Game No. 33 - March 22, 2009 (NCAA Tournament 1st Round)

No. 14 Liberty LADY FLAMES
(24-8, 15-1 Big South)

VS.

No. 3 Louisville CARDINALS
(29-4, 14-2 Big EAST)

Baton Rouge, La. - Maravich Center - 8:30 p.m. Central

The Game

The No. 14 seed Liberty Lady Flames (24-8) will begin their 12th NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship appearance Sunday at 8:30 p.m. Central, when they face No. 3 seed Louisville (29-4), the BIG EAST Conference runner-up. The contest will be played at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center in Baton Rouge, La.

What to Watch

Liberty, which won its 12th Big South Conference title with a thrilling 51-50 victory in the tournament championship game against Gardner-Webb, will seek its first NCAA Tournament victory since reaching the "Sweet 16" in 2005.

The game will match up two of the nation's top seniors, the Lady Flames' Megan Frazee and Louisville's Angel McCoughtry. Frazee is one of two players in the nation averaging at least 20.0 ppg and 10.0 rpg. Meanwhile, McCoughtry is the national leader in steals (4.4 spg) and ranks No. 4 in scoring (23.5 ppg).

Lady Flames On The Air

All Lady Flames basketball games may be heard LIVE on WWMC 90.9 FM "The Light." Jamie Hall, celebrating his 15th year of broadcasting Lady Flames basketball, handles the courtside play-by-play duties for most road games. Josh Wood serves as the primary commentator for home contests and provides color analysis on the road.

Lady Flames On TV

Sunday's game, which will be televised by ESPN2 with the broadcasting team of Beth Mowins and Brooke Weisbrod, will be the 16th game Liberty has played on TV this season. The Flames Television Network (FTN) broadcast all 12 home games, while the Lady Flames appeared on SportSouth three times.

Head Coach Carey Green

Record at Liberty: 237-76 (10th Year)

Career Record: Same

Nine Big South Championships: 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2008, 2009
Nine NCAA Appearances: 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005 (Sweet 16), 2006, 2008, 2009

Five-time Big South Coach of the Year: 2000, 2003, 2006, 2008, 2009

Three-time VaSID State Coach of the Year: 2003, 2005, 2006

Liberty head women's basketball coach Carey Green, in his 10th season with the Lady Flames, has instilled quite a winning tradition during his tenure at the institution. His teams have averaged more than 23 victories per year during his time at Liberty, putting his name alongside the nation's premier women's basketball coaches.

Green has accumulated a 237-76 record on the Liberty bench, good for a winning percentage of .757. He entered the season ranked 10th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches in winning percentage, ahead of renowned coaching names like Rutgers' Vivian Stringer, LSU's Van Chancellor and North Carolina's Sylvia Hatchell.

More importantly, Liberty has won the Big South Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament nine times with Green as head coach. Liberty has totaled 23 or more victories during eight of those years, including the 2004-05 season, which saw the Lady Flames reach the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history.

Green has actually been to the postseason on 21 occasions as a women's basketball coach, a span which includes a dozen years as an assistant coach at Clemson. In all but one of the 21 appearances, he has experienced the NCAA Tournament.

Last season, Green led the Lady Flames to one of the best seasons in program history. Liberty tied a school record for victories, finishing the year 28-4. Along the way, the Lady Flames captured three tournament titles—the National City Xavier Invitational, the UNLV Lady Rebel Christmas Classic and their eighth Big South Championship in Green's nine years as head coach. The latter championship earned Liberty a spot in the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time. Green won his 200th career game, Jan. 19 at Charleston Southern, and became the first four-time Big South Women's Basketball Coach of the Year in conference history.

Rebounding and defense have always been staples of Green-coached teams, and the 2007-08 Lady Flames were no exception. Liberty outrebounded opponents by an average of 10.2 caroms per game, ranking fifth nationally. The Lady Flames have now been listed among the nation's top five teams in rebounding margin for five-straight years. Liberty led the nation in the category in 2003-04 and 2004-05. The Lady Flames also ended the season ranked in the top 15 in the nation for field goal percentage defense (fourth) and scoring defense (15th).

A key late-season conference victory over High Point in 2006 made Green the winningest coach in Big South Conference history. He is also Liberty's career wins leader.

The record-setting victory was just one of the many reasons the 2004-05 year was a special one on Liberty Mountain. A senior-laden Lady Flames team recorded upset wins over No. 4 seed Penn State (78-70) and No. 5 seed DePaul (88-79) in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, becoming just the second team ever to advance to the Sweet 16 as a No. 13 seed. The Lady Flames ended the season with their highest national ranking to date, 21st (USA Today/ESPN).

Green's track record shows he has the ability to meet strong challenges. The Lady Flames have recorded two wins over UNLV, Virginia and West Virginia and solo victories over No. 19 DePaul, No. 17 Kansas State, No. 25 Penn State, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest during Green's tenure. The upset victory over No. 25 Virginia in 2003 marked Liberty's first win over a Top 25 team.

His record against conference foes is equally impressive. He led the Lady Flames on a Big South-record 57-game winning streak and currently owns a .917 (154-14) winning percentage against conference teams. Green has marched through conference play with one or fewer setbacks seven times, while guiding the Lady Flames to two undefeated conference seasons.

Scouting Louisville

Louisville enters the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship with its highest-ever seed, No. 3. The Cardinals lost only four games all season, two of which came at the hands of unbeaten, No. 1 Connecticut. The Huskies defeated Louisville, 75-36, in the BIG EAST title game on March 10.

The Cardinals are making their fifth straight NCAA Tournament appearance. Last season, Louisville reached the "Sweet 16," before North Carolina eliminated the Cardinals with a 78-47 setback.

Any discussion of the Cardinals must begin with 6-1 senior forward Angel McCoughtry. Not only is McCoughtry ranked No. 4 nationally with 23.5 ppg, but she was also tabbed BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year. McCoughtry is the national leader with 4.4 spg, helping the Cardinals average 11.2 thefts per contest.

Classmate Candyce Bingham, also a 6-1 senior forward, joined McCoughtry on the first team All-BIG EAST roster. Bingham contributes 12.3 ppg and 7.2 rpg.

The Coaching Matchup

Liberty Head Coach Carey Green is in his 10th season with the Lady Flames, and has led his team to nine Big South titles. A five-time Big South Coach of the Year, Green owns a 237-76 career record and is the all-time wins leader at Liberty and among Big South women's basketball coaches. His career winning percentage (.757) ranked 10th among active NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches at the season's outset.

Jeff Walz has been extremely successful in his first two seasons as Louisville's head coach, racking up a 54-14 record. Last year, he was voted the 2008 WBCA/Maggie Dixon Rookie Coach of the Year. Walz came to Louisville from Maryland, where he spent five seasons as an assistant on Brenda Frese's staff. In 2006, Walz helped the Terrapins win their first national championship.

Liberty-Louisville Series Notes

Louisville is 1-0 all-time against the Lady Flames, defeating Liberty to win the 1996 Seelbach Classic.

The Cardinals and Lady Flames locked up in the tournament championship game on Dec. 30, 1996. Host Louisville, coached by current Winthrop head coach Bud Childers, defeated Liberty, 82-60. Sharon Wilkerson paced the Lady Flames in defeat, with 15 points and nine boards. Both teams went on to win over 20 games and play in the 1997 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship. For Liberty, it was the first NCAA Tournament berth in program history.

Liberty Versus the BIG EAST Conference

Liberty owns a 3-8 all-time record against the current membership of the BIG EAST Conference. The Lady Flames are 0-1 versus Cincinnati, 1-1 versus DePaul, 0-1 versus Louisville, 0-2 versus Notre Dame, 0-1 versus Pittsburgh, 0-1 versus South Florida and 2-1 versus West Virginia.

The Lady Flames' most recent contest against a BIG EAST foe was a 54-47 setback against No. 22 Pittsburgh, Dec. 20, 2006 at the Caribbean Classic in Cancun, Mexico.

A Look Back

Last season, Liberty entered the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship with its highest-ever seed, No. 12. The Lady Flames traveled across the Commonwealth for their opening contest against No. 5 seed Old Dominion.

The homestanding Monarchs broke open a close game with a 15-0 first-half run, and went on to record an 82-62 victory over the Lady Flames. ODU forward Shahida Williams shot 10-for-11, on her way to a game-high 20 points. Megan Frazee paced the Lady Flames in both points (19) and rebounds (8) during her NCAA Tournament debut.

Welcome Back to the Bayou

Liberty will play NCAA Tournament contests at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center in Baton Rouge, La., for the second time in program history. The Lady Flames previously opened up the 2000 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship at LSU. No. 14 seed Liberty faced the host Lady Tigers, seeded No. 3, in the first round. LSU defeated the Lady Flames, 77-54, ending Carey Green's first season as Liberty's head coach.

Battling the BIG EAST

Liberty has played a pair of NCAA Tournament games against BIG EAST Conference foes, going 1-1. Both matchups came against DePaul, in consecutive seasons.

The No. 13 seed Lady Flames upset No. 5 DePaul in the second round of the 2005 NCAA Tournament, 88-79. The victory pushed Liberty into the "Sweet 16" for the first time in program history.

The following year, No. 13 seed Liberty was sent to No. 4 seed DePaul for a first-round matchup on the Blue Demons' home court. DePaul gained a measure of revenge, eliminating the Lady Flames from the 2006 tournament with a 68-43 decision.

Staying in the SEC

Of its 12 NCAA Women's Basketball Championship appearances, this is the seventh time Liberty will play on a SEC member's hardwood. The Lady Flames have been placed in brackets at Georgia (twice), LSU (twice), South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt.

This will be the second time Liberty has visited a SEC arena this season. The Lady Flames took on nationally-ranked Vanderbilt at Memorial Gymnasium on Dec. 22, falling to the Commodores, 67-50.

Fourth Time at No. 14

Liberty earned a No. 14 seed for the fourth time in program history, equaling the No. 13 seed as the Lady Flames' most frequent bracket placement. This will be the first time Liberty is not facing a SEC foe in the first round as a No. 14 seed. The Lady Flames met Georgia in the first round of the 1999 and 2004 NCAA Tournaments when seeded No. 14 and squared off with LSU in 2000's opening contest.

Successful Tournament Debuts

Four current Lady Flames scored in double figures in their first career NCAA Tournament contests. Sisters Moriah and Molly Frazee contributed 11 and 10 points, respectively, as freshmen in the 2006 tournament opener at DePaul. Last season, the third member of Liberty's Frazee triplets, Megan, posted 19 points at Old Dominion in her first taste of tournament play. Additionally, freshman Rachel McLeod dropped 11 points on the Monarchs last season.

