Games No. 11-13 - March 2-4, 2007
MANHATTAN Jaspers (0-3, 0-0 MAAC)

vs.

LIBERTY Flames (7-3, 0-0 Big South)

Friday, March 2 - 2:30 p.m.

Saturday, March 3 - 1 p.m.

Sunday, March 4 - 1 p.m.

Worthington Stadium - Lynchburg, Va.

The Games

The Liberty University Flames (7-3, 0-0 Big South) host the Manhattan College Jaspers (0-3, 0-0 MAAC) in a weekend series at Worthington Stadium, Friday -Sunday, March 2-4. The Jaspers were an NCAA Tournament participant in 2006.

The series will begin on Friday at 2:30 p.m., followed by single games on both Saturday and Sunday at 1 p.m.

The Series Against Manhattan

Friday is the first meeting between the Flames and Jaspers on the baseball diamond.

The Last Time Out

Center fielder Garrett Young went 4-for-5 with three doubles and three RBI as visiting Liberty defeated VCU, 8-2, Tuesday in its first midweek contest of 2007. The victory was the Flames' sixth-straight win.

Tyler Light ran his record to 2-0 on the year with five innings of work, providing another strong performance from the Flames' mound staff. The right-hander yielded one run on five hits, before giving way to Ryan Page in the sixth.

First baseman Aaron Grijalva and second baseman Aaron Phillips also had two hits apiece for the Flames. The tandem both drove in runs in a five-run sixth inning as Grijalva doubled home one run and Phillips followed with a triple to score two more in the frame.

The Flames on the Radio

This season, the Flames Sports Network plans to broadcast 20 Liberty baseball regular season games. Games will air live on WWMC 90.9 FM "The Light" and on the World Wide Web at both www.LibertyFlames.com and www.thelightonline.com. This weekend, the station plans to broadcast Friday's series opener at 2:20 p.m. and Sunday's series finale starting at 12:50 p.m.

The Coaches

Friday will be the first meeting between Liberty head coach Matt Royer and Manhattan's Kevin Leighton with their respective teams.

Liberty: Matt Royer (Liberty, '80)

Record at School: 124-110 (Five Years)

Overall Record: 442-349 (17 Years)

Notes: Matt Royer is in his fifth year at the helm of his alma mater ... last season, Royer guided the Flames to their second-straight 30-plus win season, their first back-to-back 30-win seasons during his tenure and the fourth in school history ... Liberty posted 39 victories in 2006, the most Division I wins in program history ... on Feb. 21, 2006, he won his 400th career game as a head coach when the Flames defeated Longwood, 4-3 ... in each of his first four years, the Liberty win total has improved each season ... Royer has led the Flames to the Big South Championship final game in both 2002 and 2006 ... prior to his stint at Liberty, he had a nine-year run at Kutztown, where he posted a 271-176 mark ... the Golden Bears never had a losing season in his nine years at the school ... guided Kutztown to the Division II College World Series during his final two seasons at the school.

Manhattan: Kevin Leighton (Seton Hall, 2001)

Record at School: 34-26 (Two Years)

Overall Record: Same

Notes: Kevin Leighton is in his second year as Manhattan's head coach ... in his first season in 2006, Leighton led the Jaspers to a school-record win total with a 34-23 mark ... named ABCA Northeast Regional Coach of the Year after guiding Manhattan past three nationally-ranked opponents, including No. 6 Nebraska in the NCAA Regional ... hired as the 23rd Jaspers' head coach after being an assistant at Manhattan from 2002-05 ... also serves as the Athletic Coordinator for the school.

Returning to Their Alma Mater

The Liberty coaching staff led by head coach Matt Royer, along with assistant coaches Terry Weaver and Reggie Reynolds, is unusual for Division I baseball. All three are graduates of Liberty University.

Royer received his degree in 1980, while playing baseball for the program's founder, Al Worthington. Weaver and Reynolds also obtained their bachelor's degrees from Liberty, with Weaver achieving his in the fall of 1997 and Reynolds having his conferred upon him in 1998.

