The Game

The Liberty University Flames (6-8, 0-0 Big South) travel to take on the UNC Asheville Bulldogs (4-10, 0-0 Big South) at the Justice Center (1,100) in Asheville, N.C., on January 6, 2007 to open Big South Conference play. Tip-off is set for 4:30 p.m. EST.

The Coaches

Flames' head coach Randy Dunton is currently in his sixth year overall as head coach of the Liberty basketball program. He served as the interim head coach during the 1997-98 season and was named full-time head coach prior to the 2002-03 campaign. Dunton has posted a 58-74 record since returning to Liberty, which includes two second-place finishes in the Big South and a share of the regular-season title in 2004 en route to the program's second-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Eddie Biedenbach begins his 11th year as head coach at UNC Asheville. During his tenure at Asheville, he has led the Bulldogs to three Big South Conference regular-season titles, three appearances in the Big South Conference championship game, the program's first outright regular-season crown in 1998 and in 2003, the first-ever trip to the NCAA tournament. The Bulldogs have been one of the most consistent programs in the league during his tenure, finishing in the top three in the final conference standings seven times in his 10 years.

Flames On A Roll At Home

The Flames opened up their 2006-07 home schedule with six-straight wins. The last time the Flames won six-straight home games was during the 2003-04 season when Liberty won 13-straight home games, culminating with the Big South Championship victory over High Point (89-44) on March 6, 2004. The Flames won 13-straight after losing their home opener to Miami (OH) (55-71) on Nov. 21, 2003.

Losing Streak

The Flames are on their first losing streak, of the season (seven games) after dropping their most recent game at number three-ranked Florida.

Dunton's Best Start

Liberty's 6-1 start was the best under Randy Dunton. Liberty's previous best start under Dunton came during his first season at the helm when the team opened the 2002-03 season with a 4-2 mark.

Six-Game Winning Streak

The Flames saw their six-game winning streak snapped on Dec. 16 at St. Francis (Pa.). Going into the game, the streak equaled the 12th best in the nation so far this season.

Road Losing Streak

The Flames have lost 19-straight road games. The last time the Flames won an away game was on Feb. 5, 2005, when Liberty beat Birmingham-Southern, 73-69.

100th Career Game For Blair

Larry Blair played in his 100th career game for the Flames on Dec. 18 at Buffalo.

Larry Blair's 100th Career Start

Larry Blair made his 100th career start at number three-ranked Florida on Tuesday.

Stealing From National Champions

The Flames grabbed 15 steals at number three-ranked Florida on Tuesday. That number is the most steals an opponent has registered against the Gators this season. Florida's 18 turnovers is the third-highest mark they have committed this season.

Larry Blair had six of the teams 15 steals which is the best individual number an opponent has grabbed against Florida this season.

Big South Opener

The Flames open Big South play tonight at UNC Asheville. Liberty is 4-11 all-time in Big South openers.

Flames' Best Start In Seven Years

The Flames' 6-1 start is the program's best start since they opened the 1999-2000 season with a 7-1 mark.

Flames' First In Utah

The BYU Holiday Classic marked the first time in the history of the Liberty Basketball program that the Flames have played in the state of Utah.

A Larry Blair First

Larry Blair fouled out for the first time in his career on Dec. 21 against Lipscomb. It took 101 games for Blair to foul out of a game.

Liberty versus UNC Asheville

UNC Asheville holds the all-time series advantage with a 22-15 mark. The Flames are 7-14 at UNC Asheville and 8-8 at home. UNC Asheville won the last meeting exactly 11 months ago in overtime, 83-81, in Lynchburg.

Lipscomb Game Is A Special Night For Brewington

Junior Dwight Brewington is one of three players at the Division I level who plays with some sort of hearing impairment. Brewington has 60 percent hearing loss in both ears and plays with hearing aids. Ryan Daniel of Lipscomb and Chris Devine of UC Santa Barbara join Brewington on this short list. Daniel is completely deaf and uses hearing aids, and Devine is deaf in one ear.

The Dec. 21 against Lipscomb presented a unique situation as Brewington and Daniel had the chance to meet on the court. Daniel did not play, while Brewington scored 17 points and grabbed 10 rebounds.

Brewington Debuts

Junior Dwight Brewington made his Flames' debut on Dec. 16 at St. Francis (Pa.). Brewington sat out the first seven games due to the NCAA transfer rule. Brewington came to Liberty via Providence where he averaged 13.3 points a game as a sophomore, earning Preseason NIT all-tournament honors in 2004.

Brewington scored 16 points, grabbed five rebounds, dished out three assists and snared three steals against the Red Flash during his first game in a Liberty uniform.

Holding Opponents In Check

When St. Francis (Pa.) shot 51.9 on 14-of-27 shooting from the field in the first half on Dec. 4, it was the first time an opponent shot better than 50 percent against the Flames in the opening period this year. Only three other teams have shot over 50 percent against the Flames in the second half as Oklahoma did so in the season opener and St. Francis eclipsed the mark again on Dec. 16. Oral Roberts did so when they accomplished the feat in both halves against the Flames on Dec. 30 and Florida also shot better than 50 percent in both halves, on Tuesday.

Holding Opponents In Check, Part 2

Oral Roberts and Florida are the only two teams to shoot over 50 percent from the field in a game against the Flames .

B.J. Jenkins Named Big South New Balance Freshman of the Week

Jenkins earned the honor for the week of Nov. 27-Dec. 3 when he averaged 14.0 points, 3.0 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 2.5 steals in Liberty's two wins, including a 64-56 victory over East Carolina. He shot 64.3 percent from the field (9-of-14), 42.9 percent from long range (3-of-7) and 77.8 from the line (7-of-9). Jenkins scored a career-high 16 points versus Southern Virginia and added 12 points versus East Carolina. Against the Pirates, Jenkins also grabbed three rebounds, dished out three assists and notched three steals in 21 minutes off the bench.

McLean Collecting Double-Doubles

Junior Alex McLean collected his sixth double-double of the season when he scored 13 points and grabbed 15 rebounds against Seton Hall on Dec. 29.

Here is a look at McLean's double-double performances this season.

December 29	vs. Seton Hall	13 points	15 rebounds
December 28	at BYU	14 points	10 rebounds
December 21	vs. Lipscomb	12 points	17 rebounds
December 2	vs. East Carolina	17 points	11 rebounds
November 27	vs. Southern Virginia	17 points	10 rebounds
November 21	vs. Cincinnati Christian	15 points	15 rebounds

Zack Jones Sees Record Fall

Assistant coach Zack Jones saw his last record fall at San Diego State earlier this season. Jones, who played collegiately for three seasons at San Diego State, saw his record for most consecutive games scoring in double figures eclipsed by Brandon Heath on Nov. 29 when the senior tallied double figures in points for the 33rd-consecutive time during the Aztecs' 79-76 victory over the San Diego.