2009 Tournament Debutantes

Five Liberty players could see their first NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship action on Sunday. The list includes senior Jessica Nelson, junior Amber Mays and freshmen Kylee Beecher, Danika Dale and Avery Warley.

NCAA Tournament x 2

Jessica Nelson, in her first season on the Lady Flames' roster, is a rookie in the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship, but she did play in both the 2007 and 2008 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championships as an outside hitter for Liberty. Nelson is 0-2 in volleyball's NCAA Tournament, falling to national powers Cal and Nebraska.

Liberty Versus the 2009 NCAA Tournament Field

Liberty played six NCAA Tournament teams this season, as part of a challenging non-conference slate. The Lady Flames went 2-4 against teams which qualified for March Madness, notching victories over MEAC champion North Carolina A&T (72-58 on Dec. 29) and Atlantic Sun champion East Tennessee State (64-54 on Jan. 13). Liberty dropped contests to CAA at-large selection VCU (59-57 on Nov. 14), Southern Conference champion Western Carolina (73-53 on Nov. 22), SEC runner-up Auburn (64-53 on Dec. 7) and SEC champion Vanderbilt (67-50 on Dec. 22).

Two of a Kind

For the third time, only two of the Frazee triplets will be able to suit up in the NCAA Tournament, due to ACL injuries. However, the healthy sisters have been quite productive in their NCAA Tournament appearances.

In 2006, with injured Megan watching from the sidelines, freshmen Moriah and Molly Frazee posted 11 and 10 points, respectively, for Liberty in its first-round NCAA Tournament tilt at DePaul.

Last season, Moriah was kept out of action but saw Megan tally 19 points and Molly add 10 markers at Old Dominion.

This time around, Molly will play the role of cheerleader, as an ACL injury has sidelined her for the entire season.

Deja Vu?

Numerous similarities exist between the 2008-09 Lady Flames and the 2004-05 Liberty squad, which qualified for the "Sweet 16."

Consider the following: The 2004-05 team boasted five seniors, including Big South Player of the Year Katie Feenstra. This year's squad has seven seniors, including Big South Player of the Year Megan Frazee.

Both teams rolled through conference play, as the 2004-05 unit won its conference tilts by 23.7 ppg, while this year's team outscored its Big South foes by an average of 20.9 ppg. However, each team each experienced a late-season loss to High Point.

Both squads earned a neutral-site draw in the first round of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship. In 2005, the Lady Flames headed to College Park, Md., to face Penn State. This year, Liberty will meet Louisville in Baton Rouge, La.

Finally, the 2004-05 team and this year's squad both opened up with a late-night, 9:30 p.m. Eastern tip-off in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Masterful in March

Liberty has gone 36-11 during the month of March under Carey Green, with eight of the setbacks coming in the NCAA Tournament. The Lady Flames are 9-2 in the regular season, 25-1 in the Big South Championship and 2-8 in the "Big Dance" during the year's third month, under his direction. Last season, Liberty went 4-1 in March. This year, the Lady Flames are off to a 5-1 start during the calendar year's third month.

The Lady Flames are 44-36 all-time in March contests and did not pick up their first victory in the month until the program's 13th season. Liberty's initial March triumph was an 82-69 win over Randolph-Macon on March 3, 1988.

Liberty Versus Nationally-Ranked Opponents

Louisville enters the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship ranked No. 7 in both national Top 25 polls. The Cardinals will be the third Top 25 team Liberty has faced in 2008-09. The Lady Flames fell to No. 13/14 Auburn on Dec. 7 at the Vines Center, 64-53, and dropped a 67-50 decision at No. 19/20 Vanderbilt on Dec. 22.

The Lady Flames have defeated four Top 25 squads in program history, including No. 25 Virginia on Nov. 26, 2002, No. 17 Kansas State on Dec. 4, 2004, No. 25 Penn State on March 20, 2005 and No. 19 DePaul on March 22, 2005. The Penn State and DePaul victories came in the NCAA Tournament.

Back-to-Back Big South Champs

For the second year in a row and the 12th time in the last 13 seasons, the Lady Flames won the Big South Women's Basketball Championship title. Liberty hung on to defeat Gardner-Webb in the championship game, 51-50, on March 15. It was the second consecutive year the Lady Flames won the championship by a single point. In 2008, Megan Frazee's shot with 0.3 seconds left lifted Liberty to a dramatic 66-65 win over Radford.

We Are the (Regular-Season) Champions!

Liberty's 81-59 win at Charleston Southern on Feb. 23 not only kept the Lady Flames unbeaten in conference play, but it clinched the outright Big South regular-season title. Liberty, which has now captured 11 conference regular-season crowns in the last 12 years, set a Big South record with 15 conference victories.

In a Class All Her Own

Megan Frazee won her third straight Big South Women's Basketball Player of the Week on March 2, marking her sixth conference weekly honor this season. She extends her Big South record to 18 career Big South Women's Basketball Player of the Week plaudits. Former Liberty standout Katie Feenstra previously held the record, with 15 awards.

Last week, Frazee earned three major pieces of conference hardware. She became the first player in Big South women's basketball history to be tabbed Player of the Year, Scholar-Athlete of the Year and Tournament MVP in the same season.

Nation's Longest Streak

Megan Frazee has scored in double figures in a school-record 68 straight games, a streak which began on Jan. 27, 2007. The streak is the longest active double-digit scoring streak among NCAA Division I women's basketball players.

Utah's Megan Warburton ranks second on the list, with 65 consecutive double-digit scoring efforts, entering the NCAA Tournament.

Streaks Snapped

Liberty saw several lengthy streaks snapped during the team's final two regular-season games. Below is a list of the streaks which recently fell by the wayside.

- Consecutive Road Wins: 8 (Snapped at High Point, 3/9)*
- Consecutive Games Holding Opponents Below 60 Points: 17 (Snapped at Radford, 3/6)*
- Consecutive Wins (Overall): 18 (Snapped at High Point, 3/9)*
- Consecutive Wins versus Big South Opponents: 19 (Snapped at High Point, 3/9)*
- Consecutive Games with a Three-Pointer: School-record 131 (Snapped at High Point, 3/9)*

2008-09 Opponents in Bold

First in Flight

Liberty will be flying to Baton Rouge for the NCAA Tournament, marking the Lady Flames' first flight since the Lady Rebel Christmas Classic in Las Vegas, Dec. 20-21, 2007.

Baton Rouge is the farthest Liberty has ever traveled for an NCAA Tournament contest, a round trip of nearly 2,000 miles by car.

National Leader

The Lady Flames enter the NCAA Tournament as the nation's No. 1 team for rebounding margin, with a +13.3 margin. Liberty owns a lead of 0.8 rpg over Stanford, after outrebounding 28 of its 32 opponents this season.

Liberty did nothing to hurt its cause at the Big South Championship, outrebounding Charleston Southern, Winthrop and Gardner-Webb by an average of 23.0 rpg.

Liberty has led the nation in rebounding margin on two previous occasions, doing so in back-to-back seasons (2003-04 and 2004-05). The Lady Flames are 22-6 this season, when outrebounding their foes.

Magic Number is 65

Liberty enjoys life in the fast lane. When the Lady Flames' offense has scored 65 or more points this season, Liberty is 11-0. However, the Lady Flames are just 13-8 when failing to reach the 65-point plateau.

A Star On the Court and In the Classroom

Megan Frazee, a kinesiology major with a 3.91 cumulative GPA, was recognized on Feb. 23 as a first-team ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American. A second team Academic All-American last season, Frazee is the first Lady Flame ever to earn first-team status. She is Liberty's sixth first-team honoree at the Division I level, in all sports. Frazee is also the fourth individual in school history to earn multiple Academic All-America honors.

First Since Feenstra

When Rachel Hammond tallied a career-high 25 points against High Point on Jan. 31, she became the first Liberty player not named Frazee to score 20 points in a game since March 22, 2005. That day, Katie Feenstra went for 29 points against DePaul, sending the Lady Flames into the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16.

Winning Streaks

The Lady Flames' 18-game winning streak, halted at High Point on March 9, was the fourth longest in program history and the longest since the 2003-04 campaign.

Here is a look at the Lady Flames' longest winning streaks, eight of which have come with Carey Green as head coach.

1)	28 games	(Nov. 21, 1997 - Feb. 28, 1998)
2)	22 games	(Dec. 21, 2002 - March 9, 2003)

8T)	12 games	(Jan. 23, 1999 - Feb. 27, 1999)
10)	11 games	(Feb. 3, 2000 - March 4, 2000)

Welcome to the Club

Senior Moriah Frazee drained a pair of free throws with 14:56 remaining in the second half of Liberty's Jan. 24 game against Charleston Southern. The foul shots gave Frazee 1,000 points, making her the 12th player in program history to reach the milestone.

Frazee's sister Megan is also a member of the 1,000-point club, as are twin sisters Sarah and Sharon Wilkerson, who graduated in 2000. Liberty is the only NCAA Division I women's basketball program featuring multiple sets of sisters in the 1,000-point club.

Lady Flames Excel in the Classroom

Liberty was one of only three Division I women's basketball teams (also Kansas State and Portland State) to place three players on the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District teams. Megan Frazee (3.91 GPA, Kinesiology) was a first-team honoree for the third straight season, while classmates Moriah Frazee (3.64 GPA, Nursing) and Rachel Hammond (3.95 GPA, Social Science) made the second team.

Lady Flames Excel in the Classroom, Take Two

Liberty has received national recognition numerous times for its work in the classroom. Last season, the Lady Flames tallied a 3.354 GPA, ranking 14th in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Top 25 Team Honor Roll.

It was the third straight season and the fifth time in program history that Liberty has been included in the Top 25 Team Honor Roll. The Lady Flames were listed a program-best seventh in 2006-07 and tied for 14th in 2005-06. Liberty was rated 13th in 1999-2000, which was Carey Green's first season as head coach, and came in 12th during the 1998-99 campaign.

Liberty was one of only three teams to be included in last season's WBCA Top 25 Honor Roll and play in the NCAA Tournament, joining Kansas State and New Mexico.

The top 15 teams on the 2007-08 WBCA Top 25 Team Honor Roll are listed below.

A Flair for the Dramatic

During the past two seasons, Megan Frazee has made three game-winning shots in the final minute of contests.

She sank game-winners from close range within the final second of play on March 16, 2008 against Radford in the Big South Championship title contest, as well as on Nov. 21, 2008 versus UC Riverside in the Preseason WNIT.

On Dec. 30, 2008, Frazee stepped outside for an 18-foot jumper with 51 seconds remaining at Virginia Tech. Her hoop proved to be decisive in Liberty's first-ever win over the Hokies.

