MESSAGE from the DEAN

As we gather to celebrate Commencement, I am overwhelmed with pride and joy in witnessing the culmination of your hard work and growth. At Liberty University, you have not only achieved academic excellence but have also embraced the Christian virtues that will inspire and shape future generations. As you step into the world, remember that you carry the responsibility and privilege to educate with wisdom, compassion, and integrity. Congratulations, Class of 2025! May your journey be guided by faith, and may your impact be profound in the lives of those you will lead.
