PUBLIC POLICY ANALYSIS

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course will examine the manner in which various worldviews affect American Public Policy, with particular emphasis on the contrast between the Judeo-Christian worldview and secular humanism, Marxism/Leninism, and Islamic Fundamentalism.

RATIONALE
Public Policy Analysis provides an introduction, foundation, and framework for the Public Administration program/concentration by introducing students to the policy and policy analysis considerations from a public administration perspective and by preparing students to approach these considerations from a Judeo-Christian worldview.

I. PREREQUISITE
   For information regarding prerequisites for this course, please refer to the Academic Course Catalog.

II. REQUIRED RESOURCE PURCHASE
   Click on the following link to view the required resource(s) for the term in which you are registered: http://bookstore.mbsdirect.net/liberty.htm

III. ADDITIONAL MATERIALS FOR LEARNING
   A. Computer with basic audio/video output equipment
   B. Internet access (broadband recommended)
   C. Microsoft Office
IV. Measurable Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

A. Evaluate how ideas affect and inform public policy and policy analysis

B. Analyze the sources, characteristics, and influence of particular philosophies and ideas on American Public Policy and policy analysis.

C. Evaluate the tangible implications of public policies and the ideas affecting them, as to their impacts on individuals, groups, and/or society.

D. Analyze public policies from a practical and Judeo-Christian perspective.

V. Course Requirements and Assignments

A. Textbook readings and lecture presentations

B. Course Requirements Checklist

After reading the Course Syllabus and Student Expectations, the student will complete the related checklist found in Module/Week 1.

C. Discussion Board Forums (5)

These assignments are meant to provide preparation for the policy briefs that are due later on in those assigned weeks. In addition to completing the two required posts for these discussion board assignments, students may reply to their classmates if they would like. Thus, each Discussion Board Forum allows for a more free-flowing discussion on key module/week topics and might allow students to assist one another in grasping the key ideas for the assigned module and the policy brief assignments. The student will be required to complete these according to the instructions and rubric in the course.

D. Activities (2)

The student will watch the assigned presentations and complete the interactive quizzes embedded within them. Each quiz can be completed as many times as necessary to move forward to the next part of the presentation.

E. Worldview Analysis Essay

The student will write a 1½–2-page overview of the key tenets associated with a piece of legislation of his or her choosing. The student must link goals and objectives to 1 of the three major worldviews discussed in the corresponding presentation. The essay must include 4–5 scholarly sources cited in current APA format.

F. Synthesis Paper

The student will write a 3–5-page Synthesis Paper in current APA format in which he or she will compare and contrast a biblical worldview learned from the course with different worldviews. The paper must include at least 3–5 references in addition to the course textbooks, presentations in Modules/Weeks 1–2, and the Bible.
G. Policy Brief Quiz

The student will complete the Policy Brief Quiz after watching the Discussion Board and Policy Brief Presentation and reading the instructions and grading rubric for the Policy Brief assignment. This quiz is designed to help the student understand the key requirements of the Policy Brief assignment. The quiz can be taken as many times as needed to obtain full credit.

H. Policy Briefs (5)

The student will write five 1½–2-page Policy Briefs in current APA format in which the May-Can-Should model is applied in the context of the policy focus for the assigned module/week. The paper must include at least 3–5 references in addition to the course textbooks, presentations in Modules/Weeks 1–2, and the Bible.

I. Research Paper

The student will write a 10–12-page research-based paper in current APA format that focuses on the May-Can-Should model as applied to a policy issue of the student’s choice. The paper must include at least 20 references in addition to the course textbooks, presentations in Modules/Weeks 1–2, and the Bible.
