4:43 of play. Rachel McLeod provided six of the Lady Flames' markers, including a short baseline jumper at 15:17 which put Liberty on top, 8-3. The Lady Flames managed only two points during the next 8:55. During the meantime, Hartford tallied 13 markers, building its initial lead of the game to 16-10 on Lisa Etienne's pair of free throws, 6:32 before halftime. Liberty quickly leveled the score at 16-16, by scoring on each of its next three possessions. Avery Warley contributed four points to the Lady Flames' 6-0 burst, tying the score with her putback with 5:05 showing on the first-half clock. The Lady Flames kept the Hawks off the scoreboard for the final 2:58 of the opening stanza. Liberty recorded the half's last four points during Hartford's drought, taking a 22-20 lead into the locker room. Hartford emerged from halftime with a 10-0 surge. Amanda Weaver's layup at 12:50 capped the run, giving the Hawks their largest advantage up to that point, 30-22. Brittany Campbell then posted five points and an assist during a 9-0 surge, which put Liberty back on top. Amber Mays finished off the run with two free throws at the 8:15 mark, making the score 31-30, Liberty. Shortly thereafter, MaryLynne Schaefer keyed Hartford's decisive 13-2 surge, bookending the run with a pair of three-pointers. Her triple from the left wing boosted the Hawks' lead to 45-35. With only 1:22 remaining, the edge proved to be insurmountable for the Lady Flames.

Game 5

Washington, D.C.

The South Alabama Jaguars connected on nine three-pointers, pushing them past Liberty, 65-61, in the GW Thanksgiving Classic consolation game at the Smith Center in Washington, D.C. Amber Mays, later named to the all-tournament team, opened the game's scoring by canning a pair of left-handed layups in the first 1:36 of play, staking the Lady Flames to an early 4-0 lead. South Alabama answered with five straight markers, claiming its first advantage, 5-4, when Shakira Nettles made two free throws at 16:30. The Jaguars' Karina Sproal tallied five points in a row, opening up a bit of breathing room for her team. Her long three-pointer at the 8:20 mark pushed South Alabama's edge to 18-14. South Alabama did not trail again until only 1:48 remained in the stanza, when Rachel McLeod went two-for-two from the foul line for the Lady Flames, putting her team in front, 29-27. The sophomore's free throws finished a 6-0 Liberty run. Liberty took a 31-30 lead into the locker room. Back-to-back triples initiated an 8-0 burst by the Jaguars, early in the second half. Brittny Rutledge's long jumper from the corner with 17:53 remaining closed the run with South Alabama owning a 38-32 edge. Moriah Frazee made both the first and the last baskets of Liberty's ensuing 8-0 surge. Her layup from the right block reclaimed the lead for the Lady Flames, 40-38, with 14:05 showing on the second-half clock. South Alabama bounced right back, and gained a four-point lead, 50-46, on Siedah Banks' old-fashioned three-point play at 7:48. Liberty could get no closer than two for the remainder of the contest. South Alabama sealed its win by sinking five of six foul shots in the final minute.

Game 6

Harrisonburg, Va.

Rebounding and stellar free throw shooting down the stretch enabled the James Madison Dukes to claim a 77-64 victory over Liberty at the JMU Convocation Center. Back-to-back baskets by JMU's Dawn Evans, the nation's leading scorer entering the contest, finished an 8-0 Dukes run. The surge built the home team's early lead to nine points, 17-8. The Lady Flames clawed back to within three points, 21-18, after Moriah Frazee's three-pointer at the 9:43 mark punctuated Liberty's 5-0 run. Evans nailed a triple on the Dukes' ensuing possession, beginning a 9-3 surge by the home squad. Sarah Williams' layup closed the run, boosting her team's advantage back up to 30-21, with 6:39 on the clock. Liberty took its first lead since 4-2, when Moriah Frazee's hoop at 1:29 capped an 11-0 Lady Flames run. Her connection made the score 38-36, Liberty. JMU then tallied the stanza's final three points, taking a 39-38 advantage into the locker room. Liberty opened the second half by scoring four points in the first 47 seconds. The Lady Flames reclaimed the edge, 42-39, after Moriah Frazee's pair of made charity tosses. James Madison quickly bounced back with six consecutive markers of its own. The Dukes went ahead once again, 47-44, on Evans' three-pointer with 15:13 left. The Dukes' edge ballooned to nine, 56-47, after a run of seven consecutive points. Moriah Frazee's second three-pointer of the game, at 6:43, trimmed JMU's lead to six, 60-54. However, that was Liberty's last made field goal for the next five minutes. During the Lady Flames' drought, the Dukes put together a 10-2 surge. Another Evans triple, with just 2:28 remaining, gave JMU its largest lead of the evening, 70-56. Evans scored the Dukes' final 14 points, nine of which came from the free throw line, enabling her team to finish off a 13-point victory.

Game 7
Lynchburg, Va.

