

Faculty Group Supervision (Online)

Students will participate in weekly group supervision sessions in an online classroom format. Faculty group supervision involves working with a member of the counseling faculty working with two or more students using a tutorial and mentoring form of instruction. Practicum/internship students meet every week and count two (2) hours of class time towards faculty group supervision.

Minimum hour requirement: 2 hours per week

- Supervision occurs each week over the entire course of the A-term semester.
