Liberty University Press is the publishing arm of the world’s largest Christian university, dedicated to the creation and support of credible academic materials and family-friendly publications. Liberty University Press books are being read in college classrooms, studied by churches and Christian organizations, and enjoyed in homes around the country.

At Liberty University Press, we seek Christ-honoring and high-quality content from all areas of literature that meet the following criteria:

1. Unapologetically Christian
2. Conservative
3. Credible
4. Academic

Liberty University Press remains at the forefront of the industry by introducing new technologies and services that will help Christian authors achieve their personal goals in print, electronic publishing, or both, in large quantities or one at a time.

You have something great to say to the world, and we’re offering you a way to say it: Liberty University Press.

PRAISE FOR OUR BOOKS

“Stuart Schwartz is smart, timely, and right on target...”
Bruce Kirk, 5-time Television Emmy award winner and professor

“It Only Hurts When I Listen’ shows the unique power of radical servant listening in building and transforming people and relationships. Love and serve others — start by listening to them.”
Ken Blanchard, coauthor of “The One Minute Manager” and “The Servant Leader”

“Ron offers a personal, poignant, and spiritual account of a journey through the quagmire of race in America, a journey that leads to redemption for all. Challenging and conciliatory, Americans of all races will be stirred by this book.”
Ken Blackwell, coauthor of “The Blueprint: Obama’s Plan to Subvert the Constitution and Build an Imperial Presidency”