Attracting the Voters' Attention

Liberty, which has notched 21 wins in its last 22 games, earned three votes in the March 16 ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 poll. The Lady Flames have now been listed among the "Others Receiving Votes" five different times this season.

20-20 Club

Liberty has made Big South Conference basketball history this season. Not only have the Lady Flames reached the 20-win plateau, but Coach Ritchie McKay's squad also owns a 23-11 ledger, through the first round of the CIT Tournament.

The university boasts a pair of 20-win basketball teams for only the second time in program history. In 1996-97, the Lady Flames went 22-7, while their male counterparts racked up a 23-9 mark.

The feat had only been accomplished on four previous occasions in Big South annals: by Radford in 1991-92, UNC Greensboro in 1994-95, Liberty in 1996-97 and Winthrop last season. Liberty is the first conference school to make two appearances in the 20/20 club.

Liberty in Tournaments

Liberty has participated in four tournaments this season, going a combined 6-4 in the Preseason WNIT (Nov. 14-22), GW Thanksgiving Classic (Nov. 28-29), Hokie Hardwood Classic (Dec. 29-30) and Big South Women's Basketball Championship (March 13-15).

The Lady Flames captured the Hokie Hardwood Classic championship, posting victories over North Carolina A&T and host Virginia Tech at Cassell Coliseum. The title was Liberty's third regular-season tournament championship in the last two seasons, including the 2007 National City Xavier Invitational and UNLV Lady Rebel Christmas Classic.

Most recently, Liberty went 3-0 to win its 12th Big South Championship crown.

Liberty in the National Rankings

Liberty ranks in the top 10 nationally in four statistical categories. The Lady Flames lead the nation in rebounding margin (+13.3), sit No. 3 in both scoring defense (52.3 ppg), and field goal percentage defense (.343) and are No. 7 in field goal percentage (.459).

Liberty and No. 1 Connecticut are the only two teams in the nation which rank in the top 10 of all four of those categories.

Lack of Overtime

Liberty has played only one overtime game in its last 178 outings, a 64-62 setback at High Point on Jan. 20, 2007.

The Lady Flames' most recent overtime victory came on Jan. 6, 2004, when Liberty defeated American, 76-72, on the road in double overtime. No current Lady Flame has won an overtime contest in college.

Liberty's most recent overtime contest at the Vines Center was a memorable one. The Lady Flames defeated Virginia, 77-69, in overtime on Nov. 26, 2002, to claim their first-ever win over the Cavaliers. It also marked Liberty's first win over a ranked opponent, as Virginia entered the game with a No. 25 national ranking.

The Container is Half Full

Liberty connected on 60.0 percent (33-of-55) of its field goal attempts against Charleston Southern, in the Big South Championship quarterfinals on March 13. The Lady Flames are 10-0 this year, when making more than half of their field goals. Liberty is now 59-0 in such contests under head coach Carey Green.

Clutch Seniors

Half of Liberty's roster consists of seniors, as Alexandria Bream, Megan Frazee, Molly Frazee, Moriah Frazee, Rachel Hammond, Rebecca Lightfoot and Jessica Nelson are all in their final season with the Lady Flames. The group is one of the most highly decorated classes in Liberty history, and has especially stepped up its play during the Big South Championship.

Four of Liberty's seniors have been named to the Big South All-Tournament team during their careers, including Megan Frazee (2007, 08 & 09), Molly Frazee (2008), Moriah Frazee (2009) and Rachel Hammond (2006).

Chief Thiefs

Starting guards Amber Mays and Rachel Hammond have been keys to Liberty's defensive efforts, as they rank sixth and 11th, respectively, on the Big South steals leaderboard.

Mays has notched 46 steals in the past 19 games (2.4 spg average), including a career-high eight-steal effort versus East Tennessee State on Jan. 13. Her eight steals were the most by a Lady Flame since Sharon Wilkerson recorded eight thefts at High Point on Feb. 21, 2000. Mays tied for the fifth-most steals in a single game in Liberty history. The junior is the first Lady Flame to tally at least 50 steals in a season since 1999-2000.

Meanwhile, Hammond has been a consistent disruptive force on defense this season, tallying multiple steals 15 times. As a result, the senior has established a career high with 49 steals.

Backcourt mates Mays and Hammond have combined for 115 steals, the most thefts by a Liberty duo since head coach Carey Green's first season at Liberty, 1999-2000. That year, Sharon Wilkerson and Elena Kisseleva totaled 136 steals.

Triple the Trouble

Liberty sports the only set of triplets currently playing for the same NCAA Division I women's basketball team--seniors Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee. Career totals of 1,000 points and 500 rebounds represent a very solid collegiate performer. The Frazee triplets have averaged more than 1,000 points and 500 rebounds between them.

During Liberty's Jan. 3 victory over Gardner-Webb, the triplets exceeded the 3,000-career point total. Megan, Molly and Moriah Frazee have totaled 3,592 points and 1,860 rebounds during their time at Liberty. Those figures represent more than 40 percent of the Lady Flames' points and more than a third of the team's rebounds since they arrived on campus.

At the Big South Championship, Megan and Moriah Frazee both made the All-Tournament Team, after averaging 33.0 ppg and 16.7 rpg as a tandem.

Clamping Down on Defense

The Lady Flames have held 83 consecutive opponents under 50 percent field goal shooting. The last Liberty foe to sink more than half of its field goal attempts was Marist, at the Maryland Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29, 2006.

Twenty-five of the Lady Flames' 32 opponents this season have shot below 40 percent from the floor. Liberty leads the Big South and ranks No. 3 nationally with a .343 opponents field goal percentage.

Windex Warley Climbing the Charts

Avery Warley has not only ranked among the Big South rebounding leaders throughout her first season in a Liberty uniform, but she has also taken her place among the top freshman rebounders in program history.

Warley has tallied 247 rebounds through her first 32 games with the Lady Flames, ranking third all-time among Liberty freshmen. The Washington, D.C., native trails only Cheri Yates (267 rebounds in 1988-89) and Elena Kisseleva (248 rebounds in 1996-97) on the Lady Flames' freshman record list.

Down But Not Out

Facing a challenging non-conference schedule and dealing with numerous injuries, Liberty started the season an uncharacteristic 1-6. Since then, the team has gone 23-2.

A Perfect 100

Megan Frazee enjoyed a special day on March 14, when the Lady Flames faced Winthrop in the Big South Championship semifinal round. The game was the 100th appearance and the 100th start of Frazee's career, and she exploded for 28 points and 13 rebounds. Within the first half, the Buckeye State native equaled the scoring (18 points) and rebounding (8 rebounds) production of the entire Winthrop squad.

Former Liberty standout and current center for the WNBA's Atlanta Dream Katie (Feenstra) Mattera was in attendance and saw Frazee eclipse a couple of her marks. Frazee's double-double was the 50th of her career, breaking Feenstra's school record of 49. Frazee also leap-frogged Feenstra on the Liberty and Big South scoring lists during Liberty's 61-42 triumph over Winthrop.

International Flavor

The addition of Tokyo, Japan native Jessica Nelson to the Lady Flames' roster gives Liberty an international player for the 15th consecutive season. The last time the Lady Flames' roster consisted solely of American-born players was the 1993-94 campaign.

Milestone Victory

Liberty is 508-404 all-time in women's basketball, since the inception of the program in 1975-76. The Lady Flames picked up win No. 500 in program history, Feb. 16 versus Winthrop. Here is a look at some of Liberty's milestone triumphs.

Win No.	Date	Opponent	Score
100	12/9/86	Bluefield	107-55
200	2/10/96	UNC Asheville	72-70
300	1/13/01	Winthrop	74-63
400	2/5/05	High Point	72-49
500	2/16/09	Winthrop	63-48

Less Than a Point Per Minute

Liberty held Winthrop to 18 first-half points on March 14, marking the eighth time this season, the Lady Flames have limited their opponent to fewer than 20 first-half markers. Liberty has gone on to win all eight contests.

During the Lady Flames' last 22 games, they have outscored their opponents by an average score of 32.6 to 22.1 in the first half.

Liberty Triumvirate

Megan Frazee now ranks No. 5 all-time in the Big South for points (1,875) and No. 4 for rebounds (943). She is one of three players to rank in the top 10 of both categories. The other two include former Liberty standouts, Katie Feenstra and Elena Kisseleva.

Frazee is the only Big South women's basketball player listed in the top 5 of both statistical categories, on the all-time lists.

Painting a Masterpiece

With five players 6-2 or taller in Carey Green's eight-man rotation, the Lady Flames are the tallest team in the Big South Conference. The Lady Flames have used their size to their advantage this season, outscoring all 19 conference foes in the "points in the paint" category. Liberty is winning the "points in the paint" battle by an average of 17.8 points per contest, within conference play.

The Lady Flames owned a notable 62-24 edge in "points in the paint" in their 74-64 Big South Championship quarterfinal victory over Charleston Southern on March 13.

Power Outage

Liberty's opponents have found it difficult to light up the scoreboard against the Lady Flames this season. The Lady Flames rank No. 3 nationally, yielding only 52.3 ppg. The figure is well below Liberty's single-season record for fewest points allowed, 54.7, during the 2001-02 season.

Liberty held 17 straight opponents to fewer than 60 points, between Dec. 29 and March 2. On the year, the Lady Flames have kept 15 opponents from reaching the 50-point mark.

Liberty battled back from a 21-4 deficit in its season opener to take a pair of second-half leads. However, visiting VCU edged the Lady Flames, 59-57, in a first-round Preseason WNIT contest, as Radoslava Bachvarova drained three free throws with just 2.1 seconds left. VCU tallied the evening's first 12 points, before Megan Frazee canned a one-handed floater from six feet, at the 14:10 mark of the opening half. The Rams later notched nine straight points, bolstering their advantage to 21-4 at 10:48. Liberty limited VCU to one field goal over the final 4:20 of the opening stanza, running off an 11-2 surge in the meantime and closing the gap to 31-27 at the intermission. Megan Frazee finally gave Liberty its initial lead of the contest, 45-44, draining a three-pointer from the right wing at the 11:02 mark. The Lady Flames' next lead did not come until 4:30 remained on the game clock, when Megan Frazee found Avery Warley for an open layup. Warley's basket was part of a 7-0 Liberty burst. Megan Frazee's reverse layup at 3:11 capped the run, increasing the Lady Flames' lead to 54-51. VCU came back to tie things up again, 54-54, when Quanitra Hollingsworth split a pair of free throws with 2:18 remaining, setting the stage for a frenetic final minute of play. Mays put Liberty on top, 56-54, with a driving layup at the 44-second mark, before Hollingsworth answered with a hoop from in close, 10 seconds later. Warley went to the free throw line on the Lady Flames' ensuing possession, splitting a pair of free throws with 6.4 seconds remaining. Her connection briefly put Liberty in front, 57-56, before Bachvarova's clutch charity tosses for the Rams.

