

LIBERTY

UNIVERSITY

EVENTS

Fundraising Policy

1. Tables and other resources will not be provided by Events for individual student, student group, or Liberty department fundraising unless such fundraising is part of an approved activity of Student Affairs, OSD, or University Events.
2. Financial solicitation by students, student groups, or Liberty departments is not permitted during academic classes or in any academic space including the Montview Student Union, Academic Lawn, JF Library, Science Hall, etc.
3. Students, student groups, or Liberty departments who solicit funds outside of athletic or other buildings on campus cannot sell or give away non-packaged food such as homemade desserts etc.
4. Fundraising in dorms will follow Student Affairs established policies.
5. Outside organizations that seek approval for fundraising or raising awareness of a specific cause on campus will contact:
 - a. LU Serve (Dr. Lew Weider) when fundraising is intended to address local, domestic, and or international spiritual needs.
 - b. Student Affairs (Dr. Mark Hine) when fundraising is intended to address all other needs.
