

Access Policy

The Ehrhorn Law Library’s primary patrons are students currently enrolled in the residential Juris Doctor program at Liberty University School of Law, as well as the faculty and staff that deliver that program. The law library provides secondary access to other patron groups. This document summarizes the level of library access provided to each group.

	Residential Law Students, Faculty, and Staff	Faculty and Students in Other Liberty University Programs	Members of the Legal Community (Attorneys, Judges, Scholars)	Members of the General Public
Admission to the library	Flames Pass (24 hours a day)	Flames Pass* (public hours only)	Photo ID (public hours only)	Photo ID (public hours only)
Use of unassigned seating	✓	✓	✓	✓
Use of physical collections on site	✓	✓	✓	✓
Use of public computers	✓	✓	✓	✓
Use of wireless network	✓	✓	✓	✓
Document scanning	✓	✓	✓	✓
Use of online databases	✓	As contract terms allow	As contract terms allow	As contract terms allow
Checkout privileges: Main Stacks	✓	✓	✓	✗
Printing and photocopying	✓	✓	✗	✗
Checkout privileges: Reserve	✓	✗	✗	✗
Interlibrary loan services	✓	✗	✗	✗
Use of study rooms	✓	✗	✗	✗
Assigned seating	Students only	✗	✗	✗

If you have further questions regarding access to the library, please contact the Circulation Desk:

- (434) 592-5350
- lawcirc@liberty.edu

* Undergraduate students may use the Ehrhorn Law Library for faculty-directed legal research assignments. Contact the library for approval before visiting.