Cullowhee, N.C.

Megan Frazee banked in a layup from the left side of the lane as the buzzer sounded, giving the Lady Flames a thrilling, 45-44 win over UC Riverside in a Preseason WNIT consolation contest at the Ramsey Center in Cullowhee, N.C. The Highlanders had taken a 44-43 advantage with just 3.3 seconds left, when Alyssa Morris made a tightly-contested three-pointer from the right wing. Her hoop capped a 9-0 UC Riverside surge, consisting solely of triples. UC Riverside appeared to seal its first victory of the year, when Roney Friend intercepted Liberty's inbounds pass with 0.9 ticks remaining. However, Friend shuffled her feet, giving the Lady Flames one final opportunity, with the ball out of bounds under the basket. Rachel Hammond bounced the inbounds pass to a cutting Frazee, who calmly sank the game-winning shot from close range. Liberty notched the evening's first seven points, keeping the Highlanders off the scoreboard for the first 5:29 of play. The game was deadlocked at 15 apiece, before the Highlanders suffered another extended scoring drought. Liberty kept UC Riverside scoreless for 4:19, reeling off seven consecutive points in the meantime. Amber Mays split a pair of free throws 2:25 before halftime, giving the Lady Flames a 22-15 edge. Liberty led 22-17 at the intermission. It was UC Riverside which opened the second half on a roll. The Highlanders recorded the first nine points of the stanza. Tainoisouti Lott's layup at the 15:53 mark increased UC Riverside's first advantage of the contest to 26-22. Four straight tallies by Friend boosted the Highlanders to their largest lead, 32-26, with 12:26 showing on the second-half clock. Liberty later went back on top with a 13-0 run between UC Riverside hoops. Mays' pair of free throws made the score 43-35, Liberty, with 4:10 remaining.

Cullowhee, N.C.

The Western Carolina Catamounts fashioned a 16-0 run, spanning the first and second halves, boosting them to a 73-53 victory over Liberty, Saturday evening at the Ramsey Center. The triumph gave Western Carolina the championship of this four-team Preseason WNIT consolation bracket. Both teams got off to a slow start at the offensive end. When the buzzer sounded for the contest's first media timeout at 14:42, the home-standing Catamounts owned a 5-2 advantage. Liberty did not get on the scoreboard until the 15:30 mark, when Hammond sank a layup. Western Carolina's edge bulged to six points, 16-10, after Brooke Johnson's layup 9:54 before the half. The Lady Flames then knotted the game at 16-16 with six consecutive markers. A Brittany Campbell three-pointer from the right corner, marking her first collegiate points, evened the score at 7:58. However, Liberty only made one more basket during the remainder of the opening stanza, Moriah Frazee's first triple of the season. The Catamounts closed the half on an 8-0 surge, taking a 30-19 advantage into the locker room. The Catamounts notched the first eight tallies of the second half, including a pair of three-pointers, extending their overall run to 16-0 and their lead to 38-19. Liberty trimmed its deficit to 13 points, 42-29, with 14:15 remaining. Rachel Hammond contributed four points to the Lady Flames' 6-0 run. The red-clad Lady Flames got to within 47-37 at 10:11, after another 6-0 surge, capped by consecutive Avery Warley layups. Liberty was unable to shave the lead to single digits, though, and the hot-shooting Catamounts pulled away during the final 10 minutes.

A late 13-2 run enabled Hartford to emerge victorious from its defensive struggle with Liberty. The Hawks prevailed by a 46-39 count in the opening game of the GW Thanksgiving Classic, at the Smith Center in Washington, D.C. Liberty tallied eight of the contest's first 11 points over the opening 4:43 of play. Rachel McLeod provided six of the Lady Flames' markers, including a short baseline jumper at 15:17 which put Liberty on top, 8-3. The Lady Flames managed only two points during the next 8:55. During the meantime, Hartford tallied 13 markers, building its initial lead of the game to 16-10 on Lisa Etienne's pair of free throws, 6:32 before halftime. Liberty quickly leveled the score at 16-16, by scoring on each of its next three possessions. Avery Warley contributed four points to the Lady Flames' 6-0 burst, tying the score with her putback with 5:05 showing on the first-half clock. The Lady Flames kept the Hawks off the scoreboard for the final 2:58 of the opening stanza. Liberty recorded the half's last four points during Hartford's drought, taking a 22-20 lead into the locker room. Hartford emerged from halftime with a 10-0 surge. Amanda Weaver's layup at 12:50 capped the run, giving the Hawks their largest advantage up to that point, 30-22. Brittany Campbell then posted five points and an assist during a 9-0 surge, which put Liberty back on top. Amber Mays finished off the run with two free throws at the 8:15 mark, making the score 31-30, Liberty. Shortly thereafter, MaryLynne Schaefer keyed Hartford's decisive 13-2 surge, bookending the run with a pair of three-pointers. Her triple from the left wing boosted the Hawks' lead to 45-35. With only 1:22 remaining, the edge proved to be insurmountable for the Lady Flames.

Washington, D.C.

The South Alabama Jaguars connected on nine three-pointers, pushing them past Liberty, 65-61, in the GW Thanksgiving Classic consolation game at the Smith Center in Washington, D.C. Amber Mays, later named to the all-tournament team, opened the game's scoring by canning a pair of left-handed layups in the first 1:36 of play, staking the Lady Flames to an early 4-0 lead. South Alabama answered with five straight markers, claiming its first advantage, 5-4, when Shakira Nettles made two free throws at 16:30. The Jaguars' Karina Sproal tallied five points in a row, opening up a bit of breathing room for her team. Her long three-pointer at the 8:20 mark pushed South Alabama's edge to 18-14. South Alabama did not trail again until only 1:48 remained in the stanza, when Rachel McLeod went two-for-two from the foul line for the Lady Flames, putting her team in front, 29-27. The sophomore's free throws finished a 6-0 Liberty run. Liberty took a 31-30 lead into the locker room. Back-to-back triples initiated an 8-0 burst by the Jaguars, early in the second half. Brittny Rutledge's long jumper from the corner with 17:53 remaining closed the run with South Alabama owning a 38-32 edge. Moriah Frazee made both the first and the last baskets of Liberty's ensuing 8-0 surge. Her layup from the right block reclaimed the lead for the Lady Flames, 40-38, with 14:05 showing on the second-half clock. South Alabama bounced right back, and gained a four-point lead, 50-46, on Siedah Banks' old-fashioned three-point play at 7:48. Liberty could get no closer than two for the remainder of the contest. South Alabama sealed its win by sinking five of six foul shots in the final minute.

Game 6

Harrisonburg, Va.

Rebounding and stellar free throw shooting down the stretch enabled the James Madison Dukes to claim a 77-64 victory over Liberty at the JMU Convocation Center. Back-to-back baskets by JMU's Dawn Evans, the nation's leading scorer entering the contest, finished an 8-0 Dukes run. The surge built the home team's early lead to nine points, 17-8. The Lady Flames clawed back to within three points, 21-18, after Moriah Frazee's three-pointer at the 9:43 mark punctuated Liberty's 5-0 run. Evans nailed a triple on the Dukes' ensuing possession, beginning a 9-3 surge by the home squad. Sarah Williams' layup closed the run, boosting her team's advantage back up to 30-21, with 6:39 on the clock. Liberty took its first lead since 4-2, when Moriah Frazee's hoop at 1:29 capped an 11-0 Lady Flames run. Her connection made the score 38-36, Liberty. JMU then tallied the stanza's final three points, taking a 39-38 advantage into the locker room. Liberty opened the second half by scoring four points in the first 47 seconds. The Lady Flames reclaimed the edge, 42-39, after Moriah Frazee's pair of made charity tosses. James Madison quickly bounced back with six consecutive markers of its own. The Dukes went ahead once again, 47-44, on Evans' three-pointer with 15:13 left. The Dukes' edge ballooned to nine, 56-47, after a run of seven consecutive points. Moriah Frazee's second three-pointer of the game, at 6:43, trimmed JMU's lead to six, 60-54. However, that was Liberty's last made field goal for the next five minutes. During the Lady Flames' drought, the Dukes put together a 10-2 surge. Another Evans triple, with just 2:28 remaining, gave JMU its largest lead of the evening, 70-56. Evans scored the Dukes' final 14 points, nine of which came from the free throw line, enabling her team to finish off a 13-point victory.

Game 7
Lynchburg, Va.

An 11-0, late second-half run helped No. 13/14 Auburn to pull away from Liberty in a tightly-played contest. The Tigers were able to remain undefeated on the season with a 64-53 triumph over the Lady Flames. Lady Flame Amber Mays came up with four steals during the game's first five minutes. Two of her thefts came during a 10-0 Liberty surge, which turned a 7-5 deficit into a 15-7 advantage, at 14:08. Liberty's edge eventually reached 10 points, 23-13, after Kittery Maine put back her own missed shot, 10:54 before the intermission. The Tigers' defense then kept Liberty off the scoreboard for nearly seven minutes, while Auburn reeled off a 15-0 run. Alli Smalley, who hit a pair of three-pointers during the surge, capped the burst with a made jumper at 5:05. Her connection lifted Auburn to a 28-23 edge. The Lady Flames bounced right back, fashioning a 10-2 spurt. Moriah Frazee notched five of the run's points, and the senior's old-fashioned three-point play with 55 seconds remaining put Liberty up, 33-30. Liberty took a 33-32 lead into the break. Rachel Hammond's layup with 17:28 showing on the second-half clock increased the Liberty advantage to 37-33. The Lady Flames were still in front, 41-39, after another Hammond basket, coming at the 14:11 mark. However, those were Liberty's last points for 9:23. In the meantime, Auburn crafted its previously mentioned 11-0 surge. Sherell Hobbs tallied five points during the run, which increased the Tigers' lead to 50-41. Danika Dale canned a three-pointer on Liberty's next possession, ending the drought and trimming the Lady Flames' deficit to six, 50-44. It was close as Liberty would get for the remainder of the contest, though, as Auburn put the Lady Flames away by hitting nine-of-12 free throws during the last 1:32.

Game 8
Lynchburg, Va.

