Special Note from the Director

“Throughout my college career, I have had great experiences acting and writing here at Liberty, and now I am blessed to direct my first show. Last semester, I decided to submit Salomé to the faculty to direct this semester, and once it was approved, I was very excited to start working on this unique play about a story that is not told very often. Thank you everyone who has volunteered their time and donated to the GoFundMe, this wouldn’t have been possible without all of you.” - William Arrington
