

LIBERTY HOCKEY

Flames Hockey Prospect Camp April 6 - April 9, 2017

We highly recommend that you participate in Liberty University College for a Weekend (CFAW) so that your lodging and meals are covered and you get the chance to participate in the school's informative and fun activities. If you have already attended a CFAW experience then the decision to participate in CFAW again will be left up to you as to whether to take part in it again. If you are looking to do the prospect camp and CFAW you will need to sign up and pay for both.

Step 1: Register for CFAW by visiting the link and following the steps listed below.

- <http://www.liberty.edu/undergrad/index.cfm?PID=10494>
- Register for College For A Weekend (CFAW) if you are a high school junior, senior or a transfer student between the ages of 15-24. High school sophomores are eligible to attend CFAW during the spring semester.
- Remember: You are only able to attend ONE CFAW event each academic year.
- To register, create an event registration login name and password by selecting Create Student Account and following the directions.
- All students must submit a signed release form during CFAW check-in, so go ahead and fill it out now, and bring it with you!
- If you have any questions or problems with registration please call the Hancock Welcome Center (434) 582-2064.

Step 2: Register for the Flames Hockey Prospect Camp

- Please fill out the online registration form located at the link below.
