VI. Data Sharing – Nancy DeJarnette

CAEP encourages us to share candidate data with partners and receive feedback on our programs.

The following Assessment comes from the

- Initial Programs CPAST Rubric
- Advanced Programs Internship Rubric

As we review the following data, please consider:

- What are the Program Strengths?
- What could be improved or supported more?
- What trends are apparent?

A. CPAST (Initial Programs)

B. SCRIP Revised Rubric

a. The LU SOE Dispositional Evaluation Rubric, SCRIP has been revised.

b. Changes:

- i. Separate Dispositions / Behaviors into different elements in order to better align to CAEP Standards
- ii. Avoid repetition
- iii. Ability to report on more Standards

VIII. Roundtable Discussion and Feedback – Pam Griffin

When you think about the LU School of Education, what immediately comes to mind?

How well do you feel your Partnership with LU SOE is working?

What recommendations do you have for our programs and/or candidate field experiences (initial licensure and advanced licensure)?

What strengths or weaknesses do you perceive in our initial and/or advanced licensure graduates?

IX. Closing – Pam Griffin

Please contact us at soepartners@liberty.edu for any questions or concerns. Thank you so much!
