Expectations for the PL Team Members

1. That you will have a passion for God. See Ps. 42:1

2. That you will have a purpose driven life. Your purpose will allow you to focus on what you believe is the most important things in life.
   Jesus did- Lk. 19:10    Paul did- Phil. 1:21

3. That you will live by a set of principles that guides your life leading to a solid character and a life of integrity. See Prov. 20:7; Ps. 101

   In order to be a leader a man must have followers. And to have followers, a man must have their confidence. Hence the supreme quality for a leader is unquestionably integrity. Without it, no real success is possible, no matter whether it is on a section gang, a football field, in an army, or in an office. If a man’s associates find him guilty of phoniness, if they find that he lacks forthright integrity, he will fail. His teachings and his actions must square with each other. The first great need, therefore is integrity and high purpose.
   - Dwight D. Eisenhower

4. That you will be a person of prayer. See I Tim. 2:1-2

5. That you will prepare yourself in order to give your people the very best. See II Tim. 2:15
   *Prior preparation prevents poor performance.
   *Prior preparation provides powerful performance.

6. You will plan your year with “pay off days” and prioritize your monthly, weekly and daily schedule with first things always being first.
   *You should own a calendar that goes through the year of 2002 and 2003 that is able to show you the year, the months and the weeks. Depending on your schedule you may even want one that shows day by day. Plan your year, your semester, your month, your week and then you will only have to work your day. Failure to plan is planning to fail.

7. That you will perform assignments, doing them completely, effectively, and efficiently while striving always for excellence.
   See Prov. 10:4-5; 13:4 and 20:6

8. That you will pay the price in order to be productive in ministry, doing what is necessary (win). Ministry is hard work. See Nehemiah 4

9. That there will be progress in your walk with God (See I Tim. 4:15) as you pursue godliness (See I Tim. 4:7-8) in your own life and that there will be progress in your ability to lead because you are teachable.

10. That you will be people oriented, seeing their potential.
    See II Tim. 1:1-6

11. That you will be pro-active in doing ministry and pour your life into your students as well as work to produce new leaders for the future.
    See I Thess. 2:8 and II Tim. 2:2

12. That you will think properly about yourself, not becoming prideful.
    God uses those who humble themselves before Him.  See Rom. 12:3

13. That you will have a positive outlook on life seeing the glass as half full with potential to be filled rather than half empty with the possibilities of running out.  See Phil. 4:4; I Thess. 5:18; Ps. 118:24

14. That you will be a problem solver, embracing them with a positive attitude.  See Prov. 14:4

15. That you will be a promoter of good, influencing others toward God.  See Neh. 13

16. That you will be a provider for the sheep (your floor), giving direction, as well as caring for them.  See Prov. 27:23-27

17. That you will be a protector of your sheep (your floor) from evil influences.  See Acts 20:28-30

18. That you will value partnering with a team to accomplish ministry because with a team you have more resources and more accountability.  See Matt. 10

19. That you will participate in team functions.  See John 2:1-12

20. That you will persevere to the end, finishing what God desires.
    See II Tim. 4:7-8