Dunton Gets 100th Career Victory

Randy Dunton recorded his 100th career collegiate coaching win with the Flames' 109-64 victory over Southern Virginia on Nov. 27. Dunton went 34-26 as the head coach at Marshalltown Community College in Marshalltown, Iowa. To date, Dunton has a 58-75 record as the head coach at Liberty and earned another 11 victories as the interim head coach for the Flames during the 1997-98 season.

January Record

Under the direction of head coach Randy Dunton, the Flames have posted a 16-20 record during the month of January. Overall, Liberty has posted a 137-177 record, 88-53 at home, 45-118 on the road and 4-3 at a neutral location during the month.

Liberty's Offensive Output

Liberty's first two victories of the year marked the first time since the 1992-93 season that the Flames have posted back-to-back 30-point wins. The last time that Liberty accomplished the feat, the Flames downed Averett (111-53) and Covenant (96-59) on Dec. 7 and 12, 1992.

Those games also marked the last time the Flames scored 90 points or more in back-to-back games.

Liberty's Offensive Output, Part 2

For the first time in the program's history, Liberty won three-straight games by at least 30 points. Liberty defeated Cincinnati Christian, 101-65, on Nov. 21. Liberty defeated Houghton, 92-46, on Nov. 25. Liberty defeated Southern Virginia, 109-65 on Nov. 27.

A Couple Firsts Against East Carolina

Dec. 2 marked the first time Liberty has beaten East Carolina in the history of the series. The Pirates were victorious in the five previous meetings until Liberty's 64-56 triumph at the Vines Center. The victory also marked the first time Liberty has defeated a team from Conference USA.

Flames Heating Up The Furnace

Nov. 27 marked the first time since the 1987-88 season the Flames have scored at least 90 points in three-straight games when they accomplished the feat over a four-game span. During the span, the Flames lost to Mount St. Mary's, 105-101, on March 4, 1988. Liberty defeated Ferrum, 104-79, on Feb.26. Liberty beat West Virginia Wesleyan on Feb. 23, 1988, 117-97, and the streak started on Feb. 20, 1988 when Bluefield beat Liberty, 100-97.

Anthony Smith Dishing The Assists

Not only is sophomore Anthony Smith averaging more points this season than he did last season, but he has also dished out more assists. So far Smith is averaging 2.3 assists a game this season versus his freshman average of 1.4.

Field Goal Percentage Defense

The Flames are first in the conference in field goal percentage defense. Liberty is holding opponents to 41.1 percent shooting.

Liberty has held opponents to below 30 percent shooting in six halves this year. Only eight times has a team shot better than 40 percent in a game (Oklahoma, BYU, Seton Hall, Oral Roberts, Lipscomb, Florida and St. Francis (Pa.) (twice).

Flames Grabbing The Boards

Liberty has outrebounded eight-of-14 opponents, including two by 20 boards (Cincinnati Christian & Houghton) and one by 39 boards (Southern Virginia).

One More Lap With Larry Blair

Larry Blair, a senior from Charlotte, N.C., declared himself eligible for the 2006 NBA draft, but pulled his name out of consideration prior to the draft to return for his fourth and final season with the Flames.

Scoring 100

When the Flames defeated Cincinnati Christian on November 21, 101-65, it was the first time that Liberty reached the century mark in points since the Flames scored 100 points on Dec. 12, 1992, when Liberty defeated Averett, 111-53.

Scoring 100, Part 2

The Flames have reached the century mark twice this season with wins over Cincinnati Christian (101-65) and Southern Virginia (109-64). The last time Liberty scored at least 100 points in a game twice in one season was the 1991-92 season. Liberty beat Methodist (109-65) on Dec. 3, 1991 and George Mason (100-89) on Dec.21, 1991.

Liberty Assisting Each Other

As a team the Flames are dishing out 3.6 more assists per game this season than last year. The Flames are averaging 14.0 assists per game this year which places them sixth in the Big South.

Last year, Liberty finished last in the Big South with 10.4 assists per game.

Liberty Picked To Finish Fifth In Big South

For the second-consecutive year, Winthrop was the unanimous selection as preseason favorites in the annual Big South Preseason Basketball PII among the 30 voters. The Eagles were the conference's regular-season and tournament champion last year following a league-best 23-8 overall record and 13-3 mark in Big South games. Coastal Carolina, last year's regular-season and tournament runner-up, finished second in the voting with 187 points, just five points ahead of No. 3 High Point (182). Charleston Southern, which has reached the Advance Auto Parts Men's Basketball Championship semifinals the past two years, was predicted to finish fourth (121), while Liberty placed fifth in the voting (117). UNC Asheville was predicted sixth (100), followed by Radford (seventh) and VMI (eighth).

Blair Named To BYU Holiday Classic All-Tournament Team

Larry Blair was named to the 2006 BYU Holiday Classic all-tournament team. The four team tournament was played Dec. 28-30 and featured host Brigham Young, Liberty, Oral Roberts and Seton Hall.

Blair averaged 20.0 points and 3.5 rebounds per game during the three-day event at the Marriott Center on the Brigham Young campus in Provo, Utah.

Blair made quite the impression on his opponents during the tournament. "Larry Blair is one of the toughest players we've played against all year. Blair hit some of the toughest shots I've seen. There may be a spot for him in the leagues ahead," said Oral Roberts Head Coach Scott Sutton.

Making the List

Larry Blair earned preseason honors in seven different 2006 publications. Blair was named to the collegeinsider.com Mid-Major Preseason All-American Team. The guard also was selected Athlon Sports Big South Preseason Player of the Year along with being named to the Athlon Sports Big South Preseason Team, Big South Conference Preseason Team, CBS Sportsline.com Big South Preseason Team, Lindy's Big South Preseason Second Team, Sporting News Big South Preseason Team and Street & Smith's Big South Preseason Team.

Blair's Back On The Big South Team

For the third-straight season, guard Larry Blair has been named to the Big South Preseason All-Conference team as he was one of five players named to the preseason all-conference squad. He was joined by Coastal Carolina's Jack Leasure, High Point's Arizona Reid and Winthrop's Torrell Martin and Craig Bradshaw, with Martin being named the league's Preseason Player of the Year.

Blair, who received five first-place votes and 86 total points, has earned all-conference honors all of his three seasons at Liberty, including first-team accolades the past two years. He was second in overall conference scoring last season at 22.6 and averaged a league-high 24.2 points in 16 Big South games. He was one of only two players to rank in eight-or-more different conference statistical categories. Blair scored 20-or-more points in a game a league-high 18 times, including six 30-point efforts, and he entered the 2006-07 season 12th in Big South history with 1,580 career points – 572 away from breaking the conference all-time scoring record.

Brewington Named Big South's Top Newcomer

Dwight Brewington was named the Top Newcomer to the Big South by Street & Smith's and CBS Sportsline.com. The Providence transfer averaged 13.3 points per game for the Friars as a sophomore during the 2004-05 season.

