

Practicum & Internship Opportunities

For Liberty University Counseling Students

Grow as a clinician in a relational, trauma-informed private practice.

Alpine Family Counseling welcomes Liberty University counseling students seeking a practicum or internship placement in Colorado Springs. Our practice emphasizes meaningful therapeutic relationships, clinical depth, and the development of confident, competent counselors.

What You'll Experience

- Clinical experience with individuals, couples, and families
- Exposure to trauma and attachment-focused treatment
- Opportunities to observe and develop skills in EMDR- and IFS-informed practice
- A collaborative private-practice environment with a strong emphasis on therapeutic relationship
- Opportunities to develop clinical judgment, case conceptualization, and professional identity

Who We're Looking For

We are interested in counseling students who are thoughtful, curious, relational, and committed to becoming effective clinicians. Students should be prepared to engage professionally with clients, participate actively in supervision, and pursue ongoing growth in their clinical skills.

Practicum and internship opportunities are considered based on current practice needs, student readiness, and available clinical capacity.

Clinical Approach & Areas of Focus

Trauma & Attachment Attachment-focused, trauma-informed care and relational interventions.	EMDR Exposure to EMDR-informed clinical work and trauma processing.	IFS-Informed Practice Learning how parts work and internal systems concepts can inform therapy.	Relational Therapy Individual, couples, and family work centered on connection and meaningful change.
--	---	---	---

Why Alpine Family Counseling?

Our goal is to help emerging clinicians move beyond simply completing required hours and toward developing a strong clinical identity. Students are encouraged to bring their own perspectives and questions while receiving guidance within a practice culture that values compassion, connection, clinical excellence, and continual learning.

INTERESTED IN A PLACEMENT?

Alpine Family Counseling • Colorado Springs, Colorado

Website: alpinefamilycounseling.com

Contact us to inquire about current practicum and internship availability.