Disclaimer / Disqualifiers

The ARNG scholarship is offered in partnership with the Virginia ARNG. This is not a federal or state entitlement but a Liberty University offered and solely funded scholarship. Liberty University and/or the Virginia ARNG may terminate this scholarship program at any time with a 30-day written notice to participating partners (not necessarily to the students receiving the scholarship).

I understand that it is my responsibility to remain eligible for this scholarship and that any time that I fail to meet the minimum eligibility requirements my scholarship may be revoked without notice. I pledge to remain in compliance with the following eligibility requirements:

- Remain in Army compliance for physical fitness to include passing my APFT and height/weight.
- Remain in good standing with my National Guard unit and in compliance with monthly and annual drill requirements.
- Meet all military obligations, training, deployments, etc.
- Submit my annual Statement of Understanding (SOU) required for federal tuition assistance.
- Successfully complete all of my courses, remaining in good academic standing with Liberty University.
- Must remain in compliance with all ethical / moral character expectations; honor and/or character violations may result in immediate removal of scholarship award.
- Proactively report any changes in my status that may affect my eligibility for this scholarship.
- Complete Financial Check-In in a timely manner.
- Must request and use all Federal (GoArmyEd) and State TA I am eligible to receive each semester

I understand all criteria to qualify for, receive, and remain eligible for the ARNG Scholarship. I will honor my part of this agreement.
