On the title page, center each element and use headline-style capitalization

Title in Bold
Subtitle (if present) in Bold

Unless local guidelines say otherwise, titles should be in boldface

If a paper has a subtitle, put the main title on one line followed by a colon, and the subtitle on a new line with one blank line in between.

First and Last name
Class: Title of class
Month Day, Year

For most papers, this is the only front matter that is needed. However, consult local guidelines or instructors for additional information.
