

Impact

Professional Development Grants for Residential Adjunct Faculty

“Impact Professional Development Grants for Residential Adjunct Faculty” are designed to encourage faculty growth, enhance student learning, and improve teaching practices by covering the expenses associated with attendance at the 2019 Conference on Higher Education Pedagogy (CHEP) on the campus of Virginia Tech, Jan. 31-Feb. 1, 2019. Applicants must be residential adjuncts with at least one semester of teaching experience at Liberty University and must be scheduled to teach during the Spring 2019 semester at Liberty. Applicants should complete Parts A&C and email it to CAD@Liberty.edu by Nov. 30.

Part A: Applicant Information
Applicant Name:
Applicant LU email:		Applicant LU ID#:
Personal Phone #:		Number of Semesters Taught at Liberty:
Department:		Name of Dean of School/College:
Department Chair's Name:		Chair's email:
Part B: Conference Information
Name of Conference:	Conference on Higher Education Pedagogy- https://chep.teaching.vt.edu/ Jan. 31-Feb. 1, 2019 The Inn at Virginia Tech & Skelton Conference Center, Blacksburg, VA
Registration Cost: (Note: Per Diem not eligible reimbursement from grant)			$300
Transportation Reimbursement: Applicant must become a LU approved driver and have a signed travel agreement.			180 mi x 54.5 cents x 2 days = $196.20
Total Estimated Cost:			$496.20
Part C: Applicant Narrative
How might your attendance Impact your professional growth (50 words or less)?
How might your attendance Impact student learning (50 words or less)?
How might your attendance Impact your teaching practices (50 words or less)?

Applicants should notify their Chair before submitting application. CAD personnel will contact applicant's Chair for approval. If selected, awardees must abide by all Impact Grant and university travel policies and procedures.