Liberty in Season Lid Lifters

The Flames' season opener at East Carolina was the 32nd in the program's history. With its 6-2 victory, Liberty has now posted a 22-10 record in the first game of the season. They have compiled a 12-7 mark when opening the season on the road, while going 9-2 at home and 1-1 at a neutral site. Liberty has now won three- straight openers.

Liberty in Home Openers

This past Friday was the 29th home opener at Liberty's Worthington Stadium. With their 9-2 victory over Albany, the Flames are 24-5 in home openers at the field.

Flames at Worthington Stadium

For the past 27 years, the Flames have called Worthington Stadium their home. The Flames have compiled an impressive 455-205-4 record at home for a winning percentage of .688 since the stadium's inception in 1979. Under head coach Matt Royer, the Flames are proving the stadium to be an even tougher venue for opponents, having posted a 110-45 record (.710) during Royer's five years at the helm. Liberty went 22-9 (.710) at Worthington Stadium in 2006.

Liberty on the Road

Liberty has started 2007 with a 4-3 mark away from Worthington Stadium. This season, the Flames are 3-2 in road contests and 1-1 at neutral sites. Liberty finished the 2006 season with a 17-12 road mark. Its record was a four-game improvement over 2005, when the Flames went 9-12 away from home.

Baseball in the Commonwealth

Thirteen Division I baseball teams call the Commonwealth of Virginia home. This season, the Flames are scheduled to face opponents from the "Old Dominion State" 17 times. With its 8-2 win on Tuesday at VCU and an earlier victory over Richmond, Liberty has begun its Virginia slate with 2-0 record.

Liberty posted a 15-5 record against Virginia teams in 2006. The Flames are slated to meet state squads George Mason (twice), James Madison (twice), Old Dominion (once), Radford (three times), Richmond (once), VCU (once), VMI (three times), Virginia Tech (twice) and William & Mary (twice) this season.

Flames Against the MAAC

Liberty has compiled a 16-6 record against current members of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference since 1976.

Totals	.194-157

Gaining Momentum

Coming into Friday's meeting with Manhattan, the Flames have reeled off six straight victories. After starting the year 1-3, head coach Matt Royer's squad has won six in a row to finish February with a 7-3 mark.

Liberty began the 2006 season at 2-2, before closing out February with five-straight victories. In addition, the Flames ran off nine-game winning streaks twice last season, tying the Division I school mark reached by both the 1985 and 1995 teams. The school record is 15-straight wins, set by the 1976 Liberty team.

Strong Mound Efforts Help Flames Sweep Albany

Liberty swept a a doubleheader last Saturday from the Albany Great Danes to complete a sweep of a three-game weekend series at Worthington Stadium between the two teams. The Flames got solid mound outings from starters Dustin Umberger and Michael Solbach during the weekend.

Ryan Page saved both ends of the doubleheader as the Flames downed the Great Danes, 5-1 and 7-5, Saturday. In the opening game, starter Dustin Umberger pitched seven scoreless innings, scattering five hits, striking out four and walking one. It was the second-straight seven-inning outing for the right-hander as he moved his mark to 2-1 on the year. Left fielder Kenneth Negron went 3-for-4 with two RBI, a run scored and two stolen bases in the contest.

In the nightcap, Liberty plated five runs in the second inning to take a 5-1 lead and never trailed the rest of the way in a 7-5 victory. Third baseman David Giammaresi paced the Flames with two doubles and two RBI.

Friday, starter Michael Solbach even his record at 1-1, allowing two unearned runs in the first inning and one hit in six strong innings in a 9-2 victory over Albany in the home opener at Worthington Stadium. After a shaky first frame, the right-hander retired 16 batters in a row, before yielding to a reliever on a cold and windy afternoon. Taking advantage of several Great Dane fielding miscues, the Flames scored four runs in the third inning and five in the fourth inning in the victory.

