

52ND

LIBERTY UNIVERSITY
COMMENCEMENT

College of Arts & Sciences

DEPARTMENT OF
INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

Williams Stadium

May 10, 2025 | 10 a.m.

“Blessed are those who find wisdom, those who gain understanding, for she is more profitable than silver and yields better returns than gold. She is more precious than rubies; nothing you desire can compare with her. Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor. Her ways are pleasant ways, and all her paths are peace. She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her; those who hold her fast will be blessed.”

PROVERBS 3:13-18 (NIV)

scroll down

MESSAGE from THE DEAN

On behalf of the Department of Interdisciplinary Studies and the College of Arts & Sciences, I am pleased to congratulate you on the academic achievements being commemorated today. You have worked hard to reach this milestone, and we are honored to rejoice together with you and your family and friends. You have prepared to face the complex issues of our world, and we trust that you'll be Champions for Christ in your vocations and callings. As you go forth, remember to seek wisdom from our eternal God, the source of all truth and understanding.

We are so proud of you, and we pray that God will bless you with strength and guidance as you glorify Him and serve others. God bless you!

Dr. Roger Schultz

Dean, College of Arts & Sciences

ORDER of CEREMONY

Welcome Mrs. Jamaica Conner
Online Chair,
Department of Interdisciplinary Studies

Invocation Dr. Roger Schultz
Dean, College of Arts & Sciences

Recognition of Military Personnel and Veterans Dr. Carey Roberts
Associate Dean of Online Programs,
College of Arts & Sciences

Charge to Graduates Dr. Carey Roberts
Associate Dean of Online Programs,
College of Arts & Sciences

Presentation of Degrees Dr. Roger Schultz
Dean, College of Arts & Sciences

Dr. Carey Roberts
Associate Dean of Online Programs,
College of Arts & Sciences

Dr. Alexander Mason
Associate Dean of Residential Programs,
College of Arts & Sciences

Dr. Cathy Roberts
Director of Graduate Programs,
Department of Interdisciplinary Studies

Benediction Dr. Travis Bradshaw
Director of Undergraduate Programs,
Chair of Interdisciplinary Studies