An 11-0, late second-half run helped No. 13/14 Auburn to pull away from Liberty in a tightly-played contest. The Tigers were able to remain undefeated on the season with a 64-53 triumph over the Lady Flames. Lady Flame Amber Mays came up with four steals during the game's first five minutes. Two of her thefts came during a 10-0 Liberty surge, which turned a 7-5 deficit into a 15-7 advantage, at 14:08. Liberty's edge eventually reached 10 points, 23-13, after Kittery Maine put back her own missed shot, 10:54 before the intermission. The Tigers' defense then kept Liberty off the scoreboard for nearly seven minutes, while Auburn reeled off a 15-0 run. Alli Smalley, who hit a pair of three-pointers during the surge, capped the burst with a made jumper at 5:05. Her connection lifted Auburn to a 28-23 edge. The Lady Flames bounced right back, fashioning a 10-2 spurt. Moriah Frazee notched five of the run's points, and the senior's old-fashioned three-point play with 55 seconds remaining put Liberty up, 33-30. Liberty took a 33-32 lead into the break. Rachel Hammond's layup with 17:28 showing on the second-half clock increased the Liberty advantage to 37-33. The Lady Flames were still in front, 41-39, after another Hammond basket, coming at the 14:11 mark. However, those were Liberty's last points for 9:23. In the meantime, Auburn crafted its previously mentioned 11-0 surge. Sherell Hobbs tallied five points during the run, which increased the Tigers' lead to 50-41. Danika Dale canned a three-pointer on Liberty's next possession, ending the drought and trimming the Lady Flames' deficit to six, 50-44. It was close as Liberty would get for the remainder of the contest, though, as Auburn put the Lady Flames away by hitting nine-of-12 free throws during the last 1:32.

Game 8
Lynchburg, Va.

A 22-1, early second-half run broke open a close game, propelling Liberty to a 92-68 victory over Commonwealth foe Saint Paul's. Six Lady Flames scored in double figures, helping Liberty snap a five-game losing skid. The two teams went back and forth several times in the early going, before Liberty built its first double-digit lead of the afternoon with a 10-2 surge. Kittery Maine provided six of the Lady Flames' points during the run, including a layup at 8:56, which pushed the home team's edge to 21-10. Shortly thereafter, Saint Paul's responded with a 12-2 run, trimming its deficit to a single point. Johnson went six-for-six from the free-throw line during the span, and her pair of free throws made the score 26-25, Liberty, 4:04 before halftime. The Lady Flames' advantage climbed back to eight points, before Liberty claimed a 36-32 halftime lead. The Lady Tigers had trimmed Liberty's lead to 38-37 on Johnson's layup at the 18:13 mark of the second half, before suffering an offensive drought. Saint Paul's did not make another field goal for 4:50, enabling Liberty to reel off its aforementioned 22-1 burst. Amber Mays contributed seven points to the Liberty run, and Beecher's second old-fashioned three-point play of the surge bolstered the Lady Flame advantage to 60-38 with 13:30 left. The visiting Lady Tigers would get no closer than 19 points down for the remainder of the afternoon. Meanwhile, Liberty's edge reached 30 on three occasions, as the Lady Flames finished with a season-high point total in their 92-68 triumph. Head coach Carey Green's squad was efficient at the offensive end, sinking 63.6 percent (21-of-33) of its field goal attempts after the intermission.

Game 9
Winston-Salem, N.C.

Rachel Hammond scored all 13 of her points during the second half, and Liberty limited Winston-Salem State to three field goals in the first 17:30 after halftime, at the C.E. Gaines Center. As a result, the Lady Flames opened the half with a 26-9 surge, overcoming a one-point halftime deficit to win, 55-43. Winston-Salem State made its first two three-pointers of the contest, while Liberty utilized its size advantage. The Lady Flames owned a 9-6 lead at the 14:59 mark, scoring all nine of their points inside the paint and free-throw line. The Lady Rams briefly reclaimed the advantage, 13-12, after a MaLisa Bumpus three-pointer, 9:32 before halftime. Liberty then clamped down on defense, limiting Winston-Salem State to a single field goal over the next five minutes. In the meantime, the Lady Flames reeled off an 8-2 surge, featuring a pair of Amber Mays layups. Rachel McLeod nailed both ends of a one-and-one at 5:01. Her second charity toss gave Liberty its largest lead of the opening half, 20-15. The Lady Rams closed out the stanza by tallying 10 of the final 14 markers. A Bumpus jumper with 1:20 left sent her team into the locker room in front by a single point, 25-24. Hammond drained a three-pointer on Liberty's opening possession of the second half, giving the Lady Flames a lead they would not relinquish. Her hoop was part of a half-opening 7-0 run by the Lady Flames. Rene Rector then nailed two three-pointers in 44 seconds for Winston-Salem State. Her second triple, with 16:05 remaining in the contest, trimmed her team's deficit to 33-31. Hammond made two more three-pointers during Liberty's ensuing 10-0 surge, bolstering the Lady Flames' advantage to 43-31. The Lady Rams got no closer than nine points down for the remainder of the afternoon.

Game 10
Nashville, Tenn.