Nanry Receives Conference Player of the Week Honors

Outfielder Tim Nanry was selected the Big South Conference Choice Hotels Player of the Week for games played Feb. 12-18.

Nanry batted .667 (6-for-9) in three games, helping the Flames post a 2-1 record at the Crab House Shootout in Charleston, S.C. He garnered his first two starts of the season on Feb. 17 against host The Citadel and Feb. 18 against Richmond.

2007 Liberty University Baseball Game Notes

The outfielder responded with Liberty's first hit of the day against The Citadel in the fifth inning and scored the tying run in the Flames' 2-1 Feb. 17th win.

The next day against intra-state rival Richmond, Nanry belted three home runs, plated eight runs and scored four times in the Flames' 28-7 victory over the Spiders. The senior, who had the best day of his Liberty career, went 5-for-5 in the contest and was hit by a pitch to pace a 28-hit afternoon for the Flames, a new school record. Nanry finished with a 1.667 slugging percentage on the week.

Flames Break Records in Victory over Richmond

Tim Nanry hit three home runs to pace a school record-breaking, 28-hit attack as the Flames defeated the Richmond Spiders, 28-7, Feb. 18 at Riley Park in their final game at the Crab House Shootout in Charleston, S.C. The Flames broke the school mark with 28 hits and tied the single-game record for runs in the contest.

Liberty's 28 hits set a new standard for hits in a contest, breaking the old mark of 26, which the 2006 squad reached in a contest at UNC Asheville on May 13 of last season and on March 25, 1995, against UMBC. The Flames also surpassed the school mark of 25 RBI in a contest with 28. Liberty tied the school record for runs scored as the Flames also plated 28 runs in a 28-3 victory over Radford on March 19, 1985.

Nanry led the Liberty outburst by going 5-for-5 and being hit by a pitch. The outfielder hit three home runs, had eight RBI and scored four times in the contest. Center fielder Garrett Young went 4-for-5 on the afternoon with four RBI and a home run. Right fielder Phil John also had three hits and drove in six runs for the Flames. Shortstop Patrick Gaillard tied a school mark by scoring five times in the contest.

Young Has Strong Start to LU Career

Junior college transfer Garrett Young has started his first season at Liberty in strong fashion. In his first ten games with the Flames, the outfielder hit .415 with six doubles and two home runs. He has also driven in 10 runs and scored 11 others. The Fountain Valley, Calif. native leads the Flames in runs scored (11), RBI (10), doubles (six), hits (17) and total bases (29).

On Tuesday at VCU, the junior went 4-for-5 with three doubles and three RBI in the Flames' victory over the Rams. It was not the first time the outfielder has gone 4-for-5 this season, as he also was 4-for-5 with four runs driven in, a double and a home run in helping to pace the Flames' 28-hit attack in a 28-7 win over Richmond on Feb. 18 at the Crab House Shootout in Charleston, S.C.

In his first game in a Flames' uniform, he went 3-for-5 with a home run, a RBI and two runs scored in Liberty's 6-2, season-opening victory at East Carolina.

Liberty Against Nationally Ranked Opponents

Feb. 16 contest against South Carolina, ranked No. 1 in the nation by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers of America at the time, was the 37th meeting between the Flames and a nationally-ranked opponent. With its 10-2 setback in the contest, Liberty has posted an 8-28 mark in those meetings with one contest ending in a tie after being called in the seventh inning due to rain.

After squaring off with the Gamecocks at the Crab House Shootout on Feb. 16, the Flames have now faced two teams ranked No. 1 in one of the four major polls on five different occasions. Liberty's first meeting with a No. 1 ranked team came against South Carolina in the 2000 NCAA Columbia Regional, which the Flames dropped 6-4 to the Gamecocks on May 26. In 2003, No. 1 and eventual national champion Rice swept a three-game series from Liberty in Houston, Texas (March 21-23).