New to the Game

Junior college transfer Alex McLean came to Liberty via Suffolk Community College. The two years he spent at Suffolk in Long Island, N.Y., were the first years of organized basketball the Bay Shore, N.Y., native has played. McLean did not play basketball in high school. In his first game with the Flames, McLean scored 13 points and grabbed eight rebounds at Oklahoma on Nov. 16. McLean has reached double figures in points in every game but against Florida and is averaging 13.2 ppg and 8.6 rbg so far this season.

Only 6-2 as a high school senior, McLean played bass, piano and drums in the Bay Shore High School band.

McLean Breaks Vines Center Records

Junior Alex McLean's 17 rebounds on December 21 versus Lipscomb broke a three-way tie for most rebounds in a game at the Vines Center. McLean previously shared the record after grabbing 15 rebounds on Nov. 21 versus Cincinnati Christian. Peter Aluma grabbed 15 boards against Drake on Dec. 5, 1996 and Parish Hickman collected 15 rebounds against Towson State on Feb. 11, 1993.

McLean's 13 defensive rebounds versus Lipscomb also broke a Vines Center record that was previously held by Julius Nwosu when he grabbed 11 versus Campbell on Feb. 6, 1993.

Larry Blair Against Top 25 Teams

During Larry Blair's career, he has gone up against some of the top programs in the country and many times was the top perimeter guard. Here is a list of Blair's career games against teams ranked in the Top 25 at the time Liberty faced them.

Early Signing Period

Liberty Head Men's Basketball Coach Randy Dunton has announced that Nathan Campbell and Ehimen Orukpe have signed national letters of intent for the 2007-08 academic year.

Campbell (6-6, 215, F, Cary, N.C.) is currently attending the prestigious Hargrave Military Academy in Chatham, Va., where was averaging 13.0 ppg and 7.0 rpg through the first seven games of the season. Campbell is the first player to ever sign with Liberty out of Hargrave Military Academy, which has sent numerous of its alumni into the SEC, ACC and NBA, including Josh Howard of the Dallas Mavericks, who attended Wake Forest after his days at Hargrave.

Orukpe (7-0, 220, C, Delta, Nigeria) is currently playing for the Eburn Comet, one of the elite amateur club teams in Nigeria, which showcased such talent as former Flames great Peter Aluma. Orukpe is currently averaging 12.0 ppg and 9.0 rpg a game for Eburn. Orukpe's current coach, Ayo Bakare, coached the 1998 Nigerian National Team, which included former Flame Julius Nwosu.

Larry Blair A Scoring Machine

During Larry Blair's career, he has scored at least 20 points in 43 games of his 105 games. Blair has scored at least 15 points in 66 out of 105 career games and has tallied double figures in 34- straight contests and 47 of his last 48 games.

Liberty Men's Hoops To Participate In 2007 Great Alaska Shootout

Liberty is one of eight teams which will take part in the 2007 Carrs/Safeway Great Alaska Shootout scheduled for Nov. 20-24 at Anchorage's Sullivan Arena. In addition to Liberty, the eight-team field features host Alaska Anchorage, Butler, Gonzaga, Michigan, Texas Tech, Washington State and Western Kentucky.

This will be the Flames' second appearance at the Great Alaska Shootout. In 2003 the Flames went 1-2 at the event, scoring a 65-48 victory against Canisius in the opening round before falling to No. 2 Duke, in the second round and Seton Hall in the third round.

"This Great Alaska Shootout field is certainly one of the strongest in recent years," said head coach Randy Dunton. "The elite status of these programs will provide a fabulous experience for our team."

"The positives from competing against these programs will be a catalyst for our team's performance level," added Dunton.

Dunton returns to Anchorage, where he began his coaching career in prolific fashion at the high school ranks, accumulating a career record of 127-36, good for a .779 winning percentage. He won a pair of state championships and his teams finished as state runner-up twice at Anchorage Christian between 1985-88. In 1989, Dunton led West Anchorage to the AAAA State Championship game with a 22-8 record before coming to Liberty as an assistant coach in 1990.

"It is an honor for me to have the opportunity to return to Anchorage and to have our Liberty University Flames be part of such a prestigious basketball event," stated Dunton.

Winters Out Indefinitely

Freshman forward Lamont Winters is out with a severe left ankle dislocation he suffered in August. There is no time table for the return of the Jamaica, N.Y. native.

Game 1
Norman, Okla.

Larry Blair scored a game-high 23 points taking over 11th all-time on the Big South career scoring list, but it wasn't enough as Liberty (0-1) falls in their season opener to Oklahoma (2-0) at the Lloyd Noble Center, 74-48, on Thursday night. The Flames jumped out quickly defensively as Rell Porter striped Longar Longar to open the game, but missed the fast break lay-up. Blair tried to tip the rebound in but the basket was negated because the ball was still on the rim. Oklahoma then jumped out to a quick 4-0 lead over the Flames on back-to-back lay ups by Longar. Liberty then cut the lead to 4-3 with 17:37 left in the first period when Blair got fouled on a lay up making the basket and the ensuing free throw. The Sooners and Flames traded baskets on the next two possessions as Tony Crocker got past the Flames defenders for an open dunk. Damien Hubbard then hit a 12-footer from the corner to cut the Sooners lead to 6-5 with 16:28 left in the period. After the Sooners extended the lead to 8-5 on an Austin Johnson lay-up with 14:59 left in the half, the two teams traded misses until Hubbard hit a 3-point basket with one second left on the shot clock to tie the game up at 8-8 with 13:21 left in the period. Crocker then tipped in a fourth chance rebound for the Sooners giving OU the 10-8 lead at the 11:59 mark in the first half. Then there was no scoring until 8:48 in the half when Crocker scored back-to-back baskets, one on a Longar pass to make it 12-8 and then he stole the ball on an Alex McLean turnover and scored on the fast break giving the Sooners the 14-8 advantage with 8:32 left in the period. The Sooners then went on a 15-4 run to close out the half with a 29-12 advantage. Oklahoma started the second half on an 8-4 run capped by a pair of Taylor Griffin free throws with 16:12 left in the game, giving the Sooners a 37-16 lead. The Flames finished off the game on a 15-11 run, but it wasn't enough as Liberty fell 74-48. Blair passed Longar on the Big South all-time scoring list to take over 11th place with 1,603 career points. Blair scored only three points in the first half on 1-of-10 shooting, but heated up in the second half going 7-of-13 including 4-of-5 from 3-point range. McLean scored 13 points and grabbed eight rebounds in his first game with the Flames. Longar scored 21 points and grabbed 6 rebounds to lead the Sooners, while Crocker added 18 points and six rebounds to pace the victory. Liberty lost its sixth straight season opener. The Flames made 4-of-23 shots and committed 12 of their 17 turnovers in the first half.

Lynchburg, Va.