No. 19/20 Vanderbilt composed an 18-0 run early in the first half of its contest against Liberty at Memorial Gymnasium. The Commodores then fought off numerous Lady Flame comeback attempts, claiming a 67-50 triumph. The Lady Flames got off to a fast start, jumping out to a 5-0 lead in the first minute, as Hammond swished a three-pointer and Avery Warley scored on a putback. Jennifer Risper's basket was part of an 18-0 Vanderbilt run. Tia Gibbs scored seven points during the surge, which concluded with a Hannah Tuomi basket from the paint at 10:28. Her connection increased the home team's advantage to 23-8. A Moriah Frazee layup with 2:38 on the first-half clock, part of a 7-0 Liberty run, cut the Lady Flames' deficit to 30-18. The Commodores rebuilt a 17-point advantage, 38-21, at halftime. Vanderbilt's initial 20-point point lead of the game came at 41-21, when Risper converted an offensive rebound into two points, just 1:43 into the second half. The Lady Flames roared back with a 9-0 burst over the next 2:15. Hammond bookended the run with a triple and a fast-break jumper. Her latter hoop, coming with 16:02 left, brought Liberty to within 41-30. The Lady Flames still trailed by 11 points, before Vanderbilt opened up a bit more breathing room with 19-4 surge over the next 7:37 of action. The Commodores' lead reached a game-high 26 points, 64-38, on a Christina Wirth second-chance hoop with 5:19 left. The Lady Flames then reeled off a 10-0 run, started off on consecutive triples by Hammond and Amber Mays. Frazee split a pair of charity tosses at the 3:04 mark, trimming Vanderbilt's advantage to 64-48. That's as close as the Lady Flames got, though.

Game 11
Blacksburg, Va.

Megan Frazee, returning to the Liberty lineup after an ankle injury had sidelined her for eight straight contests, tallied 19 points and 10 rebounds after halftime, against North Carolina A&T. Her performance lifted the Lady Flames to a 72-58 win in the opening game of the Hokie Hardwood Classic. North Carolina A&T recorded an 8-0 burst to claim an early 13-8 lead. The Aggies' edge reached seven points, 21-14, when Brittanie Taylor-James swished a jumper from just inside the three-point arc, 8:30 before halftime. Liberty gradually chipped away at its disadvantage, and Amber Mays' charity toss at 1:52 provided the Lady Flames with their first lead since 8-5, at 27-26. The teams exchanged the advantage three times during the remainder of the opening stanza, before heading to the locker room deadlocked at 31. North Carolina A&T put together an 8-2 surge, early in the second half. Taylor-James capped the run with a long jumper, giving her team a 39-35 edge with 15:14 remaining. Liberty battled back to tie the game at 44 apiece, on another Hammond layup, before one play shifted the game's momentum significantly. Lamona Smalley was called for both her fourth foul and a technical foul at 10:59. Megan Frazee stepped to the line for a quartet of foul shots. Frazee made all four tries, giving Liberty an edge it never relinquished, 48-44. Shortly thereafter, Liberty took control of the contest with a 10-0 burst. North Carolina A&T could not get closer than eight points down the rest of the way.

Game 12
Blacksburg, Va.

Tournament MVP Megan Frazee drilled the game-winning shot from just inside the three-point arc with 51 seconds remaining in the Hokie Hardwood Classic championship contest. Her last-minute heroics lifted Liberty to a hard-fought 45-43 win over host Virginia Tech, giving the Lady Flames the tournament title and their first-ever win over the Hokies. The Commonwealth foes were deadlocked at 43-43 when Megan Frazee stepped to the foul line for a one-and-one with 1:04 remaining in the contest. The senior missed the front end, but Warley was there to snatch her 18th rebound. Thirteen seconds later, Rachel McLeod found Frazee for the game-winning hoop. Virginia Tech's Laura Haskins had two chances to knot the contest in the final 38 seconds, but Liberty hung on for a long-awaited win over the Hokies. The teams traded the lead 11 times during an evenly-played opening half, and neither team led by more than three points. The Hokies' Lindsay Biggs drilled a three-pointer from well beyond the arc as the first-half buzzer sounded, giving her team a 24-23 halftime edge. Liberty did not score for a 6:32 span of the second half, enabling Virginia Tech to reel off an 8-0 surge. Shanel Harrison's steal and fast break layup at the 13:26 mark gave the Hokies their largest lead of the contest, 37-29. Virginia Tech then experienced its own extended offensive drought, going 8:16 without a point. In the meantime, Liberty reclaimed the lead with a 10-0 run, as Warley's putback hoop with 6:45 left in the contest put the Lady Flames back in front, 39-37. Liberty's lead was short-lived, however, as Biggs nailed her fourth triple 1:25 later, giving Virginia Tech a 40-39 advantage. A McLeod mid-range jumper and two Megan Frazee charity tosses swung the lead back in Liberty's favor, 43-40. Utahya Drye then converted an old-fashioned three-point play with 1:28 remaining, knotting the score at 43-all and setting the stage for Frazee's third game-winning shot in her last six appearances, dating back to last season.