Another Fantastic February

The month of February has been good to the Flames the past three seasons. Liberty won its last five contests in the second month of the year in 2006 to post a 7-2 mark. In 2005 Flames started 7-1 to begin the season.

2007 was no different, as Liberty finished the year's opening month on a six-game win streak to post a 7-3 mark in February.

Friday's contest will also be the first of 19 contests in the month of March for the Flames. Last season, Liberty was 12-6 during 2006's third month and had a nine-game winning streak during the month.

April	14-5, 10-4 Big South
May	6-8, 2-4 Big South

Winning the Close Ones

Liberty finished last season 10-5 in one-run games. Its record in one-run games was one of the keys to Liberty's fast start to 2006 on its way to breaking the school mark for victories in a season. Six of the Flames' first 10 games were decided by one run. Liberty went 5-1 in those games.

The Flames have started 2007, 1-0, in contests decided by one run, defeating The Citadel, 2-1 on Feb. 17.

Running Again

The Flames are off and running again this season. So far in 2007, Liberty has stolen 13 bases in 14 attempts. Leading the way with four steals apiece are outfielders Phil John and Kenneth Negron. The two have compiled those numbers while only playing in eight and seven games respectively. Neither has been caught yet this season.

Liberty led the Big South with 104 stolen bases in 2006. In addition, the Flames ranked 30th in the country among Division I programs in stolen bases per game, as they averaged 1.73 steals per contest, marking stark contrast to 2005.

Last season, the Flames swiped 39 more stolen bases in 60 contests than they had in 55 the previous year. Liberty averaged 1.73 steals per game as they have swiped 104 bases in 127 attempts, an 82 percent success rate.

In 2005, Liberty finished the season with a 77 percent success rate, as they stole 63 bases in 81 attempts (less than 1.15 per game).

Third baseman Chad Miller finished fourth in the Big South with 24 steals in his final season with Flames. Aaron Grijalva ranked fifth in the conference with 23 stolen bases. The first baseman was caught stealing only once in 2006. Shortstop Patrick Gaillard was also among the Big South leaders with 16 thefts, ranking ninth. The shortstop was only caught once last season, too.

2007 Liberty University Baseball Game Notes

Quick Starters

With its victory over Marist on March 15, Liberty opened the 2006 season with a 16-3 mark. The record tied the best start by a Flames' team in school history. The 1979 team also started its season at 16-3. Liberty's start was the best by a Liberty team at the Division I level.

The 2006 start matched the Flames' early-season success of the previous year. Royer's squad opened 2005 with a 13-3 record en route to a 36-19 final ledger.

Over Two Years and Counting

The Flames have gone 148 games and 35 months without being shut out in a contest. During the span, Liberty mound staff has pitched six shutouts, including three in 2006.

The last time a Liberty team was shut out was April 10, 2004 at Winthrop. Eagles' starter Jeff Reeves combined with relievers Jonathan Settle and Chris Leroux to allow the Flames three hits in a 6-0 win.

Liberty has been limited to one run five times during the period. Last season, Birmingham-Southern allowed the Flames single runs in in back-to-back games on April 28 and 29. Liberty also scored one run in a loss at Winthrop on March 24.

In 2005, Liberty scored only one run on two occasions, in a 1-0 victory over Fairfield on March 9 and in the last game of the season, a 2-1 setback to Coastal Carolina on May 27 at the Big South Baseball Championship.

Changes Continue at Worthington

When the Flames took the field at Worthington Stadium this past Friday against Albany, both players and fans saw several changes at the complex.

The most noticeable difference is the field turf collar installed around the home plate area. The collar will save wear and tear on the grass in the area. Fans also saw new uniforms and jackets for the Flames.

Another visible difference is the refurbished scoreboard. The board itself has been painted navy blue with red trim and all 730 light bulbs have been replaced. Besides the scoreboard, the press box, several spectator areas and both dugouts have also been painted navy blue with red trim.

Inside the field house, the Liberty locker room has been redone with a new Tuflex surface. Also, additional lighting has been added and the current lighting upgraded in the indoor batting cage area.