Larry Blair climbed into ninth place on the Big South all-time scoring list as he scored 27 points as Liberty (1-1) defeated Cincinnati Christian (4-4) at the Venable Center on Tuesday night, 101-65. Cincinnati Christian jumped out quick to a 9-2 lead behind three-straight three-point baskets by Joe Mendenhall with his third coming with 17:30 left in the first half. The Flames then went on a 9-2 run of their own capped by a Blair jump shot at 14:12 remaining in the half tying the game at 11-11. For the next six minutes the Flames and Golden Eagles were neck-and-neck as both teams were dead locked at 26 a piece as Blair hit a runner with 8:15 remaining in the half. The Flames took the lead at 4:22 in the first half after Blair was fouled by Mendenhall, making the basket and the ensuing free throw to give Liberty the 36-34 lead. The Flames closed out the half on an 8-4 run, giving Liberty a 44-38 lead going into the break. B.J. Jenkins was fouled by Tommy McGuire with sixteenth of a second left in the half on a three-point attempt. Jenkins hit his first two free-throw attempts while the third hit off the front of the rim bringing the half to a close. Mendenhall was lights out from three-point range for Cincinnati Christian going 5-of-6 for 15 points to lead the Golden Eagles in the first half. Anthony Smith led the Flames in the opening 20 minutes with 16 points on 6-of-8 shooting and 2-of-3 from three-point range. The Flames opened the second half on a 9-3 run that was capped by Kyle Ohman's three-point shot from the corner giving Liberty the 53-41 advantage with 16:41 left in the game. Liberty continued to open the game up with 13-3 run, capped by an Alex McLean lay-up on a fast break giving the Flames the 66-44 advantage with 12:16 remaining in the game. The Golden Eagles stopped a 9-0 Flames run scoring when Justin Bilyeu hit a jumper at 7:21, their first points since 14:26 in the game, to make it a 75-46 game. Liberty closed out the game on a 26-19 run as the Flames scored 100 points for the first time since December 12, 1992, when Liberty defeated Averett 111-53. The Flames shot 61.5 percent from the field on 34-of-66 shooting behind Blair's 27 points on 9-of-16 shooting from the field and 4-of-8 shooting from the three-point range. Blair also dished out a game-high eight assists and grabbed six rebounds. Smith scored 23 points on 9-of-13 shooting from the field and 2-of-4 shooting from three-point range. The Flames got a double-double from McLean as he grabbed a game-high 15 rebounds and scored 15 points. The Golden Eagles hot shooting in the first half cooled down as they finished the game shooting 31.7 percent on 20-of-63 shooting from the field and 9-of-29 shooting from three-point range. The Golden Eagles shot 7-of-18 from three-point range in the first half only to go cold on 2-of-11 in the second half. Mendenhall tied for a team-high scoring honors with 15 points, scoring all of his points in the first half. Justin Bilyeu also scored 15 points while Donnie Fishburn scored 11 points and Jake Santel scored 10 points rounding out the Golden Eagles top scorers.

Lynchburg, Va.

For the second-straight game, the Flames' defense stymied its opponent as Liberty held visiting Houghton College to just 28.1 percent shooting from the field and 46 points in a 92-46 home victory, Saturday evening, at the Vines Center. With the victory, Liberty pushes its record to 2-1 on the year with its second-straight 30-point win after downing visiting Cincinnati Christian, 101-65, two days before Thanksgiving. The loss drops Houghton to 1-2 on the early season. Liberty's first two victories of the year marks the first time since the 1992-93 season that the Flames have posted back-to-back 30-point wins. The last time that Liberty accomplished the feat, Liberty downed Averett (111-53) and Covenant (96-59) on December 7 and 12, 1992. Both teams struggled to find their shooting touch early in the contest as a lay-up by Larry Blair at 18:12 marked the first time that anyone found the basket and Liberty held a 4-3 lead at the first media timeout (15:57). Back-to-back baskets by Alex McLean and Rell Porter helped the Flames open up a five-point lead, 8-3, with 14:55 left to play in the first. Houghton started to find the basket as well as the Highlanders responded by scoring eight of the game's next 15 points with a lay-up by Yannick Anzuluni, pulling the Highlanders within four points, 15-11, at the 12:46 mark. However, Anzuluni's basket would be the last for the Highlanders for the next four minutes as Liberty scored 21-answered points, capped by a lay-up by McLean at the 8:09 mark, giving Liberty a 36-11 lead. Corky McMullen snapped Houghton's scoreless streak with a three pointer just 14 seconds later, but the basket would prove to be just one of two that the Highlanders would connect on in the final eight minutes of the opening half as Liberty closed out the period on a 17-4 run, taking a 53-18 lead into the intermission. The Flames finished the opening 20 minutes shooting 57.9 percent from the field (22-of-38), while holding Houghton to just 29.2 percent from the floor (7-of-24). McLean led the Flames in the first as the junior scored 15 points on 7-of-8 shooting from the field. The second half didn't prove to be any better for the Highlanders as the closest the visitors got was 33 points on two separate occasions during the first three minutes. Anthony Smith's jumper off a feed from Justin Holland at the 13:35 mark gave Liberty a 40-point cushion it would never relinquish. The tandem of McLean and Blair paced the way for the Flames again as McLean led the team by scoring 26 points on 11-of-13 shooting from the field, followed by Blair's 24 points, four assists and two steals. Porter followed with 10 points and seven boards and Damien Hubbard pulled down a game-high eight rebounds. The scoring performance allowed Blair to climb up another rung on the Big South all-time scoring list as he moved into eighth place by passing Mark Mochnik of Campbell (1989-93) who finished his career with 1,635 points. Blair, who has 1,654 career points, now stands just 10 points shy of seventh place on the conference's list as Winthrop's LaShawn Coulter (1992-95) finished his career with 1,664 points. Houghton was led by Luke Mortenson as the guard was the only Highlander to reach double figures with 11 points. Anzuluni came off the bench to lead the team with five rebounds.

Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty University Head Men's Basketball Coach Randy Dunton collected his 100th career collegiate coaching win as Liberty (3-1) defeated Southern Virginia (4-7) on Monday night at the Vines Center, 109-64. The Flames wasted no time getting the scoring going as they took the opening tip and scored on their first possession when Damien Hubbard hit a jumper in the lane 26 seconds into the opening period, giving Liberty the 2-0 lead. Hubbard then extended the lead to 4-0 on an identical jumper from the paint with 18:34 left in the period. The Flames stretched the lead to 7-0 on an Alex McLean lay-up at the 16:48 mark followed by an Anthony Smith free throw at 16:03. Southern Virginia was held scoreless until 15:41 left in the first half when Tanner Johnson hit a jumper from the corner to cut the Flames lead to 7-2. Once Southern Virginia got on the scoreboard, Liberty continued on an 11-7 run capped by a B.J. Jenkins three-point basket from the corner at 12:08 left in the half, giving the Flames the 18-9 advantage. The Flames then went on two large runs started by an 11-3 run capped by a lay-up by Larry Blair off a Tyler Baker steal, giving Liberty the 29-12 lead with 8:14 left in the opening period. The Flames continued to break the game open following that run up with a 15-4 run finished off by a Blair three-point basket from the corner at 2:59 in the half, giving Liberty the 44-16 advantage. Southern Virginia closed out the half on an 11-2 run closing the gap to 46-27 on a David Borland tip-in off a Dallas Rivera miss with 25 seconds remaining. The Flames tried to get one more basket, but Blair's three-point attempt with 1.1 seconds left did not connect as time expired. The Flames opened the half on a 9-2 run capped by an Anthony Smith lay-up on a Hubbard pass, making it 55-29 with 17:19 remaining in the game. Blair led the way with 18 points for the Flames moving him into seventh all-time in the Big South in career scoring and he passed Ed Vickers for sixth all-time on the Liberty all-time scoring list. Four other Flames scored in double figures as McLean recorded his second double-double of the season with 17 points and 10 rebounds. Smith scored 17 points on 7-of-11 shooting and Jenkins scored a season-high 16 points while connecting on 3-of-6 from three-point range. Baker rounds out the top performers with a career-high 13 points on 3-of-5 shooting from the three-point arc. Hubbard grabbed a game and career-high 12 rebounds as the Flames out rebounded the Knights 61-22. Southern Virginia struggled all night from the field finishing the game shooting 31.0 percent on 18-of-58 shooting. Johnson led the Knights with 18 points on 7-of-18 shooting. Johnson, who came into the game hitting on 41.1 percent of his three-point attempts, was only 1-of-9 from beyond the arc. Dallas Rivera rounds out the top scorers for the Knights with 13 points.

