COURSE SYLLABUS

THEO 109

THEOLOGICAL SURVEY III

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is a continuation of the doctrinal studies begun in Theological Survey 107 and 108. The student will examine the remaining Biblical doctrines of Salvation (Soteriology), the Church (Ecclesiology), and Christ (Christology).

RATIONALE

The word theology literally means “a study of God.” This course, thus, offers a systematic and practical overview of those key subjects directly related to God Himself and those who worship Him in Spirit and in truth. Every Christian ought to be able to articulate basic Bible doctrine to others with questions or those who desire clarification of the cardinal truths of the Christian faith.

I. PREREQUISITES

None (It is helpful if this course is taken after completion of THEO 107, 108.)

II. REQUIRED RESOURCE PURCHASES

Click the following link to view the required resources for the term in which you are registered: <http://bookstore.mbsdirect.net/liberty.htm>

III. ADDITIONAL MATERIALS FOR LEARNING

- A. Internet access (broadband or cable recommended)
- B. Microsoft Word
(Microsoft Office is available at a special discount to Liberty University students.)

IV. MEASURABLE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- A. To utilize the acquired skills and analysis from this course to advance one's understanding of theological issues.
- B. To think one's way through each of the doctrines presented in this course.
- C. To cordially interact with others of differing theological perspectives.
- D. Explain the entire inductive method to another person.
- E. To explain the basic concepts and definition of the doctrines studied in this course.

- F. To reflect upon the implications of theology for Christian life and personal ministry.
- G. To entertain questions of personal interest concerning the world and God.
- H. To make practical application of truths and principles associated with each major doctrinal study.

V. COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS

- A. Textbook and additional readings
- B. Discussion Boards forums (8)

Discussion Boards (DB) are due at the end of weeks 2, 4, 6 and 8 of this class. Each DB will require an initial post worth 50 points and at least two responses worth 50 points for a total of 100 points Discussion Board Forum. The student can access each DB through the communications link to the left in blackboard.

- C. Research Paper

1. Your research paper should systematically present and discuss a specific aspect of a selected doctrine rather than generalize about the entire doctrine.
2. Your paper must have a title page, table of contents page, outline page, body of the paper and conclude with a bibliography.
3. The papers must be typed, double-spaced and use 11 or 12 point Times New Roman or similar easy to read font.
4. Ten sources is a basic minimum for you to consult in conducting your research. Of course, study Bibles and your course texts are not to be included in the ten plus references. No more than four sources cited in your bibliography should be from internet sources unless the book or article is published on line.
5. The paper must be in the APA format.
6. The body of your paper is to be at least ten pages in length. Again, we are not counting the title page, table of contents or bibliography pages.

- D. Bibliography Readings

The student will be required to read 200 additional pages (other than the text) on topics studied in class. This assignment is due in Module/Week 8. The student can utilize the bibliography located in the syllabus for sources or find sources in their personal or church library.

E. Tests (3)

There are three tests throughout the course. They will be taken at the end of Module/Weeks 2, 5, and 8. The tests are open book and students can utilize class notes. Each test will be made up of multiple choice, true and false, or matching questions. The student will have one hour to take each tests. Tests are located within the module in which they are given.