Big South Tabs Flames Fifth

Liberty was picked to finish fifth in the Big South Conference this season in the league's annual preseason baseball poll, as voted on by the conference's head coaches and sports information directors.

Winthrop was chosen as the conference's team to beat in 2007. The Eagles were picked first on 14 out of the 16 ballots cast. In addition, Winthrop outfielder Tommy Lentz was voted the conference's Preseason Player of the Year, while sophomore pitcher Alex Wilson was selected as the conference's Preseason Pitcher of the Year by the panel.

Liberty comes off a 39-21 mark in 2006, which set a new school record for Division I victories. The Flames, who have recorded back-to-back 30-win seasons for the fourth time in the program's history the past two seasons, received 71 points.

Winthrop received 126 points in being tabbed first, followed by Coastal Carolina, who received the other two first-place votes and 108 points. Defending tournament champion UNC Asheville and High Point tied for the third spot in the poll with 82 points. After Liberty, VMI was selected sixth (54), Charleston Southern was tabbed seventh (34) and Radford was eighth (19) in conference voting.

2007 Liberty University Baseball Game Notes

SEBaseball.com Picks Flames Third

The website South Eastern Baseball tabbed Liberty to finish third in its 2007 Big South Conference Preview. The Winthrop Eagles and Coastal Carolina Chanticleers were picked ahead of the Flames.

Liberty first baseman Aaron Grijalva and pitchers Ryan Page and Tim John were named to SEbaseball's Preseason All-Big South first team, while shortstop Patrick Gaillard, outfielder P.K. Keller and pitcher Michael Solbach were selected to the second team. The Flames and Eagles each placed the most players on the 30-man All-Big South team with six apiece.

The site also picked Liberty as one of the Southeastern 64, a list of the region's top teams. The Southeastern 64 includes teams from the ACC, SEC, Conference USA, Sun Belt, Atlantic Sun, Colonial, Big South, Southern, Southland, Ohio Valley, MEAC and SWAC, along with South Florida, Louisville, Louisiana Tech and Charlotte, who were included due to their geographic location.

Liberty was the list's 61st team. Also, making the list were 2007 Flames' opponents the Citadel (50), James Madison (40), East Carolina (38), Old Dominion (34), Coastal Carolina (32), VCU (31), Winthrop (19) and South Carolina (3).

Liberty Roster Breakdown

The 2007 edition of the Liberty Flames consists of players from 12 states. California (Aaron Grijalva, Errol Hollinger, Grady Ihnat, Tyler Light and Garett Young), Florida (Cody Brown, Tommy Bussey, David Giammaresi, P. K. Keller, Jonathan Schneider and Shawn Teufel), New Jersey (Phil John and Tim John), New York (Tim Nanry), North Carolina (Nate Thompson and Andrew Wilson), Oklahoma (Aaron Phillips and David Stokes), Pennsylvania (Dane Beakler, David McCall, Ryan Page and Dustin Umberger), South Carolina (Patrick Gaillard), Virginia (Rusty Lajoie, Michael Solbach, and Andrew Weaver), Washington (Derek Bennion) and West Virginia (Doug Wallace) are the states represented on the Flames' roster.

In addition, the roster features an even distribution among the classes. Leading the way are five seniors (Derek Bennion, Patrick Gaillard, Phil John, Tim John and Tim Nanry) and eight juniors (David Giammaresi, Aaron Grijalva, P. K. Keller, Ryan Page, Aaron Phillips, Michael Solbach, David Stokes and Garrett Young). There are also 11 sophomores (Dane Beakler, Cody Brown, Tommy Bussey, Errol Hollinger, Tyler Light, David McCall, Kenneth Negron, Shawn Teufel, Dustin Umberger, Doug Wallace and Andrew Wilson) and seven freshmen (Grady Ihnat, Cory Johnson, Rusty Lajoie, Jonathan Schneider, Nate Thompson, Chase Vaden and Andrew Weaver).