Game 13*Lynchburg, Va.*

Liberty broke open a close game against Gardner-Webb with a 18-2 run spanning the first and second halves. The Lady Flames went on to hand the Bulldogs a 55-42 setback in Gardner-Webb's first-ever Big South contest and the conference opener for both squads. The score was deadlocked at 8-8 early on, before Liberty fashioned an 8-0 burst. Megan Frazee tossed in the final five points of the Lady Flame run, lifting the home team's lead to 16-8 at the 9:52 mark. A Margaret Roundtree jumper from the paint, this one coming at 4:38, narrowed the visitors' deficit to 18-14. The Lady Flames then closed the stanza on a 9-0 run. Moriah Frazee initiated the surge with five straight points, and Megan Frazee ended the half's scoring with a layup, sending Liberty to the locker room with a 27-14 advantage. Warley scored the second half's first two baskets, helping Liberty begin the stanza on a 9-2 run. Megan Frazee's hoop at 16:17 pushed the Lady Flames' lead to 36-16, finishing off an overall surge of 18-2, which started in the first half. Soon thereafter, the Bulldogs crafted their best extended run of the evening. The Lady Flames did not score for 5:03, as Gardner-Webb posted a 10-0 burst to trim its deficit in half. Meranda Burnett's mid-range jumper with 6:42 left put her team back within 10, at 40-30. Freshman Kylee Beecher halted the Gardner-Webb run with a free throw on Liberty's next possession, and the Bulldogs were never able to cut their deficit to single digits. Rachel McLeod put the finishing touches on Liberty's 55-42 decision, connecting on a driving layup with 14 seconds remaining.

Game 14*Rock Hill, S.C.*

Trailing by six points with less than five minutes remaining at Winthrop, Liberty responded with a game-ending 14-4 run to pull out a hard-fought 55-51 victory. Avery Warley's putback with 30.0 seconds left gave the Lady Flames the lead for good in their fourth straight win. Winthrop owned a 47-41 advantage at the 4:53 mark of the second half, before Liberty began chipping away at its deficit. Megan Frazee swished a three-pointer from the right wing off an out-of-bounds play and Amber Mays followed with a mid-range jumper on Liberty's next possession, enabling the Lady Flames to level the score at 49-all with 2:11 remaining. The score was still deadlocked in the final minute, when Warley tracked down her own missed shot and banked it home for the go-ahead hoop. On Winthrop's next possession, an aggressive double team forced a turnover. Liberty was then able to finish off its road win with four straight made free throws by Rachel McLeod and Megan Frazee, sandwiching a Yvonne van Daalen layup. Winthrop had fashioned the game's first extended run, as Jessica Fansler's three-pointer capped a 9-2 surge, boosting the Eagles' lead to 12-8 at the 11:09 mark. Liberty later erased its deficit with a 13-1 run, including nine points by Megan Frazee. Her old-fashioned three-point play with only 7.7 seconds remaining in the half finished off the surge with the Lady Flames owning a 29-24 advantage. Jennifer Walker canned a layup as the first-half buzzer sounded, pulling the homestanding Eagles to within three, 29-26, at the intermission. Winthrop gradually built its aforementioned six points lead, before going nearly five minutes without a field goal at the end of the game. The Eagles' offensive drought enabled Liberty to initiate its decisive comeback.

Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty closed the first half with a 15-0 run, Tuesday evening at the Vines Center, propelling the Lady Flames to a 64-54 victory over East Tennessee State. Liberty scored on its opening possession of the evening, when Avery Warley nailed a shot from the paint. However, the Lady Flames did not score again until Megan Frazee's layup, 4:45 later. In the meantime, East Tennessee State reeled off nine consecutive points. Back-to-back layups by Latisha Belcher finished off the run, putting the Lady Buccaneers in front by a 9-2 margin at the 14:32 mark. Liberty responded with a 9-0 surge of its own, ending with Rachel Hammond's mid-range jumper at 10:06, which reclaimed the lead for the Lady Flames, 11-9. The game continued to swing back and forth, as a 12-4 surge by the visitors resulted in a 24-20 East Tennessee State lead. TaRonda Wiles tossed in the last five points of the Lady Buccaneers' extended run, including a triple from the corner at 5:01. Those would be East Tennessee State's final points of the opening stanza, however, as Liberty closed the half on a 15-0 run. Five Liberty steals keyed the surge, which was highlighted by Mays' four points and two thefts. The Lady Flames owned a 35-24 half-time advantage, after Rachel McLeod closed the half's scoring with a layup at the 25-second mark. A pair of triples early in the second half enabled East Tennessee State to trim its deficit to seven points, 37-30, with 16:27 remaining. Liberty's lead fluctuated between six and 10 points until Tara Davis hit two free throws at the 10:30 mark, bringing her team to within 46-41. The Lady Flames quickly responded with their second 9-0 burst of the evening, initiated by a three-pointer and putback by Megan Frazee. Mays later converted her eighth steal into a fast break layup at 8:21, capping the run with Liberty leading, 55-41. Liberty's lead remained in double figures for the remainder of the contest, as the Lady Flames closed out a 64-54 win.