Liberty (4-1) overcame a 17-3 deficit early in the first half to beat Conference USA foe East Carolina (4-2) at the Vines Center on Saturday night, 64-56. The Flames defeated East Carolina for the first time after going winless in five previous meetings. The victory also marked the Flames first win ever over a Conference USA foe. East Carolina got on the board to open the contest on a three-point basket by Courtney Captain to give the Pirates the 3-0 lead 20 seconds into the game. After Anthony Smith hit one of two free throws, Captain got a lay-up on a fast break to extend the lead to 5-1 with 18:42 left in the first half. East Carolina extended the lead to 6-1, after John Fields hit the one of two free throws. Darrell Jenkins then pushed the advantage to 9-1 after hitting a three-point basket from the corner with 16:16 left in the half. Captain followed by hitting a jumper at 15:38 to make it an 11-1 Pirate lead. After a Jeremy Ingram basket at 14:20 made it a 13-1 game, the Flames got their first field goal of the contest at 13:57 as Larry Blair fed Alex McLean to make it 13-3. However, it was a Russell Monroe thunderous dunk on a B.J. Jenkins pass with 8:54 left in the first half which got the Liberty crowd and the Flames on track. Monroe's dunk was so powerful, the shot clock slid halfway out of its casing above the basket. The rim rocker cut the lead to 17-7 East Carolina, but sent the Flames on an 18-13 run to close out the half. The run left the Pirates with a 26-21 lead at the half. The Flames started the second half on a 5-2 run to cut the Pirates lead to 28-26 when Blair hit a wide open three-point basket with 18:12 left in the game. After being down 17-3 with 12:04 left in the first half, the Flames tied it up at 30 a piece as Blair hit both free throws at 15:34 left in the game. Liberty then took their first lead of the game with 14:49 left when Jenkins took the ball coast-to-coast for a lay-up giving the Flames their first advantage at 32-30. Ingram gave the Pirates a one-point lead after banking a three-point shot at 14:07 left in the contest to make it, 33-32. Jenkins then picked Cory Farmer's pocket and laid the ball in, after the Pirate secured a defensive rebound under the Flames basket, giving Liberty a 34-33 advantage with 13:25 left in the game. Farmer hit a jumper to regain the lead for the Pirates at 35-34, but back to back baskets on transition from McLean and Jenkins extended the Flames lead to 38-35 with 11:43 left in the game. The Flames went on a 6-0 run to extend their lead to 44-35 on a McLean basket with 10:03 left in the game. The Pirates tried to comeback, but were unable as the Flames held a 10-3 advantage over the first three minutes of play to close out East Carolina and secure the win. McLean collected his third double-double of the season with a game highs with 17 points and 11 rebounds for the Flames. Blair collected 15 points, while Jenkins chipped in 12 points, three assists and three steals off the bench in the win. Captain scored 16 points on 6-of-16 shooting and Darrell Jenkins scored 12 points in the losing cause. The win gives Liberty its fourth straight win.

Game 6
Lynchburg, Va.

Liberty (5-1) won its fifth-straight game behind 21 points from Larry Blair as the Flames beat St. Francis (2-4) on Monday night at the Vines Center, 84-67. St. Francis jumped out to a quick 6-0 lead capped by two free throws by Chris Berry at 18:06. The Flames came charging back going on a 9-2 run of their own capped by a jumper from the corner by Blair with 16:04 remaining in the first half to give the Flames the 9-8 lead. Over the next five minutes both teams went back and forth as the Flames held a 10-9 advantage after a lay-up by Anthony Smith at the 11:36 mark in the first half giving Liberty the 19-17 lead. The Red Flash then snapped off a 10-4 run, capped by a basket from Devin Sweeney to give St. Francis the 27-23 lead with 7:23 left in the opening period. The first half continued to be a battle as the Flames held a 16-14 advantage over the final seven minutes of the first half, but it was the Red Flash who took the 41-39 lead into the locker room. An Alex McLean dunk with 58 seconds left in the half tied the game up at 39 apiece but he was tagged for a technical foul for slapping the back board, giving two free shots to St. Francis. Sweeney hit both the shots to take the two-point advantage into the half when a Blair shot from the right elbow didn't fall with three second remaining. St. Francis shot 61.9 percent from the field on 14-of-27 shooting. It was the first time all season an opponent shot over 50 percent in the opening half against the Flames. The Flames opened the second half on a 6-2 run to take a 45-43 lead with 17:30 left in the game after Rell Porter sank two free throws. The Flames then went on an 10-3 run capped by a Jenkins three-point basket from the corner followed by a Blair runner in the lane to give the Flames a 55-46 lead with 13:26 remaining in the game. The Flames increase their lead to 67-53 after a 12-7 Liberty run culminated on an alley-oop dunk by Smith on a pass from Jenkins with 7:40 remaining in the game. The Flames then continued the fire proceeding on a 10-4 run capped off on a fast break basket by Smith on a feed from Holland giving the Flames a 77-59 lead with 4:31 left in the game. Over the final four minutes the Flames and Red Flash were neck and neck as Liberty clinched its fifth-straight home victory of the season. The last time the Flames won five-straight home games was during the 2003-04 campaign, a season that culminated with the Big South Championship. The Red Flash were as cold in the second half shooting as they were hot in the first half, hitting only 32.3 percent of their attempts on 10-of-31 shooting. The Flames however continue to fire on all cylinders shooting 66.7 percent from the field in the second half on 16-of-24 shooting and an impressive 58.2 percent on 32-of-55 from the field on the game. The Flames had five players score in double figures spearheaded by Blair's game-high 21 points on 9-of-12 shooting and Smith's 19 points on 8-of-9 shooting. McLean scored 12 points and grabbed four rebounds despite playing with severe flu like symptoms. Damien Hubbard scored a season-high 12 points and Jenkins rounds out the top performers with 10 points, two assists and two steals in 23 minutes of play compounding on his Big South Freshman of the Week honors from last week. The Red Flash were led by Sweeney who scored 20 points while grabbing seven rebounds and Chris Berry who scored 15 points on 5-of-12 shooting. The victory marked the first win for the Flames after three previous meetings with St. Francis.

