Seeking Licensed Therapists LCMHC, LMFT, LCSW, Counselors, and Psychiatric Nurse Practitioners PMHNP and Associates!

Agape Counseling Associates, Inc. is a Christian Counseling private practice group, seeking Licensed Mental Health Counselors, Social Workers, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapists, and Psychiatric Nurse Practitioners to join our busy practice in our Jacksonville NC office location for full time openings.

Our relational team is committed to a mission of restoring souls to health and peace. As part of Agape, you will enjoy the benefits of collaborating with your colleagues, gaining professional development, and building your private practice with team members, who share your core values as a therapist and believer.

We are passionate about providing excellent quality, clinical Christ centered mental health counseling to families, individuals and marriages; helping them work through struggles with depression, anxiety, addictions, communication, infidelity, grief, trauma, PTSD, and co-occurring disorders. The focus of our work specifically includes, parenting strategies, childhood and teen bullying, as well as trauma-focused therapy. We are also known for our specialized skills in offering treatment for children to geriatrics and each life stage in between. At Agape, healthy marriages are important and our therapists are committed to and trained for addressing the challenges of communication, intimacy, and infidelity within marriage.

For 24 years, Agape Counseling has been a pillar in the Wilmington, Jacksonville and newly added Shallotte, North Carolina areas. Our clinicians are well-known and respected in the community because of their commitment to faith founded Clinical Christian Counseling.

Please send your resume to Kim@agape-counseling.org to be considered.

* Associate level clinicians are also welcome to apply. Some Supervision services are also available at Agape!
