

Impact

Professional Development Grants for Residential Adjunct Faculty

Description: “Impact Professional Development Grants for Residential Adjunct Faculty,” provided by CAD, are designed to encourage faculty growth, enhance student learning, and improve teaching practices by covering expenses associated with attendance at the 2019 Conference on Higher Education Pedagogy (CHEP) on the campus of Virginia Tech, Jan. 31-Feb. 1, 2019. Conference Website: <https://chep.teaching.vt.edu/>

Funding/Eligibility: Applicants must be residential adjuncts with at least one semester of teaching experience at Liberty University and must be scheduled to teach during the Spring 2019 semester, Impact Grants fund the cost of registration for the two day CHEP conference Jan. 31–Feb. 1 and mileage reimbursement (180 miles, roundtrip x 54.5 cents x 2 days = $196.20). Per diem, meals (not provided by the conference), and lodging expenses are not covered by this grant.

Application Process/Deadline: Impact Grant application can be found on the Grants page on CAD’s website. Applications include (a) potential Impact on faculty growth; (b) potential Impact on students; and (c) potential Impact on teaching practices. Applicants should complete Parts A&C by committee, then affirmed by departmental chairs or deans.

Terms of Award: Grant recipients must be an LU approved driver and must comply with LU travel policies and procedures. Expenditures must be handled according to university travel policies and procedures.