Game 7
Lynchburg, Va.

Larry Blair moved up two spots to fifth place on the Big South's all-time scoring list and one spot on Liberty's all-time scoring list as he collected a game-high 18 points in helping Liberty (6-1) defeat Longwood (3-8) on Saturday night at the Vines Center, 89-61. The win is the Flames' six-straight equaling the nation's 12th-best current winning streak and serves as the best Liberty start since the 1999-2000 season when the Flames started 7-1. The Flames started quickly jumping out to a 15-5 run capped by an Anthony Smith three-point basket from the corner on Alex McLean assist with 14:58 left in the first half. The Flames followed that run up with a 12-6 run capped by a rim shattering one-handed dunk by Russell Monroe, making it 27-13 on a B.J. Jenkins pass with 8:32 left in the first half. Monroe was fouled on the play but missed the ensuing free throw. The Lancers held a 13-10 advantage which included an 11-0 run when history was made at the Vines Center. Blair pulled up for a jumper from the left elbow sinking a basket giving him 1,716 career points, helping him pass Peter Aluma for fifth all-time in both the Big South and Liberty all-time scoring lists. Blair becomes Liberty's all-time Division I scoring leader, finishing the night with 1,726 career points. Blair's basket gave Liberty a 37-26 lead with 1:26 left in the first half. Blair then hit two free throws with seconds left as he took a 39-26 lead into the half. The story of the first half was 26 personal fouls called between the two teams, leaving both sides in foul trouble at the break. The second half started out as a defensive juggernaut as neither team could get any shots to fall. The Flames held a 6-5 advantage, giving them the 45-31 lead with 15:13 left in the game after Blair laid it up off a fast break. Behind Jenkins, the Flames extended the lead to 19, making it 50-31 after the freshman scored back-to-back baskets capped by a three-point shot from the top of the key with 13:50 left in the game. The Lancers went on a 9-4 run capped an alley oop by Kirk Williams on a Kevin Swecker pass making it 54-40 with 11:40 left in the game. The Flames came roaring back opening up a 10-2 run which gave Liberty their biggest lead of the game at 64-42 when Tyler Baker hit a three-point basket off a Justin Holland pass with 9:20 left in the game. Both teams traded baskets for the next five minutes with the Flames holding a 9-8 advantage after Rell Porter hit a three-point basket off a Blair pass with 4:20 left in the game making it 73-50. The Flames put the afterburners on increasing their large lead of the game at 33 points after a 16-6 run capped by a Smith jumper on a Holland pass making it 89-56 with 1:49 left in the game. The Lancers closed out the game on a 5-0 run but it was too little as the Flames grab the 89-61 win. The Flames shot a 59.4 percent on 19-of-32 shooting from the field in the second half while hitting 6-of-10 from three point range. The Flames defense held the Lancers to 35.1 percent shooting from the field for the game and out rebounded Longwood 42-32. Blair led the way with 18 points and grabbed seven rebounds. McLean scored 17 points and grabbed nine rebounds and Smith scored 10 points and grabbed eight rebounds. Porter, Jenkins and Baker round out the top scorers with 10 points a piece. Longwood had three players in double figures with Brandon Giles leading the squad with 13 points, followed by Kirk Williams who scored 12 points off the bench on 6-of-10 shooting. Husein Pistoljevic rounds out the Longwood top performers putting 11 points up in the losing cause. Maurice Sumter, the Lancers' leading scorer at 18.1 points per game coming into the contest, finished with seven points on 2-of-13 shooting.

Game 8
Loretto, Pa.

The Flames lost their 16th-straight road game as St. Francis (4-5) defeated Liberty (6-2) on Saturday night at DeGou Arena, 70-56, snapping Liberty's current six-game winning streak. The game served as the debut of Dwight Brewington, who transferred from Providence last spring but had to sit out the first seven games due to the NCAA transfer rule. Brewington finished the game with a team-high 16 points to go along with five rebounds, three assists and three steals. The Red Flash started the game on a 10-0 run capped by three-straight free throws by J.R. Enright after he was fouled by Alex McLean on a three-point attempt with 14:23 remaining in the first half. The Flames remained scoreless until the 13:29 mark in the first half when Brewington streaked toward the basket, scoring on a lay up to make it 10-2 to give him his first career points as a Flame. Brewington pulled the Flames within six, 10-4, the next time down the court when he grabbed a B.J. Jenkins miss and tipped it back in, making 12-47 left in the first half. The basket was part of a 18-6 run the Flames went on to grab a 20-16 lead with 5:39 remaining in the first half after a Larry Blair lay-up on transition. The Red Flash then went on a 5-0 run to take retake the lead at 21-20 when Cale Nelson hit a three-point basket with 4:32 left in the half. The Red Flash continued their surge with three more points that finished with a lay up by Marquis Ford with 2:24 left in the first half. Ford was fouled on the play by Tyler Baker and hit the ensuing free throw to make it 24-20. The Flames were able to tie the game up before the half on two Blair baskets with the second basket coming at the buzzer to send the teams into halftime tied at 24 apiece. The Red Flash started the second half just as strong as they started the first as they opened with a 7-2 run to take a 31-26 lead with 15:51 left in the game when Chris Berry hit one-of-two free throws after being fouled by Brewington. Baker then hit a three-point basket to get the Flames within two points, 31-29, with 15:23 left in the game but that was as close as Liberty would get the rest of the night as the Red Flash used a near-perfect outing from the free throw line, including 20-of-25 in the second half, to seal the victory. The Red Flash responded with a 20-10 run that was capped by a three-point basket by Nelson with 5:48 left in the game. During that span two three-point baskets by Ford really sealed the deal for the Red Flash as the remaining five-plus minutes of the game were pretty even with St. Francis holding the 21-17 advantage to take the 70-56 win. The Flames suffered the 14-point loss despite registering five more field goals (24 to 19) than home-standing St. Francis. The Red Flash won the game at the free throw line where they were 26-of-31 for the contest while the Flames were a perfect 4-of-4 in limited action at the charity stripe. The Flames were held to just 34.8 percent from the field on 24-of-69 shooting, marking the team's second-lowest output of the season with the lowest coming in the team's other loss at Oklahoma (30.2) in the season opener. Joining Brewington on the top scoring list for the Flames was Blair who scored 11 points on 5-of-19 shooting in his worst shooting performance since he went 8-of-23 at Oklahoma. Anthony Smith rounded out Liberty's top scorers with 11 points on 5-of-9 shooting.

Game 9
Buffalo, N.Y.