2006 Flames Set School Division I Win Mark

With a 9-7 win over Winthrop in the first round of the Big South Championship on May 24, the 2006 Liberty squad recorded its 37th victory of the season, setting a new school record for Division I single-season wins. Head Coach Matt Royer's squad went on to collect two more victories for 39, one shy of the all-time school record of 40, set in 1983.

It was the second-straight year the Flames had reached the previous mark set in 2000. Liberty's win over Radford in the 2005 Big South Baseball Championship was their 36th victory of the season; tying the school mark. The Flames moved to NCAA Division I competition for the 1984 baseball season.

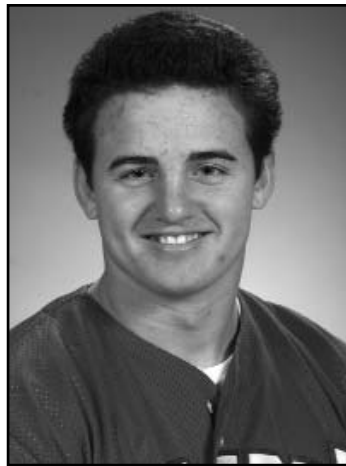

Liberty Reaches 30 Wins Again

With their 6-4 win over Coastal Carolina in the completion of a suspended game on April 23, the Flames reached 30 wins in a season for the 12th time in the program's 32-year history last season. Of the 12, eight have come at the Division I level.

2007 Liberty University Baseball Game Notes

It was the first time under head coach Matt Royer and the fourth time in Liberty history the Flames have posted back-to-back 30-win seasons.

Liberty reached the milestone 30-victory mark for the first time under head coach Matt Royer in 2005. The Flames won their 30th game of the season in a 10-2 triumph over Richmond on May 17 at Worthington Stadium in their 47th game of the year. Liberty captured their 30th win in their 40th game of the 2006 campaign.

The 2006 and 2005 teams joined the 2002 and 2001, the 2001 and 2000 and the 1980 and 1981 squads as back-to-back 30-win season teams. Liberty has also had three straight 30-win seasons once in program history as the 2002, 2001 and 2000 teams all won over 30 games.

2006 - A Record Breaking Year

Besides the Flames setting a new benchmark for Division I wins, several other Liberty team and individual records were tied or broken in 2006.

Twice during the year, the Flames won nine-consecutive games to tie the program mark for consecutive wins (March 4-March 15 and March 29-April 11) and made 1,610 putouts, a single-season record.

Individually, several marks were surpassed led by senior Phillip Laurent. The left fielder's 280 career hits eclipsed the previous mark of 262 safeties set by Larry Wayne York in 2002. He also set new school career standards for doubles with 68 and at bats with 816. Laurent left his mark on the single-season record book as well with 27 doubles in his last season at Liberty.

He was joined in the record book by Michael Just and Chad Miller as the two infielders broke single-season marks in their final year as Flames. Just set new standards with 94 hits in seasons and 248 at bats, while Miller took over the top of the Liberty single-season run list with 68.

Royer Gets Milestone Victories

Liberty head coach Matt Royer reached two career milestones in guiding the Flames to a 39-21 record last year.

On Feb. 21, the Liberty skipper won the 400th game of his 16-year coaching career as the Flames defeated Longwood, 4-3, in Farmville, Va.

Later in the season, Royer picked up his 100th victory in his four-year tenure as the head coach of his alma mater with a 15-4 Liberty win at William & Mary on April 5.

Looking Ahead

The Flames travel to Norfolk, Va. for a midweek afternoon game at Old Dominion on March 6. It will be a renewal of a long-standing series between the teams as the two squads did not meet in 2006. Game time is scheduled for 3 p.m.

Liberty then returns home on the weekend for a three-game weekend visit by the George Washington Colonels. Friday's contest is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. with single games on Saturday and Sunday both slated for 1 p.m. starts.
