

STUDY GUIDE for INTEGRATION EXAM

COUC/CEFS 506 – Integration of Spirituality and Counseling

King & Ford, 2024, Chapters 1-4, 22, 23, 26, 30-32

Neff & McMinn, 2020, Chapters 1 and 6

The following bullet items provide direction in your study for the Comp Exam. This study guide will help you focus on areas that the exam covers. Use this as one of the tools provided for your study.

- Define lament. (Neff & McMinn, p. 28)
- Understand the relationship between hope and lament. (Neff & McMinn, p. 39-45)
- What does the word “integration” imply? (Neff & McMinn, p. 209)
- Be familiar with the cognitive dissonance theory. (Neff & McMinn, p. 218)
- Define a Biblical worldview and identify its four major themes. (King & Ford, pp. 6-7)
- Know the ethical guidelines in Christian Integration. (King & Ford, pp. 17-18)
- Know the two primary sources involved in discovering the truth? (King & Ford, p. 24)
- Know the values conflict and Decision-Making Models. (King & Ford, pp. 42-43)
- Know the importance of CACREP accreditation for Christian Education. (King & Ford, pp. 59-60)
- Know the three professional bodies that govern the practice of counseling and the integration of faith into the counseling process. (King & Ford, p. 333)
- Know the four ways in which Christian counselors integrate faith and values related to sexuality and gender. (King & Ford, p. 334)
- Know the five characteristics of counseling advocates and leaders. (King & Ford, p. 347)
- Know Langer’s position on scientific discovery and Scripture. (King & Ford, p. 349)
- Understand the relationship between Christian integration and attachment. (King & Ford, p. 390)
- Know the difference between divine forgiveness and human forgiveness. (p. 444)
- Know Keller’s three dimensions of forgiveness (King & Ford, p. 445)
- Know the five areas of separation when death occurs. (King & Ford, pp. 466-467)
- Know the three values the church holds in helping with the mental health crisis. (King & Ford, pp. 476-477)
- Know what Implicit integration in counseling includes. (King & Ford, pp. 501-502)
- Know what Explicit integration in counseling includes. (King & Ford, pp. 503)