Dwight Brewington scored 16 points, grabbed five rebounds and blocked three shots, but it wasn't enough as the Flames (6-3) dropped their 17th-straight road game 72-66 to Buffalo, Monday night at Alumni Arena. The scoring started quickly with Vadim Fedotov scoring in the paint 33 seconds into the game to stake Buffalo to a 2-0 lead. The Flames quickly countered on a Brewington three-point basket from the corner for a 3-2 lead with 18:59 left in the first half. The Bulls then went on a 7-0 run to take a 9-3 lead on a lay up in the paint by Kambi Laleye with 16:44 left in the first half. Both teams traded three-point baskets as Damien Hubbard hit for the Flames followed by a make by Eric Moore. The basket by Moore gave the Bulls a 12-6 lead with 16:00 left to play in the first half. Liberty then went on a 14-5 run, taking a 20-17 lead on a basket by Russell Monroe in the paint with 6:30 left. The remaining six minutes of the opening half saw the teams trade baskets as the Flames went into halftime with a 30-27 lead. The Flames started off the second half on a 6-4 advantage to take a 36-31 lead on a lay up by Brewington with 18:20 left. The largest lead of night by Liberty soon disappeared as the Bulls went on a 12-6 run, capped by a Parnell Smith lay up with 13:39 left in the game. The Bulls followed their first run with a mini 5-2 run to make it 48-42 on a Greg Gamble lay up with 10:02 left. The Flames were able to tie the game up at 54 apiece after going on a 12-6 run, capped by an Anthony Smith three-point basket from the corner with 6:11 left in the contest. Liberty was unable to get any closer as Buffalo used a 10-2 burst for a 64-56 lead on a three-point basket by Eric Moore with 2:16 left. In the closing minutes, the Flames tried to foul to get the ball back in the game, but the Bulls were solid from the line. The Flames held a 10-8 advantage to in the games closing minutes, but it wasn't enough as Buffalo held on to the six-point win. The Flames for the second game in the row came up on the short end of the free throw battle. Buffalo went to the line 30 times versus six trips for Liberty. In it last two games, opponent's attempt 61 free throw attempts compared to 10 for the Flames. Brewington led the way for Liberty with 16 points, five rebounds, two assists and three blocks. Larry Blair moved into fourth place all-time in the Big South in scoring as he scored 14 points and dished out a game-best six assists. Smith scored 15 points and Alex McLean scored 11 points and grabbed seven rebounds in the setback. Rell Porter fouled out in only 9 minutes of action for the Flames. The Bulls were led by Eric Moore who had a game-high 19 points, while going 4-of-10 from three-point range. Gamble collected a double-double with 15 points and 15 boards. Parnell Smith had 13 points and six rebounds, while Andy Robinson had 11 points and six rebounds. The Bulls won the game on the boards as they out rebounded the Flames 52-31. The Flames scored more field goals than the Bulls and shot better from the floor, 28-of-65 for Liberty versus 24-of-64.

Game 10
Lynchburg, Va.

Alex McLean breaks a Vines Center record with 17 rebounds, but it wasn't enough as Lipscomb (8-4) defeated Liberty (6-4) on Thursday evening, 66-61. The loss was the Flames third straight and first at home this season, breaking a six-game home winning streak. The game started out very even as both teams were neck and neck with the Bisons holding the 10-9 advantage when Michael Teller hit a lay-up with 15:55 remaining in the first period. The Flames then took the lead on a 5-0 run to make it 14-10 on a three-point basket from the corner by Larry Blair off a Dwight Brewington pass at 15:10 in the first half. Lipscomb then went off on a 9-2 run that was capped by a LaKory Daniels jumper with 11:10 left in the first half, making it a 19-16 game in favor of the Bisons. The rest of the first half remained very close with the Flames holding an 18-15 advantage over the remaining 11 minutes. The Bisons took a 35-34 lead into the half as the Flames closed out the half on a 4-0 run capped by two free throws by Blair with 47 seconds left. After being outrebounded by 21 rebounds at Buffalo on Monday night, the Flames outrebounded the Bison by 13 rebounds in the first half. However, Lipscomb became the second team to shoot over 50 percent in the first half against the Flames this year. St. Francis was the first team to do so on Dec. 4 when they shot 51.9 percent in the opening period of the Flames' 84-67 victory. Lipscomb jumped out to a 42-36 lead to start the second half b-way of a 7-2 run that was capped off by a Hopkins basket in the paint. That was all that the Bisons needed as the rest of the game was even as the Flames held a 25-24 advantage the rest of the way. Blair led the way for the Flames with 20 points and three assists. Blair fouled out with 25 seconds remaining, marking the first time in Blair's 101 career games that he fouled out. McLean collected his fourth double-double of the season as he scored 12 points to go with his 17 boards. Brewington collected his first double-double with the Flames as he scored 17 points on 8-of-12 shooting while grabbing a season-high 10 rebounds. Ard led the way for the Bisons with 24 points on 5-of-13 shooting, including going 13-of-13 from the free throw line. Ard's 24 points is the most by an opponent this season against the Flames. Longar Longar of Oklahoma had the previous high of 21 in the season opener. Brian Fisk chipped in 12 points in the win.

Alex McLean collected his fifth double-double of the season but it wasn't enough as the Liberty Flames (6-5) dropped their 18th-straight road game as the BYU Cougars (8-4) won 73-59 at the Marriott Center on Thursday night. The loss is the Flames' fourth straight after Liberty opened the year with a 6-1 mark. The game started off neck-and-neck as both teams traded baskets back and forth. The game stood at 6-6 with 14:27 left in the first half when Dwight Brewington scored in the paint. The Cougars then went on a 5-0 run capped by a basket by Fernando Malman with 13:31 left in the half, giving BYU an 11-6 advantage. The Flames cut the lead back to 11-10 when McLean pounded a basket in from the paint with 10:53 left in the half. The Cougars responded by scoring 12 of the game's next 16 points ending with a Keena Young jumper with 6:06 left in the first half, pushing BYU's lead up to nine points, 23-14. The Flames closed out the half on an 11-6 run capped by a pair of free throws from Brewington to trim the lead to four points, 29-25, at the break. The Cougars came out of the locker room and jumped on the Flames early, starting with a 13-2 run that was capped off by Trent Plaisted going one-of-two from the free throw line, making it 42-27 with 14:02 left in the game. And the run was all BYU needed as the Flames held a slight 32-31 advantage over the remaining minutes of the game, but never managed to get any closer than seven points at 8:29 after a Brewington three-pointer. McLean collected his fifth double-double of the season and second in a row with his 14 points and 10 rebounds. Larry Blair moved into fourth place on the Liberty all-time scoring list as he scored 12 points. Brewington chipped in 14 points on 5-of-9 shooting in the loss. Young led the way for BYU with a game-high 17 points and Sam Burgess scored 12 points in the win.