Game 16
Clinton, S.C.

Presbyterian battled Liberty closely throughout much of the two teams' contest at Templeton Arena. However, the Lady Flames opened the second half with a 15-2 run, and went on to claim their sixth-straight victory, 59-49. Presbyterian did not make its first field goal of the game until 11:37 showed on the first-half clock. The contest-opening drought by the Blue Hose enabled Liberty to build an early 11-4 advantage. Liberty's lead reached double digits for the first time at the 10:43 mark, when Moriah Frazee drilled a three-pointer from the top of the key to make it 16-6, Liberty. Frazee's triple closed out an 11-2 Lady Flame run. Liberty's lead stood at eight, before homestanding Presbyterian closed the opening half on a 7-0 surge. A Katlin Moore three-pointer with 15 seconds remaining wrapped up the run, sending the Blue Hose into the locker room with just a one-point deficit, 20-19. Taking advantage of a loose zone defense by Presbyterian, Liberty connected on three triples during a 15-2 burst to open the second half, with Rachel Hammond hitting two of the three-pointers. Amber Mays' steal and resulting fast break layup at 14:42 finished off the half-opening run, giving Liberty a 35-21 edge. Amanda Mills tossed in seven points during a 10-2 run by the Blue Hose, which ended with a Moore free throw at the 9:53 mark. Moore's point brought her team to within 39-33. A quick 5-0 Liberty spurt, capped by Megan Frazee's second three-pointer, rebuilt a double-digit lead for the Lady Flames, 46-35, with 7:21 left. Presbyterian got not closer than seven points down for the rest of the contest.

Game 17
Asheville, N.C.

Liberty senior Megan Frazee led all players in both points (22) and rebounds (14), as the Lady Flames led from wire to wire in a 75-48 win at UNC Asheville. The victory, coupled with a High Point setback, enabled Liberty to move into first place in the Big South Conference standings. After Lindsey Thompson pulled the home team within four points, 11-7, with a long three-pointer from the right wing, the red-clad Lady Flames scored 13 straight markers to open up their first double-digit advantage of the evening. Liberty made all five of its field goal attempts during the prolonged surge, which was capped off at the 10:43 mark with Rachel Hammond's three-point play. Hammond's trio of points bolstered Liberty's advantage to 24-7. The Lady Flames did not score again for four and a half minutes, enabling the Bulldogs to cut their deficit to 24-12, 6:52 before the intermission. Liberty later posted a 14-0 run, highlighted by five Rebecca Lightfoot points. The Lady Flames' lead reached 42-17 with 44 seconds remaining, after a pair of foul shots by Amber Mays. Liberty took a 42-19 advantage into the locker room, after its highest-scoring first half of the season. Kendall Shepard scored seven straight points for the Bulldogs, including a three-point play at 14:30 that trimmed the Lady Flames' edge to 50-30. Liberty countered with a 9-0 run over the next five minutes, boosting their lead to 29 points (59-30) when Lightfoot canned both of her free throws with 10:27 to play. The Lady Flames maintained at least a 23-point lead for the remainder of the contest, and the advantage ballooned to as many as 31 points, 75-44, when Rachel McLeod drilled a deep triple at 1:31.

Game 18
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty's Moriah Frazee made a bit of history, scoring her 1,000th career point during the Lady Flames' 76-51 conference triumph over Charleston Southern. Three of Frazee's fellow seniors joined her in double figures, as Liberty remained unbeaten in conference play. Frazee recorded her milestone at the 14:56 mark of the second half. She drilled a pair of free throws, making her the 12th player in program history to score 1,000 career points. Megan Frazee scored 10 straight Liberty points during a game-opening 17-5 surge by the Lady Flames, over the first 6:52 of play. Ali Schwagmeyer converted an old-fashioned three-point play with 12:01 left in the first half, trimming the Lady Buccaneers' deficit to 17-8. However, Rachel Hammond swished a three-pointer on Liberty's ensuing possession, and the Lady Flames led by double digits for the remainder of the opening stanza. Charleston Southern twice closed the gap to 10, including at the 5:28 mark, when Katie Tull's deep triple made the score 29-19. Rebecca Lightfoot, Hammond and Frazee all connected from beyond the three-point arc during an 11-2 Liberty run, which gave the Lady Flames their largest lead of the half, 40-21, with 2:02 showing on the clock. Liberty took a 42-26 advantage into the intermission. Liberty emerged from the locker room with a 10-2 run to start the second half. Megan Frazee's second three-pointer of the afternoon increased the home team's advantage to 52-28 with 17:19 remaining. A Danielle Gibson jumper with 6:10 left cut Charleston Southern's deficit to 18, at 63-45, after a 7-2 run. Danika Dale then fueled a 6-0 spurt by the Lady Flames, enabling them to boost the advantage back to 69-45 at 3:38. Liberty's lead stayed above 21 points for the remainder of the game.