A 22-1, early second-half run broke open a close game, propelling Liberty to a 92-68 victory over Commonwealth foe Saint Paul's. Six Lady Flames scored in double figures, helping Liberty snap a five-game losing skid. The two teams went back and forth several times in the early going, before Liberty built its first double-digit lead of the afternoon with a 10-2 surge. Kittery Maine provided six of the Lady Flames' points during the run, including a layup at 8:56, which pushed the home team's edge to 21-10. Shortly thereafter, Saint Paul's responded with a 12-2 run, trimming its deficit to a single point. Johnson went six-for-six from the free-throw line during the span, and her pair of free throws made the score 26-25, Liberty, 4:04 before halftime. The Lady Flames' advantage climbed back to eight points, before Liberty claimed a 36-32 halftime lead. The Lady Tigers had trimmed Liberty's lead to 38-37 on Johnson's layup at the 18:13 mark of the second half, before suffering an offensive drought. Saint Paul's did not make another field goal for 4:50, enabling Liberty to reel off its aforementioned 22-1 burst. Amber Mays contributed seven points to the Liberty run, and Beecher's second old-fashioned three-point play of the surge bolstered the Lady Flame advantage to 60-38 with 13:30 left. The visiting Lady Tigers would get no closer than 19 points down for the remainder of the afternoon. Meanwhile, Liberty's edge reached 30 on three occasions, as the Lady Flames finished with a season-high point total in their 92-68 triumph. Head coach Carey Green's squad was efficient at the offensive end, sinking 63.6 percent (21-of-33) of its field goal attempts after the intermission.

Game 9
Winston-Salem, N.C.

Rachel Hammond scored all 13 of her points during the second half, and Liberty limited Winston-Salem State to three field goals in the first 17:30 after halftime, at the C.E. Gaines Center. As a result, the Lady Flames opened the half with a 26-9 surge, overcoming a one-point halftime deficit to win, 55-43. Winston-Salem State made its first two three-pointers of the contest, while Liberty utilized its size advantage. The Lady Flames owned a 9-6 lead at the 14:59 mark, scoring all nine of their points inside the paint and free-throw line. The Lady Rams briefly reclaimed the advantage, 13-12, after a MaLisa Bumpus three-pointer, 9:32 before halftime. Liberty then clamped down on defense, limiting Winston-Salem State to a single field goal over the next five minutes. In the meantime, the Lady Flames reeled off an 8-2 surge, featuring a pair of Amber Mays layups. Rachel McLeod nailed both ends of a one-and-one at 5:01. Her second charity toss gave Liberty its largest lead of the opening half, 20-15. The Lady Rams closed out the stanza by tallying 10 of the final 14 markers. A Bumpus jumper with 1:20 left sent her team into the locker room in front by a single point, 25-24. Hammond drained a three-pointer on Liberty's opening possession of the second half, giving the Lady Flames a lead they would not relinquish. Her hoop was part of a half-opening 7-0 run by the Lady Flames. Rene Rector then nailed two three-pointers in 44 seconds for Winston-Salem State. Her second triple, with 16:05 remaining in the contest, trimmed her team's deficit to 33-31. Hammond made two more three-pointers during Liberty's ensuing 10-0 surge, bolstering the Lady Flames' advantage to 43-31. The Lady Rams got no closer than nine points down for the remainder of the afternoon.

Game 10
Nashville, Tenn.

No. 19/20 Vanderbilt composed an 18-0 run early in the first half of its contest against Liberty at Memorial Gymnasium. The Commodores then fought off numerous Lady Flame comeback attempts, claiming a 67-50 triumph. The Lady Flames got off to a fast start, jumping out to a 5-0 lead in the first minute, as Hammond swished a three-pointer and Avery Warley scored on a putback. Jennifer Risper's basket was part of an 18-0 Vanderbilt run. Tia Gibbs scored seven points during the surge, which concluded with a Hannah Tuomi basket from the paint at 10:28. Her connection increased the home team's advantage to 23-8. A Moriah Frazee layup with 2:38 on the first-half clock, part of a 7-0 Liberty run, cut the Lady Flames' deficit to 30-18. The Commodores rebuilt a 17-point advantage, 38-21, at halftime. Vanderbilt's initial 20-point point lead of the game came at 41-21, when Risper converted an offensive rebound into two points, just 1:43 into the second half. The Lady Flames roared back with a 9-0 burst over the next 2:15. Hammond bookended the run with a triple and a fast-break jumper. Her latter hoop, coming with 16:02 left, brought Liberty to within 41-30. The Lady Flames still trailed by 11 points, before Vanderbilt opened up a bit more breathing room with 19-4 surge over the next 7:37 of action. The Commodores' lead reached a game-high 26 points, 64-38, on a Christina Wirth second-chance hoop with 5:19 left. The Lady Flames then reeled off a 10-0 run, started off on consecutive triples by Hammond and Amber Mays. Frazee split a pair of charity tosses at the 3:04 mark, trimming Vanderbilt's advantage to 64-48. That's as close as the Lady Flames got, though.

Game 11
Blacksburg, Va.

Megan Frazee, returning to the Liberty lineup after an ankle injury had sidelined her for eight straight contests, tallied 19 points and 10 rebounds after halftime, against North Carolina A&T. Her performance lifted the Lady Flames to a 72-58 win in the opening game of the Hokie Hardwood Classic. North Carolina A&T recorded an 8-0 burst to claim an early 13-8 lead. The Aggies' edge reached seven points, 21-14, when Brittanie Taylor-James swished a jumper from just inside the three-point arc, 8:30 before halftime. Liberty gradually chipped away at its disadvantage, and Amber Mays' charity toss at 1:52 provided the Lady Flames with their first lead since 8-5, at 27-26. The teams exchanged the advantage three times during the remainder of the opening stanza, before heading to the locker room deadlocked at 31. North Carolina A&T put together an 8-2 surge, early in the second half. Taylor-James capped the run with a long jumper, giving her team a 39-35 edge with 15:14 remaining. Liberty battled back to tie the game at 44 apiece, on another Hammond layup, before one play shifted the game's momentum significantly. Lamona Smalley was called for both her fourth foul and a technical foul at 10:59. Megan Frazee stepped to the line for a quartet of foul shots. Frazee made all four tries, giving Liberty an edge it never relinquished, 48-44. Shortly thereafter, Liberty took control of the contest with a 10-0 burst. North Carolina A&T could not get closer than eight points down the rest of the way.

Game 12
Blacksburg, Va.

Tournament MVP Megan Frazee drilled the game-winning shot from just inside the three-point arc with 51 seconds remaining in the Hokie Hardwood Classic championship contest. Her last-minute heroics lifted Liberty to a hard-fought 45-43 win over host Virginia Tech, giving the Lady Flames the tournament title and their first-ever win over the Hokies. The Commonwealth foes were deadlocked at 43-43 when Megan Frazee stepped to the foul line for a one-and-one with 1:04 remaining in the contest. The senior missed the front end, but Warley was there to snatch her 18th rebound. Thirteen seconds later, Rachel McLeod found Frazee for the game-winning hoop. Virginia Tech's Laura Haskins had two chances to knot the contest in the final 38 seconds, but Liberty hung on for a long-awaited win over the Hokies. The teams traded the lead 11 times during an evenly-played opening half, and neither team led by more than three points. The Hokies' Lindsay Biggs drilled a three-pointer from well beyond the arc as the first-half buzzer sounded, giving her team a 24-23 halftime edge. Liberty did not score for a 6:32 span of the second half, enabling Virginia Tech to reel off an 8-0 surge. Shanel Harrison's steal and fast break layup at the 13:26 mark gave the Hokies their largest lead of the contest, 37-29. Virginia Tech then experienced its own extended offensive drought, going 8:16 without a point. In the meantime, Liberty reclaimed the lead with a 10-0 run, as Warley's putback hoop with 6:45 left in the contest put the Lady Flames back in front, 39-37. Liberty's lead was short-lived, however, as Biggs nailed her fourth triple 1:25 later, giving Virginia Tech a 40-39 advantage. A McLeod mid-range jumper and two Megan Frazee charity tosses swung the lead back in Liberty's favor, 43-40. Utahya Drye then converted an old-fashioned three-point play with 1:28 remaining, knotting the score at 43-all and setting the stage for Frazee's third game-winning shot in her last six appearances, dating back to last season.

Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty broke open a close game against Gardner-Webb with a 18-2 run spanning the first and second halves. The Lady Flames went on to hand the Bulldogs a 55-42 setback in Gardner-Webb's first-ever Big South contest and the conference opener for both squads. The score was deadlocked at 8-8 early on, before Liberty fashioned an 8-0 burst. Megan Frazee tossed in the final five points of the Lady Flame run, lifting the home team's lead to 16-8 at the 9:52 mark. A Margaret Roundtree jumper from the paint, this one coming at 4:38, narrowed the visitors' deficit to 18-14. The Lady Flames then closed the stanza on a 9-0 run. Moriah Frazee initiated the surge with five straight points, and Megan Frazee ended the half's scoring with a layup, sending Liberty to the locker room with a 27-14 advantage. Warley scored the second half's first two baskets, helping Liberty begin the stanza on a 9-2 run. Megan Frazee's hoop at 16:17 pushed the Lady Flames' lead to 36-16, finishing off an overall surge of 18-2, which started in the first half. Soon thereafter, the Bulldogs crafted their best extended run of the evening. The Lady Flames did not score for 5:03, as Gardner-Webb posted a 10-0 burst to trim its deficit in half. Meranda Burnett's mid-range jumper with 6:42 left put her team back within 10, at 40-30. Freshman Kylee Beecher halted the Gardner-Webb run with a free throw on Liberty's next possession, and the Bulldogs were never able to cut their deficit to single digits. Rachel McLeod put the finishing touches on Liberty's 55-42 decision, connecting on a driving layup with 14 seconds remaining.

Trailing by six points with less than five minutes remaining at Winthrop, Liberty responded with a game-ending 14-4 run to pull out a hard-fought 55-51 victory. Avery Warley's putback with 30.0 seconds left gave the Lady Flames the lead for good in their fourth straight win. Winthrop owned a 47-41 advantage at the 4:53 mark of the second half, before Liberty began chipping away at its deficit. Megan Frazee swished a three-pointer from the right wing off an out-of-bounds play and Amber Mays followed with a mid-range jumper on Liberty's next possession, enabling the Lady Flames to level the score at 49-all with 2:11 remaining. The score was still deadlocked in the final minute, when Warley tracked down her own missed shot and banked it home for the go-ahead hoop. On Winthrop's next possession, an aggressive double team forced a turnover. Liberty was then able to finish off its road win with four straight made free throws by Rachel McLeod and Megan Frazee, sandwiching a Yvonne van Daalen layup. Winthrop had fashioned the game's first extended run, as Jessica Fansler's three-pointer capped a 9-2 surge, boosting the Eagles' lead to 12-8 at the 11:09 mark. Liberty later erased its deficit with a 13-1 run, including nine points by Megan Frazee. Her old-fashioned three-point play with only 7.7 seconds remaining in the half finished off the surge with the Lady Flames owning a 29-24 advantage. Jennifer Walker canned a layup as the first-half buzzer sounded, pulling the homestanding Eagles to within three, 29-26, at the intermission. Winthrop gradually built its aforementioned six points lead, before going nearly five minutes without a field goal at the end of the game. The Eagles' offensive drought enabled Liberty to initiate its decisive comeback.

Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty closed the first half with a 15-0 run, Tuesday evening at the Vines Center, propelling the Lady Flames to a 64-54 victory over East Tennessee State. Liberty scored on its opening possession of the evening, when Avery Warley nailed a shot from the paint. However, the Lady Flames did not score again until Megan Frazee's layup, 4:45 later. In the meantime, East Tennessee State reeled off nine consecutive points. Back-to-back layups by Latisha Belcher finished off the run, putting the Lady Buccaneers in front by a 9-2 margin at the 14:32 mark. Liberty responded with a 9-0 surge of its own, ending with Rachel Hammond's mid-range jumper at 10:06, which reclaimed the lead for the Lady Flames, 11-9. The game continued to swing back and forth, as a 12-4 surge by the visitors resulted in a 24-20 East Tennessee State lead. TaRonda Wiles tossed in the last five points of the Lady Buccaneers' extended run, including a triple from the corner at 5:01. Those would be East Tennessee State's final points of the opening stanza, however, as Liberty closed the half on a 15-0 run. Five Liberty steals keyed the surge, which was highlighted by Mays' four points and two thefts. The Lady Flames owned a 35-24 half-time advantage, after Rachel McLeod closed the half's scoring with a layup at the 25-second mark. A pair of triples early in the second half enabled East Tennessee State to trim its deficit to seven points, 37-30, with 16:27 remaining. Liberty's lead fluctuated between six and 10 points until Tara Davis hit two free throws at the 10:30 mark, bringing her team to within 46-41. The Lady Flames quickly responded with their second 9-0 burst of the evening, initiated by a three-pointer and putback by Megan Frazee. Mays later converted her eighth steal into a fast break layup at 8:21, capping the run with Liberty leading, 55-41. Liberty's lead remained in double figures for the remainder of the contest, as the Lady Flames closed out a 64-54 win.

Presbyterian battled Liberty closely throughout much of the two teams' contest at Templeton Arena. However, the Lady Flames opened the second half with a 15-2 run, and went on to claim their sixth-straight victory, 59-49. Presbyterian did not make its first field goal of the game until 11:37 showed on the first-half clock. The contest-opening drought by the Blue Hose enabled Liberty to build an early 11-4 advantage. Liberty's lead reached double digits for the first time at the 10:43 mark, when Moriah Frazee drilled a three-pointer from the top of the key to make it 16-6, Liberty. Frazee's triple closed out an 11-2 Lady Flame run. Liberty's lead stood at eight, before homestanding Presbyterian closed the opening half on a 7-0 surge. A Katlin Moore three-pointer with 15 seconds remaining wrapped up the run, sending the Blue Hose into the locker room with just a one-point deficit, 20-19. Taking advantage of a loose zone defense by Presbyterian, Liberty connected on three triples during a 15-2 burst to open the second half, with Rachel Hammond hitting two of the three-pointers. Amber Mays' steal and resulting fast break layup at 14:42 finished off the half-opening run, giving Liberty a 35-21 edge. Amanda Mills tossed in seven points during a 10-2 run by the Blue Hose, which ended with a Moore free throw at the 9:53 mark. Moore's point brought her team to within 39-33. A quick 5-0 Liberty spurt, capped by Megan Frazee's second three-pointer, rebuilt a double-digit lead for the Lady Flames, 46-35, with 7:21 left. Presbyterian got not closer than seven points down for the rest of the contest.

Asheville, N.C.

Liberty senior Megan Frazee led all players in both points (22) and rebounds (14), as the Lady Flames led from wire to wire in a 75-48 win at UNC Asheville. The victory, coupled with a High Point setback, enabled Liberty to move into first place in the Big South Conference standings. After Lindsey Thompson pulled the home team within four points, 11-7, with a long three-pointer from the right wing, the red-clad Lady Flames scored 13 straight markers to open up their first double-digit advantage of the evening. Liberty made all five of its field goal attempts during the prolonged surge, which was capped off at the 10:43 mark with Rachel Hammond's three-point play. Hammond's trio of points bolstered Liberty's advantage to 24-7. The Lady Flames did not score again for four and a half minutes, enabling the Bulldogs to cut their deficit to 24-12, 6:52 before the intermission. Liberty later posted a 14-0 run, highlighted by five Rebecca Lightfoot points. The Lady Flames' lead reached 42-17 with 44 seconds remaining, after a pair of foul shots by Amber Mays. Liberty took a 42-19 advantage into the locker room, after its highest-scoring first half of the season. Kendall Shepard scored seven straight points for the Bulldogs, including a three-point play at 14:30 that trimmed the Lady Flames' edge to 50-30. Liberty countered with a 9-0 run over the next five minutes, boosting their lead to 29 points (59-30) when Lightfoot canned both of her free throws with 10:27 to play. The Lady Flames maintained at least a 23-point lead for the remainder of the contest, and the advantage ballooned to as many as 31 points, 75-44, when Rachel McLeod drilled a deep triple at 1:31.

Game 18
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty's Moriah Frazee made a bit of history, scoring her 1,000th career point during the Lady Flames' 76-51 conference triumph over Charleston Southern. Three of Frazee's fellow seniors joined her in double figures, as Liberty remained unbeaten in conference play. Frazee recorded her milestone at the 14:56 mark of the second half. She drilled a pair of free throws, making her the 12th player in program history to score 1,000 career points. Megan Frazee scored 10 straight Liberty points during a game-opening 17-5 surge by the Lady Flames, over the first 6:52 of play. Ali Schwagmeyer converted an old-fashioned three-point play with 12:01 left in the first half, trimming the Lady Buccaneers' deficit to 17-8. However, Rachel Hammond swished a three-pointer on Liberty's ensuing possession, and the Lady Flames led by double digits for the remainder of the opening stanza. Charleston Southern twice closed the gap to 10, including at the 5:28 mark, when Katie Tull's deep triple made the score 29-19. Rebecca Lightfoot, Hammond and Frazee all connected from beyond the three-point arc during an 11-2 Liberty run, which gave the Lady Flames their largest lead of the half, 40-21, with 2:02 showing on the clock. Liberty took a 42-26 advantage into the intermission. Liberty emerged from the locker room with a 10-2 run to start the second half. Megan Frazee's second three-pointer of the afternoon increased the home team's advantage to 52-28 with 17:19 remaining. A Danielle Gibson jumper with 6:10 left cut Charleston Southern's deficit to 18, at 63-45, after a 7-2 run. Danika Dale then fueled a 6-0 spurt by the Lady Flames, enabling them to boost the advantage back to 69-45 at 3:38. Liberty's lead stayed above 21 points for the remainder of the game.

Liberty's defense made the difference, holding Coastal Carolina to a season-low point total in a 65-40 triumph. Visiting Coastal Carolina recorded an early 7-2 surge, closed out by a Sydnei Moss layup at the 15:08 mark of the opening half. The sophomore's field goal lifted the Chanticleers to a 7-4 edge. Liberty responded with a 7-2 burst of its own. Layups by Amber Mays bookended the quick run, which ended with the Lady Flames in front by an 11-9 score at 12:31. After Amanda Stull's triple from the top of the key briefly reclaimed the advantage for the Chanticleers, Liberty went on a 15-0 run. Megan Frazee scored eight of the Lady Flames' points during the surge and assisted on Rebecca Lightfoot's left-handed layup which capped the run. Lightfoot's first two points of the evening made the score 26-12 in favor of the Lady Flames, 6:52 before half-time. Liberty then went scoreless for 5:30, during which time the Chanticleers crafted a 7-0 run to slice their deficit in half. Kendra Reynolds' contested jumper in the paint cut the Lady Flames' advantage to 26-19. The same seven-point margin separated the two teams at the intermission, as Liberty took a 28-21 lead into the locker room. The Lady Flames opened the second half on an 8-2 run. Moriah Frazee hit three layups during the surge, including one which increased her team's lead to 36-23 at the 16:01 mark. Coastal Carolina tallied a 7-1 run soon thereafter. Reynolds' hoop brought the Chanticleers to within single digits once again, 41-32. A layup and a three-point play by Moriah Frazee on consecutive possessions helped Liberty reclaim the momentum, and the Lady Flames' lead never dropped below 10 points again.

Lynchburg, Va.

Rachel Hammond poured in a career-high 25 points, leading Liberty to a comfortable, 65-42 victory over High Point. Hammond began scorching the Vines Center nets as soon as referee Mark Hardcastle tossed the opening tip skyward. Hammond tallied 13 points during Liberty's game-opening 17-5 run which spanned the first 6:34, including a trio of three-pointers. High Point got to within 10 points on three occasions, including at 21-11 after a short jumper by point guard Frances Fields at 10:15. The Lady Flames then fashioned a 10-1 burst, widening their advantage to 19 points, 31-12. Kylee Beecher's layup capped off the run, 6:17 before the intermission. Both teams struggled at the offensive end for the remainder of the half, managing only two points apiece. Liberty owned a 33-14 halftime advantage. The Lady Flames did not score for the first 3:34 of the second half, as High Point opened the stanza with six straight points. Fields' running bank shot with 16:47 remaining in the contest cut the Panthers' deficit to 33-20. Hammond then heated up once again for the Lady Flames. She scored the last seven points of an 11-0 Liberty surge, including a fast break layup at the 13:26 mark which made it 44-20, Lady Flames. High Point notched five consecutive points, including a nifty reverse layup by Amy Dodd, trimming Liberty's edge to 21 points, 51-30. But that's as close as the black-clad visitors would get the rest of the afternoon. A 14-2 Liberty run, finished off by Megan Frazee's trey from the right wing, gave the Lady Flames their largest lead of the contest, 65-33. High Point scored the game's final nine markers, making the final score 65-42, Liberty.

Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty dominated the painted area versus Radford at the Vines Center. The Lady Flames scored 50 points in the paint and outbounded the Highlanders, 59-30, during an 80-38 triumph. Radford took its only lead of the night when Rachel Morris drilled a three-pointer from the left wing on the Highlanders' initial possession of the contest. However, those were red-clad Radford's only points until the 13:00 mark. The Highlanders' drought enabled the Lady Flames to reel off a 15-2 run. Megan Frazee contributed seven points to the Liberty surge, including a put-back at 11:42, which made the score 17-5, in favor of the Lady Flames. Radford cut its deficit to 10 points twice, including at 19-9 when Kymesha Alston canned a layup. Liberty then put together a 13-3 burst, increasing its advantage to 20 (32-12) on a successful alley-oop pass play from Rachel McLeod to Rachel Hammond, 5:11 before the break. The Lady Flames bolstered their lead to 25 points, 40-15, at halftime, after holding their opponent under 20 first-half points for the fourth time in the last six contests. Liberty, which had scored the final four points of the first half, opened the second stanza with six consecutive markers. The Lady Flames' overall 10-0 surge ended at 17:44, when Moriah Frazee's spinning finger roll increased Liberty's edge to 46-15. Radford went 7:18 without a point during the second half, during which time Liberty's lead extended to 42 points (60-18) with a 12-0 surge. Liberty's advantage got as large as 49 points on two occasions, before the Lady Flames closed out their biggest win of the season, 80-38.

Game 22

Boiling Springs, N.C.

Megan Frazee led all players with a season-high 31 points and 10 rebounds, helping the Lady Flames claim a hard-fought 58-51 victory over Gardner-Webb, Frazee scored 10 early points, helping Liberty open up an 11-4 lead within the first 4:55. Gardner-Webb took advantage of numerous Liberty turnovers, recording a 7-0 surge to knot the game at 11-11 at the 12:09 mark. Liberty reclaimed the advantage, 15-11, when Kylee Beecher and Rebecca Lightfoot connected from short range on successive possessions. The Lady Flames did not score another point for nearly 5:30, enabling the homestanding Bulldogs to level the score once again, 15-15. An 8-2 Liberty burst, capped off by two Amber Mays free throws at the 2:21 mark, put the Lady Flames in front by a 23-17 count. Again, Gardner-Webb responded quickly. Five straight markers, including a three-pointer by Laura Povilonyte, trimmed the Bulldogs' deficit to 23-22. Liberty took a 25-22 advantage into the locker room, after Megan Frazee's eighth field goal of the opening half. Back-to-back hoops by Margaret Roundtree trimmed Gardner-Webb's deficit to a single point, 27-26, at 16:43 of the second half. Liberty then put together a 13-4 run, including seven Megan Frazee points. Mays' hoop with 12:11 remaining in the contest gave the Lady Flames their first double-digit lead of the evening, 40-30. Liberty's advantage was still 10 points, before Gardner-Webb halved its deficit with a 7-2 burst. Povilonyte's trifecta from just in front of the Bulldog bench pulled her team within 50-45, with 6:08 showing on the second-half clock. Gardner-Webb shaved its deficit to five points two more times, including at 56-51, when Dominique Hudson went two-for-two from the foul line with 40 seconds remaining. Megan Frazee then iced the contest with a pair of free throws on the Lady Flames' ensuing possession.

Lynchburg, Va.

Behind the stellar post play of Megan Frazee and Avery Warley, the Liberty women's basketball team recorded a 63-48 win over Winthrop. Megan Frazee scored the game's first four points, initiating a contest-opening 8-0 run for the Lady Flames. The Liberty advantage reached 15-6 on Avery Warley's 16-foot jumper, 12:51 before the half. Winthrop nailed a quartet of three-pointers during its ensuing 15-4 run over the next 6:44. Ashley Haugtvedt's triple from the top of the key extended the surge and gave the visitors their first lead of the evening, 21-19. Kylee Beecher's charity tosses started a 7-0 burst for the Lady Flames. Liberty's edge reached five points, before Shanice Cole's jumper from the paint closed Winthrop's gap to 26-23 at the intermission. Winthrop tied the score on the second half's opening possession, 26-26, on Haugtvedt's old-fashioned three-point play. Liberty then countered with an 8-2 run, with Hammond three-pointers bookending the surge. Her trey from the right wing with 17:31 left made the score 34-28, in favor of the homestanding Lady Flames. Liberty's lead got as large as eight points, 38-30, before Winthrop reeled off a 7-0 run. Fann contributed the first five tallies to the Eagles' surge, which shaved her team's deficit to a single point. Winthrop did not score its next points for 6:11, contributing to a 17-3 Liberty run. Warley's layup with 4:44 left boosted the Lady Flames to their largest lead up to that point, 55-40. Fann and Shanice Cole both scored hoops from close range, pulling the Eagles to within 11 at 55-44, with 3:41 showing on the second-half clock. That's as close as Winthrop got, however, as Liberty's advantage bulged to 18 points before the Lady Flames completed a season sweep of the Eagles with a 63-48 triumph.

Game 24
Conway, S.C.

Five Liberty players scored in double digits, and the Lady Flames outrebounced host Coastal Carolina, 40-12, in a dominating, 77-44 Liberty triumph at Kimbel Arena. Four of the Lady Flames' five starters scored within the first 2:35 of the game, as Liberty raced out to an 8-0 advantage out of the gate. Avery Warley's layup closed out the surge. A long triple by Kate Jasinski broke the ice for the Chanticleers, 3:05 into the game, but homestanding Coastal Carolina did not make its next field goal for 6:49. The Chanticleers' offensive struggles enabled Liberty to post a 12-2 run. Rebecca Lightfoot's layup off a nice feed from Megan Frazee boosted the Lady Flames' lead to 20-5, with 10:25 left in the opening half. Liberty's edge remained in double digits for the rest of the first half, reaching 20 points (36-16) when Megan Frazee hit a pair of foul shots at 2:46. Coastal Carolina bounced back with a quick, 5-0 burst, capped off by Jasinski's second trey. Her long-distance connection cut the Lady Flames' lead to 36-21. Liberty responded with an old-fashioned three-point play by Lightfoot, and the visitors took a 39-21 advantage into the locker room. Coastal Carolina emerged from the break with six consecutive points. Katie White's jumper from the paint at 17:59 trimmed her team's deficit to 39-27. Liberty, which had only attempted one three-pointer during the first half, kick-started its ensuing 11-0 surge with back-to-back triples by Rachel McLeod and Megan Frazee. A Warley layup with 14:47 left put the finishing touches on the Lady Flames' run, which increased their lead to 50-27. Coastal Carolina got no closer than 21 points down for the remainder of the game, and Liberty's advantage reached 35 points (77-42), when Kittery Maine sank a jumper at the 1:05 mark.

Game 25
Charleston, S.C.

The Lady Flames wrapped up the Big South regular-season title by shooting a school-record 70.2 percent from the field in an 81-59 win at Charleston Southern. The home team got triples from Kelsey Wasmer and Katie Tull on consecutive possessions, claiming a 6-4 lead with 18:27 remaining in the opening half. The Lady Buccaneers' edge only lasted for 20 seconds, however, as a Rachel Hammond triple from the corner put Liberty in front for good. Her long-distance connection initiated an 11-2 burst by the Lady Flames. Moriah Frazee's three-point play at 16:35 capped off the run, giving Liberty a 15-8 edge. Liberty built its initial double-digit lead, 23-13, on Avery Warley's field goal 9:24 before the break. Liberty's advantage stood at nine points (26-17), prior to a 9-2 burst by the Lady Buccaneers. Ali Schwagmeyer hit a 13-foot jumper at 3:28 to cut the Lady Flames' lead to 28-26. Charleston Southern only made one more field goal during the remainder of the stanza, as Liberty finished out the final 20 minutes on an 11-3 spurt. Four different Lady Flames contributed to the run, which gave Liberty a 39-29 halftime edge. Wasmer opened the second-half scoring with her third trey of the game, just 42 seconds in. Her three points temporarily shaved Liberty's lead down to seven, 39-32. Warley converted an old-fashioned three-point play on the red-clad Lady Flames' ensuing possession, helping Liberty reclaim momentum. Her trio of markers started off an extended 15-2 run by the visitors. Megan Frazee scored five of the surge's points, including a layup at 14:57 that increased Liberty's edge to 54-34. The Lady Buccaneers trimmed a 21-point deficit to 15, 70-55, with 5:11 left, after Schwagmeyer scored six straight tallies during an 8-2 CSU surge. The Lady Flames closed the game by scoring nine of the contest's last 11 points, bolstering Liberty's final margin of victory to 22 points, 81-59.

Game 26
Lynchburg, Va.

The Lady Flames' seniors excelled on Senior Night at the Vines Center, combining for 42 points and 23 rebounds in a 77-41 triumph over UNC Asheville. The Bulldogs only made one field goal over a seven-minute span, enabling Liberty to record a 14-2 run and break up a tight game. Megan Frazee tallied six of the Lady Flames' points during the extended surge, which ended with a pair of Avery Warley free throws, 6:55 before the half. Warley's foul shots made the score 22-9, Liberty. Ana Baker of the Bulldogs converted a trio of steals into fast break layups. Her final conversion of the 8-0 UNC Asheville spurt came at 4:39, cutting Liberty's advantage to 22-17. The Lady Flames then outscored the Bulldogs by a 10-3 margin over the remainder of the opening stanza. Four different Liberty players scored during the half-closing run, which made the score 32-20, Lady Flames, at the break. Liberty emerged from the locker room with a quick spurt. Megan Frazee tallied four points and an assist during Liberty's 6-2 half-opening surge. Her over-the-head pass to Hammond resulted in an easy layup at 18:16, giving the Lady Flames their largest lead to that point, 38-22. Liberty did not score again for three and a half minutes, and the Bulldogs shaved their deficit to a dozen points, 38-26. Hammond halted the visitors' momentum with a three-pointer in transition, with 14:45 showing on the second-half clock. The senior's triple from the left wing increased the Lady Flames' advantage to 15 points, 41-26. Liberty then put the game away with a 23-4 run, increasing its edge to 68-35.

Lynchburg, Va.

Four Lady Flames reached double figures, as Liberty rolled to a 71-33 triumph over Presbyterian. Visiting Presbyterian made only one field goal over the first 7:16 of the contest, a Katlin Moore three-pointer as the shot clock expired. Liberty took advantage of its staunch defense, racing out to a 15-3 lead. Four of the Lady Flames' five starters scored during the game-opening surge, including Moriah Frazee, who sank a pair of free throws at 13:09 to increase Liberty's advantage to a dozen points. Amanda Mills drilled another three-pointer for the Blue Hose with 12:44 remaining in the first half, but Presbyterian did not score again until 3:21, when Moore hit a perimeter jumper. In the meantime, Liberty broke open the game with a 19-0 spurt. Rachel McLeod's three-point play finished the surge, lifting the Lady Flames' lead to 34-6. Liberty's advantage got as large as 33 points, before the Lady Flames took a 41-11 advantage into the locker room. The 11 points by the Blue Hose were the fewest first-half markers by a Liberty opponent this season. Megan Frazee made a bit of program history early in the second half. Her pair of charity tosses with 17:35 remaining not only bolstered Liberty's lead to 49-13, but also put her into double digits in the scoring column for the 63rd consecutive game, a new Liberty record. The Lady Flames' advantage fluctuated between 34 and 44 points for the remainder of the contest, as Liberty finished off a season sweep of the Blue Hose with a 71-33 decision.