Despite a better shooting percentage and outrebounding their opponent, it was turnovers that proved too costly for the Flames (6-6) as Liberty committed 14 first half turnovers that led to an 85-81 loss at the hands of the Seton Hall Pirates (8-3) on Friday night at the Marriott Center. The game served as both team's second contest of the BYU Holiday Classic. The Flames controlled the game at the start, taking a 10-7 advantage on a basket by Alex McLean with 16:22 left in the first half. But, that would end up being Liberty's biggest lead of the night as the Pirates responded with a 20-8 run capped by a Eugene Harvey basket with 6:13 left in the half making it 27-18. The remainder of the first half was a back and forth battle with Seton Hall outscoring the Flames by just two points, 15-13, over the final six minutes of the period, allowing the Pirates to take a 42-31 lead into the break. Larry Blair uncharacteristically had five first half turnovers as part of the Flames 14 turnovers of the half. The second half didn't start much better for the Flames as they got down by as many as 17 when Brian Laing hit a jumper to make it 50-33 in the Pirates' favor with 17:59 left in the game. The Flames came battling back, scoring 13-straight points capped by a McLean lay up down low, trimming Seton Hall's lead to 50-46 with 14:36 left in the game. The game remained close over the next few minutes until Blair broke lose for a jumper to tie the game at 65-65 with 6:58 left in the game. The Flames never led but continued to tie the game four more times with the final time coming with 49 seconds remaining when Dwight Brewington put back his own missed shot to tie the game at 79-79. Laing then made a shot and was fouled by Damien Hubbard with 33 seconds left. Laing made the ensuing free throw to give his team a three-point lead, 82-79. Brewington then turned the ball over and had to foul Paul Gause who made one-of-two free throws to take an 83-79 lead with 27 seconds left. A missed shot by McLean led to a lay up in transition by Eugene Harvey to make it 85-79 and seal the win for the Pirates. The Flames drop their fifth-straight game despite shooting 51.7 percent from the field on 30-of-58 shooting. The Pirates shot 45.3 percent on 29-of-64 shooting. The difference in the game was the 20 turnovers the Flames had against the Pirates' 10. Blair led the way for the Flames scoring double figures for the 32nd-consecutive game as he had a team-high 22 points on 9-of-18 shooting. Brewington had a season and Liberty career-high 20 points on 6-of-12 shooting. Anthony Smith chipped in 17 points on 7-of-10 shooting and McLean collected his third-straight double-double and sixth of the season with 13 points and 15 rebounds. Laing led the way for the Pirates with a game-high 23 points and Harvey chipped in 18 in the win.

The Liberty University Flames (6-7) committed a season-high 21 turnovers to overshadow Larry Blair's 26 points as Oral Roberts (7-7) earned a 90-58 victory at the Marriott Center on Saturday night. The game served as each team's third and final game of the BYU Holiday Classic. The loss marks the Flames' sixth-straight setback dating back to December 15 when Liberty fell at St. Francis, 70-56, which at the time halted a six-game winning streak. The Flames never led as Oral Roberts started out on a 21-11 run capped off by one of four first half three-point baskets by Moses Ehambe with 12:13 left in the first half. The Golden Eagles held control the remainder of the first half in part to Liberty's 13 first half turnovers. Oral Roberts would have taken a 13-point lead into the half if it wasn't for Dwight Brewington's jumper in the lane with 55 seconds left to cut Oral Roberts' lead to 11, 43-32, at the break. The Flames looked to make a second half comeback like the night before against Seton Hall by starting period on a 4-0 run after a Blair jumper with 18:43 left in the game making it 43-36. But, that was as close as Liberty would get as Oral Roberts extended its lead on tremendous second half shooting as the Golden Eagles closed out the game on a 25-15 run to seal the victory, handing the Flames their largest margin loss of the season. Blair shined for the Flames scoring 13 of the Liberty's first 26 points in the game on the way to his 33rd-straight double-figure scoring game and 43rd time scoring 20 points or more in his 104 career games. Alex McLean added 11 points and six rebounds in the loss. Oral Roberts had five players in double figures led by Caleb Green who scored 19 points to pace the victors. Ken Tutt and Ehambe each added 17 points and Marchello Vealy and Shawn King added 16 and 11 points, respectively, in the win. The Flames 21 turnovers created numerous scoring opportunities which allowed the Golden Eagles to net 26 points, aiding Liberty's loss despite a strong shooting performance of 45.3 percent on 24-of-53 from the floor. Oral Roberts shot 54.7 percent from the field on 29-of-53 shooting to become the first team all season to shoot over 50 percent from the field in a game against the Flames.

Despite forcing the defending national champions to turn the ball over 18 times it wasn't enough as the Liberty Flames (6-8) fell to the third-ranked Florida Gators (13-2) on Tuesday night at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center, 89-58. The score remained close earlier as Anthony Smith hit a three-point basket from the corner to cut a Florida lead to two points, 9-7, with 10:01 remaining in the opening period. But, the Gators went right down the court and answered with a three-point basket of their own by a wide open Taurean Green to make it 12-7 with 15:44 left in the half. Larry Blair responded on the ensuing trip down the court by hitting a jumper to cut the lead to three points, 12-9, with 15:19 left in the half. However, that was as close as the Flames would be as the Gators pounded the ball down low the rest of the half, finishing the period on a 40-17 run to take a 52-26 advantage into the break. The Flames came out strong in the second half as they remained relatively even on second half scoring as Liberty scored 20 out of the first 35 points in the half, capped by a Blair steal that transitioned into a powerful one-handed dunk by Dwight Brewington to make it 67-46 with 10:39 left in the game. The Gators closed out the game on a 22-12 run to take home the 89-58 victory, giving Liberty their 19th-straight road loss and seventh-straight loss overall. Smith led all scorers with 18 points on 8-of-12 shooting, including 2-of-3 from three point range. Smith quieted the Gator crowd with two spectacular dunks, both coming off transition and assists by Blair including an alley oop. Blair had his three-game streak of 20 point performances against Top 25 teams snapped as he finished with 17 points on 7-of-19 shooting to go along with a season-high six steals. Blair's streak consisted of games against No. 10 N.C. State (22 points), No. 23 Maryland (30 points), and No. 7 Kentucky (26 points). Brewington rounded out the top scorers with 15 points on 6-of-10 shooting. Alex McLean scored only three points and grabbed one rebound while spending most of the game on the bench in foul trouble. Four of the five Gator starters netted double figures led by Joakim Noah who scored a team-high 15 points on 7-of-8 shooting. Green and Corey Brewer each scored 14 points and Al Horford chipped in 12 points in the win. The Flames won three statistical categories in the loss. Liberty forced Florida to turn the ball over 18 times and 15 of those were off of Flame steals. In addition to grabbing more steals, the Flames also shot better from the free throw line by a narrow margin, 56.3 percent to 50.0 percent. The Flames shot 41.1 percent from the field on 23-of-56 shooting and the Gators barely missed hitting on 61.8 percent of their shots on 34-of-55 shooting. But, the difference in the game was the front court as Florida outrebounded the Flames by 27, 46-19.