Game 19
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty's defense made the difference, holding Coastal Carolina to a season-low point total in a 65-40 triumph. Visiting Coastal Carolina recorded an early 7-2 surge, closed out by a Sydnei Moss layup at the 15:08 mark of the opening half. The sophomore's field goal lifted the Chanticleers to a 7-4 edge. Liberty responded with a 7-2 burst of its own. Layups by Amber Mays bookended the quick run, which ended with the Lady Flames in front by an 11-9 score at 12:31. After Amanda Stull's triple from the top of the key briefly reclaimed the advantage for the Chanticleers, Liberty went on a 15-0 run. Megan Frazee scored eight of the Lady Flames' points during the surge and assisted on Rebecca Lightfoot's left-handed layup which capped the run. Lightfoot's first two points of the evening made the score 26-12 in favor of the Lady Flames, 6:52 before half-time. Liberty then went scoreless for 5:30, during which time the Chanticleers crafted a 7-0 run to slice their deficit in half. Kendra Reynolds' contested jumper in the paint cut the Lady Flames' advantage to 26-19. The same seven-point margin separated the two teams at the intermission, as Liberty took a 28-21 lead into the locker room. The Lady Flames opened the second half on an 8-2 run. Moriah Frazee hit three layups during the surge, including one which increased her team's lead to 36-23 at the 16:01 mark. Coastal Carolina tallied a 7-1 run soon thereafter. Reynolds' hoop brought the Chanticleers to within single digits once again, 41-32. A layup and a three-point play by Moriah Frazee on consecutive possessions helped Liberty reclaim the momentum, and the Lady Flames' lead never dropped below 10 points again.

Game 20
Lynchburg, Va.

Rachel Hammond poured in a career-high 25 points, leading Liberty to a comfortable, 65-42 victory over High Point. Hammond began scorching the Vines Center nets as soon as referee Mark Hardcastle tossed the opening tip skyward. Hammond tallied 13 points during Liberty's game-opening 17-5 run which spanned the first 6:34, including a trio of three-pointers. High Point got to within 10 points on three occasions, including at 21-11 after a short jumper by point guard Frances Fields at 10:15. The Lady Flames then fashioned a 10-1 burst, widening their advantage to 19 points, 31-12. Kylee Beecher's layup capped off the run, 6:17 before the intermission. Both teams struggled at the offensive end for the remainder of the half, managing only two points apiece. Liberty owned a 33-14 halftime advantage. The Lady Flames did not score for the first 3:34 of the second half, as High Point opened the stanza with six straight points. Fields' running bank shot with 16:47 remaining in the contest cut the Panthers' deficit to 33-20. Hammond then heated up once again for the Lady Flames. She scored the last seven points of an 11-0 Liberty surge, including a fast break layup at the 13:26 mark which made it 44-20, Lady Flames. High Point notched five consecutive points, including a nifty reverse layup by Amy Dodd, trimming Liberty's edge to 21 points, 51-30. But that's as close as the black-clad visitors would get the rest of the afternoon. A 14-2 Liberty run, finished off by Megan Frazee's trey from the right wing, gave the Lady Flames their largest lead of the contest, 65-33. High Point scored the game's final nine markers, making the final score 65-42, Liberty.

Game 21

Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty dominated the painted area versus Radford at the Vines Center. The Lady Flames scored 50 points in the paint and outbounded the Highlanders, 59-30, during an 80-38 triumph. Radford took its only lead of the night when Rachel Morris drilled a three-pointer from the left wing on the Highlanders' initial possession of the contest. However, those were red-clad Radford's only points until the 13:00 mark. The Highlanders' drought enabled the Lady Flames to reel off a 15-2 run. Megan Frazee contributed seven points to the Liberty surge, including a put-back at 11:42, which made the score 17-5, in favor of the Lady Flames. Radford cut its deficit to 10 points twice, including at 19-9 when Kymesha Alston canned a layup. Liberty then put together a 13-3 burst, increasing its advantage to 20 (32-12) on a successful alley-oop pass play from Rachel McLeod to Rachel Hammond, 5:11 before the break. The Lady Flames bolstered their lead to 25 points, 40-15, at halftime, after holding their opponent under 20 first-half points for the fourth time in the last six contests. Liberty, which had scored the final four points of the first half, opened the second stanza with six consecutive markers. The Lady Flames' overall 10-0 surge ended at 17:44, when Moriah Frazee's spinning finger roll increased Liberty's edge to 46-15. Radford went 7:18 without a point during the second half, during which time Liberty's lead extended to 42 points (60-18) with a 12-0 surge. Liberty's advantage got as large as 49 points on two occasions, before the Lady Flames closed out their biggest win of the season, 80-38.

Game 22

Boiling Springs, N.C.

