	*Action Plan: 1. Discuss with faculty during 2018/2019 department meeting the results of this finding, and the suitability of this measurement tool (SMGT 406 paper) moving forward. Changes are planned in the course, and this assignment is not likely to be available (in its current form) the next time this PLO is assessed. 2. Steps are currently underway to increase the connections between theory and practice as it relates to Sport Management students. Students assessed in this term have not taken the Inquiry 101 and Research 201 courses now required of all incoming students. These two courses, along with the current development of SMGT 415 (Research Methods in Sport Management), will provide students with an additional means of connecting theoretical principles learned in the classroom with applications in the field. 3. The development and upcoming deployment of Sport Management cognates will provide students with more focused degree options. The additional courses in the cognates will expose students to a greater depth of knowledge in their chosen field.

2017-2018	SLO 1: The student will be able to demonstrate critical thinking skills in evaluating economic, environmental, cultural and social impacts on sport management issues.
	Measure 1: Embedded Course Survey- SMGT Entrance and Post-Comp Survey Adequate level of competency 85% of students with a 3.0 or greater, above adequate level of competency is 80% of students with a 3.5 or greater	10	--	--	4*
	Measure 2: Program Comprehensive Examination- SMGT Comprehensive Exam Achievement target for a more than adequate level of competency is to find 80% of students correctly answering the questions identified in the items analysis	673	646	96%	2
	*Due to an unforeseen change in the data gathering process for this academic year, a very small number of students (8) took the Entrance test in SMGT 501 and only 2 students completed the Post-Comp exam survey in SMGT 699. All students who completed the assessments were in residential sections. While the mean scores for the Entrance Test (3.86) and the Post-Survey (3.52) are above the target, given the number of students who were able to be reached, the data is insufficient to draw any conclusions. Action Plan: Over the past three years 96% of students passed the Comprehensive exam on the first or second attempt, thus correctly answering questions. As of Spring 2012, all students within the M.S. in Sport Management program are required to complete the Comprehensive Exam as a graduation requirement and prerequisite for the culminating experience portion of the program.