Game 28
Radford, Va.

Radford celebrated Senior Night prior the contest, but Liberty seniors Megan and Moriah Frazee combined for 46 points in an 80-61 victory over the Highlanders. The Lady Flames jumped out to a 9-0 lead within the first 2:26 of action, making four of its first five field goal attempts. Moriah Frazee capped the surge with back-to-back connections from short range. Radford's Kymesha Alston canned a fast break layup at the 17:25 mark, cutting her team's deficit to 7-2. However, the Highlanders did not make another field goal until another Alston basket at 11:09, after misfiring on nine of their first 10 shots. During the meantime, Liberty fashioned a 12-4 surge. Megan Frazee scored seven of the Lady Flames' markers, including a foul shot with 12:15 remaining in the stanza that made it 21-6, Liberty. The Highlanders' offense came to life during an ensuing 12-3 burst. Taleia Moton, Radford's leading scorer on the season, contributed the run's final five tallies, trimming the Liberty advantage to 24-18 at the 8:21 mark. The margin between two Commonwealth foes still stood at six points, before Megan and Moriah Frazee teamed up to score the Lady Flames' first dozen points of a 14-2 run. Kylee Beecher's layup from the right block closed out the run, giving Liberty its largest first-half lead, 42-24, with 1:53 left. The Lady Flames then took a 45-29 lead into the break, after their highest-scoring first half of the season. The Liberty edge bounced between 14 and 19 points for the first 6:36 of the second half, until Megan Frazee's basket increased the Lady Flames' lead to 20 for the initial time, 62-42. Radford kept the Lady Flames from pulling away, due to some stellar offensive production early in the second stanza. The Highlanders scored 23 points during the first 10:42 of the second half. Both teams cooled off during the latter half of the stanza, as the two squads evenly split 18 points during the final nine minutes of the contest.

High Point, N.C.

High Point closed its hard-fought contest with Liberty on a 9-2 run over the last 3:45 at the Millis Center, propelling the Panthers to a 58-53 triumph in the regular-season finale for both teams. The Panthers held the Lady Flames without a field goal for nearly eight minutes during the latter stages of the opening stanza. High Point's stiff defense led to a 26-19 lead, when LaTeisha Dean converted a steal into a fast break layup, 1:37 before the intermission. Megan Frazee scored Liberty's final five points of the half, helping the Lady Flames trim their deficit to 28-24 at the break. High Point scored the first three points of the second half, matching its largest lead to that point, 31-24. Liberty then posted a 9-2 run, knotting the game at 33-33 on Avery Warley's driving, right-handed layup at the 16:27 mark. Rachel Hammond's second-chance hoop with 14:27 left gave Liberty its first lead since 10-9, at 39-38. Her connection was part of a 6-0 burst, which ended 46 seconds later, when another Warley basket made it 41-38, Lady Flames. High Point came back to tie the score three separate times, before Dean's putback with 7:03 remaining put the home team back in front, 49-47. Liberty reclaimed the lead, 51-49, with 4:07 to play, after Megan Frazee scored four consecutive points. However, the Lady Flames did not score again until just 1.5 seconds remained in the contest. Maier's trey from the right wing, just 22 seconds later, gave High Point the advantage for good, 52-51. By the time Warley scored from short range at the 1.5-second mark, the Panthers had sealed their 58-53 victory with a runner by Shamia Brown and four free throws.

Game 30

High Point, N.C.

Megan Frazee led all players in both points (26) and rebounds (11), and the No. 1 seed Lady Flames staved off a furious second-half rally by No. 8 seed Charleston Southern in a 74-64 Liberty victory in the opening game of the 2009 Advance Auto Parts Big South Women's Basketball Championship. Megan Frazee's one-handed tip-in off a missed shot at 12:07 of the first half capped Liberty's game-opening 18-4 surge. Charleston Southern did not reach double figures as a team until the 6:30 mark of the opening stanza, when Kelsey Wasmer hit a mid-range jumper. Just prior to Wasmer's connection, Moriah Frazee scored six straight Liberty points during an 8-2 run, boosting the Lady Flames' advantage to 26-9. Charleston Southern trimmed its deficit to 14 points on four occasions, before Megan Frazee tallied the half's final six markers by herself. Her eighth made field goal of the first half enabled Liberty to take its first 20-point lead of the game, 40-20 into halftime. Liberty scored the second half's first four points, extending its lead to 44-20, just 1:26 into the half. Charleston Southern then put together a 13-2 burst which pulled the Buccaneers to within 46-33 at 15:49. Liberty's advantage got back to 18 points, 61-43, when Moriah Frazee made a layup with 9:01 remaining. The Lady Buccaneers countered with their last major offensive run of the afternoon. Back-to-back three-pointers by Danielle Gibson and Wasmer finished off a 10-0 CSU spurt. Wasmer's trifecta from right in front of her team's bench got the Lady Buccaneers back to within single digits, 61-53, at the 5:14 mark. Liberty came right back with five consecutive points, and the Lady Flames' lead again stood at a baker's dozen (66-53) on Moriah Frazee's free throw at 3:28. The Liberty advantage remained in double digits for the rest of its 74-64 victory.

High Point, N.C.

Megan Frazee enjoyed a virtuoso performance in the first Advance Auto Parts Big South Women's Basketball Championship semifinal tilt. Her 28 points and 13 rebounds lifted the No. 1 seed Lady Flames past No. 4 seed Winthrop, 61-42. Winthrop got on the board first, when Yvonne van Daalen spun in a driving, left-handed layup on the game's opening possession. However, it was the Eagles' only lead of the contest, as the Lady Flames answered with a 6-0 burst. Moriah Frazee made four straight foul shots to finish off the run, putting Liberty in front by a 6-2 count at the 17:29 mark. Winthrop twice got to within two points, including at 14-12 when reserve Jessica Fansler canned a 15-foot jumper from the corner, 11:53 before the intermission. Liberty then went on a 14-4 surge, including its first three triples of the afternoon. Rebecca Lightfoot's trey from the top of the key at 6:29 closed out the run, giving the Lady Flames a 28-16 advantage. Liberty took its largest lead of the opening stanza, 32-18, into the locker room, after holding the Eagles to two made field goals in the final 11:52 of the half. Megan Frazee scored the second half's first four tallies, enabling Liberty to double up Winthrop's score, 36-18, just 59 seconds into the period. The Eagles made three trifectas during an ensuing 14-4 run, and Tiffany Rodd's long-distance connection with 13:57 left put her team back to within single digits, 40-32. Winthrop was still well within striking distance at the 9:08 mark, when Ashley Haugtvedt canned a mid-range jumper to make the score 47-38, Lady Flames. However, the Eagles only made one more field goal the rest of the way.

Game 32
High Point, N.C.

Liberty's appearance in the Advance Auto Parts Big South Women's Basketball Championship title contest came down to a last-second shot which careened around the rim. This time around, No. 6 seed Gardner-Webb's Dominique Hudson missed an attempt from the lane in the closing seconds, enabling the No. 1 seed Lady Flames to hang on for a 51-50 victory and their 12th Big South title in the last 13 seasons. The Bulldogs nearly posted a dramatic victory, when Hudson drove from the top of the key, down the right side of the lane, with her team trailing by one point and the game clock ticking down to 0.0. Hudson lofted a soft shot from six feet away, up and over the outstretched arms of several Liberty defenders. The sophomore's attempt bounded off the rim several times, before finally bouncing off the cylinder. Amber Mays then snatched away the championship-clinching rebound. The Lady Flames owned a 15-11 edge, prior to a 10-0 Gardner-Webb burst. Courtney Epps and Meranda Burnett each scored five points during the run, and Burnett's nifty reverse layup at the 7:31 mark put the Bulldogs on top, 21-15. Gardner-Webb's advantage reached seven points, 28-21, when Epps swished her fourth triple of the opening half, with 1:48 remaining in the period. Liberty trimmed its halftime deficit to 28-23. The Lady Flames opened the second half with a 6-0 run. Megan Frazee canned a three-pointer from the right wing at 17:15, giving Liberty its first lead since 15-14, at 29-28. It took Gardner-Webb 7:12 to make its first field goal of the second half, a mid-range jumper by LaTroya Pope. The Lady Flames used a 10-2 surge to take their first double-digit lead of the game, 47-37. However, Liberty scored only four more points in the remainder of the contest, enabling Gardner-Webb to come back and set the stage for its final shot attempt.

-- Tallied a career-high eight rebounds and six assists during the Nov. 14 season opener against VCU.

-- The game versus VCU, which marked McLeod's first career start, saw her become the first Liberty point guard to notch at least eight rebounds and six assists in the same contest since Daina Staugaitiene totaled 13 rebounds and six helpers versus Birmingham-Southern in the Big South title tilt on March 13, 2004.

-- Dished out six assists versus South Alabama on Nov. 29.

-- Made a successful return from an injury which had sidelined her for the previous three contests, Dec. 20 at Winston-Salem State. Totaled five points, three rebounds and two steals in 16 minutes of action off the bench, including her first three-pointer of the season.

-- Did not make a turnover in 21 minutes of action versus Virginia Tech on Dec. 30 and assisted on Megan Frazee's game-winning jumper with 51 seconds remaining.

-- Sank both ends of a one-and-one from the free throw line with 13.4 seconds left at Winthrop on Jan. 10, helping Liberty close out a 55-51 road win.

-- Went 4-for-4 at the free throw line during the final minute of a 59-49 triumph at Presbyterian (Jan. 17), to help seal the victory.

-- Scored nine points, distributed four assists and paced the Lady Flames with a season-best three steals, Feb. 2 against Radford.

-- Tallied a career-high 13 points, a season-high seven assists and a trio of steals, Feb. 21 at Coastal Carolina.

-- Contributed eight points to Big South Championship semifinal victory over Winthrop (March 14). Shot 4-for-4 from the charity stripe against the Eagles.

NCAA Tournament Highlights

-- Notched 11 points off the bench, including a pair of three-pointers in her NCAA Tournament debut, March 23, 2008 versus Old Dominion.