Megan Frazee led all players with a season-high 31 points and 10 rebounds, helping the Lady Flames claim a hard-fought 58-51 victory over Gardner-Webb, Frazee scored 10 early points, helping Liberty open up an 11-4 lead within the first 4:55. Gardner-Webb took advantage of numerous Liberty turnovers, recording a 7-0 surge to knot the game at 11-11 at the 12:09 mark. Liberty reclaimed the advantage, 15-11, when Kylee Beecher and Rebecca Lightfoot connected from short range on successive possessions. The Lady Flames did not score another point for nearly 5:30, enabling the homestanding Bulldogs to level the score once again, 15-15. An 8-2 Liberty burst, capped off by two Amber Mays free throws at the 2:21 mark, put the Lady Flames in front by a 23-17 count. Again, Gardner-Webb responded quickly. Five straight markers, including a three-pointer by Laura Povilonyte, trimmed the Bulldogs' deficit to 23-22. Liberty took a 25-22 advantage into the locker room, after Megan Frazee's eighth field goal of the opening half. Back-to-back hoops by Margaret Roundtree trimmed Gardner-Webb's deficit to a single point, 27-26, at 16:43 of the second half. Liberty then put together a 13-4 run, including seven Megan Frazee points. Mays' hoop with 12:11 remaining in the contest gave the Lady Flames their first double-digit lead of the evening, 40-30. Liberty's advantage was still 10 points, before Gardner-Webb halved its deficit with a 7-2 burst. Povilonyte's trifecta from just in front of the Bulldog bench pulled her team within 50-45, with 6:08 showing on the second-half clock. Gardner-Webb shaved its deficit to five points two more times, including at 56-51, when Dominique Hudson went two-for-two from the foul line with 40 seconds remaining. Megan Frazee then iced the contest with a pair of free throws on the Lady Flames' ensuing possession.

Game 23
Lynchburg, Va.

Behind the stellar post play of Megan Frazee and Avery Warley, the Liberty women's basketball team recorded a 63-48 win over Winthrop. Megan Frazee scored the game's first four points, initiating a contest-opening 8-0 run for the Lady Flames. The Liberty advantage reached 15-6 on Avery Warley's 16-foot jumper, 12:51 before the half. Winthrop nailed a quartet of three-pointers during its ensuing 15-4 run over the next 6:44. Ashley Haugtvedt's triple from the top of the key extended the surge and gave the visitors their first lead of the evening, 21-19. Kylee Beecher's charity tosses started a 7-0 burst for the Lady Flames. Liberty's edge reached five points, before Shanice Cole's jumper from the paint closed Winthrop's gap to 26-23 at the intermission. Winthrop tied the score on the second half's opening possession, 26-26, on Haugtvedt's old-fashioned three-point play. Liberty then countered with an 8-2 run, with Hammond three-pointers bookending the surge. Her trey from the right wing with 17:31 left made the score 34-28, in favor of the homestanding Lady Flames. Liberty's lead got as large as eight points, 38-30, before Winthrop reeled off a 7-0 run. Fann contributed the first five tallies to the Eagles' surge, which shaved her team's deficit to a single point. Winthrop did not score its next points for 6:11, contributing to a 17-3 Liberty run. Warley's layup with 4:44 left boosted the Lady Flames to their largest lead up to that point, 55-40. Fann and Shanice Cole both scored hoops from close range, pulling the Eagles to within 11 at 55-44, with 3:41 showing on the second-half clock. That's as close as Winthrop got, however, as Liberty's advantage bulged to 18 points before the Lady Flames completed a season sweep of the Eagles with a 63-48 triumph.

Game 24
Conway, S.C.

Five Liberty players scored in double digits, and the Lady Flames outrebounced host Coastal Carolina, 40-12, in a dominating, 77-44 Liberty triumph at Kimbel Arena. Four of the Lady Flames' five starters scored within the first 2:35 of the game, as Liberty raced out to an 8-0 advantage out of the gate. Avery Warley's layup closed out the surge. A long triple by Kate Jasinski broke the ice for the Chanticleers, 3:05 into the game, but homestanding Coastal Carolina did not make its next field goal for 6:49. The Chanticleers' offensive struggles enabled Liberty to post a 12-2 run. Rebecca Lightfoot's layup off a nice feed from Megan Frazee boosted the Lady Flames' lead to 20-5, with 10:25 left in the opening half. Liberty's edge remained in double digits for the rest of the first half, reaching 20 points (36-16) when Megan Frazee hit a pair of foul shots at 2:46. Coastal Carolina bounced back with a quick, 5-0 burst, capped off by Jasinski's second trey. Her long-distance connection cut the Lady Flames' lead to 36-21. Liberty responded with an old-fashioned three-point play by Lightfoot, and the visitors took a 39-21 advantage into the locker room. Coastal Carolina emerged from the break with six consecutive points. Katie White's jumper from the paint at 17:59 trimmed her team's deficit to 39-27. Liberty, which had only attempted one three-pointer during the first half, kick-started its ensuing 11-0 surge with back-to-back triples by Rachel McLeod and Megan Frazee. A Warley layup with 14:47 left put the finishing touches on the Lady Flames' run, which increased their lead to 50-27. Coastal Carolina got no closer than 21 points down for the remainder of the game, and Liberty's advantage reached 35 points (77-42), when Kittery Maine sank a jumper at the 1:05 mark.

Charleston, S.C.

The Lady Flames wrapped up the Big South regular-season title by shooting a school-record 70.2 percent from the field in an 81-59 win at Charleston Southern. The home team got triples from Kelsey Wasmer and Katie Tull on consecutive possessions, claiming a 6-4 lead with 18:27 remaining in the opening half. The Lady Buccaneers' edge only lasted for 20 seconds, however, as a Rachel Hammond triple from the corner put Liberty in front for good. Her long-distance connection initiated an 11-2 burst by the Lady Flames. Moriah Frazee's three-point play at 16:35 capped off the run, giving Liberty a 15-8 edge. Liberty built its initial double-digit lead, 23-13, on Avery Warley's field goal 9:24 before the break. Liberty's advantage stood at nine points (26-17), prior to a 9-2 burst by the Lady Buccaneers. Ali Schwagmeyer hit a 13-foot jumper at 3:28 to cut the Lady Flames' lead to 28-26. Charleston Southern only made one more field goal during the remainder of the stanza, as Liberty finished out the final 20 minutes on an 11-3 spurt. Four different Lady Flames contributed to the run, which gave Liberty a 39-29 halftime edge. Wasmer opened the second-half scoring with her third trey of the game, just 42 seconds in. Her three points temporarily shaved Liberty's lead down to seven, 39-32. Warley converted an old-fashioned three-point play on the red-clad Lady Flames' ensuing possession, helping Liberty reclaim momentum. Her trio of markers started off an extended 15-2 run by the visitors. Megan Frazee scored five of the surge's points, including a layup at 14:57 that increased Liberty's edge to 54-34. The Lady Buccaneers trimmed a 21-point deficit to 15, 70-55, with 5:11 left, after Schwagmeyer scored six straight tallies during an 8-2 CSU surge. The Lady Flames closed the game by scoring nine of the contest's last 11 points, bolstering Liberty's final margin of victory to 22 points, 81-59.

Game 26
Lynchburg, Va.

The Lady Flames' seniors excelled on Senior Night at the Vines Center, combining for 42 points and 23 rebounds in a 77-41 triumph over UNC Asheville. The Bulldogs only made one field goal over a seven-minute span, enabling Liberty to record a 14-2 run and break up a tight game. Megan Frazee tallied six of the Lady Flames' points during the extended surge, which ended with a pair of Avery Warley free throws, 6:55 before the half. Warley's foul shots made the score 22-9, Liberty. Ana Baker of the Bulldogs converted a trio of steals into fast break layups. Her final conversion of the 8-0 UNC Asheville spurt came at 4:39, cutting Liberty's advantage to 22-17. The Lady Flames then outscored the Bulldogs by a 10-3 margin over the remainder of the opening stanza. Four different Liberty players scored during the half-closing run, which made the score 32-20, Lady Flames, at the break. Liberty emerged from the locker room with a quick spurt. Megan Frazee tallied four points and an assist during Liberty's 6-2 half-opening surge. Her over-the-head pass to Hammond resulted in an easy layup at 18:16, giving the Lady Flames their largest lead to that point, 38-22. Liberty did not score again for three and a half minutes, and the Bulldogs shaved their deficit to a dozen points, 38-26. Hammond halted the visitors' momentum with a three-pointer in transition, with 14:45 showing on the second-half clock. The senior's triple from the left wing increased the Lady Flames' advantage to 15 points, 41-26. Liberty then put the game away with a 23-4 run, increasing its edge to 68-35.

-- Tallied a career-high eight rebounds and six assists during the Nov. 14 season opener against VCU.

-- The game versus VCU, which marked McLeod's first career start, saw her become the first Liberty point guard to notch at least eight rebounds and six assists in the same contest since Daina Staugaitiene totaled 13 rebounds and six helpers versus Birmingham-Southern in the Big South title tilt on March 13, 2004.

-- Dished out six assists versus South Alabama on Nov. 29.

-- Made a successful return from an injury which had sidelined her for the previous three contests, Dec. 20 at Winston-Salem State. Totaled five points, three rebounds and two steals in 16 minutes of action off the bench, including her first three-pointer of the season.

-- Did not make a turnover in 21 minutes of action versus Virginia Tech on Dec. 30 and assisted on Megan Frazee's game-winning jumper with 51 seconds remaining.

-- Sank both ends of a one-and-one from the free throw line with 13.4 seconds left at Winthrop on Jan. 10, helping Liberty close out a 55-51 road win.

-- Went 4-for-4 at the free throw line during the final minute of a 59-49 triumph at Presbyterian (Jan. 17), to help seal the victory.

-- Scored nine points, distributed four assists and paced the Lady Flames with a season-best three steals, Feb. 2 against Radford.

-- Tallied a career-high 13 points, a season-high seven assists and a trio of steals, Feb. 21 at Coastal Carolina.
